Chapter 611: Is His Brain Burnt Out?

"Farewell, Exodia!"

Bakura laughed wildly, and at the same time, the sealed head of Exodia appeared on the field in a translucent form. The cracks in the dimension opened, and the taboo magic recorded in the Book of Life took effect, banishing the stone slab that sealed infinite magic power to the depths of another dimension and disappeared without a trace.

Priest Simon gritted his teeth. The situation had become increasingly out of control at this point.

The five parts of Exodia were all unique, and each part was sealed in a unique stone slab. There was no substitution or copy.

In other words, as long as one of them was banished, he would never be able to complete the unsealing ritual in this battle.

But the old man still didn't give up.

After all, he had promised the late king that he would do his best to assist the prince, the current Pharaoh. If he could contribute to the prosperity of this country, he would not hesitate to become a stepping stone.

He had to win, there was no choice.

"Because the Exodia the Forbidden One' in the GY has been removed from the game, the attack power of The Legendary Exodia Incarnate' has also been reduced." Bakura reminded, "After all, the attack power of that thing is determined based on the number of Forbidden One' monsters in the GY, right?"

[The Legendary Exodia Incarnate, ATK 4000 ATK 3000]

Priest Simon said gloomily: "Has the attack power been suppressed by the Wicked God?"

"Although that's the case, you still have an ambush card in the back row Even if God is not affected by the effects of trap cards, it still makes people a little concerned."

Bakura raised his arms high.

"Then let me be more cautious! I will sacrifice Zombino', Skull Conductor', The Wicked Eraser' all of them!"

Simon: "!"

Is he actually using the Wicked God as a sacrifice?

"At this moment, the effect of The Wicked Eraser'!" Bakura shouted, "The moment it leaves the field, all cards are sent to the graveyard!"

The dark power was overwhelming!

The darkness seemed to emerge from the mire of hell, swallowing everything in the world indiscriminately, chewing until not even the dregs were left.

"The incarnation of ultimate fear, the trembling god

The Wicked Dreadroot! ! ! "

Simon heard a thunderous sound, and three dark undercurrents rose from the ground. A huge body covered with white skulls crawled out of the dark swamp, its huge palm pressed against the ground, and its sharp bone claws cut through the darkness.

[The Wicked Dreadroot, ATK 4000]

Eraser's ability wiped out everything, and Dreadroot would follow up with a killing blow.

This was the Wicked Gods invincible OTK combo!

Bakura smiled evilly and was about to wave his hand to order the heads to be harvested, when he was surprised to find

The golden Exodia still stayed on the field after receiving the deepest darkness baptism of The Wicked Eraser!

"What a pity." Simon said, "Your Wicked God's boring tricks will not work against the incarnation with the magic power of Exodia!"

Bakura frowned: "Then the effect of 'The Wicked Dreadroot' will halve the attack power of all monsters except itself! Devil's Howling!"

The Wicked Dreadroot waved down his big hand, roared, and black sound waves erupted, carrying the power of the evil god and blasting towards The Legendary Exodia Incarnate!

However, the golden giant was standing still, holding out his huge palm through the air, pouring out magic power from the palm, and a beam of golden light shot out from the magic array, scattering the dark sound waves with one blow.

[The Legendary Exodia Incarnate, ATK 3000]

"I said," Simon shouted, "the power of the evil god has no effect on Exodia!"

The Legendary Exodia Incarnate: This card is unaffected by card effects.

"And because the Witch of the Black Forest' was eliminated, her last magic was also activated!" Simon said.

Witch of the Black Forest: When this card is sent from the field to the graveyard, you can add 1 monster with 1500 or less DEF from your Deck to your hand.

Apparently, there were no Exodia parts left in Simon's deck. So this time he chose to add the "Sangan" with a defense power of 600.

"As expected of fragments of Exodia's power, it's not easy to deal with." Bakura snorted, "But this guy's attack power is only to this extent, so I can just defeat him in battle.

Battle! The Wicked Dreadroot, attack The Legendary Exodia Incarnate! "

The Wicked god punched out his fist, and the mighty wind of the fist was like a tsunami! Exodia tried his best to defend, but his defensive circle was blown to pieces in an instant. The body of the golden giant fell down dragging pale smoke, and gradually turned into a phantom and disappeared.

[Simon, LP 2500 LP 1500]

The old man bared his teeth, and his small head was suddenly slid back by the dark torrent of the evil god, and his old bones almost fell apart.

"If you can't hold on to this level, it's still a long time before you can defeat me, old priest."

With another sarcastic comment, Bakura gently waved his hand again.

"Set two cards, I end my turn."

"It's not over yet, it's far from over." Simon stood up tenaciously, "For the sake of Pharaoh and this country, it's far from the time when I can fall!"

Another slab fell. The old man's tough eyes swept over, and he raised his hands to cover the two stone slabs.

"I set two stone slabs."

As he spoke, his expression was solemn, and his eyes were as devout as those of a pilgrim.

"Then I will call upon the guarded grounds of the Pharaoh, the sacred resting place

Temple of the Kings! "

Time and space changed, scenes switched, and the entire treasure house disappeared along with all the rare treasures everywhere. The golden temple fell out of thin air, and the stone steps seemed to grow out of the floor tiles. The gold-plated sarcophagus rose slowly, and light black smoke flowed from the gap.

"Is it the exclusive field of Pharaohs?" Bakura looked left and right.

"I won't let you act recklessly again."

Simon chanted a spell quickly, and the stone slab in front of him turned over.

"The spell Card of Sanctity! Both parties draw cards from the deck until their hands are full of six cards!"

Bakura didn't take it seriously: "Hey, if you want to draw a few, just draw it. Anyway, now Exodia's head has been banished from this duel, and the ritual has failed.

Even if you draw the entire deck into your hand, the seal will never be lifted. "

Simon ignored him at all and continued to chant and cast spells. A stone slab was turned over, summoning a large purple pot with a greedy tongue sticking out.

Pot of Avarice: Shuffle 5 monsters from your graveyard back into the deck and draw two cards.

Here the five cards that Simon shuffled back into the deck were revealed in sequence, namely Featherizer, Witch of the Black Forest, Left Arm of the Forbidden One, Left Leg of the Forbidden One, and Right Leg of the Forbidden One.

He recovered the remaining three Exodia parts in the graveyard.

The five stone slabs returned one after another and soon turned into two new stone slabs and fell down. Bakura looked at the seven stone slabs in front of Simon and couldn't help but sneer.

Keep drawing, keep retrieving.

You are not the Pharaoh, how can you print another Exodia out of thin air?

"Summon the Sangan!"

The stone slab fell in front of Priest Simon, and a spherical Sangan jumped out from the stone slab.

[Sangan, ATK 1000]

"That guy's attack power will also be halved by Dreadroot's ability." Bakura reminded, "Devil's Howling!"

The pressure of Wicked God was released, the cold power of fear seeped into the body, and the Sangan instantly withered.

[Sangan, ATK 1000 ATK 500]

"Hey, this thing cannot even act as a wall, what's the point of summoning something like this?" Bakura sneered.

Simon was unmoved. He only raised his hand slightly to signal that another stone slab was covering the field in front of him.

Then

"Battle!" The old man said in a calm voice and waved his hand, "I use Sangan to attack The Wicked Dreadroot!"

Bakura: "!?"

He suspected that he had heard it wrong.

What did this old man just say?

He wants to attack with what?

Is his brain burnt out?

Chapter 612: The Seal Is Lifted?

"Sangan, attack The Wicked Dreadroot!"

When Priest Simon finished speaking, even the Sangan on the field was so frightened that his hair stood on end and he almost jumped up on the spot.

Master? What do you want me to attack!?

"Are you crazy, old guy?" Bakura frowned, "Or are you realizing that you are no match for the evil god and want to destroy yourself?"

The old priest was unmoved and only raised his voice: "Sangan, attack!"

Although Sangan was so frightened that he didn't dare to let go, his master's order during the duel was irresistible. The poor Sangan had no choice but to bite the dust and rush forward against the dark undercurrent, not even daring to look at the evil god.

Bakura frowned tightly. Although he also wanted to think that the other party had no choice but to commit suicide the look in his eyes clearly didn't look like it.

The old man's eyes were clear, firm, and full of determination. They were the eyes of a warrior who had not lost his will to fight and was determined to defend his faith until his last breath.

There is something fishy!

"No matter what you want to do, it won't happen!" Bakura waved his hand, "Open the set card: Trap Card The Forceful Checkpoint! When an opponent's monster declares an attack: Look at the opponent's hand, and if there is a Monster Card, negate the attack!

And after that, I can also choose any monster card in your hand and discard it! "

Priest Simon's pupils shrank.

This guy is so cautious!?

Of course, Simon had a monster card in his hand.

The little Sangan hit the invisible barrier and was knocked over before it even touched the evil god's territory. Priest Simon also turned over all the stone slabs in front of him and gave them to Bakura for confirmation.

Bakura glanced at it and found that he already had "Right Arm of the Forbidden One" and "Left Leg of the Forbidden One" in his hand the former was added to the hand by the effect of The Legendary Exodia Incarnate last turn, and the latter was drawn by the effect of Pot of Avarice.

Bakura casually clicked on the "Right Arm of the Forbidden One".

"Although it is impossible for you to lift Exodia's seal, to be cautious, you should throw away that stone slab!"

Simon remained silent, and the "Right Arm of the Forbidden One" stone slab turned into golden light spots and disappeared.

The attack was blocked, but the Sangan let out a sigh of relief. To be honest, it's a bit weak to charge against such a big evil god

Unexpectedly, Simon waved his hand: "In the area of the Temple of the Kings', the traps set up can be activated immediately! The trap I want to use is Miracle Locus! Add the number of attacks by the Sangan! "

Miracle Locus (Trap Card): Select 1 face-up Attack Position monster you control. Your opponent draws 1 card. The selected monster gains 1000 ATK during the Damage Step and can attack twice this turn. (anime effect)

[Sangan, ATK 500 ATK 2000 ATK 1000]

Sangan's three eyes were so round that they almost jumped up.

I'm torn apart, why do I still need to fight??

"Stupid, then I will help you!" Bakura narrowed his eyes, "The Wicked Dreadroot, deal with him for me!"

The Wicked God waved his huge arm. With his size and tonnage, just one simple movement caused a tremor like the earth was shaking.

The poor Sangan was punched into the ground by the evil god. It was embedded in the floor like a piece of dough and was eroded by the turbid darkness and cracked into pieces.

Bakura snorted disdainfully: "It's over."

But as soon as the words came out of his mouth, his eyes changed slightly and he realized something was wrong.

"Um?"

The aftermath of the Wicked God's impact swept all the way to the old priest but seemed to hit an invisible magic barrier. There were such waves of divine power hitting the barrier, but it failed to have any effect.

Bakura's eyes quickly fell on the stone slab standing in front of Priest Simon.

Spirit Barrier (Continuous Trap): While you control a monster, you take no battle damage.

"Stubborn guy." Bakura snorted, "But is there any point in doing this?"

"The special ability of the Sangan', its death will lead me to a new slab!" Simon said.

Sangan: When this card is sent from the field to the graveyard, you can add 1 monster with 1500 or less ATK from your Deck to your hand.

This monster and the "Witch of the Black Forest" could be called the golden partners. The universal search duo had an extremely wide range of business. They could often retrieve all kinds of unexpected strange things from monsters with an attack power or defense power below 1500.

A new slab followed the call. The yellowed slab was bound by iron chains, and the pattern engraved on it was "Left Arm of the Forbidden One."

In this way, Priest Simon had the left arm and right leg of Exodia again.

Bakura smiled indifferently: "Two parts of Exodia, what's the use of these?"

Of the five Exodia parts, the head has been removed from the game, and the right hand is sleeping in the cemetery, he has no chance at all.

"Spell A Feather of the Phoenix!"

Simon released the spell from the slab again, and the red and burning phoenix feathers emerged from the abstract engraving on the slab.

A Feather of the Phoenix (Spell Card): Discard 1 card, then target 1 card in your GY; return that target to the top of your Deck.

A stone slab was dragged out of the cemetery by golden iron chains. It was clearly the "Right Arm of the Forbidden One" that Bakura had just thrown to the cemetery.

"Return to the top of the deck? Do you think that you still have the next round?"

Before Bakura finished speaking, Simon waved his hand: "I activate a Spell Spell Books from the Pot!"

Spell Books from the Pot: Both players draw three cards.

After getting three more slabs in one go, needless to say, the "Right Arm of the Forbidden One" that had just been put back to the top of the deck was also returned to Simon.

Collected three Exodia parts, the soul power in Priest Simon's body was released and gradually condensed into an abstract giant body on top of his head. He has a broad and blurred outline, behind him was the shimmering hexagram circle, and the iron chains bound his body, restraining that force, but the scarlet eyes were clearly full of hungry destructive impulses.

Bakura's pupils vaguely reflected the giant's posture, and he subconsciously held his breath.

Exodia!

Bakura could even feel the power. The inexhaustible supreme magic power, capable of rewriting any law, was isolated from the void, facing him from a distance.

No, calm down. Bakura said to himself.

Even if the Exodia part in the GY was recovered, there would only be three pieces. Not to mention that the core components have been removed from the game, and the seal cannot be lifted anyway

"Spell Foolish Burial!" Priest Simon said solemnly, "Choose any stone slab with monsters sealed on it and send it to the cemetery!"

A stone slab seemed to emerge from the void, and Bakura clearly saw that it was the last part "Right Leg of the Forbidden One" washed back into the deck by the "Pot of Avarice".

Priest Simon continued to recite the incantation and formed a seal on his hand. The new incantation took effect and new spell power was released from the stone tablet in his hand.

The spell he activated was Dark Eruption!

Dark Eruption (Spell Card): Target 1 DARK monster with 1500 or less ATK in your GY; add that target to your hand.

The monster he wanted to retrieve, of course, was the "Right Leg of the Forbidden One"!

The stone slab with the right foot of the Egyptian defender sealed in it was hung up from the dark whirlpool by iron chains. The shadow of the giant behind Priest Simon seemed to become more real, and the luster of the golden body instantly brightened.

Exodia's hands and feet emerged from the golden magic circle one after another, and the endless magic power was rushing through the confined space like a typhoon that was about to overturn the roof.

The raging magic hurricane oppressed Bakura so much that he couldn't breathe, and the hem of his red robe flew behind him. He had to raise his arms to block his face, and sweat unknowingly soaked his clothes.

He could hear his own heartbeat, like a drumstick that was accelerating as it entered the climax of a piece of music, repeatedly hitting the cowhide drumhead.

Yes, he was nervous.

Even the great evil god Zorc couldn't help but panic when faced with the oppression from outside the void by Exodia.

When the duel began, he didn't pay any attention to the humble old man in front of him

You're just an NPC. Are you worthy of fighting me?

But now Bakura had to admit that he was really starting to get a little nervous.

"No, there's nothing to be nervous about." He said to himself, "It's just a dying struggle. Even if all four parts are assembled, the most critical core part 'Exodia the Forbidden One' has already"

"Set a stone slab on the field." Priest Simon shouted, "With the power of the Temple of the Kings', the trap can be used immediately!

The trap is triggered! Storm Dragon's Return! Summon Exodia the Forbidden One! "

Storm Dragon's Return (Trap Card): Target 1 banished monster; Special Summon it to your field.

When the dimension was torn apart, the sound of chains colliding came from the other side of the dimension, and when the bared-toothed Exodia head, who seemed to be laughing at him, returned from the other side of the dimension, Bakura was indeed frightened and almost jumped up.

[Exodia the Forbidden One, ATK 1000]

But he quickly regained his composure: "You actually summoned the head of the Egyptian defender from a different dimension. To be honest, you have always surprised me, old man. In this situation, you are actually able to lift the seal to this point, so I might as well give you a compliment."

After a pause, Bakura continued to taunt: "But it seems that this is your limit. The five parts of Exodia must be collected in the hand before the seal will be released.

Although you summoned his body back, summoning him to the field is meaningless"

"Storm Dragon's Return is a trap with side effects." Priest Simon said calmly, "The monsters summoned from outside the dimension by this trap can only exist on the field for one round.

After one round it will have to change back to the sealed state! "

Storm Dragon's Return: The monster summoned to the field by this effect will be returned to the owner's hand at the end of the turn.

Bakura: "!!!?"

Back to the owner's hand!?

"I said, I won't let you act recklessly again." Simon said coldly, "Because of the ancestors and the sacrifices of countless generations, this country has become what it is now and this country will be more prosperous in the future.

I am already old, and the time when I can assist Pharaoh is not long. So even if I use my remaining soul as fuel, I will not allow people like you to get involved in the glorious future of this country! "

Bakura realized something: "You old guy, are you planning to blow yourself up!?"

There was a reason why Simon resigned from being a priest and no longer kept the Millennium Key.

Because he was too old, both in body and soul. His time was already running out, and his current soul could no longer bear the high price of lifting the seal of "Exodia".

So this time, he came with the determination to die.

Regardless of victory or defeat, this would be his last battle as a priest. The moment the seal of the Exodia was lifted, the price would be his own soul.

Exodia's aura suspended in mid-air became more majestic and powerful. At this time, most of his body has been stretched out from the void, overlooking the entire field from a high position. Heavy pressure was like an invisible mountain that would explode in just one moment.

At the End Phase, the follow-up effect of Storm Dragon's Return would resolve, returning "Exodia the Forbidden One" to Simon's hand. The five parts would be assembled at that moment, and the seal would be lifted in the end.

Even the Great Evil God Zorc, with his current state, was unable to fight back against the intact Exodia and even had no possibility of surviving.

The moment the seal was lifted, it would be his defeat.

All Simon needed to do was declare "I end my turn."

"This round of my actions is over." Simon's tone suddenly increased, "At this moment, the Exodia the Forbidden One' returned to its sealed state!

In exchange for the five sealed parts and my own soul, come again and fight alongside me for the last time, old friend!

I want to call here the sealed Egyptian defender"

"Wait for me a moment!" Bakura's mouth raised a ferocious arc, and he yelled, "It's not over yet! Trap Card High Speed Aria! Send 1 Normal Spell Card from my hand to the Graveyard; this card's effect becomes that Normal Spell Card's effect when that card is activated!"

Bakura paused, his evil eyes briefly resting on a stone slab in front of him, and his smile grew stronger.

"The spell I want to activate from my hand is Exchange!"

Exchange (Spell Card): Both players reveal their hands and add 1 card from each other's hand to their hand.

"Whawhat!?" Priest Simon's pupils suddenly shrank, and his pair of purple eyes seemed to be the size of a pinhead.

"That's right. Before the effect of Storm Dragon's Return' is activated, the effect of Exchange' will resolve first." Bakura showed a healthy smile, "Come on, old priest, show me your hand!"

Priest Simon gritted his teeth reluctantly, but all the stone slabs in front of him had been forced to turn over under the magical effect.

Bakura hit the "Right Arm of the Forbidden One", and the stone slab that sealed Exodia's right hand was immediately pulled by invisible magic power and flew into Bakura's hands.

Simon could also pick a card from Bakura's handbut that was meaningless.

At the beginning of this turn, Bakura didn't have this "Exchange".

Simon needed a lot of resources to lift the seal of Exodia, so in this round, he activated the "Card of Sanctity", "Spell Books from the Pot", and a "Miracle Locus ". The terrifying ten cards have been drawn in one breath, giving Bakura a lot of resources for free.

This fate-determining "Exchange" was drawn during this process.

The effect of Storm Dragon's Return was processed, and the "Exodia the Forbidden One" on the field was locked back to the slab and fell back in front of Simon. The upper body and head of the huge Exodia behind him finally lit up with golden light, and the invincible demon god's magic power surged and golden light bloomed

But only the right hand was missing.

Even if only one hand was missing, the seal was still not lifted, this was the rule.

At this point in the release of the seal, Exodia outside the void is almost separated by a thin layer of paper, but it was this thin layer that he could not touch or pierce.

And Simon has just issued an End Phase declaration.

"It's my turn!" Bakura muttered, "Old man, you wasted so much of my time, made me almost capsize in the gutter but it's over! The Wicked Dreadroot, put an end to this old man's life! "

The evil god swung a heavy fist, and the bone-wrapped fist blasted down with an endless stream of pitch-black madness!

The power of the evil god was like a raging tsunami, everything on the old man's field was swallowed by darkness, and even the image of Exodia behind him was pierced by punch power.

There was only one last step away from the release of the seal. Exodia roared unwillingly, but he couldn't do anything because he was isolated by the seal. The golden giant's body was pierced by the evil god, and the fragments crawled all over his body and scattered all over the ground.

Chapter 613: The Final Chapter of Ultimate Shadow Game

Rolling black clouds engulfed the sky, and the leaden black clouds completely blocked the bright midday sun, not even a trace of light coming through.

As if suddenly, darkness was everywhere. They were released wildly and expanded unscrupulously, swallowing the blue sky inch by inch with the capital as the center, until all corners of the entire memory world were covered by shadows.

The villain has not appeared, yet the atmosphere of this scene was set, and the background was like being dragged directly to the set of the end of the world.

The palace bore the brunt of the attack, and the entire palace trembled. The earthy brown earth cracked in the violent shaking, and some houses began to collapse.

No one was not afraid of earthquakes, especially for ancient people. In the eyes of the ancients, this kind of natural disaster was the proof of the wrath of the gods, and it was the way gods punished this sinned world indirectly.

Soldiers and slaves fled in panic from the collapsing palace, and some did not flee at all, but knelt down and called the names of the gods they believed in, praying for protection.

There was a sound of ridicule from heaven and earth?

The voice was deep and majestic, echoing dully in the space sealed by the sky and the earth. A black and burly phantom appeared between the sky and the earth, with red eyes, sharp teeth, and a white bone spur that is unique to demons protruding from the mouth.

He was so unbelievably large, as if the sky was too low and low for him, that he had to bend his back as he towered above the earth.

(A certain great evil god: I am not a hunchback!)

Of course, the most eye-catching thing was the majestic black dragon head under his crotch. It was really long and black, and the invisible hellfire was constantly spewing out from its mouth

He appeared from the direction of the palace treasury.

The news of the duel between Priest Simon and Bakura has already alarmed other people in the palace. Yami Yugi, who just finished dealing with the High Priest of Darkness, was leading the priests towards the treasure house at full speed when the great evil god came out.

When he rushed halfway, he was taken aback when he saw Zorc's huge black shadow appearing.

Is this the true form of the great evil god inside Bakura?

But didn't he say that the victory condition is to collect all the seven Millennium Items? Don't you need seven Millennium Items to be resurrected?

But at this moment, the seven Millennium Items were still in the hands of me and the priests. Why could Bakura still summon the main body of the Great Evil God?

Have the victory conditions changed?

Yami Yugi was surprised, but the players beside him were even more surprised than him, but their focus might be rather strange.

Fuck! So big!

He is worthy of being a great evil god, such a dark and rough evil thing!

The screwballs snapped screenshots, causing another uproar in the forum.

Simply outrageous!

When they arrived, Priest Simon was no longer here.

The palace treasury was in a mess, the surrounding area was blown into darkness, and countless precious treasures were torn apart. Half of the walls had collapsed, and piles of cracked masonry piled up all over the ground.

But Priest Simon has disappeared.

Of course, Yami Yugi knew clearly that this just meant that there was one less NPC in his camp, a fictional person in this fictional world. But when he thought of the old priest's identical face to Grandpa's, how he got along with him these days, and his amiable appearance, he still couldn't help but feel sad.

Did something like this happen three thousand years ago?

Did Priest Simon in the past sacrifice his life and soul for this country and myself?

This was the old man's own choice, and it was also his last stubbornness.

Dedicate himself till death.

That's probably what happened.

The body of the Great Evil God Zorc stood tall not far from the palace. If got closer, you would find that his lower body was translucent, and his whole body protruded from the golden tablet laid flat on the ground.

He has not regained his true body, not yet.

Yami Yugi took the lead and walked up.

The Great Evil God seemed to have sensed his approach and gave a deep laugh. Two beams of red light shot out from his scarlet eyes and fell on the ground to form a human image.

It was Bakura, the host of Great Evil God Zorc, still standing there in his big red robe, with that mocking, even impatient smile on his face.

"I've been waiting for you for a long time, Lord Pharaoh." Bakura yawned, "You guys are so slow."

"Bakura!"

Yugi ignored the obstruction of the priests behind him and stepped forward. He glanced at the huge black shadow and frowned: "What's going on?"

"As you can see, I decided to show off my cards." Bakura sneered, "This is my true body, my true posture!"

After the words fell, before Yugi could answer, the screwballs behind him interrupted.

"Lord Great Evil God, Brother Fae said he is not convinced and wants to compete with you."

"Good fellow, the heavy sword has no edge but is ingenious and incompetent. If I were to strike a blow with this big guy, I'd be afraid that it would break both sides with just one sword, right?"

""

The word "angry" appeared on Bakura's forehead again.

Motherfucker, it's this group of mentally retarded monkeys again!

Just as annoying as their master!

But Bakura tried his best to ignore them and only snorted coldly.

"As long as my true self is resurrected, not only everything in this memory sandbox but even me in reality will wake up with the power drawn from this Ultimate Shadow Game!"

"What did you say?" Yami Yugi frowned, "Are you saying that this Shadow Game we are playing will still affect the outside world?"

"That's right." Bakura proudly said, "Soon, I will finish here what I couldn't finish three thousand years ago, and I will kill you this time to make sure that your soul is wiped out without leaving any fragments behind.

Next, my true self will be resurrected in this world, and then the whole world will turn into purgatory and become my possession! "

After a pause, he patted his forehead and remembered something.

"Oh, right. And your little friends in this world, especially your container." Bakura grinned sinisterly, "I won't forget to treat them specially."

Yugi's pupils shrank, and then he narrowed his eyes, his face became solemn, and his vision quickly became cold and stern.

"It's over."

Some players have begun to realize the seriousness of the problem.

"Bet a pack of spicy strips, the great evil god is already dead."

"The Pharaoh: Don't you dare to make fun of AIBO?!"

""

Yugi remained calm and said calmly: "But you haven't collected all the Millennium Items yet, and you haven't been resurrected, right?"

This was what Bakura himself explained before. The resurrection of the Great Evil God Zorc required the collection of seven Millennium Items. Unless the rules were changed, there was no way for him to be resurrected.

"That's right." Bakura didn't deny it, "Although it's approaching the time of resurrection, I couldn't snatch seven Millennium Items from you, so I really can't resurrect Hehe, but haven't you already gathered the seven Millennium Items for me?"

"What?"

Only then did Yami Yugi realize a problem.

While he and his priests gathered here they also carried seven Millennium Items with them. Plus the stone tablet was dragged out of the treasury by Bakura, all conditions have been gathered at this moment.

"Okay, the final chapter of this Ultimate Shadow Game has begun!" Bakura jumped off the rock, opened his alchemy Duel Disk, and shouted, "Come on, Lord Pharaoh! The final Shadow Game between us, the bet is those seven Millennium Items!"

Chapter 614: I Might Actually Die

"Come on, Lord Pharaoh!" Bakura challenged, "With seven Millennium Items as bets, do you have the guts to accept my challenge?"

"Okay!" Yugi agreed without hesitation, with an attitude of "my card addiction has long been unbearable", and opened the Duel Disk without saying a word.

The two had an agreement and were about to start a fight, but suddenly a loud shout interrupted them.

"Wait a minute!"

Everyone looked up following the sound and saw a green whirlwind rolling up, and a bright red scarf flying in the air like a flag. The masked hero in green armor brought Yuei Vu while flying steady, and he looked like he was walking on flying leaves and yellow sand in the sky

Yuei Vu fell lightly and squatted on the ground, his black windbreaker flying in the curtain of sand and dust, looking calm and unrestrained.

"Yuei Vu-san!" Snow Wave was the first to jump up.

"The handsomeness that breaks the sky!"

"Stand and masked hero are both a man's romance! Yuei Vu-san possesses the power of a Stand and a masked hero at the same time. In other words, Yuei Vu-san is equal to a man's romance!"

"Something seems not right"

""

"Yuei Vu!" Yami Yugi also showed a hint of joy.

Having fought side by side so many times, Yuei Vu has long been recognized by Yami Yugi from the bottom of his heart, a powerful and trustworthy partner. With him around, Yugi felt a lot more at ease.

But Yami Yugi was more concerned with another question: "Where is AIBO?"

"I'm here!"

Only then did Yugi Muto catch up from behind, panting, and Mana and the other friends followed behind.

"Lord Pharaoh!"

The little girl waved vigorously toward Yami Yugi from a distance, her chest rising and falling with the vigorous waving of her little arms.

Seeing her energetic look, Yami Yugi felt a pain in his heart as if he was being pricked by needles.

Yes, she still doesn't know that Mahad has

Yami Yugi shook his head, letting himself not think about it for the time being.

He turned to Yuei Vu: "My name"

At the same time as this question was raised, Bakura also pricked up his ears and held his breath waiting for Yuei Vu to give the answer.

Although he has scratched the "Pharaoh's True Name" off the stone slab, who can say for sure about the protagonist?

Bakura was now afraid that Yuei Vu would suddenly smile and say "I have found the true name of the Pharaoh, and I will stop pretending when the showdown comes. In fact, I am Holactie the Creator God of Light"

When Yuei Vu took out a card and handed it to Yami Yugi to see, Bakura almost yelled and ran away

CNM! Damn you Holactie, I scratched off the name of the Pharaoh, but you actually just stamped the name on it?

However, before Bakura could slip away, he soon discovered that it seemed not to be the case.

Because that card was just a blank.

After seeing Yami Yugi's confused expression after seeing the card, Yuei Vu couldn't help but feel a little disappointed.

Isn't it possible that not even the grandmaster of BISS can decipher the mystery of this blank card?

It is not really just a blank card, is it?

However, considering that Yugi had taken a blank card and printed a "Legend of Heart" on the spot, he still added the blank card to his deck.

When Bakura saw this, he just raised his head and laughed.

"Hahahaha, you really can't find the location of Pharaoh's True Name', can you?" He was elated, and his confidence was instantly strong, and he was not ready to turn around and run away, "That's of course because the Pharaoh's True Name' has been eliminated by me!

Hahaha! You will always be a nameless lonely ghost. Disappear for me! "

The weather cleared up and the rain stopped, and Zorc felt like he was okay again.

"Another me" Yugi Muto hesitated to speak.

Is it true that my other self will never be able to find his true name?

"It doesn't matter." Yami Yugi quickly adjusted. "Even if I can't get back the past, I already have the present and countless partners who support me. Even if it's for these irreplaceable partners, I will defeat you here and create a new future!

"Okay, Lord Pharaoh." Bakura said with a smile, "I have been looking forward to it for a long time."

Yuei Vu also opened the Duel Disk and took a step forward: "Then you, the great evil god, don't mind if I join, right? Let's end it together."

Bakura's eyelids twitched, and his aura seemed to be a little timid.

Ah, this

Unknowingly, the Great Evil God has basically drawn an equal sign between Yuei Vu and Holactie. Although he felt in his heart that Holactie was the same as himself and could not be resurrected without the ultimate prop, but he was still timid

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows: "Are you afraid of me?"

"Afraid Afraid of you? You are just a soul fragment whose strength is less than one-thousandth, what do I have to be afraid of?"

Yuei Vu: "?"

He has been curious since the last time they met, what settings did Zorc have in mind for himself?

A soul fragment whose strength is less than one-thousandth? Isn't he talking about himself?

It's none of my business, is it?

After enjoying themselves for a while, Bakura waved his hand and shouted: "Okay! Since you want to die so much, then I will help you. You two come together!"

He spoke so arrogantly, but he did have an evil aura that feared nothing from heaven or earth.

But he immediately added: "But with conditions! You two share 4000 LP, and my LP must be twice yours, which is 8000 points!"

Yuei Vu: ""

4000 LP didn't matter. Players all knew that as long as the LP was not too much to cause a qualitative change, the additional 4000 LP of the opponent could be ignored.

The real disadvantage of one-to-many was actually the difference in resource amount, commonly known as the card gap.

The problem is that you, the great Evil God, just said arrogantly that I wanted to 1 vs 2, and then you quickly emphasized that I wanted to increase the health, it still seemed so cowardly

"Then the duel adopts Tag Team rules, one round for your side and one round for me. You two must take turns every time!"

Yuei Vu stated: "I say, if you are so afraid, you should just stop fighting this duel and just surrender. As long as you hand over the Wicked Gods, Zombie World, Mezuki, Doomking Balerdroch

If you just hand over your entire deck, I guarantee that I can at least keep your head intact on the neck"

"That's nonsense!" Bakura was angry, "If you want to fight, then fight, stop talking nonsense!"

Yuei Vu: "No wait, it's obviously you who has been talking nonsense"

For some reason, the painting style seemed to be less serious all of a sudden. A few screwballs on the side were especially amused.

Although they didn't know why, the players seemed to have noticed that Bakura seemed to be a little afraid of Yuei Vu.

Now the screwballs became even more excited, and some people were shouting next to them:

"Yuei Vu-san, you don't understand. You said you would keep his head intact on the neck, it's useless. Zorc is afraid that you will take away the dragon head under his crotch"

"Damn, it makes sense! Here's the truth!"

""

Bakura was already impatient, but he still felt a little guilty when he saw Yuei Vu. Now that he was coaxing the screwball together like this, he was even more irritable in his heart.

"Shut up!"

With a roar, he directly launched the alchemy Duel Disk and summoned the stone slab.

He didn't want to talk to Yuei Vu anymore.

He was afraid that if he said a few more words, he might really not be able to resist hitting someone directly.

And even that's not the main point.

In case Yuei Vu was really the existence he thought of, if he really punched down

I might actually die.

Chapter 615: Are You Kidding Me?

"Duel!" x3

[Yami Yugi x Yuei Vu, LP 4000]

Bakura, LP 8000

The final battle of the memory world, the ultimate battle of the Ultimate Shadow Game, and even the decision battle for the future of modern humans, officially started here!

"It's me who goes first!" It was Yugi who took the initiative, "It's my turn, draw! I summon the Magician's Rod!"

The blue and transparent magician flew out of the magic circle, and the green and crystal staff swirled lightly in his hand.

[Magician's Rod, ATK 1600]

"The effect of Magician's Rod When this card is Normal Summoned: I can add 1 Spell/Trap that mentions Dark Magician' from the deck to my hand." Yami Yugi said, "The card I want to add to the hand is the Continuous Spell' Dark Magical Circle!"

Although Yuei Vu already knew through the forum that after recovering part of the memory, Yami Yugi had fully unlocked Dark Magician including the "Dark Magical Circle", when seeing this thing with his own eyes, he still couldn't help but click his tongue.

In the end, Pharaoh was really a Millennium Card Printer, directly starting with the Dark Magical Circle.

This magic circle is a bit too autistic, don't you think, Dark Law?

(Liked by Masked HERO Dark Law)

"Activate the Continuous Spell Dark Magical Circle' from the hand!"

The magic circle was played directly. The magic power wiped out golden sparks in the air, and dragged a fiery trail in midair, forming a circle that looked like bronze, with ancient spells engraved in complex hieroglyphs.

"When the Dark Magical Circle is activated, I can look at the top 3 cards of my Deck, then I can reveal 1 of them that is Dark Magician' or a Spell/Trap that mentions Dark Magician', and add it to my hand, also place the remaining cards on top of my Deck in any order."

While speaking, Yami Yugi had already drawn out the top three cards in one breath, glanced at them, and took one of them.

"I added the Quick-Play Spell Illusion Magic' to my hand, and put the remaining two cards back to the top of the deck."

The two cards were inserted back into the deck alternately, and then he took out two cards from the hand.

"Set two cards, I end my turn!"

Bakura looked contemptuously at Magician's Rod, which had only 1600 attack power: "It took so much trouble, and in the end, only a third-rate magician remained on the field?"

Hey, a move of this level will be instantly overwhelmed by me, my Lord Pharaoh. "

Apparently, Great Evil God Zorc, who hadn't been beaten by the Dark Magician deck, didn't realize the seriousness of the problem.

"So the Great Evil God seems to have only seen a third-rate magician with an attack power of 1600" Some players began to discuss.

"Half of his foot is in the coffin, and he's still smiling here."

"Fast forward to the future of the Great Evil God: Stop it, this is not a duel at all!"

""

However, Bakura completely ignored the noise made by the screwball next to him. Even if he heard it, he would just treat it as trash talk and not take it to heart.

"My turn!" Bakura summoned a new slab, and quickly decided on his starting tactics with a glance.

"First I use the Pot of Greed' to replenish two cards in my hand. Then I summon the Gozuki' in attack position!"

An undead tauren wearing a nose ring and rosary beads appeared on the field, carrying a heavy ax on his shoulder.

[Gozuki, ATK 1700]

"The effect of the Gozuki!" Bakura said, "Once per turn, I can send 1 Zombie monster from the Deck to the GY. I will send the Mezuki' to the graveyard!"

The image of the stone slab with the horse-headed ghost sealed on it flashed briefly, and was quickly sucked into the black vortex that opened behind it.

"Spell Card Tribute Doll!" Bakura continued, "Tribute 1 monster; Special Summon 1 Level 7 monster from my hand that can be Normal Summoned/Set.

I offer the Gozuki' as a sacrifice!

Show up! Level 7, Perditious Puppeteer! "

The Gozuki was wrapped in the dark whirlwind, and its body quickly disintegrated and dissipated. A dark storm rose from the ground, and a grinning demon emerged from the depths of darkness. It has an abstract body like a gas structure, red eyes and mouth, and transparent silk threads on the sharp five fingers protruding from nowhere, just like a puppeteer behind the stage.

[Perditionous Puppeteer, ATK 2700]

"It will be the biggest mistake of your life to show only such a low-level miscellaneous fish magician in front of me." Bakura shouted, "Go to hell and regret your carelessness forever!"

I activate the effect of Perditionous Puppeteer! Once per turn, discard 1 card; and I gain control of all face-up Level 3 or lower monsters the opponent controls, until the End Phase!

Hell Puppetry! "

The puppet master moved his five fingers, and slender threads suddenly swarmed out restlessly, surging around the Magician's Rod on the game field and flying away!

The Magician's Rod was Level 3, so of course it will be controlled. If its control was taken away, the front row of Yugi and Yuei Vu would become completely empty!

But of course it was impossible for Yugi to be tricked so easily: "Open the set card! Quick-Play Spell Illusion Magic! Tribute 1 Spellcaster monster; add up to 2 copies of Dark Magician' from my deck or GY to the hand.

I take the Magician's Rod' as a sacrifice! "

With a burst of golden light, the magic circle opened under the Magician's Rod, and the mage's body quickly dissipated in the magic circle. The huge number of threads rushing toward him were all thrown into the air.

"Release Escape, huh?" Bakura curled his lips, "You are lucky, the monster summoned by the effect of the Tribute Doll' cannot attack this turn."

After a pause, he showed a standard evil god smile again.

"But don't think you're safe, Yugi!" Bakura pulled out another card from his hand, "Field Spell Ectoplasmer!"

Yuei Vu's eyes moved.

Ectoplasmer, the card used by Pandora in the showdown with Yugi in the anime. After the real-life version was implemented, it was modified to Continuous Spell. In the animation, it was Field Spell. There were also big differences in the effects of the two versions.

Yugi also seemed to recognize this card: "This Field Spell is"

"When the Ectoplasmer exists on the field, I can extract the soul of the monster on the field, and directly inflict damage equal to half the attack power of the monster on the opponent!" Bakura snorted, "You don't think that if I can't declare an attack, there is no way to harm you, right?"

"That won't work." Yugi waved his hand, and the trap card immediately flipped over, "Open the set card! Trap Card Magician Navigation!"

Bakura: "!"

Special Summon 1 Dark Magician' from my hand, then Special Summon 1 Level 7 or lower DARK Spellcaster monster from my Deck!

Yami Yugi raised its arms.

"Come, my most faithful servant, Dark Magician!

And the spirit of Mahad, Magician of Dark Illusion! "

The Dark Magical Circle opened, and the surging magic turned into a torrent. Two slender black figures flew out of the magic circle one after another. The two staffs whirled in the air like boomerangs, and the black-robed mage landed lightly.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

[Magician of Dark Illusion, DEF 2500]

"This moment!"

Yami Yugi pointed to the spell ring in midair. The golden ring was spinning at an accelerated speed like a galloping wheel, and the hieroglyphs engraved on it formed a fuzzy black circle.

"The effect of the Dark Magical Circle! Once per turn, when Dark Magician' is Normal or Special Summoned to my field, a card on the opponent's field will be banished." Yugi said, "I will remove the Perditious Puppeteer' from the game!"

The Dark Magician's Rod whirled and pointed in the air. The magic power in the Dark Magical Circle erupted like a flood, hitting the demon puppet on Bakura's field head-on. The demon made a shrill scream, its image was distorted by the magic of time and space, and it was knocked into the dimensional gap and disappeared.

Bakura's eyes widened, and his expression looked like he wanted to eat Yugi and his Dark Magician alive.

Are you kidding me?

Great Evil God: This is not a duel at all. JPG.

Chapter 616: The Immortal Wicked God

Bakura's face was full of astonishment.

How long has it been since we last met? Why has Yugi printed so many new and discordant cards?

The intensity of the effect was getting more and more outrageous!

If it were someone else here, who was unprepared to encounter the combination of Dark Magical Circle and Magician Navigation, they might have died completely by now.

But he, the great evil god Zorc, was no ordinary person!

"Continuous Spell Card of Safe Return!" Bakura waved his hand and played the animation's unique card-earning artifact, "Whenever a monster is resurrected from the graveyard, I will draw three cards!

Then I'm going to activate this cardCome on! Field Spell Zombie World! "

The black mist was like rolling waves, and the aura of immortality occupied the entire duel venue. Dark red eyes flickered in the depths of darkness, countless lines of sight lit up, and the dark wind carried the wails of ghosts and monsters.

This was the paradise of the undead, the forbidden land of the living, and the world of the zombies.

"As long as this card exists, all monsters on both sides of the field and in the graveyard will become Zombie." Bakura sneered, "So I can call this guy from the graveyard!"

I banish Mezuki' in the graveyard and activate its monster effect! By banishing it from the GY, target 1 Zombie monster in myGY; Special Summon that target! Of course, because of the Zombie World', all the monsters in my graveyard are Zombies. "

Bakura raised his mouth, raised his head wildly, and opened his arms.

"Return from the underworld, and descend as the undead! The incarnation of the ultimate fear, the trembling god

The Wicked Dreadroot! "

"It's actually a Wicked God!? But when did it enter the graveyard" Yugi quickly came back to his senses, "That's right, the stone slab that was discarded as the cost to activate the effect of Perdition's Puppeteer"

The realm of the undead was turbulent, and the dark cyclone wanders unscrupulously. The giant covered with white bones drilled out of the underworld and broke into the realm of immortality. His body was entangled with death energy, and his eyes were scarlet like blood.

[The Wicked Dreadroot, ATK 4000]

The Wicked God's power exploded in the Zombie World, like invisible drumsticks violently beating the boundaries of the Zombie World. The black hurricane blew the bystanders back involuntarily.

"Unexpectedly, under such circumstances, the Wicked God was summoned in an instant!?" Jonouchi was surprised.

Yugi Muto also said: "Bakura seems to be stronger than the last time he fought in the palace!"

Indeed, this feeling was especially experienced by Yusei and Yami Yugi who were on the field. At this time, both of them could clearly feel that the pressure of being a duelist emanating from Bakura was obviously much stronger than before.

Is it because the resurrection of Zorc is closer?

"First is the effect of the Card of Safe Return', I draw three cards!" Bakura shouted, "Then there is the effect of Dreadroot! Except for itself, the attack power and defense power of all monsters on the field are halved!"

Devil's Howling! "

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500 ATK 1250]

[Magician of Dark Illusion, DEF 2500 DEF 1250]

"Go to hell, Yugi!" Bakura waved his hand, "The Wicked Dreadroot, attack the Dark Magician!"

The Wicked God waved his huge arm, and the white bone spurs on the back of his hands cut through the black fog. The air flow cut out blew away all the ghosts and ghosts lingering around him, leaving him shivering in fear in the corner of the undead realm.

In the first round alone, one blow dealt nearly 3000 points of damage, which was enough to take out most of the LP of Yuei Vu and Yugi!

But Yugi, of course, also had counter methods!

He quickly drew out a card and stuffed it into the grave area of the dueling board

Arrival, the fourth Egyptian God! Kuriboh!

"Kuri Kuri!"

Kuriboh jumped out lightly and nimbly, spreading its arms and legs to block the path of the Wicked God's attack. The God of Fear blasted Kuriboh into pieces with just one punch, but even the surging punch and impact couldn't penetrate the barrier it left behind.

"Oh, is it Kuriboh again?" Bakura didn't care, "Good, it's really boring if you are defeated so easily. Then my Battle Phase is over.

But my turn is not over yet! "

He raised his hand, and hit one of the three stone slabs that he had just drawn with the effect of "Card of Safe Return".

"Activate the Spell Card Painful Choice!" Bakura sneered, "This card can select five cards from the deck to show to the opponent. The opponent chooses one card to add to my hand, and discards all the rest to the graveyard."

Appeared, Painful Choice (refers to the opponent)!

"The cards I want to choose are these five!"

Five slabs appeared in front of Yuei Vu and Yugi one by one, clearly showing

The Wicked Eraser, Doomking Balerdroch, Zombie Master, and the remaining two copies of Mezuki in the deck.

So far, Yuei Vu has basically understood Bakura's tactics.

"Use the Zombie World' to change the Type of the Wicked God in the GY to Zombie, so that the Wicked God can be resurrected directly from the GY every turn without the need for sacrifices?" Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes and said solemnly.

"Worthy of being the Duel King, you can understand quickly." Bakura smiled, "Okay, the five cards I want to choose are all displayed, you can choose one."

Yuei Vu and Yami Yugi looked at each other, and Yami Yugi signaled with his eyes that he would give this opportunity to Yuei Vu.

After all, it would be Yuei Vu's turn next, and he was more suitable for this choice.

Yuei Vu didn't refuse, he raised his hand and hit one of the stone slabs: "Doomking Balerdroch."

If Doomking Balerdroch entered the GY, it would automatically jump out at Yuei Vu's turn. Moreover, this thing also had the ability to negate monster effects and banish a monster card during the opponent's turn, which was extremely disgusting.

"Then I'll add Doomking Balerdroch' to my hand, and send all the remaining four cards to the graveyard."

Bakura shrugged indifferently, followed by a tug at the corner of his mouth.

"However, in fact, no matter what choice you make, there are no differences Spell Card Graceful Charity"! Draw 3 cards, then discard 2 cards!"

Yuei Vu frowned.

Did they all go to the graveyard for him in the end?

Zombie was a deck that became stronger the more resources there were in the graveyard. Even though it has only been one turn, Bakura has already earned tons of resources.

No wonder he had the confidence to dare to face off against two Duel Kings.

"Set two cards, I end my turn." Bakura said, "Of course, at the End Phase, The Wicked Dreadroot will return to the graveyard to sleep. Leave, for now, Dreadroot!"

The Wicked God turned into a black mist and shot back into the alchemy Duel Disk of Bakura. The majestic and domineering body disappeared in just an instant.

The moment the body dissipated, everyone present felt relieved and let out a sigh of relief, as if a huge boulder of a thousand kilograms had fallen from their hearts.

"Hey, this way the Wicked God will be temporarily out of action." Bakura said with a smile, "This is a great opportunity to attack. You two Duel Kings must seize it."

Chapter 617: This Is Too Much

On the surface, it seemed that the Bakura's field was temporarily empty at this time. But both Yami Yugi and Yuei Vu knew clearly that things would not be that simple.

Yami Yugi turned to Yuei Vu, showing a trusting expression: "I'll leave it to you, Yuei Vu."

"Ah." Yuei Vu nodded, "It's my turn, draw!"

"At this moment, the effect of Doomking Balerdroch' sleeping in the cemetery is activated!" Bakura shouted, "During the Standby Phase, if a face-up card is in a Field Zone and this card is in your GY: I can Special Summon this card in Defense Position.

Resurrection, Doomking Balerdroch! "

In the chaotic storm, the turbid air was pushed around. The undead king with white bones hanging on his chest and a ferocious face seemed to burst out of the mud, and the skeleton's deep-set eye sockets were faintly glowing with red light.

[Doomking Balerdroch, DEF 2000]

"Hahahaha!" Bakura proudly said, "I don't think I need to say more about the special effect of Doomking Balerdroch?"

When a Zombie monster other than itself activated an effect, Doomking Balerdroch could negate that effect or banish 1 monster from the field or GY (each effect could be applied once per turn).

A powerful ability that could directly block the development of many decks.

Yuei Vu scanned the six cards in his hand, thought for a while, and quickly made up his mind.

"Summon the Elemental HERO Solid Soldier!"

[Elemental HERO Solid Soldier, ATK 1300]

"The effect of Solid Soldier!" Yuei Vu said, "When this card is Normal Summoned: I can Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower HERO' monster from my hand. Come on! Elemental HERO Shadow Mist!"

Bakura's face changed suddenly as if he had thought of something bad.

He remembered this heroine.

When Shadow Mist was Special Summoned, she added 1 Change' Quick-Play Spell Card from the Deck to the hand. Then, through the Quick-Play Spell "Mask Change", Shadow Mist could be transformed into a Masked HERO with the DARK attribute.

Thinking of this, the image of a dark Masked HERO quickly appeared in Bakura's mind. Thinking of that hero, he couldn't help feeling his scalp tingle right now.

Although he was known as the Great Evil God, he felt that the so-called hero of justice was even more evil than him!

I can't let that thing out!

"The effect of Doomking Balerdroch!" Bakura waved his hand, "When a Zombie monster other than Doomking Balerdroch itself activates its effect, negate that effect!"

Balerdroch raised the magic wand in his hand, and the gems inlaid on the wand opened his eyes like a devil, and the dark red fluctuations erupted, instantly restraining Solid Soldier's power!

As a result, the summoning of the Shadow Mist failed, and the invincible Masked HERO Dark Law was strangled in the cradle.

"Want to summon that troublesome Masked HERO again?" Bakura said "I've seen through it already", "But it's useless! The same trick won't work twice against me, the Great Evil God!"

Do you think you are a Saint?

Yuei Vu complained from the bottom of his heart, but he didn't care about this interference: "Then I activate the Spell Card Polymerization' from my hand! I fuse Elemental HERO Solid Soldier' on the field and Elemental HERO Shadow Mist' in my hand!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO' monster + 1 EARTH monster!

Fusion Summon! The Hero of the Earth

Elemental HERO Gaia! "

Amidst the shouts of "Gai~ya~" from the players nearby, a heavy hero covered in black iron armor descended from the sky, and instantly set up a billowing dust curtain when it landed.

[Elemental HERO Gaia, ATK 2200]

"The effect of Gaia!" Yuei Vu said, "When this card is Fusion Summoned: Target 1 face-up monster the opponent controls; until the End Phase, its ATK is halved and this card gains the same amount of ATK!

Gaia Shock! "

The hero of Earth roared dully, and the black heavy armor moved rapidly with the roar of the engine. The heavy metal fist suddenly hit the ground, and the shock wave spread rapidly towards Bakura's field along the cracks opened on the ground.

[Doomking Balerdroch, ATK 2800 ATK 1400]

[Elemental HERO Gaia, ATK 2200 ATK 3600]

"Huh, it's meaningless!" Bakura shouted, "The second effect of Doomking Balerdroch! When a Zombie monster other than Doomking Balerdroch itself activates its effect, a monster can be excluded from the game!

Disappear for me, Elemental HERO Gaia! "

Doomking Balerdroch's ruby eye flickered again, and a strange red light enveloped Gaia's body. The high-tech hero was unable to resist this metaphysical force and was sucked directly into the twisted dimensional vortex without a trace.

"Ha! There is no room for heroes or anything like that in this realm of immortality"

Before the second half of Bakura's arrogant sentence fell, Yuei Vu said: "The effect of Elemental HERO Solid Soldier! If this card is sent from the Monster Zone to the GY by a Spell effect: I can target 1 HERO' monster in my GY, except Elemental HERO Solid Soldier'; Special Summon it in Defense Position!

What I resurrected from the graveyard is Elemental HERO Shadow Mist! "

Bakura: "!"

Black mist erupted from the dark vortex, and the Shadow Mist lady fell back onto the field lightly, her arms crossed in front of her chest.

[Elemental HERO Shadow Mist, DEF 1500]

"The effect of Shadow Mist!" Yuei Vu said, "If this card is Special Summoned: I can add 1 Change' Quick-Play Spell Card from my Deck to my hand. I add Mask Change' to the hand!"

Bakura gritted his teeth: "Fuck, is it coming again?"

Thinking of the invincible Masked HERO Dark Law coming out again, the Great Evil God felt depressed and had a headache

"But because you revived the monster from the cemetery, the effect of Card of Safe Return' has also been activated." Bakura said sullenly, "I draw three cards."

"Quick-Play Spell Mask Change!" Yuei Vu said, "Send 1 HERO' monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO' monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute.

I sent the Elemental HERO Shadow Mist to the GY! Transform!

A knight born from the abyss, the incarnation of the law of darkness! Coming here

Masked HERO Dark Law! ! ! "

The darkness erupted, and the black mist turned into armor and attached to Miss Yingwu's beautiful figure. A wolf-like helmet covered her head, and the streamlined jet-black armor covered her whole body, with shining silver sawtooth on her hands and feet.

[Masked HERO Dark Law, ATK 2400]

"Dark Law!" The reaction of the players at this time was even more exciting than seeing the three Egyptian Gods, "The Unfriend Hero!"

"This time, we're going to fast-forward to the end of the Great Evil God!"

"Nonsense, he's obviously the symbol of friendship! You can't find a friendlier hero than Dark Law! After all, you must be a friend first to be unfriended, right?"

""

Seeing the appearance of the "symbol of friendship" Dark Law again, Bakura's face changed continuously, and then he hummed softly: "Do you think it will be so smooth this time?"

Open the set card: Trap Card Bottomless Trap Hole! "

"Huh?" Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

This Bakura is so cautious. I have stepped on two pits this round, and this guy still has a third trick?!

"Hahahaha! Bottomless Trap Hole's effect When the opponent Summons a monster with 1500 or more ATK, I can destroy and banish that monster!" Kairara said grimly, "Disappear for me, Dark Law!"

While speaking, he stretched out his hand to make a fist, and the nails of his five fingers were embedded in the flesh, making his knuckles turn white.

This showed how deeply the great evil god hated this "Masked HERO Dark Law".

but

Yami Yugi and Yuei Vu looked at each other and nodded.

There was no need for any verbal communication, just a look to understand the partner's intentions, this was the tacit understanding as a duelist.

it was more than words.

"This moment!" Yugi waved his hand, "I activate the trap card from the graveyard Magician Navigation!"

Bakura once again showed an expression that there was a vacancy in the supplement: "Activate a trap from the GY!?"

The trap card that entered the cemetery last round flew out of the black vortex, the magic circle opened rapidly, and the turbulent flow of magic power surged out, as if countless transparent chains were swaying in the wind. The card "Bottomless Trap Hole" was bound.

"The subsequent effect of Magician Navigation'. If I control "Dark Magician", I can banish this card from my GY, then target 1 face-up Spell/Trap the opponent controls; negate its effects until the end of this turn!"

Yami Yugi waved.

"I negate the effect of the trap card Bottomless Trap Hole!"

Bakura was stunned for a moment, and then quickly came back to his senses: "But the Dark Magician on your field was destroyed The Wicked Dreadroot last turn!"

The implication of the Great Evil God

Pharaoh, dont try to use your BISS on me!

Its really dangerous. If I was careless for a moment, I would be tricked by your BISS again

However, he never expected that Yugi did not use his BISS this time. He waved his hand and pointed at the remaining black-robed mage on his field: "As long as Magician of Dark Illusion' exists on the field, his name is treated as Dark Magician!"

Bakura: "!"

Fuck it, can this kind of operation still be possible?

The magic of Magician Navigation was released, and the effect of "Bottomless Trap Hole" was completely restrained, and failed to do anything.

Bakura bit his lips until they turned blue and almost bled. He stared at "Masked HERO Dark Law" with what seemed to be extremely vicious eyes, and said in a loud voice: "Then I still have this card!"

The stone slab flipped over with a rumbling roar, and the power sealed in the stone slab suddenly exploded. A dark pit was once again transformed into the sole of Dark Law's feet!

"Trap Card Floodgate Trap Hole!" Bakura shouted, "When the opponent Summons a monster: Change that monster to face-down Defense Position. Monsters changed to face-down Defense Position by this effect cannot change their battle positions!"

The poor Masked HERO had avoided so many pits in succession but finally failed to escape the punishment of the Great Evil God. He was helplessly flipped over by the pit and became a Set card on the field.

Yuei Vu: ""

How much resentment does this great evil god Zorc have towards Dark Law?

(Masked HERO Dark Law: This is too much)

Chapter 618: May Not Be Enough

If you do many unrighteous actions, you will die yourself. Heavens Net is wide, but none can escape its mesh. This saying best describes the Masked HERO Dark Law at this moment.

The hero who had deceived countless people and ended one friendship after another was finally sent directly to the underworld by a trap hole and was helplessly covered

Even the invincible Masked HERO Dark Law had to be face-up on the field to be effective. If it was turned face-down, it would just become an ordinary card, no matter how awesome it was.

But this also made Yuei Vu take a higher look at Bakura.

Counting this Floodgate Trap Hole, Yuei Vu has been interrupted four times in one turn. It was already quite terrifying to have such an interference ability in the opponent's turn. This pit alone makes ordinary people shut themselves up.

But fortunately, Yuei Vu was not an ordinary person.

Now I'll show the great evil god what is called an international Duel King (tactical retreat)!

"Activate a Spell Card from your hand Trade-In!" Yuei Vu said, "Discard 1 Level 8 monster, and draw two cards."

He discarded the Spell Card to the graveyard along with another card from his hand.

"I discarded the level 8 Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier' to the GY and drew two cards from the deck."

Watching Yuei Vu's card-drawing action, Bakura couldn't help but move his eyes: "It's actually the Black Luster Soldier?"

At the same time, he couldn't help but be secretly surprised.

After so much interference from me, can he continue to unfold?

"Ritual Spell Super Soldier Synthesis!" Yuei Vu raised the ritual card in his hand, "Send 1 LIGHT and 1 DARK monster (1 from my hand and 1 from myDeck) to the Graveyard, whose total Levels exactly equal 8 to Ritual Summon any Black Luster Soldier' Ritual Monster from my hand or Graveyard!"

While speaking, a card in the deck popped up and was drawn by Yuei Vu into his hand.

"I sent the Level 4 LIGHT-attribute Elemental HERO Sparkman' in my hand and the Level 4 DARK-attribute Evening Twilight Knight' in my deck to the graveyard!

The messenger who transforms chaos into light

Ritual Summon! Level 8, Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier!"

The light and dark souls intertwined and flew into the void respectively. The sprout burst out with the surging power of chaos, and a super warrior wearing angular iron armor and holding a sword and shield slowly stepped out. The shield and armor were covered with red lines, and the dark red light path looked like a neon light in the darkness covered by the sun. Shining brightly.

[Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier, ATK 3000]

"Ah, it has appeared! The strongest form of the legendary warrior!"

"As expected of Yuei Vu!" Jonouchi couldn't help but say, "Under such great obstruction, he can still summon the strongest warrior here he is simply ridiculously strong!"

"Yeah!" Yugi Muto nodded vigorously, "If Yuei Vu and the other me join forces, their combination will be invincible!"

Facing this mighty warrior with soaring sword spirit and imposing manner approaching the phantom god, even Bakura felt troublesome: "At this point, you can still summon a super warrior. But even so, your Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier' was summoned from the graveyard. Based on the effect of the Card of Safe Return', I drew three cards! "

Three more stone slabs fell out of thin air.

Yuei Vu said: "The Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier' summoned using the Evening Twilight Knight' as a Ritual Material gains this effect: Once per turn, I can banish 1 random card from the opponent's hand face-down, until the opponent's next End Phase!"

The sword light of the super warrior flashed, and the fiery sword energy flew like a laser, hitting one of the stone slabs in front of Bakura. The red electric snake danced, and the whole slab immediately became unreal, and soon disappeared out of thin air.

Bakura clicked his tongue in displeasure as if he had been chosen a relatively important card.

Yuei Vu waved his hand: "The Black Luster Soldier summoned using the Evening Twilight Knight' as a Ritual Material can also obtain subsequent effects! Once per turn, I can target 1 monster the opponent controls; banish it!

I banish Doomking Balerdroch from the game! "

"Nani!?" Bakura's expression suddenly changed.

Even Yami Yugi on the side couldn't help but praise: "Beautiful!"

"Yuei Vu's move is amazing!" Yugi Muto also said at the same time.

Honda failed to keep up again: "What? What's going on?"

So Yugi Muto continued to patiently explain: "Bakura's tactics are already obvious. Use the Zombie World' to turn the Wicked Gods in the cemetery into Zombie, so that every turn he can summon the Wicked Gods to use their powerful power to attack.

But the disadvantage of this is that the Wicked Gods can only stay on the field for one round. So every time it's the turn of Yuei Vu or the other me, the Wicked Gods will return to the graveyard. "

Jonouchi also added: "That's why Bakura used Doomking Balerdroch' to make up for this flaw. It is a monster that will be resurrected no matter how many times it is defeated, and it also has the effect of negating monsters' effects as well as banishing monsters on the opponent's turn.

As long as Doomking Balerdroch is there, it will be difficult for Yugi and Yuei Vu to organize a counterattack. To be honest, it is indeed a quite terrifying tactic. As a duelist, that guy Bakura is already ridiculously strong. "

"Yeah." Yugi Muto nodded, "But Yuei Vu found a way to conquer it. Use the power of Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier' to remove Doomking Balerdroch' from the game"

"I see!" Even Anzu understood, "This way, this monster won't be able to keep resurrecting from the graveyard!"

At this time, the Black Luster Soldier had drawn out his sword.

A sword light was neither urgent nor slow, and its moves were ordinary and unremarkable. However, wherever the sword light touched, everything in the world seemed to be cut into pieces and out of place.

Chaos Dimension Slash!

With a dimensional twisting sword, the Undead King roared unwillingly, and his bulky body was immediately sucked into the dimensional rift, disappearing under the beating of countless fiery red lights.

In the first round of confrontation, it could be said that in just one meeting, the invincible chain arranged by Bakura was torn open by the power of the Black Luster Soldier.

"And I haven't fought yet this round." Yuei Vu raised his hand, "Battle! Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier, attack Bakura directly!"

The super warrior stepped forward, and a spiral cyclone exploded behind his metal boots, and his body turned into an afterimage and flashed out. The red-hot sword light flashed, and Bakura instinctively raised his arms to protect himself.

For a brief moment, he felt as if his entire arm no longer belonged to him. The hot-cutting feeling penetrated through his entire body as if his internal organs had melted at that moment, leaving a hot and black ravine on the ground diagonally behind him.

"Ahhhh!!!"

Bakura, LP 8000 LP 5000

The Black Luster Soldier sheathed his sword, retreated, and returned to Yuei Vu's side nimbly, holding his sword across his chest.

"I end my turn." Yuei Vu smiled, "Take it easy, Lord Evil God. At this rate, 8000 LP may not be enough."

Bakura bit his lip and looked at Yuei Vu with a gloomy expression. He didn't know if he was frightened, but he didn't say anything for a long time.

Chapter 619: It Is Really Stable

"Oh, he's done a lot of damage to Bakura!"

Jonouchi took the lead in cheering, and other onlookers also had high morale, as if they had seen the dawn of victory.

"Tch, it's just a lucky hit. Don't get carried away!" Bakura snorted, "This is my turn! Draw!"

As he spoke, he drew a card, and then another stone slab fell from the sky.

He only glanced at the stone slab he had drawn and then said calmly: "You just defeated Doomking Balerdroch only. Don't forget, the situation is still in my favor now!"

Even without Doomking Balerdroch, the power of the Wicked God is still enough to completely obliterate you in an instant! "

He waved his hand lightly: "I removed the second Mezuki' from the game to Special Summon 1 Zombie monster in my GY!"

Yugi and Yusei looked tense at the same time, holding their breath and saying nothing.

It's coming.

"I don't need to say more about what I want to summon, right?"

Bakura smiled evilly, raising his arms exaggeratedly, and the red sleeves and hem of his robe undulated in the strong wind.

"The God of Void who swallows up the heaven and earth, wipes out all things, and returns everything to nothingness

The Wicked Eraser is resurrected! ! ! "

The already dark sky seemed to become heavier, and the billowing black clouds seemed to collapse at any time. The pitch-black electric current crackled and exploded in the air, the undead domain was cut open by a sickle that urged death, and the gigantic black shadow of the evil god was like Satan emerging from hell.

"The first is the effect of Card of Safe Return'. I drew three cards. Then the attack power of the evil god depends on the number of cards on the opponent's field." Bakura said, "And on your field now there are a total of four cards."

[The Wicked Eraser, ATK 4000]

"Are you going to attack?" Yugi frowned.

"No." Yusei shook his head, "Bakura's goal is"

"That's right!" Bakura laughed loudly, "It's too boring to simply fight, so I'll let the duel end in this round and send you two on the road to hell together!"

I activate the effect of The Wicked Eraser! Use itself as a sacrifice, and send all cards on the field to the graveyard!

Ultimate Annihilation! "

The Wicked God waved his sickle, raised his head and let out a high-pitched roar. Its body burst open, and the solid outer shell seemed to fall off under the high temperature.

The dark quagmire was continuously released from its feet. The black-robed magician, the invincible super warrior, and the masked hero bound by the trap, all were swallowed by the dark tide.

In the blink of an eye, the entire arena was cleaned up into an empty space, as if the entire duel had been reset, and there was nothing left.

Honda clenched his fists: "Damn it, the formation that Yugi and Yusei worked so hard to set up was destroyed in an instant"

Jonouchi: "But in this way, Bakura's Zombie World' was also destroyed by himself. The tactic of continuously resurrecting Wicked Gods from the cemetery can only work when the Zombie World' exists. If he loses this field now ..

Before he finished speaking, he saw Bakura squinting at him and smiled strangely twice.

"Is it really the case?"

"Ah?" The onlookers were all stunned.

"My duel has long exceeded the imagination of you mortals!" Bakura raised his hand and turned over another stone slab, "I summon Immortal Ruler!"

A bloated undead skull came to the field. Judging from the attire, this might still be a nobleman among the undead. This pair of skeletons was not only wearing a large and luxurious robe, but also adorned with various accessories, and there were even colorful rings on the dry and slender fingers.

[Immortal Ruler, ATK 1800]

"The effect of Immortal Ruler." Bakura said, "Tribute this card, then add 1 'Zombie World' from my graveyard to my hand."

"Ah, that's bad!" Yugi Muto couldn't help but yell, "'Zombie World' was again"

"That's right!"

Bakura laughed, and at the same time, the skeleton nobleman disappeared with a series of spells. The stone slab calling the field swirled out of the black vortex and returned to Bakura's hand. After being hit by him, it immediately floated into the air and turned over.

"Field Spell 'Zombie World', activate again!"

Endless black waves swept across, and the undead realm that had just disappeared for a moment once again filled the space. Wraiths and ghosts continued to appear and emit sharp and penetrating wails.

"In this way, all the Wicked Gods in the GY will become undead again and the defense line two of you are already clean!"

Bakura waved his hand: "Activate the effect of the third 'Mezuki' in the graveyard! Banish it and Special Summon 1 'Zombie' monster in my GY!"

Come again! The embodiment of ultimate fear, the trembling god

The Wicked Dreadroot! ! ! "

The wave of fear swept across again, darkness was overwhelming, and a giant like an aggregation of evil rose from the underworld, with a roar that frightened all the monsters in the field and dared not move!

[The Wicked Dreadroot, ATK 4000]

With 4000 points of attack power, there was nothing in front of him, this blow was definitely enough to make an OTK!

but

Bakura's sly eyes swept over Yui Vu and Yu Yu: "Hmph, although this blow is enough to kill you, if another 'Kuriboh' pops out of your hand like just now, all my previous efforts will be wasted.

So before attacking"

Bakura waved his hand, another stone slab turned over in front of him.

"Spell Card The Forceful Sentry!"

Yuei Vu: "!"

A group of players immediately went crazy.

"Damn it, Thousands-of-Years Banned Cards!"

"The Great Evil God even brought The Forceful Sentry! It looks like he is not bad when it comes to unfriending others."

Bakura said: "The effect of The Forceful Sentry! Check the opponent's hand and choose one of the cards to return to the deck!"

After a pause, he twitched the corner of his mouth and said in a sinister tone: "The Kuriboh' in the Pharaoh's hand has been used last turn. Then Duel King Yuei Vu, please show me your hand."

Yuei Vu: ""

Yuei Vu had no choice but to turn over the cards in his hand and show them to Bakura.

There's really a "Kuriboh".

"Hahahaha!!!" Bakura was extremely happy, "What a pity! If I had attacked so rashly, I would have wasted a great opportunity due to this little miscellaneous fish.

But not this time! According to the effect of The Forceful Sentry', shuffle Kuriboh' back into the deck! "

Yuei Vu had no choice but to put the Kuriboh back into the deck, and the deck shuffled automatically in the slot of the duel plate.

He had to admit that he really didn't calculate what Bakura just did and it was impossible to calculate.

It could only be said that the current Bakura's strength may have truly reached an unprecedented level, and may have reached a level that was truly worthy of his status as the "Great Evil God", DM's final BOSS.

In fact, Yuei Vu had already noticed it in the first turn. The powerful sense of oppression and the evil atmosphere that enveloped the whole place, as if facing the main body of the great evil god himself, made it extremely difficult to even look up.

The current Bakura might have reached Rank 10 or above or even the highest duelist level, Rank 12!

Undoubtedly, he was the strongest opponent among all the opponents Yuei Vu has faced so far, bar none.

"Farewell, Pharaoh, and you damned Duel King who is still haunting me!" Bakura couldn't hide the madness in his eyes, "The Wicked Dreadroot, attack directly!"

He was indeed excited.

The nameless Pharaoh and Holactie the Creator God of Light were the only two beings that Zorc feared in the world.

And now, he was about to kill them both in one fell swoop!

As long as these two people fall, no one can stop this evil god from doing whatever I wants!

When he thought of this, he couldn't help but throw his head back and laugh heartily!

The whole place was completely blown up, and the Kuriboh, the artifact that had saved countless lives, was forcibly sent back. Yuei Vu really had no means of defense now.

but

Yuei Vu's eyes quickly turned to his teammates beside him.

Pharaoh, use your invincible card printer to think of a solution!

And Yami Yugi indeed didn't disappoint him!

There was a crackling sound, and blue silk-like static electricity burst out in the air, like a spider web woven by electric light. Dreadroot's punch full of divine power hit the net with great force. The divine power spread in all directions with the storm, but it was finally blocked and failed to touch the two Duel Kings.

"What?" Bakura was stunned, "Why? Why weren't you defeated by the Wicked God?"

Yugi curled his lips, and a card popped up from the graveyard area of the Duel Disk.

"At the beginning of the last turn, I discarded two cards from my hand to the graveyard, and one of them was this guy!" He said, showing a card, "The effect of Electromagnetic Turtle! Once per Duel, during the opponent's Battle Phase: Banish this card from my GY; end the Battle Phase.

The Wicked God may not accept monster effects, but once the Battle Phase is over, even the god cannot continue to attack! "

"Oh, beautiful, as expected of Yugi!" Honda said.

The priests also praised: "Lord Pharaoh is so strong!"

"First the Kuriboh in the hand, and then the Electromagnetic Turtle in the cemetery? Yugi's defense is indeed impeccable!" Honda rubbed his nose, "Hey, let's just say, if Yugi and Yuei Vu join forces, no matter what kind of enemies, they can be defeated!"

Even Yuei Vu couldn't help but nod slightly.

Sure enough, he knew that he could always trust the Millennium Card Printer.

It is really stable to team up with Yugi to fight BOSS

Chapter 620: The Egyptian God Descends!

"It was blocked again!?" Bakura expressed doubts about life.

Being pitted by the grave trap after the hand trap, after the two rounds of fierce offensive by Bakura, he has not even touched a hair of the two Duel Kings on the opposite side.

"Damn." Bakura said unhappily, "What a tenacious guy. Then I set three more cards, and my turn is over."

"At the end of the turn, the effect of Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier' given by Evening Twilight Knight' ends." Yuei Vu said, "The card banished from your hand can be returned."

The stone slab emerged from the void, and accompanied by the leaping electric current, it slammed in front of Bakura with a bang. He glanced at it, hummed softly, and said nothing.

"Of course, at the same time, the activity time of the Special Summoned Wicked God is also over." Yuei Vu said, "The Wicked Dreadroot will return to the cemetery."

With a heavy roar, the large dark vortex on the ground opened up again. The huge body of Dreadroot sank into the ground inch by inch, like a mountain being sunk into the ground. Until its body finally disappeared, the vicious eyes were still firmly locked on the two Duel Kings, which made people palpitate.

But it disappeared in the end and went away together with the fear and pressure that suffocated the audience.

Bakura's front row became empty again.

It's a great time to attack!

"My turn, draw!" Yugi said, "Activate the Spell Card Graceful Charity'."

Yugi drew three cards, picked two put them into the graveyard, and then immediately took out one of the cards in his hand: "Special Summon Watapon'!"

well, of course, it's Watapon.

As we all know, Pharaoh's Watapon and cards that speed up card drawing were always glued together.

[Watapon, DEF 300]

But at this moment, Bakura also moved!

"The moment you activate the effect, open the set card! Trap Card Jar of Greed!" The stone slab in front of Bakura flipped over, summoning a red bottle that grinned greedily.

That style of artwork looked like the brother of the Pot of Greed.

"The effect of Jar of Greed, I draw a card from the deck." He said, "Immediately chain another trap card Chain Detonation! Give the opponent player 500 points of damage!"

[Yugi x Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3500]

Yuei Vu raised his arm to block the electric shock of 500 points of damage this was also the first time in this duel that Bakura had effectively reduced the health of both of them.

But is this card just for 500 damage?

Yuei Vu had an impression of Chain Detonation. It was generally used by decks that specialize in small burns. But Bakura's posture didn't look like he was trying to use a burn deck

Immediately afterward, Bakura waved his big hand again, and another covered stone slab flipped over.

"At this moment, the conditions for this card's activation are met! Quick-Play Spell Miraculous Rebirth!"

Yuei Vu: "!"

Is the real purpose here?

"Miraculous Rebirth can only be activated as Chain Link 4 or higher." Bakura said, "Watapon, Jar of Greed, and Chain Detonation have been activated on the same chain, thus the activation conditions are met.

According to the effect of Miraculous Rebirth', I can choose any monster in the graveyard of both sides to be resurrected! "

Bakura raised his arms high: "Return to the field for me once again! The Wicked Dreadroot!"

The black mist rolled again, and Dreadroot who had just left the scene was dragged out by the master before even taking a sip of water. It raised its head and roared like a monster, giving people the impression of saying "Why did I have to work overtime again?"

[The Wicked Dreadroot, DEF 4000]

Even though the Wicked God was so powerful, Bakura still chose to summon him in defense position. It was enough to show that although he sounded prideful and arrogant, he was actually quite cautious about this duel

"I see." Yugi understood, "Use the Wicked God as a wall to get through this round?"

Indeed, Yuei Vu's "Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier" directly sent the "Doomking Balerdroch" who could jump infinitely from the graveyard to another dimension with one sword, which still caused a big gap in Bakura's tactics.

When it came to Yugi and Yuei Vu's turn, Bakura didn't have the undead king that could be resurrected infinitely, so he had to find a way to pull out the Wicked God to act as a wall.

Although it's a shame to do this, it's really a bit difficult to solve.

Having 4000 DEF, divine resistance, and a suppressive effect that halved the attack power and defense power of the whole field, even in today's real-life card environment, this Wicked God was unsolvable for many decks.

Yami Yugi seemed to be unable to think of any good solutions for the time being, but his operation must continue.

Activate De-Spell' to destroy Zombie World!! Then I activate the Spell Card Multiply from the hand!

Tribute a monster on the field with 500 ATK or less to Special Summon any number of tokens. I used the Watapon as a sacrifice and specially summoned three Watapon Tokens! "

The small Watapon disappeared under the effect of magic, and soon three cute little Tokens were transformed. Each of them lowered their heads and shivered under the Wicked God's power.

[Watapon Token, DEF 300 DEF 150] x3

Seeing these three cute little guys, Yuei Vu and the onlookers already realized what was going to happen next.

Yugi carefully pulled out a card from his hand and raised it high in the air.

"Through the underworld and reality, coming in the chaos of thunder

God of the underworld! Osiris the Sky Dragon! ! ! "

Dark clouds gathered, thunder rolled, and blue thunder carried the body of the dragon down from the sky!

The arrogant Wicked God was suppressed, and the realm of fear was compressed to the extreme. Dreadroot retreated involuntarily and roared in the demonstration. The Egyptian God opened a red realm, the sky dragon coiled its body and hung in the air, and the dragon's roar penetrated the sky.

This was the first Egyptian God summoned by Yugi and Yusei in this duel!

"Oh, he's appeared! Yugi's Egyptian God!" Jonouchi took the lead in excitement.

The priests were majestic and solemn. The Egyptian soldiers in the rear and even the civilians outside the royal capital couldn't help but kneel down one after another when they saw the arrival of the Egyptian God, worshiping their gods devoutly.

but

"Have you finally appeared, Egyptian God?" Bakura was not surprised by this, but chuckled, "Without your role, this decisive battle would be too boring.

But Mr. Pharaoh, you haven't forgotten, have you? Osiris's attack power is determined by the number of cards in your hand, and you only have three cards in your hand and the effect of Dreadroot has also been applied!

Devil's Howling! "

Dreadroot roared furiously, and the pitch-black sound waves pierced through the air, causing the body of Osiris to shake violently.

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 3000 ATK 1500]

"Osiris with an attack power of 1500 can't defeat anything." Bakura sneered.

"I know." Yugi said calmly, and drew another card from his hand, "Set a card, I end my turn. At this moment, the Wicked God will return to the graveyard due to its own effect."

Dreadroot let out a groan, and once again sank back to the cemetery in a dull rumble. Sky Dragon watched its disappearing figure and raised its voice mockingly as if to say

That's right, that's it, go home and rub your eggs!

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 2000]

"Okay, it's your turn, Bakura." Yugi smiled, "Sky Dragon's attack power is only 2000, now is a great opportunity to defeat him."

"Damn you." Bakura moaned unhappily.

How could he not understand the meaning of Yugi?

Although it seemed that Sky Dragon only had 2000 attack power now, this thing had the ability to instantly kill any monster with ATK or DEF below 2000.

Even if he could directly fly out high-level powerful monsters without relying on any Tribute, it would still be deprived of 2000 ATK because of the "Summon Thunder Bullets" ability.

In other words, he had to find a way to summon a monster with an attack power of more than 4000 in one go in order to deal with the sky dragon.

If it was the last round, he could banish "Mezuki" in the graveyard and directly call a Wicked God to remove it, but now all three "Mezuki" in his graveyard have been consumed.

Now the trouble was thrown back into Bakura's hands.

"Don't underestimate me!" He muttered vaguely and raised his hand, "My turn, draw!"

The stone slab fell, and Bakura's eyes lit up when he saw the slate he had drawn.

Ha! Sure enough, fate favors me, the great evil god Zorc Necrophades!

"Look out, Yugi!" He felt that he was good again in an instant, "This is the card that will bring the end of your destiny!"
