

I Play Yu-Gi 641

Chapter 641

"Blue Eyes Hotel" was a high-end hotel owned by Kaiba Corp. Of course, it had special dueling facilities inside.

President Seto Kaiba was worthy of being the world's most addicted boy to playing cards. He thoughtfully considered that there may be problems for customers that could not be solved through discussion at the drinking table, and in the end, they have to be solved by playing cards, so he specially equipped the hotel with a first-class dueling arena.

In fact, not only hotels, but also most facilities related to Kaiba Corporation as long as they were compatible basically all have corresponding dueling facilities.

Perhaps thinking from President Kaiba's brain circuit, he felt that there was nothing in the world that could not be solved by playing cards. Friends gathering for dinner, business tycoons negotiating, asking for help, and completing formalities

In short, everything could develop into a tense and exciting duel.

What's even more awesome about the president was that at this time, he was smoothly and steadily spreading his "Duel Brain" to other people in the world. Over the past year, the atmosphere of dueling in various regions of the world has become more and more intense. It was said that sometimes even heads of state would carry Duel Disks with them during meetings and interviews

The duel with Mr. Phoenix has been a long time coming. The last time was when Yuei Vu just traveled to this world last year. At that time, Yuei Vu only had "pure Elemental HERO", while Mr. Phoenix used the undeveloped Destiny HERO.

This designer's card printing skills in the Industrial Illusions should be considered top-notch. The Destiny HERO series and the "Ultimate D" previously entrusted to Yuei Vu were enough to show Mr. Phoenix's professional strength in card printing.

Therefore, Yuei Vu still has expectations for the new HERO he mentioned.

They came to the duel arena and took a stand. Two children, Judai and Aster, were already lying together on the edge of the fence of the auditorium.

In such a short period of time after the meeting, the two have developed from strangers to very good friends this aspect should mainly be attributed to Judai.

It seemed that Judai had had this talent since he was a child. He had a quality that naturally attracted others to get close to him and become friends with him.

"Your dad looks great!" Judai said as he lay on the railing.

"Yeah! My dad is very powerful!" Little Aster nodded.

But after thinking about it, the silver-haired little shot then added seriously: "But it's not as powerful as Brother Yuei Vu."

Mr. Phoenix almost fell down on the field.

He coughed and adjusted his glasses: "Then, get ready."

Yuei Vu nodded and opened the Duel Disk.

"Duel!" x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Mr. Phoenix, LP 4000

That's right, unlike in the "Dark Side of Dimension" movie where everything was changed to the same 8000 LP as the real card rules, in the Link World a year later, although the rules for duels have become more standardized, the initial LP remained the same 4000 points.

Nowadays, Duel Disks have been updated. The new generation of Duel Disks produced by Kaiba Corp no longer required duelists to exchange and shuffle cards as before. All Duel Disks had their own automatic shuffling function.

After the automatic shuffling was completed, both sides stood in their respective positions, and the duel began.

"I'll go first."

After looking at the indicator light on the Duel Disk, Mr. Phoenix took action directly.

"My turn, draw." Mr. Phoenix said, "First, I activate 'Pot of Greed' and draw two cards.

Then activate the Spell Card 'Take Over 5' from my hand! (animation card)

Yuei Vu: "!"

Mr. Phoenix is indeed the expert of the card printing company, and he took out a good thing that made me covetous!

If Yuei Vu remembered correctly, this card was a commonly used card in the late period of GX. It was a magical card that had the functions of feeding the grave and thinning the deck!

"Send the five cards from the top of the deck to the graveyard." Mr. Phoenix pulled out five cards in one breath and placed them in the graveyard area of the Duel Disk. "And in my next Standby Phase, if this card is in my Graveyard, I can select and remove from play 1 card with the same name as this card from my hand, Deck, or Graveyard to draw 1 card."

He could pile up five cards in one breath, replace one card, and not lose any cards in his hand and that's not all. This thing could not only draw a card but also remove a card with the same name from the deck, which was equivalent to further compressing the deck space.

Maybe it was not a divine weapon like the "Pot of Greed" that everyone must bring as much as possible, but this card was also a very useful weapon in many decks.

"Activate the Spell Card 'Over Destiny'!" Mr. Phoenix continued, "Target 1 'Destiny HERO' monster in my GY; Special Summon 1 'Destiny HERO' monster from my Deck whose Level is less than or equal to half of that target's Level, but destroy it during the End Phase of this turn.

The one I chose was the 'Destiny HERO Malicious' whose level was 6. So I Special Summon from the deck Level 1, 'Destiny HERO Disk Commander! "

The illusory image of the demonic hero flashed briefly, blue light flashed, and the tall blue hero with flying saucers on his body flew out. Although he looked like a scumbag in terms of star rating and attack power, this guy was actually a big shot of the "Destiny HERO" series.

[Destiny HERO Disk Commander, DEF 300]

The effect of the Destiny HERO Malicious in the graveyard is activated! Mr. Phoenix continued, I can banish this card from my GY; Special Summon 1 Destiny HERO Malicious' from my Deck.

Bring it on! The second Destiny HERO Malicious! "

The vortex of black chaos flew out of his deck, and the fat hero with jet-black wings crashed to the ground, half-crouching with his arms crossed to block the field.

[Destiny HERO Malicious, DEF 800]

"Then I normal summon Destiny HERO Captain Tenacious!"

Another Destiny HERO continued to appear, this time with a bare upper body, all muscles, and an orange-red hairstyle like a Super Saiyan 3.

If according to the standard of "hair length determines strength", this man must be a strong man.

[Destiny HERO Captain Tenacious, ATK 800]

"Captain Tenacious', Malicious', Disk Commander'!" Mr. Phoenix raised his arms and pointed straight to the sky, "I offer these three Destiny HERO' monsters as sacrifices!

The conditions for summoning are three Destiny HERO monsters!

Now untie the shackles of fate here

Destiny HERO Dogma! ! ! "

A dark pillar of light rose into the sky, and a huge shadow appeared in it. The white sword flashing with cold light cut through the light curtain. The hero, wearing a black heavy armor, slowly stepped out of it, his footsteps leaving deep cracks in the ground.

He wore a cross-sectioned helmet with demonic gray-white horns on both sides. His chest was wrapped with layers of thick white iron chains, and behind him are broad wings like a cloak spread out.

[Destiny HERO Dogma, ATK 3400]

"Set three cards, I end my turn."

When Dogma appeared, Judai's eyes were already shining: "Oh, so awesome! Such a handsome hero! Called out such a powerful hero in the first round Ed, your father is really strong!"

"Really?" Little Aster began to babble.

But doesnt this still look like a Destiny HERO deck? Yuei Vu thought.

Seemingly seeing what Yuei Vu was thinking, Mr. Phoenix smiled: "Go ahead and attack, Mr. Yuei Vu. You will see the new hero soon!"

Chapter 642: Vision HERO

Since the other party said so, Yuei Vu wouldn't be polite.

But of course, he didn't play his signature HERO deck this time either.

"My turn, draw!"

A card was drawn from the deck, and at the same time, Mr. Phoenix raised his arm high: "The moment you enter your Standby Phase, the effect of Destiny HERO Dogma' is also activated!

When Dogma is face-up on the field, the opponent's player's LP will be halved during each of their Standby Phases! "

The hero, who was bound by heavy armor and iron chains, spread his arms and let out a powerful roar. Dark beams of light shot up from the soles of the hero and Yuei Vu's feet at the same time, and a virtual shock like an electric shock penetrated the whole body, making the hem of Yuei Vu's clothes rise slightly.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2000

"Ah! This hero is not only so handsome but also so powerful!" Judai's eyes started to shine again, "He can halve LP at every turn What a powerful ability!"

"Really?" Little Aster continued to feel proud, "The Destiny HERO designed by Dad is the strongest!"

However, Yuei Vu didn't take it seriously at all, and ate the entire set of virtual shocks with an expressionless face, as if he didn't feel anything at all. He randomly drew a card from his hand: "Spell Card Ancient Rules. Special Summon 1 Level 5 or higher Normal Monster from my hand.

Bring it on! Dark Magician! "

The magic circle spread out, and a Dark Magician with dark robes and light blue skin flew out. His black boots landed lightly on the ground, and his staff left light blue ripples wherever he swung it, like water droplets falling on the lake. ripples.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

In one year, although the system card pool was no longer updated, and there were no screwball players to harvest crystals for the time being, Yuei Vu was not idle at this time.

Industrial Illusions recently invested a lot of money to develop only a few new "Dark Magician" cards, each of which was priceless and legendary in rarity.

One of them was taken out by Industrial Illusions as a publicity stunt and given free to Duel King Muto Yugi, who was famous for having "Dark Magician" as his trump card.

The other one was given to Yuei Vu as a private gift by Tenma Yako, who thought that although it was not Yuei Vu's usual deck, he also had the "Dark Magic" series.

So the "Dark Magician" appearing here was the same new skin of the Dark Magician summoned by Yugi Muto in the "Dark Side of Dimension" movie.

Thus after such a long time, Yuei Vu finally got three "Dark Magicians" in his "Dark Magic" deck.

"Did you summon the famous ace of the Duel King Yugi Muto right off the bat?" Mr. Phoenix said, "But even the so-called strongest magician is no match for my Destiny HERO Dogma'."

"Don't worry, the power of the Dark Magician lies not in itself, but in the ability of developing high-level magic." Yuei Vu smiled and waved his hand, "I tribute Dark Magician' to Special Summon this card from my hand! The dark mage who judges evil Dark Eradicator Warlock! ! ! "

The Dark Magician hung his legs together in the air, holding his staff across his hands. The surging magic power gently lifted the hem of his clothes like a visible wind, and his robes undulated like dark waves.

The magic guide array with complicated patterns spread out under his feet, spinning like a wheel. The surging magic power enveloped his whole body one after another. The large robe covered his body, and the gems inlaid on the staff emitted a purple-black halo.

[Dark Eradicator Warlock, ATK 2500]

Mr. Phoenix understood: "Is this the Dark Magician's new form?"

As an industry insider, he has also heard that Dark Magician was a powerful magician with countless evolutionary forms and endless possibilities. Although it looked like an ordinary monster with an attack power of 2500, its hidden potential could not be underestimated.

"Activate the Spell Card Dark Magic Veil!" Yuei Vu said, "Pay 1000 LP; Special Summon 1 DARK Spellcaster-Type monster from my hand or Graveyard.

I resurrected the Dark Magician' who was just sent to the GY as a sacrifice! "

Yuei Vu, LP 2000 LP 1000

Like light blue and transparent flames burning out of thin air, the lines intertwined into the shape of a magic circle in the air. The black-robed mage majestically flew out of the magic circle, spinning and hovering in mid-air, the light on his staff flashing.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

"At this moment, the effect of Dark Eradicator Warlock' is activated!" Yuei Vu said, "Each time a Normal Spell Card is activated, inflict 1000 damage to the opponent!"

The ruling mage's face was like blue steel. He slowly raised his staff, and the purple light condensed into a huge light bomb and blasted out. The erupting ball of light was like a tank gun flying over the front line and exploding directly on Mr. Phoenix. Even though it was a virtual impact, the blast still caused Mr. Designer to stagger back.

Mr. Phoenix, LP 4000 LP 3000

Mr. Phoenix steadied his steps, adjusted his glasses, and raised the corners of his mouth slightly.

Yuei Vu quickly noticed. There seems to be something extra on the field in front of Mr. Phoenix

That one looked vaguely like a human figure, but it was vague and erratic. It could just barely be seen that it looked like a warrior wearing exoskeleton armor.

A phantom.

"The moment I took effect damage, the effect of the Vision HERO' sleeping in the GY was activated." Mr. Phoenix said, "I activate the effects of the Vision HERO Poisoner' and Vision HERO Increase' in the GY. They can be placed as Continuous Trap in my Spell & Trap Zone."

Sure enough, Vision HERO.

Yuei Vu was not surprised at all.

Just like the "Masked HERO" of Yuki Judai, "Vision HERO" was the representative deck of Aster Phoenix in the "Yu-Gi-Oh GX" manga. This was a HERO series with very powerful operational capabilities.

When the power of all the heroes including Elemental, Vision, Destiny, Masked, and even the Evil ones used by the Supreme King who was sealed deep in Judai's heart, were combined together, then it was truly the complete form of the HERO deck.

The characteristics of Vision HERO were somewhat similar to the well-known "Crystal Beast" series in GX animation. Monsters of the Vision HERO series could be placed as Continuous Traps in the Spell & Trap Zone.

More importantly, the Vision HERO series was very compatible with several other hero decks including "Elemental HERO" and "Masked HERO".

Getting a few key cards of Vision HERO would definitely improve Yuei Vu's existing HERO deck by a huge amount!

Thinking of this, Yuei Vu couldn't help but become more interested in this duel.

"Vision HEROes, is this the new series you mentioned?" He smiled softly, "Then let me see the potential of the new heroes!"

Chapter 643: Sorcerer of Dark Magic

"Continue to activate the Spell Card Spell Books from the Pot'." Yuei Vu said, "Both players draw three cards from the deck. At the same time, at this moment, the effect of Dark Eradicator Warlock' is also triggered again."

Another light bomb full of magic power, the impact of the virtual explosion made Mr. Phoenix retreat slightly.

Mr. Phoenix, LP 3000 LP 2000

"The Dark Magician and the Dark Eradicator Warlock As expected of Mr. Yuei Vu, you can summon such a powerful magician immediately in the first turn."

Mr. Phoenix let out a sigh of relief, but couldn't help but smile.

But this is still not enough.

Neither of these two magicians has the power to defeat the "Destiny HERO Dogma"

"I will sacrifice the Dark Magician and the Dark Eradicator Warlock at the same time!" Yuei Vu said.

Mr. Phoenix: "!"

These two mages are they just springboards?

"The conditions for summoning are 2 Level 6 or higher Spellcaster-Type monsters!"

Yuei Vu raised his arms high, and a black whirlwind surrounded the two mages. A dark cyclone rose into the sky, a dark magic circle spread out from the ground, and black flames swirled around the magic circle and burned fiercely.

The figures of the two strong magicians disappeared at the same time, and another body flew out of the magic circle! The more powerful magic wave turned into a virtual storm and rushed through the confined space.

[Sorcerer of Dark Magic, ATK 3200]

"It's actually Sorcerer of Dark Magic!?" Mr. Phoenix was shocked. "One of the most powerful wizards in the legend of the Dark Magic' series, a priest who has the power of judgment?"

The Sorcerer of Dark Magic was one of the aces of the Dark Magic deck in Muto Yugi's hands back then, and he was quite famous.

As long as the Sorcerer of Dark Magic was on the field, he could negate and destroy the activation of any trap card. He was a magician who specialized in restraining trap-type spells.

In front of Mr. Phoenix's three set cards, he was also the most suitable mage to appear at this time.

"That is to say, the trap will no longer work from now on" Mr. Phoenix murmured, "As expected of Mr. Yuei Vu, you gave me a difficult problem from the very beginning."

"Battle!" Yuei Vu waved his hand, "Sorcerer of Dark Magic, attack Destiny HERO Dogma!"

"Huh?" Little Aster was confused, "But in terms of attack power, daddy's hero should obviously be higher, right?"

"The effect of the Sorcerer of Dark Magic." Yuei Vu said, "When this card battles an opponent's monster, that monster loses 500 ATK for each Spellcaster-Type monster in my Graveyard."

Of course, this was an effect that was only available in the anime version of "Sorcerer of Dark Magic", and did not present on real-life cards.

A year ago, when he was playing the "Dark Magic" deck, the Sorcerer of Dark Magic in Yuei Vu's hand was still the real-life version. But now he finally got such an anime version.

"Now there are two Spellcaster-Type monsters in my graveyard, Dark Magician' and Dark Eradicator Warlock', so the attack power of Dogma has dropped by 1000 points!"

The Sorcerer of Dark Magic's expression remained calm as he slowly raised his staff and tapped the end of the staff lightly on the ground. The fluctuations of magic power surged out, carrying the power of the magician sleeping in the cemetery, and swept towards the burly hero of destiny.

"Open the set card!" Mr. Phoenix waved his hand, "Continuous Trap Illusion! When a Vision HERO' monster is on the field, halve the ATK of one of the opponent's monsters!" (manga card)

He pointed at the Sorcerer of Dark Magic from a distance.

"I'll halve his attack power!"

"Traps are ineffective against Sorcerer of Dark Magic." Yuei Vu said, "As long as he is on the field, he can negate the activation of the trap and destroy it!"

"I know!" Mr. Phoenix then flipped another card, "So I immediately activated the Quick-Play Spell Forbidden Chalice! Target 1 face-up monster on the field; until the end of this turn, that target gains 400 ATK, but its effects are negated!"

Here comes the forbidden fake wine.

After drinking the fake wine, a powerful Sorcerer of Dark Magic would just become a Normie with slightly higher attack power. Although his attack power would be increased to 3600 by drinking, it would be halved back to 1800 due to the effect of "Illusion".

The attack power of Dogma was 3400. If the battle was established, it would directly deal 1600 points of Battle Damage. And Yuei Vu's LP was only 1,000 left

The decisive moment!

"Interesting." Yuei Vu smiled, "Well, since your choice is the Forbidden Chalice', then I will use this trick

Quick-Play Spell Forbidden Lance! "

Mr. Phoenix: "!"

Is it actually a card of the same series as mine?

"The Forbidden Lance targets 1 face-up monster on the field; until the end of this turn, that target loses 800 ATK, but is unaffected by the effects of other Spells/Traps!

The target I chose is the Sorcerer of Dark Magic! "

[Sorcerer of Dark Magic, ATK 3200 ATK 2400]

"In this way, the effect of the Forbidden Chalice' on the Sorcerer of Dark Magic will be ineffective." Yuei Vu said, "Then the effect activated by the Sorcerer of Dark Magic' will be effective!

The Continuous Trap Illusion is negated and destroyed! "

The trap card next to Mr. Phoenix turned into countless golden powder with a "pop".

He adjusted his glasses frame and smiled helplessly: "As expected of Mr. Yuei Vu, there is no leakage"

"Eh?" Aster's little head began to wonder, "But if the attack power of the Sorcerer of Dark Magic is reduced, it will still be unable to compare with Dad's Dogma"

"That's not necessarily true." Judai seemed very happy to finally have the opportunity to say this line to increase his fashion value.

"The effect of the Sorcerer of Dark Magic!" Finally there was no interference, and Yuei Vu continued, "The attack power of the monster battled with him is reduced by 1,000 points!"

This time there was no interference, and the Sorcerer of Dark Magic's magical impact hit the teaching man directly. Dogma was shaken by the explosion, black smoke lingered in his chest, and his strength also dropped significantly.

[Hero of DestinyTeacher, ATK 3400 ATK 2400]

Evenly matched opponents!

After a series of offensive and defensive exchanges, the attack power of both warring parties dropped back to exactly the same level. The hero roared and struck out with a heavy iron fist, and magic burst out from the mage's wand. The fist power and magic fluctuations collided with each other, and both sides exploded and dissipated at the same time.

This round of confrontation was evenly divided.

"Open the set card!" Mr. Phoenix waved, "Trap Card Apparition! If a face-up HERO' monster I control is destroyed by battle or card effect: Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower Vision HERO' monster from my Deck.

Come on, Vision HERO Gravito! "

[Vision HERO Gravito, DEF 2000]

"Then the Battle Phase is over." Yuei Vu said, drawing another card from his hand, "I activate the Spell Card Return of the Doomed! Return 1 of my monsters that was sent to the Graveyard during this turn to the field in Attack Position." (Animation effect)

The cards that had just entered the graveyard popped up quickly from the graveyard area of the Yuei Vu.

"Return to my side! Sorcerer of Dark Magic!"

The dark magic circle released a torrent that broke out. The black-robed mage pulled out of it, his magic power surging rapidly.

[Sorcerer of Dark Magic, ATK 3200]

"Sorcerer of Dark Magic" and Kaiba's "Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon" were both new vests from the "Pyramid of Light" movie. According to the real-life card rules, they could only be specially summoned based on their own effects and cannot be resurrected from the graveyard.

The old version of "Sorcerer of Dark Magic" in Yuei Vu's hand last year also had the same limitations, but this animated version didn't seem to have this problem.

"Set a card, I end my turn."

Chapter 644: Adoration!

"My turn!"

Mr. Phoenix looked solemn, as serious as an unshakable sculpture.

He drew a card, looked at it, and then said: "In the Standby Phase, the effect of Take Over 5' in the graveyard is activated. Banish a card with the same name from the deck. After that, I can draw 1 card from the deck!"

Two Spell Cards were popped out of the deck and the graveyard respectively, and were taken away by Mr. Phoenix, who then replenished his hand.

"Then I activate the effect of the Vision HERO Gravito' on the field!" Mr. Phoenix continued, "Tribute this card, then target 2 Vision HERO' cards in my Spell & Trap Zone; Special Summon them!

Vision HERO Increase! Vision HERO Poisoner! "

The Gravito on the field gave a low shout, and his body gradually turned translucent until he completely disappeared from the field. The two heroes who were originally phantoms in the trap area turned into entities and came to the front as if they were pulled by invisible forces.

[Vision HERO Increase, ATK 900]

[Vision HERO Poisoner, ATK 900]

"It's about to begin, Mr. Yuei Vu! The counterattack of my Vision HEROes!" Mr. Phoenix shouted, "The first is the effect of Poisoner! If this card is Special Summoned from the Spell & Trap Zone: I can halve the ATK of 1 face-up monster on the field!

It was a Vision HERO wearing purple and black exoskeleton armor. He raised the gun in his hand, and the poisonous light bullet flew through the air from the barrel, hitting the body of the Sorcerer of Dark Magic head-on.

The purple-black poison spread along the priest's skin, and the lines looked like a blooming alien flower. The senior mage took two staggering steps back, half-kneeling on the ground weakly.

[Sorcerer of Dark Magic, ATK 3200 ATK 1600]

"Nice move." Yuei Vu praised.

Then there is the effect of Vision HERO Increase! Mr. Phoenix continued, If this card is Special Summoned from the Spell & Trap Zone: I can Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower Vision HERO' monster from my Deck.

The card I Special Summoned was 'Vision HERO Vyon!' "

The beam flew out from Mr. Phoenix's deck, and what followed was a jet-black metal hero. His body seemed to be made entirely of steel, and the purple and transparent single eye on his face reflected a dull luster.

[Vision HERO Vyon, ATK 1000]

"The effect of Vyon!" Mr. Phoenix said, "If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can send 1 HERO' monster from my Deck to the GY. I sent the Vision HERO Minimum Ray' to the graveyard.

Then I'm going to activate another effect of Vyon! Once per turn: I can banish 1 HERO' monster from my GY; add 1 Polymerization' from my Deck to my hand. "

Mr. Phoenix operations continue. The card of "Minimum Ray" was sent from the monster area to the graveyard, and then the "Destiny HERO Dogma" in the graveyard popped up from the graveyard.

He took Dogma and removed it from the game. At the same time, a Spell Card in the deck automatically popped up.

This was Vision HERO. Although on the surface it looked like they were all heroes with low attack power and low level, and their combat effectiveness seemed to be very average, in fact, the operation ability of this deck should be among the top among various HERO series.

"Activate Spell Card Polymerization!" Mr. Phoenix shouted, and played the spell that just be retrieved, "I fuse Vision HERO Poisoner' and Vision HERO Vyon' on the field!

The fusion condition is 2 HERO' monsters!

Fusion Summon! The overlapping of phantoms calls out the hero's true posture

Vision HERO Adoration! ! ! "

The two heroes both turned into phantoms and shot into the vortex in the air. The dark beams of light fell, and the phantoms gradually transformed into entities. The tall black-clothed hero stepped firmly, with jet-black ribbons flying around him.

[Vision HERO Adoration, ATK 2800]

The veteran HERO player Judai entered a highly excited state: "Oh, another super powerful hero has appeared!"

"Really?" Aster became more and more proud, "Vision HERO and Destiny HERO are both the most powerful heroes designed by dad!"

"Then I activate Equip Spell 'Sacrifice of Grave Goods' and equip it to Vision HERO 'Increase'." Mr. Phoenix continued, "The monster that is equipped with this card can be treated as 2 Tributes. (manga card)"

After a pause, he straightened the frame and said seriously: "Mr. Yuei Vu, this Vision HERO series is the work that I have devoted all my efforts to complete after the Destiny HERO. And this is the first time this deck is used in an actual duel."

No matter what, I hope this first opponent can be you. To this end, I will also use my full strength to show you how powerful our heroes are! "

Yuei Vu nodded: "Don't worry, just try your best."

"Yes!" Mr. Phoenix nodded vigorously and waved, "I tribute the Vision HERO 'Increase' equipped with 'Sacrifice of Grave Goods' as two sacrifices!"

Show yourself, my highest level Vision HERO

Vision HERO Witch Raider! "

In a whirlpool of sacrifices, a female Vision HERO fell with white gusts at her feet and a red wide-brimmed hat on her head. She has long flowing golden hair, cold green eyes, and holds a thick silver-white gun barrel in her hand.

[Vision HERO Witch Raider, ATK 2700]

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes: "This card is"

"The effect of the Witch Raider!" Mr. Phoenix shouted, "When this card is Normal Summoned: I can destroy all Spells and Traps the opponent controls!"

"Oh, it's another super beautiful and strong heroine!"

Little Judai became more and more excited as he watched, as happy as if he were celebrating a holiday.

Aster reminded: "But Brother Yuei Vu only has 1000 LP left. If all set cards are destroyed, won't he lose if he is attacked?"

"No, no, no." Judai, who was still immersed in the hero's handsome appearance, waved his hand, "Yuei Vu-sensei will not lose!"

"How do you know?" Little Aster was curious.

Judai puffed up his chest proudly: "Because, that's Yuei Vu-sensei!"

""

Vision HERO Witch Raider's effect was activated!

The thick barrel locked the backcourt, like a thunderous gunshot, the golden light went straight toward the set card in the back row of Yuei Vu!

If the opponent's offensive really passed like this, it would be really troublesome. But Yuei Vu obviously wouldn't let things develop that way: "Open the set card: Continuous Trap Dimension Gate!

This card banishes 1 face-up monster on my field. I'll send the Sorcerer of Dark Magic' to another dimension! "

A faint blue dimensional crack opened from mid-air, and the huge gravity sucked the "Sorcerer of Dark Magic" on the playground into it like an invisible hand, and disappeared out of thin air.

"Eh!?" Aster was dumbfounded, with a big question mark on his little head, "Why would he send his own monster away"

Mr. Phoenix was equally puzzled and just frowned and said: "But the effect processing of Vision HERO Witch Raider' will continue, and that card must still be destroyed!"

The golden light struck, and the Continuous Trap was penetrated from the center and twisted into countless pieces.

"I know." Yuei Vu said calmly, "At this moment, another effect of Dimension Gate' was triggered. When this card is sent to the graveyard, the monster banished by this effect can be Special Summoned back to the field!

Come back from another dimension, Sorcerer of Dark Magic! "

The dimensional rift opened again, the space was distorted, and the majestic black-robed mage fell back onto the field again under the purple light.

"Ah, he's back." Aster continued to be confused, "But why does Brother Yuei Vu do this?"

"That's right!" Judai was excited, "Because the attack power of Sorcerer of Dark Magic' was halved by Vision HERO Poisoner' just now. With 1600 ATK, he can rival neither Adoration nor Witch Raider.

But if he is summoned back by the Dimension Gate"

"The attack power will be reset!" Little Aster's eyes lit up, "It's so powerful!"

"It is indeed very powerful, but after all, it is Yuei Vu-sensei, so it is natural." This time it was Little Judai's turn to start to be proud.

Sensei is the best. JPG.

Mr. Phoenix also understood: "So, the attack power of the Sorcerer of Dark Magic is 3200. On the surface, it seems that this attack power of my Vision HERO really can't do anything huh?"

[Sorcerer of Dark Magic, DEF 2800]

He actually play it in Defense Position?!

Mr. Phoenix was secretly surprised.

Is it because he doesn't know if Adoration has any hidden special effects, so he tries to be cautious?

He is worthy of being the Duel King, even his intuition about cards is so terrifying!

"I activate the effect of Vision HERO Adoration'." Mr. Phoenix said, "Once per turn: I can target 1 face-up monster the opponent controls and 1 other HERO' monster I control; the opponent's targeted monster loses ATK and DEF equal to the ATK of my targeted monster, until the end of this turn!

My choice is Vision HERO Witch Raider'! Therefore, the Sorcerer of Dark Magic's ATK and DEF are all reduced by 2700! "

[Sorcerer of Dark Magic, DEF 2800 DEF 100]

"In this way, the attack power of my Vision HEROes will be enough to break through!" Mr. Phoenix said, "First, Witch Raider, defeat the Sorcerer of Dark Magic!"

With only 100 DEF left, the Sorcerer of Dark Magic in an extremely weak state would naturally have no energy left to resist the heroine's attack. With just one shot, the mage was blasted through without even making any decent resistance moves and disappeared out of thin air.

"Mr. Yuei Vu has such a terrible intuition. If the Sorcerer of Dark Magic was still in attack position just now, the duel would be over immediately."

Mr. Phoenix paused, his voice suddenly rising.

"But my attack is not over yet! Vision HERO Adoration, attack Mr. Yuei Vu directly!"

The Vision HERO raised his arms, dark streamers flew into the sky, and ink-colored light pillars rose from Yuei Vu's feet, like a netherworld volcano erupting from hell!

Ambition Sanctions! ! !

Chapter 645: The Rival of Kuriboh

Ambition Sanctions! ! !

The attack of Adoration, the sure-kill offensive, crossed the empty field in front of Yuei Vu and hit him head-on.

Facing this fatal blow, Yuei Vu just drew out a card from his hand

Kiteroid!

That's right, it's another new card that Yuei Vu got from Kaiba Corp's card library in the past year, the legendary life-saving artifact Kiteroid!

"Discard Kiteroid' from my hand." Yuei Vu said, "Only once, the Battle Damage caused by the opponent's direct attack becomes 0."

A dark and transparent image appeared in front of Yuei Vu out of thin air. It was the image of some kind of hang glider, with a pair of anthropomorphic eyes. The wide steel body protected the owner like a shield, completely resisting the attack of Adoration.

The "roid" series was familiar to many animation viewers in the past and was used by GX major character Sho Marufuji.

Nowadays, the Elemental HERO series has become popular on the market, and the "roid" series, which was a deck of the same period, has also been launched.

The first two card boxes of this deck had just been released, and without saying a word, Yuei Vu immediately went to collect a dozen "Kiteroids" to stock up.

This kind of life-saving artifact was bound to increase in price crazily in the future. It was also an artifact for harvesting leeks.

It's just that from now on, the invincible Kuriboh may have a strong rival

Kuriboh: Kuri Kuri! (A fierce declaration of sovereignty)

"Kiteroid? I see, is it a card from the new series released by the company two months ago?" Mr. Phoenix was surprised for a moment, "As expected of Mr. Yuei Vu, you are so thorough."

With all his offensive methods exhausted, he could only end the Battle Phase and draw another card from his hand.

"Set a card, I end my turn."

"Your father is also very powerful, Aster!" Judai said, "Of course, Yuei Vu-sensei is definitely the best in duels and stuff like that!"

Aster thought for a while, but actually didn't refute, and nodded his head gently: "Well, there is nothing we can do about it"

Mr. Phoenix: ""

Although it is true, it is quite helpless to hear my son say this

But the duel is not over yet.

Even if he couldn't win, he didn't intend to give up easily.

"My turn." Yuei Vu drew a card, "Spell Card Card of Demise! I can draw cards until I have 5 cards in my hand. During my 5th Standby Phase after activation, send all cards in my hand to the Graveyard.

if there are still five turns to go.

Mr. Phoenix looked solemn.

Is Mr. Yuei Vus counterattack coming?

"I summon Witch of the Black Forest' in attack position."

[Witch of the Black Forest, ATK 1100]

"Quick-Play Spell Illusion Magic!" Yuei Vu said, "Tribute 1 Spellcaster monster; add up to 2 copies of Dark Magician' from my deck or GY to the hand.

I added a Dark Magician' card from the graveyard and another from the deck to my hand! "

"Did you still choose to fight back with the Dark Magician'?" Mr. Phoenix murmured.

"No, at this moment, the effect of Witch of the Black Forest' was triggered." Yuei Vu said, "When this card is sent from the field to the graveyard, I can add 1 monster with 1500 or less DEF from the deck to my hand.

I added Super Soldier Soul from the deck to my hand! "

"Super Soldier Soul?" Mr. Phoenix realized something.

"Spell Card Graceful Charity. Draw 3 cards, then discard 2 cards."

Yuei Vu drew the cards and without much thought, he immediately picked out the two cards sent to the graveyard.

"The effect of the Super Soldier Soul' that was sent to the graveyard is activated!" The card just sent to the graveyard was immediately ejected from the duel disk. "I can banish this card from my Graveyard; add 1 Beginning Knight' from my Deck to my hand!"

Seeing the card popping out of Yuei Vu's deck, Mr. Phoenix quickly understood: "Is the ultimate goal to retrieve that card?"

"Spell Card Pre-Preparation of Rites!" A Spell Card appeared in front of Yuei Vu again, "Add 1 Ritual Spell from my Deck to my hand, and add 1 Ritual Monster from my Deck or GY to my hand whose name is mentioned on that Ritual Spell.

I added the Ritual Spell "Black Luster Ritual" and the Ritual Monster "Black Luster Soldier" to my hand. "

"Sure enough." Mr. Phoenix understood. "It is rumored that Mr. Yuei Vu obtained the strongest warrior in the Land of Trials"

"Ritual Spell Black Luster Ritual!"

A simple altar appeared, silver swords were crossed, and flickering flames rose from the altar.

"By Tributing monsters from my hand or field whose total Levels equal 8 or more, Black Luster Soldier' is Ritual Summoned from the hand card!"

Yuei Vu showed off the large amount of resources he had just earned in one breath.

"Level 7 Dark Magician, Level 4 Beginning Knight, two monsters as sacrifices! Ritual Summon!"

One soul leads the light, one soul leads the darkness, and the door to chaos opens here

Black Luster Soldier is coming! ! ! "

The two sacrificial souls sank into the altar, penetrated the shackles of space, broke open the door, and rushed into the field of chaos. The original cyclone of heaven and earth fell from the sky, the golden light turned into a human form, the knight-like blue armor jumped to the ground lightly, and the long sword cut through space.

[Black Luster Soldier, ATK 3000]

"This is the strongest warrior in the legend"

Mr. Phoenix, who was both a duelist and a designer, couldn't help but lose consciousness when he saw the arrival of this handsome and domineering warrior king.

Needless to say about the two children. Little boys at this age were the least able to resist things like swords, knights, armor, etc

"The Black Luster Soldiers summoned using Beginning Knight' can obtain new effects." Yuei Vu said, "Once per turn, I can banish a monster on the opponent's field!

Remove Vision HERO Adoration' from the game! "

The Black Luster Soldier slowly raised his sword. The release of the sword energy seemed to distort the space, and even the image of the warrior himself began to become erratic.

With a flick of his wrist, the sword blade fell, and the space where the sword light touched was immediately displaced.

Chaos Dimension Slash!

Mr. Phoenix's pupils shrank: "Open the set card: Trap Card Ambush Shield! Tribute 1 monster. Select 1 monster on the field. It gains ATK equal to the DEF of the Tributed monster!" (anime card)

He pointed at the Vision HERO locked by the slash that opened up the way to a chaotic dimension.

"I tribute Vision HERO Adoration', and the defense power is added to the attack power of the Witch Raider!"

[Vision HERO Witch Raider, ATK 2700 ATK 4800]

"With an attack power of 4800, it won't be easy to defeat!" Little Aster clenched his fist.

The figure of Adoration disappeared out of thin air. Only half a second later, the space he was in was temporarily displaced, and a sword penetrated the dimension.

"Have you been dodged? Then fight directly." Yuei Vu raised his hand, "Black Luster Soldier, attack the Vision HERO Witch Raider'."

"Eh!?" Aster's eyes widened, "Even if the attack power is lower, do you still have to attack?"

Mr. Phoenix didn't know his intentions, but he had no choice at this time: "Witch Raider, fight back!"

The Black Luster Soldier charged forward, holding his long sword horizontally. The sword light flashed with his movements, leaving intermittent golden light in the air.

The Vision HERO lifted the barrel of the gun, pointing the thick silver muzzle directly at the flickering afterimage, and the energy vortex condensed in the barrel.

"At this moment!" Yuei Vu showed a card in his hand again, "Activate the effect of the Envoy of Chaos' in my hand! During the Battle Phase, I can discard this card, then target 1 Black Luster Soldier' monster or Gaia The Fierce Knight' monster I control; it gains 1500 ATK until the end of this turn."

[Black Luster Soldier, ATK 3000 ATK 4500]

"Equivalent to the attack power of the Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon!" Judai exclaimed.

"But the attack power is still not as good as Dad's Vision HERO!" Ed said.

Yuei Vu added: "Furthermore, in the turn when Envoy of Chaos's effect is activated, every opponent's monster that battles it this turn has its ATK become that monster's original ATK during damage calculation only!"

Mr. Phoenix's glasses almost slipped off: "Nani?"

[Vision HERO Witch Raider, ATK 4800 ATK 2700]

Not only strengthening the power of the Black Luster Soldier but also eliminating the enhancement brought by "Ambush Shield"?

Mr. Yuei Vu is well-deserved!

But

Mr. Phoenix's eyes flashed under his lenses, and he also quickly drew a card from his hand and stuffed it into the graveyard.

"Activate the effect of the Destiny HERO Dynatag' in my hand!" he said, "During damage calculation, when I would take battle damage, discard this card and I take no battle damage from that battle!

After that, both players take 1000 points of damage! "

Yuei Vu: "!"

Good guy, a new card in the Destiny HERO series? And it's also a hand trap!

Mr. Phoenix has really not been idle this year.

Yuei Vu, LP 1000

Mr. Phoenix, LP 2000

Little Judai thought quickly: "1000 points of damage, this means"

"Both sides suffered 1,000 damage. Dad still has 1000 LP, but Brother Yuei Vu's LP becomes 0!"
Little Aster's eyes lit up, "Dad wins!"

The Black Luster Soldier's sword was about to strike, and the Witch Raider's slender finger on the trigger was about to pull. At the moment when the battle was about to break out, "Destiny HERO Dynatag" appeared like a ghost in the middle of the two sides, with a dark golden light flickering on and off, like an explosive bag on the verge of detonating. ..

Boom! ! !

There were strong explosions, heat waves erupted, smoke swept across, and the sound waves irritated the eardrums.

The two children were so frightened that they fell to the ground, trying desperately to open their eyes wide despite the gorgeous and dazzling light effects.

"How's it going?"

"Who's winning?"

""

Yuei Vu, LP 1000

Mr. Phoenix, LP 0

Mr. Phoenix looked at the big word "LOSE" on his Duel Disk with a blank expression on his face.

What's the situation?

Why did I lose?

Then he raised his head, looked beyond the smoke screen, and saw the eye-catching Spell Card standing in front of Yuei Vu.

Spell of Pain: When your opponent activates a card or effect that would inflict effect damage to you: Your opponent takes the effect damage from that card or effect, instead.

Chapter 646: Taking A Disciple

"I lost."

Standing at the entrance of the "Blue Eyes Hotel", Mr. Phoenix said helplessly once again before leaving.

"Mr. Yuei Vu's duel is impeccable as always. I know it may seem like I have a chance to win, but in fact, I have no chance at all, right?"

"That's not true."

Yuei Vu shrugged and pressed Judai's little jellyfish head beside him, stopping the child's restless cells from running around.

"Your Vision HERO' is indeed impressive." Yuei Vu said seriously, "I believe that when they are officially released, they will be a deck of epoch-making significance.

Their birth will be an important turning point in the development of the "HERO" series, and it also means that the "HERO" deck has entered a new era. "

"It's a great honor for you to think so." Mr. Phoenix's eyes flashed.

For a designer, the greatest honor is to have his work recognized. The deck he designed can be personally recognized by the Duel King and Yu Yu is regarded as a symbolic figure of the "Hero" series in this world. This is equivalent to a very high degree of honor and award.

"But they are not completely completed yet." Mr. Phoenix said, "What I brought today are just completed samples. I tried to combine them with the Destiny HERO' I designed before, and constructed this deck. At least I think the compatibility is pretty good."

After a pause, he added: "Of course, it's just my personal thought. When it comes to the HERO' deck, it is true that it can only exert its greatest power in the hands of Mr. Yuei Vu.

Although it is just a sample now, if you are interested, you can take this sample first"

Yuei Vu waved his hand: "No, no, just give me a priority purchase channel when it is officially released."

To be honest, he was not short of money. He was still willing to buy cards that could be bought with money. There was no need to take advantage of others.

Except for President Kaiba.

To be honest, he had lost count of how many cards he had taken away from Kaiba Corp's card warehouse. Kaiba never asked, and naturally, he never took the initiative to mention it.

Anyway, the president was very wealthy and didn't lack a few cards

But Mr. Phoenix was quite insistent on this aspect: "Please just accept these cards first. Although they are just a few cards, they should be of great help to you."

Yuei Vu glanced at it, and what he handed over were the more common monsters of Vision HERO.

"Hey, this is so inappropriate"

The passerby with the Yu- prefix declined and took the cards from his hand.

Mr. Phoenix smiled and stretched out his hand to gently support his glasses frame, which seemed to be about to slide down the bridge of his oily nose at any time.

"It would be great if I could help you. After all, I am just a small card designer. Apart from that, there is nothing else I can do."

Mr. Phoenix rubbed Aster's little head and said softly: "If it weren't for you, Mr. Yuei Vu, this child might not have a father now."

Little Aster was stunned, looking a little dazed. However, he quickly hugged his father's waist tightly, as if he was afraid that if he accidentally let go, the other party would slip through his fingertips.

"Okay." Since the other party said so, Yuei Vu didn't refuse anymore (in fact, the card was already in his pocket), "Thank you very much."

"One more thing." Mr. Phoenix said, "I heard that President Kaiba is preparing to establish the World Duel League system?"

"Well that's what happened."

Yuei Vu recalled it and seemed to remember it.

Not long ago, the president called him to the office again and said a lot about future plans for the duel field. He seemed to have mentioned the establishment of a league system.

According to his vision, the league would be played in cities around the world. Investors would purchase league seats to establish clubs and recruit outstanding duelists to compete around the world.

Of course, Yuei Vu wasn't very interested, so he didn't pay much attention. It didn't have much to do with him anyway.

He only remembered that he mentioned it to the president again, saying that he still wanted to be a teacher at the duel academy that was about to open.

This time the president didn't refuse, but he quickly took out a Duel Disk and said:

Yes, I agree, but

You have to ask the deck in my hand first!

Come on, Yuei Vu, lets duel!

Yuei Vu: ""

Because Yuei Vu was already the Duel King, a person who stood at the top of the duel world. With his status, he usually did not participate in regular leagues.

In fact, it's not just him, Yugi was the same.

In the GX animation, Aster's adoptive father, the little thief DD who was possessed by the "Light of Destruction" and stole the Plasma card, actually claimed to have won the world championship for ten consecutive years.

Such a guy could actually win ten consecutive championships. First of all, it could only be said that "Light of Destruction" was really a bit awesome. Secondly, it also proved that Muto Yugi and even Seto Kaiba himself have not participated in this league in ten years.

Otherwise, how could this thing win the championship?

In fact, whether it was Yugi or Yuei Vu, they were now equivalent to the "Duel King for Life" in the industry. They rarely attended regular competitions anymore, and they no longer needed to accept challenges from other duelists to defend the name of Duel King.

As the first-generation Duel Kings, their appearance fees were now incredibly high. Even if well-known groups wanted to invite these two first-generation Duel Kings to participate in an event, they had to think twice.

But it was precisely because of this that Yuei Vu always felt at a loss when he thought about it.

My price is so high now, yet I'm played free by President Kaiba every time!

The president sent him messages every now and then, saying things like "The company will have some activities on that day, and you must be there."

However, he has never heard the president mention appearance fees

He had heard for a while that Kaiba was planning to hold the second "Battle City" competition to determine the title of the new generation of Duel King. Of course, the two first-generation Duel Kings would permanently retain the title of "Duel King" and do not need to participate in new competitions.

At first, Yuei Vu thought that the president's operation was a good plan. If he excluded two people he could not beat from the competition, then wasn't this new title of Duel King already in his pocket?

Only later did Yuei Vu realize that he seemed to have wrongly blamed the president.

President Kaiba also made it clear that he would not participate in any competition for the title of Duel King again.

Not that he's lost interest in the title.

But

"Duel King? Stop joking!" Seto Kaiba shouted sharply at that time, "Before I defeat Yuei Vuand that guy, the title of Duel King is an insult to me!"

This was Seto Kaiba, a perfectionist.

He couldn't tolerate being given the title of "King" while having two people sitting on his head.

What's even more annoying is that that damn Yu Gi actually ran away after sitting on my head!

Unforgivable!

""

"This may be an unreasonable request. If you find it inconvenient, you can forget it." Mr. Phoenix paused, glanced at his son, and then said, "I hope Aster can enter the professional circle."

Little Aster's eyes widened with surprise on his face.

"Oh?" Yuei Vu was surprised, "He's cute, but isn't he still young?"

"He's not that young anymore. He should be qualified in two years."

There was indeed no age limit for players in the professional league. After all, in the original work, Aster was actually only 15 years old when he appeared.

"Aster is indeed very talented in dueling. I hope Mr. Yuei Vu can take care of him when the time comes. If possible, it would be best to take Aster with you to guide him"

Yuei Vu heard it.

Mr. Phoenix may have been a little moved when he saw that he had taken on a disciple like Judai, and wanted to give him his son

But Yuei Vu still politely refused and only promised to take care of Aster when he entered the professional circle.

After all, taking a disciple was only time-consuming but also laborious.

Sometimes he felt tired with only Judai, a troubled boy, and he had no energy or mood to accept other students for the time being.

Speaking of which, not long ago, Chika-chan was lying on the side for a while and listened to Yuei Vu's tutoring Judai, and she actually came up to join in the fun, saying that she also wanted to be Yuei Vu's apprentice.

But Yuei Vu didnt take her either.

Why does Chika-chan really want to learn how to play cards? Her mind was not on playing cards at all!

If I really take her in, I may get raped by my apprentice!

Chapter 647: Transcend Dimensions

"Debugging process is complete."

"The system energy value is normal."

"President, the Duel Link system is online and is currently operating normally!"

""

That's right, Kaiba actually created such a global online duel system here

The "Duel Link" system developed by Kaiba Corp here was quite different from the online games that everyone is familiar with in the world of Yuei Vu's previous life. This system did not rely on the Internet, but relies on human brain waves to connect to each other, building a vast and boundless virtual space.

This was an unprecedented and great attempt. Even in the game industry, no one has ever tried to develop such a huge system. The prototype of the virtual space was based on the virtual world where Kaiba Noah imprisoned all the contestants in Battle City. Once this system was completed, it would be a great achievement across the century.

Imagine that across the shackles of space, the brain waves of countless people are linked through a common center. People communicate and collide directly with each other through ideas, and use pure brainpower to build a vast new world. What an incredible technology!

Of course, such a powerful technology should of course be applied in the field of dueling first.

In this way, duelists from different countries could play cards happily together across geographical, racial, and language barriers!

After logging into the game, the developers of the Duel Link system couldn't help but marvel at it. They just felt that the effect achieved by this technology was simply incredible. It would not be an exaggeration to say that this was a miracle of this century.

At present, Kaiba Corp has invited more than one million subjects around the world for testing. The company was busy collecting brain wave data and further improving the system.

Developers rushed to tell each other and opened champagne to celebrate. Everyone thought it was a huge success and a technical miracle with the exception of President Kaiba.

President Kaiba called the system currently under testing a "half-baked, semi-finished product."

Because his expectation for this system, which may even be his original expectations when he built this system, was transcend dimensions!

That's right, what he wanted to develop was not just a card-playing system that transcended space limitations, he also wanted to transcend time and space!

Synchronize all the consciousnesses of duelists from different dimensions to play cards together!

In this way, maybe he could ascend to a dimension beyond this world, find the realm called "Underworld" in a higher dimension and find the man with whom he still has matters to settle!

Coincidentally, today looked a bit like the time for that opportunity to arrive.

""

"Onii-sama!"

Mokuba, dressed like a little adult, ran over from the direction of the experimental center in a panic, holding a tablet in his hand.

"You have to see this! Unprecedented data was found on the monitoring device of the Duel Link System!"

Mokuba quickly made two strokes on the tablet and handed it to Kaiba.

Kaiba took it in his hand and glanced at it, his expression slightly changed.

He saw readings he had never seen before. The brain wave data of the subjects showed a high degree of coherence. The limited consciousness seemed to be pulled by an invisible hand, pointing countless fluctuations of consciousness toward a higher place.

That was exactly what Kaiba was pursuing, the perfect reading that only existed in theory.

Following this rising consciousness, maybe we can transcend dimensions!

"Prepare equipment for me immediately!" Kaiba shouted, "I want to log in to the Duel Link system myself!"

Mokuba quickly guessed what his brother wanted to do. He opened his mouth to warn his brother that his next attempt would be dangerous. If he were not careful, his consciousness could never return to its proper place, or he might even die from brain overload, but he hesitated for a moment and finally did not speak.

Because he also knew that even if he said it, it would be useless.

He recognized that look on his brother's face.

It was a serious expression of someone who had determined something and would stick to it no matter what. Even ten trucks couldn't pull him back.

Nothing not even the destruction of the world could stop Seto Kaiba's determination to cross dimensions to find his old enemy!

Seeing a group of experts hurriedly preparing special login tools for Kaiba, Mokuba stepped aside without saying a word, quickly opened the "frequently used contacts" list on his phone, and sent a message to Yuei Vu.

Brother Yuei Vu, come back quickly!

At this time, President Kaiba had already sat in a certain device, which looked a bit like a game cabin and a bit like the cockpit of some kind of alien spacecraft.

Kaiba closed his eyes and flipped the switch.

A golden stream of light gradually began to appear in front of his eyes, as if countless particles formed a long glowing river. He felt that his consciousness was gradually being taken away from his body, and he was thrown into the river, becoming a drop of water in the rushing torrent, moving forward with the current.

His consciousness was accelerating, and the golden light flowing around him was like a long river with no end in sight. His body felt strangely weightless, and the strong sensation was like countless sharp needles provoking his nerves, and his brain was sending out dangerous signals as if lifeless.

Maybe Seto Kaiba didn't realize that he might die, or maybe the excitement of being reunited with that person made him forget about it.

He could feel the moment when his consciousness transcended the constraints of the physical body!

Kaiba felt that using the supernatural explanation that guy often liked to talk about, this might be what it feels like when the soul leaves the body. He felt that he was breaking free from the constraints of his body and that his soul was breaking out of its flesh prison. He saw the new world, the unknown possibilities, and the outline of a new dimension revealed before his eyes.

Kaiba: This is very scientific.JPG.

In that new world, on the other side of the golden horizon, he saw the shadow of a man.

Majestic and solemn, like an ancient king who has stepped out of the long river of time, with a shining cone hanging on his chest, like an upside-down pyramid. There was an open eye on the pyramid, examining the good and evil of everyone's soul. ..

For a moment, Kaiba's breathing became stagnant and his blood surged His current state was similar to that of a spirit body, with no flesh and blood at all, so it couldn't be described as such.

But he did feel excited.

This was the sense of excitement that after going through hardships and searching all your life, you finally came across that distant shadow in your memory.

Well, of course, strictly speaking, Atem has only been gone for a year.

But for card addicts well, you know what I mean.

You can't imagine what President Kaiba has gone through this year to relieve his card addiction.

(Yuei Vu: You also can't imagine what I went through to relieve the president's card addiction)

Now he's finally found it! His first and destined opponent!

Come on, YuGi! Let's duel

Before the president could have his joy, the scene in front of him suddenly changed. His pupils shrank, and he realized that the golden and majestic figure was quickly moving away from him, and the surrounding scenes were moving back crazily as if they were rewinding.

There seemed to be a huge gravitational force behind him, pulling his weightless soul back toward the cage of his body. He couldn't control himself and could only watch the figure in front of him gradually disappear, go away, and disappear into smoke.

He was quickly retracing his steps. Countless images flashed before his eyes, including fragments of his own memory and the influence of other consciousnesses related to his existence.

On the way back, he also saw other unexpected things

The endless void, the depths of darkness, then a white light that was so strong that people could not look directly was the endless darkness. A silver-white dragon opened its eyelids to reveal blue eyes, raised its head and roared towards the endless void.

A shadow surrounded by light was reflected in Kaiba's pupils. The graceful figure seemed to be that of a woman, with long hair falling naturally and softly what is that!?

But before he had time to think about it, the image disappeared in a fleeting moment.

The golden realm faded, and he was kicked out like a virus program caught by anti-virus software. He fell back to his body hard, and the discomfort that soaked his body with sweat quickly came over him.

Kaiba opened his eyes suddenly and heard Mokuba calling his name next to him.

The glass hatch opened, and Kaiba suddenly stood up, furious.

"Who!? Who turned off the system?"

Kaiba actually knew that his life might be in danger if the system had not been forcibly shut down just now, and the forced termination was actually for his own good.

but he didn't care.

Just a little bit closer, I'll meet that guy and complete our unfinished duel!

Such a good thing was ruined by some ignorant guy!

Needless to say, whoever shut down the system was immediately fired, and even Mokuba's plea for mercy wouldn't work!

Then the president turned around and saw Yuei Vu standing by the console, who had just forcibly unplugged his network cable.

"You will die, President." Yuei Vu completely ignored Kaiba's anger and looked indifferent.

The researchers in white coats next to them slowly moved away from Yuei Vu in small steps. Each of them had nothing to do with themselves. They almost pointed at Yuei Vu and said to the president, "It's him." It has nothing to do with me."

It's actually the abominable Yuei Vu!

"snort!"

Kaiba glared at him fiercely, turned away, and said nothing.

That just now was definitely not an illusion.

The guy is there, I can feel it!

Although he still failed to get the duel he wanted, the experience of failure still made Kaiba feel excited.

For the first time, he found evidence that there was still a chance of finding the guy.

Meanwhile, elsewhere.

A silver-haired girl slowly opened her blue eyes, and the silver-white dragon king raised his head and roared under the dark sky.

Chapter 648: One-Year Anniversary

"Hello."

The waitress at the beverage shop showed a gentle smile that could give her an eighty-point score. Her voice was almost swallowed up by the rumbling roar behind her that soared into the sky, followed by a series of sharp screams.

That's from a big silvery guy. A white dragon swooped down from a track nearly 100 meters high. Its silver-white steel wings cut through the white clouds like sharp knives. A pair of blue eyes were shining brightly in front of it.

A roller coaster with a drop of nearly 100 meters was shaped into the shape of a Blue-Eyes White Dragon.

Of course, this was Kaiba Land.

Today was the one-year anniversary of the completion of Kaiba Land.

"Hello." As if her voice was drowned out by the roller coaster, the waitress repeated, "What would you like to drink?"

Yuei Vu stood in front of the menu in the beverage shop, feeling a little messy.

Hmmlet me see.

Should I order a Blue-Eyes Alternative White Dragon milk tea or a Twin Burst latte?

Every time I go to Kaiba's territory, I feel like my boss has such an innate talent. He can show off his White Bride in all kinds of unexpected places as if he can't wait to announce to the world "She is mine"

The waitress was still dutifully recommending: "Would you like to try the newly launched Deep-Eyes' milk tea?"

Does it correspond to White Bride's new vest "Deep-Eyes White Dragon"?

But if he remembered correctly, Yuei Vu was pretty sure that the last time they played cards actually not that long ago the president still didn't have the "Deep-Eyes White Dragon" in his hand.

So since the last time we fought, the president has printed a new vest for White Bride?

Yes, the president has become more and more efficient in printing cards recently.

Little Judai on the side did not hesitate at all: "I want the combination of Elemental HERO' and Masked HERO'!"

"Okay." The waitress smiled and flicked the screen on her side twice. "I'll place an order for you first. Do you need anything else?"

Yuei Vu: ""

It's outrageous to say that most of the entire menu is basically a variety of White Dragon set meals, and there are actually a few "HERO" flavored milk tea slots crammed into the corner.

What does this mean?

Does it mean that the president still remembers that there is a Duel King in the company?

"Then give me a basic White Dragon'."

"Then let me try the Deep-Eyes'," Chika whispered.

Yuei Vu took out his credit card, paid the bill, and soon came out with three cups of milk tea.

Chika took a few sips of the newly launched "Deep-Eyes" milk tea and quickly turned to Yuei Vu: "This new product tastes good."

"Really? That's good."

Yuei Vu responded casually, while in his mind he was planning the speech he would make when he appeared on stage later.

It was the first anniversary of the establishment of Kaiba Land. There was a special celebration event in the park today. In more than two hours, President Seto Kaiba would come to deliver a speech in person. By then, the Duel King would have a small role and need to go on stage to say a few words to heat up the atmosphere.

In fact, based on Yuei Vu's current status, he just stood on the stage, brushed his face, and without saying or doing anything, his popularity naturally rose.

But the annoying thing is Kaiba doesn't give an appearance fee!

Do you really not regard me as an outsider?

Yuei Vu thought this shouldnt continue!

unless the salary is increased!

Chika took two more sips, hesitated for a while, and then whispered: "Well, Yuei Vu do you want to try it too? This one tastes good."

"Huh? Okay."

Yuei Vu took the milk tea from her hand and took a sip through the straw.

without changing the straw!

After noticing this detail, a blush briefly flashed across Chika's face, her head lowered and she remained silent.

"It's pretty good." Yuei Vu handed the paper cup back to her, "I'll try this next time."

"Uh-huh."

Chika was dizzy, and when she took the cup, she seemed to be even more swaying when she walked.

Yuei Vu didnt pay much attention to the specific content of this first anniversary celebration, but he probably heard some simple announcements about the Duel Link system under development, which attracted attention.

He didn't know the details, but he could probably imagine it.

Isnt it just painting a pie anyway? I saw it a lot at the EA gaming show.

Thinking about it this way, if Kaiba Corp was a game company, it may really have such a conscience that it would make all manufacturers around the world ashamed. In order to encourage everyone to play cards, Kaiba Corp directly gave out Duel Disks according to the duelist levels they classified, and even spared no expense to vigorously develop the aerospace industry, energy industry, and space field exploration all in order to bring a better gaming experience to players all over the world.

This was in sharp contrast to some unscrupulous companies that draw a big pie and then hold it back for three to five years without producing anything, and sprinkle some green onion on last year's sour pie every year at the press conference.

The second-generation Duel Disk released earlier this year was said to already support facial recognition unlocking. Not only could it be used to play cards, but it could also be used to undertake more tasks in life. It was said that even many people who did not play cards had such a Duel Disk.

Its just that this generation of Duel Disks was said to have room for improvement in facial recognition technology.

The acquaintance around Yuei Vu who was most offended by this Duel Disk was probably President Kawasawa Gai.

That day at the Nightcrawler World Headquarters, as soon as Yuei Vu entered the door, he heard President Gai cursing, saying that the Duel Disk was too deceiving.

It was normal that face recognition may be unsuccessful sometimes, but today it reported that it failed to detect any human face

You are just a mere Duel Disk, who do you think you are looking down on?

Isn't it just that the hair on the forehead is a little less, the facial features are a little more abstract, and the appearance is a little uglier?

Immediately afterward, another clear and sweet female voice was heard from the Duel Disk: "Sorry, the face could not be detected, please re-identify"

At that time, everyone present turned their heads away, showing painful expressions saying, "It might not be good to laugh out loud, but I really can't hold it back."

Yuei Vu glanced at his watch.

There were still two hours left before the event, and his appearance time had been arranged relatively late. It should be too late to accompany Chika to the central venue slowly and leisurely.

"Um, excuse me?"

A very soft voice sounded from the side.

Chika quickly came to her senses and realized that it was calling her. She turned her head in confusion and saw the face of a girl with fair and delicate skin and overly delicate facial features.

She has long and smooth black hair, blue and clear eyes like gems, and a somewhat embarrassed smile with a pair of sweet dimples.

Even Chika, who was a girl, couldn't help but think of the words "so beautiful" in her mind.

"Can I ask how to get to the central venue?" she asked softly.

Chika was stunned for a moment, and her eyes moved to the signboard standing just a few steps behind the other party. The guide map of the entire Kaiba Land was clearly drawn on the signboard, and they even thoughtfully marked their location on the map.

The "central venue" the girl asked about happened to be the most eye-catching and conspicuous landmark in the center of the entire map. You could hardly miss it.

The girl followed Chika's gaze and looked at the map, her beautiful face suddenly filled with embarrassment.

She couldn't help but cover her face: "Well I can't read the map QAQ"

Chika: ""

Chapter 649: This Is So Kaiba

Chika seemed to understand.

Does the girl in front of me have no sense of direction?

"Umcan you explain to me the direction up here?" The girl awkwardly pointed to the navigation map on the sign behind her, "Which side is east, which side is west, etc I cant quite understand

Chika followed the direction of her slender fingers and looked at the map on the sign, blinked, and then shook her head expressionlessly: "I can't understand it either."

Girl: ""

How did you say that?

Sure enough, fools are attracted to each other.

"What's wrong?" Yuei Vu came over, "Is there any problem?"

"This girl said she wanted to go to the central venue, but she couldn't find the direction," Chika explained.

"?" Yuei Vu said he couldn't understand, "But isn't there a navigation map behind this? It's impossible to even have a map"

"I don't understand either." Chika's face was expressionless.

Yuei Vu swallowed the second half of the sentence hard.

Only then did he realize that he might have taken it for granted. He really didn't understand the world of Zoro

So Yuei Vu patiently explained the directions on the map to this passerby girl and used the most obvious landmarks in the park as a reference.

For example, have you seen the lying Blue-Eyes White Dragon? That direction is east.

Then did you see the Deep-Eyes White Dragon Ferris wheel over there? That's the west side.

As Yuei Vu was talking, he found that the girl's head had dropped down at some point, and her face turned red, just like an ostrich with its head buried in the ground.

Yuei Vu: "?"

What's the situation? What did I say making such a big reaction?

"Any questions?" Yuei Vu roughly explained the route from here to the central venue, and finally confirmed it.

"Nono, thank you."

The girl didn't say much, she even bowed slightly to express her gratitude, lowered her head, and left.

Yuei Vu looked at her back disappearing into the crowd and couldn't help but think for a moment.

This girl have I seen her somewhere?

He really couldn't remember it, so Yuei Vu didn't dwell on it anymore.

Maybe it's an illusion.

"That."

Chika tugged on Yuei Vu's sleeve and pointed to the side.

Yuei Vu turned his head and looked in the direction of her finger, only to see a haunted house?!

"You want to play with that?"

"Hmm." Chika's face was serious.

Yuei Vu felt a little surprised.

In his impression, Chika-chan was the kind of girl who was timid. She has always stayed away from things like horror movies. How could she be interested in this kind of thing?

Unexpectedly, Judai-chan also became interested: "Oh, it looks like fun! I want to play too, I want to play too!"

Chika touched Judai's jellyfish head, her eyes showed approval, and her eyes seemed to say

Sure enough, my care for you is not in vain!

"Okay, it's still early anyway, and I don't have any other plans for the time being." Yuei Vu thought about it and had no objections.

Chika's eyes suddenly lit up. But before she could be happy, she saw Yuei Vu leaning against the railing next to her.

"Then you two go play, I'll wait for you here."

Chika: ""

A few minutes later, Yuei V stood at the entrance of the haunted house with the same batch of tourists. On his left was little Judai who was jumping up and down with excitement, and on his right was Chika who was holding his arm tightly even before they entered.

The girl's small hands held Yuei Vu's arm tightly as if she was afraid that he would sneak away if she wasn't careful.

Yuei Vu: "So why do I have to play too?"

"I'm scared." Chika lowered her head and whispered.

"If you're scared that much, why don't go in"

Chika said nothing and only lowered her head.

Yuei Vu felt the strength coming from his arms become stronger.

In line with President Kaibas principle of whatever I do must be the best, even the haunted house must be of the highest quality.

The prototype of the haunted house was an abandoned teaching building, and the background of the story was an old-school legend about "a certain student once died unjustly."

The scale of the haunted house was very large, and the degree of freedom of exploration was also very high. It seemed that even the staff who were familiar with the mechanisms and routes could not get out within half an hour.

Just a few minutes after entering, Yuei Vu was already beginning to admire the president's generosity. Because he had to admit that both the props and the scenery here were indeed quite exquisite.

Visitors walked along the broken stairs, dusty corridors, the creaking screams of the aging wood, and the painted walls corroded by moisture. All details have been restored vividly.

In the abandoned classroom, tables, chairs, and benches were piled into a pile, and spider webs were wrapped around the old-fashioned chandelier.

Yuei Vu discovered that, apart from them, this group of tourists who came in seemed to be young lovers.

Boys try to appear tall and powerful in front of the girls they like. They like the atmosphere of being relied on to make themselves strong, so haunted houses often become their only choice.

It's just that the performance of the few boys who came in this time may not be up to the passing grade. Especially one of them, a muscular man who looked like a football quarterback. He hadn't even seen a ghost in the first ten minutes and had already collapsed on his little girlfriend and was scared to death

The atmosphere created in this facility is indeed quite scary, and the designer must also be a good psychologist. But although there was some discomfort, Yuei Vu didn't feel anything at all.

After all, what if there really is an evil ghost?

Why don't you just play cards with me

In contrast, he only felt that the arm held by Chika was a little warm and numb at the moment, but the further she walked, the tighter she held her.

He wanted to remind her, but when he turned around, he saw her face was pale. Although she bit her lip and said nothing, she seemed to be very frightened. Seeing her in such a state, Yuei Vu couldn't say anything

"Ahhhh!!!"

The sharp screams frightened everyone in the haunted house. The two people who were walking in front slipped back in a mess, shouting vaguely like "appeared" and "coming".

Others quickly realized what they were referring to.

It was a very burly shadow. He had strong and broad shoulders and a mask that was so white that it made people tremble at the bottom of their hearts. There were ferocious slits carved on it. Half of the mask was stained with splattered blood, forming a sharp and eye-catching contrast with the white mask.

His steps were not fast, but very heavy, and each step left a low "squeaking" sound on the stairway. He carried a heavy object on his shoulders that looked like an axe. A strange green light shines from the window on the side of the stairway, and the excellent light and shadow effects make the atmosphere particularly terrifying.

The tourists started to scream strangely. Some people immediately reacted and turned around to run away, only to find that the door they entered had been locked.

They were forced back into a corner with no way out.

The shadow stood still just a few steps in front of them, and the green light rippled on the hard white mask, which only made the tourists scream in horror.

The shadow slowly put down the "axe" he was carrying on his shoulder and raised it gloomily above his head and then put it on his hand.

A dark red indicator light lit up on the "axe", and several grids popped up neatly from below.

So that thing is not an axe.

That's a Duel Disk.

Yuei Vu had a big lump stuck in his throat.

Yeah, this is so Kaiba.

As expected of the president, he actually let the ghosts in the haunted house play cards with the tourists

But there was something that even Yuei Vu didn't notice.

In this "abandoned teaching building", where they were in this haunted house, on the glass of the empty classroom across the aisle, two flashing points of light suddenly lit up out of thin air.

That's a pair of eyes.

The traffic lights flickered on and off, as if they were about to alternate between red and green. Across the empty classroom, Yuei Vu's position was clearly reflected in his eyes.

Chapter 650: Space Loop

"Ahhhh!!!"

The macho duelist, who was suspected to be a football quarterback, was shot into the soul. In just three turns, he was knocked to the ground by the "ghost" in the haunted house. Even the cards in his deck flew out of the Duel Disk and scattered all over the floor.

It really felt like losing a Shadow Game.

Just now, he discovered that he could pass the level by "playing cards with ghosts". This tough guy who was paralyzed on his girlfriend and was so scared that he couldn't take care of himself suddenly started to act bravely again. He boasted that he was invincible in duels and was the king of duels. He confidently wanted to save his poor image in his girlfriend's eyes which may have fallen into the Mariana Trench.

Then

and then he's down.

In the end, it was Judai, a young boy who was full of energy, who took action and successfully defeated his opponent with the gorgeous thrust of "Elemental HERO Shining Flare Wingman", leading the team to overcome this level.

The staff member playing the role of the ghost quickly exited through the secret door after being defeated. A wooden door that was originally locked in front of them bounced open with a soft "click". It was very obvious that this was their next route.

It was almost at this point that Yuei Vu noticed something was wrong.

After passing through the door and advancing for a long time, Yuei Vu couldn't help but turn his head and glance behind him to confirm.

"What's wrong?" Chika asked softly.

Yuei Vu frowned and thought for a while: "Do you think this place looks familiar?"

"ah?"

It feels like we've been here before.

Chika hesitated for a moment and shook her head in embarrassment.

She has a poor sense of direction and was one of those "the shortest between two points is a taxi ride" people. In addition, she only held Yuei Vu's arm the whole time in this haunted house and did not dare to raise her head. How could she remember where she had been?

But she didn't care.

Anyway, she would go wherever Yuei Vu went.

""

Well, I should have known that asking Chika-chan would be in vain.

They continued down the narrow corridor. On the left was a bare white wall, with most of the paint peeling off. On the right side were neatly lined up locked classroom doors, with rusty locks on them.

There was a constant sound of cold wind coming from somewhere, and there was a constant "clanging" sound of metal scraping from somewhere, which sounded like the sound of a loose window being shaken in the window frame.

It still had an eerie atmosphere, with sound and light effects like a horror movie set. Others may be too scared to think by now, but Yuei Vu noticed something strange.

He felt a sense of disharmony, as if he had rashly stepped into unknown territory. Restless instincts bubble up like water from a spring. He seemed to smell the gloom in the air.

They walked back to the same place for the third time.

This time Yuei Vu was sure that it was not his illusion.

Exactly the same set, exactly the same aisles. The position of every door and every window was the same as before. Even the spider silk and cracks on the windows were exactly the same as before.

Other tourists were still talking in low voices, wondering whether the organizers had deliberately arranged it this way to further create a terrifying atmosphere. But Yuei Vu has realized that this is not the case.

"Master."

The Dark Magician Girl in a ghost state floated next to Yuei Vu.

"Someone has tampered with the space in this area."

"Space?" Yuei Vu murmured.

This was not a cyclical illusion caused by the scenery, nor was it a trick of psychological suggestion. They really circled the same scene over and over again, falling into an infinite loop in space.

Similar to a dark playfield from which there was no escape.

Yuei Vu first ruled out the possibility that this was deliberately set up by the organizer President Kaiba was at loggerheads with all supernatural-related matters, and there was no way he would invite an expert in Shadow Game to come to such a facility to play tricks.

Could it be Aigami?

In the timeline one year after the end of "Yu-Gi-Oh! DM", Yuei Vu could only think about this BOSS now.

Aigami was the villain who appeared in the "Yu-Gi-Oh! The Dark Side of Dimension" movie. The prop he held was known as the "Eighth Millennium Item". The ability shown by Aigami in the original work may indeed have something to do with space power.

But the question is, if the person behind the scenes is really Aigami what does this guy want to do with me?

It doesn't make sense! Shouldn't he either find Yugi or Kaiba? He has nothing to do with me, a passerby who happens to have the Yu- prefix, right?

Ripples gradually appeared in the space ahead.

Like pebbles being thrown into the lake, black figures slowly emerged from the water. It was a man wearing black tights, with a slim figure, and it was impossible to tell whether he was a man or a woman.

He was wearing a helmet, with a black mask covering most of his face, and the only eyes that were not covered were covered by dark goggles.

All the passers-by became confused.

Could this be the staff member pretending to be a ghost in the next step?

But this outfit didn't have any horror elements at all.

On the contrary, it looked a bit like a high-tech warrior who ran out of some science fiction.

The man in black snapped his fingers.

A huge and fuzzy black shadow emerged from behind him, and a dragon's head poked out from the abstract outline, raising its head and roaring!

The sound was majestic and powerful, like thunder. Dust fell from the roof of the teaching building, the spider webs collapsed, and all the glass was shattered into pieces with a neat scream.

The overbearing impact was like a raging demon wandering along the sealed corridor, knocking passers-by to the ground.

Chika held Yuei Vu's arm tightly, and held the bewildered little Judai with the other hand.

Only then did everyone react

That is not a three-dimensional image!

That huge shadow really has the power to kill them!

"What's going on? Is this also the organizer's design?"

"Impossible! How can a three-dimensional image have such a strong impact?"

The man in black ignored their shouts and anxiety and slowly made a gesture.

Probably some sort of "come on" gesture.

The shadow moved again. A head poked out of the darkness, standing on the ground illuminated by the flames churning in its own mouth. A beam of flames, like lava pouring out of a volcano's crater, struck head-on in the sealed corridor.

Every cell in everyone's heart sent out dangerous signals, like a cry of despair at the moment of death.

If I get hit by this

I will die!

"Kiai!"

The hot impact hit the shield of a layer of water head-on. The cool blue water heated up quickly, evaporated at high speed, and turned into a large cloud of white water vapor that spread out.

The warrior in aqua blue armor squatted on the ground, lying in front of Yuei Vu, and the water shield transformed by his hands blocked the hot attack.

Masked HERO Vapor!

Maybe no one paid attention all the way, or maybe the light in this place was too dark, but no one seemed to realize Yuei Vu's identity until now.

"Masked HERO?"

"It's the Masked HERO! So this person is"

"Mr. Yuei Vu, the Duel King!?"

"Are we actually with Mr. Yuei Vu all this time!?"

Hiss~ The BOSS is actually by my side.

Chika released Yuei Vu's arm in time and pulled Little Judai aside. Yuei Vu took two steps and came face to face with the man in black.

"Who are you?"

The man didn't answer directly, but just raised the duel disk in his hand.

"Duel King Yuei Vu."

He spoke, his voice under the mask hoarse and muddy, sounding like he was speaking through water.

"Do you dare to accept the challenge?"
