

I Play Yu-Gi 691

Chapter 691 - This City Is Mine!

Kaiba Corporation, Headquarters.

Aigami was locked in a transparent compartment custom-made for him, his hands were tied behind his back, and all special abilities were stripped away, like a beast with its fangs removed and thrown into a cage.

Yuei Vu and Kaiba stood side by side outside this special cell.

In fact, Yuei Vu wanted to remind the president at first that it might not be legal to capture and imprison someone privately. But then he thought about it and realized that many of the things the president did were not in compliance with the law. Sometimes law enforcement officers even helped him do it...

“We scanned that little toy of yours,” Kaiba said coldly.

“Quantum Cube.” Yuei Vu added from the side.

Aigami’s eyes flickered and he couldn’t help but glance at Yuei Vu.

Why...does he seem to know the secret of the Quantum Cube?

The Quantum Cube was an artifact left to them by Master Shadi. It did not belong to the system of the seven Millennium Items. Even the reincarnation of the priest and the Tomb Keeper clan didn’t know about it.

Could it be...that Sera told him?

Aigami felt increasingly irritable.

Why on earth did Sera go to find this Duel King behind my back?

And what exactly is their agreement?

“You can call it whatever you want.” Kaiba still has little interest in such metaphysical things. “The scan’s result said that there is a fragment of Millennium Puzzle in there...”

Aigami pretended to be calm, showing an expert look of “everything is under control”: “Huh, but you can’t get that fragment, right?”

Maybe your brain is indeed extraordinary, President Kaiba. But the ‘Quantum Cube’ exists beyond your imagination and is the crystallization of the highest wisdom of ancient alchemy!

Even with the technology of your Kaiba Corporation, you can’t open the ‘Quantum Cube’. Even if you have it in your hand, you can’t get the fragments hidden inside...”

Before he finished speaking, he saw the professional hostage Keihei running in from outside with a very excited tone: “Brother, that weird cube is open!”

Aigami almost spat a mouthful of old blood.

Bakana (impossible)!

The Quantum Cube is a Millennium Item!

You can drive as soon as you say so. Do you think you are riding a shared bicycle?

Yuei Vu looked sympathetically at the shocked Aigami.

Bro, times have changed!

But Aigami quickly regained his composure, twitched the corner of his mouth, and forced a smile: “Huh, it’s useless even if you get this fragment.

I took away a total of two pieces of the Millennium Puzzle! You will never find the last piece...”

He had given the remaining fragment to his most trusted sister, Sera. The Kaiba Corp’s attention was all focused on him, and they would never expect...

Mokuba, who had just run in excitedly, was stunned after hearing this, and then smiled: “What, so you don’t know yet? The other fragment is almost in our hands.”

“Nani?”

Aigami’s expression changed again. If he hadn’t been tied up, he would have jumped up by now.

The other fragment is clearly in Sierra’s hands, how could they...

Following Aigami, he suddenly seemed to think of something again, and he couldn’t help but grit his teeth and glared at Yuei Vu fiercely.

This guy... what on earth did he do to Sera!?

Yuei Vu: “?”

The fragments are not in my hands, why are you glaring at me?

Inexplicable...

Muto Yugi froze on the sidewalk on the side of the road.

This was the crossroads on his way home from school, the only way he must pass every day. Normally this would be considered a transportation hub, with cars coming and going, and it was noisy until late at night.

But today, this intersection was unusually empty.

Cars coming from all four directions were stopped outside the stop line by red traffic lights, as if they were making way for the master of the city. Seto Kaiba stood in the middle of the intersection with his arms crossed and a look that said “Everyone in the world should make way for me”, the hem of his white windbreaker undulating in the wind.

Yugi was shocked.

It’s not that he didn’t know that the president has great power, but this was... outrageous.

Just to say something to Yugi, the president actually turned the traffic lights in all directions red.

All the cars in the four directions were waiting there quietly, surrounding President Kaiba in the center. There was not a word of complaint from the driver. It was as if the traffic flowing neatly in all directions were an army ready to go, and Kaiba was the commander-in-chief of them all.

These days, even the main character in the urban novels doesn't dare to be so cool.

"This...will hinder traffic, right?"

Yugi complained in his heart and slowly stepped forward to meet him.

People are becoming more and more curious about the relationship between Kaiba and the Mayor of Domino City.

"I've been waiting for you for a long time, Yugi." Kaiba said coldly, "I have something to tell you."

President Kaiba had a very unique personality. Maybe you think it's just a matter of words that could be said at the school gate, at Yugi's house, or anywhere on his way home from school, but President Kaiba didn't want to. He insisted on stopping all the traffic lights at such a big intersection. , and then stand here and show off...

Without saying a word, Kaiba raised his arm in a muffled voice, holding up the thousand-year building blocks that were basically completed in his hand.

The meaning conveyed by this move was already very clear. What the president was saying was: Yes, I'm going to dig his grave, and I want you to help me too.

Yugi exclaimed: "Kaiba, you..."

"It's almost completed, only the last fragment is left." Kaiba said solemnly, "Yugi, there should be a treasure in your treasure chest, right?"

Yugi:"!"

He knew what Kaiba meant.

Just last night, a mysterious girl named "Sera" suddenly appeared in Yugi's room and handed a fragment of Millennium Puzzle to him.

But he hasn't had time to mention it to anyone yet.

"Kaiba, how do you know..."

"Hmph." Kaiba hummed, "This city is under my management, and I know everything that happens here."

Yes, the president used the word "management" here.

First, if you didn't play cards, you wouldn't be granted a residence permit. After that, he could just stop at the traffic light to show off if he liked. Now the president simply stopped acting and made it clear that he was in charge of this city, the city hall was just his puppet, and so on...

There were also screwball players in the forum who said that there may be particularly many surveillance cameras on Yugi's house. Maybe the president knew exactly what time Yugi got up every day, what time he brushed his teeth, what he ate for breakfast...

President Kaiba was a ruthless person who didn't talk much. He had no foreplay and no foreshadowing, getting straight to the point.

In a nutshell, just one sentence——

——We will play cards tomorrow, come quickly!

...If you don't come, you will be expelled from your household registration!

As always, President Kaiba certainly left no choice for Yugi, and directly said that participation in this duel tournament game was "compulsory."

Although the president didn't say what the consequences would be if he didn't participate, with the influence the president was showing now, he could figure out his methods with a little divergent thinking.

But people who were familiar with the president would know that he never said what he really thought.

Did he really want to pester Yugi to play cards? No, the person he really wanted to play cards with was the soul of the ancient king who once lived in the Millennium Puzzle.

Kaiba spoke frankly, saying that he would put the Millennium Puzzle together, and even if he was forced to use force, he would definitely let Yugi wear the Millennium Puzzle again.

He wants to recreate what happened once, and use Muto Yugi, a container that exists in this world, to summon the soul of the Pharaoh again!

"Don't run away, Yugi!" Kaiba's voice faded away as he stepped on the helicopter ladder and left, "You must call the Pharaoh's soul back to me. By then, the future where the Pharaoh and I will confront each other again will come! "

Chapter 692: To Play Cards, You Must Learn Driving

There were still two hours until the Kaiba Corp's new Duel Disk model was released.

Naturally, Yuei Vu's role was inevitable in this kind of thing. President Kaiba seemed to be determined to squeeze out the value of Yuei Vu's title of "Duel King". Yuei Vu could see his handsome face on the electronic billboard advertising the new Duel Disk on the street.

Since he was considered a semi-official employee, Yuei Vu must arrive early. He got up early that day, and it was still dark when he set out on the road. The incandescent street lights illuminated the concrete pavement, and the entire street was silent and deserted.

The rolling shutter door of the manor's garage slowly lifted in front of Yuei Vu, and the lights came on, illuminating a dark red motorcycle. It was a steel vehicle with slender streamlines. The headlights were like two round insect eyes. The technological shape made people easily think of the "Masked HERO" who symbolized the identity of the Duel King.

This was Yuei Vu's unique motorcycle, a valuable toy. The car itself is almost tied to Yuei Vu's identity. It was modified by Kaiba Corp and was a unique one in the world.

This was given as an additional reward after Kaiba openly prostituted Yuei Vu's Duel King status an unknown number of times. Yuei Vu muttered at the time that the president was giving him orders all day long, but he didn't even have a vehicle to travel around.

So just this week, President Kaiba sent him this.

The engine of the motorcycle cheered. Yuei Vu wore a helmet, lowered his body, and shot out from the motorcycle like a sword unsheathed.

But before going to the venue, Yuei Vu had other places to go.

He had to go to the store first to bring Chika.

Although it was still dark, the lights in the card store were already on as usual. Chika was sitting behind the counter, seemingly flipping through some book, but from time to time she craned her neck in anticipation.

There was a series of clear braking sounds, the tires rubbed violently against the road, and the motorcycle stopped suddenly at the door. When Yuei Vu stopped, Chika was already standing at the door, her little eyes shining.

"very handsome." She said.

Yuei Vu took off the reflective mask of his helmet and said half-jokingly: "Are you talking about me or the motorcycle?"

Chika lowered her head unconsciously and whispered: "all of them."

Yuei Vu ignored the "Favorability +1" message that popped up on her silver little head he had been accustomed to this since a long time ago. He threw the other safety helmet to Chika and patted the place behind him.

"Sit up."

The products produced by Kaiba must be high-quality, and the quality of the motorcycle customized by the president was naturally high enough. Not to mention just bringing the petite China-chan, it would not be a problem to carry Mr. Kuroda who was full of muscles and had extraordinary tonnage in the back seat.

Its just that the location may be a bit small

Yuei Vu only realized this problem after Chika sat down.

The style of the motorcycle that the president gave him was indeed stylish enough, and its performance was also quite superior. According to the designers, you could even ride it and perform low-altitude jumps from a jet.

At that time, Yuei Vu gave a few compliments casually, but what he was thinking in his heart was that to jump at low altitude, the motorcycle might be fine but I would have problems!

I'm not a superhuman like President Kaiba. If I jump out of the plane riding this thing, will I end up like the great evil god Zorc?!

The designer also boasted about how superior the performance of this motorcycle was, with dozens of powerful functions, and that it could operate well in extremely harsh environments

But they seemed to have ignored the space issue.

This seat was a bit too crowded for two people. Even with Chika's size, she still had to press tightly against Yuei Vu's body if she wanted to sit up.

"Maybe we'd better take a taxi." Yuei Vu pondered for two seconds and said, "If you feel uncomfortable"

"No need." Chika interrupted him before he could finish speaking, "It's comfortable."

After saying that, as if to express her determination, she put her little hands around Yuei Vu's waist.

Yuei Vu: ""

You are feeling good but I am not feeling good!

Actually, what Kaiba said at that time was to give Yuei Vu a whole supercar or something. But when Yuei Vu heard about it, he felt that supercars had no future, so he asked to be replaced by a motorcycle.

In the world of Yu-Gi-Oh, whats the point of a supercar?

All players knew that as card games developed and the form of duels continued to evolve, sooner or later duels would evolve into a format called "Riding Duel". At that time, all duelists played cards on motorcycles. Not only did their dueling skills need to be good, but their driving skills also had to be excellent.

In those days, only experienced drivers could play cards. Otherwise, an operating error would result in an overturn and crash, and the people would be gone before the cards were played.

So since the president has offered to give him a vehicle, Yuei Vu asked for a motorcycle to practice, so that he could be prepared if the era of Riding Duels suddenly came one day in the future.

In fact, there seemed to be some signs of this now. Kaiba Corp now seemed to have the idea of infiltrating card games into various fields.

For example, a while ago someone in the planning department suggested that card playing could be combined with traditional sports, such as football and basketball. Some people also said that duelists could fly a plane while playing cards, and the dueling monsters of both sides fly in mid-air for an aerial battle, which would be more enjoyable to watch

In short, it was getting more and more outrageous.

Thats all.

Thinking about how Yugi, Judai, and Yusei could fit into the single seat of Fudo Yusei's D-Wheel in the movie, Yuei Vu felt that it wouldn't be a problem for him and Chika to squeeze into the same seat.

Yuei Vu was silent for a moment, glanced at the small hands wrapped around his waist, and turned to look at Chika: "can you relax a little?"

Chika lowered her head, shook her little head, and whispered, "I'm afraid."

The girl's family was originally sitting sideways. The motorcycle was going so fast. What if she was accidentally thrown off?

I'll never give up!

Considering that the venue was not too far anyway, Yuei Vu looked at her insistence and simply gave it up for now.

It only takes ten minutes, just be patient.

Its just that I feel like Chika-chan has always been obedient to me in the past, but I dont know when she started to become a little more presumptuous

"Are you ready?"

"Hmm." Chika put down the reflector of her helmet and lowered her head in response in a low voice.

The engine started and the vehicle took off. Yuei Vu could clearly feel Chika's little hands holding him tighter.

Good guy, I usually dont notice that, but Chika-chan is actually quite strong.

Chika said nothing silently, but her little heart was beating loudly, and the frequency continued to increase.

She had never noticed before that Yuei Vu's body was so hard, so stiff, and felt so tight

But this made her feel more at ease, and unknowingly, her little head was resting on Yuei Vu's tight back.

It was only a ten-minute journey, but Yuei Vu felt as tired as if he had just run a long distance, even more tired than playing cards with the president

Chapter 693: Can Anything Go Wrong?

Yuei Vu had no doubt that President Kaiba had a perfect schedule for today's duel meeting.

According to the plan, he would stand up and show the latest model of the Kaiba Corp's Duel Disk to all the audience present and the audience watching the live broadcast in front of the TV around the world and say something of unknown meaning but that seemed very philosophical and profound and finally convinced everyone into emptying their wallets.

Of course, these were just necessary procedures. Yuei Vu believed that if possible, Kaiba would skip these troublesome steps and go directly to the card game without hesitation.

According to the president's arrangement, he had to play a card game with Aigami first it was a continuation of the unfinished card game in their temple.

Giving up in the middle of a card game may be as unacceptable to the president as just like picking up your pants and leaving after foreplay. He insisted on deciding the winner.

After beating the Aigami, he still had to challenge Yugi Muto.

Although the president had heard from Yuei Vus description that Yugi defeated Atem and sent away the Pharaohs soul, he never witnessed the card game with his own eyes.

So like many others, Kaiba still has a deep-rooted feeling that Yugi was nothing more than a vessel for the Pharaoh, a small role.

The Muto Yugi he had faced so far, the man he recognized from the bottom of his heart and longed to fight against, was just a shadow of Yugi.

Therefore, Kaiba must defeat Yugi through a duel, forcing him to put on the assembled Millennium Puzzle and summon the Pharaoh's soul again.

What? Do you think the president could skip this step and just let a group of big men knock Yugi down and forcefully hang Millennium Puzzle around his neck?

Of course, he could do this, but then he might not be President Kaiba.

After all, even if he was extremely wealthy, held great power, and had guns, cannons, planes, and even a space station he still insisted on solving the problem by playing cards.

In fact, Yuei Vu thought that if Kaiba really called a group of big men to tie up Yugi Muto, it might be more useful. At that time, the president would get his wish and see Atem come back from the underworld in a fierce manner, with "Are you the one bullying my AIBO" written all over his face

You may think that the part of "coming back from the underworld" was too nonsense, but the ending of the movie was really like this.

At the end of the movie, Aigami was infected by the malice of the Millennium Ring, and the power of the Quantum Cube went berserk, sending almost the entire Domino City, centered on the duel venue, to another dimension.

Honda fell, Anzu fell, Jonouchi also fell after resisting tenaciously for a while, and even President Kaiba's LP value dropped to zero during the duel and disappeared into the other dimension.

All the friends disappeared, and it looked like the world was about to be destroyed. The Millennium Puzzle still showed no movement and no response at all.

Not to mention the villain, even the audience was almost fooled into thinking that Atem was really dead. As a result, just when Yugi was exhausted and about to collapse, Atem suddenly made a grand appearance with a gorgeous light beam and a grand light curtain. It was like saying, "Are you the one bullying my AIBO?"

Fortunately, Kaiba seemed to be focusing on how to get Atem back, so it was rare that he didn't arrange for Yuei Vu to play cards with him today. Yuei Vu only needed to go on stage to show off his face, complete his endorsement mission, and then quietly become an audience member.

Just like the original work, Muto Yugi would take the initiative to ask in the hope that he could duel with Aigami. After hearing some of Yugi's talk, Kaiba would be convinced to let Yugi go up and fight Aigami first.

Next, Yugi would perform a big show, defeating Aigami and then Kaiba. While proving his own strength, he would also give Kaiba a chance to escape through a duel.

Although Yugi was usually a taciturn and somewhat introverted little boy, as a Japanese comic protagonist, his Talk-no-Jutsu was still in place. Yugi used emotion and reason, and actually succeeded in persuading the president's obsession, making him accept the setting that "people in the underworld cannot return to the earth", and completely gave up the idea of digging graves.

So the president changed his mind and decided to go to the underworld to find Atem himself

The president's idea was very simple.

People can't be resurrected after death, and dead people can't come back to the earth? OK, I accept it.

Then there should be no problem if a living person goes to the underworld in person, right?

Yu gi! Get it ready for me, I'll go over and play cards right away!

If the plot of the movie unfolded after Aigami was defeated, he would be corroded by the evil thoughts in the Millennium Ring, and the Quantum Cube would go berserk, triggering a world-destroying crisis.

Everyone was knocked down. In the end, Atem came back in time to save the situation at the critical moment, and the crisis was resolved.

But with the return of Atem, Aigami and his Prana companions finally lost their power and could no longer ascend to new dimensions.

Of course, this was unlikely to happen now.

Because the key to this series of crises, the Millennium Ring, has now been intercepted by Yuei Vu. The remaining evil thought of the Great Evil God Zorc was self-closed. They were huddled in the corner of the ring and dared not to move at all, let alone cause trouble

Yuei Vu thought: There can't be any more accidents, right?

He took away the Millennium Ring, and Aigami lost the opportunity to go berserk. The disaster would not befall, and Atem would have no reason to come back to regain his sense of existence.

Next, Yugi would convince President Kaiba to give up the idea of digging graves. Prana and the others could successfully ascend as they wish, and Yuei Vu could also successfully obtain the Quantum Cube. When the time came, he just needed to lend the cube to President Kaiba for study. Kaiba could use this to invent the technology of dimensional travel and go directly to the underworld to play cards with Atem.

Everyone could get what they want, and everyone was happy.

Yuei Vu thought about it and felt that there was nothing wrong with his plan. As long as he followed it step by step, things would come to a successful conclusion without any trouble.

After traveling for so long, Yuei Vu was now an experienced duelist. Of course, an experienced duelist like him would not do anything weird.

He really didn't believe that anything could go wrong again!

When he sat down in the auditorium, Yuei Vu spotted the white dragon girl Kisara from a distance in the crowd.

Now she has beautiful black hair again. Maybe she was disliked by others because of her beautiful long silver hair in her previous life, or maybe she thought the hair color was a bit too eye-catching, so she deliberately changed her hair to black.

Although the location was a bit far away, she noticed Yuei Vu at a glance. The two looked at each other from a distance, and Kisara smiled sheepishly and waved to him as a greeting.

For a while, Yuei Vu really felt that nothing could go wrong.

But he was wrong.

Elsewhere.

"Gentlemen, a new era is coming! With the advent of the next generation Duel Disk, dueling will evolve into a completely new form, and the world will also evolve with it!"

The electronic screen broadcasted the live broadcast of the press conference. Seto Kaiba, wearing a new-generation Duel Disk, was standing on the stage and making an impassioned speech.

A figure stared at Kaiba and his Duel Disk through the live broadcast screen, his blue eyes as deep as the sea.

"Yes, a new era." He said to himself, his voice dull, "But this evolution brings nothing but destruction."

Chapter 694: The Deceased Is Gone

After the simple opening ceremony, the conference directly entered the duel session.

After being persuaded by Yugi's talk, Kaiba gave up the opportunity to challenge Aigami first to Yugi. So Aigami, who had suffered continuously in the past few days, was once again put on the duel field. This time the opponent he faced was Muto Yugi, who was known as the first generation duel king.

It stood to reason that after eating so many losses in a row, Aigami should have been close to autistic, but when he saw the opponent he faced, he seemed to suddenly feel that he could do it again.

Humph, Duel King? That's because the Pharaoh duels on behalf of you!

Maybe I cant beat the Pharaoh, but how cant I beat you??

Although Aigami has never won a card game, he behaved very confidently. It was not difficult to tell from the way he disowned his relatives when he came to power.

Thenthen Aigami's trauma symptoms deepened again.

Aigami, who completely despised his opponent, never expected that Yugi who seemed harmless to humans and animals and might even be a bit cowardly, would actually turn out to be so hellish when it came to playing cards.

After the whole duel, Aigami could be said to be struggling, and there were all pitfalls in front of him. Every three steps would lead to a small pit, and every five steps would lead to a big pit. If you moved casually, you would step on the pit, and your whole body would be in bad shape.

After the duel, Aigami lay sprawled on the cold floor of the duel arena, looking at the chandeliers and dome of the hall helplessly, falling into deep self-doubt.

However, Kaiba did not leave Yugi a chance to breathe. Without saying anything, he picked up the Duel Disk and came up immediately. Yugi had to fight two consecutive battles and had to face President Kaiba without even adjusting his deck.

The performance of Yugi in this duel was also remarkable. He used Magician Girl's effect to beautifully resolve the offensive of the "Blue-Eyes Chaos MAX Dragon" summoned by Kaiba, and then summoned "Gandora-X the Dragon of Demolition" to defeat Kaiba's hidden trump card "Deep-Eyes White Dragon".

But this duel had nothing to do with victory or defeat from the beginning.

For Kaiba, this duel was nothing more than a springboard for him to bring Atem back, and he never took Yugi seriously from the beginning.

For Yugi, he not only wanted to win this duel but also needed to send a message to Kaiba through this duel.

Right in front of Kaiba, he stuffed the last pieces into the Millennium Puzzle.

The last fragment was embedded, and after a year, the Millennium Puzzle was restored to integrity in the hands of Yugi. Kaiba's pupils shrank at that moment, Aigami who was lying on the side also widened his eyes, and countless Pranas who were watching outside the scene also held their breath.

Everyone witnessed a scene that they may never forget

Nothing happened.

After the fragments were put together, they lay quietly and peacefully in Yugi's hands, as if they were asleep.

Yugi slowly let go, let go of the Millennium Puzzle, and said softly: "You came to me here just to see Atem I can understand your feelings, Kaiba But this is the truth.

The truth is he is no longer here. Not in this Millennium Puzzle, not in this world never coming back.

Kaiba's eyes widened, he looked at Yugi blankly and didn't speak for a long time.

Although it may be a bit unethical to say this, the president's expression was indeed like a large-scale love-lorn scene

"Unacceptable Unacceptable, Yugi!"

Kaiba immediately entered the state of "I won't listen, I won't care, you just have to bring him back to me." Without saying a word, he activated the trap card "High Speed Aria", which could activate the effect of a Normal Spell Card in his hand.

Kaiba discarded the "Monster Reborn" Yugi gave him with "Magical Contract Door", intending to Special Summon "Deep-Eyes" from the Graveyard to end the duel.

But at this moment, Yugi also activated his face-down Trap Card "Final Geas", banishing all monsters from both players' Graveyards, then letting him Special Summon "Dark Magician" to his field.

Since the "Deep-Eyes White Dragon" selected as the target in the GY has been removed from the game, the activation of "Monster Reborn" has failed.

When Dark Magician's final blow fell and Kaiba's LP returned to zero, the president finally understood why Yugi wanted to hand "Monster Reborn" into his hands, and he actually received the message from Yugi.

The deceased is gone.

No matter how much he missed him, no matter how much money he invested, or how hard he worked, that person would never come back after all.

Kaiba lost.

The audience present did not show much surprise. Anyway, Seto Kaiba lost to Muto Yugi not once or twice, so there was nothing to be surprised about.

However, Yuei Vu still noticed that Kisara, the white dragon girl on the other side of the auditorium, suddenly stood up from her seat when the president's LP returned to zero, and she hesitated for a while, holding on to her skirt, and then slowly sat back.

Looking at her, it seemed like she wanted to comfort the frustrated president, but she didn't dare Snap.

All the lights in the arena suddenly went out. The three-dimensional video installation covering the entire arena was suddenly turned off, like a computer that turned off without warning. The huge arena suddenly fell into darkness.

Yuei Vu's expression changed slightly.

What happened?

He immediately took out the Millennium Ring and frowned as he stared at it.

As if feeling Yuei Vu's unkind gaze, the Millennium Ring shook violently, and all the pointers on the ring swayed, as if they were waving their hands repeatedly, saying "It wasn't me, it wasn't me."

Indeed, the Millennium Ring has always been held in Yu Yu's hand, and the evil thoughts residing in it didn't even dare to let go, it didn't look like it would cause trouble.

Moreover, the boss of the movie, Aigami, was lying on the side of the field like a salted fish at the moment. Looking at his appearance as if he had been squeezed dry, it was obviously unlikely that he would cause trouble.

So who else could it be?

"Brother! Our system has been invaded!" Mokuba said.

Kaiba frowned: "By whom?"

"I don't know, I'm still trying to find out the other party's identity but I know this kind of fluctuation, the reaction of energy readings." Mokuba said, "It's exactly the same as the traces left when there was a security breach in Kaiba Land last time! "

Kaiba narrowed his eyes.

The crowd started to get noisy, and the atmosphere gradually started to feel a little strange. The air filling the arena hissed and vibrated uneasily. The sound sounded like an entire formation of drones surrounding the arena.

The whole arena was shaking, as if it was trembling.

Someone shouted in horror, raising his hand and pointing to the dome. The glass dome was cracking at a speed visible to the naked eye, and the metal frame was screaming under the weight. Cracks spread along the ground and along the walls, like vines that had been smeared with overgrowth liquid.

The floor cracked, and a huge body rose into the sky! The thick smoke was like a rolling river, and the body that covered the sky and sun rose from the ground like a mountain, with a cracking and deafening sound lying in the middle of the duel arena.

The two people in the arena were the first to bear the brunt. Yugi was flipped upside down by the shock wave, Kaiba staggered half a step, and also half-knelt on the ground, his white windbreaker flying in the smoke.

The huge "mountain" actually moved, waving its long head and neck, and revealed five heads of different colors!

That was Five-Headed Dragon!

It's neither a three-dimensional image nor a false phantom. That existence was truly substantial, and the floor cracked under the soles of its feet.

All five mouths of the dragon were opened, five colored light beams were all mixed together, and the impact of the five attributes converged at one point, blasting toward Kaiba's face!

At this critical moment, Kaiba's pupils shrank, and he clearly saw a beautiful figure flashing toward him as if teleporting, standing between him and the impact of the five colors in less than a breath.

A girl with eyes as clear as the sea and silver hair like a dream.

She turned her back to Kaiba, and stretched out a small hand, and the five whirling impacts seemed to hit an invisible barrier. The girl gritted her teeth, her flying white hair like a raging wave.

Kaiba looked at the unfamiliar yet familiar figure, feeling a little dazed for a moment.

"Blue-Eyes White Dragon?"

Chapter 695: The Last Survivor On Earth

The Five-Headed Dragon was a divine dragon that combined the five attributes of EARTH, WATER, FIRE, WIND, and DARK. It was said to have the highest original attack power among duel monsters.

Perhaps in actual combat, the practicality of this thing was not worth the high cost to summon it, and it was only jokingly called "the trash that cannot even act as a wall" by the players. But in a battle between spirits, the power of the Five-Headed Dragon was still quite high.

You could feel this deeply from the sound of everything shattering when the five-fold impact it spat out, as well as the scorching heat that distorted the space.

But such a terrifying bombardment was blocked by the silver-white-haired girl with her bare hands. Her delicate little hands seemed to have released some extremely determined will, stubbornly resisting the giant dragon's bombardment.

The flames were dispersed by invisible fluctuations, and the water flow continued to evaporate under the high temperature. The hot space was filled with a "hissing" sound, and the fire wind and shock wave cracked the ground of the arena.

The girl swayed and staggered for a moment. Her long silver hair hangs down from her shoulders, like a waterfall sparkling in the sun.

But its far from time to breathe.

The first wave of the Five-Headed Dragon's attacks was neutralized by the girl. The five heads let out a low roar from their nasal cavities at the same time, seeming to be adjusting for the next wave of attacks.

But before that, the glass on one side of the arena was broken with a sharp explosion. The metal frame was twisted and broken. The ferocious black dragon flew out from between the countless flying glass shards, unfolding its dark bone wings, and its body was colored like lava flowing from a volcanic crater.

Darkblaze Dragon!

The broken steel bars were melted into molten iron, and glass fragments scattered like rain all over the sky. The girl's petite body stood in front of Kaiba. She bit her lip and looked determinedly. Her azure eyes bloomed brightly, and a sacred and holy light covered her whole body.

The light came out of her body, like the soul leaving the body. The majestic and endless brilliance formed a huge ball of light in mid-air. A pair of powerful wings spread out from the inside out, cutting open the ball of light, like breaking out of a shell.

The silver-white dragon raised its noble head and neck, and its blue eyes seemed to be burning with flames! It roared loudly, opened its mouth, and a beam of incandescent light blasted out!

Blue-Eyes White Dragon!

The diving Darkblaze Dragon was hit head-on and was knocked away with a scream. The black dragon hit the outer wall at the back of the arena hard, and the tough bones and reinforced concrete made a heavy explosion.

Glass shards and fragments fell like rain, and some spectators who were burned by the hot molten iron screamed like pigs.

If there were still people who doubted whether this was a hyper-real experience specially prepared by the organizer at the beginning, no one thought so now. Even the most obtuse person should have realized that a disaster was coming, and all the spectators began to flee for their lives.

The Blue-Eyes White Dragon's attack knocked away the Darkblaze Dragon, but at this time the Five-Headed Dragon had already reorganized. All ten eyes were fiercely focused on the white dragon soaring in the arena, each of its five mouths churning out energy of different attributes.

But two beams of golden light fell from behind, and the sharp light blades cut through the steel-like scales of the Fifth Emperor Dragon. The dragon howled angrily, and the attack he had just finished preparing was interrupted.

The afterimage wrapped in golden light leaped lightly and landed on the field in a flash.

Masked HERO Koga!

The white dragon seized this opportunity, and a blast of light bombs exploded on the Five-Headed Dragon, causing the huge beast to fall on its back.

Yuei Vu fell next to President Kaiba.

Kisara, who had summoned the white dragon, lost some strength and stumbled backward, but then she fell into Kaiba's strong arms.

Kisara was dazed for a while, and when she realized the situation, she couldn't help but scream "Ah" and hurriedly got out.

"She is a spirit." Yuei Vu glanced at it and said, "She is your.."

"If you want to talk about some boring supernatural topics, then let's forget it," Kaiba said coldly.

Kisara stood aside with her head lowered, her face full of loss and confusion.

As expected I am still disliked, right?

But then Kaiba glanced at her and his voice softened slightly.

"She is my Blue-Eyes White Dragon. That's what you want to say, right, Yuei Vu?"

Kisara raised her head in surprise.

"Hmph." Kaiba didn't look at her and crossed his arms. "I've long been used to your supernatural claims. I may not be able to find an explanation for some things yet, but I will sooner or later."

Yuei Vu: ""

Okay, this is so Kaiba.

Others mention the supernatural is unacceptable.

My wife is supernatural, okay.

As expected of President Kaiba, you are an old double standard.

It was conceivable that the president certainly had a lot of questions about the sudden appearance of Kisara, the white dragon, but now was obviously not the time.

The audience was still evacuating, and the battle was not over yet.

The Five-Headed Dragon was overturned by a "Burst Stream of Destruction", but was not defeated. The big guy with five heads quickly regained his composure and got up again.

White Dragon and the Masked Hero both came forward and had a fierce battle with the Five-Headed Dragon.

Yugi soon joined in and asked: "Kaiba, what is going on?"

"I was also about to ask this question." Kaiba glanced at Yuei Vu.

"Don't look at me."

Yuei Vu commanded Koga to slash the Five-Headed Dragon's head hard, and at the same time spread his hands helplessly.

Why does Kaiba act like I'm an expert in metaphysics?

Although the Five-Headed Dragons are strong, they still cannot withstand a group fight in the end. It was pushed back, and its body fell heavily to the floor again. There were burns and knife marks all over its body. In the end, it was overwhelmed and turned into a shadow and disappeared.

"Looks like we succeeded?" Yugi said.

"That's not right"

Yuei Vu knew things wouldn't be that easy.

The Five-Headed Dragon is just an appetizer, just a greeting.

Yuei Vu could feel the air in the arena vibrating uneasily, and the elements were running out of control, swirling in the confined space.

Its the Quantum Cube!

Nobody noticed when the Quantum Cube was no longer in Aigami's hands. It was spinning in mid-air in the arena as if it had lost control, releasing waves of fluctuations that enveloped the entire duel arena. Countless dark black particles danced in joy, and the dome was replaced by a black hole as if the entire arena had been moved to another dimension.

Everyone's eyes immediately turned to Aigami, who was knocked aside.

Aigami didn't reply, but the shocked expression on his face clearly seemed to be saying "I didn't do it."

This really doesn't look like his handwriting.

The real culprit, who had no hidden motives, soon appeared in front of them.

It was a man sitting in a mechanical device. He was suspended in mid-air, his entire body hidden under complex machinery, wearing a steel-gray cold mask, with only his deep blue eyes exposed through the gaps in the mask.

Yuei Vu's pupils shrank and he felt like he missed a beat.

He knew this character to be more precise, he knew his code name.

No one knows this man's name, not even himself. Because that name has long been lost in the long and difficult years.

Now he was called Z-ONE.

The last survivor on Earth, the last hope of mankind.

Chapter 696: Z-ONE

Old Yu-Gi-Oh viewers knew that although there were seven Yu-Gi-Oh series have been released so far, only three of them, DM, GX, and 5DS, shared the same world.

Some people said that this was what the original author, Mr. Takahashi, meant. He personally participated in the planning of these three Yu-Gi-Oh! series and laid a hidden thread in the stories that ran through the three eras.

In DM, the great evil god Zorc mentioned the darkness of the human heart. Zorc himself was the incarnation of darkness, and it was human beings who gave him endless divine power. The feedback of all negative energy and dark thoughts would turn into a trend, which would eventually lead to the destruction of human civilization itself.

The 10000-year-old boss Dartz also mentioned this. He said that Orichalcos was a challenge to mankind. Ten thousand years ago, mankind was mired in inner darkness and was unable to extricate itself, resulting in destruction, and Dartz predicted that this would still be the case in the future.

Then in the GX era, Nightshroud, the last BOSS of the animation, also mentioned that humans would one day perish due to inner darkness. Nightshroud assimilated all human consciousness and made them fall into an infinite loop of illusions, claiming that this method was the salvation of mankind.

The prophecies of various villains and all the clues all point to the same ending. And in the future revealed in "Yu-Gi-Oh 5DS" many years after the story, all these predictions have become true.

At the end of the official history of mankind, the civilization of the earth has indeed ushered in destruction due to the growing inner darkness of future people, and the earth has become purgatory.

The weirdo who appeared in front of Yuei Vu and others at this moment was none other than Z-ONE, the last human being on earth who came from the end of history.

If placed in a story with an apocalyptic background, Z-ONE should have played the role of the savior. He had extraordinary wisdom, a compassionate mind, and the determination to do whatever was necessary, no matter what its cost.

He gave up his personality and body, and even his original name was lost in the long river of time. He once had great dreams, was full of passion and hope, and did not hesitate to share these with everyone around him.

He stood up bravely, even though he was bruised and fell, he climbed up from setbacks again and again and supported each other with his partners to move forward.

but he failed.

He failed to save anyone. He lost his family, he lost his friends, he lost everyone.

He became the last human being left on earth.

A failed savior.

Walking on the broken earth, standing at the end of time that was full of desolation, all the wreckage and corpses that come into view were a silent mockery of the failed savior.

Dartz was right, and so was Nightshroud. Humanity was destined to follow the path of Atlantis. Generations of Duel Kings have continued to defeat the powerful enemies in front of them and save the world from crisis after crisis. In the end, they failed to save mankind from themselves.

So Z-ONE has returned from the end of time.

A savior who tried his best but was unable to do anything finally transformed into the ultimate villain throughout the three Yu-Gi-Oh! era.

"I guess you and Paradox know each other." Yuei Vu broke the silence.

Z-ONE, who was sitting in the steel device, slowly spoke. The sound coming from under the metal device seemed to have been mechanized, cold, and metallic, sounding like a machine.

"Paradox mentioned you I'm actually surprised that you could change his mind."

"It seems that you have communicated. I guess it must not have gone well." Yuei Vu said.

Z-ONE did not answer this question, but instead said: "This arena has been locked by the Quantum Cube', and no one can get out of this dimensional field."

"Give it back to me!" Aigami stood up with difficulty, "That's our thing"

However, Z-ONE ignored him.

"You know the rules, Duel King." He said, "A duel, one condition."

But Kaiba took a step forward and stopped in front of Yuei Vu: "I don't know who you are, but your actions are extremely stupid! Before challenging Yuei Vu, you must first pass me."

"No, Kaiba." Yugi also didn't flinch, "I should be the one to do this duel"

However, Z-ONE interrupted them: "I have nothing to do with you for the time being, Muto Yugi. Same for you, Kaiba Seto. At least not now."

The gaze under the steel gray mask went straight across the two of them and landed on Yuei Vu.

"Okay." Yuei Vu thought briefly and did not refuse.

Kaiba narrowed his eyes, then snorted and retreated.

However, Kaiba cast a sidelong glance at Yuei Vu when he stepped forward, folded his arms, and said, "Pay more attention. This guy is not an ordinary one."

Yuei Vu didn't look back: "Yes, I know."

He had long known that such a moment would come, but he didn't expect it to be so soon.

Yuei Vu has long been mentally prepared for the opponent in front of him, ever since he defeated Paradox and sent the handsome blond boy back to the future.

Z-ONE was neither a person who gives up easily nor the kind of second-rate villain who could fully realize and change his past mistakes with just a few words. To make him believe that the future did not have to be changed through destruction, and to make him believe that there was still hope, you must provide actual proof, not empty words.

Parts popped out from the front of the device worn by Z-ONE and were pieced together to form a special Duel Disk style. The duel disk system was activated, the monster area was outlined by golden light in turn, and the electronic display showing LP also lit up.

But there was no card in the deck slot.

Yuei Vu clearly remembered that in the final battle of the 5DS, Z-ONE used a deck built with huge stone slabs to fight with Fudo Yusei. That was a deck called "Timelord". Its power came from the "Kabbalah the Tree of Life". It was a very difficult and powerful deck in the animation.

"Your deck"

"As you know, I come from the future." Z-ONE said, "My original deck cannot be used in this time and space due to some unresolved problems."

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

So what are you going to use to fight me?

Poker cards?

"As an alternative, let me use this first."

Z-ONE said calmly and raised his hand so that the mechanical arm of the device on his body.

The Quantum Cube in mid-air suddenly stopped as if it was caught. Cards flew out from inside the cube one after another, forming a neat queue, like a dancer entering the dance floor with neat steps.

One after another, they landed firmly on the empty Duel Disk in front of Z-ONE, quickly completed automatic shuffling, and then automatically flew out five cards from the top of the deck, floating in front of Z-ONE.

"My deck!" Aigami shouted from the side.

"Okay, now I have a deck." Z-ONE said calmly, "Come on."

Yuei Vu: ""

This guy is actually planning to use Cubic to fight me?

"Duel!" x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Z-ONE, LP 4000

"I'll go first, draw!" This time it was Yuei Vu who got the first turn.

The first card he drew was a gift card from Mr. Phoenix. Yuei Vu chose to use it without much hesitation.

"Spell Card Take Over 5! Send the top five cards of the deck to the graveyard." (Animation card)

Five cards entered the graveyard one after another, and Yuei Vu then drew the next card from his hand.

"Summon the Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier!"

[Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, ATK 1400]

"The effect of Liquid Soldier When this card is Normal Summoned: I can target 1 Level 4 or lower HERO' monster in my GY, except Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier'; Special Summon it. I special summon the Elemental HERO Blazeman'."

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, DEF 1800]

"The effect of Blazeman If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can add 1 Polymerization' from my Deck to my hand. I added the Fusion Substitute' Spell Card to the hand."

Yuei Vu showed his Spell Card and inserted it directly into the Duel Disk.

"Activate the Spell Card Fusion Substitute! I fuse the Elemental HERO Blazeman' with Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier!"

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO' monster + 1 WATER monster! Fusion Summon!

Born from the extremely cold abyss, freezing everything with the absolute power of ice and snow

Elemental HERO Absolute Zero! "

Chapter 697: Cubic Lord

A snow-white storm rose into the sky, and plain white armor was revealed in the wind and snow. The hero stepped on the ice crystals everywhere, and his cloak seemed to be dyed into a pure white battle flag by snowflakes.

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

"Set a card, I end my turn." Yuei Vu said.

The Elemental HERO who dominated ice and snow has always been the reliable big brother of the Elemental HEROes. He didn't need to do anything. Just standing on the frontline like this made people feel at ease for no reason, as if the entire side was protected by an inviolable zero-degree field.

"Then it's my turn."

Z-ONE spoke in a deep voice, and a card flew out from the deck and automatically came to his hand.

Yugi has retreated to the sidelines, watching the duel as a spectator.

"This person took away Aigami's deck then he should also be using Cubic monsters." Yugi said, "Cubic monsters have very terrifying offensive capabilities. If you are not careful, you might be killed instantly."

If these words came from other people's mouths, it might make sense, but the person who said this just happened to be Yugi Muto, the Duel King who had just buried Cubic in a bottomless pit and OTKed Aigami

"Hmph!" Kaiba said coldly, "Yuei Vu will quickly defeat an opponent of this level."

Yuei Vu: ""

President, Im having a BOSS fight here. Can you please stop placing some weird flags for me

Although Z-ONE was using a Cubic deck, it was obvious that the same deck as Aigami. In the world of Yu-Gi-Oh, a deck often had completely different effects in the hands of different people.

Z-ONE was the final BOSS that ran through the world of the three generations of Yu-Gi-Oh! in DM, GX, and 5DS. This kind of opponent was worthy of vigilance even if he played a Leo Wizard deck.

Aigami on the side: "My deck" (it didn't attract anyone's attention)

The drawn card was added to the hand, and then Z-ONE quickly selected another card in his hand. The card flew out automatically and landed accurately on the Duel Disk protruding from the device in front of him.

"Summon Vijam the Cubic Seed!" He said.

The golden particles formed a torrent, shaping freely in mid-air. One eye opened, and the twisted figure of "Vijam the Cubic Seed" stretched out from below.

Vijam the Cubic Seed, ATK 0

Sure enough, it appeared, the starting point of the Cubic deck.

No matter how strong Z-ONE was, Vijam was still the core card of Cubic. The Cubic monsters could overlap, deform, separate, and overlap again, but the entire process was inseparable from this Vijam.

In this case

"Open the set card!" The trap card in front of Yuei Vu flipped, "Trap Card Chain Disappearance!"

When Aigami outside the field saw this card, his eyelids twitched, as if he thought of some extremely bad memory.

"This card can only be activated when a monster(s) with 1000 or less ATK is Summoned."

Yuei Vu raised his hand and pointed at the Vijam with 0 attack power on Z-ONE's field.

"Banish that monster(s), then the opponent banishes all cards with the same name as that card from their hand and Deck!"

A chain flew out from the trap, and the high-speed chain made a violent metal friction sound. The chain hit penetrated Vijam on the Z-ONE field and followed the clues to penetrate the other two sleeping in the Z-ONE deck.

The three Vijams seemed to be strung together by chains of fate that spanned space and disappeared out of thin air one after another due to the distortion of dimensions.

"Beautiful!" Yugi praised, "That monster called Vijam' is the core of the Cubic deck. As long as that thing disappears, the deck will lose most of its combat effectiveness!"

Of course, Kaiba, who has also fought against Cubic, understood this. Seeing that the deck he had been fighting for so long was easily defeated by Yuei Vu with just one card, Kaiba only curled up the corner of his mouth and chuckled softly: "It's just so-so. It's natural for that guy to be able to do this. "

But Yuei Vu did not relax his vigilance.

Because Z-ONE didn't look the least bit panicked.

"Chain Disappearance' is indeed a beautiful countermeasure." A dull and muddy voice came from under the metal shell, "Then activate the Spell Card Roll of Fate'.

Roll a six-sided die. Draw cards equal to the result, then remove an equal number of cards from the top of my Deck. "

A die was thrown and rolled to the ground with the side representing the number "5" facing up.

"The number rolled was 5," he said. "So, I drew five cards from the deck."

"Leave it to luck?" Yugi said.

"Luck is also a part of a duelist's strength," Kaiba said lightly.

"Activate Spell Card Double Summon! In this turn, I can conduct the second Normal Summon.

I normal summon Duza the Meteor Cubic Vessel. "

Tentacle-like metal arms protruded from the vortex of golden light, and the Cubic monster with a spherical body appeared spinning, with a simple red pattern on its steel chest.

[Duza the Meteor Cubic Vessel, ATK 1600]

"If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can send 1 Cubic' card from my Deck to the Graveyard."

A card from Z-ONE's deck automatically flew out, briefly suspended in mid-air to show everyone, and then automatically flew to his graveyard.

It's as if every card in his deck was a spirit with wings. It only needed an instruction or even a thought to obey the master's command and automatically complete all expected tasks.

"Send the Continuous Spell Cubic Karma' to the GY." Z-ONE said, "Then the effect of Cubic Karma' in the GY is activated.

Banish this card from my GY, then add 1 Cubic' monster from my Deck to my hand. "

A card flew out of Z-ONE's deck again, floating in the air and showing it to everyone.

"The card I added to my hand is Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord!"

Yuei Vu: "!"

Aigami: "!"

Yuei Vu was surprised because he knew this card and it shouldn't appear here.

Aigami was surprised because

There was no such thing in his deck!

"Quick-Play Spell Trap Booster. Discard 1 card. This turn, I can activate 1 Trap Card from my hand." (Anime Card)

Z-ONE revealed a trap.

"Trap Card Sound the Retreat! Return all monsters on my field to the hand."

As soon as the words fell, the black iron lump "Duza the Meteor Cubic Vessel" had turned into countless light points and dissipated, returning to Z-ONE's hands.

"Then I revealed Duza the Meteor Cubic Vessel', Dark Garnex the Cubic Beast', Blade Garoodia the Cubic Beast', and this card can be Special Summoned directly from my hand."

A card flew out, and the vast darkness erupted from that small card.

"Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord!!!"

Chapter 698: Hero Counterattack

In endless darkness, golden particles erupted from the abyss like cotton wool and a deep purple entity roared out of the abyss.

It was a Cubic monster with unprecedented momentum, and its head was covered by a dark purple transparent cube. It had sharp axes and blades, and almost every joint of its body had a weird one-eye. All the eyes moved together, looking at the world from all angles.

Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord!

So far, the monsters summoned by Aigami have been "Cubic Seed", "Cubic Beast", "Cubic King", "Cubic Behemoth", and "Cubic Emperor". But the name of the arrogant guy who appeared here was "Dark Cubic Lord". Obviously, they were not on the same level.

As mentioned before, "Vijam the Cubic Seed" was the starting point for all tactics of the Cubic deck. Vijam, whose attack power was only 0, can generate various powerful Cubic monsters through overlapping transformations to attack continuously. This is the core idea of the Cubic deck.

But there were always exceptions.

This "Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord" did not need Vijam as a springboard, nor did it need a series of complex processes of overlapping, deformation, and separation. It only needed to show three "Cubic" monsters in its hand to jump out at will.

This was a Cubic monster that should not exist. Not even Aigami has seen it.

In the original work, this was a Dark Cubic monster born from the deep darkness and evil after Aigami was possessed by the evil thoughts of the Millennium Ring and went berserk.

There was no doubt that this was Z-ONE's preparation in advance. He printed this card before going to this arena to cause trouble and launch a duel challenge. From the beginning, he planned to use the power of "Cubic" to duel Yuei Vu!

Good guy, he actually pretended to steal the secondary deck from Aigami for a duel.

To Yuei Vu, this guy was prepared!

"Impossible" Aigami on the side looked lost, "No one understands the Cubic better than me. There is no such thing as a Cubic monster Impossible "

"Battle." Z-ONE's voice was still as cold as a machine, "Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord, attack Elemental HERO Absolute Zero'."

The whirling sharp blade and silver-white ax were surrounded by golden light and turned into a whirling golden disc. The Elemental HERO's white armor was torn apart, shattered like diamonds and endless ice crystals burst out from the cracks.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3500

The tingling sensation spread violently from inside the body Yuei Vu was not surprised at all that this duel would have a substantial impact on the duelist. He staggered half a step, then immediately raised his hand.

"Elemental HERO Absolute Zero's effect. When he leaves the field, all monsters on the opponent's field will be destroyed!"

The space was completely solidified and the earth was frozen. The air was like the breath of an extremely cold dragon, turning into a wave that clung to the ground and swept towards the monster from the Cubic.

But even a hero as strong as Big Brother Absolute Zero could not save the day today. The Dark Cubic Lord waved the sharp blade in his hand impatiently, and a beam of silver light broke through the zero-degree law with an irresistible command. The extremely cold realm was defeated, clusters of ice crystals were shattered under the overbearing impact, and the silver-white fragments were like flying snow.

"The effect of the Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord." Z-ONE said coldly, "He is unaffected by other monsters' activated effects, whose original ATK is 3000 or less."

Yuei Vu frowned and did not reply. He just said: "Then when I took damage, the effect of the Vision HERO Multiply Guy' in the GY was also activated.

If I take battle or effect damage while this card is in my GY: I can place this card from my GY in my Spell & Trap Zone as a face-up Continuous Trap. "

The phantom of the hero emerged, turning into a vague outline and appearing in Yuei Vu's backfield.

Of course, he knew the effect resistance of this Dark Cubic Lord, and he also knew that Big Brother Absolute Zero, who had only 2500 ATK, couldn't do anything to him. In addition, he even knew that this thing's ability was more than that.

"The subsequent ability of Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord." Z-ONE continued, "When this attacking card destroys a monster by battle, this card can make a second attack during this Battle Phase."

Yugi was surprised: "This Cubic monster is not only immune to monster effects but can also attack multiple times? It's so powerful"

Kaiba also said: "In other words, all the abilities of monsters with attack power below the Blue-Eyes White Dragon' are invalid What a terrifying opponent."

Kisara didn't say a word, but she pulled the president's clothes and pursed her lips.

My attack power is obviously very high. Since when did everyone start to regard me as a unit of measurement for combat power

The Dark Cubic Lord swung again, and the huge sharp blade rose in a golden arc. It cut through the space and fell down hard, with a scorching slash coming towards the face.

But of course, it wouldn't be that simple. Yuei Vu showed a card in his hand: "I discard Kuriboh', and the battle damage becomes 0!"

The invincible Kurioh appeared in the vortex of light: "Kuri Kuri!"

Even if there were more and more juniors in the hand pit industry and the industry's competitiveness was increasing day by day, Kuriboh would never be out of date!

The ax trailing the golden light was bounced away, and the Dark Cubic World God's second shot failed to have any effect. But Z-ONE didn't seem surprised that his opponent could block the second attack, and only ended the Battle Phase calmly.

"Set two cards, I end my turn."

As he spoke, all the joints of Crimson Nova's eyes opened. The big eyes were filled with whites, and streaks of blood covered the ferocious eyeballs like wriggling snakes.

All the eyes shot purple-black beams of light toward the sky at the same instant! That light is like a sword cutting through the darkness but it is a double-edged sword that cannot distinguish between ourselves and the enemy!

"The effect of Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord'. During my End Phase, both players will take 3000 damage." Z-ONE said.

"Eh!?" Yugi was surprised, "Even the controller"

Kaiba also frowned: "Does this guy want to launch an attack by self-destruction?"

"Discard Hanewata' from my hand." Z-ONE said lightly, "I take no effect damage this turn."

The soft white ball jumped out, perfectly blocking him from the backlash from the Dark Cubic Lord.

"Ah," Yugi said, "In this way, only Yuei Vu will be hurt"

"The effect of Destiny HERO Decider' in the graveyard is activated!" Yuei Vu picked up a card that popped up in his graveyard. "When a card or effect is activated that would inflict damage to me, while this card is in my GY: Return this card to my hand, and make that effect damage become 0!"

The phantom of the hero of destiny appeared and blocked the impact with his body. Yuei Vu also escaped.

"Fortunately, Yuei Vu also had a countermeasure" Yugi breathed a sigh of relief.

"snort."

Kaiba looked at Z-ONE, frowned, and said nothing for the time being.

But based on his many years of combat experience, Kaiba was convinced that this guy was anything but ordinary and had something completely different from ordinary duelists.

A truly strong man who emerged from countless bloody battles.

"My turn!" Yuei Vu drew a card.

All the effects of monsters with original attack power below 3000 were ineffective against Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord. And 3000 happened to be a relatively difficult-to-achieve point for the HERO deck it's not that they couldn't break through this kind of attack power, but to reach more than 3000, the heroes must rely on their own special effects.

But its not impossible to break through.

"In the Standby Phase, I banish the Take Over5' in the graveyard and a card with the same name in the deck from the game, and draw a card from the deck."

Yuei Vu drew a card, and then two more cards popped up from the graveyard.

"Then I remove Fusion Substitute' from the game, return the Elemental HERO Absolute Zero' in the graveyard to the Extra Deck, and draw another card from the deck."

After drawing two cards in a row and adding them to his hand, he then showed one card in his hand.

"Activate the Spell Card E-Emergency Call', and add 1 Elemental HERO' monster from the deck to the hand." Yuei Vu drew a card from the deck, "I added Elemental HERO Stratos' to my hand.

Then summon the Elemental HERO Stratos! "

[Elemental HERO Stratos, ATK 1800]

"The effect of Stratos When this card is Normal or Special Summoned, add 1 HERO' monster from my Deck to my hand. I added the Vision HERO Faris' to the hand."

Yuei Vu showed the card added to his hand.

"I discard 1 other HERO' monster; Special Summon Vision HERO Faris' from my hand!"

[Vision HERO Faris, ATK 1600]

"The effect of Faris If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can place 1 Vision HERO' monster from my Deck, except Vision HERO Faris', in my Spell & Trap Zone as a face-up Continuous Trap. I choose Vision HERO Increase'.

Next is the effect of Increase'. I Tribute Vision HERO Faris' and special summon it to the field! "

Vision HERO Increase, ATK 900

"When the Increase is Special Summoned from the Spell & Trap Zone, I Special Summon Vision HERO Vyon' from my Deck."

[Vision HERO Vyon, ATK 1000]

"The effect of Vyon! If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can send 1 HERO' monster from my Deck to the GY. I send the Destiny HERO Malicious' to the graveyard."

The series of operations dazzled the onlookers. Yugi opened his eyes wide: "Vision HERO Is this Yuei Vu's new hero? What a powerful operating ability!"

Kaiba said nothing, but he also thought to himself

Yuei Vu, in just a few days, your strength has increased by such a magnitude!

It seems that the schedule for our next duel has to be moved forward.

"The subsequent effect of Vyon! I banish Vision HERO Faris' from my GY; add 1 Polymerization' from my Deck to my hand."

After the arrangement was completed, Yuei Vu directly showed the retrieval card.

"Spell Card Polymerization! Fuse Vision HERO Increase' and Vision HERO Vyon' on the field!

The fusion condition is two HERO'monsters! Fusion Summon!

The true form of the hero emerges from the whirlpool of phantoms

Vision HERO Adoration! ! ! "

Chapter 699: Not My Cubic

The black armor was tightly wrapped around the hero's strong body, and black streamers flew behind him. The two phantoms merged and turned into reality. The dark hero stepped heavily on the field, and the gravel collapsed under his feet.

[Vision HERO Adoration, ATK 2800]

"Vision HERO, that is Yuei Vu's new power!" Yugi said.

Jonouchi and others had also jumped down from the auditorium at this time and ran to the front row to watch.

"But the attack power is still a little bit behind." Jonouchi said, "But Yuei Vu must have an idea, right?"

"Aniki!"

Mokuba also jumped down from the direction of the console and ran to his brother's side. But he hasn't yet figured out the identity of the silver-haired sister next to his brother. He only thought that she looked very kind and a little familiar.

Kisara noticed Mokuba's eyes, lowered her head in embarrassment, and raised her little hand cautiously to greet him.

"I activate the effect of the Vision HERO Multiply Guy' in the Spell & Trap Zone!" Yuei Vu said, "During the Main Phase, if this card is treated as a Continuous Trap: I can Tribute 1 HERO' monster; Special Summon this card.

I used the Elemental HERO Stratos' as a sacrifice, and summoned the Vision HERO Multiply Guy' in defense position! "

The heroic entity came out of the phantom, dressed in blue-black armor. He landed on the field of the monster area in a crouching state, and the armor on his body was humming with a dull sound.

[Vision HERO Multiply Guy, DEF 700]

The body of Adoration was shrouded in a dim light, and black streamers kept flying.

"When Multiply Guy is successfully summoned from the Spell & Trap Zone: I can make 1 face-up monster on the field gain 800 ATK. Increase the attack power of Vision HERO Adoration'!"

[Vision HERO Adoration, ATK 2800 ATK 3600]

"That's great!" Honda shouted, "Defeat him in one go, Yuei Vu!"

Yuei Vu said: "Battle! I use Vision HERO Adoration' to attack Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord'! Ambition Sanctions!!!"

The air current lifted up the Vision HERO's clothes, and transparent vortices spread out from under his feet. The scorching beams of light soared into the sky from the feet of Adoration and Dark Cubic Lord at the same time, and the explosive torrent blasted the huge dark Dark Cubic Lord into two pieces from bottom to top.

Crimson Nova's eyes were wide open as if they were bloodshot and full of unwillingness. Its arms flew out in a spin, the sharp blade penetrated the ground with a clang, and the mechanical body shattered into pieces with a series of explosions.

Z-ONELP 4000 LP 3400

If Yuei Vu summoned "Vision HERO Multiply Guy" in attack position, he could still cause more damage, but if he did that, he had to risk leaving the Multiply Guy with only 800 attack power on the field in the next round.

So out of caution, Yuei Vu still chose to summon Multiply Guy in defense position.

"Set a card, I end my turn."

Z-ONE was very calm from beginning to end as if the defeat of the ace monster was within his expectations. The Duel Disk in front of him made a slight buzzing sound of mechanical parts, and another card flew out automatically.

"My turn, draw." He glanced at the card he drew, and the card immediately turned over automatically and was inserted into the Duel Disk.

"Activate the Spell Card Painful Choice! This card can select five cards from the deck to show to the opponent. The opponent chooses one card to add to my hand, and discards all the rest to the graveyard."

Five cards flew out automatically from various parts of Z-ONE's deck, and the deck was automatically shuffled in the slot. The five cards were arranged in sequence and displayed to Yuei Vu.

They were the other two "Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord", two copies of the Continuous Spell "Cubic Dharma", and the Spell Card "Cubic Wave".

Z-ONE had three other "Cubic" monsters in his hand. He only needed to reveal those three cards, and "Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord" could jump out unconditionally. It would still be a bit troublesome if these two cards were added to his hand.

When "Cubic Dharma" existed in the graveyard, he could remove it in the graveyard from the game and recycle the "Cubic" monsters in the graveyard, which was also a big trouble.

Yuei Vu thought for a moment: "I pick Cubic Dharma'."

Although there would still be a "Cubic Dharma" entering the graveyard, there was nothing he could do about it. Doing so could at least reduce the opponent's available resources to a greater or lesser extent.

But soon, he realized that no matter what he chose, it was meaningless.

"Open the set card: Trap Card Disgraceful Charity." Z-ONE calmly turned over a trap at his feet, "Both players add all cards from their Graveyards that were sent by the effect of Spell Card activated this turn to their hands." (animation card)

Yuei Vu: ""

That's too much. Isn't this equal to an accurate search?

"So the four cards sent to the graveyard by Painful Choice' will all be returned to the hand."

Four cards were added to the hand at once, and Z-ONE immediately played one of them.

"Activate Continuous Spell Cubic Dharma'. Once per turn, send 1 Cubic' card from my hand to the GY and draw 1 card."

A new card automatically flew out of the deck, and the sustainable Spell Card that just entered the graveyard also popped up automatically.

"Then the effect of Continuous Spell Cubic Dharma' in the graveyard is activated. Banish this card from my GY, then add 1 Cubic' monster from my GY to my hand.

I added the Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord from the graveyard to my hand. "

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes.

In this way, the opponent has three "Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord"

"I reveal Meteor Cube Artifact Sky Dust' in my hand, The Cube Beast Dark Gannicus', The Cube Emperor Blade Garudaia'. As three Square Monsters' are revealed"

Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord, all three were summoned! "

The silver-white sword light struck down, and the darkness was cut into several parts like a huge curtain. Countless eyes opened from the darkness, and purple-black lasers shot out in all directions. Three huge bodies sprang out side by side, each with dark purple squares on their heads. They were twisted and funny, ridiculous but ferocious.

"This is not true, right?" Jonouchi faced the dark vortex rolled up and said, "Such a powerful monster three of them appeared in one breath!?"

"It's too strong." Yugi couldn't help but praise, "It's not at the same level as the strength of the Cubic' deck used by Aigami!"

Aigami (already self-closed): "My Quantum Cubemy deck"

"Activate the Spell Card Cubic Wave' from my hand." Z-ONE said indifferently, "The attack power of a monster on my field is doubled, and the attack power of a monster on the opponent's field is halved.

Halve the attack power of Vision HERO Adoration', and double the attack power of one Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord' on my field, . "

The fluctuations of gold spread like solid shackles on the Vision HERO. The invisible weight brought the hero to his knees, half-kneeling on the ground, and he was suffocated.

"Oops!" Jonouchi said, "If Yuei Vu takes so many consecutive attacks"

"Brother Yuei Vu!" Mokuba couldn't help shouting.

"Try to resist if you can, Duel King Yuei Vu." Z-ONE entered the Battle Phase, "The first Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord', attacks Vision HERO Adoration!"

The Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord, who had an attack power of six thousand, waved his sharp blade wildly, all eyes widened, and the soft sound of the metal joints was like a low moan of uncontrollable excitement.

A wisp of silver light flew towards the hero along with a sharp sound of breaking through the air, and was shrouded in golden light halfway through the flight, like a falling meteor!

"Open the set card!" Yuei Vu's eyes widened, "Trap Card Draining Shield! When an opponent's monster declares an attack: Target the attacking monster; negate that attack, and gain LP equal to that target's ATK!"

The rainbow-colored energy barrier formed, and the battle ax smashed into it with a gorgeous golden light. All the overbearing impact was turned into nutrients under the effect of the trap and was slowly absorbed into Yuei Vu's body.

Yuei Vu, LP 3500 LP 9500

"Draining Shield?" Z-ONE's voice was still calm, "Then we will come to the next attack. The second Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord' will continue to attack the Vision HERO Adoration!."

There was another flash of golden light, with an air-piercing chirping sound that cut the hero into two pieces. The impact hit Yuei Vu with a golden wave. It felt like being hit hard in the chest, and his bones screamed as if they were falling apart.

Yuei Vu, LP 9500 LP 8300

"The effect of Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord. When this attacking card destroys a monster by battle, this card can make a second attack during this Battle Phase." Z-ONE continued, "Attack the Vision HERO Multiply Guy."

In the second attack, the sharp blade sliced the Multiply Guy through and he dissipated into a phantom.

"Then comes the third Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord'." Z-ONE continued, "Attack directly!"

The joints of the Dark Cubic Lord's whole body were working, and his voice was like a metallic cheer. The golden light turned into staggered blades and slashed out, slicing through Yuei Vu's body again and again. The searing pain felt like fusing nerves as if the body had been cut open and mended back together in a brief moment.

Yuei Vu, LP 8300 LP 5300

"Very good, this way the opponent's number of attacks will be exhausted!" Mokuba said happily, "As expected of Brother Yuei Vu, even with so many attacks"

"It's not over yet," Kaiba said calmly.

"Eh?"

"Set two cards onto the field."

Z-ONE raised his cold gaze.

"At the moment of the End Phase, the effect of Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord' is activated again. Both players will receive 3000 points of damage at the same time."

Purple-black light burst out from the uncontrollable hungry eyes of the Dark Cubic Lord, and countless lasers criss-crossed. The earth was torn apart, and radial fractures were melted out of the walls.

Yuei Vu was hit head-on again and staggered back half a step, feeling like his body was being torn apart again.

Yuei Vu, LP 5300 LP 2300

Sure enough, the thickest armor received the hardest beating. Although the blood was thick, the pain still really hurt

Yuei Vu's steps staggered.

"In the graveyard, activate the effect of Vision HERO Multiply Guy'. If I take battle or effect damage while this card is in my GY: I can place this card from my GY in my Spell & Trap Zone as a face-up Continuous Trap."

There was an erratic outline, and the Multiply Guy who had just left the scene returned again in the form of a phantom.

"It is indeed a very powerful damage ability, but the conditions are the same for the enemy." Kaiba narrowed his eyes.

Sure enough, the indiscriminate strafing from the Dark Cubic Lord also swept towards Z-ONE. But Z-ONE remained calm and only flipped another card.

"Discard a card and activate the Trap Card Rainbow Life'." He said, "Until the end of this turn, each time I would take damage, gain that amount of LP instead."

The colorful rainbow light rose like a shield, and the domineering impact was all transformed into warm and peaceful nutrients, which were absorbed into Z-ONE's body.

Z-ONELP 3400 LP 6400

"LP6400!?" Mokuba exclaimed.

"Oops." Jonouchi said, "There are still two Dark Cubic Lords' left. If the other two are also dealt 3000 points of damage"

"This effect of Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord' can only be activated once per turn."

Z-ONEs words made everyone feel like a huge boulder was lifted from their hearts.

Okay, okay, if each of the three Dark Cubic Lords fired like this, it would be too OP

"My turn is over." Z-ONE glanced at Yuei Vu, "Come on, it's your turn."

Chapter 700: The Ultimate Vision HERO

Finally, he managed to withstand the continuous attacks of three Cubic Lords, and Yuei Vu couldn't help but let out a sigh of relief.

Among the three Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lords, one had an attack power as high as 6000, and it also had the effect of continuous attacks. The suppressive power of this lineup was still amazing enough. This shocking power alone was enough to make most duelists put down their decks and surrender immediately.

"My turn, draw! I activate Graceful Charity', draw three cards, and discard two cards."

Discarding the two cards in his hand, Yuei Vu then drew another card: "Spell Card Pot of Greed, draw two cards from the deck!

Then I activate the Quick-Play Spell Twin Twisters from my hand! Discard 1 card, then target up to 2 Spells/Traps on the field; destroy them!"

He pointed to Z-ONEs back row.

"I destroyed Cubic Dharma' and Cubic Wave!!"

As long as the Continuous Spell "Cubic Dharma" was on the field, the Battle Damage caused by the Cubic monster to its owner in battle was 0. There was no way to effectively reduce Z-ONE's LP without dealing with this troublesome card first.

Although Cubic Wave was a Normal Spell, according to the animation effect, after it was activated, it would stay on the field and continue to take effect. It would not destroy itself until all the targeted monsters left the field.

Then if this Spell Card was blown away here, the attack power of "Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord" that has been strengthened by its effect would naturally return to its original state.

The double storm was like two silver dragons attacking, and both Spell Cards were crushed into pieces. The golden fluctuations on the field gradually dissipated, and the power of the Cubic Lord also dropped.

[Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord, ATK 6000 ATK 3000]

"Spell Card A Hero Lives!" Yuei Vu waved his hand and played a card. "If I control no face-up monsters: Pay half my LP; Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower Elemental HERO' monster from my Deck."

Yuei Vu, LP 2300 LP 1150

A card from Yuei Vu's deck popped up.

"I Special Summon Elemental HERO Bubbleman!"

Transparent water bubbles swirled and danced, and the hero wearing a cross-section helmet and blue armor appeared gracefully.

[Elemental HERO Bubbleman, ATK 800]

"When Bubbleman is summoned and there are no other cards on my field, draw two cards from the deck."

Yuei Vu drew two cards and immediately took out one of them.

"Summon the Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier!"

[Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, ATK 1400]

"The effect of Liquid Soldier When this card is Normal Summoned: I can target 1 Level 4 or lower HERO' monster in my GY, except Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier'; Special Summon it. I summon the Elemental HERO Blazeman!"

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, DEF 1800]

"The effect of Blazeman If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can add 1 Polymerization' from my Deck to my hand."

Yuei Vu drew another card from the deck, flipped it over, and displayed it.

"There are three Elemental HEROes on the field, and two of them have WATER attribute" Jonouchi said, "Would he still summon the Absolute Zero?"

As the frequency of use increased, Big Brother Absolute Zero was gradually becoming Yuei Vu's signature card. The ability to summon ice and snow to freeze everything left a deep impression on everyone.

"No." Yugi shook his head, "All the effects of monsters with an attack power of less than 3,000 are ineffective against the Dark Cubic Lord'. Yuei Vu knows this."

Of course, Yuei Vu understood this, so he had no intention of asking Big Brother Absolute Zero to come out to work overtime again.

All three Dark Cubic Lords had an attack power of 3,000, and they were unaffected by the effects of low-attack monsters.

This was the perfect time to experiment with the new powers of the heroes.

"Activate Spell Card Polymerization!" Yuei Vu said, "I fuse the Elemental HERO Bubbleman', Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier', and Elemental HERO Blazeman' on the field!"

The fusion condition is 3 HERO' monsters! Fusion Summon!

The fusion of phantoms summons the heroes' ultimate posture.

Vision HERO Trinity!!! "

With the triple fusion, the ultimate Vision HERO arrived. He wore thick fiery red armor, with red indicator lights placed on his head, chest, and abdomen. His steel boots shattered the floor tiles, and the fragments splashed like rain.

[Vision HERO Trinity, ATK 2500]

"The effect of Trinity!" Yuei Vu said, "After this card is Fusion Summoned, for the rest of this turn, this card's ATK becomes double its original ATK!"

The hero's red armor made a muffled sound like an idling engine, as if lightning was stuck inside the steel armor and roared. Steam seemed to be spitting out from the gaps in the armor plate, and the rapidly heating gas made the hero's body seem to become erratic and distorted.

[Vision HERO Trinity, ATK 2500 ATK 5000]

"Attack power five thousand!?" Mokuba was shocked, "So strong!"

"I set two cards in my hand on the field." Yuei Vu said, "The effect of the Destiny HERO Celestial' that was thrown to the graveyard last round as the summoning price of Vision HERO Faris' is activated!"

While I have no cards in my hand, I can banish this card and 1 Destiny HERO' monster from my GY; draw 2 cards. "

Two cards popped up in the GY area, and Yuei Vu took them into his hand and showed them.

"I remove Destiny HERO Celestial' and Destiny HERO Decider' from the game and draw two cards."

Yuei Vu glanced at the drawn card, thought for a moment, and then waved his hand.

"The effect of the Destiny HERO Malicious' in the graveyard is activated! I can banish this card from my GY; Special Summon 1 Destiny HERO Malicious' from my Deck."

Come on, second Malicious! "

[Destiny HERO Malicious, ATK 800]

"Then Vision HERO Multiply Guy's effect is activated! During the Main Phase, if this card is treated as a Continuous Trap: I can Tribute 1 HERO' monster; and Special Summon this card.

I sacrificed the Destiny HERO Malicious and Special Summoned Vision HERO Multiply Guy! "

The demonic man disappeared and was replaced by the Vision HERO in blue armor.

[Vision HERO Multiply Guy, ATK 800]

"The effect of Multiply Guy If this card is Special Summoned from the Spell & Trap Zone: I can make 1 face-up monster on the field gain 800 ATK. I increase the ATK of Vision HERO Trinity' by 800 points!"

[Vision HERO Trinity, ATK 5000 ATK 5800]

"Attack power 5800!?" Mokuba's eyes shone, "As expected of Brother Yuei Vu, he is so strong and powerful!"

Z-ONE's head was lowered, and his vision was blocked, making it impossible to see his state.

"Battle!" Yuei Vu said, "Vision HERO Trinity, attack Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord!"

The trio clenched their fists, and a low metallic roar emitted from the red armor as if a machine was roaring.

A dazzling red light condensed on the indicator lights on his chest and shoulders, and the vortex of energy was like a heavy breath coming from deep in the dragon's throat.

Trinity Crush!

Three scorching beams hit the body of the Cubic monster at the same time! The body structure of the Dark Cubic Lord was shattered by the overbearing external force, cracked from the center, and the dark purple cube covering his forehead cracked like a broken fish tank.

Z-ONELP 6400 LP 3600

"The effect of Trinity." Yuei Vu said, "Although he cannot attack the player directly, he can attack three times in one turn!"

The friends who were watching were all stunned.

"Attack power 5800 and it still be able to attack three times!?"

What kind of monster is this red hero??

"Yes that's right!" Jonouchi realized, "Originally the attack power of Trinity is 5,000. If he attacks three times to defeat three Dark Cubic Lords', each one will cause 2000 combat damage. That's 6000 points of damage in total

"The opponent's LP is 6400. In that case, there will still be 400 LP left." Honda clenched his fist and said, "That's why he has to use the effect of the Multiply Guy' to increase the attack power"

"That's right! If all three attacks passed, that is a super high damage of 8400 points!" Jonouchi nodded.

"Brother Yuei Vu was indeed the strongest!" Mokuba continued to admire his face.

"Hmph." Kaiba said lightly, "Just for now."

""

Trinity's second shot!

Another "Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord" was shattered by the hot beam. The huge Cubic monster was shattered into pieces, its limbs and body were separated, and its steel arms were fused by the high temperature.

The Cubic monster that acted as the wall was shattered, and the shock wave swept through Z-ONE as the controller unabated. The mechanical device he was riding on swayed like a boat in the wind. Hot air waves washed over the steel-gray metal shell, and the gravel splashed away crisply.

Z-ONELP 3600 LP 800

"The last Cubic monster, the final attack!" Mokuba was excited, "Brother Yuei Vu won!"

The cannon muzzle on Trinity's chest was briefly extinguished, then shone even more grandly! The surging energy turned into endless light and flames, like the breath of a giant dragon from the clouds, and the flames roared and hit the body of the Cubic monster!

The Dark Cubic Lord screamed and fell down, his body broke into pieces. Its round body was melted through from its chest to its back, and the torrent continued unabated as if the sea of fire was about to engulf Z-ONE and his devices together.

"Open the set card."

With only 800 LP left, Z-ONE finally spoke in a low voice.

"Trap Card Defense Draw. Make the battle damage I take from this battle 0, and I can draw 1 card."

The milky white shield released a bubble-like protective layer, the torrent of Trinity Crush branched off like hitting a stubborn rock.

The final attack was ineffective.

"But Yuei Vu's attack is not over yet." Yu Yu said.

That's right, there was still the last monster left in Yuei Vu's field that had not attacked!

[Vision HERO Multiply Guy, ATK 800]

Z-ONE, LP 800

"Keep fighting." Yuei Vu waved his hand, "Vision HERO Multiply Guy, attack directly!"
