

I Play Yu-Gi 701

Chapter 701: Red Reboot

"Vision HERO Multiply Guy, attack directly!"

The Vision HERO in blue armor launched a sprint. With only 800 attack power, it may be an attack that could be ignored in normal times, but at this moment, it was a fatal blow that was enough to end this duel!

Z-ONEs face lifted.

A sight as sharp as a blade shot out from the gap in the steel mask, and the blue color of his pupils could be vaguely seen under the shadow.

"Open the set card."

A trap was opened in front of him, and the power contained in the trap penetrated hell, like the whisper of the undead.

"Trap Card Necro Fusion." He said, "Fusion Summon 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, by banishing Fusion Materials mentioned on it from my GY face-down."

Yuei Vu's eyes moved.

Did he actually want to perform a fusion from the graveyard at this moment!?

The floor of the stadium in front of Z-ONE cracked, the twisted mechanical arm stretched out, and the steel blade penetrated into the ground. Three huge iron guys rushed out. They bared their teeth and claws as if venting the anger of being defeated.

"I banish three Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord' in the GY!"

The three Dark Cubic Lords were each wrapped in a cube, and they turned into countless golden particles and dissipated. The particles coalesce to form a pulsating golden torrent. They intertwine and swirl together, blending together, and their volume expands horribly at a rate visible to the naked eye.

The energy shaped into sharp claws, and then extended long golden arms. Its limbs swing like cartilaginous animals and are as solid as steel. An eye opened in the center of the surging particle vortex, turning left and right to look at the world.

It waved its arms, the sharp blade split the floor, and sparks flew out like fireworks. The divine power was released majestically, and the dimensional realm trembled as if it was on the verge of collapse.

A triple fusion!

"Fusion Summon! Three gods of Cubic, unify into one! Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord!!!"

[Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord, ATK 4500]

The evil god's one eye was closed, and the thirst for blood and the impulse of destruction filled that terrifying body. Just looking directly at that body made people involuntarily fear deep in their hearts.

Even experienced duelists like Yugi and Kaiba couldn't help but feel a long-lost shudder when they saw this unique and ferocious body.

In the original history, it was supposed to be the combination of Aigami's "Quantum Cube" power and the evil thoughts of the "Millennium Ring" to give birth to the ultimate Cubic evil god.

And this card was actually reproduced by Z-ONE using unknown science and technology!

"Then Multiply Guy's attack will be terminated."

There was a huge difference in strength, so there was no need to continue attacking. Because a monster appeared on Z-ONE's side, a Battle Replay occurred on the field, and Yuei Vu could choose to terminate the attack.

"I end my turn."

The attack failed, but the "Vision HERO Multiply Guy" with only 800 attack power was left on the field. This was not a good sign.

The opponent has a powerful attack power of up to 4500. Even if he was touched once, Yuei Vu would be defeated in that moment!

"But there are still two set cards on Yuei Vu's field" Yugi's eyes fell on Yuei Vu's backcourt.

Obviously, his biggest reliance was these set cards.

"At the end of the turn, the attack power of Vision HERO Trinity' will also return to its original state." Yuei Vu said.

[Vision HERO Trinity, ATK 5800 ATK 3300]

"My turn, draw."

A card flew out in front of Z-ONE. He squinted through the gap in his mask and glanced at two set cards in Yuei Vu's back row, obviously paying close attention to them.

But this did not affect his next move: "Battle! Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord, attack Vision HERO Trinity!"

"Open the set card." Yuei Vu's back row was not a decoration. "Trap Card Graverobber! Get a card from the opponent's graveyard. I can use it whenever the conditions are met during this turn!"

"Do you want to use the traps in my graveyard to avoid damage?" Z-ONE said coldly, "But that's not possible. I pay half of my LP and activate Counter Trap Red Reboot' from my hand."

Yuei Vu: "!"

Why do you have this kind of card in your hand?

Well, you are a person from the future, so of course you can have this kind of card, but the problem is

You actually used this kind of card on me!?

Yuei Vu, who has always been the only one who used Red Reboot to deceive others, felt the pain of being deceived in turn for the first time today

Red Reboot (Counter Trap): When your opponent activates a Trap Card: Negate the activation, and if you do, Set that card face-down, then they can Set 1 other Trap directly from their Deck. For the rest of this turn after this card resolves, your opponent cannot activate Trap Cards. You can activate this card from your hand by paying half your LP.

Z-ONELP 800 LP 400

The big-headed and small-bodied grave robber was restarted as soon as he appeared on the scene. It was as if he was forced back into the card by an invisible big hand, and was hidden back on the field.

Yuei Vu picked out another trap from the deck and waved his hand to set it at his feet. Of course, he couldn't use it this turn.

"The attack continues."

Crimson Nova Trinity waved its arms wildly, the battle ax roared with a heavy sound, and its two long golden arms were like dancing soft whips, intertwined into a funeral movement.

"Yuei Vu's traps have all been sealed!" Even Yugi couldn't help but say, "Oh no!"

For neither players like him, trap nemesis like Red Reboot was simply a natural enemy.

But Yuei Vu still had one last trick!

Kuriboh!!!

That's right, although he already had many new hand traps and almost as many grave traps, it was still the invincible Kuriboh who came forward to resist the damage and resolve the crisis again!

This was the advantage of Kuriboh.

Other life-saving means such as Kiteroid, Swift Scarecrow, Battle Fader, etc., were either limited to withstand damage from direct attacks only, or for example, Negate Attack targeted and negated the opponent's attack.

That meant that this effect affected the opponent's monster. Unfortunately, "Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord" could not be the target of the effect, nor would it be destroyed by the effect.

But Kuriboh was different. The effect of the Kuriboh was to "turn a battle damage to 0". Its target was the battle damage rather than attacking monsters, so even if the damage came from gods, it could still be neutralized.

This was why even though there were more and more juniors with similar positioning and flashy effects, Kuriboh was still irreplaceable!

The armor of Trinity was shattered, his body was knocked away, and he exploded in mid-air. The golden light blade dragged the rolling darkness, like a meteor splitting the lead-black clouds, but it only hit the protective layer of Kuriboh's body head-on.

However, part of the terrifying darkness still spilled out, and the aftermath of the impact swept away fiercely from Yuei Vu. He groaned, his steps staggering, and his heart felt like it was being burned.

Yuei Vu, LP 1150 LP 575

"Huh? It's obviously blocked, why still" Mokuba expressed his confusion.

"The effect of the Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord'." Z-ONE explained, "When it declares an attack, the opponent's LP is halved."

"Ah?" Mokuba exclaimed, "Isn't this thingtoo strong!?"

Yuei Vu half-knelt on the ground stood up with his arms like lead and took a deep breath.

He knew this wasn't over yet.

"Another effect of the Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord'." A cold light flashed under Z-ONE's mask, "It also inherits the effect of the Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord'. When this attacking card destroys a monster by battle, this card can make a second attack during this Battle Phase.

"It can attack again!?" Almost everyone screamed.

The attack power was as high as 4500, and it could not be targeted or destroyed by the effect. When attacking, the opponent's LP was halved, and there was even the effect of continuous attacks

This thing was so powerful that its like cheating!

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes.

"Okay, I believe you don't have another Kuriboh that can block this attack. And under the effect of Red Reboot', you cannot use any traps."

Z-ONE paused.

"Under this situationtell me, can you still say with certainty that you can change the established destiny?"

Yuei Vu: ""

"The fight continues."

[Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord, ATK 4500]

[Vision HERO Multiply Guy, ATK 800]

"Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord, attack the Multiply Guy." Z-ONE's voice seemed to become muddier, "Bring an end to the Duel King."

Chapter 702: End of Days

Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord roared like laughter and raised their huge blades high. A large mass of pitch-black mist shone with the silver cold light of the sharp blade, and golden light flowed on the edge of the sharp blade.

The Multiply Guy's attack power was only 800, and one blow from the Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord was enough to kill him five times or more. No more Kuriboh stood in the way of this fatal blow, and all of Yuei Vu's traps were sealed by the power of "Red Reboot".

"Yuei Vu!"

More than one person exclaimed in surprise.

But Yuei Vu still had a card to use, "Open the set card: Quick-Play Spell Book of Moon!"

A thick blue book appeared above the venue, and its cover was engraved with this ancient and complex pattern, as well as the moon logo.

The book slowly rose into the sky, like a bright new moon. The yellowed ancient pages seemed to be lifted up by the breeze, turning with a clatter, and ancient mantras floated out from the pages with majestic magic power.

"This card can target 1 face-up monster on the field and change it to the face-down defense position!"

"Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord cannot be targeted by the opponent's card effects."

"I know." Yuei Vu said, "So what I want to change to the face-down defense position is the Vision HERO Multiply Guy!"

The power of the magic book shot out like an invisible chain, forcing the Multiply Guy into a defensive posture.

Although the power of the evil god was tyrannical and boundless, it had no piercing effect after all. Destroying defense position monsters in battle could not cause damage. The Multiply Guy was crushed along with the cards, but at least he fulfilled his final duty and shouldered the damage for his master.

"But when Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord attacks, the opponent player's LP will be halved."

All the eyes of the evil god closed briefly, and when they opened, they were flooded with purple flames. A violent impact exploded in front of Yuei Vu, and pain washed through every corner of his body, but the stimulation also made his mind clearer.

Yuei Vu, LP 575 LP 288

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

Although the LP was getting less and less, and the remaining LP was as fragile as a thin film that could be broken with a single poke, at least Yuei Vu still managed to hold on.

As long as there is still life left, there is hope. A true duelist has a chance to create miracles every time he draws a card.

Z-ONE didn't seem to be surprised that Yuei Vu persisted to this point: "Set two cards, I end my turn."

Yuei Vu let out a long sigh.

Being the last BOSS throughout the three Yu-Gi-Oh series, and also the last human at the end of history, Z-ONE was as powerful as expected.

Although he also used the Cubic deck, he actually controlled it more perfectly than Aigami, the original owner of this deck. In the finale of 5DS, if the protagonist Yusei hadn't blatantly cheated with the help of the Crimson Dragon-brand card printing machine, Z-ONE might not have lost.

Even if the opponent was not using his original deck, Yuei Vu could still clearly appreciate his own strength as a duelist.

But now that this turn has passed, there is still hope for the next turn

"Even in this situation, you still believe that you can change the ending, right?" Z-ONE suddenly spoke in a confused voice.

Yuei Vu was silent for a moment and said, "Any duelist should have such a belief, right?"

"Looking at you, looking at all of you past Duel Kings, you all remind me of myself my past self that accomplished nothing and was a complete failure.

Tried again and again, failed again and again. He always holds hope blindly and is arrogant without any basis, thinking that he can shake the huge monster called fate' with his own meager power. "

The voice was still cold, making people feel like they were talking to a computer, but it also made people feel that they had experienced many vicissitudes of life.

When he heard this, Yugi suddenly thought of something: "By the way, are you the companion of the future person last time?"

Yugi also had a fight with Paradox although the one actually battled that time was Atem, Yugi also understood the whole story.

"Huh, boring." Kaiba crossed his arms and said coldly, "There is no such thing as fate! The fate of the strong is chosen by himself, and he can shape the future into any shape with his own hands!

The so-called fate is just an excuse for cowards and losers! "

The president waved his hand, his windbreaker rose and fell, and his domineering aura was fully activated. Kisara's eyes were shining brightly next to her, her face full of admiration for the president, but deep down she didn't completely agree with his words.

She felt that such a thing as fate should still exist.

Precisely because of it, she and Seto were still firmly bound together across three thousand years of time and space.

Z-ONE's eyes briefly glanced over.

"I admire your achievements very much, Seto Kaiba. Your life is a legend." He said, "But unfortunately, the future you shaped with your own hands is the beginning of the end of everything.

You have devoted your life to building the game of Duel Monsters' into the foundation of human civilization and greatly promoted the progress of civilization, but its endpoint is inevitable destruction. "

"I thought we had made this clear to Paradox." Yuei Vu said, "President Kaiba has pointed out the way forward for mankind, and there is a bright future. Those who fail to grasp these are the future humans, and it has nothing to do with President Kaiba or the Duel Monsters themselves.

Even if duel monsters no longer exist in history, as long as humans themselves do not change, they will still"

"Maybe." Z-ONE said lightly, "Of course, I know what you said to Paradox. You made him believe that as Duel Kings, you might be able to bring changes from the root, and erase the ruined future."

"You want to say we failed?" Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

"I didn't say anything." Z-ONE said calmly, "I just brought the facts."

The mechanical arm of the device on his body was raised and pointed straight at Aigami, who was supposed to be the BOSS of the movie, but was lying on the side like a salted fish at this time.

Aigami was startled.

What's the situation?

You just talk and play cards. What does it have to do with me?

"That Prana' boy over there." Z-ONE said, "In a certain historical period, he would have been eroded by the Millennium Ring'. His power would have gone out of control, and he would have become a threat to the world.

And I saw you changed it, Duel King Yuei Vu. You took away the Millennium Ring' and suppressed the evil thoughts that resided in it.

A crisis is averted before it happens, and you make a change. "

Yuei Vu was surprised for a moment.

Z-ONE actually knows what happened in the original time and space of the movie?!

But when he thought about it, there seemed to be nothing wrong.

Z-ONE was a time traveler. He has traveled through time countless times, reincarnated countless times, and witnessed one parallel time and space after another perhaps even personally participated in it countless times and became a changer of history.

Of course, it is possible for him to see what happened in history that no longer existed.

Yuei Vu frowned: "Since you know that I changed history, why"

"Because it's useless." Z-ONE said, "I saw your efforts and saw that you changed a lot of things. But unfortunately, it was useless.

Everything you do is in vain. You give people hope, make people admire you and look forward to you, and make everyone including yourself feel that you can make a change but in the end, you just let everyone down in a crueler way.

All this is just like the duel going on now. You have very little life left, and so do the cards in your hand. But your companions still believe that you have a chance to reverse it, don't they? "

The eyes under the mechanical mask seemed to be a few degrees colder.

"Just like the people around me believed in me at first." He said coldly, "And now they are all dead."

Chapter 703: Time Is Stubborn

"People of your time may feel that history is fragile. Someone may tell you that time is like a delicate work of art, beautiful, but fragile. Even the smallest change may cause huge consequences."

"But they were all wrong."

"Time is far less fragile even very stubborn, you could say."

"You try your best to hurt it, try to reshape it. You flap your wings as hard as you can, trying to overthrow known history through a chain reaction of butterfly effects.

But the fact is that you tried to change the past and rewrite established history. However, when you go back to the future, you're always faced with the same situation and your own failure. "

What Z-ONE was narrating was obviously his own experience he traveled through time and space to rewrite history again and again, but he was unable to rewrite the ending of destruction no matter what.

But at this time, his voice was still very calm, as if he was just a bystander and the protagonist of the story he was narrating had nothing to do with him.

Yuei Vu opened his mouth to say something but was immediately interrupted.

"You don't have to explain anything to me or try to convince me of anything." Z-ONE said coldly, "You are powerless to change the facts I said, just like you are powerless to win this duel.

You will disappoint all those who have expectations for you, and the ending of the story will always be like this. "

Yuei Vu simply stopped talking.

He, the "pseudo-world protagonist", was not good at Talk no Jutsu that was a talent that only the real protagonist could control. He didn't think he could convince Z-ONE to change his mind. The other party's determination might be beyond anyone's imagination.

Then there was only one thing he could do.

Focus on playing cards.

And he had no room to hold back.

"My turn!"

Yuei Vu put his fingers on the deck.

Strength spread throughout the body, and an impulse surged along the blood vessels like a galloping army. He felt a dormant "force" awakening and saw a looming blue storm in front of him.

Duel Skill: God's Anger, activate!

Once per Duel, when the LP is below 1000, instead of conducting your normal draw, add 1 "Obelisk the Tormentor" (original) from outside the deck to the hand!

A card was pulled out from the duel disk with strong wind pressure. The strong pressure made it difficult to breathe.

Z-ONE watched his movements calmly as if everything was expected.

"Open the set card."

Yuei Vu waved his hand and turned over the trap card that was Set on the field from the deck through the opponent's "Red Reboot" effect in the previous round.

"Trap Card Reckless Greed. Draw 2 cards and skip the next 2 Draw Phases."

With two cards in hand, Yuei Vu inserted both of them into the Duel Disk without thinking. .

"First, I set two cards onto the field, and then activate the Spell Card Card of Demise'. I can draw cards until I have 5 cards in my hand."

"Have you given up on the next two Draw Phases and decided to go all out?" Z-ONE said, "I have also been to such a time desperate and ruthless.

There have been times when you succeeded, when you won cheers and hope. "

He changed the subject.

"But you can't afford to fail even just once."

Yuei Vu still didn't answer: "Open the set card: Spell Card E-Emergency Call'. Add 1 Elemental HERO' monster from the deck to the hand. I added Elemental HERO Stratos' to my hand.

Then open another set card, the Spell Card Foolish Burial'! Send a monster card from the deck to the graveyard. I sent the Makyura the Destructor' to the GY. "

Watching a monster card being sent from the deck to the graveyard, Yuei Vu's deck was quickly shuffled. Z-ONE still has no reaction.

"Summon Elemental HERO Stratos'!"

[Elemental HERO Stratos, ATK 1800]

"The effect of Stratos When summoned, 1 HERO' monster from my Deck to my hand. I add another Vision HERO Faris' to the hand."

Next was the unfolding of combo engraved in the DNA of every HERO deck player.

"I discard a HERO' monster in my hand and special summon Vision HERO Faris'!"

[Vision HERO Faris, ATK 1600]

"By the effect of Faris, I placed Vision HERO Increase' from the deck in the Spell & Trap Zone."

Yuei Vu showed the card drawn from the deck, "Then I tribute Vision HERO Faris', special summon the Vision HERO Increase'."

Vision HERO Increase, ATK 900

"The effect of Increase will special summon Vision HERO Vyon' from the deck!"

[Vision HERO Vyon, ATK 1000]

Z-ONE's eyes slowly swept across his field: "Three heroes are here are they really coming?"

"Activate the Quick-Play Spell Quick Summon' from my hand!" (animation card)

Yuei Vu inserts the card into the Duel Disk.

"Based on this effect, I can Normal Summon a monster from my hand."

This Quick-Play Spell was used by Yuki Judai in the anime. Although it was very similar to the Spell Card "Double Summon" because it was a Quick-Play Spell, this card could even allow you to summon monsters during the opponent's turn or Battle Phase, so it was better than "Double Summon" in every aspect.

"I offer the Elemental HERO Stratos', Vision HERO Increase', and Vision HERO Vyon' as sacrifices!"

Three heroes were entangled in white whirlwinds, and one after another turned into blue beams of light and rushed into the sky.

Black clouds appeared under the steel dome of the venue, and the clouds seemed to have been split open by an extremely sharp weapon, with scars running through the sky. The dull thunder sounded like a dense explosion, and a powerful existence was approaching rapidly from the space behind the clouds.

The giant shadow fell down, smashing the floor into pieces like a heavy hammer. Yuei Vu was very sure that the president would not make him pay for this.

The blue giant stood tall and triumphant, its scarlet eyes seemed to reflect a crumbling and broken world.

[Obelisk the Tormentor, ATK 4000]

People around Yuei Vu have long known that he can summon the Egyptian God, so no one is surprised. Even Z-ONE, who was directly facing the mighty power of God, just raised his head indifferently and faced the overlooking view of the Egyptian God, without any loss of composure.

Looking at the audience, only Aigami, who was left aside and was obviously not serious about the supplement, exclaimed: "Obelisk! Impossible! How could it be possible for the Egyptian God who has returned to the underworld with the Pharaoh!?"

That Kaiba guy can pull out the Egyptian God from the floor, but at least that was the tomb of the Pharaoh. Where did you pull out this one?

"Obelisk, the legendary Egyptian God who represents the pinnacle of duel monsters." Z-ONE said, "But there are some things that even gods cannot change.

Obelisk's attack power is only 4000, which is not enough to break through the power of Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord. "

"I know." Yuei Vu said, "Activate the Spell Card Beyond Destiny' from my hand! Select a Destiny Hero' from the graveyard, and special summon a Destiny Hero' with a level less than half of the selected monster from the deck.

I choose the level 6 Destiny HERO Malicious in the graveyard, and special summon the level 1 Destiny HERO Disk Commander from the deck! "

[Destiny HERO Disk Commander, ATK 300]

"Then there is the effect of the Malicious in the GY!" Yuei Vu said, "Banish this card from my GY; Special Summon 1 Destiny HERO Malicious' from my Deck.

Show up! Destiny HERO Malicious! "

[Destiny HERO Malicious, ATK 800]

"There are two monsters on the playground!" Yugi said.

Jonouchi's eyes lit up: "With Obelisk's ability"

Obelisk the Tormentor has two special abilities. But the ultimate ability "Hyper God Energy" either required other Egyptian Gods as sacrifices, or Obelisk himself needed to be extremely angry to use it.

In the previous battle against the "Millennium AI Bot", because the opponent was using the phantom of the Egyptian God himself, Obelisk was very angry, so he could activate this ability at will. But the current Obelisk has come out to breathe twice after a long time since the Pharaoh left this world. He seemed to be in a good mood, so he did not meet the conditions for activation

But it didn't matter.

"I sacrificed two monsters, Destiny HERO Malicious' and Destiny HERO Disk Commander!" Yuei Vu raised his hand, "Activate Obelisk's special ability!"

Two monsters are used as sacrifices to destroy all the monsters on the opponent's field and inflict 4,000 points of damage to the opponent's player! "

The Destiny HEROes turned into blue light and charged it into the giant god's huge fist. The Egyptian God raised his fist, and the shaking air roared. The Egyptian God punched out, and the ground where the punch hit exploded, and a wave of high heat was thrown out of the cracks like dark blue lava, cheering, as if a grand celebration was going on in hell.

The storm of divine power raged and swallowed up the opponent's half. The Cubic Evil God shook violently under the mighty power, and it had to insert all its sharp blades into the floor to keep its body from being blown away.

The divine power of destruction hit its deformed steel body hard, and all the eyeballs in its body bulged out. The soft whip-like steel arms were pulled straight by the huge force, and the solid shell of the body let out a slight scream.

Z-ONE still didn't make any move, until the power of God's fist was like a mountain, and the waves like the ocean swamped him completely.

Soul Energy MAX! ! !

Z-ONELP 400 LP 0

Yuei Vu saw the steel-gray shell being submerged by the waves like a conch and Z-ONE's LP value dropped rapidly, all the way until the number became "0", a cold number without any fluctuation.

Won?

The duel venue suddenly became quiet. Yuei Vu heard himself breathing heavily, and he could also hear his heartbeat, which was so violent that it felt like his heart was stuffed into his ears.

But it looked like it was really over. In any case, Z-ONE's LP has returned to zero, and he loses. This was an irresistible law of duel, unless Yuei Vu's pupils shrank slightly.

He saw the slender and strong arms tearing open the smoke screen, and a Cubic monster with a round body stood on the field. The chain of light extends from the back of the monster and is directly connected to Z-ONE whose LP has returned to zero, as if the monster and its owner were bound together as a whole.

[Duza the Meteor Cubic Vessel, ATK 1600]

"I activated the Trap Card Relay Soul." Z-ONE said coldly, "This card can only be activated when my Life Points become 0. Special Summon 1 monster from my hand. As long as the Special Summoned monster exists on the field, I won't lose.

But if that monster leaves the field, it will be my defeat in the duel. (animation effect)

Chapter 704: Unit No. 2

Relay Soul!

In the original work, this trap card used by Yugi against Dartz had the effect of rewriting the victory conditions. Today, many years later, this card has been implemented as a real card although the effect text has been slightly adjusted.

Victory conditions have changed. Although his LP has been reduced to zero, Z-ONE did not lose this duel. As long as the "Duza the Meteor Cubic Vessel" Special Summoned by the effect of "Relay Soul" was still on the field, he would not lose.

The shock wave of the God of Destruction dissipated, and the huge steel body revealed its posture again, with the red shell reflecting the luster of metal. The eye on the chest of the Cubic Evil God moved rapidly, with bloodshot eyes covering it, as if he was furious.

Crimson Nova Trinity cannot be the target of the effect, nor can it be destroyed by the effect. Of course, the field-clearing ability of Obelisk has no effect on it.

"Can't even the power of God defeat this monster?" Kaiba whispered.

Kisara beside her unconsciously stretched out her little hand to hold the corner of his clothes.

Now, the thorny issue was thrown back to Yuei Vu.

"Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord's final effect is activated," Z-ONE said solemnly.

"Huh? There are also hidden effects?" Mokuba on the side couldn't help shouting, "It's simply cheating! This monster has too many effects, doesn't it!?"

"When I take damage from an effect," Z-ONE continued, "the other player must also receive the same amount of damage."

The expressions of everyone in the audience suddenly changed.

"The damage caused by Obelisk's Soul Energy MAX' is 4000 points, which means" Jonouchi's face turned pale.

"Oops." Yugi couldn't help but say, "If he eats this damage reflection, Yuei Vu will"

The eye on the chest of the Cubic Evil God opened widely, and the golden arms swung like willows in the wind. Blue light emerged all over its body, like a transparent blue flame, containing endless anger.

That was the power of Obelisk!

That evil god has withstood Obelisk's power and was preparing to retaliate in the same way!

Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord struggled to swing its long arms, and the radiance of the destructive divine power illuminated its body, clearly reflecting on the bright red metal shell. The wave turned into a whirlpool and struck out, looking like another God of Destruction punching in the air.

The divine power from Obelisk, with 4000 points of reflected damage, could blast people to pieces with just a single scratch!

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes, a golden light flashed in his Duel Disk's GY area, and a black and transparent shadow appeared behind him.

That was Makyura the Destructor!

"The effect of Makyura the Destructor!" Yuei Vu said, "During the turn this card is sent to the Graveyard, I can activate Trap Cards from my hand.

So I activated the Counter Trap Trap of Board Eraser from my hand! "

The Counter Trap appeared at the critical moment and lay in front of Yuei Vu. The mighty impact rebounded by the Cubic Evil God violently hit the trap card, and was completely swallowed up like a flood hitting an indestructible dam.

"Trap of Board Eraser can only be activated when the opponent inflicts damage other than Battle Damage." Yuei Vu said, "Negate the Effect Damage I receive and the opponent then selects 1 card from his/her hand and discards it."

The damage was completely offset. Z-ONE said nothing or made any move, but the cards in front of him were turned over one after another and displayed to Yuei Vu. Yuei Vu picked one of them, "Indiora Doom Volt the Cubic Emperor" and sent it to the GY.

The onlookers let out a sigh of relief. Watching this duel felt like riding a roller coaster. If you don't have a strong heart, it's really hard to bear.

"Very good, this way the advantage is reversed." Jonouchi clenched his fists, "Although that Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord is difficult to deal with, according to the effect of Relay Soul', as long as the Duza the Meteor Cubic Vessel' on the opponent's field is defeated, it'll be Yuei Vu's victory!

That monster's attack power is only 1600, so it's easy to"

"The turn when Obelisk activates his effect, he cannot declare an attack." Kaiba glanced sideways at Jonouchi and said calmly, "Horse bone is still horse bone after all, and it is always easy to think of things very simply."

"Of course, I know this kind of thing!" Jonouchi muttered, "But Yuei Vu must have a way!"

Indeed, what Jonouchi said was, by no means, incorrect. Now that Z-ONE's LP has returned to zero, it was meaningless to inflict any further damage. Now Yuei Vu only needed to defeat the "Duza the Meteor Cubic Vessel" to achieve victory.

"Once again, based on the effect of the Makyura the Destructor' in the graveyard, I can activate a trap card from my hand!"

Yuei Vu waved his hand.

"Activate the Continuous Trap Call of the Haunted' from my hand! Target 1 monster in my GY; Special Summon that target in Attack Position."

Z-ONE said calmly: "Do you want to resurrect a monster that can defeat Duza the Meteor Cubic Vessel' from the graveyard?"

Now Yuei Vu only needed to resurrect a monster with an attack power of more than 1600 from the graveyard, and destroy the "Duza the Meteor Cubic Vessel" on Z-ONE's field through battle to win!

A card popped up from Yuei Vu's grave area. He took the card into his hand and slapped it on the Duel Disk. In an instant, endless blue electricity began to surge across the entire Duel Disk, accompanied by a sizzling crisp electric sound.

"The burning wind blew wildly across the earth, suppressing all things with absolute divine power"

The earth shattered, and blue mist poured out of the cracks. The giant shadow poked out as if a mountain was gradually rising up, tearing the earth apart, revealing its scarlet and ferocious pupils.

Kaiba's expression suddenly changed: "Wait, could it be that"

"Are you kidding me?" Even Jonouchi noticed something was wrong.

Yuei Vu's eyes flashed, his arms raised high, and a beam of blue light shot straight into the sky from his Duel Disk.

"Arrival! The God of Destruction, Obelisk the Tormentor Unit No. 2!"

Like a giant who descended from ancient times, his body covers the sky and the sun.

[Obelisk the Tormentor, ATK 4000]

Even President Kaiba, who had always been calm, was shocked at this time. On the left and right of Yuei Vu's field, two blue giants stood majestically like mirror images. Such a shocking scene that was rare in ten thousand years really made it impossible to remain calm.

"There are two Tormentors?" Kaiba was shocked.

Each Egyptian God was unique. But somehow, when the three Egyptian Gods were in Yugi's hands, Yuei Vu still had his own set of three Egyptian Gods Everyone had accepted this fact before.

But now the set of three Egyptian Gods in Atem's hand has followed him back to the underworld!

Why do you still have two Obelisks in your hand??

The Tormentor appearing at this moment was naturally the real-life version given by the system, and it has been in his hand for such a long time.

It's just that all the giant soldiers summoned by Yuei Vu so far are the original ones drawn through the duel skill "God's Anger". He has never used this real-life version.

This was the first appearance of this card.

Next to him, Aigami was also shocked although he was actually in a state of shock the whole time: "Obeliskthere are two of them!?"

Is it a fake card?

But using Gods fake card shouldnt you be punished by God?

As a result, these two Obelisks actually looked like good brothers, standing there one on the left and one on the right, as if they didn't feel anything wrong with having two of them on the field.

Who is this Yuei Vu!?

At the same time, Yuei Vu felt the Millennium Ring on his body tremble violently at this moment as if the evil consciousness hidden in the ring was trembling.

It's like saying

I have already realized that you are Holactie the whole time!

After all, the three Egyptian Gods were actually clones of the Creator God of Light.

Therefore, although ordinary people could not copy the God Card, that wouldn't be a problem for the main deity.

"Yuei Vu = Holactie the Creator God of Light" proof +1.

"The second Obelisk you are indeed a being destined to break the rules." Z-ONE didn't seem particularly surprised, he just murmured to himself.

Obelisk could not attack during the round when the "Soul Energy MAX" ability was activated, but that only applied to the first Tormentor. The real-life version of the Tormentor that appeared at this time also had the authority to attack!

As long as the God Hand Crusher knocked down the "Duza the Meteor Cubic Vessel", the duel would end!

"Yeah!" Jonouchi and Honda brothers started their facial arts in advance, "Yuei Vu won!"

"but"

Z-ONE's tone suddenly turned cold.

"Open the set card: Trap Card Taunt." He said, "This card can only be activated during the opponent's Main Phase 1. Select 1 monster on my side of the field. While the selected card remains on the field, if your opponent attacks this turn, they must select the selected monster as the attack target."

The cold mechanical arm slowly lifted up and locked onto the evil god of the square realm who was baring his teeth and claws on the field.

"The target I chose, of course, is the Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord'. This turn, when you attack, you can only choose it as the target of attack."

"Nani!?" Jonouchi and Honda were dumbfounded.

[Obelisk the Tormentor, ATK 4000]

[Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord, ATK4500]

It was only one step away from victory.

The victory or defeat of Z-ONE was directly tied to Duza. This monster's attack power was only 1600. It was clear that only one blow, one punch from Obelisk, could win the duel, but this trap and the obstruction of the Cubic Evil God made the last step become a chasm.

"I said, the hope you gave and people's expectations of you will only make the ending of failure more cruel." Z-ONE said lightly, "The duel king can't change the future or save the world, just like you can't change this duel's ending.

You said that as long as there are still life points and there are still cards, there is still hope for the duel. But the reality is that you have no cards to play.

All you can do is accept your fate. Choose to end the turn, or obey the effect of 'Taunt', use Obelisk to attack Crimson Nova Trinity, and accept the determined ending. "

Silence, terrifying silence.

No one made a sound, no one spoke, and even all breathing seemed to be suppressed intentionally.

Its as if this can stop the flow of time and prevent the inevitable ending from coming.

Until Yuei Vu slowly spoke out.

"Even a wise man like you seems to make mistakes sometimes," he said.

"Um?"

"The ending you call has not been determined yet."

Yuei Vu raised his hand and pointed at the real-life version of the Tormentor that he had just summoned.

"The effect of Obelisk the Tormentor is activated! Tribute two monsters, and destroy all monsters on the opponent's field!"

"Eh!?" x10086

The audience was all shocked.

"Two Tributes?" Jonouchi blinked, "But where are the two Tributes?"

It was President Kaiba who thought the fastest: "Could it be that the second Obelisk' has different effects from the original one?"

That was exactly what happened.

Although the Tormentor with real card effects had worse resistance than the animated version, did not have the hidden effect of "Hyper God Energy", and the effect of "Soul Energy MAX" had also changed to "destroy all monsters on the opponent's field", while the powerful ability of "giving 4000 points of effect damage" has been deleted. It could basically be said to be an all-round castration without blind spots but the real card version was only more flexible than the animated version in one way.

That was, in the actual card text of the Tormentor, it only said "You can Tribute 2 monsters; destroy all monsters your opponent controls". The effect text did not say that Obelisk could not use himself as a sacrifice.

That's right, what Yuei Vu wanted to tribute for the effect here were the two Tormentors on the field!

"I sacrifice the two Obelisk the Tormentors' on the field, and destroy all the monsters on the opponent's field!"

"Use yourself as a sacrifice!?" Jonouchi was shocked, "Is there such an operation?"

And Yusei quickly told everyone with his actions

Yes, this is how it works!

The body of the first Obelisk disappeared, turning into surging energy and filling the body of the second one. Tormentor No. 2 raised its fist high, bursting out with divine power as if to drain itself dry. All the power poured into the raised right fist until even itself became a translucent phantom.

The God of Destructions sacrificial blow!

Soul Energy MAX!

Released all the power of the fist, pushing everything within sight. Crimson Nova Trinity was pushed to the ground by the manic wave although it was not destroyed by the effect.

Duza the Meteor Cubic Vessel was instantly defeated by the force of the punch. The round black shell cracked open, the electric current crackled, and the huge machine fell to the ground. It was turned into scrap metal by the combined effect of impact and energy.

The trap card "Relay Soul" was also chopped into pieces, and the soul chain connecting the monsters and duelists was broken.

Z-ONE lost.

Chapter 705: Back Into Place

The combined power of the two Obelisks, the double divine fist crushed everything, and the destruction of the Cubic monster was equivalent to announcing Z-ONE's defeat.

The storm finally stopped.

The figure of the Egyptian God gradually disappeared from the field. The evil god of the Cubic still stood tall with his teeth and claws. After being knocked over by the power of destruction again, he actually got up and started dancing his arms, like a steel tumbler.

But that's all.

Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord was not defeated in the end, but that was meaningless. The duelist who controlled it was defeated, and the duel ended there. No matter how powerful the monster was, it could not break free from the constraints of duel rules. If your master lost, you lost. Even God could not change this reality.

The mechanical device Z-ONE was riding on swayed in the storm of divine power and was hit head-on by the shattering wave of the divine fist, flying across the field like a baseball being hit. Blue waves followed closely behind him as if an invisible blade cut through the earth.

He slammed into the wall behind the arena, and the ring-shaped wall cracked in a radial pattern. The steel bar protruded from the cement, broke hard against the steel-gray metal shell, and flew out in a spin.

Z-ONE's body and the vehicle he was riding on became translucent. Light blue arcs of electricity shot out with him as the center, and the space where he was seemed to be slightly distorted.

"It seems the time is almost up." He murmured to himself.

Although he could jump at will in the long river of time and return to any era in the past, those were not his own time and space.

As a time traveler, he had an existence similar to an "anchor" in his own time and space, which can instantly pull him back to his own time no matter which time and space he is in.

But the attack from the Egyptian God just now seemed to have damaged this system, triggering the insurance mechanism of the space-time system. His "anchor" was forcibly activated and soon he would be forced back to his own time.

Yuei Vu put away the Duel Disk and stepped forward: "I guess when you said that I was destined to fail, you definitely didn't expect this."

Z-ONE pondered for a moment and said, "It's just a duel. One victory cannot win the entire war."

"But to win the war, you must start with the first victory." Yuei Vu said.

"That doesn't prove you can make a change."

"It also doesn't prove that I can't."

""

Muto Yugi, who had been watching quietly, hesitated for a moment and then stepped forward: "I dare not say that I understand what you are going through, but I also have some ideas."

He glanced at Aigami beside him only then did the latter realize that there was someone here who remembered him.

"Aigami and his companions told me their plan," Yugi said. "They told me about the new world they pursue, a world without darkness and strife, and a bright future.

Only the chosen ones can go to that wonderful world. They said that I was born to be their companion, and they were willing to accept me as one of them. "

Indeed, both Sera and Aigami mentioned in the original work that Muto Yugi was also a person with "Prana" qualifications. Aigami even invited him to abandon this old world and go to the new dimension together, but he refused.

Of course, he would refuse.

For Aigami and the others, there was nothing worth cherishing in this world. The tragic experiences of their childhoods have long since destroyed all their hopes for the world. Now the light they were pursuing lied in the beautiful new dimension that Shadi described to them.

But its different for Yugi. Here he had too many things that he couldnt let go of.

He had his dearest grandfather, companions who had experienced life and death together, and precious memories that would never fade no matter ten or a hundred years pass.

He looked at Aigami.

"Aigami, maybe in your opinion, our world is chaotic and full of darkness. Maybe you think it is hopeless. But even so, there are companions here, and there are many irreplaceable people who are worth fighting for."

Aigami: ""

Yugi looked at Z-ONE and said seriously: "So I will stay in this world that belongs to us. And like Yuei Vu, I believe in our future."

Not only because I can't let go of my companions and my current life, but also because of my other self who is no longer here.

"Duel King", this title was the most precious thing Atem left to him. That was the highest honor, a symbol of strength and status, but it was also a responsibility.

Another world that he had made a huge sacrifice to save was now handed over to him along with the title of "Duel King".

Then how could he ignore the future of this world?

"Maybe you still have a chance."

Z-ONE's figure has become so transparent that it has almost disappeared, and the image has gradually become invisible. Only the last sound was still echoing.

"I believe we will meet again, Duel Kings sooner or later."

He disappeared.

The realm of dimensions gradually collapsed, like a huge oil painting being torn into pieces. The sun shone through the broken steel dome, making it warm and relaxing.

The "Quantum Cube" in mid-air stopped rotating. The cube rolled to the ground, the golden eyes dimmed, and the cube no longer shined, as if it had been drained and entered the sage mode.

The blockade of the duel arena has been lifted. Everyone knew that this might mean it was over for the time being.

"The ruined future."

Yugi looked in the direction where Z-ONE disappeared, feeling heavy in his heart.

Can we really change that fate now?

Kaiba still just sneered. Although the dueling skills of the mysterious future man had been respected and recognized by him, it did not prevent the president from disapproving of the rhetoric.

Future? The future is created by human hands. There is no such thing as destiny!

And Aigami Agami was still looking at his Quantum Cube that fell to the ground absentmindedly.

"My deck"

The mysterious man just finished playing cards and disappeared as if he had gone to another dimension. It seemed that he also took his deck with him

He was torn apart.

At this moment, Yuei Vu, who had won the duel, stepped forward, leaned over, and picked up the Quantum Cube on the ground. He picked up the cube, and a bunch of cards originally stored in the cube suddenly fell out of it and fell to the ground with a strange "clatter" sound.

It was Aigamis Cubic deck. Unexpectedly, Z-ONE did not forget to put the deck back into place before leaving.

Its really rare to see a BOSS like this who borrowed and returned things these days.

When Aigami saw it, his eyes suddenly lit up.

He did crack just now.

Hehe, now he has made it up again.

But before Aigami could get up to pick up his equipment, he saw a certain Duel King picking up this deck of cards very rudely and putting it in his pocket.

Aigami: ""

Chapter 706: What Agreement Did My Little Sister Have With Him?

After defeating the BOSS, looting the corpse and picking up the equipment was a good habit that Yuei Vu has always adhered to.

No matter how strong you become or how thick your card pool is, you must never forget your true heart. Only in this way could you go further on the road of a duelist.

The above came from the experience of a hardcore online game player.

While picking it up, Yuei Vu checked the deck of cards left by Z-ONE.

Although it was indeed a Cubic deck, it seemed to be the same stuff that Aigami played around with.

The "Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord" who just appeared in the duel, and the "Crimson Nova Trinity the Dark Cubic Lord", who has been disowned by all his relatives, were not among them.

Those two cards were originally printed by Z-ONE with his own technological power and were not Aigamis, so visual inspection suggested that they might have been taken back by him.

Wow, so stingy.

Yuei Vu muttered in his heart.

But as a human being, you should accept it as soon as you see fit. Yuei Vu felt that he was quite a contented person, and he was quite satisfied with getting a "Cubic" deck.

As a series that appeared in the movie with full special effects and gorgeous light effects that blinded people and dogs, the Cubic deck was also quite popular among players.

So even though Yuei Vu himself didnt like this deck, its still useful for fooling screwballs, so he didnt have to worry about losing sales.

But then why is Aigami always staring at me?

The eyes are still full of resentment

Yuei Vu turned around: "What are you looking at?"

Aigami opened his mouth as if he wanted to say something, but in the end, he swallowed it back and shook his head dully: "Noit's nothing."

My deck

Aigami was depressed.

Images appeared out of thin air in the surroundings, transforming into figures of different heights. Those were his Prana companions, and the cute short girl leading them was none other than his sister Sera.

"Sera." Aigami immediately cheered up, "Are you okay?"

"Um."

Sera nodded and lowered her eyelids: "I'm sorry, brother. I gave them the pieces of the Millennium Puzzle"

"It doesn't matter."

Since Aigami learned that the fragments in Sera's hands were in the hands of Kaiba Corp, he has been worried about his sister's safety in his heart. Now seeing her safe and sound, he just felt relieved, and nothing else mattered.

Fortunately, even if the Millennium Puzzle was put together, the Pharaoh did not return. Now it seemed that their worries were unnecessary. The soul of the Pharaoh was really gone. The Millennium Puzzle was just an empty container, a pendant representing glory and royal power, which had long lost its former glory.

They had nothing to worry about anymore. Now they only needed to use the power of the Quantum Cube to break away from the constraints of this dimension and go to the new world.

There was only one question left.

Aigami looked at Yuei Vu, who was looking at the Quantum Cube in his hand, but hesitated to speak.

My Quantum Cube

Maybe its because of the psychological shadow caused by being tortured, but Yuei Vu was now a savage beast in Aigamis eyes. He felt that it would be extremely difficult for him to return the things that Yuei Vu had obtained.

Then Aigami's confidence in his own dueling skills was seriously frustrated. He felt that even if he went up to grab it, he would not be able to take it from the other party's hand

But Sera walked up generously and bowed lightly: "Thank you very much for abiding by our agreement, Mr. Yuei Vu. I read it right, you are indeed a person worthy of trust."

"It's nothing."

Yuei Vu smiled, and his kind expression almost made Aigami think that he was a good person.

Almost.

Then he saw Yuei Vu generously handing out the Quantum Cube in his hand to Sera: "Take it. Is this a very important treasure of your Prana? Don't lose it again."

Aigami: "!"

He even doubted his own eyes.

When did this Duel King named Yuei Vu become so easy to talk to? Give back our thing as you say?

What agreement did Sera have with him?

Sera looked at the Quantum Cube that Yuei Vu handed to her, hesitated for a moment, and lowered her long eyelashes.

She did not reach out to pick it up, but turned around and looked at Aigami as if she had made a very strong determination.

"Brother, I have something very important that I must discuss with you." She said.

Aigami's heart was shocked.

My little sister

"I don't agree!" he said loudly.

Sera: "?"

Brother, whats going on? I havent said anything yet

"Cough." Aigami realized his gaffe and coughed, "Just tell me what's going on."

Sera tilted her little head, confused by her brother's reaction. However, she quickly calmly said: "That's it. When you were away, brother, our other companions had already communicated. We made this decision together."

After a pause, she took a deep breath.

"We want to stay in this dimension."

Aigami: "!"

He was stunned for a while, unable to believe it: "You saidwhat?"

"We want to give up the chance of the dimensional door opening." She lowered her eyes, "We want to stay here."

Aigami was silent for a moment, then slowly asked: "Why?"

This was the moment they had been searching for, the teaching they had received from Shadi since they were very young. They would go to a wonderful new dimension, a new world full of light, for which they have spent their entire lives fighting.

And now they were very close to success. The Millennium Puzzle was put together, but the Pharaoh was not resurrected. The biggest obstacle has disappeared, and now they just need to take the final step to embrace the future they have always dreamed of.

But she actually decided to give up.

"Because as Mr. Yugi said maybe what we have learned so far is only a part of this world.

There are cruel parts of this world, with disputes and chaos, but at the same time there is also a lot of beauty. Many kind-hearted people live hard in this dimension and work together for a better future. "

Aigami was stunned and didn't know what to say for a moment.

"Sera"

"I think maybe we should be like Mr. Yugi and try to believe in the world again." She said, "We Prana has the power to change.

If it is true, as the person just said, that the future of this world is full of thorns, then maybe we can make it better. "

Aigami was silent.

This was a huge change, almost equivalent to completely overthrowing his strongest belief since childhood. They have been obsessed with Shadi's teachings since childhood, and wholeheartedly look forward to the moment when the dimensional door opens.

And now they were about to give up this belief, just like starting over their entire lives.

If it were the Aigami a few days ago, he might have found this kind of thing unacceptable without hesitation.

But now

"I understand." Aigami gently closed his eyes, "If this is what you want if this is everyone's common expectation, then let's do it."

Perhaps this would also be Lord Shadi's expectation. Shadi always hoped that they could become better people during his lifetime.

Sera smiled happily.

The girl nodded and turned to Yuei Vu: "Thank you, Mr. Yuei Vu. But this way we no longer need the Quantum Cube. As agreed, it will be handed over to you, Mr. Yuei Vu. I hope its power can play a role in changing the course of the future.

Aigami: ""

Chapter 707: Go Meet It

University campus, entrance.

This was the beginning of the school year when the flow of people outside the campus gate was the largest. There was a constant flow of people coming and going, including freshmen dragging their suitcases to report and old students returning to school.

The roaring sound of the engine attracted the attention of many people and brought a gust of hot wind. A black shadow cut like an unsheathed sharp blade, there was a heartbreaking sound of brakes, and the tires suddenly stopped like the claws of a crawling beast on the lawn.

Noticing that many people around him were looking towards him, Yuei Vu, who was sitting on the motorcycle, couldn't help but sigh slightly.

President Kaiba had quite a bad taste. He wanted to label everything around him with the Blue-Eyes White Dragon, which was equivalent to a silent show-off. Because he has always been a person who didn't mind being arrogant, he only cared if he didn't show off enough.

Therefore, the motorcycle he ordered for Yuei Vu also adhered to the same style. The arrogant and unique streamlined design, coupled with the king-like roar of the engine, made it feel less like a vehicle and more like a violent beast.

What's more important was the unique "Masked HERO" style look. Riding this thing out was like having the words "I am the Duel King" plastered on your face.

Yuei Vu was different from Kaiba. He didn't like to be too public. Kaiba didn't mind being followed by a large crowd of dancing and enthusiastic fans wherever he went, but he did mind a little.

Therefore, he insisted that the president install a "stealth mode" on his car. When the stealth mode was activated, he could cover up the flashy heroic features, so that at least he would not be recognized wherever he went.

But the engine was still a bit too powerful.

Many students outside the door cast their eyes over and couldn't help but sigh.

What a handsome motorcycle!

What long legs!

Of course, this cannot be referring to Yuei Vu, but Chika-chan in the back seat. It's just that her little head was still pressed tightly against Yuei Vu's body at this moment, and her little hands were holding his waist tightly as if she was afraid of being thrown off accidentally.

Chika was not tall, but her body proportions were quite good, and her legs looked very long and beautiful.

"Hey, are you there?" Yuei Vu turned around.

Chika was a little dizzy, her little face under the helmet flushed: "Are we here?"

"We're here." Yuei Vu said helplessly, "Can you let me go?"

"Oh."

Chika let go of her hand and slowly got out of the motorcycle. She took off her helmet, and her long silver-white hair seemed to have finally broken free of its restraints, seeming to sparkle in the sunlight.

The combination of a unique motorcycle that looked like something from a science fiction movie and a beautiful silver-haired girl certainly attracted a lot of attention.

That was to say, Yuei Vu hadn't taken off his helmet, otherwise, his Charm 95 attribute would have caused even more commotion.

Yes, today was Chika's first day of school.

From today on, Chika-chan will be a college student.

Although it was a local school, the location was relatively remote, and it was still quite far to get to and from the card store, so she had to live on campus.

After saying goodbye, Yuei Vu still had some feelings when he saw Chika walking towards the university gate with the crowd.

Since they first met, Chika has been in the card shop on the corner. No matter when or where he came back from, the lights were always on in that little shop.

The silver-haired girl would always sit behind the counter and look forward to it. When he came in, she would stand up and say, "You're back."

But now she was no longer there.

He felt that it was a little bit sad.

Yuei Vu restarted his motorcycle and was about to leave, but suddenly he heard her calling him.

He turned his head and saw Chika, who had just left, running back to him, looking a bit cute.

"What? Forgot something?"

Chika shook her head, a little embarrassed: "That weekend, you can come and take me back"

Yuei Vu: "?"

You havent even reported to teachers yet and you already want to go back?

"Didn't you say you already memorized the route?" Yuei Vu asked.

Although the road was a bit far, the bus route was not too complicated.

Chika lowered her head: "I only remember the way here, but I don't remember the way back"

Yuei Vu: ""

He remembered a poem.

Viewed horizontally, it looks like a ridge and a peak on the side.

Perhaps the world in peoples eyes was just so magical.

Walking the same road forward and backward, during the day and at night, was a completely different experience.

Can ordinary people do this kind of thing?

"Okay." Yuei Vu shrugged.

Well, looks like I have to spend more effort.

Who told our Chika to be a "let it go" girl?

If you just let her go, the next second the person is gone

"Then when the time comes, send me a message and I will pick you up."

There was light in Chika's eyes, and she nodded vigorously: "Okay."

After sending Chika to school, Yuei Vu had to go to Kaiba to report.

It had been two months since the launch of the new generation of Duel Disk, but that may not be considered a success in the strict sense.

After all, there was an incident at the press conference where duel monsters materialized and injured people. Although no casualties were caused, and the incident was stopped in time by Yuei Vu, the Duel King, the negative impact was inevitable.

Affected by this, the new generation of Duel Disk launched by Kaiba that directly linked to people's nerves was not immediately promoted, and the development process of the Duel Link system was also affected.

Many people have expressed doubts about the safety of this brand-new technology. Due to pressure from many parties, the national government, which was almost invisible during the whole process and even once thought that it was replaced by the Kaiba Corp, finally had to come forward and temporarily stop the development of the Duel Link project.

Yuei Vu couldn't help but think: Maybe this is the purpose of Z-ONE?

Does he want to prevent the premature birth of the Duel Link system and slow down the process of history through human intervention?

Or is it just to come back to confirm the ability of the Duel King of this era?

Or is it a wake-up call for them?

However, Kaiba only heard these things reported verbally once, and he snorted and didn't pay attention.

His mind was not on that at all now.

Aigami and his companions handed over the Quantum Cube and decided to return to the poor hometown where they grew up, determined to use their Prana power to transform it into a better place.

Even without the Quantum Cube, as long as the Pharaoh had not returned, Prana still had superhuman power. They gave up the opportunity to ascend, determined to use this power to change the world.

However, the Quantum Cube as expected, Yuei Vu held it in his hand felt that it was just as a decoration and he had no permission to use it, so he could only leave it to President Kaiba for scientific research.

So Yuei Vu watched with his own eyes as Kaiba developed a dimensional shuttle device in just two months. According to his calculations, this device should be able to break through the space barrier and fly directly to the dimension called the "Underworld".

Today was the time for official completion and actual testing.

Although it was a very dangerous technology, President Kaiba firmly disagreed with volunteers conducting this first shuttle experiment. He insisted on doing it himself.

"Are you sure you have to do this, President?" Yuei Vu watched Kaiba stubbornly sit in the cockpit and couldn't help but say, "The dimensional field is a part that human technology has never explored, and it may be very dangerous .

Although he thought that 80% of the time nothing would happen to the president but what if?

At the end of the movie, it was only shown that Kaiba successfully traveled outside the dimension and met Atem, but there was no explanation of the subsequent content.

What if the president's trip was a one-way ticket?

Or maybe he went to the underworld, indulged in playing cards with Atem, and never came back?

Then wouldn't Yui Vu lose the thickest and strongest golden thigh from now on?

"The dimensional field is the focus of our company's next development." Kaiba said coldly, "We already know that there are other worlds outside of dimensions, so our priority is to open the bridge to other dimensions.

The Duel Link system will continue to evolve. Sooner or later, we will be able to interconnect with powerful people from other dimensions and duel with duelists from countless different worlds and different times and spaces. This is to open up the future of duelists. "

"But there's no need to be so hasty, right? It's not advisable to be too hasty, President. Besides, there are many powerful duelists in this world. Speaking of which, you haven't defeated me yet"

Kaiba immediately turned his head as if on a conditioned reflex, and glanced at him coldly, with eyes that said, "Why do you want to play cards?"

Yui Vu shut up knowingly.

"To open up the future of duelists" my ass. You are obviously unable to keep your card addiction in check and can't help but want to find Atem

"Okay, then be careful, President. Remember to come back." Yui Vu was helpless.

"Nonsense." Kaiba sat in the cockpit and buckled his seat belt, still showing his cold face, "Just wait for me, Yui Vu. When I defeat that guy, you will be next!"

The white dragon girl also floated out in the spirit form. She leaned close to the windshield of the shuttle, hesitated for a while, and whispered: "Then Seto, be careful."

Kaiba also glanced at her, and his tone softened slightly: "I will be back."

Yui Vu: ""

Treat differently. JPG.

"Dimensional shuttle device, start!"

The entire satellite began to roar, and the tail of the shuttle ignited. The white fuselage flew along the steel slide rails, as if a light arrow was flying through the air, and soon disappeared out of thin air with a ripple.

Kisara floated in mid-air, looking at his disappearing back, and lost her mind for a long time.

Yui Vu's Dark Magician Girl came up to her silently: "Sister White Dragon's master is so cruel. I feel like he is a terrible person. It must be very hard normally, right?"

Yui Vu didn't know what was going on, but these days he found that his Dark Magician Girl and Kisara seemed to get along pretty well, like a pair of good sisters.

"It's nothing." Kisara shook her head, "Actually, Seto is very good, he's just a little bad at expressing"

A sharp, piercing sound suddenly echoed through the entire space station, sounding a bit like a fire alarm.

"What's going on?" Yuei Vu frowned.

He didn't know much about the facilities of the space station, but he also knew that this would not be a good thing.

All the operators in the space station are busy, their fingers are tapping on the keyboard. Mokuba hurriedly appeared in front of Yuei Vu, bringing bad news.

"Brother Yuei Vu, it's a monster spirit!" He said nervously, "A super large monster spirit has materialized on the earth, and is forming a disaster!"

Yuei Vu frowned.

Monster spirit? What monster?

The operator in the space station quickly obtained the picture and put the real-time image on the big screen. Yuei Vu looked up at the screen, only to see a giant dragon that seemed to be covered in red armor, entwined with thunder and lightning, coiling in the black clouds.

It was suspended high in the sky above the city's coastline. The electric light radiated from it exploded along the land, and the crowds along the street dispersed in fear.

That huge body, the powerful pressure that could be felt through the camera, and the red shell

It almost made Yuei Vu want to take out the "Osiris the Sky Dragon" card in his pocket and ask him face to face: Is this guy your long-lost brother?

Well, of course, he knew it wasn't, and he also knew what the writhing dragon in the picture was.

Uria, Lord of Searing Flames!

One of the three Sacred Beasts, the most powerful spirits in "Yu-Gi-Oh GX"!

"Brother Yuei Vu!" Mokuba turned to Yuei Vu.

"Interesting." Yuei Vu's lips curled up and he stood up, "Lend me a plane, Mokuba. I'll go meet this guy."

Chapter 708: Duelist Alliance

The sky hadn't even had time to light up yet, and there was no one on the street outside the window. Not even a single person could be seen on the empty, dark street.

Even before the alarm clock rang, Snow Wave had already jumped out of bed to be more precise, he hadn't slept all night.

Because today was the day when the five-day maintenance of World Link ended and the new version went online.

Five days! I haven't seen Yuei Vu-san for five whole days!

Do you know that I have been here like this for the past five days?

This week, Snow Wave couldn't think about food or drink. He couldn't eat well and couldn't sleep well. He had no motivation to catch up on TV series, and other games were becoming less and less interesting the more he played them. Even 5TB of For Academic Purposes material in the hard drive looked uninteresting.

A game without Yuei Vu-san is totally meaningless.

And today, I finally came to the end of this torturous time. Because the much-anticipated World Link 2.0, the version corresponding to the anime "Yu-Gi-Oh GX", is finally going online!

Snow Wave forced himself to lie on the bed until early in the morning, and he jumped up even before he started serving. He finished washing up at the speed of light, stuffed a few pieces of dry bread into his mouth for breakfast, and then sat down impatiently in the game cabin, counting the seconds until the arrival of the new version.

He clicked on the "Login" button almost as soon as it lit up. When the system was activated, the interface in front of him changed instantly, making it look like you are being sucked into a bottomless tunnel. Countless light spots formed a river and flowed past him. He felt like a leaf drifting with the current, following the current to a new world.

"Welcome back, duelist." The voice of the system sounded gently in his ears. Although he had not seen him for only five days, he felt that the voice was more friendly.

His feet touched the ground, and he quickly felt that control of his body was returned to his own hands.

Although it was strange to say this, he smelled a familiar smell from this virtual world.

As always, the ultra-realistic experience, even the five senses were perfectly simulated with the heaven-defying game effect. Many people have suggested that if "World Link" was not a card game, but an action game with special effects and grand scenes, the response might be greater.

Snow Wave completely disagreed with this and even felt that he could not understand it.

What does an action game mean? Everyone is wielding knives and guns, shooting and hacking like savages. Is there any fun?

The best game in the world is a card game!

According to the trailer before the update of "World Link 2.0", players know that this new version tells what happened six years after they went offline that was, five years after the end of the Dark Side of Dimension movie.

Although the original work of "Yu-Gi-Oh! GX" clearly stated that it happened after the completion of the DM animation, there has always been controversy about the year.

Although the background setting states that nearly ten years have passed since the end of DM, there were many conflicts with this setting in the animation plot. Therefore, there has been endless debate about how many years after Atem left in the story of GX.

However, although the background of World Link was based on animation, it was not 100% consistent with the animation, so there was no controversy. Version 2.0 clearly stated that the timeline was six years after version 1.0 and has entered the GX period.

Of course, this was not Snow Wave's concern for the time being.

He went online to check his location, and immediately rushed to the Dream Card Store, looking for the connection between him and Yuei Vu that transcended time and space.

But he didn't expect what he would see there.

Six years later, the store was still there; it even looked better and more gorgeously decorated than six years ago, but at the same time, it also made Snow Wave feel strange.

Although there were still several eye-catching characters "Dream Card Shop" hanging on the door, this was no longer a card shop. If anything, this place may be closer to a museum.

A museum with the theme of "How the Duel King is Made".

There were no cards sold inside at all, and the entire store had been completely overturned and rebuilt. Now the store was filled with sculptures of Masked HEROes in various forms, as well as a cute model of the Dark Magician Girl standing at the door like a welcome receptionist.

The windows on both sides of the wall display various peripheral magazines related to the Duel King, as well as spiritual weapons that are said to have been refined by him himself (although they all look like figures for cheating geeks out of money).

A luxurious projection screen hung in the most eye-catching place, showing the highlight moments of Duel King Yuei Vu.

Snow Wave couldn't help but think of No. 221B Baker Street in London.

From the biographies here and the content shown on the big screen, Snow Wave quickly knew what they had missed in the past six years.

After DMs' story ended, the world did not become peaceful. On the contrary, although there are no more world-destroying bosses like Dartz and the Great Evil God Zorc, the duel monster spirits as a whole have become more and more active.

Some experts speculated that it may be that the previous supernatural phenomena have loosened the connection between the Duel Monsters Spirit World and the human world. The connection between the two dimensions was becoming closer every day.

Nowadays, it has become easier than ever for dueling monster spirits to materialize in reality. Research showed that there were more and more duelists who had the power to "see monsters and spirits" but most of them seemed to be young people.

More and more duelists were awakening to their extraordinary abilities, and the overall strength of the Shadow Duelists in the underground world was also increasing day by day. Duel Monsters seemed to be becoming more and more ubiquitous, and people were accepting their existence in a relatively benign way.

On this point, the contribution of President Kaiba Seto, who was known as a card-playing addict rarely seen in three thousand years, was indispensable.

It's said that President Kaiba initially scorned supernatural phenomena such as "monster spirits", and once publicly expressed his opinion that spirits and other things were imagined by those metaphysical duelists and did not exist at all.

However, somehow, one day, President Kaiba suddenly changed. Not only did he announce that scientific research showed that spirits existed, but he also spent a lot of money and energy on publicity and promotion, helping the public accept the idea of monster spirits, using the power of the Kaiba Corp to build a world framework in which humans and spirits coexist harmoniously. Snow Wave was surprised by the transformation of Kaiba Seto, a deep scientific superstitious person.

Could it be that Kaiba suddenly picked up a spirit wife one day, and he became very sweet from then on?

However, challenges and opportunities coexist. The widespread appearance of spirits naturally brought not only friendly partners but also dangerous enemies.

Over the past six years, various cases of monsters and spirits causing trouble have appeared from time to time. Some of these were duellists with evil intentions abusing the power of the spirits, and some were the rampage of the spirits themselves.

For example, the riot that attracted the most attention and was the largest in the past six years was caused by spirits named "Three Sacred Beasts".

Five years ago, Uria, Lord of Searing Flames appeared in the coastal area of the island country, causing quite a turmoil. But not long after, Duel King Yuei Vu arrived in person and commanded the Egyptian God "Osiris the Sky Dragon", who looked like a twin brother to Uria, to blast him and suppress the rampaging phantom.

Snow Wave saw the scene from the TV screen. Although the camera was shaking badly and the picture was not very clear, people could still feel the chilling aura of Osiris through the TV screen and the Sacred Beasts helplessness.

Yes, from the moment the sky dragon appeared, Uria, who had been so arrogant just now, immediately gave in, curled up, and huddled aside in grievance.

The Sky Dragon seemed to be very angry at this shoddy copycat product of its own. He fired a Thunderforce Attack hit Uria on the ground, and roared all over his face as if to say

Do you dare to copy me?!

You are a toad jumping off a cliff and want to pretend to be Batman!

Uria felt aggrieved: Brother, please calm down, the unscrupulous card dealer Consortium K insists on giving me such an appearance to use Brothers popularity to defraud money. I am also very desperate!

Although Sacred Beasts were also very powerful spirits, there was a big difference in the combat power of a Pokemon with a trainer and a wild Pokemon. The sky dragon was controlled by Yuei Vu, and Uria was by himself, so there was no doubt about the result.

In less than three minutes, Uria, Lord of Searing Flames was successfully suppressed and sealed by Duel King Yuei Vu.

A year later, Uria's brothers "Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder" and "Raviel, Lord of Phantasms" both appeared, suspected to be trying to find a way to rescue the brother who was sealed last year.

When the two Sacred Beasts appeared, it was like a landslide, the earth was split, the sun and the moon were darkened, there was lightning and thunder in the sky, and the city felt like an earthquake.

The government immediately evacuated the people sealed off the relevant areas, and sent top-secret special duelists to deal with it. However, ordinary spirits could not pose a threat to demons of the level of Sacred Beasts, and the special duelists were defeated after three consecutive attacks.

In the end, Seto Kaiba drove his iconic "Blue-Eyes White Dragon" jet to the scene in time and summoned his legendary spirit "Blue-Eyes White Dragon". Duel King Yuei Vu also arrived with him and called out the "Contrast HERO Chaos" to help out.

Then the first-generation Duel King Muto Yugi, who happened to be present at the time, also stepped forward and summoned the legendary spirit "Dark Magician" to take action.

It was worth mentioning that although the "Millennium Puzzle" dug out by Kaiba no longer contained the soul of the king, the pendant itself was still a Millennium Item.

This artifact left in the world seemed to have recognized Muto Yugi as its master, giving him extraordinary power that was second to none in the entire underground world.

The three powerful spirits worked together to defeat Hamon and Raviel, and successfully sealed them into cards.

There were rumors that the top-secret department of the military took a fancy to the strength of the three legendary duelists present and extended an olive branch to them.

Officer Fujino, who was in charge of recruitment at the time, tried his best to persuade, saying that the world was facing turmoil and similar crises would become more and more common. One day you would encounter a crisis that could not be solved by a single duelist, and you must unite to solve the threat

But Yugi, Kaiba, and Yuei Vu were not willing to cooperate with the army, nor were they willing to be bound by rules, so all three refused.

But when Kaiba thought about it, he felt that what the other party said seemed reasonable. So with a wave of his hand, he recruited Yuei Vu and Yugi as friends on the spot, and decided to fund the establishment of an organization called the "Duelist Alliance" to deal with the largest supernatural crises

Chapter 709 Duel Academy

Duelist Alliance was okay.

As long as its motto was not something like "If we cannot protect this world, we'll avenge it"...

"President Seto Kaiba invested money to establish this organization and built the alliance's headquarters in Domino City, which is also a landmark building in Domino City today.

"As of now, the alliance headquarters is the tallest building in the city..."

After hearing the introduction on the electronic screen, Snow Wave couldn't help but look out the window. As expected, he found the tallest and most eye-catching building without much effort.

Towering buildings, glass curtain walls shining like crystal. On the top floor of the building stand the statues of the Blue-Eyed White Dragon, the Masked HERO, and the Dark Magician, like the silent watchmen of the city, the ace monsters representing the three founders of the alliance.

When Snow Wave saw this, he couldn't help but have the urge to post on the forum.

Posting these messages on the forum was definitely like detonating a depth charge, and it would definitely attract the attention of screwball players.

However, this thought only flashed through his mind briefly, and was soon forgotten by him. As the No.1 member of Yuei Vu's fan club, Snow Wave had first-class professionalism. He knew what was most important and what he needed to do most.

He must find Yuei Vu-san first. This was the top priority, and everything else could be put aside.

It's a pity that all the people he was familiar with in this store were no longer there.

He inquired about it, and it seemed that not long after Itou Chika went to college, this card shop was transformed into a museum of the Duel King. The shop owner took the cut every year and counted the money until his hands cramped, and he happily traveled around the world with the money.

Snow Wave couldn't help but cry.

Yuei Vu-san, where are you?

Have you forgotten your precious Snow Wave?

.....

Southern region.

The huge island was located on the endless blue sea, and the sun shone on the sea pleasantly. Flocks of foraging seagulls swooped down in the bright sunshine, like rushing to a fragrant canteen.

The roar of the engine broke the tranquility, and the steel raptor with the "KC" logo printed on the outer shell flew from the blue sky, its tail flame cutting through the snow-white clouds like a sharp silver sword.

The cabin door opened to the outside in mid-air. Yuei Vu stood inside the cabin, wearing black goggles, and his windbreaker was blown by the strong wind pouring in from outside the cabin.

The bodyguard of the Kaiba Corp in the front driver's seat couldn't help but poke his head over: "Mr. Yuei Vu, are you sure you don't need to bring a parachute?"

Although the person who was about to commit crazy behavior was not him, this bodyguard was even more nervous than Yuei Vu.

If nothing else, he was worried that if something happened to Mr. Duel King, President Kaiba would personally deal with him when he returned.

"No need." Yuei Vu was very confident, "You can go back directly without waiting for me."

“Yes, Mr. Yuei Vu.”

Yuei Vu put on his goggles, took two steps, and jumped out of the cabin. The strong wind pulled him into its arms, and the heat and roar of the plane engine flew away behind him. He felt that his body was being captured by gravity, and the hem of his windbreaker was like the wings of the wind.

Now he seemed to understand why the president liked jumping out of airplanes so much.

Not only was it cool to do this, but it was also really fun.

The height of three hundred meters was a new record – he had never tried to free fall from such a high place before, but this did not affect his confidence in landing safely.

The green whirlwind wrapped around his body, cushioning him as he approached the ground. Countless wind spirits obeyed his command and precisely controlled the wind speed and direction, which allowed him to land at any landing spot he wanted at the most perfect speed.

This was the power of Masked HERO Blast.

The Masked HERO was a spirit born from Yuei Vu’s own power, like an extension of his own hands and feet. Over the past six years, he and this hero have developed a high degree of tacit understanding, and he could easily call upon the power of various forms of Masked HEROes with just his thoughts.

Now even if there was no need for other spirits and just relying on the Masked HERO and his own power, Yuei Vu was already the leading strongman on the earth.

Of course, it’s just on the surface.

Yuei Vu did not feel that he was invincible because of this.

Everything in the world was constantly evolving, and so is the game Duel Monsters. In the past six years, as time has passed, the overall level of the duel world has been rising, and it was not surprising that new strong players appear in any hidden corner.

Most of the characters appearing in the GX animation seemed to be less powerful than the previous generation. It seemed as if the level of dueling in the entire world had regressed, but of course, this was not the case.

The reason why it gave people such an illusion was just because the perspective of the protagonist group was different.

After all, the protagonist in DM was the Duel King who reigns at the top of the duel world, and the opponents he faced were all top-notch in the world. The protagonist group in GX was still a group of young people who were still in their infancy, and Yugi or Kaiba was a “legendary” existence to them. Even ordinary professional duelists could be worshiped by them.

The animation only showed the tip of the iceberg of this era, and truly powerful duelists like Yugi Kaiba and Jonouchi never showed their faces at all.

But GX, as a sequel, has indeed further expanded the world view of Yu-Gi-Oh, introducing the concept of parallel dimensions and introducing visitors from the universe. There was no shortage of strong people in this context.

Earlier this year, Judai just celebrated his fifteenth birthday.

Also this year, he signed up to take the assessment of the Central Duel Academy. The written examination would begin in one month. At this moment Judai was studying hard at home behind closed doors.

Yuei Vu knows that this may mean that the GX era was about to officially begin, and it also meant that a new version of Link World was about to be launched.

He must make some preparations for this.

The island he landed on was naturally the famous Duel Academy island, and it was also the main stage of the original plot. The main plot of GX focused on the three-year growth experience of Yuki Judai and his friends in this college and finally ended with their graduation after completing their studies.

Now he was the honorary principal of this school.

However, similar to his position in the Kaiba corp, he was the principal in name only. In fact, his main task was to shine with the title of “Duel King” and attract countless young people who admire this title. He would appear on TV every three days to show off his face and draw attention to the academy.

The drainage effect was quite good.

Every year, more than half of the students who applied for the exam came here for the title of “Duel King”. Young girls and boys were eager to come in and see the legendary appearance of the first generation of Duel Kings.

If you had the opportunity to get some personal guidance from him, you would be even more lucky.

Because of this, this duel academy was now the leader among its peers and was one of the most famous schools in the world.

Unless Muto Yugi, who was also a first-generation Duel King, ran to find a school to take over on a whim one day, it was unlikely that there would be any strong competitor for a long time.

Yuei Vu landed on the island, and while walking towards the school, he dialed the number of Principal Samejima.

“Mr. Yuei Vu? Are you here?”

“Well, I just got off the plane.”

This was also true. Although he jumped from the sky, he also got off a plane.

This time when he came to the academy, he planned to meet someone... and also made an appointment for a card game.

“Has that teacher arrived?” Yuei Vu asked.

Before Principal Samejima could reply, he heard words such as “Mama Mia” and “Mr. Duel King is really here” coming from the other end of the phone. It was extremely noisy and his voice was very distinctive.

“Okay, it looks like he has arrived.” Yuei Vu said, “Let him wait for a moment. I’ll be there in three minutes.”

Chapter 710 Professor Greed

The automatic door of the principal’s office moved along the slide rails, and Yuei Vu heard the strange screams of “Mamma Mia” before he even entered.

With such a unique voice and a highly recognizable voice, looking at the entire Duel Academy... no, maybe the entire dimension, there may be only one like this.

The user of the famous Dark Medieval deck in “Yu-Gi-Oh GX” and the legendary series “Ancient Gear” – Mr. Chronos, also known as “Professor Greed”.

The reason was because this teacher’s appearance was so unique. His face was almost carved from the same mold as the “Pot of Greed”, the sacred card that all players worshipped.

Especially when he grinned, his vivid and obscene expression, his yellow teeth, his narrowed eyes...

If you added a handle to the back of his head, when he walked on the street, people might point their heads and scream, saying when did the Pot of Greed have a spirit...

“Mr. Yuei Vu.” Principal Samejima quickly stood up to greet him, “Long time no see.”

Principal Samejima’s head was as bright as ever, bright and shining.

“This is Chronos-sensei, the elite among teachers in our academy.”

Chronos was only recruited into the academy last year, and in the past year, except for large-scale activities that required Yuei Vu to appear, he had not been to the school much, so it was only now that he first met this elite teacher.

Professor Greed was obviously very excited. To the students, Yuei Vu, the honorary principal, was a legend of the college. Everyone has only heard of it but has never seen it with their own eyes. The same was true for the teachers.

Chronos de Medici was undoubtedly the most impressive teacher in the GX series, but he had a deep-rooted elite consciousness, being very harsh to bottom students like Judai and his friend, and even seemed like a villain at one point.

But it was precisely because of this that he respected and yearned for those real elites and legendary strong men even more.

As soon as Yuei Vu entered the door, he noticed that the teacher was biting his handkerchief nervously. It was a rather delicate little handkerchief with a Q-version big head pattern embroidered on it. The blue eyes and the flaming helmet looked like “Masked HERO Goka”.

“Mama Mia, Mr. Yuei Vu!” Chronos made a standard ninety-degree bow, “You may not see it, but I am actually your fan, nanone!”

The word “-nanone” after every sentence is a habit of Chronos’s voice. For Mr. Chronos’ dubbing, without this habit, there would be no soul.

Yuei Vu glanced at the Goka embroidered on his handkerchief that was about to be bitten, and felt that it was quite obvious.

“Don’t be surprised to see this.”

The professor carefully rolled up his sleeves, revealing the tattoo on his arm, with an expression like a child showing off his most precious toy.

It looked like the tattoo was a face.

Yuei Vu took a look and nodded: “I quite like Mr. Bean too.”

Chronos: “...”

The atmosphere was very awkward for a time.

“Wait a minute.” Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows, “You don’t mean to say that’s me, do you?”

Chronos: “.....”

Yuei Vu suddenly felt angry, and even had the urge to drag the tattoo artist out and fight him for 300 rounds. (referring to playing cards)

What is this tattoo?

Not even showing one percent of my handsomeness!

“Ahem.” Yuei Vu coughed and said, “Principal Samejima should have told you the reason for asking you this time, right?”

“ah?”

Chronos looked at Principal Samejima blankly.

“No? It doesn’t matter.” Yuei Vu said, “I have something to do with you this time. But before we get down to business...”

He smiled and raised the Duel Disk in his hand.

“Want to come and try?”

Chronos started biting his handkerchief again.

“Mama Mia! It’s not true, is it? Can I duel with the first Duel King!?”

Fighting against legendary figures was the wish of almost any duelist, and almost no duelist could refuse such a temptation.

However, Chronos was excited for a while, and soon came back to his senses as if he suddenly thought of something.

“Wait a minute, Principal Samejima said that I can be selected as the outstanding teacher of the year. Should the selection process be...”

Chronos gasped and subconsciously tugged on the handkerchief in his mouth. The poor handkerchief made a “stab” sound, and was finally torn into two pieces under the load.

“Mama Mia! Is the content of my assessment going to be a duel with the Duel King!?” Chronos felt bad.

Principal, if you don’t want to rate me as an outstanding teacher or don’t want to raise my salary, just say so!

If I can defeat this legend, how could I stay as a mere teacher?

“Ahem, calm down, Chronos-sensei.” The principal coughed, “This will not affect the selection.”

Yuei Vu smiled: “Or if you perform well in this duel, it’s not impossible to ask me to write you a letter of recommendation.”

Chronos’s eyes lit up.

Recommended by the Duel King himself!

With this, who dares not to vote for me?

Isn’t this equivalent to a direct ticket for outstanding teachers?

“Okay.” Chronos was full of energy, “Then, Mr. Yuei Vu, please give me more advice, nanone!”

Three minutes later, the academy duel field.

“Duel!” x2

【Yuei Vu, LP 4000】

【Chronos, LP 4000】

“I’ll go first. Draw-none!”

The Duel Disk of Chronos had a unique style. Different from the regular model worn on the hand, the Duel Disk of Chronos was a special edition for teachers. It could be worn on the chest like a backpack.

Yuei Vu also has a Duel Disk with this design. When the first batch was released by Kaiba Corp, he took a few of them. But he was used to the traditional model, so he still felt uncomfortable wearing it on his chest, so he put it in the warehouse without use.

After all, I am still left-handed.

“First of all, I activate this card,” Chronos took a deep breath and pulled out a card in his hand, “Field Spell ‘Geartown!’”

The magic card was absorbed from the far side of the duel disk, and the entire field immediately began to transform. Countless mechanical gears meshed, and ancient mechanical devices emerged from the ground. High-temperature white steam sprayed high into the air like spring water, and the duel venue seemed to go back in time, instantly flying back to the steamy Dark Middle Ages.

“Then there is the Spell Card ‘Ancient Gear Catapult!’” Chronos shouted, “While I control no monsters: Target 1 face-up card I control; destroy it, and if Special Summon 1 ‘Ancient Gear’ monster from my Deck, ignoring its Summoning conditions!”

Chronos quickly drew a card from the deck and displayed it.

“Mr. Yuei Vu, please take a look, my ace, the strongest medieval giant sleeping in my deck——

——Ancient Gear Golem! ! !”
