Chapter 741: The Terror of Cubic Monsters

An eye opened from the chaos, and golden light spots gathered into countless bubbles, condensing into a dark entity. It was the prototype of the Cubic monster, the starting point of countless forms.

Vijam the Cubic Seed, DEF 0

"A monster with 0 ATK and 0 DEF," Titan quickly searched for information about the Cubic monster in his mind, "This guy's effect is"

"Vijam the Cubic Seed will not be destroyed by battle. And after it battled the opponent's monster, it can move itself to the Spell & Trap Zone to place 1 Cubic Counter on the monster it fought."

"Cubic Counter'?"

"Monsters with a Cubic Counter cannot attack, and their effects are negated." Yuei Vu said, "And this effect does not target, so the ability of Skull Archfiend of Lightning' cannot negate this effect."

Titan gritted his teeth: "Did I get caught?"

Vijam had just arrived on the field, and his figure disappeared in an instant. The Skull Archfiend of Lightning flew into the air fiercely and exploded violently on the ground. Waves of fire and flames swept across the ground, like a tsunami of flames and thunder.

But this attack also triggered the trap of the Cubic monster. Vijam's body became transparent until it completely disappeared, and the body of the Skull Archfiend King also dimmed. The electric light beating around him seemed to have been extinguished, and his body became dilapidated.

Titan looked at the Skull Archfiend that had been turned into a decoration just after he appeared and had no choice but to draw another card from his hand.

"Set a card, I end my turn."

His most powerful demon was turned into a Chihuahua before he could even gain a foothold, which was quite shocking to be honest. But Titan didn't give up.

At least he had two high-level monsters on the field, and with the protection of traps, it should be more than enough to survive the next turn.

Titan looked at the remaining cards in his hand and took a deep breath.

The counterattack tactics for the next turn have also been brewing in his mind.

In this way, even if the opponent is the Duel King, as long as the opponent does not use his usual deck and underestimates me, there should be hope

"My turn." Yuei Vu drew a card and said, "Activate the effect of Vijam the Cubic Seed'. If this card is treated as a Continuous Spell Card by its own effect, during my Main Phase: I can Special Summon this card from my Spell & Trap Zone.

"Come back, Vijam,"

The Cubic monster in the back row turned into countless golden bubbles and disappeared, gradually appearing in the front row.

Vijam the Cubic Seed, ATK 0

"Then comes the Quick-Play Spell Multiply! Tribute a monster with 500 or less ATK, and split that monster into any number of Tokens.

I tribute the Vijam the Cubic Seed, and Special Summon four Vijam the Cubic Seed Token! "

Under Spell's power, Vijam once again turned into a golden ball of light, divided into four parts like water flowing with golden light under the sun, and stood on the field respectively.

[Vijam the Cubic Seed Token, ATK 0] x4

"Four Vijams?" Titan thought slightly, "This posture is"

"When there are three Cubic Seed' monsters on my field, this card can be Special Summoned from my hand!" Yuei Vu drew a card from his hand.

"Come here! Buster Gundil the Cubic Behemoth!!!"

One of the most powerful monsters in the Cubic Series, it also had the most gorgeous appearance effects. It seemed to be a floating island, accompanied by rolling thunder and roaring lightning, overlooking everything with that terrifying and weird one-eye.

[Buster Gundil the Cubic Behemoth, ATK 0]

"When Buster Gundil is successfully summoned, I can select three Cubic' monsters on my field and overlap them below it. Then its attack power will increase by 1000 points for each monster overlapped below it!"

The three Vijams on the field began to shrink and deform, transforming into three small black accessories. They are like ingenious gears, perfectly integrated into the body of the Cubic Behemoth, and every insertion is accompanied by a surge in the energy of the Behemoth.

[Buster Gundil the Cubic Behemoth, ATK 0 ATK 3000]

"Attack powerthree thousand!?" Titan's pupils shrank suddenly.

He had a hunch that this Cubic Behemoth had not only high ATK but even more terrifying abilities waiting for him!

In fact, his hunch was indeed correct. Buster Gundil the Cubic Behemoth could attack three times in one turn, with a total output of 9,000. If it were to hit it like this, Titan would be dead on the spot this turn.

But of course, he wouldn't make things that easy: "Open the set card! Trap Card Trap Hole!"

"Huh?" Yuei Vu's eyes moved slightly.

Is there actually Trap Hole?

"When the opponent summons a monster with 1000 or more ATK, that monster will be destroyed directly!" Titan shouted, "So the Cubic Behemoth will retire here!"

Although it had super destructive power and the ability to kill instantly, the Cubic Behemoth did not have resistance to traps. The hollow hole emerged, and the boundless gravity dragged the huge body into it, and it was instantly twisted into pieces.

"Succeeded."

The corners of Titan's mouth curled up, revealing a smile.

That Cubic Behemoth seemed to be close to the ace of the deck. Losing the ace monster meant a lot of resources were wasted, and few people could organize an effective offensive in the same turn.

Generally speaking, at this time, the opponent could only give up the idea of attacking and choose to build a defense line for the time being. There should be no problems this turn

"I activate the effect of the Buster Gundil the Cubic Behemoth' in the graveyard." Yuei Vu said, "I can banish this card from my Graveyard to add 1 Vijam the Cubic Seed' from my Graveyard to my hand." (animation effect)

Two cards popped up from the graveyard one after another. One of them was put away directly by Yuei Vu, while the other was displayed and then returned to the hand.

Titan continued to think.

The Duel King has not used his chance to Normal Summon this turn he planning to summon Vijam to strengthen his defense?

That thing cannot be destroyed by battle, and it can also place "Cubic Counter" on monsters that have fought with it, which is quite troublesome to use for defense

"I activate the effect of the Continuous Spell Cubic Karma' that was discarded in the graveyard last turn." Yuei Vu said, "Banish this card from your Graveyard; add 1 Cubic' monster from my Deck to my hand.

The card I want to add to my hand is"

A card was automatically ejected from the deck, and Yuei Vu pulled it out into his hand.

" Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord'!"

Thats right, it was the card that Z-ONE originally printed and stuffed into Divas deck to fight him.

Although Z-ONE took away three of his "Dark Cubic Lord" before leaving, it didn't matter. Although Yuei Vu didn't have any card printing talent, he had the system card pool!

Now that he had a set of Cubic cards sponsored by Diva, who had reformed his evil ways and given up playing cards, it was only a matter of time before he got this "Dark Cubic Lord".

"Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord' must be Special Summoned by revealing 3 other Cubic' cards in my hand with different names."

Yuei Vu showed three cards in one breath.

"I reveal the Vijam the Cubic Seed', the Spell Card Cubic Wave' and the trap card Cubic Rebirth' in my hand, and special summon from my hand

Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord! ! ! "

The deep purple light formed a transparent cube, covering the head of the Cubic monster. The sharp sword and ax flashed with silvery white light, and a single eye opened on every joint of the grotesque body. The sharp blade penetrated into the ground with a hissing sound, slowly supporting the body of the Cubic Lord.

[Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord, ATK 3000]

Titan's expression changed: "Such a powerful monster was summoned immediately"

"Then I normal summon the Vijam the Cubic Seed' in my hand!"

Vijam the Cubic Seed, DEF 0

"Equip Spell United We Stand!" Yuei Vu said, "Equip it to the Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord'. For each monster on my field, the equipped monster's attack power increases by 800."

Titan's expression suddenly changed: "The monsters on the field now are"

"Vijam the Cubic Seed, Vijam Token, Duza the Meteor Cubic Vessel, and the Dark Cubic Lord himself, there are four in total." Yuei Vu said, "Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord's attack power increases by 3200 points!"

[Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord, ATK 3000 ATK 6200]

"Attack power6200!?" The Titans were dumbfounded.

"Activate the Spell Card Cubic Wave' from my hand!" Yuei Vu is not done yet, "The attack power of a Cubic' monster on my field is doubled, and the attack power of a monster on the opponent's field is halved!

I doubled the attack power of Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord, and halved the attack power of Skull Archfiend of Lightning! "

Cold sweat broke out on Titan's forehead: "Wait a minute, when the Skull Archfiend becomes the target of a card effect!"

He suddenly looked at the Skull Archfiend on his field. When he saw the tattered and dull appearance of the demon, he suddenly remembered something.

"Oops!"

"That's right, your Skull Archfiend has a Cubic Counter' by the effect of Vijam the Cubic Seed'. The effect is negated, so naturally there is no need to throw the dice." Yuei Vu smiled.

With Luck 20, the best way to beat the dice was not to roll them at all.

[Skull Archfiend of Lightning, ATK 2500 ATK 1250]

[Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord, ATK 6200 ATK 12400]

Titan's facial muscles twisted: "Attack power12,000!?"

What kind of Cubic monster is this? Its too scary!?

"Crimson Nova the Dark Cubic Lord, attacks the Skull Archfiend of Lightning!"

Golden light wrapped around the sharp blade, and the darkness was suddenly broken. The demon's bones shattered, and the Skull Archfiend withstood the heavy blow of the battle ax head-on, exploding into pieces under the scorching light and sharp blade.

"Uhhhhhhh!!!"

Titan, LP 4000 LP 0

The howl of the Titans echoed in the empty and lonely dense forest, and countless birds spread their wings and fluttered.

Chapter 742: A Name

"Uhhhhhhh!!!"

With such a strike from the Dark Cubic Lord with an attack power of 12,000, the momentum alone scared the Titan to the point of almost peeing.

He claimed to be a professional Shadow Duelist to others, but he knew very well in his heart that it was all bullshit. This was just nonsense that he used to deceive outsiders. When he first entered the industry, he was actually a fraud who relied on illusion to deceive people. He specialized in deceiving ordinary people who didn't know about metaphysics.

The reason why he became a real Shadow Duelist was because of his employer who issued this commission.

The employer easily figured out who he really was, but he didn't seem to mind. The mysterious figure gave him extraordinary power that was different from the deceitful tricks he had used so far. A real dark power that giving him the extraordinary ability to start Shadow Games and even materialize monsters in a short time.

So strictly speaking, Titan became a Shadow Duelist just a few days ago.

How has a rookie like him ever seen such a battle? With the power of the Dark Duel, the momentum of the attack caused his brain to shut down, and his mind was filled with thoughts like "It's over, I'm dead" and "Mom, I love you."

Suffered pain that should not be endured at this level.

He saw his demon being split open in front of him, and the sharp blade with golden light was thrown over like a long meteor. The next thing was that the mind went blank and the whole person was about to be evaporated.

It was only then that Titan realized how terrifying the so-called "dark power" was with his own body.

In such a short period, he felt the boundless darkness filling his entire body like a tidal wave, and then quickly being emptied, taking away what was left in every cell in his body. energy.

Until the end, he was sweating profusely and lying limply on the ground, unable to even move a finger.

Is this the duel of the Duel King?

Flawless, with absolutely no room to fight back.

At this time, Titan realized deeply that even though the mysterious person had given him power, even though he had become so much stronger, he was still just trash in front of the real king.

This is not a duel at all!

Titan once felt that for this Duel King, dueling with him might be as effective as finding a broken stone to tell stories.

Such a clear understanding of the difference in strength also made him extremely grateful for the fact that he was still alive.

Titan quickly figured it out. After losing such a Shadow Game, the fact that he was still breathing could only mean that this was the other party's permission.

He quickly made up his mind. As long as his life was spared, it didn't matter whether he would become a slave or sell his integrity from now on!

Yuei Vu put away the Duel Disk and as soon as he stepped forward, he saw the man struggling to get up. His expression was ferocious as if he had squeezed out the last bit of strength in his body and stood up by force of willpower.

Yuei Vu was a little surprised.

Oh, I thought he was just a small fry, but I didn't expect this guy to have such a tenacious fighting spirit!

Does he still want to fight to the death in this situation?

Unexpectedly, Titan stood up with gritted teeth, then struggled to control his trembling hands to pull out the card deck, and handed it to Yuei Vu respectfully.

"Sir Yuei Vu, please forgive me! I really have no ill intentions!"

The majestic voice of such a big man had a crying tone, which made him look quite funny.

Yuei Vu: ""

So you used all your remaining strength to get up just to beg for mercy before I pulled out the deck?

Okay, young man, are you full of the desire to survive?

Yuei Vu silently took the deck he handed over and said, "As I said before, I need some answers."

Titan's whole body was agitated as if he had thought of something extremely terrifying, with a sad face: "You can ask anything, I will say everything I know about any question! But please don't get into my mind, okay?"

Yuei Vu was confused: "What the hell are you talking about?"

Ah? I heard from one of my colleagues that the Duel King has vast and omnipotent powers, and even has the ability to peer into people's brains and view memories. But people who are treated like this will lose their clear mind forever.

? Yuei Vu was a little confused.

Where did this special rumor come from? I'm not Marik who likes to get into people's heads no matter what.

You guys are just making bad rumors out of thin air!

"Who are you listening to?" Yuei Vu said with a dark face.

"Huh?" Titan was a little dazed, "Because my colleague said that many of the Ghouls members who fought against the Duel King either went crazy or became vegetative afterward. And there are channels to verify that these are all facts."

Yuei Vu: ""

Their master Marik mutilated them. What does it have to do with me?

Damn it! I was framed inexplicably.

The more Yuei Vu thought about it, the angrier he became, feeling that the matter could not be settled like this.

Next time I see Mr. Marik, I have to give him a hard slap and ask him to make amends.

Of course, this was not the point now.

This Titan was indeed honest and very cooperative with Yuei Vu's inquiries. In his current state, if Yuei Vu asked, he probably be willing to run naked around the academy.

Yuei Vu quickly understood that this Titan might really be just a pawn, the kind who didn't know anything about the true plan.

Titan said he received a package a few weeks ago, which contained a large amount of cash and a letter. In the letter, an employer mentioned that he was very interested in his "professional quality" and asked him to go to a designated place to accept the commission.

When Titan arrived at the location, he didn't see anyone, but then he soon passed out for no apparent reason. When he woke up, he found that he had been given extraordinary power and had a simple terminal at hand.

Since then, this mysterious employer has been giving him instructions through the machine, arranging for him to run errands, and the reward would mysteriously appear in his mailbox in the form of a package.

He had never seen the appearance of his employer, or even the courier who delivered the package. His connection with the employer relied entirely on the machine. The mysterious boss was like a virtual character living on the other side of the machine, a ghost, leaving no traceable traces.

Of course, Yuei Vu asked him for the terminal used for communication, and the big man fumbled for it from his pocket very wisely.

But when he took the machine in his hand, he couldn't help but say "Ah" with a pale face.

This device was broken.

Its small silver-white shell cracked, exposing the internal fractures. The circuit board was burnt black, and there was even some heat left when Yuei Vu took it into his hand.

I swear, this thing was still intact when I landed on the island, Titan said.

Yuei Vu ignored him but looked at the gadget carefully for a moment.

When he found something was wrong, he destroyed it remotely?!

Whoever he is, he is really a careful character.

But Yuei Vu still put this pile of scrapped junk into his pocket for the time being. Although its wiring seemed to be severely burned, maybe the incredible President Kaiba could do something about it.

I believe that the president's science (metaphysics) will definitely be able to find a way to repair it.

So, your boss asked you to come to the island? Yuei Vu asked.

Titan nodded repeatedly.

Did he tell you what to do?

He asked me to go to the island and wait for further instructions, but he mentioned that he wanted me to find an opportunity to monitor the activities of a specific target first.

"A specific target?" Yuei Vu thought he might have found the key point, "Who is that?"

"Because I received the news after I landed on the island, I didn't have time to find out who it was. I only knew a name. It could be a student or a teacher." Titan tried hard to recall, "The name is Yuki Judai, yes, that's his name!"

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

Chapter 743: Macho Man's Lucky Card

"Yuki Judai?" Yuei Vu frowned, "Are you sure that's the name?"

If I pronounce it correctly, it should be. Titan pointed at the scrapped device that Yuei Vu had just put away, That's what the message from the machine said.

This matter began to attract Yuei Vu's attention.

Who dares to aim at my lovely student?

Suddenly it became personal.

But who is that? What's the purpose?

The plot of GX has just begun. It stood to reason that the current Judai was just an inconspicuous student who has just entered school, and there was nothing worthy of attention. In the anime, as more and more things happened in the academy and the plot continued to advance, Yuki Judai began to enter the field of vision of people.

At this point in time, who else has the idea of Judai?

Is it because of the Supreme King?

Yuei Vu also had a special chat with Yubel about the Supreme King. Although Yubel was not very happy at the time, after being helplessly cornered by Yuei Vu, Sister Yu glared at him with a bit of resentment in her eyes and reluctantly confessed what she knew.

She assured Yuei Vu that the only time the Supreme King's power got out of control was when Diva tried to send them to another dimension.

Maybe it was the power of the Quantum Cube that triggered a switch deep in Judai's consciousness, which caused the Supreme King personality in a deep sleep to briefly wake up.

But it was only a brief awakening.

The Supreme King's soul was sleeping very deeply, and even when he woke up that time, he was just dueling based on instinct. Rather than waking up, it was closer to a state of sleepwalking.

Hmm, that's right, the sleepwalking Supreme King at that time beat up Diva so much that he couldn't find his way to the north.

There were no other accidents.

So was the mysterious employer of Titan the Diva?

Although he thought it was unlikely, Yuei Vu decided to ask Diva if he had time.

It just so happened that he had not had much contact with Diva and his Prana friends for a while. After all, they all played cards back then and were considered card friends. Not seeing a friend for such a long time, Diva must miss him very much. He would definitely be very surprised when he heard the familiar voice of mine

That's all I know. Titan said cautiously, Can I leave?

Leave? Yuei Vu glanced sideways at him, Wouldn't it be too easy for you to just leave like this?

When Titan saw this reaction, he suddenly felt a chill in his body, and couldn't help but grimace: "Master Yuei Vu, I'm just hired to do things, and I don't even know what I am here to do until now! Please spare me"

It seems that this thing is just expendable cannon fodder, and no matter how much I ask, I can't find anything else.

Out of the corner of his eye, Yuei Vu caught sight of Asuka, who was still unconscious. He had already confirmed that she was just asleep and nothing serious. Following Yuei Vu's thought, he opened the Duel Disk's projection screen, activated the map, and took a look.

He saw a green light point starting from the direction of the "Osiris Red" dormitory, moving towards this direction at an unhurried speed.

Obviously, that was his lovely student Yuki Judai.

Because Judai, as the protagonist, had a physique that attracted trouble, thus in order to prevent this student from getting involved in some troubles that his current strength could not handle, Yuei Vu specially installed a transmitter in Judai's duel disk, which could check his location at any time.

No, the trouble-making spirit of Judai has struck again.

Perhaps it was the stubborn of time, the history was repeating the plot of the animation. Judai and his roommates here listened to Daitokuji-sensei in their dormitory telling them the ghost story of the missing students back then. They suddenly became interested and decided to explore the restricted area of the school in the middle of the night.

At this rate, Judai and his friends may be here in three minutes.

Yuei Vu thought for a while, then picked up the deck handed over by Titan and checked it briefly.

After flipping through the cards, he couldn't help but complain: "What kind of meaningless things have you stuffed into the deck? Okay, you have duelist's force, so you can bring some hard-to-use gadgets, but what these Normies are for?"

Titan: "I"

But before he could defend himself, Yuei Vu interrupted him again: "Forget these Normies, what the hell is your Injection Fairy Lily? Didn't you use the Archfiend deck? This thing is also Archfiend?"

Injection Fairy Lily, a Spellcaster with an attack power of 400. But she had the effect of paying 2000 LP during battle to increase her attack power by 3000 points.

This card was quite useful in the early Yu-Gi-Oh environment. It was even a monster that was gloriously imprisoned in the first banned card list in history.

But looking at her angelic appearance with a slender waist, long legs, and pink skin, it didn't fit the style of this demon deck, right?

The macho Titan was a little embarrassed for a moment: "This is a lucky card! Yes, it is a lucky card."

Yuei Vu stared blankly.

Good guy, I didn't realize that you, a man with a burly body and thick muscle, could have such a fetish.

On the surface, some people are playing a deck of scary demons with skulls, but secretly they are secretly stuffing cute angel girls with big breasts into their decks.

"This card is useless," Yuei Vu handily put this "Injection Fairy Lily" into his pocket as he spoke.

Titan didn't dare to say "no", he just nodded and bowed, and kept saying "Mr. Duel King is right"

After a bunch of miscellaneous and useless things were kicked out from the deck, the thickness of Titan's deck was immediately reduced by half. Yuei Vu thought for a moment, then took out some more useful staple cards and filter cards to add to the deck, and then reinserted the adjusted deck into the Duel Disk on Titan's chest.

Okay, so the combat effectiveness of your deck should be pretty good. It must be much better than before. Yuei Vu nodded, seeming to be satisfied with his masterpiece.

At this time, the strong man was confused and completely confused.

After I provoked this Duel King and was beaten up, the opponent not only did not confiscate my deck as rumored, but he was also enthusiastic about helping me adjust and strengthen it?!

Hum, are all the rumors really false?

In fact, Duel King Yuei Vu is not a duel disk hunter at all. On the contrary, he is even a good person who doesn't care about personal grudges, is open-minded and is willing to help others?!

Just when Titan was ready to say thanks, he heard Yuei Vu say: "Don't get me wrong, your deck is already mine, and your Duel Disk is mine too, even though I don't really like this style.

I'm just lending it to you temporarily because you still have a task to complete. "

Titan: "?"

The person you are looking for, Yuki Judai, is a student on this island. Yuei Vu said calmly, He will be here in about a minute.

I ask you to do it again just like you did when you met me, and duel with Judai like we just did. "

Titan: "???"

He was a little confused: "You mean"

"I mean, I haven't been here tonight, and you haven't seen me." Yuei Vu pointed at the unconscious Asuka, then pointed at Titan, and said, "You came here secretly and hypnotized this girl, and then happened to be caught by Yuki Judai and his classmates.

Then you challenge him to a duel. However, this time it's not a real Shadow Game, but the kind of deception trick you used before, understand? "

Titan was stunned for a while.

Shall I duel him again? Will I use this deck that you enhanced?

"That's right." Yuei Vu nodded, expressing relief.

Look, you're not as stupid as you look. You'll understand after saying it once.

Then shall I win against him? Titan asked cautiously.

He was still a little unclear about the role he was going to play. Could it be that this student usually talked back the Duel King, so he deliberately took this opportunity to punish him?

Yuei Vu was happy: "If you can. How about this? If you win, I will pretend that what happened tonight never happened."

You can take away the enhanced cards I give you in the deck. I just pretend I haven't seen you today, okay? "

Titan's eyes lit up.

Is there such a good deal?

Titan, who was already heartbroken and ready to surrender, suddenly became active again.

In other words, as long as I win against this Yuki Judai, I'll be saved?!

Ha! Isn't that easy?

Maybe I can't beat the Duel King, but how am I unable to beat a mere student?

"Okay, don't worry, leave it to me, sir!" Titan straightened his back, "My reputation in the industry is top-notch, and I promise to complete the task!"

Then it depends on your performance.

Yuei Vu waved his hand and retreated into the jungle and disappeared from Titan's sight.

In just a moment, the voices of Yuki Judai and his friends were heard.

"Asuka!" That was Marufuji Sho's voice.

What happened to your kidney? This was another roommate of Judai and Sho, Hayato Maeda. This Osisris Red student was chubby, like a big walking koala.

"Who are you!?" Judai noticed Titan, "Get away from Asuka!"

Hahahahaha! My name is Titan, the famous Shadow Duelist in the underground world! Yuki Judai, I want to hunt your soul!

Titan laughed wildly, made an ugly villain face, and winked in the direction where Yuei Vu disappeared as if asking "How did I look like in the role?"

Yuei Vu, who was standing in the dark and watching, sighed leisurely.

This was a question he had thought about for a long time.

Under his guidance during this period, the current Judai was already a bit too strong compared to the original work at the same time point.

He was so strong that the opponents he encountered and the tests he underwent in the original animation are now like drizzle in comparison. They were not difficult and had no role in training at all.

So he, as a teacher, had to think of ways to design top-notch questions for students.

Otherwise, Yuei Vu estimated that with the current strength of Judai, Titan was not strong enough.

Judai, you have to be grateful from now on. Yuei Vu said to himself as he watched the two people preparing to fight outside, There is no teacher in the world who is as considerate as me in arranging for students.

Chapter 744: That Was A Fun Duel

The Shadow Duelist Titan took the initiative.

He first activated a Pot of Greed to draw two cards, then a Spell Books from the Pot to draw three cards. In the blink of an eye, he grabbed a lot of cards in his hand, and the cards he earned were almost flying.

Obviously, such a bunch of disharmonious things were temporarily stuffed in by Mr. Duel King. Titan activated a "Foolish Burial" and sent the monster card "Annihilator Archfiend" from the deck to the graveyard.

He then normal summoned the "Archfiend Cavalry", and when there was an "Archfiend" monster on the field, he special summoned the "Archfiend Commander" from his hand.

Then "Archfiend Commander" activated its betrayal effect. When it was special summoned by its own effect, it destroyed another "Archfiend" monster on the field. So he directly blew up the "Archfiend Cavalry" which was his stepping stone.

The development was similar to the previous one, but there was still a little difference here. His "Archfiend Cavalry" immediately activated its effect after being blown down, bringing the "Annihilator Archfiend" in the graveyard back to the field.

The Annihilator Archfiend's defense power iwa as high as three thousand, and its butt was so thick that even the legendary Blue Eyes White Dragon could not shake it.

No, all the friends of Judai were so frightened that their faces turned pale.

A monster with an attack power of 2,500 and a monster with a defense power of 3,000! Judais younger brother Sho exclaimed.

This person is really strong! Judais roommate, Hayato Maeda, said, Isnt he really a Shadow Duelist?

Titan laughed loudly after hearing this.

I have already said that your souls will be mine today! Wake up, little boys, this is your burial place! Look! This is the proof of Shadow Game! "

He fumbled under his loose robe for a while and actually took out an inverted pyramid-shaped gold pendant. The thick chain was tied to the cone-shaped ornament, and the golden eyes engraved on its shell flashed.

Sho exclaimed hoarsely: "Millennium Puzzle!"

Hahaha, this kid is quite knowledgeable! Titan laughed, Yes! This is the legendary artifact Millennium Puzzle, and it is proof of the Shadow Game!

Judai was confused: "Your Millennium Puzzle seems to look a little different."

Although it has been a long time, Judai saw the Millennium Puzzle in the hands of Muto Yugi many years ago.

Comparing it with the Millennium Puzzle in his impression, what Titan holding in his hand felt like a product from an unscrupulous copycat manufacturer.

And isn't the Millennium Puzzle a prop in the Duel King Muto Yugi? Hayato asked.

"Ignorance. Let me tell you!" Titan laughed, "There are seven Millennium Puzzles in the world! And what I have in my hand is one of those seven!"

Judai x Sho x Hayato: ""

Yuei Vu, who was watching the battle in the dark, couldn't help but do a facepalm.

This idiot didn't know that "villains die because they talk too much". He said so much nonsense that his secret was exposed.

Judai reminded: "Are you talking about the seven Millennium Items? There are seven Millennium Items, not seven Millennium Puzzles."

Titan was confused: "Is that so?"

"Yes, yes." Marufuji Sho nodded, "This is common sense, right? How come you, a Shadow Duelist, don't even understand this?"

"And there are actually eight Millennium Items." Judai gave the big man some popular science, "The eighth one is now in the hands of the Kaiba Group."

Titan was silent for a moment.

Then he waved his hand: "Hey! Anyway, this is a Shadow Game! The soul of the little girl over there has been devoured in the duel!"

He was pointing to Asuka, whom he "held as a hostage".

Alright, draw cards quickly! If you can't defeat me in the duel, your souls will also be devoured!

No matter whether his acting was acceptable or not, Titan could only bite the bullet now.

Because Yuei Vu said that only if he won this duel could he forget the past and let him go. This was his only chance.

Thinking of this, Titan glanced at him and realized that his opponent Judai didn't look very smart, and couldn't help but sneer.

Heh, isnt it easy to defeat this jellyfish-headed brat?

Sho and Hayato were also worried.

The opponent summoned two such powerful demons on the field in the first turn, so Aniki cant break through easily, right? Sho said.

"Yes." Hayato said, "In this case, we may have to defend passively first."

Obviously, Titan felt the same way. His face under the mask was full of confidence as if he had a chance to win.

Judai drew a card and first used the Spell Card "Take Over Five" and threw five cards from the top of the deck. This card was originally Judai's card in the animation, but Judai at this stage did not realize it yet. The usefulness of this thing was also something Yuei Vu helped him realize in advance.

Judai drew a card and shouted: "Okay! I'll use this card to attack!"

Titan chuckled: "Come here, boy! Do you have any means to break through my demons?"

"Then I won't be polite!"

Come on, let me see how much you weigh!

"I tribute Annihilator Archfiend' and Archfiend Commander' you have on the field, and special summon this card on your field.

A powerful Level 8 monster, the Lava Golem! ! ! "

Titan: ""

He watched his two powerful demons disappear from the field one after another, and a ferocious and ugly lava giant emerged from the ground with steaming white gas around him. It made a "hissing" sound when its huge rough palms were slapped on the ground. .

[Lava Golem, ATK 3000]

Titan's facial muscles twitched briefly, and he chuckled: "Hey, you kid is just a kid, and you actually gave me a monster with an attack power equivalent to the legendary Blue Eyes White Dragon. Next turn I will use the monster you gave me to finish you."

Judai didn't bother to care, and directly played a from his hand!

It's still the model worker couple, Avian and Burstinatrix, who were directly fused together to summon the "Elemental HERO Flame Wingman"!

Although Yuei Vu also mentioned this to Judai, saying that the three-for-one behavior of hand fusion was actually very disadvantageous, since Judai insisted on him, he could only forget it.

He could modify the deck of Judai, allowing him to add more things of unknown meaning to strengthen his combat power. But if Judai were to change the deck itself and not even use the his signature monster Flame Wingman, then Yuki Judai would no longer be Yuki Judai.

That may be detrimental to his growth.

Anyway, there were enough violent card-earning things in Judai's deck now, and he could always draw the card he needed anyway, so Yuei Vu just leave him alone.

Then here Judai directly summoned his favorite hero Flame Wingman!

[Elemental HERO Flame Wingman, ATK 2100]

Titan's mouth curled up: "Oh, are you kidding me? This kind of hero can't beat the Lava Golem' you gave me."

"Field Spell Skyscraper! When an Elemental HERO' monster I control battles an opponent's monster whose ATK is higher, it gains 1000 ATK during damage calculation only!"

Skyscrapers rose from the ground, with their spires pointing straight into the moonlight. The green hero stands on the top of the skyscrapers, surrounded by a whirlwind!

Titan's expression changed slightly: "Oh no!"

The hero dived down from the top of the tower with the moonlight on his back! His cannonball that turned into flames penetrated the body of the Lava Golem, and the burning giant fell to the ground!

A powerful impact penetrated from the back of the Lava Golem, and the flames hit Titan's head and face!

The effect of the Flame Wingman is that he can inflict damage equal to the attack power of the monster he destroyed in battle. So the total is 3100 points of damage! Judai said.

Titan, LP 4000 LP 900

Titan gritted his teeth: "I didn't expect that you could go to this extent"

One of the cards I sent to the graveyard through the Spell Card Take Over Five' this turn is Makyura the Destructor'. During the turn this card is sent to the Graveyard, I can activate trap cards from my hand.

Judai draws a card from his hand.

"Trap Card Time Machine! When a monster is destroyed by battle and sent to the GY : Special Summon that monster to the same field it was on, in the same battle position it was in when destroyed!"

The shadow of the time machine flashed past, and the Lava Golem rose from the ground again and returned to Titan's field.

Titan: "?"

Why is this kid so kind? Resurrecting such a powerful monster on the opponent's field?

Are you overconfident in your own strength and think it's okay to send a Level 8 monster to the opponent?

I end my turn. Judai smiled.

Titan sneered.

Hmph, he is just a kid after all, and he actually does such an operation with unclear meaning. This kind of brat will eventually be defeated because of his arrogance

My turn, draw!

"At this moment, the effect of the Lava Golem is activated." Judai smiled, "The Lava Golem will cause 1000 points of effect damage to its controller in each Standby Phase."

Titan's expression froze instantly.

W-W-What!?

He looked up in horror at the monster on his field and saw that the lava monster was also looking down at him.

The master and the servant stared at each other, and froze in embarrassment.

Until the Lava Golem began to emit hot bubbles all over its body, the hot lava dripped from it and fell towards the Titan.

Ah ah ah ah dont come over! ! !

Titan screamed in his heart.

But it was no longer possible.

Victory or defeat was a foregone conclusion.

Titan, LP 900 LP 0

"Gotcha!" Judai happily gestured to Titan with his classic pose, "That was a fun Duel!"

Titan lay on his back helplessly.

"Fun Duel" my ass!

Chapter 745: Jonouchi's Behavior

Titan's eyes widened as he lay on his back.

He lost again.

He was OTKed again.

You didnt understand the pain of being OTKed twice in one night.

If it was the duel king he was facing for the first time, it was understandable that he was powerless. After all, the Duel King symbolized absolute strength. No matter how strong he was, it was not outrageous. It only proved that ordinary duelists and the Duel King were indeed not in the same dimension.

But why is this silly-looking student with a jellyfish head so strong?

Could it be that I, Titan, have been abusing newbies for too long and have become outdated? Are all duelists in the current environment this outrageous?

And what the hell is this Lava Golem? How could there be such a nether monster in the world?!

At this time, Judai's two roommates came forward and expressed their sincere admiration without hesitation.

Aniki, you are so strong! Marufuji Sho's eyes were full of admiration. Facing such a powerful lineup, you still easily killed the opponent in one turn!

Judai scratched his head: "No, my level is actually very average."

It's not that he was intentionally being modest, but that's how he felt from the bottom of his heart.

After all, no matter how hard he worked to learn and improve in private, he would still be fooled by endless tricks every time he played cards with Yuei Vu-sensei.

In the end, Yuei Vu would always shake his head and say to him: "Just so-so. Although you have made good progress, you are still far from being a duelist who can truly stand alone."

Judai has kept Mr. Yuei Vu's comments in mind since he was a child. Therefore, his positioning of himself has always been "just passable" and he has never felt that he is any stronger.

But Sho and Hayato took Judai's words as pure humility.

If such an awesome strength is average, then shouldn't we, the losers, drop out of school and consider finding a new class?

Because playing cards may not be suitable for us

But that Lava Golem turned out to be so strong. Hayato held his chin.

It depends on how you use it, said Marufuji Sho. Giving the opponent a monster with an attack power of 3,000 for nothing is a big loss, but if you control it properly, any card can exert superpower.

For example, for a duelist like Aniki, no matter how weak the card is, it will definitely be of value! "

Marufuji Sho looked at Judai with firm and admiring eyes.

Has completely become the shape of the big brother. JPG.

Judai looked at this Lava Golem: "Actually, at first, when someone asked me to bring this card, I still refused."

He was lost in memories of the past.

Little Judai: Sensei, I don't want to bring so many weird things, I want to play a pure HERO deck!

Yuei Vu: Judai, put a Lava Golem into the deck for me!

Little Judai: I don't care, I don't want, I will play pure hero!

Yuei Vu (who took out a copy of "Exam Express 2" at that time): Put or not?

Little Judai:

To be honest, Judai's deck in the anime was not really a pure HERO deck. He often filled the deck with monsters whose meaning was unclear. Yuei Vu felt that it was not a problem at all to have the all-purpose field-cleaning artifact Lava Golem.

Besides, a great man once said: All duelists should trust their own decks. If you believe he is a hero, he will naturally be a hero.

Since then, the hero series of the younger generation has been pleased to introduce a new Level 8 brother, Elemental HERO Lava Golem.

Yuei Vu, who watched the duel in the dark, could not help but shake his head.

This Titan was really a piece of trash that couldn't stand up to the wall. Even after being strengthened, he couldn't even survive a turn in front of the current Judai. It completely failed to achieve the teaching effect Yuei Vu expected.

At this moment, Judai and three others have arrived at Asuka's side.

Judai helped the unconscious Asuka up, reached out, and patted the girl's snow-white and pink cheek: "Hey, Asuka, are you okay? Wake up."

It seemed as if the person he was holding in his arms was not a delicate-looking young girl but a good brother-in-arms.

Yuei Vu: ""

Sure, Judai, you have a better future than being this teacher.

You actually comprehend the phrase "Women can only slow down my card-drawing speed" in such a young age.

Don't be envious, others don't take the target.

Marufuji Sho was ashamed: "Brother, isn't it a bit too rough?"

Huh? Is that so? Judai looked innocent.

Asuka moaned softly twice and opened her eyes in a daze. The first time she opened her eyelids, she saw Judai's face.

"Ah, you're awake!" Judai showed a happy face.

"Judai?"

Asuka realized that she was leaning on his arm, her pretty face turned red, and she quickly sat up.

"How is this going?"

Her memory was a bit fragmented. Her head felt dizzy, and she was so confused that she couldn't think of anything. She just rubbed her sore temples.

Sho said: "We found you passed out here."

Asuka suddenly realized: "By the way, there is a weirdo in black clothes next to the abandoned dormitory! Judai, go and inform the teacher that there may be an intruder on the island!"

The other party may be an extremely dangerous character, and the students who disappeared from the abandoned dormitory in the past may have something to do with him."

Judai pointed to the salted fish beside him who was knocked to the ground and lost his dream: "Is this the person you are talking about?"

Asuka: ""

At this time, Titan felt so miserable in his heart.

He wanted to say that he had never heard of things such as "missing students".

I have just landed on the island. I haven't even got a firm footing yet and I was knocked down before I could do any bad things. I've never heard of the students you mentioned missing, okay? Don't blame others randomly.

"When we got here, we found you fainted, Asuka. This man called himself a Shadow Duelist and took you as a hostage." Marufuji Sho said, "It was my Aniki who defeated him and saved you."

That's right.

Asuka's last memory before she was cut off was a bit connected. She stood up and bowed her lower body to Judai solemnly: "If this is true, I'm sorry to cause you trouble. And thank you."

"It's no big deal." Judai waved his hand generously, "We are all good friends, so we should help each other!"

Jonouchi's Behavior. JPG.

At this time, Titan saw that no one was paying attention to him, and the suspected Duel King seemed not to be nearby. He remained lying on the ground and crawled forward silently, as if he wanted to sneak away while no one was paying attention.

But suddenly, he stopped and howled "uhhhhhhh".

Several young people were shocked. Judai pointed at him and said, "Hey! Don't think we'll let you slip away just because you're pretending! I'm the best at pretending to be sick, so you can't fool me!"

This was not just an empty boast on his part. When Judai was a kid, every time he tried to skip class by pretending to be sick, he could deceive the school teachers but he could never deceive Yuei Vu.

Once he put a thermometer on a desk lamp to pretend to have a fever, but he accidentally applied too much force and the thermometer exploded. He almost got a fireman instead of an ambulance.

Brother, I think he is not pretending. Marufuji Sho swallowed and took a few steps back timidly.

Even Judai realized something was wrong at this time.

If you say this is pretending, then he is pretending too hard!

The surging dark material seemed to have emerged from the cracks in the ground, pouring into Titan's mouth, nose, and eyes without any explanation. Titan's whole body twitched and struggled violently, like a dead fish that had been washed ashore by the sea.

It may not be appropriate to say that he stood up, because he did not stand up by his own strength. Titan's joints twisted at a weird rate, and his whole body bounced off the ground like a spring. The eyes under the mask were filled with chaos.

Yuki Judai .

He said in a deep voice, raising a hand like a zombie.

The surging darkness rushed towards Judai and his friends.

The golden light tore through the space and cut the darkness in half. A bunch of golden afterimages flew out, half squatting on the ground, and the double blades crossed each other.

Masked HERO Koga!

Judai looked in the direction where Koga flew out, and couldn't help but said with joy on his face: "Yuei Principal Yuei Vu!"

Its so dangerous, my mouth almost slipped.

Chapter 746: What Else Is Good About This Man?

Seeing Yuei Vu's sudden appearance, Titan's movements paused for a moment, as if there was a brief hesitation.

His eyes were cloudy, in a state of chaos completely dominated by darkness. His facial muscles were also tense to a very unnatural degree, and his chin was covered with veins, showing no signs of sanity at all.

So its obvious. The person who hesitated was not Titan himself, and even his current actions were not controlled by his own will.

The one that has taken over this body now should be the owner of the darkness that just poured into Titan's body, but Yuei Vu was not yet able to determine the true identity of the other party.

He could only guess.

In the original animation, halfway through the duel between Judai and Titan in this abandoned dormitory, Titan's deceitful trick was discovered by Judai. At that time, he turned around and wanted to escape, but was invaded by a mass of darkness similar to now, and then became a puppet with strings pulled.

Yuei Vu has two possible guesses about the owner of this power.

First of all, the opponent may be the first BOSS in GX, one of the sponsors behind the Duel Academy, Chairman Kagemaru.

It was clearly explained in the plot of The Rise of Three Sacred Beasts arc that Titan, who was defeated in a duel with Yuki Judai and was about to be swallowed by darkness, met Chairman Kagemaru (or his subordinates) in the torrent of darkness.

The other party promised to rescue Titan from the darkness, but the price was that he must sign a contract with the devil and become one of the "Seven Stars" to work for Kagemaru.

It did not rule out the possibility that the person doing the trick here was Chairman Kagemaru. Yuei Vu knew that the old guy had not said anything for so many years, but in fact, he had been thinking about the power of the "Three Sacred Beasts" in his heart.

The first generation "Duelist Alliance" founded by Yuei Vu and President Kaiba defeated the three Sacred Beasts. Later, the outside world received news that the three Sacred Beasts were sealed in a specially set up sealing formation in the Duel Academy because the cards themselves were too evil.

This academy had the first-generation Duel King Yuei Vu personally in charge, and the seal here could indeed make the public feel at ease.

Since then, Chairman Kagamaru has been secretly thinking about the three Sacred Beasts. He was said to be suffering from old age and illness, and would have stopped breathing at any time if there wasn't a life-support capsule holding him. He dreamed about possessing the power of the three Sacred Beasts because it is rumored that the power of the three Sacred Beasts could return people to their youth and peak strength.

It was not impossible to say that Chairman Kagamaru has made arrangements in advance and wants to use Titan as his pawn to recapture the three Sacred Beasts.

Another possibility was Nightshroud, the villain in the final arc of "Yu-Gi-Oh GX".

This old school building was originally the entrance to the invasion that Nightshroud first found in the real world in animation, and it was the starting point of a series of events. It was rumored that the mysterious disappearance of those students was also due to Nightshroud.

At the beginning of Yuei Vu's time here, Nightshroud had tentatively bubbled up. It's just that his awakening was too weak at that time, and most of his strength was still in a sealed state. After he came out, he unfortunately encountered Atem, and he was beaten mercilessly and went back to doze off.

Now that all these years have passed and the GX main line is open, it's not surprising that this guy was starting to wake up.

But no matter who the other party was, it didn't mean to be polite. Waves of dark air burst out of Titan's body one after another, quickly covering his whole body, like a coat made of darkness!

Titan opened his mouth and let out a furious roar, but it was not his own voice, because no human had such a voice.

Koga. Yuei Vu said in a deep voice.

Masked HERO Koga flashed in front of Yuei Vu and the students. He stepped forward and slashed out with the sharp blade on his wrist. Titan pounced at the same moment, and it looked like he had taken the initiative to send his chest to Koga's blade!

The darkness surrounding his body was suddenly torn apart, as if jet-black blood was splashing uncontrollably in all directions, and Titan howled miserably and was knocked away on his back.

But Koga kept moving and quickly caught up with him, the golden stream of light dragging out a long strip of light behind him. He jumped into the air, his figure whirled, and his double blades cut a golden trajectory, as if the whole thing was wrapped into a spinning top!

Titan was hit continuously in mid-air. The darkness screamed sharply and twisted violently on the big man until it was completely defeated and no longer had any breath left.

Is it over? Asuka was surprised.

As expected of the legendary Duel King, he is so powerful!

How did Sho and Hayato ever see such a gorgeous scene like a Masked Hero beating someone with special effects? They were all stunned for a moment.

Oh oh oh! Koga is so handsome! Judais' focus was always on handsome heroes.

Titan was knocked to the ground. After rolling several times, he sat up again after a while, startling several students.

However, this guy seemed to have lost his memory and looked around blankly: "What's going on? Where am I?"

He couldn't even remember how he came to this island, and he couldn't keep up with the following events.

Damn it, isn't this Duel King Yuei Vu?

What the hell, why did Duel King pull out my deck?

What the hell, why did the Duel King take off my clothes?

Oh, fortunately, it turns out he just wanted the duel disk I'm wearing

Hang on, it seems there is still a problem!

At this moment, the noise they made in the restricted area finally attracted the attention of the school. Only then did the patrol team responsible for the daily security work of the college finally arrive.

Yuei Vu casually knocked out the confused Titan and then left the task of cleaning up the mess to these professionals.

There should be an interrogation after dragging this guy back to the academy, but Yuei Vu didn't expect any results from the interrogation.

After briefly explaining the situation to the patrol members, Yuei Vu then asked them to lead a group of students back to the dormitory.

On the way back, Yuei Vu deliberately fell at the end of the team. He turned his head at the stall when no one else was paying attention and asked, "So, what do you think?"

After a moment of silence, Yubel's shadow appeared out of thin air.

She crossed her arms and groaned: "It's just a small fry come from a who-know corner."

Do you really think so? Yuei Vu asked.

Yuber was silent for a long time.

Actually, she didn't really think so.

The darkness that just erupted from the Titan was not very powerful because of its low concentration, but Yubel could feel that the source of that darkness must be extraordinary.

It could make Yubel feel uneasy. Even if they were not an earth-shattering supervillain, they were at least a respectable figure.

But

Hmph, aren't you a Duel King? Aren't you very good at it? Yubel rolled his eyes at him, "I'll leave this little problem to you."

After saying that, she ignored Yuei Vu and immediately drifted away to chase Judai.

Hmph, why is Judai so happy every time he sees him?

Judai had never been so happy when he saw me appear!

Other than being a little handsome, having a few more spirits, being a little stronger, and playing cards a little better

What else is good about this man?

Yuei Vu: "?"

What happened to this tsundere? What did I say?

Can't understand the heart of a woman.

Outside Duel Academy, somewhere else.

A pair of eyes slowly opened in the darkness, their pupils filled with unspeakable darkness and evil thoughts.

He stood still in the darkness for a long time before talking to himself in a dull and solemn voice.

"Is Yuki Judai accompanied by such a troublesome figure as the Duel King?"

Chapter 747: Decide By Duel

"This is a serious problem! A disaster!"

Professor Chronos slapped his hand on the table in the conference room.

This was the conference room of the academy headquarters.

Last night, several students broke into the restricted area of the academy, an abandoned dormitory where student disappearances had occurred. This was a major event in the academy. After the news spread, it immediately attracted the attention of teachers and leaders.

Early in the morning, deans of various departments and school leaders gathered together and held a meeting to discuss the matter urgently.

Professor Chronos was the first and most excited teacher to express his opinion.

We have emphasized time and time again during admission that entry into the restricted area of the academy is prohibited! But these students still turn a deaf ear to it! Its too bad!

The way he yelled angrily looked more and more like a Pot of Greed.

"Drop out of school! They must drop out of school!"

He said "drop out of school" at every turn. In the early stages of the animation, the bad students in the Osiris Red dormitory were targeted once per episode, so that the professor even looked like a villain.

But after getting to know this person, Yuei Vu didn't dislike this teacher.

The world of duelists was a jungle where the weak became the prey of the strong. Even professional leagues that did not involve extraordinary power were very cruel to duelists without talent. Even a rising star like Ryo Marufuji, known as "Kaiser", has encountered the biggest setbacks in his life in the professional league.

Not to mention that if one day they have to engage in a Shadow Game, duelists with slightly inferior strength or psychological quality may even die.

So Chronos always thought about expelling poor students from school. No matter what the motivation was, it was not necessarily a bad thing for poor students.

"Don't say that, the students have already reflected on it. It's normal for young people to be ignorant sometimes." Principal Samejima smiled as always, "Who hasn't been young yet? If it was twenty years ago, maybe I do the same thing.

Chronos was anxious: "But"

"Of course, I didn't say just let it go." Principal Samejima waved his hand, "But this is a duel academy, isn't it? Using duels to solve problems is a fine tradition of our academy, and it is also what the founder of the academy hopes to see.

The Duel Academy did have such a tradition. Even when teachers and leaders had meetings, if they encountered issues that they could not resolve, they would occasionally take out the deck and use the Duel Disk to make the final decision.

Some people have also reported this issue to their superiors, saying that they feel that this model was not conducive to the academy making correct decisions.

The truth may indeed be true, but the person at the head of Duel Academy was none other than Seto Kaiba, the most card-addicted boy whom the world has never seen before or since.

Therefore, it was foreseeable that after hearing this, Kaiba not only did not stop this phenomenon but instead waved his hand and asked people to write the clause "Those who win can make decisions" directly into the school rules.

This was just great. From now on, as long as Duel King Yuei Vu spoke, there would be almost no one to speak against him.

It's just that since the establishment of the academy, Yuei Vu has rarely come to the island in person. At meetings, he usually only heard and rarely interfered in any major decisions.

Principal Samejima felt that perhaps Mr. Kaiba felt that the academy had his own Duel King sitting in charge, so he dared to boldly set such a seemingly outrageous rule. Because Yuei Vu was there, if someone made any outrageous decision, he (or she) would definitely not be able to pass Yuei Vu's test.

"Okay." Now that the principal had spoken, Professor Chronos had to make concessions, "Then I will arrange duelists to duel with these students.

But Mr. Principal, I would like to ask a duelist from outside the school to take charge of this test. Is that okay? "

Principal Samejima glanced at Yuei Vu and saw that he was silent and seemed to have no objection, so he nodded: "Okay."

Chronos was secretly happy.

Hehe, it would be great if we could invite duelists from outside the school. At worst, we can spend a lot of money to bring back those legendary duelists from back then to compete with the students. We won't have to worry about kicking out these annoying and disobedient students.

Just in case, he even confirmed: "Then, if the duel fails, the poor student will have to withdraw from the school. Is that okay?"

Principal Samejima was silent for a moment, thought for a second, and then said leisurely: "That Mr. Chronos. I heard that the student who proposed this idea this time is Yuki Judai."

"Yuki Judai?"

Chronos looked at Yuei Vu suddenly and said: "Mamma Mia! I don't know."

"Although Judai-san may not have excellent grades, his talent in dueling is obvious to all. I don't think he can be considered a bad student in this school." Principal Samejima smiled, "Even Mr. Chronos lost to him, didn't he? "

That's right, nanone. The professor felt unable to refute.

Tenjoin Asuka-san is also a good student with good moral character. Her appearance in the restricted area this time is also due to special personal reasons. Principal Samejima said.

I understand. Then, except for Judai-san and Asuka-san, the poor students will take the test.

Hearing this, Yuei Vu couldn't help but want to say

Hey guys, you kicked both Judai and Asuka in the thighs. Are you making it clear that you want Sho and Maeda to die?

Without their thighs, wouldn't these two poor students be easy targets?

It's pitiful to say that these two roommates were obviously instigated by Judai to violate school rules. As a result, Judai was very fine, but the two roommates faced expulsion from school.

Is it true that the young master with a background can do whatever he wants?

In this case, wouldn't he become an evil force using the back door?

Yuei Vu was about to express his dissent when a familiar and cold voice suddenly sounded.

"I said that the affairs of Duel Academy need to be determined by strength, which means that everyone must be treated equally."

The sound came from the big screen at the end of the conference room. Everyone followed the sound, only to see President Kaiba appear on the screen at some point, with a hard face and a cold expression.

Everyone could not help but gasp.

The legendary duelist and one of the founders behind the academy, Seto Kaiba!

At this time, he suddenly appeared and ignored everyone else in the conference room. He stared directly at Yuei Vu at the other end of the table, and his meaning was clearly conveyed.

That's right, I, Kaiba, am targeting you, YueiVu!

Is it Yuki Judai? Kaiba said coldly, I heard that he performed very well in the entrance exam, right? That's interesting. This student must take the test and must be the strongest opponent.

If he fails to pass, he does not need to continue to stay in the academy. "

While speaking, he stared at Yuei Vu unblinkingly.

Yuei Vu couldn't help but be speechless.

President, how long have you been diving behind the surveillance camera to listen to our meetings? Why do you have so much free time?

In the original animation, I didn't see you being so concerned about the study and living conditions of Judai. How can our Judai be so important that the president has to personally arrange his test?

The conference room was eerily silent for a moment. All the leaders, all the professors, even Principal Samejima didn't even dare to show off.

Just kidding, these two great gods are clashing, and everyone is too late to hide. Who dares to speak at this kind of moment?

The fight between gods would bring disaster to humans. If one of the two is offended, they may not be able to survive in the academy or even in the entire dueling world.

The smell of gunpowder gradually became stronger in the air, as if a divine war was about to break out.

"Okay." Yuei Vu slowly broke the deadlock, "I don't have any objections."

Anyway, even if Kaiba didn't show up to make things worse, he originally planned to let Judai participate in this assessment.

"Snort."

Seeing that Yuei Vu didn't argue with him, Kaiba seemed to find it boring. He snorted and disconnected the image, disappearing behind the screen.

The leaders in the conference room were relieved. Chronos even took out his handkerchief and wiped the fine beads of sweat on his forehead.

It's so risky, so risky, I thought I was going to be fired, nanone.

Chapter 748: Attracting Attention

"Something bad is going to happen!"

During the break, Judai was lying on the lawn outside the school with his legs crossed, taking a nap in the sun. He heard the shout of his junior brother Marufuji Sho from a distance.

Judai sat up: "What's wrong Sho?"

Sho was running out of breath, his face flushed and he was breathing heavily for a long time before he said intermittently: "I just heard rumors dropped out of school!"

He yelled and made exaggerated gestures, but Judai was still confused after listening for a long time.

"What's going on? Why did you drop out of school? Sho, please speak slowly"

Is it about the punishment for trespassing in the dormitory?

A clear and sweet voice came from behind. The two turned around and found Asuka walking from a short distance away.

"Yes that's right." Sho finally caught his breath, and at the same time, his mind turned around and he seemed to have thought of something else, "Hey, Asuka-san seems to be around us a lot lately"

Asuka was startled: "What are you talking about? It's just a coincidence."

Hmm, its just a coincidence. Its just a coincidence. The girl told herself the same thing in her heart. It cant be that she intentionally hangs around a specific person, right?

Judai asked: "What punishment are you talking about, and what is the situation?"

"It's about us breaking into the restricted area!" Marufuji Sho looked horrified. "It is clearly stated in the school rules that breaking into the restricted area without permission is a serious violation of discipline! If it is serious, you may be directly expelled from the school!"

"I heard that the academy seems to be planning to arrange a duel for us to decide the final punishment." Asuka said, "The specific form has not yet been decided"

"What, it's just a duel." Judai lay down comfortably on the lawn with a nonchalant look on his face, "Then just deal with it with a normal mind."

Asuka stopped talking and said softly: "I'm sorry, it's all because of my problems that caused you"

No matter what the reason was, after all, Asuka broke into the restricted area first, and it was her inadvertence that got into the enemy's path first. If Judai hadn't dueled with that person in order to save her, he wouldn't have attracted unnecessary attention

"What are you talking about?" Judai tilted his head in confusion, "We are the ones who decided to explore the dormitory. It has nothing to do with Asuka, right?"

Asuka pondered for a moment and asked softly: "Then Judai, if you are expelled from school because of this won't you blame me?"

"How could be?"

Judai waved his hands and continued to lie leisurely and bask in the sun, like an old salted fish on the coast.

As long as you can duel happily, everything else doesnt matter! Dont be burdened, Asuka, lets do our best together when the duel test comes!

Judai has always hated spending extra brain cells thinking about things other than dueling. Things had already happened, and it was too troublesome to divide the responsibility among whom, and he was too lazy to waste his brain cells.

Asuka didnt speak anymore, only smiled slightly.

Yuki Judai was a kind and interesting person.

What they didnt know was that at the same time, someone was looking at Yuki Judai who was lying on the lawn in the window of the teaching building.

That was the rising star among the students of the academy, and everyone was sure of it.

Manjome Jun leaned against the window and stared at Judai attentively for a long time. Then he couldn't help but twitch the corner of his mouth, and two big words appeared in his mind

That's it?

His mentor Kaiba Seto told him that the jellyfish head below was secretly the apprentice of the Duel King Yuei Vu himself, and was Manjome Jun's one and only opponent in this academy.

The order given to him by his mentor was that he must defeat the jellyfish head no matter what. Failure is unacceptable!

Manjome Jun also had great admiration for the duel king who controlled the hero. At first, he was extremely wary of this opponent who was known as the "student of the duel king".

But as he continued to observe Judai every day after entering school, what did he see?

The boy dozed off in class, neglected his homework, and whenever he had free time, he lay on the lawn and basked in the sun like a retired old man

Do you really think you are the protagonist of a novel who can break through and level up just by lying still?

Manjome Jun felt unhappy, very unhappy.

Why can such a person be his opponent?

Like this kind of salted fish, he could kill ten of them at once!

Brother, you've been staring at that Osiris Red student for a long time. A younger brother next to him asked weakly, Is there anything special about that kid that deserves Big Brothers attention?

"What what?" Manjome Jun suddenly came back to his senses and quickly retracted his gaze, "What a shame! When did I pay attention to this kind of thing? I was just just looking at the scenery!"

"oh"

That little brother shut up obediently.

Whatever the big brother says is whatever it is.JPG

However, he couldn't help but glance out the window at Judai lying on the lawn.

No matter how you look at it, it feels like he is just a lazy and poor student who doesn't work hard. Why is Brother Manjome Jun so concerned about it?

The Kaiba Corp's helicopter landed on the helipad of the Duel Academy Island at close to two o'clock in the afternoon. Yuei Vu left the island on this flight and flew to Domino.

The matter of Titan attracted his attention. The person behind the scenes who gave him the instructions, and the darkness that eroded Titan's body Yuei Vu speculated that they might be the same person, and that guy had attracted Yuei Vu's attention.

Like Yubel, Yuei Vu also sensed the power of the dark force. The person behind the scenes was definitely not an ordinary character.

The plane landed on the top floor of Kaiba Corp. When Yuei Vu got off the plane, Mokuba Kaiba was already waiting on the roof.

Over the years, Mokubai's height has become slightly taller, and he looked more like the head of a company in a white suit.

The precocious Mokuba has been able to help his brother handle many of the group's businesses since he was in elementary school. Over the years, he has become one of the actual helmsmen of the behemoth Kaiba Corp

But he still always behaved like a child in front of Yuei Vu.

"Brother Yuei Vu!" Mokuba stepped forward, "My brother is not in the company for the time being" I know. Yuei Vu nodded. "I just picked this moment because I knew."

"That's right." Mokuba smiled slightly, "If my brother was here, he would definitely pester you for a duel or something Yugi has been busy outside for a long time, and he has been thinking about you these days. Im sure he is looking for a duel with you.

I heard that he has acquired a few new cards recently, and the deck's combat power has greatly increased. He can't help but want to find a worthy opponent to prove his strength."

Yuei Vu felt dizzy after hearing the news, knowing that sooner or later he would probably be unable to escape a card game

Where is the news I asked you to check? Yuei Vu asked.

"About that Titan? We checked all the information about this person in detail."

As he walked, Mokuba handed the tablet computer showing Titan's file to Yuei Vu's hand.

His resume is very clear. He is a duelist who disguises himself under the cover of a Shadow Duelist. His dueling skills are not bad, but his reputation is very bad, and he can only fool some people who dont know about the supernatural world.

He has never received any decent orders. They are just small jobs and there is nothing suspicious about them. "

What about his last employer?

Mokuba shook his head: "We couldn't find any clues. Last night, we sent the best agents of the Kaiba Corp to investigate, but the other party was very careful and did not leave any traceable traces This employer is very important?"

"Perhaps." Yuei Vu said, "Titan mentioned a name. He told me that the employer had someone he was specifically looking for in the Duel Academy Yuki Judai."

"Brother Yuei Vu, your student?" Mokuba smiled, "Then this is a really ignorant guy. He has found the wrong person."

Yuei Vu was noncommittal and asked: "Then the other person I asked you to check?"

Chairman Kagemaru? This person is also quite interesting.

"How to say?"

Mokuba took the tablet from his hand, flipped it twice, and pulled up a new piece of information.

About Chairman Kagamaru it seems like no one has seen him for several months.

Chapter 749: Kagamaru

"Chairman Kagamaru is missing?" Yuei Vu frowned.

"It can't be considered missing." Mokuba shook his head, "But it's true that he hasn't appeared in front of anyone for a long time.

Brother Yuei Vu, after you asked me to check for information about Kagamaru, I also specially used the spies placed in his company to inquire about the information"

"We still have spies in Kagamaru's company?"

"Of course." Mokuba nodded, "Because for some time, Kagamaru's company developed really well and posed a real threat to our Kaiba Corp. Of course, that was before, and now they are going downhill. That company may soon be out of business but that's a tangent. In short, according to the reports of our spies, even the people closest to Kagamaru have not seen him during this period. "

"Perhaps he decided to put aside all worldly affairs and enjoy his old age?" Yuei Vu said.

"That doesn't sound like Kagamaru." Mokuba said, "This old guy is over a hundred years old, and it is said that his body and mind are far from allowing him to carry the company's banner.

But this old guy is terribly obsessed with power. Even now, he still has the absolute say in all matters, big and small. "

"But he can't give orders if he doesn't show up." Yuei Vu browsed Kagamaru's career resume on his tablet.

"It's inconvenient. However, he has always participated in the company's meetings via remote video and made decisions. However some people say that his behavior has changed dramatically recently."

"Behavior?"

"Yeah." Mokuba nodded, "Sometimes his speeches in meetings and some of the decisions he made are completely different from the previous one. It feels like he has changed into a different man.

However, the senior management of the board of directors thinks that he is simply old and confused, and they are now planning to kick this old guy out. "

Yuei Vu stared at the last appearance of Chairman Kagamaru on the tablet screen in his hand a waning old man, wearing a black suit and tie, trying to straighten his waist under the spotlight of the rostrum, trying to look energetic, but unable to conceal the traces of the ravages of time.

"So I guess it's not that easy to make an appointment to meet this old gentleman?" Yuei Vu asked.

"Indeed." Mokuba smiled mysteriously, "But don't underestimate me. Although our spies couldn't find any more information, I hacked into the server of Kagamaru's company and found the location where Kagamaru may be living now."

He took the tablet from Yuei Vu and quickly pulled up a map.

It was the center of a vast ocean, a completely isolated island.

"Kagemaru has hidden a private health center on the island." Mokuba said, "There is a high probability that he is hiding in this."

Yuei Vu couldn't help but sigh: Mokuba is really useful!

You might not be able to collect so much information in a lifetime using conventional channels, but Mokuba just made a few phone calls, and then probably used the dessert time to hack into a group server, and a large amount of information immediately surfaced.

"Do you need me to arrange a flight for you, Brother Yuei Vu?" Mokuba asked.

"Okay, just for today, I want to go to that island for a walk." Yuei Vu nodded, "Thank you, Mokuba."

"You're welcome, Brother Yuei Vu." Mokuba showed a bright smile, "I'm very happy to be able to help you. If you come back early, send me a message. I'll wait for you to have dinner together."

"I will." Yuei Vu waved his hand and said goodbye to him.

Taking off from the top of Kaiba Corp, it didn't take long for Yuei Vu to find the island marked by Mokuba.

To avoid attracting too much attention, Yuei Vu did not let the plane land. He only told the pilot to come back to pick him up in an hour and then jumped directly from the plane.

Unlike islands like Duel Academy which have been artificially developed, there were not many artificial traces found in most areas of this island.

This island has intoxicating and beautiful natural scenery, with towering ancient trees and shrubs weaving a huge mountain maze. The huge mountain wall blocked most of the sunlight, and only a trace of the setting sun was revealed behind the cliff, which shone on the flawless green lawn.

A strong and ominous atmosphere enveloped the island. Yuei Vu couldn't feel any breath from this island neither human nor animal.

He instinctively felt that Chairman Kagemaru was trapped in some kind of fog. The fog grew thicker and heavier as he got closer, burying the truth deep beneath.

Yuei Vu found the sanatorium that Mokuba mentioned. This was indeed a luxurious building with a beautiful appearance and luxurious and complete facilities.

But what surprised him was that there was not even a single person standing guard outside the building. There were no doormen, no security guards, or even handymen.

This caused Yuei Vu's "infiltration plan" to go bankrupt before it could be implemented after all, someone must be guarding it before it can be considered an infiltration, right?

As a result, he kicked the door open and entered through the main entrance smoothly without encountering any obstacles.

The hall was equally empty. Yuei Vu once wondered if Mokuba had guessed wrong. In fact, this nursing home was simply idle and no one was living in it.

But there was a light on the ceiling of the hall. The crystal chandelier pours out dazzling light without reservation. It rotates slowly, and the gorgeous and dazzling light changes with the different rotation angles.

He knew that the old man Kagamaru was very rich, but even so, he probably wouldn't be able to energize the buildings on this isolated island all year round, right?

The average person would be in such a depressing and weird atmosphere, and they might become intimidated in less than a minute and simply not be able to stay any longer. But Yuei Vu didn't.

The worst thing was just he had to play cards. Anyway, there are not many people who could make him intimidated by card games now. It didn't matter what was waiting inside, just recklessly went in and was done with it.

So when he walked through several corridors and opened several doors, he finally found something behind one of the doors.

It was a dark room with no windows. The floor and surrounding walls looked like they were made of metal, cold and hard.

In the center of the room was a machine, a robot modeled after a reptilian structure. It lay prone on the ground, carrying a transparent glass survival capsule on its back. Some unknown liquid filled the glass cabin, and there was a vague figure in it.

Yuei Vu has seen this device. In the Rise of Three Sacred Beast arc of the GX animation, Chairman Kagamaru hid in this device when he appeared.

Kagamaru was an old man who was over 100 years old and was terminally ill. This life-support capsule directly extended his lifespan. Away from this thing, he was like a fish thrown onto the shore and would be dried in a moment.

"I guess you are Chairman Kagamaru?" Yuei Vu spoke first.

Due to the poor light and the obstruction of the liquid in the life-saving cabin, Yuei Vu couldn't see the appearance of the person behind the glass. But he was 90% sure that this was the person he was looking for.

"Duel King." Kagamaru's heavy and hoarse voice came from under the life support cabin, "I'm waiting for you."

"I don't remember having an appointment."

"But I know it's inevitable that you and I will meet," Kagamaru said.

"Let me guess, does this have something to do with the fact that you sent people to the Duel Academy to find my students?"

Kagamaru was silent for a moment and did not answer the question.

Then the robot carrying the life-saving capsule raised an arm, and the duel disk on the mechanical arm opened.

"Do you dare to accept my challenge?"

Chapter 750: The Blazing Mars!

"Duel!" x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Kagemaru, LP 4000

The one who would make the first move was Yuei Vu.

Compared to other characters in the anime, Yuei Vu's knowledge of Chairman Kagemaru's duel style was relatively lacking. In the anime, Chairman Kagemaru, who was a stage boss, has only played one game of cards in total, and he used a Sacred Beast deck.

Chairman Kagemaru, who controlled the three Sacred Beasts in that duel, might theoretically be stronger than Yuki Judai at that time. Judai himself said in the subsequent plot that if it weren't for the divine card "Sabatiel The Philosopher's Stone" entrusted to him by Daitokuji, it would be difficult for him to win that duel.

The Philosopher's Stone was the ultimate creation of alchemy in the anime. This card could "change" into any three cards according to the duelist's will, and there was not even a limit of once per turn. And after the effect is used up three times, it could also be equipped on one's own monsters. The equipped monster's attack power would be multiplied by the number of monsters on the opponent's field.

The effect of this card was extremely outrageous. Compared with this kind of absurdly OP weapon, the three Sacred Beasts were simply trash.

Being instantly killed by such a fake card did not mean that Kagemaru was not strong enough. Judging from the memories of his subordinates "Seven Stars", Chairman Kagemaru seemed to be a strong man with a transcendent status.

After all, he could recruit vampires, Amazon warriors, top alchemists, and even a certain generation of ancient Egyptian pharaohs to serve as his subordinates. His strength should also be among the top among the Shadow Duelists.

So although he still didn't directly take out the HERO series this time, Yuei Vu also chose a series with good combat power in his hand.

A high-end deck that has also won the championship in the past.

"The effect of the Swap Frog' in my hand is activated." Yuei Vu said, "This card can be directly special summoned from the hand by discarding 1 other WATER monster.

I discarded Ronintoadin' to the graveyard and Special Summoned the Swap Frog!"

[Swap Frog, ATK 1000]

"Is it a Frog deck?"

Kagemaru's dull voice came from the life-support cabin. Not sure if it was an illusion, but Yuei Vu felt that his vision had become sharper.

"Do you think I'm not worthy of your all-out efforts? Such an attitude will make you pay the price." Kagemaru said.

"Whatever you say." Yuei Vu said.

Because Kagamaru in the anime only played once with the Sacred Beast deck, Yuei Vu had no clue as to what deck and tactics he used before acquiring the Three Sacred Beasts.

He could only take one step at a time.

"Another effect of Swap Frog' is that when it is successfully summoned, I can send 1 Level 2 or lower WATER Aqua monster from my Deck or face-up field to the GY."

A card automatically popped up in the deck, and he pulled it out and displayed it.

"I send Treeborn Frog' from the deck to the graveyard."

Yuei Vu then took another card from his hand.

"Use the Swap Frog' on the field as a sacrifice, Tribute Summon! The Emperor of Heat

Thestalos the Firestorm Monarch! ! ! "

The frog's body was swallowed up by the firestorm, decomposing and dissipating from the field. The emperor in fiery red armor stepped onto the field, his armor burned red, and his palms trailed bright and dancing firelight.

[Thestalos the Firestorm Monarch, ATK 2400]

"If Thestalos is Tribute Summoned: Discard 1 random card from the opponent's hand."

Kagamaru said nothing but controlled his mechanical arm to lift the five cards in his hand.

"Just the one in the middle."

The image of the card flipped over, revealing the monster card "Zoa". Kagamaru's robotic arm silently discarded the card into the graveyard zone of the duel disk.

"If the card Thestalos discarded is a monster card, he will inflict damage to the opponent equal to its original Level x 100. The level of Zoa' is 7, so it will deal 700 points of damage."

The hot beam of light burst out from under the mechanical device, violently impacting the device. Kagamaru's figure shook violently in the life-support cabin, and bubbles of various sizes rose up under the glass.

Kagamaru, LP 4000 LP 3300

"I end my turn."

"Then it's my turn, draw."

The mechanical arm drew a card from the deck that bulky and heavy metal arm was more flexible than it looked.

The vaguely imaged eyes in the life-support cabin turned, and their eyes glanced from the hand held by the mechanical arm. Then his nerve-command arm picked one of the cards.

"The first is the Spell Card Take Over 5', which sends five cards from the top of the deck to the graveyard."

The five cards in his deck popped out one after another and were absorbed by the duel disk into the graveyard.

"Then there is the Quick-Play Spell 'Hand Destruction'. Players from both sides send two cards from their hands to the graveyard, and then draw two cards."

Piling a large amount of resources into the graveyard in one go, Kagamaru took the cards sent to the graveyard into his eyes one after another, and his eyes gradually became colder.

"Looks like you're in luck, this guy is eager to say hi to you."

The mechanical arm drew another card from the hand.

"Then come here! I will remove the three monster cards in the graveyard from the game!"

Three monster cards that were thrown to the graveyard by magic effects popped up one after another, flashed in front of Yuei Vu, and then disappeared from the duel.

"Wrapped in endless flames, descending from the other side of deep space

The Blazing Mars! ! ! "

Yuei Vu must admit that he was indeed shocked for a moment.

Does he actually have a card from the Legendary Planet series?

It was like a spark descending from the sky with a burning trajectory, turning into a meteorite and hitting the earth. The flames exploded in a radiating pattern, and the red-hot ball gradually stretched out from the deep pit and began to deform.

That's the head of a dragon!

Hidden under the rock-red shell that opened like a bud was a golden head, which let out an arrogant and low roar. The top of the dragon's head was fused with a warrior with strong armor, like a knight controlling the dragon.

The Legendary Planet series was designed based on the nine major planets in the solar system (the series was designed when Pluto was still a planet) plus the sun. Among them, the one corresponding to Mars was this card!

Yuei Vu also had one card in this series. That was "The Grand Jupiter" that the store manager had used in the duel with him before. It had been transferred to Yuei Vu after the store manager took the money to travel around the world.

Not to mention the monster effects and actual combat value, the power of Legendary Planet monsters was beyond the reach of most duel monster spirits. Just the aura of its appearance and the suppressive power that a pure three-dimensional image could not match was enough to make duelists with weak psychological endurance lose the idea of resisting.

The card corresponding to "Earth" in the Legendary Planet series even also belonged to the HERO series Elemental HERO Terra Firma.

[The Blazing Mars, ATK 2600]

"Interesting." Yuei Vu said, "Is Mars in the Legendary Planet series actually in the hands of Chairman Kagamaru?"

"Spell Card Pot of Greed! Draws two cards from the deck. Then I normal summon Eva' from my hand in attack position."

[Eva, ATK 500]

"The effect of The Blazing Mars is activated." Kagemaru said, "Send 1 other monster on my field to the graveyard and inflict 500 points of damage to the opponent." (manga effect)

The mechanical arm pointed at the monster that had just appeared on the field.

"I send the Eva' to the graveyard and give 500 points of damage to you."

A small alien-shaped creature was loaded into Mars' body and turned into ammunition. The arm of the knight standing above the dragon fell down, and a burning fireball erupted from the dragon's mouth, hitting Yuei Vu head-on.

[Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3500]

"The effect of Eva' If this card is sent to the GY: I can banish up to 2 other LIGHT Fairy monsters from your field and/or GY; add the same number of Level 2 or lower LIGHT Fairy monsters with different names from my Deck to my hand, except Eva'."

Another card pops up in Kagemaru's Duel Disk graveyard.

"I removed Gellenduo' from the game, and added Watapon' from the deck to my hand."

Yuei Vu said: "The effect of Watapons is"

"That's right, when Watapon' is added to the hand from the deck through a card effect, it can be Special Summoned directly."

[Watapon, ATK 200]

"At this moment, activate the Quick-Play Spell Inferno Reckless Summon'." Kagemaru said, "When a monster with an attack power of less than 1500 is Special Summoned to my field, I can Special Summon as many cards with the same name as that monster.

However, as a price, the opponent can also select a monster on their field and special summon as many monsters with the same name as possible. "

"There is only one Thestalos the Firestorm Monarch' in my deck." Yuei Vu said.

If there was no card with the same name, there would naturally be nothing that could be Special Summoned.

"Then I special summon the other two Watapons'."

[Watapon, ATK 200] x3

"The effect of The Blazing Mars' is activated again." Kagemaru said solemnly, "Send a monster on my field to the graveyard, inflicting 500 points of damage to the opponent.

Furthermore, there is no limit to the number of times this effect can be activated in one turn."

He waved his hand, more accurately, his mechanical hand. The metal arm made a soft friction sound from its joints as it danced.

"I sent all three Watapons' to the graveyard and fired them with The Blazing Mars'!"

New ammunition was refilled, and the hot shells came one after another, exploding in front of Yuei Vu.

Yuei Vu, LP 3500 LP 2000

"Let's fight next." Kagamaru continued, "The Blazing Mars, attack Thestalos the Firestorm Monarch!"

Although they were both emperors who controlled fire, compared to Mars, Thestalos' power was obviously slightly inferior. The erupting fire dragon tore the red-hot armor into pieces and penetrated through Thestalos' chest and abdomen, leaving a scorched black hole.

Yuei Vu, LP 2000 LP 1800

After losing more than half of his LP in one breath, Yuei Vu took half a step back, but the corners of his mouth rose slightly.

"You are not bad."
