

I Play Yu-Gi 791

Chapter 791: That Was A Fun Duel

Yuki Judai, who was more or less the center of the crisis, was happily immersed in the "friendly match" with the representative student of the North Academy, and was completely unaware of what was happening on the other side of the island.

Naturally, there was no surprise in the outcome of the duel.

The quality of students at North Academy was far inferior to that of the main branch. In the original work, Manjome wandered on a boat to the North Academy. He didn't even have a secondary deck at the beginning, just relied on cards picked up from all over the island to piece together a deck. In the end, he defeated all the opponents in the Academy and became the big brother of the North Academy.

It could be seen that the quality of students was an important factor that made North Academy unable to beat the main branch every year in the fraternity competition.

However, such a frustrating duel seemed to be unprecedented.

"Gotcha!" Judai was very happy, "That was a fun Duel!"

The whole place burst into cheers, and the applause and shouts of the students were like shaking the roof.

Even the defeated representative from the North Academy was so excited that his eyes filled with tears. The strong-backed man burst into tears as if to say that he had never experienced such a unique and exciting duel in his life!

This was the charm of dueling, both the duelists and the audience could enjoy the supreme entertainment!

The reporters of the school newspaper used their cameras to capture this exciting moment especially the happy smiles of Judai and the moved tears from the North Representative. There was no doubt that these photos would become the headlines of the school newspaper tomorrow, and this moment would be a testament to the friendship between the main branch and the northern branch.

Some reporters quickly rushed forward to interview the two players involved.

"Happy, in short, very happy!" Judai said happily, "Dueling is the best!"

North Representative: "I'm telling you, what you are doing is not a duel at all! Do you have any competitive spirit? Do you dare to let me summon a monster?"

You may be happy, but you can't base your happiness on the pain of others!

I will never play cards with you shameless students of this damned school again"

The reporter promptly terminated the interview and turned to the camera with a smile: "Student representatives from both sides are very satisfied with this exchange match. Duel is not only a competitive event, but also a way for duelists to communicate with each other, understand each other, and become friends. I believe that after this duel, the friendship between teachers and students of both academies will become more unbreakable

Now let us interview the opinions of the principals of both parties. "

Principal Samejima was as calm as a spring breeze. He held a small comb and pointed at his head in front of a small round mirror for a long time. It looked like he was arranging his hair but there was nothing to do with his shiny and reflective forehead.

Samejima happily faced the camera: "Satisfied, very satisfied! Our student performed very well in this exchange competition, which enhanced the friendship between the two schools"

Principal Ichinose shouted off-camera: "Bullshit!"

Samejima didn't seem to hear: "Judai also showed his style as a student of our Academy. He handed over a perfect answer sheet to all the teachers and students in the school, showing his excellent qualities as a duelist"

Outside the camera, Principal Ichinose continued to roar: "Bah! That's not called a duel at all! Do you dare to decide the outcome openly and fairly? Hiding behind endless traps is the behavior of a third-rate duelist ..

On the other side of the world, a certain Duel King Muto Yugi who was on a flight sneezed suddenly and rubbed his nose in confusion: "Did I catch a cold last night?"

As usual, the reward for the winner of the exchange competition was that the victorious principal received a kiss from Tome-san.

To show her importance, Tome-san even put on the Dark Magician Girl COSPLAY uniform she wore when she entered school again. The damaged seam on the back of the uniform has been mended at the moment, but looking at the tight look, it seemed that it may be overwhelmed again at any time

"MUA~!"

Tome-san pressed hard on Mr. Principal's face with a look of admiration: "As expected of Mr. Samejima, it's you who wins again!"

Principal Samejima held her hand: "No, this is thanks to the outstanding and strong young people in our school."

Tome-san: "That's because Mr. Principal teaches well!"

Principal Samejima: "I wouldn't have been able to do it without your logistical support over the years, Tome!"

"Mr. Principal!"

"Tome!"

""

The two looked at each other affectionately, and Principal Ichinose was so angry that he scratched his head next to him. Originally there were only a few hairs left on the top of the head, but now it was closer to Principal Samejima's hairstyle.

It was said that green was the color of health, so Principal Ichinose's current expression may be proof of health.

Look at the color of his entire face, and look at his forehead. He was already healthy

After dealing with the little mice that sneaked into the island, when Yuei Vu returned to the stadium, the two principals happened to be leading their respective students to say goodbye.

Seeing Tome-san wearing a COS uniform, Yuei Vu's Dark Magician Girl couldn't help but fly out and float next to Yuei Vu.

"Master, master, why does she dress like me?"

Yuei Vu glanced at her and smiled: "Because the students are all fond of you."

"Fond of me?"

The girl pressed her soft lips with her little hand, and tilted her head, and her bright blond hair fell from the magic hat.

"But it seems like we haven't met before, right?"

Never met before? How big a deal is that?

You don't know, as long as the artwork is cute enough, they can even marry the girl behind the screen

"By the way, next time the school festival is held, would you like to come out and take a tour?" Yuei Vu thought of something.

"Can it be okay?" The Dark Magician Girl blinked.

"Sure, if you're interested."

"Okay, okay!" The girl looked forward to it very much.

She was full of active cells. It didn't matter to her what she did when she went out, she just liked the excitement.

Here and now, somewhere else.

A man opened his eyes in the darkness, his expression quite ugly.

That was Tragoedia's current host.

A few minutes ago, he had just lost contact with his clone on the Duel Academy island. The failure of the Shadow Game not only eliminated the part of the power he attached to the hired spy, but also made him feel very uncomfortable.

But that's not his focus right now.

That Duel King named Yuei Vu what's going on?

How did he know what happened three thousand years ago and his shameful experience of being sealed by the guardian priest?

Could it be that he is the reincarnation of a certain priest or Pharaoh?

It doesn't look like it either!

"Duel King" Tragoedia narrowed his eyes.

He realized he might have been a little over-inflated.

He also needed more intelligence and better preparations.

Chapter 792: Have A Meal Together

The Boeing plane with the logo of Kaiba Company pierced the sea of clouds and slowly lowered its altitude. It returned to the embrace of the earth along its established trajectory and stopped after a long slide.

"Ladies and gentlemen, this plane has come to a complete stop. Please get off the plane through the rear gate. Thank you"

The announcement rang, and passengers filed out of the cabin and entered the terminal along the long corridor bridge.

"Please show your documents." said the customs lady.

It was a girl with dark brown hair and a friendly smile.

The young man put the trolley suitcase upright in front of him, took out his passport from the inner pocket of his dark blue jacket, and handed it over.

The girl took the passport and opened it casually and said, "Thank you Just came back from the United States?"

"Well, some work is being handled over there."

"American-born Japanese?"

"No, I'm native."

The girl opened the ID and was stunned the first time she scanned the name column.

She looked up with a startled expression. Only then did she notice the young man's unique and colorful starfish-style hairstyle and the gold inverted triangle pendant hanging on his chest shone in the sunlight projected into the airport hall.

Her breathing almost stopped: "Muto Mr. Yugi?"

"Yes."

Muto Yugi showed a warm smile.

"You are back?" When the girl asked this question, she realized that it was so obvious that it was almost funny.

So she went on to say: "I'm a fan of yours, and I've been following your duels but it seems like you haven't done anything with anyone in public for a long time.

Some people say that you have withdrawn from the circle and no longer fight with others. Is this true? "

"It's just that I have been busy with other things." Yugi lowered his eyelids, making it difficult to see what he was thinking.

"Oh oh."

The girl handed the passport back to him.

"That's all right, thank you. I wish you a happy stay in your hometown."

When Yugi took back his passport and was about to leave, she hesitated for a moment but couldn't help but said: "I look forward to seeing you on the field again, Mr. Yugi."

Yugi paused for a moment, didn't say anything, and quickly left with his suitcase.

Not long after leaving the airport, the smart Duel Disk he carried with him sounded a chat text message prompt.

It was a message from Jonouchi.

"Yugi! I heard that you have finished your work?"

"Well, I just got off the plane," Yugi replied.

"Great. Would you like to have dinner together tonight?"

"Okay." Yugi thought for a while and smiled, "Bring Sister Mai with you, we haven't seen each other for a long time."

"Haha, okay. Let me tell you, Mai is getting more and more bad-tempered now. Last week, I gave her lipstick on a whim, but she seemed very angry and asked me if the color was because of the eyeshadow sequins that came off the lipstick. "

Yugi:""

For some reason, he felt as if he could completely imagine that scene

Yugi changed the subject: "By the way, I heard that you have opened a hot pot restaurant now?"

After all, Jonouchi was also an ancestor-level "legendary duelist". Not only did he have excellent strength and numerous honors, but he also had the title of "Friend of the First Duel King Muto Yugi". His current status could be imagined.

These were all normal. What's even more amazing was that he was also the well-known "God of Dice" in the duel world, and was synonymous with the goddess of fortune. Some business tycoons and dignitaries even liked to invite Jonouchi to endorse some projects and products. They seemed to think that in this way they could share the lucky aura of the legendary God of Gamblers

"Yeah, it just opened."

At this point, Jonouchi became resentful again.

"Damn Kaiba, that soulless guy. He actually made a special trip to ridicule me on the opening day. It's so irritating!"

"Haha." Yugi replied, "But thanks to Kaiba, it also brought a lot of traffic on the opening day, right?"

"That's true. In this way, I still own that bastard"

It seemed that Kaiba "accidentally" mentioned this matter in an interview two days before Jonouchi's restaurant opened for business, and said in a very contemptuous tone that even a horse bone could open a shop these days

So because of the president's words, Jonouchi received a large number of customers who came here on the first day of its opening.

President Kaiba was like this, stinky and awkward. He had a disdainful attitude towards Yugi and his friends. Especially when it came to Jonouchi, each of his sentences must have at least one "horse bone". His acting was just like the real thing. People who didn't know better may think that the person he looked down upon the most was Jonouchi.

However, in fact, over the years, President Kaiba, whose actual power status in the city of Domino has surpassed that of the mayor, has taken care of Yugi and his friends in many aspects. After all, they were all partners who had experienced life and death together.

Of course, if you asked Kaiba face to face, he obviously wouldn't admit it. This was too hard for a tsundere.

"By the way, where is Honda? Is he in the city?" Yugi asked.

"It doesn't seem like he's here. Last week he said he was going to go out of town to do some work. That kid inherited the family factory and is very busy now"

"That's it." Yugi thought for a moment, "Then Yuei Vu seems to be still here. Maybe invite him to join you tonight?"

"Yuei Vu, I don't know about this. How about we ask?"

Jonouchi quickly found Yuei Vu from his contacts, and the three of them established a temporary discussion group.

"Have a meal? Of course, it will be!"

After figuring out the situation, Yuei Vu didn't hesitate.

"That's great, then come to my store!" Jonouchi said with a smile, "I'll treat you this time!"

"That might not work." Yuei Vu replied, "I've been a little busy recently and can't get away from Duel Academy."

"Eh? Yuei Vu is a teacher at Duel Academy? That's awesome." Yugi made an admiring expression.

Yuei Vu quickly replied to the message: "How about you guys come to the island together? There is also a pretty good restaurant here in the college. This time I'm treating you, and the travel expenses are also mine."

"Okay, then you have to be prepared." Jonouchi said, "Uncle Jonouchi who lets his belly go wild is very strong!"

"Don't worry, I won't be short of money." Yuei Vu was very generous.

"Duel Academy I've always wanted to visit it too." Yugi replied, "Then it's settled. I'll meet with Jonouchi today, and then I'll go to your place tomorrow."

"Okay, then I'll wait."

After Yuei Vu sent the last message, he heard Judai yelling next to him.

"Oh oh oh, sensei, have you seen the news?"

"What?" Yuei Vu raised his eyelids.

"It's Mr. Yugi! Mr. Yugi's deck will be exhibited at the academy soon!" Judai's eyes shone, "It's so awesome! It's Mr. Yugi's deck!"

"Just a replica." Yuei Vu said casually.

Its still awesome!!!

Yuei Vu rolled his eyes at him.

Isn't it just the Duel Kings deck? Why are you so excited? Your teacher is also a Duel King, right?

Besides, what is special about a replica deck? The original will come to the island for dinner tomorrow night

Chapter 793: Headache

The next day, just before dinner time in the evening, the helicopter arranged by Yuei Vu landed on the helipad of the academy island. The legendary duelists Muto Yugi and Jonouchi Katsuya got off the plane one after another, and Yuei Vu was already waiting there.

Jonouchi came up with a friendly bear hug: "Hey Yuei Vu, long time no see!"

"It does take a long time."

Yuei Vu hugged him and then shook hands with Yugi who was following behind.

Speaking of which, Yuei Vu hasn't seen Yugi for a long time. When they met again today, the change in Yugi's height and face was almost like a genetic mutation.

Yuei Vu remembered that the last time he saw Yugi, the other party only reached his chin. Now, including the hairstyle, it reached his forehead. And he looked much thinner than before, with a strong physique and clear muscles in his exposed arms.

In short, he was getting closer and closer to the shape of Atem.

Yuei Vu led the way, leading the two card friends who had gone through life and death together with him to the private room that had been reserved in the restaurant on the island.

The chef had already been given instructions and the dishes were ready before they entered. The waiter entered the room pushing a shiny silver trolley and brought the dazzling array of dishes on the trolley to the table one after another.

Jonouchi looked at these gorgeous dishes that he couldn't name, and now he started to lose his temper.

"Today's chef is a world-class cook, a personal friend of President Kaiba and also a friend of mine. I informed him this morning and he flew over specially to prepare today's dinner." Yuei Vu smiled. .

Jonouchi smacked his tongue while eating: "It's a special flight and a world-class chef Yuei Vu, you are becoming more and more like Kaiba, haha"

Yuei Vu rolled his eyes.

Like Kaiba? You are like Kaiba!

You are clearly falsely accusing someone of their innocence out of thin air!

The three of them chatted while eating.

Starting from the earliest Battle City competition, the three of them have actually experienced a lot over the years, and there were many topics to talk about.

Yugi mentioned that he saw Marik last week before coming back. Mr. Marik seems to miss Yuei Vu quite a bit, saying that it was thanks to Yuei Vu that he was able to get rid of the darkness in his heart and later pick himself up and embark on the path of a duelist again. He also deliberately mentioned that he had obtained several interesting new cards, and wondered when Yuei Vu could compete with him again.

Yuei Vu didn't show any interest until the topic of "a few interesting new cards" came up, but when he talked about it, he got excited.

It sounds like Mr. Marik has lost his skills again and needs training. As long as the new cards are arranged in place, I don't mind going to Egypt to play with him again.

Yugi also mentioned somewhat helplessly that when he had just gotten off the plane, he received a duel invitation from President Kaiba. Judging from the tone and urgency, it seemed to be more exaggerated than before, as if something stimulated his nerves.

Yugi said in confusion: I haven't done anything to stimulate Kaiba recently. Why do I suddenly have to play cards like a life-and-death duel?

The "Gandora the Dragon of Destruction" that Yuei Vu stuffed into Judai's deck quickly appeared in his mind. However, his face remained calm and he just said, "Yes, sometimes I really can't understand the president too. It's completely confusing. No idea what makes him go mad this time"

Yugi was quite concerned about the situation of Yuei Vu's student and took the initiative to ask how Judai was doing in the academy.

Yuei Vu shrugged helplessly.

What else could it be? He was just a sunny boy, laughing and joking all day long.

Following this topic, Yuei Vu quickly mentioned the previous academy trials and also mentioned that Kaiba had also accepted a disciple, and that he was in Duel Academy.

Upon hearing this, Jonouchi immediately became excited.

"That damned Kaiba also took a disciple?" Jonouchi unzipped the backpack he brought with him and began to take out the Duel Disk, "Who is it? What's his name?"

He looked impatient and said, "Let me check whether his deck is healthy or not."

His idea is simple.

Haha, maybe I can't beat you, but how can't I beat your student?

Ever since they met, Kaiba had been talking about "horse bone" every time he saw Jonouchi, as if he would feel uncomfortable every time he didn't say a few mocking words to him when they met.

The most annoying thing was that Jonouchi still couldn't beat him. Every time he rushed to challenge him aggressively, he always failed in the end.

Now you tell him that Kaiba actually has an apprentice?

Ha, if he is going to catch him, will he put that kid through hell?

"Well if he is still in the academy, then he is still just a child" Yugi said.

Jonouchi was startled for a moment, and the action of taking out the Duel Disk stopped for a moment.

It seemsthat's the case.

No matter what, Jonouchi was now a legendary duelist of his generation, and he was also a well-known figure in the circle. Even if he was Kaiba's enemy, bullying an underage child seemed a bit too much?!

While Jonouchi was thinking about it, he saw that the Duel Disk on Yugi's arm had been taken out and the deck was inserted.

"It seems very interesting!" Yugi said enthusiastically, "So who is that kid? Which dormitory does he live in?"

Yuei Vu: ""

It's too much, not really

Fortunately, the two seniors were still calm, and they didn't even mention running to catch Manjome out to play cards.

However, whether they were joking or really meant it, Yuei Vu couldn't tell for a while.

I can only wish good luck to the poor Manjome

Then Yuei Vu naturally mentioned that an exhibition of Duel King's deck was being held on the island today.

"Yugi's deck?"

Jonouchi looked at Yugi unexpectedly and found that the latter seemed to be unaware of this.

"a replica." Yuei Vu was dealing with a piece of fragrant foie gras, "and it was a version from a long time ago. It was a copy of the deck registered when Yugi won the first-generation Battle City championship. It was quite old. .

"That's it," Jonouchi said clearly.

Yugi lowered his eyelids, remained silent for a brief moment, and said, "That is not my deck. It's his' deck."

The three of them were silent for a while.

Of course, both Yuei Vu and Jonouchi knew exactly who "he" Yugi was talking about.

Time will smooth out many things, and most things will fade and be forgotten as the world goes by.

But some things just never fade.

This is true whether ten or twenty years have passed.

After a while, Jonouchi leaned forward and patted Yugi on the shoulder.

"Yugi, there's no need for you to force yourself to forget all about him, right?" Jonouchi said.

"Yeah." Yugi smiled.

After so many years, of course, he had already accepted Atem's departure.

"It's just that he was my first friend." Yugi said softly, "I never had any friends before I put that puzzle together.

He made my dreams come true and gave me many, many friends and more than that. He made me the person I am today. "

In fact, Yuei Vu wanted to say: Don't you know why you don't have any friends?

Can you kick all the red cards in the deck first and then talk?

Yuei Vu felt that there was nothing wrong with putting that classic line describing a killer into Yugi:

"I am a duelist.

No love, no friends. "

Maybe the reason why he was able to make friends later was because after putting together the Millennium Puzzle, Atem played on his behalf. And a king didn't play the nether card, so naturally, he could make friends

After having enough wine and food, the three of them wiped their mouths and looked at the empty plates on the table, feeling that something was missing

"Actually, Yuei Vu, I may not be here just to eat."

Jonouchi was the first to break the silence, he smiled, opened the zipper, and took out the Duel Disk from his bag.

"I heard that you have become stronger and stronger over the years, and we haven't been able to fight each other for so many years" Jonouchi chuckled.

"How about let's take this opportunity to try?"

Yuei Vu glanced at Jonouchi, and then at the Duel Disk in his hand. For some reason, the first image that came to his mind was the dice and the coin.

He couldn't help but sigh and rubbed his temples.

Another headache

Chapter 794: Legendary Duelists

"Duel!" x2

[Jonouchi, LP 4000]

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

"The duel with Yuei Vu is really a feeling that I haven't seen for a long time." Jonouchi said with great interest, "Since the Battle City, it seems that we haven't fought each other again for so many years."

The two of them stood by a large rock near the sea behind the deserted forest. The sea was ebbing and flowing, and the waves were constantly beating on the rocks on the shore.

Their only audience, Muto Yugi, stood aside with his hands in his pockets, quietly witnessing the duel.

"It seems so." Yuei Vu nodded.

"Hehe, let me tell you that I am completely different now compared to the past me. Even if you are Yuei Vu, you have to be careful!" Jonouchi shouted, "I am the first to go, draw!

I first set a monster on the field, then set a card, and I end my turn! "

A simple and standard start, and at the same time, it did not reveal any information or intelligence about the deck's tactics to the opponent.

But according to Yuei Vu's impression of Jonouchi, the set card at the back row should probably be a dice-throwing trap, right?

Yuei Vu hated dice, hated coins, hated all lucky guys

Oh, except for my lovely apprentice Yuki Judai.

"My turn." Yuei Vu glanced at the cards in his hand, "Activate the Spell Card Card Destruction! Players on both sides discard all the cards in their hands, and then draw the same number of cards."

Jonouchi discarded the four cards in his hand to the graveyard, and while drawing cards, he was curious: "Replacing the hand at the beginning"

"Then activate the Spell Card Pantheism of the Monarchs!" Yuei Vu said, "Send 1 Monarch' Spell/Trap Card from my hand to the Graveyard; draw 2 cards."

"Monarch?"

Jonouchi knew about this deck, but he had never seen Yuei Vu use it.

"Activate the effect of the Trap Card The Prime Monarch' that was just discarded in the graveyard." Yuei Vu said, "When this card exists in the graveyard, I can banish 1 other Monarch' Spell/Trap from my GY; Special Summon this card in Defense Position as a Normal Monster!"

Yuei Vu conveniently removed the "Pantheism of the Monarchs" that popped up in the graveyard, and the Trap Card was simultaneously placed in the monster area.

[The Prime Monarch, DEF 2400]

"Then take the The Prime Monarch' as a sacrifice!" Yuei Vu took a picture of a card in his hand, "Tribute Summon! The Monarch of Destruction in charge of thunder

Zaborg the Thunder Monarch! "

The electric light burst in all directions with a crackling sound, and the white thunder giant fell as if riding a bolt of lightning. A large number of arcs formed a hemispherical force field, which quickly expanded and covered the entire half of Yuei Vu's side.

[Zaborg the Thunder Monarch, ATK 2400]

"The effect of the Illusory Snatcher' in the hand." Yuei Vu said, "When I Tribute Summon a monster: I can Special Summon this card from my hand, and the Type, Attribute, and Level of this card become the same as that face-up Tribute Summoned monster!

Come on, Illusory Snatcher! "

An ethereal and formless black mist spread over the field, gradually taking shape, copying Zaborg's stocky and powerful figure. The surrounding lightning danced, making him look like another Monarch of Thunder.

[Illusory Snatcher, ATK 2400]

"The effect of Zaborg the Thunder Monarch! If this card is Tribute Summoned, a monster on the opponent's field will be destroyed!" Yuei Vu pointed to the field Jonouchi, "Destroy the set monster card!"

The Monarch raised his arms high, and the lightning was like a javelin thrown by the thunder body! The face-down monster was instantly crushed and torn into pieces under the bombardment of countless electric snakes.

"What you just destroyed was the Black Metal Dragon!" Jonouchi said, "When the Black Metal Dragon is sent from the field to the graveyard, add 1 Red Eyes' card from the deck to my hand."

He drew a pop-up card from the deck.

I add Gearfried the Red-Eyes Iron Knight to my hand!

"Then let's fight." Yuei Vu said, "Illusory Snatcher, directly attack Jonouchi!"

The Illusory Snatcher who mimicked the Thunder Monarch also had the power to control thunder and lightning at this time, and the lightning exploded into the city like a roaring torrent.

"Open the set card: Trap Card Card Defense!" Jonouchi picked out a card in his hand and discarded it in the graveyard. "This card can only be activated by discarding 1 card when an opponent's monster declares an attack. Negate the attack, then draw 1 card." (Animation Card)

Cards flew out neatly one by one, forming a criss-cross defense wall to withstand the thunder's bombardment. Jonouchi immediately drew a card.

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

Is it not a coin or a dice?

"Then I still have the attack of Zaborg the Thunder Monarch!" Yuei Vu said, "Attack directly!"

The thunder ball of light fell straight down, and the brilliant light ball of the virtual image exploded exaggeratedly at the feet of Jonouchi. God of Gamblers was knocked back half a step by the blast, leaving scorched black marks on the ground.

[Jonouchi, LP 4000 LP 1600]

He took two staggering steps to regain his balance and grinned.

"As expected of Yuei Vu, the duel with you really makes me unable to relax at all."

"Then I end my turn."

Yuei Vu finished the operation, put down his arm, and chuckled: "Isn't it time to show some real skills?"

"Hey, just watch it!"

The momentum of Jonouchi was like a rainbow.

"My turn, draw!" Jonouchi directly played the drawn card, "Spell Card Spell Books from the Pot', both players draw three cards from the deck.

Then I summoned the Gearfried the Red-Eyes Iron Knight! "

Gearfried the Iron Knight was originally one of Jonouchi's iconic monsters in Battle City. Now this Iron Knight, who has been fighting with his master for many years, has also put on the "Red-Eyes" vest and has become an ace in this deck.

A red-hot whirlwind rolled up, and the pitch-black sharp blade drew scorching sparks in the air. The knight in jet black armor fell on the field, with dark red lines shining on his body.

[Gearfried the Red-Eyes Iron Knight, ATK 1800]

"Then the effect of the other Black Metal Dragon' in the hand is activated!" Jonouchi said, "Target 1 Red-Eyes' monster I control; equip this monster from my hand or field to that target. It gains 600 ATK!

[Gearfried the Red-Eyes Iron Knight, ATK 1800 ATK 2400]

"Then the effect of Gearfried the Red-Eyes Iron Knight is activated!" Jonouchi shouted, "Once per turn: I can send 1 Equip Card I control that is equipped to this card to the GY, then target 1 Level 7 or lower Red-Eyes' monster in my GY; Special Summon it!

I send the Black Metal Dragon' equipped on it to the graveyard and Special Summon from the graveyard

Red-Eyes Wyvern! "

The dragon with red eyes burst out of the ground, as if it came from the other side of the underworld, like a miniature version of the Red-Eyes Black Dragon in its juvenile state.

[Red-Eyes Wyvern, ATK 1800]

"Then the effect of Black Metal Dragon' sent to the graveyard! Add 1 Red Eyes' card from the deck to my hand." Jonouchi retrieved a card from the deck again, "What I want to add to my hand Red-Eyes Darkness Metal Dragon'!

Then I removed Red-Eyes Wyvern from the game and Special Summoned the pillar of the dragon race, the steel red eyes covered with magic metal

Red-Eyes Darkness Metal Dragon! ! ! "

Chapter 795: Completely New Red-Eyes

It was a black dragon covered in jet-black steel armor, with dark red lines wrapped around its body, like surging magic power shuttling through established circuits. Its long tail of pitch-black steel slapped the floor, and every breath from its metal mouth was accompanied by dark red-black flames.

[Red-Eyes Darkness Metal Dragon, ATK 2800]

And the operation of Jonouchi was not over yet.

"The effect of the Red-Eyes Darkness Metal Dragon!" Jonouchi said, "Once per turn, I can Special Summon 1 Dragon monster from my hand or GY!

I Special Summon The Black Stone of Legend!"

A crack opened in the rock beneath the two of them, and a small black stone emerged from the ground. Its surface was wrapped with lava-like red lines, and it looked like a dragon egg that had not yet hatched.

[The Black Stone of Legend, ATK 0]

"The effect of The Black Stone of Legend' is activated!" Jonouchi said, "Tribute this card; Special Summon 1 Level 7 or lower Red-Eyes' monster from the deck!

Come on, the trembling red eyes, the Demon King

Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning! ! ! "

The thunder of the black stone fell, the scarlet eyes were lit up from the diffuse black mist, and the demon's body broke out of the darkness! It was a demon with eyes like a black dragon, covered in skeletal armor. The lines of the armor were like white ribs that had been disassembled and assembled into the shape of armor, and the dragon's bone wings spread out behind him.

It looked like a combination of "Red-Eyes Black Dragon" and "Summoned Skull".

[Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning, ATK 2500]

"Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning is a Gemini monster," Jonouchi said, "this card can be Normal Summoned again to gain new special effects!

I activate Spell Card Double Summon! In this turn, I can conduct the second Normal Summon! "

"Jonouchi is so strong." Yugi on the side couldn't help but praise, "He is indeed different from what he used to be."

"Hehe." Jonouchi rubbed his nose, feeling a little proud.

Indeed, Jonouchi, who became a legendary duelist, has never relaxed at all. He must be a completely different person now than when he was in Battle City.

Yuei Vu also recognized this new Red-Eyes monster.

The destructive power of this thing was still a bit fierce. It could destroy all monsters on the opponent's field with DEF lower than its ATK. A powerful field-clearing weapon.

The key was that Yuei Vu was playing a Monarch deck this time, and for the Monarch deck, the ATK and DEF were all fixed the DEF of all the Monarchs was only 1000.

This was a bit bad.

But it didn't matter!

"At this moment, I activate the effect of the Ehter the Heavenly Monarch' in my hand!" Yuei Vu showed a card in his hand, "During the opponent's Main Phase, I can banish 1 Monarch' Spell/Trap Card from my Graveyard; immediately after this effect resolves, Tribute Summon this card!"

Both Yugi and Jonouchi looked surprised.

"A Monarch who can be Tribute Summoned during the opponent's turn?"

They have never heard of such a Monarch!

"I banish the Trap Card 'The Prime Monarch' and Tribute Summon either the Heavenly Monarch!'" Yuei Vu said, "Also, although either the Heavenly Monarch' is a Level 8 monster, I can Tribute Summon this card by Tributing 1 Tribute Summoned monster.

So I offered Zaborg the Thunder Monarch as a sacrifice, Tribute Summon either the Heavenly Monarch! "

The brand new superior Monarch, who was wearing a long robe, bathed in divine light, holding a long golden scepter, exuding indescribable majesty.

[Either the Heavenly Monarch, ATK 2800]

"Tribute Summon in the opponent's turn" Jonouchi quickly realized the problem, "The attack power of either the Heavenly Monarch is 2800, which means it can defeat Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning

No, not just that. All monsters in the Monarch series have powerful special abilities when they are Tribute Summoned"

"Exactly. If you realize this, Jonouchi, you have indeed become stronger." Yuei Vu smiled, "The effect of the either the Heavenly Monarch!

If this card is Tribute Summoned: I can send 2 Monarch' Spell/Trap Cards with different names from my hand and/or Deck to the Graveyard, and Special Summon 1 monster with 2400 or more ATK and 1000 DEF from my Deck! "

"2400 or more ATK, 1000 DEF It can summon any Monarch monster?!" Yugi said, "But Monarch monsters will only get the effect if they are Tribute Summoned"

"That's not necessarily true." Yuei Vu smiled, "It's not like there are no Monarchs who can also trigger effects by Special Summons."

"Could it be that there is a new Monarch?" Jonouchi realized the problem.

A card had automatically flown out of Yuei Vu's deck and was held lightly by Yuei Vu in his hand.

"The shining Monarch of light comes here

Kuraz the Light Monarch! ! ! "

The flow of light was like an erupting waterfall. A giant with a golden body appeared from behind the curtain of light. Countless crystal-clear golden light spots scattered one after another, and the golden cloak rose and fell in the wind.

[Kuraz the Light Monarch, ATK 2400]

"Light Monarch?" Jonouchi was shocked, "But among the Monarch of six attributes isn't the LIGHT one Thunder Monarch'?"

"When Kuraz the Light Monarch is Normal or Special Summoned: I can target up to 2 cards on the field; destroy those targets!" Yuei Vu waved his hand, "I will destroy the Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning' and Red-Eyes Darkness Metal Dragon'!"

The Monarch of Light erupted with a golden light curtain all over his body, and a powerful and boundless impact erupted from his fists! The impact of the two spiral beams penetrated both the Red-Eyes Darkness Metal Dragon and Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning, and they were shattered under the irresistible flow of golden light.

"It's amazing!" Yugi couldn't help but admire, "It was obviously Jonouchi's turn, but Yuei Vu defeated his two ace monster lineup in one fell swoop"

"However, when Kuraz the Light Monarch' uses an effect to destroy a card, the controller of the destroyed card can draw 1 card for each of the cards that were destroyed by this effect." Yuei Vu said, "I destroyed two of your cards, so you can draw 2 cards."

Jonouchi remained silent and drew two cards.

Immediately after he drew the card, his eyes lit up, and he seemed to see a new direction.

"Yoshi! Then I'm going to activate this Spell Card Monster Reborn! Resurrect Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning' in my graveyard!"

The dark vortex leading to the underworld opened, and the red-eyed demon flew out. Electricity was attached to his white rib armor, and lava-like flames flowed from his red eyes.

[Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning, ATK 2500]

"I resummon Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning' to obtain new effects." Jonouchi said, "Once per turn, he can destroy all face-up monsters the opponent controls with DEF lower than his ATK!"

The demon exploded with all its strength, with endless golden lightning and roaring sounds, like a galloping army of thousands of horses!

Yuei Vu snapped his fingers: "Open the set card: Trap Card The Monarchs Awaken! Target 1 face-up Tribute Summoned monster I control; its effects are negated, also it is unaffected by the effects of cards other than this card.

I use this effect to protect the Ehter the Heavenly Monarch from being affected by the effect of Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning! "

Kuraz the Light Monarch and the Illusory Snatcher were instantly swallowed up by the lightning. The electric currents were like small golden snakes drilling in and out of the Monarch's body, disintegrating it into dust from the outside to the inside.

"I still can't stop it" Yuei Vu looked at the two Monarchs who were reduced to ashes in the black smoke, "It's very powerful, Jonouchi."

"Hey, of course, you have to be careful." Jonouchi said proudly, "My current strength is not just that!"

I sacrifice the "Gearfried the Red-Eyes Iron Knight" on the field and Specially Summon a card from my hand!

After a long period of evolution, the Black Dragon Soul has taken on a brand-new attitude

Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon! ! ! "

The rock broke open in an instant, and a beam of fire shot up into the sky like an explosion of magma, with a dark dragon wrapped in it!

Red fire flowed on its body, and its long and angular tail looked like it was made of steel. The black dragon spread its wings and slowly lowered, with dark red light flashing in its eyes!

Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon was summoned!

Chapter 796: Double Dark Flame Shot!

Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon was summoned!

[Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon, ATK 2400]

Yuei Vu looked up at the majestic mutant black dragon and couldn't help but let out a sigh of relief

Good guy, Alternative Black Dragon has already been printed.

The lucky boy is very capable!

"A new Red-Eyes? Hey~ It looks very powerful." Yugi also said with a smile, "But neither the Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning' nor the Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon' can defeat Yuei Vu's Ehther the Heavenly Monarch'."

"Hey, let's watch." Jonouchi was very confident and waved his hand, "Battle! Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon', attack Ehther the Heavenly Monarch!' Alternative Dark Flame Shot!"

The black dragon twisted its body and drew a scorching whirlwind with its long tail. The dark red hot breath came towards the face but was only easily dispersed by the scepter of the Monarch of Heaven.

The sacred golden light pushed back from Ehther's scepter, like a divine punishment from heaven, tearing back against the direction of the black flame breath, smashing the black dragon into pieces.

Jonouchi, LP 1600 LP 1200

"Did you actively choose to self-destruct?" Yuei Vu said.

"Yes, that's good." Jonouchi chuckled, "The second effect of Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon' has been triggered! If this card is destroyed by battle, or by an opponent's card effect: I can target 1 Level 7 or lower Red-Eyes' monster in my GY, except Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon'; Special Summon it!"

A card was ejected from the graveyard area of the Duel Disk. Jonouchi raised the card above his head with a ritualistic movement, and the surging undercurrent turned into a whirlpool.

"The legendary black dragon that brings infinite possibilities, my trump card

Red-Eyes Black Dragon is resurrected! ! ! "

The dragon roared into the sky, and its strong figure erupted with a beam of lava that reached the sky. The black dragon flew up into the air nimbly, and the hot magma was washed away along its dark body at high speed and poured down like a scalding rain of fire.

[Red-Eyes Black Dragon, ATK 2400]

"Yuei Vu, you must be thinking that even if I summon the Red-Eyes Black Dragon, its attack power is only 2400, which is not enough to defeat the Ehther the Heavenly Monarch', right?" Jonouchi laughed.

No, I didn't think so at all. Yuei Vu said in his heart.

"But the ability of Red-Eyes is much more than that!" Jonouchi waved his hand, "When the monster summoned through the effect of the Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon' is the Red Eyes Black Dragon', the original attack power is doubled!"

[Red-Eyes Black Dragon, ATK 2400 ATK 4800]

"4800 ATK!" Yugi looked surprised at the side, "Jonouchi, you are so strong!"

Yuei Vu couldn't help but glance at him.

Yes, it's so strong. If you were in my shoes, you would have already activated Magic Cylinder, right?

"Red-Eyes Black Dragon', attack the Ehter the Heavenly Monarch'!" Jonouchi waved his fist, "Double Dark Flame Shot!!!"

The storm gathered in the black dragon's sky and quickly condensed into a sphere of black flames. With an ATK of 4,800, the double-power Dark Flame Shot dragged the trajectory of the wind and penetrated the abdominal cavity of the Monarch of Heaven. The Monarch's scepter also broke in half under the impact of the aftermath.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2000

"There is still a Red-Eyes' monster on Jonouchi's field that has not attacked" Yugi said.

[Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning, ATK 2500]

"Hey, Yuei Vu, you have to be careful!" Jonouchi shouted, "Come on, Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning, attack directly!"

The Red-Eyes Archfiend began to brew strength, and golden thunder and lightning rushed into the sky. Countless thunder and lightning thundered down from high in the sky with joy, and the harsh electric shock was deafening.

"The effect of the Swift Scarecrow' in the hand is activated."

Yuei Vu briefly revealed a card in his hand and quickly sent it to the graveyard.

"When an opponent's monster declares a direct attack: Discard this card; negate the attack, then end the Battle Phase."

The small scarecrow jumped out from the card he displayed, and the endless electric light released by the Red-Eyes Archfiend bombarded the small scarecrow. The electricity crackled and overflowed, blasting the surrounding ground into a blackened piece.

This was a card that should not belong to this era.

A few years ago, Z-ONE, a time traveler from the end of time, returned to modern times and remotely controlled the Kaiba Corp's duel robot to duel Yuei Vu. One of the cards he used at that time was the future hand trap "Swift Scarecrow".

After that card game, it went without saying that this card had also changed its surname to Yuei.

"Is there such a card?" Jonouchi was surprised, but then said, "But my attack is not over yet."

"Oh?"

Jonouchi waved his hand: "Quick-Play Spell Surprise Attack from Beyond! During the End Phase, conduct a second Battle Phase. A monster that was Normal Summoned, Special Summoned, or Flip Summoned this turn may attack again as if it were a new turn!" ( animation card)

He raised his arms and pointed at the dark dragon above him.

"The one I want to choose is, of course, the Red-Eyes Black Dragon! Give it the authority to attack again!"

As if he understood his master's instructions, the Red-Eyes Black Dragon raised its head and roared loudly, and the corners of its dark red eyes seemed to overflow with red-hot firelight.

[Red-Eyes Black Dragon, ATK 4800]

The duel once again ushered in a life-and-death moment!

The passage of this black flame bullet with double power would undoubtedly result in Yuei Vu's defeat!

"This is the full strength I have now! Take this blow, Yuei Vu!"

Jonouchi waved his hand.

"Red-Eyes Black Dragon, attack again! Double Dark Flame Shot!!!"

The black dragon opened its mouth and struck like a volcano erupting! The hot flames penetrated the space, and the momentum of the dark flames seemed to burn everything!

Yuei Vu had no monsters on the field, no set cards, and the life-saving artifact "Swift Scarecrow" in his hand had been handed over.

Even Yugi, who was watching the battle, moved his eyes slightly and looked at Yuei Vu curiously.

In this situation, does Yuei Vu still have the means to prevent the killer shot of Red-Eyes Black Dragon?

The answer was, of course, yes.

"The effect of the Kiteroid' in the graveyard." A card popped up in the graveyard area of Yuei Vu's Duel Disk, "While this card is in the Graveyard, once per Duel, I can reduce the battle damage I take from a direct attack to 0." (Animation effect)

A transparent steel shadow emerged, and a Q-version anthropomorphic small glider protected Yuei Vu in the middle like an indestructible shield.

The impact of the black flame bomb exploded on the steel shield, and the wave of energy was pushed away in all directions.

"This card that's right! Is it discarded by Card Destruction?" Jonouchi quickly understood.

"Yes." Yuei Vu nodded, "I think if the opponent is the current Jonouchi, no amount of insurance is too much."

"With the iron-walled defense, I have absolutely no chance" Jonouchi was a little frustrated.

"Don't say that," Yuei Vu smiled, "This is already my last line of defense."

"Then set three cards, I end my turn."

This long turn was finally over.

To be fair, the performance of Jonouchi this turn was amazing enough. Being able to do this in one breath despite the interference from Yuei Vu, he was different from the two Labyrinth Brothers who only pretend to be cool with their famous names. This was worthy of the title of "Legendary Duelist".

The strength was indeed quite strong, but even now, Yuei Vu still felt that something was missing.

He couldn't help but want to ask

God of Gamblers, where are your dice?

Confiscated by Sister Mai?

Chapter 797: Monarch VS Red-Eyes

"It's my turn!" Yuei Vu said seriously, "I have already felt your full strength, Jonouchi. So to show respect, let me deal with it with all my strength."

"That's how it should be." Jonouchi wiped his nose, "You're welcome! Just come, Yuei Vu!"

First, use the Spell Card Pot of Greed to draw two cards from the deck.

Then if the opponent controls 2 or more cards in their Spell & Trap Zones, I can special summon this card from my hand! "Yuei Vu put the monster card on the Duel Disk, "Come, Escher the Frost Vassal! "

[Escher the Frost Vassal, DEF 1000]

"Then I used Escher the Frost Vassal' as a sacrifice for Tribute Summon!" Yuei Vu quickly replaced this springboard monster, "The Dark Monarch of the Netherworld Caius the Shadow Monarch! ! ! "

The Ice Monarch's retainer turned into a storm of ice and snow and disappeared, and the milky white whirlwind was gradually dyed into deep black. The dark Monarch seemed to be taking steps out of the abyss. He had devil-like horns on his head and red eyes. His footsteps seemed to dye the surrounding earth ink.

[Caius the Shadow Monarch, ATK 2400]

"Caius's effect!" Yuei Vu said, "If this card is Tribute Summoned: Target 1 card on the field; banish that target! I removed the Red Eyes Black Dragon' from the game!"

The Shadow Monarch waved his thick palm. The dark and profound energy turned into a whirlpool in his palm, and a strong wave of distorted space locked the black dragon in the distance.

Although the Red-Eyes Black Dragon's power has increased and surpassed the "Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon", it could not resist the Shadow Monarch's weird dimensional ability. It only screamed and was driven into the torn space and disappeared without a trace.

"Ah!" Jonouchi was frustrated, "My Red-Eyes is suddenly"

"Also," Yuei Vu added, "if the card banished by this effect is a DARK monster, it will deal an additional 1000 points of damage to the opponent!"

After the Shadow Monarch's dimensional impact destroyed the red eyes, it continued unabated and penetrated Jonouchi's body head-on.

[Jonouchi, LP 1200 LP 200]

"Activate Spell Card Frost Blast of the Monarchs!" Yuei Vu continued, "If I control a monster with 2400 or more ATK and 1000 DEF: Target 1 Set card on the field; destroy it!"

What I want to destroy is the card on the far left! "

The Spell Card emerged, and the breath of ice locked the set card on the far left side of the city, quickly freezing it and grinding it into dust.

The set card was smashed, but Jonouchi couldn't help but snap his fingers excitedly: "Ha! The set card you destroyed was the Continuous Trap Return of the Red-Eyes'!"

When this card is destroyed by the opponent's effect and sent to the graveyard, I can target 1 Red-Eyes' monster in my GY; Special Summon it!

What I want to resurrect is the most powerful Red-Eyes in my graveyard

Red-Eyes Darkness Metal Dragon! ! ! "

The black dragon wrapped in magic metal spreads its wings and flies up, and invisible fluctuations are mixed with hurricanes as it spreads its wings!

[Red-Eyes Darkness Metal Dragon, ATK 2800]

"Then the effect of the Frost Blast of the Monarchs' will be activated again after entering the graveyard."

The Spell Card that Yuei Vu just sent to the graveyard has popped up again.

"I banish Frost Blast of the Monarchs' and another Monarch' Spell/Trap Card from my graveyard, and then target 1 Set card on the field; destroy it.

Destroy your second set card! "

Yuei Vu took out one of the Spell Traps that had been sent to the graveyard by "Card Destruction" together with the "Frost Blast of the Monarchs", and the frosty cold wave instantly locked the second cover card.

As a last resort, Jonouchi immediately activated this card that was about to be destroyed: "Then I activate the trap Red-Eyes Spirit! Target 1 Red-Eyes' monster in my GY; Special Summon it!"

I resurrect the Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon! "

The black dragon subspecies that just retired last round flew out of the graveyard again, and its scorching breath turned into a flame storm visible to the naked eye!

[Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon, DEF 2000]

"Hey, you did a great job, Jonouchi." Yugi said, "You actually summoned so many powerful red eyes in succession during the opponent's turn."

"Hey, it's okay." Jonouchi smiled, "And you must not have forgotten the effect of this guy, right, Yuei Vu?"

"Yes, I still remember." Yuei Vu nodded, "When Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon' is destroyed by battle or card effects, you can special summon 1 Level 7 or lower Red-Eyes' monster from your graveyard."

"That's right." Jonouchi said proudly, "Although it may still not be as good as you, Yuei Vu, my Red-Eyes' front is not that easy to defeat!"

"I know." Yuei Vu continued, "Then I activate the effect of the Quick-Play Spell Strike of the Monarchs' that was sent from the deck to the graveyard through the effect of Ehter the Heavenly Monarch' last turn.

Banish this card, then declare 1 Attribute; all face-up monsters currently on the field become that Attribute until the end of this turn. "

Jonouchi: "?"

Change attribute? What's the point?

Yuei Vu had already drawn the card that popped up in the graveyard and said: "According to this effect, all the monsters on the field this turn will all become the WIND attribute!

Then I activate the Quick-Play Spell Quick Summon! Immediately after this effect resolves, I can Tribute Summon 1 monster! (animation card)

Yuei Vu waved his hand.

"I used Caius the Shadow Monarch' as a sacrifice for Tribute Summon!

The advanced Monarch descended from the howling wind

Raiza the Mega Monarch! ! ! "

It was like a raging wind that was about to sweep across thousands of armies! The green whirlwind was like an inverted funnel hanging between the sky and the earth. The dark green Monarch tore open the curtain of wind. The huge dark green armor moved in a low voice, sounding like someone whispering.

[Raiza the Mega Monarch, ATK 2800]

Jonouchi could hardly raise his head under the storm: "Mega Monarch What a powerful force!"

"Although Raiza the Mega Monarch is a Level 8 monster, I can Tribute Summon this card by Tributing 1 Tribute Summoned monster.

And when this card is Tribute Summoned: Target 1 card on the field and 1 card in either GY, and return them to the top of the owner's deck in any order I like.

In addition, when using a WIND monster as a sacrifice I can also select an additional card on the field and return it to the owner's hand! "

Jonouchi's pupils shrank: "Nani? That's why you specifically use the Strike of the Monarchs' to turn all the monsters into the WIND attribute"

"Also, whether the Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon' is destroyed by battle or effects, other Red-Eyes can be Special Summoned from the graveyard to play." Yugi added, "But if it bounces back to the deck or hand"

"Ah!" Jonouchi was stunned, "So Yuei Vu, you have you considered such a far-reaching countermeasure at that time?"

Yugi continued: "Not only that. The two cards on the field are returned to the top of the owner's deck, which means that the next two cards Jonouchi draws have also been fixed.

This ability is equivalent to depriving the duelist of the possibility of follow-up and minimizing the opponent's chance of drawing a reversal card"

After a pause, he couldn't help but take another look at the Monarch at the center of the storm.

"Raiza the Mega Monarch' is truly a terrifying Monarch"

"I'll return the Red-Eyes Darkness Metal Dragon' on your field and the Gearfried the Red-Eyes Iron Knight' in the graveyard to the deck." Yuei Vu said, "And on this basis, Red-Eyes Alternative Black Dragon' on your field is returned to your hand!"

The power of the Mega Monarch was pushed to the extreme, and the green wind almost flooded the venue Jonouchi! The black dragons screamed feebly, their powerful power seemed so small in front of this natural power.

The powerful Red-Eyes Darkness Metal Dragon and Alternative Black Dragon both exited the field in just an instant, returning to Jonouchi's deck and hand respectively.

As a result, he only had a lone "Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning" left on the field.

The attack power of the Mega Monarch was 2800, while the attack power of the Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning was 2500. Jonouchi has 200 LP left, so he can fight directly. If the battle was established, Jonouchi would be defeated.

the premise was "if the battle was established".

But Jonouchi still had the final set card at his feet.

He glanced at his set card, then at Yuei Vu, rubbed his nose, and smiled.

"What about you? Yuei Vu, do you want to attack me?"

"Of course." Yuei Vu shrugged and paused, "But before that"

He drew another card.

"Spell Card Tribute Carnival! If I Tribute Summon a monster this turn, I can Tribute Summon 1 monster in addition to my Normal Summon/Set!" (Animation card)

Jonouchi's eyelids twitched.

Another Tribute Summon!?

"I offer Raiza the Mega Monarch' as a sacrifice and summon the superior again!

The Monarch of Destruction who controls the thunder

Zaborg the Thunder Monarch! ! ! "

The white thunder giant came again in the field of electricity, bringing punishments of thunder and lightning!

[Zaborg the Thunder Monarch, ATK 2400]

"It's the second Thunder Monarch?" Jonouchi was surprised.

"The effect of Zaborg the Thunder Monarch!" Yuei Vu said, "If this card is Tribute Summoned: Target 1 monster on the field; destroy that target! Destroy the last wall on Jonouchi's side Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning!"

Thunder's spear penetrated the space as if carrying the judgment of the outcome of this duel, it penetrated the body of the Red-Eyes Archfiend without any hesitation!

The demon's bones were pierced, and his body began to explode from the inside out, being crushed bit by bit amidst the screams.

It was the last barrier of Jonouchi, the last Red-Eyes monster that could be relied upon.

But at this moment, he showed a smile?

"Ha, I bet you won't hit me recklessly like that," Jonouchi said slyly.

Yuei Vu: "?"

"My final set card is"

Jonouchi waved his hand and the trap flipped.

"Trap card Red Eyes Burn!" Jonouchi shouted, "If a face-up "Red-Eyes" monster I control is destroyed by battle or card effect, both players take damage equal to its original ATK!"

[Red-Eyes Archfiend of Lightning, ATK 2500]

Yuei Vu, LP 2000

[Jonouchi, LP 200]

"A DRAW?" Yugi's eyes moved slightly.

Jonouchi held his breath.

The body of the Red-Eyes Archfiend exploded, and at the same time, all the power in his body was released. The flames of the explosion swept close to the ground and quickly swept across the entire site, carrying a suffocating scorching whirlwind.

[Jonouchi, LP 200 LP 0]

He staggered back two steps, regained his footing, and looked at Yuei Vu with a smile. Then his smile gradually stiffened.

Yuei Vu, LP 2000 LP 750

"Why are you"

Jonouchi was stunned for a moment and looked at the trap that was fading and disappearing in front of Yuei Vu.

It was also the trap in the graveyard that was discarded at the very beginning of the turn, the last layer of insurance.

Damage Diet: Banish this card from your Graveyard; halve all effect damage you take this turn.

Chapter 798: Not Play Dice?

"Ah~ ah, Yuei Vu is indeed as strong as ever." Jonouchi straightened his arms and stretched, "I'm no match for him at all."

"Actually, it's very close." Yuei Vu smiled, "My defensive methods have almost been exhausted. Jonouchi, you have indeed become a lot stronger."

"Of course, I have never slacked off in these years. Just wait for Yuei Vu. I will definitely become stronger next time we meet. Maybe I can beat you by then!"

They talked as they walked in the direction of the restaurant.

Yuei Vu hesitated briefly, but finally couldn't help but ask: "By the way I was very concerned about it when we were dueling just now. Jonouchi, where are your dice?"

Jonouchi's face suddenly darkened and he began to look dazed: "Huh? What are you talking about? I don't understand at all"

Yuei Vu: ""

God of Gamblers, what are you pretending to be?

Yugi looked at it funny and explained aloud: "Jonouchi said that he has decided not to use gambling cards anymore."

"ha?"

Yuei Vu looked at Jonouchi strangely.

Now he probably understood a little bit what people thought when they heard that Stark Industries didn't sell weapons anymore.

God of Gamblers no longer plays dice?

Yugi briefly explained it, and Yuei Vu probably understood it.

Back in the Duelist Kingdom and Battle City, Jonouchi was still a rookie, so as long as he could win the Duel, it didn't matter.

But it's different now. Now when we talk about the name of Jonouchi, everyone would give a thumbs up and call him "the legendary duelist" with respect and yearning.

It was conceivable that since he was a successful person, Jonouchi must have his own trademark. Just like Kaiba's Blue-Eyes White Dragon, he also needed to have a logo that everyone could immediately associate with him at first glance.

Some time ago, a big company contacted Jonouchi and discussed business. The company's boss said: Do you think we should put a logo or something in our advertisement to contact you about your identity?

Jonouchi said: Yes, then lets go with the Red-Eyes Black Dragon, thats my soul card!

As a result, the boss blinked twice and was stunned for a while before saying: "Huh? I mean to stick a dice"

Jonouchi: ""

Stick a dice?!

It's like saying this rJonouchi relies on shitty luck to win at cards!

From then on, Jonouchi made a painful decision that people's deep-rooted impression must be corrected!

Otherwise, in the future, if they, the legendary figures of the year, got together on the same stage, there would be a Dark Magician standing behind Yugi, a mighty Blue Eyes White Dragon behind Kaiba, a dashing and handsome Masked Hero behind Yuei Vu, and behind him Jonouchi.

just a dice rolling around?

Just thinking about it makes me embarrassed!

From then on, Jonouchi worked hard and made up his mind to kick out most of cards that included coin tossing, dice throwing, etc., and also stuffed a bunch of newly printed cards from the Red-Eyes series into his deck.

Now the concentration of Red-Eyes in his deck has skyrocketed, and the gambling component has been rapidly diluted.

He wanted to prove to everyone that he, Katsuya Jonouchi, was one of the strongest duelists today even if not relying on dice!

But after a period of adaptation and practice, even if he didn't say it, he might have to admit it in his heart.

Maybe, probably, maybe

The me that played dice is strong than the current me

Yuei Vu was speechless for a while after hearing this.

Good guy, I don't expect that you, Jonouchi, are such an ungrateful man!

At that time, you relied on the blessing of the goddess of fortune to fight all the way to legend, but now that you are famous and have reached the peak of your life, you just want to kick her away?

If you don't want

..you can introduce her to me!

Yuei Vu glanced at the pitiful 20 points of luck in his stat panel, and closed the panel again without saying a word.

That's all, we don't understand the troubles of a lucky boy.

There are actually some people who think that being too lucky is affecting their development. Do you think this is irritating or not?

While chatting and walking, suddenly they heard the alarm bell sounding on the island. A sharp, piercing sound cut through the night, the sound was deafening.

"What's going on?" Jonouchi asked, "Is there an enemy attack?"

"Ah, I almost forgot about it."

Only now did Yuei Vu remember that there seemed to be such a plot in the original GX animation?

A replica of the Duel King Muto Yugi deck was displayed on the island, but was stolen that night by a student named Kagurazaka. The student seemed to have imagined that he would be invincible if he took Duel King's deck. He didn't realize that being awesome at playing cards actually had nothing to do with the deck

But in this case, Kagurazaka was also a talented student.

His specialty was imitation. He completely copied the deck of a strong person, and then completely imitated that person in his tactical thinking, daily behavior, and even his oral habits, becoming as similar as possible to that strong person physically and mentally.

In fact, Kagurazaka was really strong.

Why do I say that?

Because Atem had a hodgepodge of cards stuffed with various series, yet Kagurazaka managed to play well without getting stuck

Because it was just an insignificant day-to-day affair, not a big event and had no serious consequences, Yuei Vu completely forgot about it

Sure enough, a phone call came from the academy immediately, informing Yuei Vu that the Duel King's deck had been stolen.

"What's going on?" Jonouchi asked impatiently when Yuei Vu hung up the phone.

"Oh, it's no big deal." Yuei Vu replied casually, "Didn't I tell you before, the deck that Yugi um the deck that Atem used in the past was placed on the island on exhibition.

It seems that the replica deck was stolen. "

"Eh?" Jonouchi was nervous, "Isn't that very serious? Then let's help together!"

"No, no, no, it's probably just a student with poor quality." Yuei Vu waved his hand, "This kind of trivial matter is not worth wasting your precious time. Just leave it to the academy and the students to handle it."

In fact, Yuei Vu himself had no intention of asking about this trivial matter.

As long as it developed according to the animation, if nothing unexpected happened, Yuki Judai would find the student Kagurazaka who stole the deck, and then play a game of cards with Kagurazaka who used Atem's deck. After winning the duel, Kagurazaka was convinced by Judai and would willingly return the deck

Then Judai would also be happy to gain a new fan.

It's just an inconsequential branch line in the early stage of GX. Yuei Vu didn't even have the interest to watch from the front row.

But the two guests obviously didn't think so.

"It doesn't matter, we don't have any other plans today anyway." Jonouchi said, "Let's help together! Even if it is a replica, it is still that guy's deck after all. Right Yugi?"

"Yeah." Yugi also nodded.

Since both guests have requested this

"Okay." Yuei Vu didn't care, "Then let's go find the culprit."

Chapter 799: Duel King: Real Or Fake?

"Ha ha ha ha!"

Kagurazaka, a student of Ra Yellow, was facing the sea and standing on the edge of the cliff, looking at the legendary deck of cards in his hand with excitement.

Dark Magician, Buster Blader, Gaia The Fierce Knight, Black Luster Soldier all were top-notch monsters from legends of the past!

Duel King Muto Yugi used this deck to control these monsters to reach the pinnacle of the duel field and became the king that countless people admired!

As mentioned before, Kagurazaka's specialty was that he could simulate a strong person in terms of appearance, behavior, speech, and even psychology, completely copying that person's thinking.

And what he was holding now was the deck of Muto Yugi, the strongest duelist in history!

So putting himself in the shoes of the Duel King, Kagurazaka felt that he should be confident, try to be as ambitious as possible, and think big.

Yuki Judai, Kaiser Ryo, Chronos these powerful men will all fall at my feet!

Yeah, that's right, even if he got the Duel King's deck, his only ambition was to be a big brother in the academy

While his pride was swelling, he heard someone say from behind: "I'm sorry, classmate, that deck of cards isn't yours. Can you give it back?"

"Um?"

The swollen Kagurazaka turned back disdainfully, but the moment he saw the identity of the person coming, he almost suffered cardiorespiratory arrest.

This glittering gold ornament, this black, red, and gold three-color explosive starfish head, V-shaped collarless black T-shirt

Damn it, isn't this Yugi Muto himself!?

Yes, this was really Yugi himself.

After learning what happened from Yuei Vu, Yugi, Jonouchi and Yuei Vu split up on the island and went to the scene of the crime to look for the student who stole the card set.

By coincidence, Kagurazaka was bumped into by Yugi himself.

"The pursuit of powerful cards is a duelist's instinct, and there is nothing wrong with it." Muto Yugi slowly walked forward and said softly, "But simply powerful cards cannot make people stronger. Only cards that suit your own talents can be the best choice"

Before he finished speaking, Kagurazaka suddenly covered his face and laughed in a low and strange manner like a devil.

Yugi:"?"

What's wrong with this kid? Are you stimulated or something?

"Hehehehehahahahaha!"

Kagurazaka threw his head back and laughed. He laughed for a long time before stopping, looking at Yugi with amusement.

"Good guyI almost got fooled by you."

Yugi:"??"

Kagurazaka looked around him up and down for a long time, giggling strangely.

"Okay, you're well dressed." Kagurazaka said, staring at Yugi's starfish head for a long time, "This hairstyle Hehe, it really looks like the Duel King's hairstyle. Where did you make it? Your face looks a bit like Muto Yugi"

Yugi:""

How can I not look like myself?

However, Yugi had a good temper towards his juniors: "Are you saying you think I'm fake?"

"Stop bluffing, if you are real Yugi, then I will still be Principal Yuei Vu." Kagurazaka disdainfully said, "Although I have never seen Muto Yugi in person, I have seen him in the video.

He's probably a whole head shorter than you, and his face iswellrounder? And look at your strong body and muscles How can Muto Yugi have a figure like yours? You don't look like a Duel King, you look more like a boxer. "

Yugi:""

What Kagurazaka said it seemed to be true.

Indeed, Yugi hasn't been seen in public for many years, and most people's impression of him as the Duel King was still based on the video data from a few years ago.

Even Yuki Judai, the little fanboy who had a crush on him, didn't recognize him when they first bumped into each other, so it was normal for others not to recognize him.

"I see." Kagurazaka seemed to have suddenly figured out something, and his face was suddenly full of hostility, "Youhave you made the same idea as me tonight?"

Yugi was stunned for a moment: "What's your idea?"

"You're aiming at the Duel King's deck too!" Kagurazaka said matter-of-factly, "You've even changed your outfit and styled your hair exactly the same. Aren't you trying to imitate Duel King mentally and physically, trying to be like him?"

Yugi: "I"

I'm imitating myself?!

At this time, Kagurazaka noticed the inverted triangle pendant on his chest, and his expression froze, revealing an expression of astonishment: "Eh? You"

Yugi let out a long sigh.

It seemed like the student finally realized the problem.

So he stroked the Millennium Puzzle and said with a smile: "Well, this is the Millennium Puzzle. It is a very important treasure to me. It was left to me by my most important person"

Unexpectedly, Kagurazaka rolled her eyes at him.

"Stop your nonsense." He groaned, "Let me tell you, just last month, an idiot named Titan broke into this island the whole college spread the news!

That guy was also holding this thing in his hand at that time Oh, that's right, this Millennium Puzzle' is just like yours! "

Yugi:""

Nothing to say. JPG.

"But where did you buy it? It looks pretty decent." Kagurazaka began to be curious, "And where did you get this outfit? Is it expensive? How much does it cost?"

To be honest, Kagurazaka was a bit exciting.

As a COSPLAY master, he had always pursued perfection in the role he imitated. He believes that he must imitate that character from the inside out, starting from the smallest behavioral habits and even oral habits, and learn the strong man's way of thinking, in order to finally learn the opponent's tactics.

If I have this person's perfect Yugi Muto suit (according to his standards), wouldn't it help me get into the role better?

"It's not expensive" Yugi was a bit dumbfounded, "And my hair is natural"

"Natural?"

Kagurazaka stared at his weird hairstyle with reddish black and bangs like a bunch of golden lightning

Only a ghost can believe it!

Do you really think you are a Muto Yugi? The chosen one?

Yugi was quite patient with his juniors: "Do you think that as long as you can imitate me imitate Muto Yugi, use his deck, and learn his tactical ideas, you will become stronger, right?"

After thinking about it, he still did not continue to struggle with the issue of proving his identity and switched to the third person when referring to himself.

"Of course."

Kagurazaka had an expression on his face that said, "I'm here, who dare to kill me?"

What I have in my hands now is the deck of the strongest duelist in history, and I have thoroughly studied Duel King Yugi-sans tactics.

I can perfectly reproduce his duel and become the pinnacle of the duel world! "

"That's"

Because Yuei Vu mentioned it before, Yugi also clearly knew that the replica card deck in Kagurazaka's hands at this time was the one used by Atem.

If Kagurazaka could really perfectly reproduce his other self's thinking mode and dueling skill, Yugi was quite exciting.

"In that case Do you want to try a duel with me?" Yugi said with a smile, "To verify the power of your strongest deck'?"

Chapter 800: Trap Chain!

"Duel!" x2

Kagurazaka, LP 4000

Yugi, LP 4000

"I'll go first, draw!"

Unfortunately for Kagurazaka-san, Yugi got the first turn.

However, Kagurazaka was obviously not aware of the seriousness of the problem, and even laughed and mocked: "Hmph, it doesn't matter whether you go first or second.

The deck I have is the strongest duelist deck in history! The configuration of this deck is perfect in terms of offense, defense, and balance. It can take the best response whether it is attacking first or attacking second! "

Yugi smiled helplessly.

PerfectI can't really call it that.

After all, the real owner of this deck was also defeated by me, so?

The last time he played against Atem's deck was many years ago. Although he was vaguely looking forward to playing a duel game like this again, considering that the opponent was still a student, he, the Duel King, must not be too serious.

"First activate the Spell Card Pot of Greed' and draw two cards from the deck."

First, he drew two cards from the pot. Yugi glanced at it and immediately took down one of the cards that seemed to be stuck behind the pot by 502 glue.

"If this card is added from the Deck to my hand by a card effect, I can Special Summon itI summon Watapon' in attack position!"

The fluffy little ball jumped onto the field in front of Yugi. Its white and soft body was like the clouds floating leisurely in the sky.

[Watapon, ATK 200]

Then Yugi drew two more cards from his hand, one of which was directly discarded into the graveyard, and the other was inserted into the Duel Disk.

"Activate Spell Card 'Back to Square One'. Discard 1 card, then target 1 monster on the field; place that target on the top of the owner's deck. I return the 'Watapon' to the top of the deck!"

The 'Watapon' that had just appeared had not yet regained its footing, and then turned into a beam of white light and flew back to Yugi's deck.

Having never seen such an operation before, Kagurazaka could only look at it in shock: "What are you doing?"

Bounce the monster you summoned back into the deck Does this guy know how to duel?

How can anyone play cards like this?

"Set three cards, I end my turn!"

With a big wave of his hand, the Spell & Trap Zone was covered with three cards, and Yugi ended the round handsomely with an empty front row.

To be honest, Kagurazaka looked a little confused.

Summon a monster and then bounce it back and then the field is empty?

Isn't this the same as a girl who took off her clothes in front of a bunch of men?

But Kagurazaka quickly came to his senses and quickly continued to insert himself into the character he was cosplaying.

I'm the Duel King now!

A king's duel should be carried out without any hesitation!

"My turn, draw!" Kagurazaka shouted, "This turn, I'll show you the power of the strongest deck in duelist's apex!"

I activate the Spell Card 'Polymerization' to fuse 'Gazelle the King of Mythical Beasts' and 'Berfomet' in the hand! Fusion Summon

'Chimera the Flying Mythical Beast' !!!

The King of Mythical Beasts and Berfomet both appeared and merged into the swirling vortex in mid-air. Raging magic burst out from the eye of the wind, and a two-headed phantom beast with snow-white wings came roaring.

[Chimera the Flying Mythical Beast, ATK 2100]

"Hey~ It's the Flying Mythical Beast." Yugi nodded slightly and smiled softly, "It's such a nostalgic monster."

Since Atem left, he hasn't used these cards from the "Phantom Beast" series for a long time. But when Atem was still there, he really liked to fuse a "Chimera the Flying Mythical Beast" in the first turn.

In that era, it was quite remarkable to be able to summon a monster with an attack power of 2100 from the beginning. Moreover, Chimera also had the effect of returning a fusion material to the field when it was destroyed. It had excellent attack and defense performance. Both Yugi and Atem used to like this monster very much.

Looking at this two-headed fantasy beast now, Yugi's mind was filled with memories.

"Feel my overwhelming power! Battle!" Kagurazaka waved his hand, "Chimera the Flying Mythical Beast, attack that impostor directly!"

The two heads of the Chimera roared at the same time, flapped their white wings, and struck Yugi's face with a tiger pounce.

"Then at this moment, the effect of the Clear Kuriboh' in the graveyard is activated!" Yugi said, "When an opponent's monster declares a direct attack: I can banish this card from my Graveyard; draw 1 card.

If the card drawn is a monster card, I can Special Summon it. "

Kagurazaka's eyelids twitched.

Clear Kuriboh? When

That's right! It's the card that was discarded when the Spell Card "Back to Square One" was activateddid he deliberately discard it through the Spell Card to place this trap in the graveyard?

Wait, thats not all!

That Spell Card "Back to Square One" not only discarded the "Clear Kuriboh" to the graveyard but also bounced the "Watapon" on the field to the top of the deck.

In other words, at this moment, the next card drawn in the game based on the effect of "Clear Kuriboh" would inevitably be a monster card that was, the "Watapon" he just returned to the deck.

"It is indeed a very exquisite design." Kagurazaka frowned, "But does it have any meaning?"

Even if it was ensured that the next card drawn is a monster card, Watapon was just a miscellaneous fish with a defense power of 300. At best, it could only be used as a wall to block one damage

"According to the effect of Clear Kuriboh', the card I drew was Watapon', so I Special Summon Wataponin attack position!" Yugi shouted.

"Nani!?" Kagurazaka was shocked, "Attack position?"

[Watapon, ATK 200]

Seeing this fluffy little guy jumping out of the house, Kagurazaka's heart was ringing with alarm bells.

When something didn't make sense, there must be a problem. The more bizarre the operation, the more problematic it was!

"Then the Battle Replay occurred, and the attack of Chimera the Flying Mythical Beast is terminated!" The desire for survival made him give up the attack.

But it's too late.

"It's useless." Yugi smiled, "When a monster is specially summoned by the effect of Clear Kuriboh', the opponent must attack that monster."

Kagurazaka: "!"

The attack of the Flying Mythical Beast did not stop. The two-headed phantom roared and flew across the field, its fangs wrapped in mucus, and its sharp claws clawed at the air.

"Open the set card." Yugi said, "Trap Card Massivemorph! Select a monster on the opponent's field, and that monster's ATK will be doubled!

I doubled the attack power of the Chimera the Flying Mythical Beast!"

[Chimera the Flying Mythical Beast, ATK 2100 ATK 4200]

Kagurazaka started to break into a cold sweat.

"What on earth do you want to do?"

The attack power of the Flying Mythical Beast was doubled to 4200, while the attack power of the Watapon was only 200. This battle would directly cause 4000 damage!

Isn't this a direct self-destruction?

"The second trap!" Yugi revealed another set card, "Continuous Trap Dimension Sphinx! Target 1 face-up Attack Position monster I control. Once per battle, during the Battle Step, if it is attacked by an opponent's monster with higher ATK: I can inflict damage to the opponent equal to the difference between the attacking monster's ATK and the targeted monster's!"

"Nani!?" Kagurazaka was shocked.

The damage caused by the difference in attack power is four thousand points! ?

In other words, before the battle was established and the opponent received 4000 points of Battle Damage, would first receive 4000 points of Effect Damage and be killed instantly?

There is such a chain combo in the world!?

But in shock, Kagurazaka curled up the corner of her mouth and sneered.

"It is indeed a terrifying killing move, but the Duel King's duel is impeccable!"

He waved his hand and took another card.

"Quick-Play Spell Malice Dispersion!" Kagurazaka shouted, "Discard 1 card, and all the Continuous Trap Cards on the field are destroyed!"

"Oh?" Yugi showed an interested expression, "That is to say"

"The Dimension Sphinx' will be destroyed before it has time to take effect," Kagurazaka said proudly, "This way the damage will not be reflected back to me, and you will suffer 4000 points of Battle Damage and be defeated directly!

Ha ha ha ha! It's indeed a very creative tactic, but this little trick won't work in front of a truly strong person! Only absolute strength can influence the situation of the battle! "

"That's right." Yugi nodded, "But you should also notice that I have one set card left on the field, right?"

Kagurazaka suffered cardiorespiratory arrest again for a brief moment.

Is there still a pitfall!?

"The third trap."

The final set card before Yugi was revealed, which also marked the end of this duel.

"Counter Trap Judgment of Anubis!"

The dark smoke gathered and gradually formed the shape of a jackal in mid-air. Its eyes were cold and vicious, and the fangs at the corners of its mouth seemed to be shining with cold light.

Kagurazaka's breathing almost stopped: "This card is"

"This card can only be activated when the opponent activates a Spell Card that would destroy a Spell/Trap on the field." Yugi said, "Discard a card, 1 card; negate the activation and destroy it.

After that, I can destroy 1 face-up monster the opponent controls, and inflict damage to the opponent equal to the destroyed monster's ATK on the field.

I destroyed the Chimera the Flying Mythical Beast! "

[Chimera the Flying Mythical Beast, ATK 4200]

Kagurazaka's expression almost changed: "Chimera's current attack power is 4,200!?"

The way he looked at the starfish head in front of him became a little scary.

This guy has he even prepared a counterattack to this point?

Could he really be!?

"Uhhhhhhh!!!"
