

I Play Yu-Gi 811

Chapter 811: Mural

It was getting slightly brighter, and Yuei Vu had already embarked on his journey to visit the archaeological captain.

That address was located on the outskirts of the country, on the edge of a rather remote small village. The intelligence said that the archaeological team leader Keita Koizumi did not originally live there. He was a native city man who had lived in mechanized and urbanized areas since childhood.

But it was only after he unearthed an unknown object that he made a special trip to the countryside, and specifically chose this remote corner on the edge of the village to live in, almost isolated from the world.

This location was really hard to find. There were no road signs or guideposts, and beside the road leading to Mr. Keita Koizumi's residence were all mountains that looked similar.

Yuei Vu sat in the back seat of the off-road vehicle, looking through the window at the endless blue river sparkling in the sun, looking at the lush jungles along the coast, and the mysterious and silent mountains, feeling every scene seemed to have been copied and pasted with minimal modifications, and the differences were so subtle that they were reminiscent of the game you played in childhood magazines where you were given two pictures and asked to "find the difference."

The off-road vehicle stopped at the foot of the mountain. Yuei Vu asked the driver and bodyguard arranged by Kaiba Corp to stay in the car and got out of the car to visit his target.

His destination was a small duplex white building, located just at the foot of the mountain, backed by dense woods and shrubs, and even seemed a bit abrupt in such a natural scenic spot.

The person who answered the door was Ken Koizumi, Keita Koizumi's younger brother. The two brothers lived here together.

Since he had already greeted in advance the night before, the host was not surprised by Yuei Vu's visit. He warmly invited Yuei Vu into the house and prepared good tea for him.

"My brother went into the mountains yesterday afternoon and hasn't come back yet." Ken Koizumi said while pouring tea, "But according to experience, he will be back before lunch. If you don't mind, you can wait a moment."

"He spent the night in the mountains?" Yuei Vu was a little surprised, "Does he often do this?"

"Yes." Ken Koizumi said helplessly, "Mountain climbing is one of the few hobbies my brother has, and it was an interest I tried my best to get him interested in at the beginning of the year.

Otherwise, he just stays at home every day, unable to get excited about anything, depressed, and seems to have lost interest in life itself. "

"Sounds like depression."

"Indeed but he was not like this before." Ken Koizumi sat down on the sofa opposite, "He used to be an optimistic person, with a passion for archeology that ordinary people could not match.

He is also very passionate about life itself and looks forward to every day. He once believed that he could make huge discoveries that would shock the world like Columbus discovering the New World, like Pegasus finding the tablets for dueling monsters. "

"He succeeded?"

"Succeeded but also failed." Ken Koizumi was depressed when mentioning this part. "My brother did discover something. From an archaeological point of view, he may have succeeded, but he was also affected by his own success.

After returning from that mission, he seemed to be a completely different person. He has no passion and has lost interest in everything in the world.

I saw that his spirit became more and more depressed and he became more and more haggard. It was as if he was afraid of something, some fate that he felt he couldn't escape. "

Yuei Vu thought this sounded even weirder.

"So did he mention anything about what happened during that mission?"

Ken Koizumi shook his head.

"He signed a confidentiality agreement with the relevant departments at the time and could not disclose the contents of the incident to anyone. Moreover, Keita himself was very resistant to recalling those things. Since coming back, he has been trying his best to forget those things .it just might not be very successful."

Koizumi paused.

"But I kept telling him that continuing to sink like this is not an option. So I was very happy to hear that you were coming over last night, Mr. Yuei Vu.

If you really want to know what happened, you can ask Keita in person later. I think if it were you he might be willing to tell. "

So before Keita Koizumi came back, Yuei Vu stayed.

Ken Koizumi mentioned that there are some of his brother's most proud collections in the house, some of which were discovered during his archaeological work, and some were obtained from other sources.

For Yuei Vu, archeology was equivalent to an alien culture, and he could be said to know nothing about it. While he was visiting, he couldn't help but express his admiration. However, in fact, he was just a country idiot and couldn't see anything.

Until he saw a mural.

To be precise, it was a replica of a mural. The moment his eyes fell on the vivid carvings on the golden stone slab, Yuei Vu was firmly attracted as if possessed. His eyes did not blink, and for a moment he couldn't help but doubt the authenticity of what he saw.

The accompanying Ken Koizumi quickly realized that this distinguished guest was interested in this collection, so he stepped forward and explained: "My brother acquired this with a lot of effort.

Its original work is a mural unearthed in Egypt. I don't know much about the details, but Keita seems to have mentioned that the creation of this mural involved some ancient alchemy that we haven't figured out yet.

He said that because of some magical properties of alchemical materials, it is difficult to be corroded by time, so people still have no way to determine the age it came from"

Ken Koizumi obviously didn't know much. His understanding of the collection here only came from his brother's words in daily life.

But Yuei Vu soon stopped listening to Ken Koizumi's words, and all his attention was attracted to the mural.

He saw that the ancients used rough and crude lines to depict majestic and majestic compositions. He saw a giant dragon churning in the sky based on the relief on the stone slab that was once guarded by the Tomb Keeper Clan, Yuei Vu was 70% sure that it was the "Orisis the Sky Dragon" because it was similar to the painting on the relief. The shape of the wind was exactly the same.

In the same way, the abstract giant standing on the ground should be the "Obelisk the Tormentor". "The Winged Dragon of Ra" spread its wings and hung high on their heads, and there were lines around the body that represented the sunshine. The simple lines expressed the sacredness vividly.

On their opposite side, in another territory, he saw three similar beings. A roaring dragon in the sky, a demon in charge of thunder, and a huge giant with demonic wings.

Although he had never seen these in other materials, he quickly speculated that they should be "Uria, Lord of Searing Flames", "Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder", "Raviel, Lord of Phantasms", that was, three Sacred Beasts.

If these were normal, the rest were even weirder.

For example, there seemed to be three statues of gods emerging at the end of a distant ocean outside the continent. There was a one-eyed man with a scepter, a cunning little man wearing a tall hat, and a thundering giant with broad shoulders and immense strength.

It was very obvious that they were gods from Norse mythology, Odin, Loki, and Thor, known as the "Three Polar Gods of the Star World".

In another part of the painting, there were also burning lines etched on the ground, outlining the curves of various animals. There were giants, spiders, hummingbirds, apes, etc., and each corresponding monster stood tall and proud, and its size was comparable to that of gods and demons.

Those were the "Nazca Lines", which corresponded to the beings known as "Earthbound Immortals".

A battle between gods and demons, like a mural depicting the end of the world.

Chapter 812: Deck of The Strong

Yuei Vu couldn't help but have suspicions and associations with the content of this painting.

No one knew in which era this ancient mural was created, nor whether it was a faithful reproduction of a scene that has appeared in history, or whether it was a prophecy dictated by a prophet of a certain era.

When Yuei Vu looked at this painting, he felt a strange and bad premonition.

The "Three Egyptian Gods" who represent the pinnacle of DM's combat power, the top demon god "Three Sacred Beasts" from the GX era, the Nordic god "Three Aesirs" who appeared on 5DS, and the demons from the same generation who awakened from the Nazca Lines "Earthbound Immortal"

Judging from the meaning expressed by the painter, this seemed to be a large-scale battle. The battle between gods and demons, the conflict between gods of different systems, each side represented their own camp.

Yuei Vu became more and more curious about the origin of this mural.

Maybe when Keita Koizumi comes back later, I can ask him about the story behind this painting.

Unfortunately, this plan was doomed to fail.

The lights in the exhibition hall suddenly went out, followed by a soft sound like an engine stalling.

No, its not just this exhibition hall. The lights in the entire duplex went out as if someone had dug out the cables.

"WTF?" Ken Koizumi muttered vaguely and then turned to Yuei Vu with an apology, "I'm sorry, Mr. Yuei Vu, it's like this sometimes here.

A little out-of-the-way place, you know. Let me make some phone calls"

Yuei Vu said nothing.

The experience of facing powerful enemies many times has trained his instincts, and he knew that this could not be a coincidence. It's a signal, like a cat's hair standing on end, an alert to prepare for war.

This was a provocation.

The door seemed to have been smashed open by a heavy hammer, and a figure stood at the door. After the lights were turned off, the airtight exhibition hall was completely dark. Light spilled in from outside the door, and the black shadow standing at the door was dark and tall.

Yuei Vu had never met him in person, but based on the information collected these days and the promotional photos in magazines, he recognized the person's identity at a glance.

It was a peerless strongman who had disappeared, the second-generation Duel King after Yuei Vu himself and Muto Yugi.

Hibiki Koyo.

However, Yuei Vu quickly saw that the other party's condition was not normal. His facial muscles were very stiff, making it seem difficult to make even small changes in expression. His walking movements were also very mechanical, making people feel that he was a machine.

Although his eyes were not hollow, they still made people feel as if something important was missing. More importantly, the Duel King's entire body was shrouded in a dark miasma, making him appear gloomy and ferocious.

"Yuei Vu, the first Duel King and the originator of HERO user." Hibiki Koyo said coldly, "I have wanted to fight you for a long time."

"Is he being manipulated?" Yuei Vu murmured.

This made Yuei Vu naturally think of the comic plot of "Yu-Gi-Oh GX".

Among them, Hibiki Koyo, the world champion, also lost in the Shadow Game with Tragoedia. From then on, his consciousness fell into darkness, and he himself was bedridden for many years, until the finale when Yuki Judai and Manjome defeated Tragoedia and liberated him.

Moreover, the dark miasma exuding from Hibiki Koyo in front of him was indeed very similar to the Tragoedia that Yuei Vu encountered before.

So he had reason to believe that Hibiki Koyo was now under the control of Tragoedia.

But unlike the puppet controlled by Tragoedia before, he did not directly kick away Hibiki Koyo's consciousness, but performed a mental operation similar to "brainwashing".

Obviously, this was to preserve the Duel King's own strength as the best fighter under Tragoedia.

"Sure enough, this matter is still related to Big Lobster that's just right."

Yuei Vu opened the duel disk and waved his hand to Ken Koizumi behind him to hide away.

"The second generation Duel King, right? I've wanted to try a fight with you for a long time."

The first and second generation Duel Kings were both known as "HERO" users. Perhaps they were destined to have a duel sooner or later.

Yuei Vu took out a deck of cards, and after thinking twice, inserted into the duel disk.

At this moment, he clearly marked a star number in the column of Duelist Rank in the personal panel of his system

Rank 10.

This Rank was already at the level of the Three Egyptian Gods among Duel Monsters. Although he has just crossed the threshold of this level, Yuei Vu estimated that he should be similar to Atem in the Duelist Kingdom arc when DM first appeared.

The biggest advantage of high Rank was that you could be very bold when building your deck.

Real card players often used the same series or series that could interact with each other to build a deck. This could ensure the efficiency of the high-speed operation of the deck, reduce the dead draw rate, and facilitate smooth deployment.

But weaknesses were also obvious.

A deck built with a series as its core must have a theme, and the entire deck system must have a core theme. For example, in some decks the monsters were all of the same type, some had the same attributes, and some series relied heavily on a certain core card to operate.

This left the deck with a fatal weakness.

For example, the Orichalcos deck of Dartz back then if The Seal of Orichalcos was blocked, all his tactics were unable to be deployed. Another example was the more familiar Cyber Dragon. The monsters in the entire system were all Machine, making this deck almost helpless against the power of "System Down".

If the opponent had information in advance and knew the system, theme, and key points of your deck from the beginning, it would be very easy to target them.

No matter how strong the top deck was, it had its own weaknesses. The Yu-Gi-Oh card pool was bottomless. As long as you knew what the opponent was playing in advance, you could easily target them to death.

But this was not always the case in the anime worldview.

For example, if Yusei Kaido and Muto Yugi were to duel, he would not be able to make tactical arrangements based on Yugi's deck construction.

Because there was absolutely no way to do that.

It was no exaggeration to say that the deck of Yugi was a mess. His deck had a lot of messy systems, and each system could be taken out to build a new deck that worked well.

For example, the Dark Magician series, the Magnet Warrior series, the Black Luster Soldier series, the Buster Blader series, the Gaia The Fierce Knight series, the Magician Girl series, etc

Such a large number of types, attributes, tactical systems, and playing methods were all stuffed together. How to deal with them?

But maybe this was how a true boss was built. Yusei Kaido felt that perhaps as long as he still stuck to the constraints of the conventional deck system, then he would not be able to truly become the top powerhouse defined in the Yu-Gi-Oh world.

This was why he decided to make this bold attempt when his Duelist Rank crossed the threshold of ten.

A brand new deck that he had never tried before, a deck that could cope with various situations and had countless possibilities.

The opponent could never predict how he would be defeated.

"Duel!" x2

Yusei Kaido, LP 4000

Chapter 813: What Kind of Deck Is He Playing?

"I'll go first, draw!" Hibiki Koyou said, "I summon the Elemental HERO Blazeman' in attack position!"

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200]

"The effect of Blazeman! If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can add 1 Polymerization' from my Deck to my hand!" Hibiki Koyou drew a card from the deck.

"Then the Spell Card Polymerization is activated! I fuse Elemental HERO Blazeman' on the field and the Elemental HERO Ice Edge' in my hand!

Fusion Summon! The Elemental HERO born in the extremely cold abyss

Elemental HERO Absolute Zero! ! ! "

A storm of ice and snow rolled up, and two heroes turned into flames and white whirlpools. The hero in plain white armor landed silently on the frozen ground. The snowflakes in the sky seemed to be still, and the white cloak rose and fell.

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

Absolute Zero was almost Yuei Vu's signature card so far, and this was the first time he had personally faced this big brother-level Elemental HERO in actual combat.

As previously mentioned, Absolute Zero was extremely rare. To be more precise, except for Yuki Judai, who received the gift from Yuei Vu, there were only two people in the world who held "Absolute Zero".

One was Yuei Vu, and the other was the second-generation Duel King Hibiki Koyo.

Although the dueling community now generally believed that this powerful ice hero was one of Yuei Vu's trump cards after all, he was the first to use it on the field, if we really wanted to trace the origin and background of Absolute Zero in the manga, this eldest brother was actually Hibiki Koyo's exclusive Elemental HERO.

In the original work, Absolute Zero was Hibiki Koyo's ace monster as the world champion in the professional league, just like the Dark Magician held by Yugi.

"Set a card, I end my turn!" Hibiki Koyo said.

"Then it's my turn, draw!"

When Absolute Zero was destroyed, any monster on the opponent's field would be frozen. Yuei Vu knew this effect better than anyone else. No matter whether it was destroyed, banished, bounced, or sent directly to the graveyard, there was no way to avoid the effect of this comprehensive explosion.

Therefore, if you want to organize an effective attack, you must first pass the guarding of Absolute Zero.

And Hibiki Koyo's defense may be more than that.

As the most well-known user of HERO decks in the world today, Yuei Vu clearly knew the characteristics and tactical arrangements of various heroes. Hibiki Koyo, as a duel king who was also famous for the HERO series, should be very familiar with this system.

Absolute Zero could destroy all the opponent's monsters, but this effect could not be triggered until he left the field, which made the triggering of its effect somewhat passive. In the opponent's turn, only the opponent's attack could determine when this field-clearing effect was triggered.

Unless

Yuei Vu's eyes fell on the set card in the Spell & Trap Zone of Hibiki Koyo.

He had a hunch that that card was most likely a trap that could actively make his "Absolute Zero" leave the field and trigger the field-clearing effect.

"I summon the Chocolate Magician Girl!"

[Chocolate Magician Girl, ATK 1600]

"The effect of Chocolate Magician Girl! Once per turn: I can discard 1 Spellcaster-Type monster; draw 1 card."

Yuei Vu discarded a card in his hand to the graveyard and immediately drew a card from the deck.

Hibiki Koyo narrowed his eyes slightly.

Not a hero, but a magician girl?

This made Hibiki Koyo, who was looking forward to a showdown between "the strongest HERO users in the world," a little displeased.

Although Tragoedia brainwashed him into becoming his thug, he retained his will and thinking, but only distorted part of his cognition through mental manipulation.

Hibiki Koyo's instinct as a duelist came from the bottom of his heart and he hoped to compete with Yuei Vu's HERO deck.

To him, this first-generation Duel King was considered a senior.

"Quick-Play Spell Magical Dimension!" Yuei Vu said, "If I control a Spellcaster monster: Target 1 monster I control; Tribute that target, then Special Summon 1 Spellcaster monster from my hand!"

This card was one of the most favored Spellcaster support cards by another Duel King Muto Yugi, and almost no one in the world was unfamiliar with its effect.

Although Yuei Vu didn't finish speaking, Hibiki Koyo knew that this card had subsequent effects. After the Spellcaster monster was Special Summoned by this effect, the user could also select a monster on the field to destroy.

In other words, if Yuei Vu was allowed to complete the effect processing here, the Absolute Zero of Hibiki Koyo would have to exit here.

In this case, it is better to strike first.

"Open the set card!" He opened the set card in the Spell & Trap Zone, "Trap Card Altar for Tribute! Send 1 monster I control to the Graveyard and increase my Life Points by an amount equal to the original ATK of the monster!"

I send Elemental HERO Absolute Zero from my field to GY! "

[Hibiki Koyo, LP 4000 LP 6500]

The ancient and ferocious altar emerged, and the hero in plain white armor disappeared into the depths of the bloody altar. Endless cold erupted from the dark abyss, and a white wave swept across the earth, freezing into an ice sculpture along with the altar.

How could a magical girl with delicate skin and tender flesh withstand such a cold wave? She sneezed and huddled up with her arms and legs, her white arms and thighs covered with frost, her devil-like little wings drooped, and she was shivering.

If the only Absolute Zero on the field was destroyed, Hibiki Koyo's set card in the Spell & Trap Zone would become a decoration. Rather than being destroyed by the opponent, it was better to sacrifice Absolute Zero yourself and regain a mouthful of blood to consolidate the defense.

This would also trigger the effect of destroying all monsters on the opponent's field. Without the Tribute, Yuei Vu would not be able to summon another magician.

"Quick-Play Spell Mask Change II!" Yuei Vu waved his hand, "Discard 1 card, then target 1 face-up monster I control that has a Level; send it to the GY, also, after that, if it leaves the field by this effect, Special Summon from my Extra Deck, 1 Masked HERO' monster with the same Attribute, but a higher Level than the monster when it was on the field!

I sent Chocolate Magician Girl' on the field to the graveyard, transform! "

"!?" Hibiki Koyo had a look of stiff astonishment on his face.

Transform the Magician Girl!?

Wait, so what the other party wants to summon is not a magician at all, but

The frozen earth was broken open, and the ice crystals exploded into slag. Waves of water burst out from the ground, swirling around the girl who was about to freeze into a popsicle.

The water quickly condensed and turned into blue armor, which clung to her body as if attracted by a magnet. The Chocolate Magician Girl's white forearms and thighs were covered in armor, and her small wings were retracted and stuffed into the armor. The helmet covered her little head, and the eyepieces on her eyes lit up with scarlet light.

[Masked HERO Vapor, ATK 2400]

The absolute zero-degree cold wave was approaching, as if everything was about to freeze. But Vapor only raised his arm, and with a wave of his hand, the waves of water shot out like arrows, crushing the cold wave into pieces in an instant!

"Masked HERO Vapor' cannot be destroyed by any card effect." Yuei Vu smiled, "Even the ability of Absolute Zero is ineffective against him."

He waved his hand.

"Next, I activate the Spell Card Dark Magic Veil! Pay 1000 LP; Special Summon 1 DARK Spellcaster-Type monster from my hand or Graveyard!"

"The DARK Spellcaster-Type in the graveyard" Hibiki Koyo's eyes moved.

The effect of Chocolate Magician Girl is to "discard a Spellcaster and draw a card". Is that discarded Spellcaster

[Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3000]

Yuei Vu raised his arms.

"The top mage who is proficient in the secrets of black magic Dark Magician! "

The complex interlacing lines weave a magician's array. A dark and slender figure flew out of the magic circle, the staff spinning lightly in his hand.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

"Battle! Masked HERO Vapor, attack directly!"

The Vapor stepped forward on the rapids and flew up under the swirl of water. He spun around, and the sharp white blade cut through the light blue water curtain, mercilessly slashing past Hibiki Koyo!

[Hibiki Koyo, LP 6500 LP 4100]

Hibiki Koyo groaned and took half a step back, clutching his painful heart.

"Then there's a direct attack from the Dark Magician'!"

The magician stepped up into the air on a transparent magic circle, swung his staff down, and the circle of the magic circle under his feet rotated. The power of black magic poured into the tip of his staff along the edge that was engraved with runes.

Black Magic Attack!

The black magic impact hit Hibiki Koyo heavily and without any hindrance. The impact of the Shadow Game blew his body away, and the impact of the intimate contact with the ground ran through his whole body along his spine.

[Hibiki Koyo, LP 4100 LP 1600]

"Set a card, I end my turn." Yuei Vu said.

Hibiki Koyo stood firm, straightened up again, and narrowed his eyes slightly.

The first-generation Duel King what kind of deck is he playing?

Chapter 814: Earth Core!

"My turn!" It was back to Hibiki Koyo's turn again.

Although he was slightly at a disadvantage in the last turn of confrontation, the impact was not too great. He didn't suffer any loss in terms of resources. This turn he only needed to regain the disadvantage on the scene and fight back in one go.

"Activate the Spell Card Graceful Charity'." Hibiki Koyo said, "Draw three cards from the deck, and then discard the two cards."

It was obvious that Hibiki Koyo had already planned the unfolding tactical ideas. After drawing three new cards from his hand, he picked out the two he was about to discard without any hesitation.

"The effect of the Elemental HERO Shadow Mist' discarded to the graveyard is activated." Hibiki Koyo said, "If this card is sent to the GY: I can add 1 HERO' monster from my Deck to my hand.

I added "Elemental HERO Heat" from the deck to my hand. "

A card popped out of the deck and was taken out by Hibiki Koyo into his hand.

Then comes Pot of Greed. I draw two more cards.

Then activate the Spell Card Fusion Recovery! Return the Spell Card Polymerization' in the graveyard and the Elemental HERO Blazeman' sent to the graveyard as Fusion Material to my hand! "

Two cards popped up from his graveyard. Yuei Vu watched the number of cards in his hand increase rapidly and soon realized that the opponent was planning a big move.

"Activate the Spell Card Polymerization' again from the hand!" Hibiki Koyo took a photo of the fusion card that was just recovered, "I fuse Elemental HERO Blazeman', Elemental HERO Heat', and Elemental HERO Woodsman'!

The fusion condition is 3 Elemental HERO monsters! Fusion Summon!

The gathered elements call out new miracles on the earth, penetrating the core of the earth and roaring between heaven and earth

Elemental HERO Core! ! ! "

A triple fusion of Elemental HEROes, three different heroes merged under the earth's crust one after another. The churning magma gathered under the surface, and the light beam carrying the turbulent flow of elements broke through the shackles of the earth's crust and arrived like a god.

It was a white giant that was exactly the same as the "Terra Firma". His body was covered with red lines like magma, and the fire-colored core on his chest looked like roiling hot lava.

[Elemental HERO Core, ATK 2700]

"Even the Core has come out" Yuei Vu muttered.

It was common knowledge that the protagonist's monsters in Yu-Gi-Oh's works have various evolved forms and new vests, and this "Core" was the evolved form of the "Elemental HERO Terra Firma" in the Legendary Planet series in the manga. It was completely superior to Terra Firma both in terms of actual combat effects and spiritual power.

Terra Firma was already certain to be in the hands of Tragoedia and Big Lobster also very politely brought that card to Yuei Vu as a big gift when he visited Duel Academy last time. So now Terra Firma was already in Yuei Vu's deck.

So it could be predicted that this evolved form of "Elemental HERO Core" should also be Tragoedia's new trump card in the Hibiki Koyo deck.

"Battle!" Hibiki Koyo shouted, "Elemental HERO Core, attack Masked HERO Vapor!"

The lines all over the white giant's body were activated, and magma-like energy was rapidly transported along every pipe in his body. Dark red light surged hotly in the tube, flowing along his limbs and into the core of his chest.

A fiery red ray burst out from the hero's palm, and the beam burned like it penetrated the air. A hissing sound filled the air along with a white smoke screen, and electromagnetic force clung to the searing impact, penetrating the Masked HERO's armor head-on.

"The effect of Core'!" Hibiki Koyo shouted, "When this card battles, his ATK is doubled!" (manga effect)

[Elemental HERO Core, ATK 2700 ATK 5400]

In terms of attack power alone, it was a very overbearing ability. Even the Five-Headed Dragon, which had the highest original ATK among Duel Monsters, was no match for this hero.

This effect of the real-life Core was weakened. His attack power could only be doubled when he was attacked by the opponent, and only once per turn. It was almost incomparable to the original version

Masked Hero Vapor could not resist this power. The blue and white armor was shattered in an instant, and the hero also retreated under the impact of the earth's core.

If this 3000 points of damage passed, it would kill Yuei Vu instantly!

"Open the set card." Yuei Vu waved his hand, "Continuous Trap Magicians' Defense!"

The set card was flipped, and the artwork was the Dark Magician Girl and the Apple Magical Girl working together to cast spells it was very obvious that it was a trap related to the Magical Girls series.

"As long as there is a Spellcaster monster on my field, any damage I receive will be halved." Yuei Vu said, "Now there is Dark Magician' on my field, so the battle damage will be halved!"

Yuei Vu, LP 3000 LP 1500

"Did you block it?" Hibiki Koyo said calmly, "Then the second effect of Elemental HERO Core! When this card destroys a monster, I can destroy 2 cards on the opponent's field!" (manga effect)

Another ability that was much stronger than the real card. The real-life version of Core could only destroy one monster at the end of the Battle Phase in which it was fought.

Regardless of the actual combat value, such an effect was truly worthy of his status as the ace of the Duel King's deck.

"Destroy the Magicians' Defense' and the Dark Magician'!"

The electromagnetic force was released from the white Elemental HERO's body, and the jumping electric light was released from every energy channel in his body, leaping and exploding in his limbs and fingertips.

The Dark Magician and the Continuous Trap were both hit and turned into dust on the duel field in an instant.

"Then the subsequent effect of the Continuous Trap Magicians' Defense'." Yuei Vu briefly showed this trap before sending it to the graveyard. "If this card is sent from the field to the Graveyard: I can target 1 Spellcaster-Type monster in my Graveyard; Special Summon it!

I resurrected the Chocolate Magician Girl! "

The magic was activated, and the complex spell symbols were attached to the edge of the magic circle, running like a wheel. The chocolate girl flew out playfully, her little wings flapping rhythmically behind her.

[Chocolate Magician Girl, ATK 1600]

Hibiki Koyo frowned slightly.

Is the deck used by this first-generation Duel King a mixture of Dark Magician, Magician Girl and Masked HERO?

No, it feels like there might be more to it than that.

He felt a little incredible. There were obviously so many exchanges of offense and defense between them, but he didn't even know what the opponent's real tactic was.

"Set three cards, I end my turn!"

Chapter 815: Ambition Sanctions!

Elemental HERO Core's attack power would be doubled when calculating combat damage. In other words, his attack power could be regarded as 5400 points. It may be difficult to solve it by battle.

But it didn't necessarily have to be solved by battle.

"My turn." Yuei Vu showed the card he drew, 'Activate Spell Card Spell Books from the Pot', both sides draw three cards from the deck."

Yuei Vu took a look and immediately inserted two of them into the duel disk.

"Set two cards onto the field, followed by the Spell Card Card of Sanctity'. Each player draws until they have 6 cards in their hand."

After filling up his hand with six more cards, Yuei Vu then picked out one of them and discarded it to the graveyard.

"The effect of the Chocolate Magician Girl! Once per turn: I can discard 1 Spellcaster-Type monster; draw 1 card." Yuei Vu changed another card in his hand and then showed one of his cards.

"I offer the Chocolate Magician Girl' as a sacrifice! Tribute Summon!

The successor of black magic, the great disciple of the black magician

Dark Magician Girl! "

The chocolate girl flapped her little wings and waved her little hands as if to say goodbye. The girl quickly disappeared from the field, the black magic circle rotated, and the blond girl with a slim waist, long legs, and spectacular breasts flew out lightly, and the small staff waved a small love in the air.

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000]

"Because there is a Dark Magician' sleeping in the graveyard, the Dark Magician Girl's attack power increases by 300."

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000 ATK 2300]

Hibiki Koyo said: "Even so, the attack power is still far inferior to that of Core"

"I know, and I don't intend to win in this regard." Yuei Vu raised a card in his hand, "Activate the Spell Card The Eye of Timaeus'!

Target 1 Dark Magician' monster on my field; Fusion Summon 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck that mentions that monster on the field as material, using it as the Fusion Material! "

The Spell Card he held high above his head released a golden light as if some great being was summoned through this card as a medium.

It was a transparent dragon, with a powerful body covered in indestructible scales, and a golden flash in its single eye, like sunlight shining on a calm lake.

"The disciples of the great magician will put on the knight's armor and summon infinite possibilities with the combination of the legendary dragon and the power of black magic!

Fusion Summon! Lets appear in a new form

Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight! "

The legendary dragon swirled in mid-air, forming a golden vortex. The magical girl flew in with ease, and a ball of majestic and terrifying energy exploded downwards, carrying the powerful knight and crashing to the ground.

The dragon's feet stirred up dust on the ground. The girl in silver armor straddled the back of the legendary dragon, holding a silver-white long sword and a shield with patterns.

[Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, ATK 2600]

The girl on the dragon's back waved her long sword lightly, and the sword energy and the dragon's power formed a whirlwind-like field. Although there was a huge difference in attack values, the momentum was not weaker than that of the Core in front of her!

"The effect of Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight," Yuei Vu said, "Once per turn, I can send 1 card from my hand to the GY, then target 1 face-up card on the field; destroy that target!"

Yuei Vu discarded a card from his hand into the graveyard.

"Destroy the Elemental HERO Core!"

Timaeus roared, the girl's face was serious, her pink and lovely cheeks puffed up, the knight's sword was raised high above his head, and the sword energy vortex shot straight into the sky like a pillar of strength.

"Open the set card!" Hibiki Koyo responded in time, "Continuous Trap Dimension Guardian! Target 1 face-up Attack Position monster I control. It cannot be destroyed by battle or card effects!

I use this card to protect the Elemental HERO Core' from being destroyed! "

The defense of the trap builds an impenetrable barrier, like a transparent shield.

The Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight slashed down with her sword. The sword energy and the milky white impact spitting out of the dragon's mouth merged together, hitting the Core's body like a bursting flood, but all of it was only pushed away by the invisible barrier. .

"It seems like your tactics didn't work smoothly." Hibiki Koyo said.

Yuei Vu didn't take it seriously: "Then I activate the effect of the Vision HERO Faris' in my hand, and discard a HERO' monster in my hand to special summon it.

I discarded the "Elemental HERO Shadow Mist" in my hand and Special Summoned Faris! "

[Vision HERO Faris, ATK 1600]

"The effect of Shadow Mist If this card is sent to the GY: I can add 1 HERO' monster from my Deck to my hand." Yuei Vu showed a card drawn from the deck, "I added the Elemental HERO Stratos' to the hand.

Next is the effect of Vision HERO Faris'. If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can place 1 Vision HERO' monster from my Deck, except Vision HERO Faris', in my Spell & Trap Zone as a face-up Continuous Trap.

I placed the Vision HERO Poisoner!' "

A dark phantom appeared in Yuei Vu's Spell & Trap Zone, a vague outline of a hero.

"Poisoner' can be Special Summoned by using 1 HERO' monster on my field as a sacrifice." Yuei Vu waved his hand, "Tribute Vision HERO Faris', and Special Summon Vision HERO Poisoner'!"

[Vision HERO Poisoner, ATK 900]

"The effect of Poisoner," Yuei Vu continued, "If this card is Special Summoned from the Spell & Trap Zone: I can halve the ATK of 1 face-up monster on the field! Halve the attack power of the Elemental HERO Core'!"

The Poisoner stood firm and raised his hand to shoot without even looking. Purple-black beam bullets flew out of his pistol and penetrated the Core's armor head-on. The poison spread quickly, covering the Elemental HERO's body like purple-black vines.

[Elemental HERO Core, ATK 2700 ATK 1350]

Hibiki Koyo frowned: "Is the purpose the attack power of the Core?"

Even in the state of being brainwashed and controlled, he still couldn't help but sincerely admire this duel king as his senior.

Use the power of the legendary dragon "The Eye of Timaeus" to attack. After being defended, he could immediately launch an effective and violent attack from a new blind spot

"However, the attack power of the Elemental HERO Core' will be doubled during battle." Hibiki Koyo said, "Even if it is halved, the attack power during battle will still reach 2700. The strength of Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight is still not enough"

"I know."

While talking, another card popped up in Yuei Vu's graveyard.

"When I activated Mask Change II' last turn, the card I discarded to the graveyard was this card." Yuei Vu showed the card, "Destiny HERO Malicious'!"

Hibiki Koyo's eyes moved slightly.

Malicious? I remember that card's effect is

"I can banish this card from my GY; Special Summon 1 Destiny HERO Malicious' from my Deck! Come on, the second Malicious!"

[Destiny HERO Malicious, ATK 800]

"Then activate the Spell Card Fusion Substitute'!" Yuei Vu said, "I fuse the Vision HERO Poisoner' and Destiny HERO Malicious' on the field!

The fusion condition is 2 HERO monsters! Fusion Summon

Vision HERO Adoration! "

The two heroes merged, and thick energy beams burst out from the vortex! As if the entity gradually emerged from the overlapping phantoms, the hero landed domineeringly, the black streamers fluttering, he crossed his arms, and his boots crushed the floor of the exhibition hall.

[Vision HERO Adoration, ATK 2800]

Hibiki Koyo gritted his teeth.

Does the attack power exceed that of the Core who has doubled his attack power?

"And I activate the effect of Destiny HERO Malicious' in the graveyard again! Remove him from the game, and special summon a card with the same name again!"

[Destiny HERO Malicious, DEF 800]

"The effect of Adoration!" Yuei Vu said, "Once per turn: I can target 1 face-up monster the opponent controls and 1 other HERO' monster I control; the opponent's targeted monster loses ATK and DEF equal to the ATK of my targeted monster, until the end of this turn!"

So I reduced the attack power of the Elemental HERO Core' by the attack power of the Malicious that is, 800 points! "

Adoration lowered his arms, raised his hands, and made a "get up" gesture, and the dark streamers rose and fell with the turbulent flow. The erupting wave locked the Core instantly, and the Elemental HERO was drowned by the beam of light rushing into the sky, and his abilities were greatly suppressed.

[Elemental HERO Core, ATK 1350 ATK 550]

Hibiki Koyo's expression changed a little.

On the surface, it seemed that only 800 points of attack power had been reduced, but Core's attack power came from "doubling the attack power during combat." Based on the doubled value, his attack power was actually reduced by 1600 points!

Now if Adoration rushed over, even with the bonus effect of Core, his attack power can only reach a pitiful 1100 at most.

Although the Core was protected by the trap effect of the "Dimension Guardian" and would not be destroyed by battle or card effects, Yuei Vu did not need to destroy him at all.

After Adoration's attack passed, Hibiki Koyo, who had only 1600 LP left, would be defeated!

"Battle!" Yuei Vu has already ordered, "Vision HERO Adoration, attack the Elemental HERO Core! Ambition Sanctions!!!"

Chapter 816: HERO VS HERO

Ambition Sanctions!

Driven by the power of Adoration, the mark of energy has emerged at the feet of the Core, and the moment it explodes would be the end of the duel!

But Hibiki Koyo urgently pressed a button on the Duel Disk again: "Activate Trap Card Butterspy Protection! Target 1 face-up Attack Position monster on the field; change it to face-up Defense Position.

Furthermore, all the damage I take for the rest of this turn is halved! "

Hibiki Koyo raised his hand and pointed at the white giant on his field.

"I changed the Elemental HERO Core' to defense position!"

[Elemental HERO Core, ATK 550 DEF 1400] (Reduced due to the effect of Vision HERO Adoration)

This was a pretty good defense move. The Core could not be destroyed in any way because of the protection of the "Dimension Guardian". If he switched to defense, Yuei Vu would not be able to cause harm to Hibiki Koyo by attacking the Core.

A very beautiful defensive method, which basically blocked the possibility of Yuei Vu continuing to pursue this turn.

"Then the Battle Phase is over."

Yuei Vu showed another card in his hand.

"Activate the Continuous Spell Mirage of Nightmare!" Yuei Vu said, "During the opponent's Standby Phase, draw cards until I have 4 cards in my hand.

I end my turn. "

"In the End Phase, the effect of Adoration ends, and the attack power of Elemental HERO Core' is restored."

[Elemental HERO Core, ATK 550 ATK 1350]

The effect of Adoration was only effective for one turn, but the effect of "Vision HERO Poisoner" was not. Therefore, even if the turn ended, Core's attack power must still remain halved.

Hibiki Koyo pushed up the glasses frame on the bridge of his nose, and the reflection on the spectacle lenses blocked his eyes.

"As expected of the first-generation Duel King, launching an offensive is indeed quite terrifying."

The opponent's new trump cards and tricks were emerging one after another, and continuing to delay would only be detrimental to himself.

He must try his best to decide the outcome within this turn.

"My turn, draw!"

"At this moment, the effect of Mirage of Nightmare'." Yuei Vu said, "I draw until I have four cards in my hand."

Hibiki Koyo showed a card: "Spell Card The Warrior Returning Alive! Target 1 Warrior monster in my GY; add that target to my hand. The card I want to return is Elemental HERO Absolute Zero!"

A white storm rolled up, and frost elves were flying in the air. A fusion monster card popped up and was taken out by Hibiki Koyo.

"Of course, Absolute Zero is a Fusion Monster card, so it goes directly back to the Extra Deck."

Hibiki Koyo then revealed the next card.

Activate Spell Card Miracle Fusion! Fusion Summon 1 Elemental HERO' Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, by banishing Fusion Materials from my field or GY!

I banish the Elemental HERO Shadow Mist and Elemental HERO Ice Edge! Fusion Summon!

Returning from the freezing abyss again

Elemental HERO Absolute Zero! ! ! "

The extremely low temperature quickly swept through the venue. The hero of Zero Degree was wrapped in silver-white armor, and his cloak undulated like waves in the wind.

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

Core and Absolute Zero, the two trump cards of Duel King Hibiki Koyo!

Yuei Vu's "Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight" has the effect of destroying any face-up card during the opponent's turn, which was a very powerful interference resistance ability. However, this powerful ability was not easy to use at this time.

The Elemental HERO Core was protected by a Continuous Trap and could not be destroyed by effects. Although Absolute Zero had no such resistance, this big brother was a hedgehog, and destroying him rashly would only directly lead to the total destruction of his opponent's side.

"First, I change the Elemental HERO Core' back to the attack position, and then enter the Battle Phase!" Hibiki Koyo directly launched the attack without any nonsense, "Elemental HERO Core', attack Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight!"

[Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, ATK 2600]

"Core's effect!" Hibiki Koyo said, "When this card battles, its ATK is doubled!"

[Elemental HERO Core, ATK 1350 ATK 2700]

It unfolded completely as expected by Yuei Vu. Without hesitation, he crisply snapped his fingers and opened the ser card in front of him.

"Activate Trap Card Magic Cylinder!"

Hibiki Koyo: "!"

Did he actually use the Magic Cylinder at this juncture??

"When an opponent's monster declares an attack: Target the attacking monster; negate the attack, and inflict damage to the opponent equal to its ATK.." Yuei Vu pointed at Hibiki Koyo, "Eat the rebound of your own hero's attack which is 2700 points of damage!"

The scorching hot impact like lava was released from the hands of the Core, blasting into the Magic Cylinder on the left-hand side, and then flew out from the right-hand side in a mighty manner, and returned along the way it came.

This rebound would be fatal!

"Quick-Play Spell De-Fusion!" Hibiki Koyo showed another card in time, "Release the fusion of the Elemental HERO Core' on the field!"

As if even breathing stopped, the figure of the Core, who was burning in his body, suddenly separated. The huge white giant was divided into three parts, and the heroic entities were transformed from different elemental attributes.

[Elemental HERO Woodsman, ATK 1000]

[Elemental HERO Heat, ATK 1600]

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200]

The reflection of the Magic Cylinder arrived at this flash of lightning. The three Elemental HEROes separated and retreated in different directions. The hot bombardment reflected from the Core flew past the three of them, and the hot air waves caused people to suffocate.

"When Blazeman is summoned, add 1 Polymerization' card from the deck to my hand."

Hibiki Koyo drew the card that popped up from the deck and added it to his hand.

"It's really a close call. In the duel with Mr. Yuei Vu, is it true that even a moment's carelessness will result in an instant kill," Hibiki Koyo said coldly, "But it's a pity that a trap of this level is useless against me!

Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, attack Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight!"

Absolute Zero flew up, with white wind and snow swirling around him. The snowflakes were like countless loyal servants, and the white storm was like a gathering army.

"At this moment, open the set card!"

Hibiki Koyo raised his arm, and the trap in front of him opened.

"Continuous Trap DNA Transplant! Declare an attribute when activated, and all monsters on the field will become the declared attribute."

Yuei Vu's eyelids twitched.

This combination

"I declare WATER' and turn all monsters on the field into the WATER attribute!" He shouted, "Then there is the effect of Elemental HERO Absolute Zero'. He will gain 500 ATK for each WATER monster on the field, except Elemental HERO Absolute Zero!"

The monsters currently on the field, except for Absolute Zero, were Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, Vision HERO Adoration, Destiny HERO Malicious, Blazeman, Woodsman, and Heat, a total of six.

If they all become the WATER attribute, that means

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500 ATK 5500]

The storm of ice and snow roared to its extreme, and the power of white extreme cold roamed at the hero's fingertips as if the whole world was obeying his orders!

Yuei Vu's mouth twitched.

Damn, normal people wont even remember that Absolute Zero has another effect

Chapter 817: Second-Generation Duel King

Yuei Vu has used Absolute Zero so many times and played various tricks, but most of them focus on the effect of "destroying all the opponent's monsters on the field when leaving the field".

As for the big brother's other effectwell, he didn't mean it, but this effect was so bad in comparison that he accidentally maybe even to a large extent. Most card players basically ignored it.

"This card gains 500 ATK for each WATER monster on the field, except Elemental HERO Absolute Zero'."

The effect of a salted fish like this had no chance to be used in normal actual combat, but it happened to be made a fuss by Hibiki Koyo. Through the power of "DNA Transplant", all monsters on the field were turned into WATER, which gave Absolute Zero a very terrifying attack value!

If the Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight was knocked down by this blow, Yuei Vu's remaining LP would be reset to zero!

But of course that's not going to happen.

"The effect of Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight is activated!" Yuei Vu shouted, "Once per turn, I can send 1 card from my hand to the GY, then target 1 face-up card on the field; destroy that target!"

Hibiki Koyo was a little surprised.

A monster effect that can also be activated during the opponent's turn! ?

Or should I say it is really worthy of the power of the legendary dragon?

Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight raised the sword high in her hand. Timaeus let out a dragon roar, and the sound filled the sky. A beam of incandescent light descended from outside the thick clouds, covering the silver-white sword in the girl's hand, and the sword shone like mercury.

The crescent-like sword energy flew across the field and crushed the Continuous Trap in the Spell & Trap Zone to pieces.

"Because DNA Transplant' disappeared from the field, its effect was also lifted." Yuei Vu said, "The attributes of all monsters on the field changed from WATER back to their original attributes, thus the attack power of Elemental HERO Absolute Zero' decreased."

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 5500 ATK 2500]

Hibiki Koyo frowned but did not hesitate: "It doesn't matter. Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, continue to attack!"

The attack power was 2500, which was only 100 lower than that of Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight. Even if it was counter-killed, the damage caused was only moderate.

In turn, this time the battle was established, Absolute Zero would be destroyed by the sword of the Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, and the triggered ability would instantly wipe out everyone on Yuei Vu's side. All the monsters would be frozen, so Yuei Vu's field would become empty.

Hibiki Koyo could just let the remaining Elemental HEROes launch an all-out attack and win the duel!

Yuei Vu curled his lips.

This guy is worthy of being the second-generation Duel King and my junior. He has endless killing moves.

but

"Open the set card!"

With a snap of his fingers, another card was revealed in front of Yuei Vu.

"Quick-Play Spell Form Change! Return 1 HERO' Fusion Monster I control to the Extra Deck, then Special Summon from my Extra Deck, 1 Masked HERO' monster with the same Level as that monster's original Level, but with a different name!"

I return the level 8 Vision HERO Adoration to the deck, transform! Come, Masked HERO Koga!"

Golden shining light surrounded the whole body of Adoration, and the shining armor covered his body inch by inch. Countless light particles formed sharp blades on his wrists, and the blue eyepieces were as bright as gems.

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500]

Hibiki Koyo knew the reason why Yuei Vu summoned "Masked HERO Koga" here.

Once per turn, Koga could remove a HERO' monster in the graveyard from the game, select a monster on the opponent's field, and the attack power of that monster would be reduced by the attack power of the removed monster until the end of the turn.

This effect could also be activated during the opponent's turn.

It was obvious that this was a Masked HERO who had strong offensive ability even in the opponent's turn, as he not only increased his own attack power, but could also use this ability to cover his teammates.

There was "Masked HERO Vapor" in Yuei Vu's graveyard that was defeated before. If Vapor was banished by Koga, the attack power of Elemental HERO Absolute Zero would be reduced by 2400 until the end of the turn.

It meant that Absolute Zero's attack power would decrease to only 100 points in one breath!

If this attack continued, then with the counterattack of the Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, before the terrifying ability of "Absolute Zero" was activated, Hibiki Koyo would be directly defeated due to the huge battle damage!

Once again, the situation was reversed, and the balance of victory and defeat went back and forth in a very brief moment.

However, Hibiki Koyo was the second-generation Duel King after all. The moment Yuei Vu played the "Form Change" card, he had already predicted that Yuei Vu would choose "Masked HERO Koga" at this juncture.

This was why he chained this card right to the activation of "Form Change".

"Quick-Play Spell Forbidden Dress!" Hibiki Koyo said, "Target 1 face-up monster on the field; until the end of this turn, that target loses 600 ATK, but cannot be targeted or destroyed by other card effects..

I use the Forbidden Dress' to protect the Elemental HERO Absolute Zero!' "

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500 ATK 1900]

The sacrifice of attack power was exchanged for the hero's resistance that "cannot be selected as an effect target". In this way, even if the Masked HERO Koga appeared, he could not select the Absolute Zero as the effect target.

If Hibiki Koyo played this Forbidden Dress even a little late wait until Koga was summoned before using this effect, then Yuei Vu could order "Masked HERO Koga" to chain to the activation of this card. Koga would reduce Absolute Zero's attack power before it could take effect, so the protection of the Forbidden Dress would be meaningless.

But that didn't happen.

"Absolute Zero's attack continues!" Hibiki Koyo shouted, "Attack the Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight!"

The hero of ice and snow charged bravely, and the knight girl waved her sword fearlessly.

The magic girl recited the incantation silently, and the power of black magic was activated. A circular magic circle appeared on the hilt of the sword, and the ancient and complex incantation wriggled along the dragon's back.

The incandescent sword light slashed down, the high-temperature blade broke through the hero's white armor, and the dragon's breath blasted him to pieces.

[Hibiki Koyo, LP 1600 LP 900]

But what followed was a storm that froze the world!

Ice crystals spread at a speed visible to the naked eye, and the entire venue on Yuei Vu's side seemed to have entered an ice age. The huge dragon and the girl on the dragon's back were both sealed into ice sculptures. The Masked HERO of Light didn't even get a chance to show off his skills after he appeared, and he and his armor were frozen into ice.

There was a blizzard, and Yuei Vu's luxurious lineup suddenly disappeared and was swept into a white blanket by the tyrannical power of Absolute Zero.

As a result, Yuei Vu's field was empty, and Hibiki Koyo still had three heroes who hadn't attacked yet!

"The attack power of Elemental HERO Heat will increase by 200 with each Elemental HERO' on the field!" Hibiki Koyo said.

[Elemental HERO Heat, ATK 1600 ATK 2200]

At this time, Yuei Vu had no more monsters that could act as a wall, and no traps that could save the day!

"I won this duel!" Hibiki Koyo ordered loudly, "Elemental HERO Heat, attack directly!"

The Heat stepped forward, dragging a long wave of heat behind him and flying straight out to win the duel!

"Discard Kiteroid' from my hand." Yuei Vu showed a card slowly, "Reduce the battle damage I take from a direct attack to 0."

The ferocious attack of the Heat hit the shadow of the glider as if it hit a copper wall and failed to achieve any results.

Hibiki Koyo frowned: "Then Elemental HERO Blazeman' will attack directly."

Yuei Vu continued to wave his hand: "The effect of the Kiteroid' is activated again. While this card is in the Graveyard, I can reduce the battle damage I take from a direct attack to 0 once."

The Elemental HEROes' second attack also failed, and Blazeman was also stopped in front of the invincible Kiteroid's defensive barrier.

But Hibiki Koyo was not impatient: "Then the third attack. Elemental HERO Woodsman', direct attack!"

This time, Yuei Vu didn't have any means of defense. He allowed Woodsman to pass through the empty and undefended frontcourt and punch himself.

[Yuei Vu, LP 1500 LP 500]

"You must have thought my attacks were over."

Hibiki Koyo sneered sinisterly and slowly pulled out another card from his hand.

"You're going to be disappointed."

"Um?"

Hibiki Koyo raised his arms: "Quick-Play Spell Flash Fusion! Fusion Summon 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, using monsters I control as Fusion Material!"

Yuei Vu's eyes moved slightly.

Fusion Summon during the Battle Phase?

"Of course, the monster that needs to be fused is this guy!"

Hibiki Koyo draws a Fusion Monster card.

"Fuse the three Elemental HEROes, Blazeman', Heat', and Woodsman' to perform a triple fusion! Return to the field again

Elemental HERO Core! ! ! "

It's like the earth itself was roaring, the crust was loosening under the operation of magma! The soul buried deep in the earth roared like a beast trying its best to break out of its cage. The white elemental giant bursts out of the ground surrounded by lava!

Seeing the three Elemental HEROes merge into the merging vortex, the trembling earth, and the gurgling magma, even Yuei Vu couldn't help but admire them.

"Summoning an ace in such a situation the title of second-generation Duel King is indeed not for show."

So, it seems that Hibiki Koyo lost to the big lobster and became like this?

From this, Yuei Vu felt that he might have underestimated Tragoedia too much. Maybe the lobster himself was really a little bit stronger than expected?

"Excuse me." Hibiki Koyo said in a cold and calm tone, "Legends are destined to be surpassed. And I will surpass you here."

In the final endgame, there were no monsters or cards, including when the "Woodsman" directly attacked and passed by, and there was no defensive method on Yuei Vu's side to respond.

According to common sense, Hibiki Koyo should have won this game at this point.

"A very beautiful strategy, I have seen your strength in the continuous attack power just now." Yuei Vu smiled, "But as a friendly reminder from a senior, you seem to have overlooked a little bit of details. "

Hibiki Koyo: "?"

"I just activated the effect of Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight', and discarded a card from my hand as the price."

A card popped up in Yuei Vu's graveyard area, and he pulled it out into his hand and displayed it.

"Makyura the Destructor' allows me to activate Trap Cards from my hand during this turn."

Hibiki Koyo was secretly shocked.

Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, on the surface, has a powerful effect that destroys cards during the opponent's turn, but that's just the surface. Did he actually use this ability to discard "Makyura the Destructor" on the opponent's turn and secretly lay more traps that no one could see?

"So to chain the Flash Fusion' you activated, I activate the Trap Card All-Out Attacks' from my hand." There was an extra Trap Card in front of Yuei Vu, "If a monster is Special Summoned while this card is face-up on the field: Change that monster to face-up Attack Position, and they must attack, if able, during the turn they are Special Summoned."

Hibiki Koyo: "?"

What's the point of doing this?

Of course, he originally planned to attack. Even if he didn't have this trap, he wouldn't have let this great opportunity to attack pass for no reason.

The effect was processed and resolved, and light bursts out in the fused vortex. The white giant stood on the earth, with lava flowing along its torso. His figure stood tall and mighty, with steam hissing and emitting from many places on his body. His figure appeared erratic and distorted under the high temperature.

[Elemental HERO Core, ATK 2700]

Of course, it was the attack position. Under the "All-Out Attacks" effect, the Special Summoned monster must be in a face-up Attack Position.

Immediately afterward, Yuei Vu showed the next card.

"Trap Card Damaged Mask!" Yuei Vu said, "Special Summon 1 Masked HERO' monster in the graveyard, ignoring the summoning conditions, but it is destroyed at the end of this turn!"

Hibiki Koyo: "!"

Oops

"Resurrect the Masked HERO Koga' in the graveyard!"

The light rushed into the sky like a shooting star, tearing apart the thick clouds! The hero's body was glowing with golden light, and his sharp blade was coated with a layer of water-like light.

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500]

"Koga's attack power will increase by the number of monsters on the opponent's field x500!"

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500 ATK 3000]

"The subsequent effect of Koga!" Yuei Vu took out a card that popped up from the graveyard, "I banished Masked HERO Vapor' from the graveyard, and dropped the Elemental HERO Core's ATK by 2400 points!"

[Elemental HERO Core, ATK 2700 ATK 300]

Hibiki Koyo watched blankly as the ace he was so proud of became so fragile. He watched the dazzling Masked HERO getting ready to go. He fully anticipated the direction of all developments and felt unprecedented powerlessness.

He did everything he could and played all the cards in his hand.

He tried his best.

And then lost.

"With the effect of All-Out Attacks', Core will launch an attack." Yuei Vu said, "During the Damage Step, his attack power will be doubled."

[Elemental HERO Core, ATK 300 ATK 600]

Of course, an increase of this magnitude was completely useless.

The Masked HERO Koga, sprinted as if shooting through space and swung the blade in his hand. The golden blade of light sliced through the solid body of the Core with a scream of joy, and the white giant fell down like a mountain collapsing.

Chapter 818: There Is Such A Good Thing!?

Koizumi Ken sat on the side in a daze, watching the entire showdown between the two generations of Duel Kings, and he didn't come back to his senses for a long time.

His knowledge about dueling only stayed at "a player can only Normal Summon one monster per turn". For him, the duel between these two great gods was too high-end, and he was confused by the slightly more complicated effects processing process.

But even if he couldn't understand it, it didn't stop him from feeling trembling in this Shadow Game between two top powerhouses.

Top Elemental HEROes, Masked HEROes in various forms, and even legendary dragons, were all the most powerful ones in the world of duel monsters.

Koizumi Ken was not sensitive to the actual combat effects and performance of the card. To him, this duel felt like a spirit war. Both sides kept summoning powerful spirits with a mind-numbing aura, and then quickly pushed each other across the field.

Although he couldn't understand what happened, he was very happy that Yuei Vu won the duel in the end.

At least he knew that Yuei Vu was on his side.

But Yuei Vu couldn't remain optimistic.

Through the dark miasma contained in Hibiki Koyo himself and the Elemental HEROes he summoned in this duel, he was very confident that Hibiki Koyo was controlled by Tragodia.

In other words, Tragodia has set his sights on this place. Maybe that top-secret mission had something to do with Big Lobster and involved some important secrets. In short, Big Lobster might not want Yuei Vu to discover this secret.

So now that Hibiki Koyo has appeared in front of him, the Koizumi Keita he was looking for this time the only remaining member of the archaeological team who knows the truth, maybe in danger.

Yuei Vu immediately called Mokuba and asked him to arrange for the Kaiba Corp to bring someone to search the mountain.

One day later, they finally found this man on the mountain and unfortunately, he had been attacked. Although Keita Koizumi was still alive, his consciousness had been strangely deprived of him.

The Kaiba Corp arranged for him to enter a nearby hospital as quickly as possible. After the doctor announced that there was nothing they could do, he was immediately transferred to the highest-standard medical facility under the Kaiba Corp.

Unfortunately, the experts there were still unable to do anything.

From the perspective of modern medicine, they couldn't even find the cause any examination showed that Koizumi Keita was in very good health. He has lived in the countryside for a long time and maintains good eating habits and work schedule. His hobby of mountaineering meant that he never lacked sufficient exercise. Even most of the hidden dangers common to modern people did not exist in him.

If you compare it to a machine, then this machine was undoubtedly well-maintained. All parts ran perfectly and the entire system worked. The only problem was that he didn't want to start working.

Typical features of Shadow Game.

If there were any problems that the omnipotent Kaiba Corp could not solve with technology, Shadow Game must be at the forefront.

This was not the first time the president had been exposed to Shadow Games. He has studied this metaphysical system for a long time over the years.

Over the years, a group of duelists who have been defeated in Shadow Games and have been unable to get back up have been lying in the group's medical facilities for a long time. Countless top experts and think tanks have been trying their best for many years, but so far no effective progress has been made.

The second-generation Duel King Hibiki Koyo was also transferred to relevant medical facilities, but his condition was not much better. After being defeated by Yuei Vu, Hibiki Koyo also fell into a deep sleep for unknown reasons. There was no doubt that this was also the consequence of the Shadow Game.

It was obviously impossible to expect him to speak.

One clue was broken, and Yuei Vu must find another way out.

"Someone in Department D must know." Mokuba, who came to the scene in person, said helplessly, "I will tell my brother what happened. He is quite familiar with some people in the department. Maybe the other party is willing to explain?"

"Ask Kaiba for help?"

To be honest, Yuei Vu was not very happy to ask that awkward guy Kaiba for help

"Okay." He still agreed.

He still really wanted to know what happened to Hibiki Koyo during the transportation mission, and what the archaeological team that made a big mistake dug out made the big lobster so interested.

Anyway, if he owed President Kaiba a favor, he could repay it by spending one night with him (in the duel).

It's quite simple to say, but the process was too tiring, especially hurts the liver, affected sleep and physical health

While Yuei Vu was busy outside, things were not peaceful at Duel Academy.

Seven Stars was unfavorable in the first battle, and Nightshroud was fed in vain. However, the battle letter has been issued, and subsequent challenges were also essential.

The second person who was about to take action was a charming and beautiful woman, one of the only remaining vampires in the world, Camula.

The reason why she joined the Seven Stars was simple, it was for her race, which was already in decline.

She had seen with her own eyes the strength of the man who recruited her. The boss behind the screen drew a big, round pie for her and told her that with her own strength and resources, coupled with the powerful power of the "Sacred Beasts", her ideal of racial rejuvenation could easily come true.

Camula believed it she had no choice.

The idea of reviving an extinct race sounded too illusory and even nonsense. To make this ideal come true, she must seize any slim possibility.

A few days ago, the adult told her through the screen that if Nightshroud failed, she must play next.

At that time, Camula's heart "thumped", as if there were a hundred men playing drums in the valley-like open mind.

She had agreed to get on the bus, and she had reached a cooperation agreement with the boss. She was willing to dedicate her loyalty to that adult and attack the Duel Academy for him to seize the three Sacred Beast cards.

But the problem was that when she agreed

There was no Duel King on the island!

To be honest, now Camula regretted that she nodded and agreed to get on the bus so easily. The reason why she agreed to fight without much thought was because she had no other method to restore her own race, and because of reliable information that although Duel King Yuei Vu was the honorary principal, he was not on the island all year round.

But now the situation was different.

Now the first-generation Duel King seems to have taken root on this shabby island. It's amazing that he just settled there and never left!

Camula was a little timid at the time.

What if the Duel King goes into battle in person?

My little arms and legs are not strong enough to take a hit from him!

She had long heard that Yuei Vu was not only an incredible duelist but also had dark power that was unrivaled by anyone in the world. What's more important was that the guy had no mercy for the beautiful girl. If he caught her and ravaged her, wouldn't she be destroyed on the spot even if she was lucky enough to survive?

Yesterday she just heard that the Darkness, the vanguard of Seven Stars, was gone, and it was her turn to be next. Camula was panicking for a long time and even thought about whether to take the opportunity to jump out of the bus and escape to save her life.

As a result, the boss contacted her in time and changed the policy.

"The plan has changed." The boss behind the screen said coldly, "I need information about the Duel King Youyu, his origin, background, experience, any information.

Your new mission is to get close to him and get information at all costs. I just want results, no matter what the means. "

The beautiful vampire's eyelids twitched and her delicate body shook violently.

There is such a good thing!?

Chapter 819: Restoration of Vampire Race

There is such a good thing!?

Camula was overjoyed when she received this order.

In the original GX animation, Camula should be regarded as one of the most impressive villains in the Seven Stars. It's not that she's very capable compared to her companions, but this character did have a lot of characteristics.

For example, the areas that should be curvy were very curvy, the areas that should be large were very large, and the small mouth looked particularly unique, which could easily arouse some impulses that humans should not have.

In addition, this vampire also had a very distinctive feature, which was the late stage of lookism.

As a mini BOSS with decent dueling skills, Camula played three games before being taken down. Her goal has been very clear since she first appeared on the scene- to capture Academy's Kaiser, Marufuji Ryo, to play cards.

The reason was simple because he looked handsome.

What? Are you saying that good looks are meaningless for duelists?

Camula didnt think so.

After all, she didnt win the Shadow Game and take captives just for fun like some psychopath. She had huge ambitions to revitalize the vampire race!

She won the duel and captured her opponent in order to create more little vampires and restore their extinct clan!

As for how to make a little vampire, the anime didn't mention it. We only knew that she didn't care about being ugly like Mr. Chronos, but she wanted to be handsome like Ryo Marufuji.

This was a bit intriguing

So after she was awakened from her slumber by her current boss, she heard the name of the Duel King "Yuei Vu" for the first time, and saw, for the first time in the video data, the Duel King's appearance and demeanor. At this time, the vampire fell suddenly.

These eyes, this nose, and this face have simply grown into my heart!

Handsome looking, top-notch dueling skills, extraordinary strength, and power status

This is the person I'm looking for!

She screamed in her heart.

I really want to capture him immediately and let him accompany me to restore the vampire race!

Camula did have such an impulse at that time, but her reason soon suppressed this ambition.

Because well, because she couldnt beat him.

But she never gave up on this idea. Sometimes she would dream about her successfully capturing the Duel King. With his help, the vampire clan quickly returned to prosperity. It wasn't until she woke up with a silly smile that she realized that she had dreamed again.

Now that she has received the boss's instruction, her thoughts in this regard quickly became active again.

Camura first briefly collected information about Yuei Vu, about his network of connections, people he knew well, and his experience in becoming famous.

During this period, she soon made a surprising discovery.

It turns out that there are other descendants of vampires around this Duel King!

That's right, it's the vampire named Tilla who rebelled from the Ghoul organization in the past.

Although Tilla was also a vampire, she was not of the same lineage as Camula's ancestors. However, they were now connected by fate, and they were both one of the last remaining vampires of the race.

Tilla's information was not too difficult to check, and Camula quickly learned about her rebellion from Ghouls. She was once the number one figure in the underground world. Her superb dueling skills and vampire racial identity earned her a certain prestige. To a certain extent, she continued the intimidating power of the glorious vampire clan.

Until she lost to Yuei Vu.

All evidence points to the fact that since Tilla lost to Yuei Vu, she has been willing to become the Duel King's servant. Wearing a maid outfit that exposes her arms, legs, and troughs, she spends her whole day busy cooking, doing housework, taking care of the house, and other trivial matters.

It was said that someone once saw her wearing a maid outfit with a pair of ponytails and lace-edged white stockings to go shopping in the supermarket.

Camula was shocked when she saw this.

The noble descendant of a vampire, the only remaining inheritor of the glorious clan, actually completely transformed into the shape of someone else's maid!

Thinking of this, Camula couldn't help but tremble all over. Her whole body was sweating on a hot day, and her hands and feet were cold.

Damn, so envious!!!

But this also broadened Camula's thinking and gave her a bold idea.

I want to get the help of the Duel King to restore the vampire clan, it seems it's not necessary to defeat him?

Is it possible that, like Tilla, I was defeated by him in a Shadow Game and was taken as a servant by him? And then, relying on my sincerity and loyalty, one day I will finally be able to give myself to him ah, no, to gain his full support with the dream of restoring the race?

The more Camula thought about it, the more she felt that this plan was feasible!

At least it's more reliable than her being head-on and relying on strength to defeat Yuei Vu.

And if you think about it carefully, this doesn't count as going against the boss's wishes!

Didn't the boss say that we should try our best to get close to him? Doesn't it mean that any means does not matter?

Then if I lose at cards and give myself as a gift for free, can I be regarded as a success in getting close to him if I become his maid?

A perfect plan!

So Camula, the second cadre of the "Seven Stars" who had been timid about landing on the Duel Academy island half a day ago, quickly gathered up the courage and energy after forming a complete and meticulous plan for free in his mind.

Then when she came to Duel Academy with great enthusiasm, she discovered after some on-the-spot investigation

Nani! ? Duel King is not at home?

Camula felt stupid.

In the beginning, when she wanted to take over the academy by attacking with strength, Yuei Vu stayed there the whole time, making it impossible for anyone to find a chance to make a move.

Now she adjusted her tactical goals and decided to give it away for free, but her opponent ran away!?

If it were any other Seven Stars here, they would probably be ecstatic, thinking that this was the best opportunity for Duel Academy to take advantage of its lack of strength. But Camula didn't think so.

She has now made up her mind to give herself to the Duel King for free, and no one can stop her!

So she quickly adjusted her strategy again and made a bold decision to let herself go that she had never dared to think of before.

I'm going to go straight through the entire Duel Academy!

In the original work, it could actually be seen that Camula was a rather arrogant female vampire.

Although she felt that she could not compare with the "Legendary Duelist", she is confident that looking at the entire academy, except for the Duel King Yuei Vu, nobody could match her!

As long as she defeats all the other opponents who challenge her, wouldn't the academy have no choice but to have the Duel King himself take action?

She has even thought of the script.

First, she defeated all other opponents through a Shadow Game, turning them into puppets but keeping their lives without taking away their souls.

Then, when the Duel King took action in person, she first told a tragic story about the genocide of her clan, exaggerating the tragic atmosphere, revealing her great determination to restore his race, and finally showing her kind and gentle side and her determination to coexist peacefully with mankind by releasing all the opponents who were defeated by her before unharmed.

In the end, she made a symbolic effort to resist, and was finally defeated by the Duel King, surrendered to him, and was adopted as a servant.

Perfect story, perfect ending.

Camula became more and more excited as she thought about it, as if she had seen the glorious future waiting for her.

So she no longer hesitated or played any crooked tricks, but directly built a majestic castle and threw a pestle at the sea outside the academy, like a provocation and a silent declaration of war against the entire duel academy.

Im here to provoke!

Chapter 820: Marufuji Sho Asked To Fight

In just a few minutes, a group of onlookers, teachers, and students and a group of screwballs living in the forest, had heard the news and came to the coast of Duel Academy.

The fog on the sea was thick, like a large and transparent veil that separated the sea and the island. It was like a red carpet soaked in blood that spread out along the waves, flattening out strangely on the undulating sea.

The vampire walked gracefully on the red carpet on the sea with long white legs, like a noble lady who came out of the Middle Ages.

The onlookers were the first to lose their control, and a group of screwballs had already begun to scream.

"Good guy, this is too big!"

"I just want to know, if I win the Shadow Game, can I do anything I want?"

However, there were actually some screwballs calling on everyone to stay calm.

"That's a vampire! An old witch who has lived for who knows how many years!"

"It looks very big and enjoyable. Maybe it's already busy with traffic?"

"Good guy, sooner or later the dictionary will be made into an 18+ book by you guys"

Shadow Game especially a Shadow Game with a pretty girl, obviously attracted the screwball players. Some players have even begun to try to negotiate terms with the opponent, saying that playing cards was meaningless, why didn't she skip this step and just suck them up

It's a pity that Camula was not interested in these off-line screwballs.

Their appearance was ordinary and their nerves were still out of whack. At first glance, nobody looked like a serious duelist.

Not her cup of tea.

As a veteran in the late stage of lookism, Camula said that she also has to choose good-looking ones to play cards!

So she directly named Ryo Marufuji in the crowd and said it was him whom she wanted to fight with!

Just as Ryo Marufuji was about to agree, he saw a figure cut out of the crowd and stood between him and Camula.

Ryo Marufuji took a closer look and couldn't help but be surprised: "Sho?"

Isn't this my younger brother Marufuji Sho who has bad grades and is equally bad at playing cards?

Camula couldn't help but be stunned when she saw the dwarf that suddenly appeared.

What's going on? A hero or an idiot?

It was just that she was disgusted by Marufuji Sho's short, rounded figure, which was not in line with the female vampire's taste.

In short, an ugly boy in her eyes.

So she decided to give the other party a chance to change, and said with a smile: "Are you serious, little brother? The souls of those who lose in the Shadow Game will be buried, do you know that?"

Shoto Marufuji was already timid, but he became even more timid after being frightened like this.

In fact, he didn't come back to his senses at all. One second he was standing next to his mentor, Brother Noragami, and the next second when he came back to his senses, he was already facing the vampire.

He turned around timidly, only to see his mentor winking at him crazily and giving him a thumbs up, as if to say "I believe you can do it"!

"Sho, get away quickly." Ryo Marufuji stepped forward, "This is not the place you should be. Leave this place to me"

Marufuji Sho took a deep breath and suppressed the uneasiness in his heart.

"No, brother," he said, "This time please let me come this time."

"Sho?" Ryo Marufuji looked at his younger brother in surprise as if he had discovered a side of him that he had never seen before.

Marufuji Sho took another deep breath.

Yes, he was indeed afraid, extremely afraid.

He was naturally timid, and his dueling skills were not very good to begin with. If he was frightened like this, his strength may be even less good.

But even so, he couldn't just hide behind his brother forever.

The devilish training his mentor gave him these days not only trained his skills and abilities but also changed his mind.

In fact, he has always understood that he was too weak compared to his dazzling brother, so weak that it was even a bit funny. He was a disgrace. Even if he stood side by side with his brother, no one would believe that they were related by blood.

"You are the worst student I have ever had!" This was what his tutor often said, often accompanied by a sigh of disappointment.

But his mentor didn't just say that.

"But, it doesn't matter if you don't have talent. As long as you are willing to learn, I can make you a legend even if you are just a bastard!" Native Noragami once said.

Sho Marufuji was confused at the time: "What?"

"Don't understand? Oh, that's not important. In short, you'll become very good." said Native Noragami. "Have you ever heard of the saying? Genius is 1% inspiration and 99% perspiration."

"I understand." Sho Marufuji nodded, "That is to say, hard work is more important than talent!"

"No, it means that without 1% inspiration, no matter how hard you try, it will be in vain!"

Sho Marufuji: ""

To be honest, this was the first time he had seen a teacher who fed his student poisonous chicken soup for the soul

Then Native Noragami slapped him on the head.

"Don't worry, although you are useless, your teacher is full of inspiration!"

As Brother Noragami said this, he quickly crossed his arms for a moment and almost made himself proud.

"Ohoh." Sho Marufuji continued to nod confusedly.

"In short, as long as you follow me wholeheartedly, I guarantee you will succeed! But before I say it, this road will not be easy." Native Noragami said seriously, "You don't want to be a useless person who holds your elder brother and your Aniki back all the time. Understand?"

Sho gritted his teeth and nodded vigorously.

"Okay! As long as you have ambitions!" Native Noragami showed a rare expression of "a good child can be taught", "Then I have a Duel Puzzle here, you must solve it first. If you can't solve it, you don't have to go back to sleep today."

Sho Marufuji: ""

Although the experience of training with the mentor was not very pleasant, and he was often exhausted and felt like his body was hollowed out it did awaken something buried deep in the young man's heart.

Yes, why does he have to be the tail end?

He has received a lot of training and may have worked harder than anyone this semester.

Maybe what he lacked now was not strength, but the courage to change.

If I don't even dare to take steps in the face of danger, and still just hide behind my brother, then how can I change?

Thinking of this, his tone became firmer.

"Brother." He adjusted his glasses and looked at his brother firmly, "This time please let me come!"

For the first time, Ryo Marufuji discovered that he saw something he had never seen before in the eyes of his cowardly brother.

"I see."

He crossed his arms and retreated into the crowd.

Camura originally rejected Marufuji Sho, but when she heard from the conversation that he and Marufuji Ryo were brothers, she suddenly changed her mind.

Ha? Are these two brothers?

Is this a genetic mutation, or is the dirty old man next door taking advantage of the situation?

But this gave Camula new ideas.

Knock down this younger brother first, and the elder brother will definitely not stand idly by.

And the older brother looks like a strong character. If I capture this little brother's soul first and use him as a hostage, the older brother will be confused if he cares about him, and I will have a greater chance of winning if he is motivated!

Ha, I'm so witty!

"Okay, since you long for darkness so much, then I will grant it to you." The vampire stuck out his tongue and licked her bright red lips, sneering.

"Duel!" x2
