

I Play Yu-Gi 841

Chapter 841: Why Don't You Fusion Summon?

Daitokuji was the teacher of the alchemy course at Duel Academy and the dormitory head of Osiris Red. Speaking of which, he was Yuki Judai's favorite teacher in the school besides Yuei Vu.

However, on the day Tragodia personally attacked the academy and the seal of Sacred Beast was released, the teacher disappeared.

Worried about the teacher's safety, Judai's death-seeking soul was activated again, and he ran out in the middle of the night to search everywhere in the deep mountains and forests of the academy.

The clues led him back to the forbidden place he once broke into the abandoned dormitory in the woods of the college. Here, he got his wish and found the teacher he had been longing for.

Just in a hostile stance.

The person who appeared in front of Judai was no longer the teacher Daitokuji who was amiable and always smiling. What Judai was facing now was the last person of the "Seven Stars" and the strongest Shadow Duelist in the organization, named Amnael.

"Who are you?" Judai asked, "Where did you take Daitokuji-sensei?"

Because Daitokuji was wearing a strange robe at the moment and his face was wrapped like a mummy, Judai did not recognize him.

Yubel recognized him. However, she also judged that the teacher had no evil intentions and was sincerely optimistic about Judai, so she remained silent and let nature take its course.

"The uppermost is from the lowermost and the lowermost is from the uppermost."

After uttering two incomprehensible lines, Daitokuji took out a strange thick book from under his loose robe, with golden eyes like the symbol of Millennium Items printed on the cover.

"This Millennium Spellbook' records the truth of the world and is the ultimate tool held by the strongest alchemist." He said, "Yuki Judai, if you want to know the truth, defeat me under the gaze of this book and complete this alchemists trial!

To be honest, Judai did not understand that series of speeches, and he did not comprehend anything about "Millenium" or "alchemy".

But there was one thing he quite understood

Finally, there is a duel to be played!

The jellyfish head's enthusiasm was immediately mobilized.

"Judai, you must win." Yubel, who was in the ghost state, floated behind him. "I have a hunch that the content of that book is not simple."

Although she didn't know much about alchemy, it didn't stop her from being keenly aware of the extraordinary nature of that book.

Its always a good idea to grab it first!

Then the duel began, starting with Daitokuji's turn.

Daitokuji said very confidently that our alchemy duel is different from anything have ever seen. To fight with me, you must first put aside all common sense about playing cards.

It turned out that he was right in some respects.

He first took a Continuous Spell "Alchemic Kettle Chaos Distill", which simply meant summoning a large boiler. The animation-exclusive card has a very simple effect: As long as this big boiler was present, all the cards sent to its controller's graveyard would be banished.

Judai was a little surprised at that time.

He remembered that one of the most powerful Masked HEROes in the hands of Yuei Vu-sensei, Masked HERO Dark Law, was so powerful because it had the ability to banish all the cards that the opponent sent to the graveyard. In his teacher's words, Dark Law was "too strong to have friends."

But this person took a card to banish his own graveyard as soon as he came up?

"I said that in an alchemist's duel, all common sense must be disregarded."

Daitokuji chuckled softly, looking full of character, and then he showed two Spell Cards in one breath.

"Activate Spell Card Steel Lamp! When Alchemic Kettle Chaos Distill' is face-up on the field, Special Summon 1 Alchemy Beast Salamandra the Steel' from my hand or Deck." (Anime card)

"Then activate Spell Card Bronze Scale! When Alchemic Kettle Chaos Distill' is face-up on the field, Special Summon 1 Alchemy Beast Ouroboros the Bronze' from my hand or Deck." (Anime card)

[Alchemy Beast Salamandra the Steel, DEF 500]

[Alchemy Beast Ouroboros the Bronze, DEF 500]

Judai was a little dazed.

He could see that the "Alchemy Beasts" played by the opponent seemed to be summoned only when there was an "Alchemic Kettle Chaos Distill" on the field?!

What if the cauldron disappears? Wouldn't he be able to summon monsters?

Not only this alchemy furnace was needed, but Alchemy Beasts could not be summoned normally and must be Special Summoned through the effects of Spell Cards. The entire deck could be said to be a combination of brick hands, card disadvantages, and monotonous starts.

As expected, the teachers initial words were fulfilledour alchemy duel required us to put aside all common sense about playing cards.

Because if you dont put aside common sense, you may want to surrender when seeing your starting hand

Daitokuji then set three cards in the back row and ended his turn.

There was a smile on his lips under his mask, and he looked at Judai expectantly.

For Daitokuji, this duel was not just a game of cards, but also a trial to determine the successor to his supreme alchemy.

Judai was the best heir he chose. In Daitokuji's view, Yuki Judai was a fusion genius and the "fusion" in Duel Monsters was actually the same principle as alchemy.

The fusion of two originally weak monsters created an unprecedented new existence, giving birth to powerful power

Isn't it just like alchemy that creates miracles? (referring to printing cards out of thin air)

He felt that Judai was a self-taught alchemy genius, the kind that was rare to see in ten thousand years.

Come on, Yuki Judai!

Show me your fusion, your possibilities!

Attack with your invincible fusion hero!

So Judai took out a big storm photo without saying a word.

Daitokuji: ""

"Activate Spell Card Heavy Storm! All Spell and Trap cards on the field are destroyed!"

At this time, Daitokuji's back row was filled with four cards, one Continuous Spell and three set cards. If Judai blew them all in one go, he would be in a loss like an avalanche!

But it didn't matter, our teacher Daitokuji had prepared: "Counter Trap The Huge Revolution is Over! When a Spell/Trap Card, or monster effect, is activated that would destroy 2 or more cards on the field: Negate the activation and banish it!"

The tornado that soared into the sky was easily torn into pieces. Judai raised his arm in front of him and smiled: "Sure enough, it's not that easy to succeed."

Daitokuji was quite confident: "Alchemists always consider various possible situations and are always prepared in advance."

"Then activate the Spell Card Spell Books from the Pot', and players on both sides draw three cards from the deck." Judai said, "Then the moment you draw the card, activate the Quick-Play Spell Thirst for Compensation'! (anime card)

This card can only be activated when the number of cards in the opponent's hand increases outside the Draw Phase. I can special summon two monsters from my hand!

Special Summon Elemental HERO Avian and Elemental HERO Stratos! "

[Elemental HERO Avian, ATK 1000]

[Elemental HERO Stratos, ATK 1800]

"The effect of Stratos When this card is Normal or Special Summoned, destroy Spells/Traps on the field, up to the number of HERO' monsters I control, except this card." Judai waved his hand, "Destroy the Alchemic Kettle Chaos Distill'!"

Daitokuji felt that steam come out on his forehead.

He wanted to ask: Judai-san, where is your fusion?

I am playing this card today because I want to see your fusion. Why did you always aim at my stove?

But it still doesn't matter!

"Open the set card: Trap Card Memory Loss!" Daitokuji said, "When an effect of an Attack Position monster the opponent controls is activated: Negate that effect and change that monster to face-up Defense Position!"

[Elemental HERO Stratos, ATK 1800 DEF 300]

Seeing the invincible Sky Brother switch from attack to defense, Judai couldn't help but be surprised: "Hey~ Stratos's effect is not working?"

Daitokuji continued to sneer: "I said, the alchemist will consider all possibilities. The protection measures of the Alchemy Cauldron' are foolproof, so don't think about it."

Bring it on! Use your invincible fusion summons to attack!

"Then I activate Quick-Play Spell Cosmic Cyclone'." Judai said, "Pay 1000 LP to banish Alchemic Kettle Chaos Distill'."

[Judai, LP 4000 LP 3000]

There was a whirlwind from outside, and the huge alchemy furnace seemed to evaporate on the spot, disappearing without a trace in an instant.

Daitokuji: ""

Chapter 842: Sensei Will Definitely Like This Card!

Teacher Daitokuji was very angry, very angry.

Even was a little bit tempted to give Judai a failing grade for his performance in the trial.

Logically speaking, he wanted to test Judai's alchemy aptitude. To put it more simply, he wanted to see Judai's fusion cards.

Unexpectedly, the jellyfish came up and attacked his alchemy furnace with all kinds of typhoons, and his performance was extremely unfriendly.

Who the hell taught you to play cards like this??

How could such a good genius in alchemy (fusion) be taught to be in this shape?

"Very good! We've got that alchemy furnace!" Judai said with confidence, "Next, use the Elemental HERO Avian' to attack the Alchemy Beast Salamandra the Steel!'"

You are so naive Judai! Such a monotonous attack will not work at all in front of a top-notch alchemist!

Daitokuji raised his arm and his set card flipped over.

Counter Trap Negate Attack! When an opponent's monster declares an attack: Target the attacking monster; negate the attack, then end the Battle Phase!

Although most of Daitokuji's Alchemy Beast monsters were troublesome to summon and had poor stats, their characteristic was that they could all attack players directly. Using a trap blockade to catch the opponent's offensive, and then cooperating with the Alchemy Beast to cross the front row and attack directly, was roughly the idea of this alchemy tactic.

This deck did look a bit salty, but it couldn't stand up to the awesomeness of Mr. Daitokuji himself.

Although he usually seemed to be too cowardly to run away faster than anyone else when faced with danger, in fact, it was just the teacher showing off his acting skills. At least among the early GX characters, he was definitely one of the best in terms of strength. The other six Seven Stars were not at the same level as him.

If you don't know how strong this teacher was, you could probably guess it by looking at his squinting eyes.

After all, there was an old saying, Anyone with squinted eyes is a monster.

This was not an empty statement. It is a reliable conclusion drawn from large-scale statistics in countless parallel universes. There were countless strong people who shared this common characteristic.

The earliest could even be traced back to the legendary God of War Xingtian

Although Judai didn't know what the other party was up to, and he didn't know what the special effects of the two salty-looking monsters on the opposite side were, he didn't like to use his brain to think.

He always played cards based on what came to mind, and his tactics were all based on instinct.

For example, now, Judai's attack was blocked and the Battle Phase was forced to end. Without saying anything, he took another card.

I will give you a big baby directly!

Use Alchemy Beast Salamandra the Steel and Alchemy Beast Ouroboros the Bronze as sacrifices, and special summon Lava Golem on your field!

Two pillars of lava fire rose into the sky, swallowing up both alchemy beasts. A ferocious and ugly lava giant appeared on the field of Daitokuji. The hot iron cage hanging on its chest imprisoned Daitokuji in the middle.

Lava Golem, ATK 3000

Daitokuji: ""

Damn! Judai, where is your Fusion Summon?

Why do you play with such weird things? Where is your pride as an alchemist??

Of course, this was just wishful thinking of Teacher Daitokuji. Judai never thought he was an alchemist or anything like that. He just thought playing cards was all about having fun, and now he was very happy.

We had to say that the design of the Lava Golem that "locked the controller in a cage" was not only very interesting, but also very scientific.

Because when you gave someone such a big baby, if you didn't lock the opponent in a cage, it was likely that the card duel would escalate into a physical duel.

Judai-san set a card, ending the turn.

"At this moment, the effect of the Lava Golem is activated." Judai said, "During the Standby Phase, it will cause 1000 points of damage to the controller!"

Daitokuji, LP 4000 LP 3000

After receiving the backlash damage from the lava, Daitokuji snorted coldly: "But at the same time, you also gave me a powerful monster with the power of a Blue-Eyes White Dragon.

I use the Lava Golem to attack the Elemental HERO Avian! "

It was true that the Lava Golem was quite powerful in terms of attack alone. If you were not careful, you could easily kill yourself by giving such a beatstick to the opposite side.

The poor winged hero's attack power was only 1000. If he hit it with such a fist, it could directly cause 2000 damage. It seemed that Judai was still at a loss in this exchange.

However, Avian looked confident when facing the Lava Golem's huge fist. After all, this monster was given to the opponent by his master. It stood to reason that his master must have arranged a countermeasure.

"Open the set card: Trap Card Mirror Gate!" Judai opened the set card as expected. "When an opponent's monster declares an attack targeting a face-up Elemental HERO' monster I control: Switch control of the opponent's attacking monster with the targeted monster I control, then calculate damage!"

The Avian crossed his arms with a proud look on his face.

Hehe, did you see it? Master has indeed made arrangements for it.

Hmm, something wont be right for a while.

Control swap?

Nani!?

The interdimensional tunnel was activated, and in less than a blink of an eye, the positions of Lava Golem and Avian were switched. Avian flashed onto the field of Daitokuji, and Lava Golem flashed onto Judai's field like a ghost.

Avian: Master, you tricked me!

Then he was blasted to pieces by the Lava Golem.

Daitokuji, LP 3000 LP 1000

This was nothing, whats even more annoying is that the effect of the Mirror Gate was only effective for one turn.

What does this mean?

This meant that the Lava Golem rebelled at the speed of light to Judai, gave Daitokuji a punch, and then immediately jumped back to Daitokuji's field.

This ugly and hot guy stopped there and closed Daitokuji again in the iron cage hanging on his chest. He lowered his head and looked like he was giggling innocently, as if he was saying: " Hey Master, I just made a joke, Im not a traitor, please dont take it seriously.

In short, it looked like something should be beaten mercilessly

However, Mr. Daitokuji was very stubborn. In the next turn, he relied on an "Altar for Tribute" to cook this big-headed silly demon and regained some LP. Then, under such unfavorable circumstances, he still fought with Judai Yuki for 300 rounds, and the fight was very intense.

After a series of intensive confrontations, Daitokuji finally got what he wanted. He saw Judai's powerful fusion power and could fuse any two Elemental HEROes, and the resulting fusion became a new hero. The alchemist Daitokuji called him an expert after seeing it.

At the end of the fight, Daitokuji was very excited and determined to go all out to deal with it with all his strength, so he directly showed his trump card: "The Continuous Trap Macro Cosmos' is activated!"

The trap flipped, the terrain suddenly changed, and the background switched to the deep and boundless space of the universe.

When Macro Cosmos is activated, special summon Helios The Primordial Sun from the hand or deck!

Helios The Primordial Sun, ATK ?

"The ATK and DEF of Helios The Primordial Sun' will become the number of banished monsters x 100!"

He emphasized his tone and pointed at the Continuous Trap beside him.

When Macro Cosmos exists on the field, all cards sent to the graveyard by both players will be banished!

Eh? So strong!?

While sighing, the first thought that came to Judai's mind was

Yuei Vu-sensei will definitely like this card!

Chapter 843: The Ultimate Alchemy

Teacher Daitokuji could be considered one of the strongest bosses in the early stage. As an opponent, he was obviously much more qualified than the passers-by and sidekicks who were tortured by Judai before.

Although the teacher was a little confused by Judai's unexpected "Lava Golem", he quickly regrouped and organized a counterattack.

Although the meaning of Mr. Daitokuji's alchemy deck was unclear, from the player's point of view, the deck's combat effectiveness was almost negative, and it belonged to the salted fish system of "if you can summon a monster in your hand, you are a master", but there were a few cards that are quite scary.

For example, the most well-known was the Continuous Trap "Macro Cosmos", which could be called a mudslide in the Yu-Gi-Oh environment. Even today, twenty years later, it could still make countless players go pale when hearing its name. It was a must-have for the nether players, and has been unanimously divided into the "Anti-meta club" by generations of players.

Anti-meta, which was also known as "Anti-Social", was a deck type that would never fade and never be eliminated in the long development history of Yu-Gi-Oh.

The common feature of these decks was that trolling was often more important than winning. The winning rate of this type of deck was not necessarily high, but even if it lost, it could often drive the opponent crazy.

Daitokuji-sensei's "Macro Cosmos" was a frequent visitor in this type of deck, and it was also the kind that enjoyed a lifelong seat in the relevant deck. As long as this card did not enter the forbidden list, it would never lose the favor of autistic players.

To be honest, although the Elemental HEROes of Judai did not rely so much on the GY, it was still a little painful to lose the GY.

Here, Teacher Daitokuji directly emptied almost all the monsters in the graveyards of both sides. Then he summoned the ace monster "Helios Trice Megistus" the ATK and DEF of this monster are 300 points x the number of monster cards removed from the game by both parties, so now the monster's ATK was more than five thousand, which was very terrifying.

In the last turn, Judai's LP was like a candle in the wind. He has been cornered by Helios's offensive, and the final draw would directly determine his fate!

From the scene, Teacher Daitokuji seemed to have a winning chance.

You are not Kaiser Ryo, how can you have "Cyberload Fusion" to counter me?

Logically speaking, there were very few cards that could utilize the resources in the banished zone, and even Cyberload Fusion was an exclusive card for Cyber Dragon. How can he print an Elemental HERO version of Cyberload Fusion

"Spell Card Parallel World Fusion!" Judai shouted, "Fusion Summon 1 Elemental HERO' Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, by shuffling my banished Fusion Materials listed on it into my Deck!"

Daitokuji: Nani!?

Even Daitokuji, who had been extremely optimistic about Yuki Judai from the beginning, was shocked now.

Damn it, can the Divine Draw really be so accurate?

No, did you have this kind of card in your deck before this turn? Could it be that the author gave you the script to read in advance (crossed out)

But even so, it's not over.

After all, the teacher currently had Helios on the field with an attack power of over 5000. Even the Five-Headed Dragon cannot defeat his current ace, so it was still not that easy to solve.

Moreover, Helios Trice Megistus also had the effect of "if this card is destroyed by battle, it will be Special Summoned and its attack power will be increased by 500 ". Judai only printed one fusion card, and ordinary monsters were no match for Helios

"I fused the Avian', Burstinatrix', Clayman', and Bubbleman' from the banished zone!" Judai shouted, "I merged the four Elemental HEROes of earth, water, fire, and wind to Fusion Summon Elemental HERO Electrum! "

[Elemental HERO Electrum, ATK 2900]

Daitokuji chuckled: "This kind of hero cannot defeat Helios."

But Judai smiled brighter than him: "The effect of Electrum When this card is Fusion Summoned: Shuffle all banished cards back into the owner's deck!"

Daitokuji spat a mouthful of old blood.

"The attack power of Helios Trice Megistus' is the number of banished monsters x 300." Judai shouted, "If all the banished monsters are returned to the deck, its attack power is"

[Helios Trice Megistus, ATK 0]

Daitokuji was weak and didn't even want to speak.

Why don't you Fusion Summon an "Elemental HERO Sun Buster" directly? The effect is "If this card is Fusion Summoned, all monsters with the sun in their name or artwork will die suddenly on the spot". It is simpler and more crude than the effect you printed

But when Judai's "Elemental HERO Electrum" came towards his Helios aggressively, and when the duel was about to end, Teacher Daitokuji calmed down again.

In a desperate situation, Judai accurately drew a card that was a perfect reversal (he didn't even know if it was in the deck), and the quadruple fusion coincidentally produced a big monster whose effect was almost like made line by line according to his monster effects. ..

What's this?

This is not the printing card he has been pursuing

Ah, isn't this the ultimate alchemy he has been pursuing all his life?

Like turning stone into gold.

In fact, in the original animation, the first appearance of "Elemental HERO Electrum" was when Judai fought against Daitokuji-sensei. It was a perfect match for Daitokuji-sensei's deck.

So later, when players in real life opened the Electrum card in the new card pack, they discovered that this quadruple fusion hero brother who was in great trouble only had an effect of unknown meaning "Shuffle all banished cards back into the deck." Because this was originally printed by Judai for the purpose of emergency rescue

What? You said that the effect was too narrow and difficult to use, and the actual combat value was not high?

No problem. When the time came, he just needed to print a more practical one for actual use

Anyway, there are so many Elemental HEROes that you could arrange and combine them at will, grab two at random, and fuse them to create a new monster. As for the effect of the fusion, it could be determined according to the situation on the field and the actual needs

A false Duel King like Yuei Vu must rely on foreknowledge to find out the details of his opponent and then insert counter-cards in advance based on the opponent's deck composition and tactics, and if his Duelist's Rank was not high enough, he had to worry about dead draw.

A true Duel King must have the qualifications of Judai. Someone who was born with natural divine draw talent, and when he got disadvantages, he didn't even need to remember what card in the deck could help. Even if he didn't know the composition of the opponent's deck, he could still print cards in actual combat, and even the printed card effect text countered the opponent's card line by line (although it was often not used later)

No wonder Teacher Daitokuji identified Judai as the "strongest alchemist". Even if ordinary people spent a lifetime studying hard, they may not be able to reproduce the miracle he created in the moment of drawing a card.

Daitokuji, LP 0

The LP value returned to zero, and the impact hit him head-on. The teacher staggered back, the mask on his face cracked, broke into two halves, and fell to the ground.

Judai saw his face clearly and stayed where he was for a long time.

"Daitokujisensei?"

Daitokuji raised his head and glanced at him with a smile.

"Hey, Judai." He said with a chuckle, "Congratulations on passing the final exam of the alchemy course."

Judai was stunned for a long time and did not come back to his senses.

Daitokuji straightened up, turned towards somewhere in the darkness, and spoke to himself.

"I'm done here. You should have seen the whole process. Is there anything you want to say

Mr. Yuei Vu? "

Chapter 844: The Forbidden Alchemy

"Yuei Vu-sensei!"

Judai showed an expression of surprise, and seemed not to feel inappropriate at all about being "caught by the teacher trespassing in a forbidden area".

Yuei Vu also ignored the question for the time being, gently touched his little jellyfish head, and walked to Daitokuji.

Daitokuji coughed twice violently. He balled his knees and tried to stand up, but his body seemed to refuse to do so. After two futile attempts, he quickly gave up, sat back on the ground, and looked at the duo of master and disciple with a wry smile.

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows: "Do you need help?"

Daitokuji shook his head: "I'd better keep it like this."

Only then did Yuki Judai see the face of Daitokuji under the mask.

Although it still looked like the face he was familiar with, it seemed to be slightly different from what he remembered. His face was pale, veins popped out around his face, and the corners of his mouth were dry and cracked.

If he hadn't just played a fierce game with this teacher, it would be hard for him to believe that his body in this mental state could actually stand up. This person did not look like a young teacher, but more like a helpless old man who has been bedridden and suffering from illness for many years.

Even though they were life-and-death enemies just now, Judai couldn't help but say: "Sensei, you" Daitokuji smiled and waved his hand: "It's okay, it's just an old problem."

He wasn't lying, it was indeed an old problem. But what he didn't mention was that this old problem could be fatal.

Yuei Vu put his hands in his pockets and asked, "When did you notice me coming?"

"It's been a while." Daitokuji shook his head as if trying to keep himself awake, "Mr. Duel King is so elusive, I really didn't realize you were here at first.

I don't mean to brag, but there aren't many people in this world who can approach me unknowingly."

"I believe it." Yuei Vu nodded.

Only then did Judai notice that Teacher Daitokuji's eyes, which were usually squinted, actually opened. His pupils were red, the color of blood, which made people feel a little uneasy.

"You don't seem to be surprised that I am one of the Seven Stars," Daitokuji said.

Yuei Vu was noncommittal and did not answer the question. Instead, he said, "I have a few questions."

"You can ask." Daitokuji agreed readily.

"Who is the one order Seven Stars' to act?" Yuei Vu asked, "We also captured a few members of the Seven Stars', but they were either unable to speak after the torture of the Shadow Game, or did not know anything."

Daitokuji smiled: "That man is indeed very cautious. Except for me, his confidant, the other members of the Seven Stars are just pawns, and no one knows his identity."

Then he laughed at himself: "No, or I should say that in the end, I am just another pawn."

"So who is he?"

Daitokuji raised his head, looked at Yuei Vu seriously, and said word by word: "One of the people behind this academy, the founder of Kagamaru Company, Chairman Kagamaru."

Yuei Vu stared at his scarlet eyes for a long time, confirming that the teacher was not lying.

"Kagamaru is dead," he said.

On the contrary, Daitokuji showed a surprised expression on his face.

"A few months ago, he was confirmed to have died in his life-support facility on an isolated island. I confirmed it with my own eyes." Yuei Vu said, "The board of directors of Kagamaru company got the news, but because it may be related to the company's survival, they deliberately blocked the leakage of information."

After a pause, Yuei Vu said: "Although these contents are blocked from the outside world, I thought that as his confidant, you should know this. It seems that you didn't get the news?"

Daitokuji frowned: "No this shouldn't be the case. You said he died a few months ago?"

"I discovered him," Yuei Vu said. "But when I arrived, he had been dead for a while. He had been controlled by a demon named Tragodia' before."

Daitokuji shook his head.

"That's impossible." He said firmly, "I met him, just last month."

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows: "Are you sure? It's not the kind that only has an abstract outline and a processed voice across the computer screen?"

"No." Daitokuji was convinced, "I saw him in person, we had a conversation and there were some disagreements on details."

Chairman Kagamaru is a very important person to me, and I cannot possibly mistake him for anyone else. "

After a pause, he added: "In fact, it was that disagreement that made me more determined to stop him. That man is going astray. He is pursuing too much power and will even lose himself in it."

Daitokuji's eyes turned to Yuki Judai.

"That's why I entrusted my alchemy and everything to Judai. If there is anyone who should inherit my will and stop that man, that person must be Judai."

Yuei Vu actually wanted to say that he could do it too but considering that Daitokuji may have taken a fancy to the so-called "alchemy talent" of Judai, after thinking about it, he still kept his mouth closed.

"Ahem, I don't have much time."

Daitokuji coughed again. He raised his hand with difficulty and handed over the Millennium Spellbook, whose painting style looked like an artifact.

"Judai, inherit this book. This is my lifelong research! I entrust these to you"

Judai was a little confused. He instinctively felt that the responsibility was too great and he couldn't bear it, so he subconsciously wanted to refuse.

"This is Daitokuji-sensei's last wish, just accept it." Yuei Vu patted Judai on the shoulder.

Just kidding, this book contained the "Philosopher's Stone", which was the most awesome card even if it was placed among all the fake cards in animations of all time!

This was like a master in martial arts fantasy who was about to die. Just before he died, he happened to meet a good young man whose talent only appeared once in a thousand years. He resolutely decided to pass on his lifelong skills to the young man

To be honest, Yuei Vu also wanted this kind of artifact. But the other party has made it clear that only the ultimate alchemist could unleash the power of this card.

It's not like Yuei Vu has never learned alchemy. He knew that his qualifications in this area were not outstanding, and the Philosopher's Stone would probably be useless in his hands.

But it didn't matter.

I can't use it, but Judai can!

In the hands of my lovely disciple, wouldn't it be almost equivalent to being in my own hands?

Daitokuji coughed again, and blood spilled from the corner of his mouth.

"Alchemy has its limits after all." He smiled helplessly, "No matter how attached to life you are, no matter how you resist death, all alchemy can do is delay the inevitable."

Hearing this, Yuei Vu thought and walked to one end of the secret room.

This was a room in an abandoned dormitory. Because no one came here all year round, it was once chosen by Daitokuji as his laboratory on the academy island.

And on the wall at this end of the room, there was a coffin leaning against it.

Pushing the heavy sarcophagus board away, a burst of choking dust rose up, revealing in front of everyone a long-dried entity.

It looked like it had been there for some time, and the severe corrosion made the face of the corpse unrecognizable. But at least this service attire, this face shape, and this hairstyle all feel familiar.

It looks just like Daitokuji.

If an ordinary student saw a mummy in such a weird environment, he might be frightened and scream, but Judai did not.

He tried hard to identify the characteristics of Daitokuji from the corpse, and then looked at the teacher Daitokuji behind him in surprise.

"Sensei, this is"

"This is my body that died many years ago." Daitokuji smiled sadly, "Judai, you already know that I am a top alchemist, but you don't know my past.

In fact, I am terminally ill and my body failed many years ago. "

"Then you now"

"Now this is the body I created for myself, using alchemy."

Daitokuji said calmly, pointing to the body lying in the coffin as if talking about an insignificant passerby.

"The one lying there, that was my original body. I relied on alchemy to get rid of the body riddled with pain, but the artificial body could not last long after all.

Now my body is almost at its limit, and the duel just now made things even worse. Soon, my body will collapse, and my existence will probably be wiped out"

These were secrets that Yuei Vu had known for a long time, and the matter itself did not surprise him. But Daitokuji's explanation inspired him, and a terrifying possibility flashed through his mind.

He turned to Daitokuji.

"You said that Kagamaru supported all your experiments, right?"

Daitokuji was stunned and nodded: "That's right."

"So he has all your research information?"

"Yes."

"Does it mean that he also masters the forbidden alchemy technique of human transmutation?"

Daitokuji suddenly raised his head, his scarlet eyes contracted slightly, and fear reflected in them.

He understood what Yuei Vu was thinking in an instant.

And he sincerely hoped that Yuei Vu was wrong.

Chapter 845: Reminiscence

In alchemy, the human being was viewed as consisting of body, soul, and spirit.

Vary few things in the world were absolutely impossible for a powerful and insane alchemist. They could turn stones into gold, forge artifacts that could summon the Demon God of Destruction, or summon the light of creation, which showed how high the upper limit of this ancient skill was.

Therefore, during the thousands of years of alchemy's development, it was natural for someone to come up with the idea of "human transmutation."

For Yuei Vu, the introduction to this concept was not in Yu-Gi-Oh. After all, this was still a card-playing animation, and alchemy was only briefly touched upon. I believe more people were familiar with this term because it came from a well-known animation that told the story of alchemy.

Some alchemists in that worldview believed that as long as the raw materials were mastered in the correct proportions, humans could be created without relying on the mother's womb. However, this behavior obviously violated the laws of nature and social ethics and was also very dangerous in itself, so it was regarded as an evil forbidden technique.

Although the details were different in the world of Yu-Gi-Oh, similar technologies still existed. Daitokuji himself was the best example. He relied on his superb alchemy skills to create a new body that could function well in perfect proportions. He transferred his soul into the old body that was suffering from illness and successfully extended his life span.

But only for a while.

Not only was this new life expensive, but it was also not a pleasant experience. Although he successfully got rid of the illness, his new body also brought him more pain.

Daitokuji soon discovered that even as a top alchemist, he had underestimated the complex relationship between the human body and soul. Soon his soul began to reject this body, and even though he invested a huge cost in maintaining it, he still couldn't prevent the collapse of his body.

So he viewed the project as a failure.

He felt that such a painful lingering life was not worth the high cost and price. It was also a kind of torture for the soul of the saved.

So he shut down the project and did not try to build a new body for himself. Instead, he entrusted everything to his chosen successor, Yuki Judai, and then calmly welcomed the death that should have come long ago.

But maybe the boss who invested in him didn't think so.

At 1:30 in the morning, Yuei Vu boarded the special plane sent by the Kaiba Corp and flew away from the Duel Academy island.

The person who came to greet him was Uncle Isono who worked tirelessly like a ruthless bodyguard machine. When Yuei Vu boarded the plane, he greeted him friendly and asked, "Sir, where do you want to go so late?"

"Go to an island owned by Kagemaru Company. There is a high-end health care facility on that island." Yuei Vu said, "The specific coordinates have been sent to your navigation system."

"Roger that, sir."

The steel bird with the "KC" mark took off into the sky, and the searchlight pierced the boundless darkness like a golden blade.

Yuei Vu fastened his seat belt and sat in the back of the cabin with his eyes closed to relax. What happened these days and the various information collected quickly flashed through his mind.

He felt like he was in a huge network, with countless threads crisscrossing each other, gradually weaving the shape of the truth.

A great detective once said that sometimes you may get a strange feeling about a case. This sudden burst of inspiration would put all the broken clues together, and the answers you are looking for would emerge one by one.

This was not the discovery of new things, but the fact that you already know everything true, and they happened to appear in front of you, like a reminiscence.

Yuei Vu felt that he is experiencing a similar feeling now. He had gathered all the pieces, as if the truth had always been in his hands, just waiting for an opportunity to piece it together into its correct form.

This inspiration led him to revisit this island, the place where Chairman Kagemaru once lived. This frail old man was in a sanatorium where he was lingering at the last moment of his life.

Yuei Vu let the helicopter hover in the sky near the building, opened the hatch, and jumped in.

A few months ago, he had a duel with Kagemaru here. To be more precise, Kagemaru was controlled by the Big Lobster. But after playing cards, he soon discovered that it was just a corpse that had been dead for two months and turned into a puppet.

After he left, Kaiba Corp's commissioners also landed on the island and conducted a thorough investigation of the entire building. But they couldn't find any clues, so they evacuated after a few days.

After that, the place was abandoned again, left alone to grow grass on this isolated island.

If you had such a facility and happened to want to play the trick of disappearing from the world, then this was definitely the best choice.

Almost as soon as he walked to the door, Yuei Vu knew that he had found the right place. He could feel that the entire facility was shrouded in an ominous aura. Some kind of huge and majestic force field covered the building. The invisible aura seemed to shape an invisible demon above the roof, grinning and laughing at every step as if mocking the fools who walked into hell.

boom!

Masked HERO Divine Wind kicked the heavy steel door away, and Yuei Vu strode into the hall. The crystal chandelier reflected the marble floor as if it was glowing, and the cold wind from nowhere lifted the hem of Yuei Vu's windbreaker.

He could feel the source of that aura, and the other party didn't seem to have any intention of hiding it. He walked through complicated corridors and came to the steel wall at the end of the corridor.

The wall automatically opened to both sides when it sensed his approach and a secret door appeared. Yuei Vu walked in without any hesitation.

This was a room he hadn't been to during his last visit, a secret room hidden deep within the facility.

A faint blue light filled the entire room, and electronic screens were lit all around. A stream of light like an ocean rippled on the metal floor. The various complex technological equipment surrounding him couldn't be named at all, but the steel lines looked rugged and ferocious in the dim light.

The owner of this facility was wearing a suit and leather shoes, with his hands behind his back, and he was leisurely watching Yuei Vu walk in the door.

There was no doubt that this person was Chairman Kagamaru. He had the same face, but he was not a dying old man. Instead, he looked like a strong man in his prime in his thirties.

The automatic door closed behind Yuei Vu, cutting off the light source in the corridor.

"Kagamaru." Yuei Vu said.

"Welcome to my palace, Duel King Yuei Vu." Kagamaru said with a confident smile on his lips, "Now that you have found this place, I believe you already know the truth.

It's a pity that it's too late, Mr. Yuei Vu. I'm afraid no one in this world can stop me. "

Chapter 846: Who Is The Pawn?

"So you're not dead."

Yuei Vu stood at the door, just a few steps away from Chairman Kagamaru, looking at the grotesquely young face.

"Obviously." Kagamaru smiled, "That monster from ancient times is called Tragoedia', right? It thinks it controls everything. It thinks it can control the company I founded, and use my resources to realize its ambitions.

But do you know what the truth is? He is an idiot. He has shocking power and the ability to shake the world, but he does not have the ability to use them effectively. "

After a pause, he added mockingly: "Like a kid wielding a submachine gun."

"Tragoedia thought he took advantage of you, but the truth is actually the other way around, right?" Yuei Vu said, "You lost to him in the duel, became his pawn, and was used as a puppet by him .but that's not you at all.

What you sacrificed to Tragoedia was originally your puppeta body that you had long abandoned due to aging and illness.

Tragoedia thought he was controlling Chairman Kagemaru', but in fact, it was just the empty shell left behind after your transformation. "

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes.

"Human Transmutation', the most taboo chapter in alchemy, can artificially create a body that can carry the weight of the soul and realizes the migration of the soul."

Kagemaru laughed dryly.

"It looks like you've already talked to Daitokuji."

He didn't deny it, he looked like the kind of villain who had succeeded in his plot and felt that he was secure and no longer needed to hide.

Now that he has passed the stage where he needed to hide behind the scenes and work hard, he couldn't wait to find someone to tell his evil plan and share his "genius" idea with others, just like a kid showing off his prank.

"Yes, even I must admit that Daitokuji played a vital role in my plan. I invested a huge amount of money in his alchemy project that ordinary people may not be able to even dream of in their lifetime. But it was worth it."

He spread out his hands, proudly showing off his young, strong, and energetic body.

Behold, the miracle of alchemy, the creation of a combination of magic and technology by intelligent people a young and perfect body.

Daitokuji's technology makes things a lot more convenient. Alchemy allowed me to prolong my life and buy me the necessary time otherwise, I might have died before my plan got this far.

It also gave me cover. Tragoedia is an idiot, but his short-term goal is the same as mine to steal the Three Sacred Beasts' from you and Seto Kaiba. So I let him do the high-profile work while I stayed behind the scenes and avoided unwanted attention

Just like the attention of a troublesome person like you, Mr. Yuei Vu. "

"So you used your trick and let Tragoedia take your past body and use it as a puppet." Yuei Vu said, "Tragoedia thought that you and your company were his pawns and in his hands. Sword, but in fact, he is your shield."

"That's right." Kagemaru said, "Thanks to him as a cover, I was able to carry out some necessary actions without attracting any attention. And everyone including you, Duel King Yuei Vu, you even thought I was dead.

I know you will think that the Seven Stars were sent out by Tragoedia. You and the people from Department D also think that the slate of the Sacred Beast fell into Tragoedia's hands.

But Tragoedia is just a poor guy who was kept in the dark. In fact, I did all of that. Speaking of which, I have to thank that idiot Tragoedia. If he hadn't attracted attention, I might not have made it this far. "

"Seven Stars what's your reason for sending them to attack the students of Duel Academy?" Yuei Vu asked.

He really couldn't see the point in it.

After all, although Seven Stars may be at the upper-middle level among Shadow Duelists, in Yuei Vu's eyes, he is just fighting against the fifth scum. They lined up like Calabash Boys to save Grandpa and fed for free, without seeing any meaning.

"Of course, I don't expect the Seven Stars' to be of use. Their level will not be enough to face you, Mr. Yuei Vu. I understand that well." Kagamaru smiled, "But have you ever thought that maybe the duel itself is the purpose? "

Yuei Vu remembered.

It seemed to be the same in the original work. The so-called "seven keys to seal the Sacred Beast" was actually just a cover. The process of sending Seven Stars to snatch the keys through a Shadow Game was the purpose in itself.

Even Chairman Kagamaru had made a plan when the academy was first completed.

The three Sacred Beasts are demons that feed on the energy of duel monster spirits. The energy generated by the duelists in the duel could become food for the Sacred Beasts to a certain extent.

When he sent Seven Stars to attack the students, Kagamaru didn't expect them to win. Who won or lost didn't matter to him, he just wanted to provide enough energy for the three demons sealed on the island through the Shadow Game.

So at the end of the anime Three Sacred Beasts, although Judai and others successfully defeated all the members of the Seven Stars, the seal was finally lifted, and the Three Sacred Beasts still reappeared in the world.

But the difference here was that Kagamaru missed a small detail a fatal detail.

"The three Sacred Beasts were not sealed on the island at all." Yuei Vu shrugged, "Maybe the purpose of you sending Seven Stars to attack is to replenish energy for the three Sacred Beasts so that they can break the seal on their own? But you will be disappointed."

Kagamaru smiled: "Yes, I already know. Your alertness really surprised me, Mr. Yuei Vu. I didn't expect that the seal on the island was a cover. The three Sacred Beasts were not sealed there at all but were kept by you.

I must admit that I was defeated again in this regard. The Seven Stars plan was a complete failure. "

Despite what he said, Kagamaru maintained a calm smile from beginning to end. Combined with the pressure he felt from the moment he stepped into the building, this gave Yuei Vu an ominous premonition.

"The three cards you are holding now were obtained after the Sacred Beasts appeared in chaos and were sealed into cards, right?" Kagamaru suddenly asked.

Yuei Vu did not deny it.

"But have you ever thought that why no one in the world has discovered the stone slab of Sacred Beasts so far?"

Yuei Vu's eyes turned cold.

"Could it be that you"

"That's right." Kagemaru laughed loudly, "Fate made me discover them, in the forgotten corner of the world, the Sacred Beast' stone slabs that were sealed in ancient times!

The Sacred Beasts recognized me, accepted me, allowed me to have that power and finally gave me this! "

He showed three cards that he had obviously prepared.

They were in red, yellow, and blue color respectively, had no stars or attributes, and each had a ferocious and arrogant monster painted on the card.

It's the Three Sacred Beasts!

Chapter 847: The Sacred Beast Descends!

Just like the original three Egyptian Gods, each Sacred Beast was also unique. They would not allow their cards to be counterfeited, copied, or reprinted. Any such behavior would incur the wrath of gods and demons and cause the duelists themselves to be destroyed.

Of course, there were exceptions.

For example, a certain minor character who appeared in the GX animation was a card designer from the Industrial Illusions. He successfully copied the "The Winged Dragon of Ra", the supreme god among the Egyptian Gods, and also developed the Field Spell "Mound of the Bound Creator" that could bind even the power of the Egyptian Gods.

The result of the actual battle was that he successfully summoned "The Winged Dragon of Ra". But just when the Egyptian God was about to deliver divine punishment, he was immediately bound by the "Mound of the Bound Creator".

Through this method, even an ordinary person who did not have the blood of the Pharaoh and was not recognized by God could temporarily gain the power to control God.

So as long as you mastered the power to transcend or even bind god-level spirits, it was not impossible to use copy cards.

Or, if the situation was special and you could get the approval of these gods and demons themselves, you could naturally use the copy card to summon them.

This was clearly the case with Kagemaru at this point.

"Immeasurable investment of wealth and resources, and years of persistent exploration, just when I have exhausted almost all the wealth accumulated in my life, and even the company I founded is crumbling, just when I despair and was almost giving up, they finally showed up.

Kagemaru proudly showed off the three cards in his hand that contained extraordinary power.

"Uria, Lord of Searing Flames", "Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder", and "Raviel, Lord of Phantasms"

Three Sacred Beasts.

"I found the stone slab left in ancient times that sealed the Sacred Beasts." Kagamaru sneered, "I obtained their permission and used the industrial power of my company to successfully create these three cards almost without encountering any resistance.

Do you know? I have to thank you for this, Duel King Yuei Vu. They hate you, the duelist who defeated and sealed them, bringing them to shame.

The only condition for me to gain the approval of the Sacred Beasts and become their master is"

"Defeat me." Yuei Vu understood.

"Exactly." Kagamaru sneered, "There is a fatal flaw in Daitokuji's research, and the body created through alchemy is doomed to destruction. But the power of the Sacred Beasts can help me make up for this flaw

As long as the three Sacred Beasts are around, I can replenish my life energy without limit, become a truly immortal and peerless king, and rule this world forever! "

His voice was loud, reverberating in the closed room like rolling thunder. The energy of red, blue, and gold burst out majestically from behind him, transforming into the abstract form of Sacred Beasts in mid-air, and an overwhelming aura enveloped Yuei Vu.

At this point, Yuei Vu didn't know whether the person standing in front of him and controlling this body was more Kagamaru or more Sacred Beasts.

Men behind the scenes kept jumping out one after another maybe in the end, after everyone fought to a bloody battle, it would be revealed that the real ones behind the scenes were the three Sacred Beasts.

Both Tragodia and Kagamaru were the pawns of the three of them in their revenge.

Maybe Kagamaru thought he was the one with the last laugh, but in fact, his consciousness had already been dominated by the Sacred Beasts. Now he was just a tool used by the three Sacred Beasts to take revenge on Yuei Vu.

It seemed there was nothing left to say.

Yuei Vu opened the Duel Disk and inserted the deck. The indicator light of the Duel Disk lit up, and LED-like light blue fluorescence shone along every line of the mechanical device.

"I've dealt with you three before, and I can do it again." Yuei Vu said calmly.

Kagamaru curled up his lips: "This time is completely different, I promise you. After today, there will be no need to hide or play any more conspiracies.

After today, I will conquer everything with absolute strength! "

"Duel!" x2

Kagamaru, LP 4000

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

"I go first, draw!"

Kagemaru took out a card from his hand first.

"First, the Continuous Spell 'Cerulean Skyfire' is activated. Then I set three Spell Cards on the field!"

Three face-down cards appeared on the field, and he also deliberately emphasized that they were "Spell Cards."

Yuei Vu's eyes moved slightly.

Is it coming so soon?

"Send the three Spell Cards set on the field to the graveyard! The joyless thunderbolt falls from the sky and punishes the world with thunder

Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder! ! ! "

Outside the building, the wind and clouds surged, and the tide rose and fell on the sea level. A bolt of lightning brewed in the black cloud, and the sharp thunder blessed by the dark power turned into reality, penetrating the roof of the building they were in like a sharp scream!

The ceiling loaded with thickened steel plates was blown to pieces, and the whole building screamed like it was collapsing.

The golden devil descended from the sky. It was a terrifying body that was difficult to describe in words. The beauty of the alien and the ferocity of the devil were perfectly blended in those rough and crazy lines.

The pure golden body and appearance obviously corresponded to the "The Winged Dragon of Ra", but compared to Ra, this demon's body was more like a skeleton, with each golden bone wrapped around by tiny electric snakes. It looked like the demon was stepping out of the gate of hell.

Hamon, also known as Amon, was derived from the seventh demon of Solomon's 72 demons.

The Sacred Beasts in the anime were boasted to be on par with Egyptian Gods but failed to show the corresponding strength. But now Yuei Vu already knew that the stone slabs with fragments of their power sealed had fallen into Kagemaru's hands, and he must assume that Kagemaru had successfully made those stone slabs into cards.

In other words, the three Sacred Beasts currently held by Kagemaru may be in the strongest state that has never appeared in the anime!

"The Field Spell 'Fallen Paradise' is activated."

As the Field Spell was activated, the venue for the duel between the two sides also changed, turning into a dark, deserted, and empty space.

"Fallen Paradise's effect: When I have at least one of three Sacred Beasts on the field, once per turn, I can draw two cards." Kagemaru said lightly, "Because I currently have Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder' on the field, so the effect of 'Fallen Paradise' activates. I draw two cards from the deck."

After looking at the card he drew, he added it to his hand and then smiled mysteriously.

The Continuous Spell Cerulean Skyfire is a special card. This card will release Hamon's hidden true power!

Another bolt of thunder fell as if a layer of electric armor was wrapped around the surface of Hamon's body, crackling along its golden bones.

"I end my turn." Kagemaru said, "Come on, Duel King! If you can defeat the strongest demon in history, let's try it!"

Chapter 848: Gaia!

"The most powerful demon in history you really dare to say that."

But Yuei Vu wasn't careless at all.

Cerulean Skyfire was obviously one of the support cards exclusive to the three Sacred Beasts those ancient stone tablets that sealed their power.

The power of these supporting cards should not be underestimated. They could directly increase the strength of the three Sacred Beasts by a large margin, so there was no room for carelessness.

"My turn, draw!" Yuei Vu said, "Spell Card Graceful Charity"! Draw 3 cards, then discard 2 cards.

Then I summoned the Keeper of Dragon Magic in defense position! "

The knight in armor heroically appeared on the stage, with his spear sweeping and his cloak flying.

[Keeper of Dragon Magic, DEF 1300]

"Keeper of Dragon Magic's effect is activated." Yuei Vu said, "If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can discard 1 card; add 1 Polymerization' Normal Spell Card or Fusion' Normal Spell Card from my Deck to my hand."

The card automatically popped out from the bottom of the deck, and he pulled it out into his hand.

"I added the Spell Card Spiral Fusion' to my hand." Yuei Vu said, playing the card directly, "Activate the Spell Card Spiral Fusion!"

Kagemaru narrowed his eyes: "Spiral Fusion? Is it Gaia's special fusion card?"

Spiral Fusion, a special fusion card for "Gaia the Dragon Champion". The attack power of Gaia the Dragon Champion summoned by this card would be increased by 2600 that is, it had a super high attack power of up to 5200, and could even attack monsters twice in one turn. An outbreak of terror!

"Found a way to conquer Hamon in an instant? Look like you are the first-generation Duel King after all." Kagemaru said, "But it's no use! Now I'll let you see part of the true power of Sacred Beast!"

He waved his hand.

"The effect of the Continuous Spell Cerulean Skyfire' is activated!" Kagemaru shouted, "Once per turn, while I control an Attack Position Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder', I can negate any Spell/Trap effect activated by the opponent! "

The Lord of Striking Thunder roared in a deep voice, and the rolling thunder sounded like a trial. The blue electric light shined outside the broken dome of the building, cutting the sky into two halves, shooting straight down, and splitting the "Spiral Fusion" into ashes!

Kagemaru was right, this was the true power of Hamon.

The ability to negate card effects is the most powerful effect in the entire game system. It was an ability that even the Three Egyptian Gods (animation effects) did not have!

Although there was no support card like "Cerulean Skyfire" in the animation, Yuei Vu could understand that these cards should originally be part of the Sacred Beast's own power and could be seen as an extension of their own effects.

Even when Yuei Vu faced Hamon in this state, he couldn't help but feel real pressure.

"Hamon is the Sacred Beast who is proficient in Spells among the three Sacred Beasts." Kagemaru sneered, "Spells will not work in front of him."

After a pause, he added: "However, after using the effect of Cerulean Skyfire', Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder' will change to Defense Position."

[Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder, ATK 4000 DEF 4000]

According to Kagemaru's explanation in the anime, the three Sacred Beasts had resistance similar to that of Egyptian Gods. Like Egyptian Gods, they were unaffected by trap card effects, and only "Spell Cards activated this round" were effective against Sacred Beasts.

Of course, it was the same as the three Egyptian Gods. These resistances were not written on the card and were equivalent to the default common characteristics of god-level monsters.

However, Yuei Vu speculated that the resistance of Sacred Beast, which was "unaffected by trap effects and only accepts Spell Cards activated this round", should not conflict with the magic traps supported by the three of them.

After all, these support cards were originally equivalent to the extension of the Sacred Beast's own effects and were part of their power. If they did not accept the influence of these effects, wouldn't it be equivalent to negating themselves?

So Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder still had to accept the "switching into the Defense Position" effect of "Cerulean Skyfire"

Therefore, the resistance of the three Sacred Beasts should not include their series of support cards by visual inspection.

The first move didn't work, but Yuei Vu's turn continued.

"Then the second effect of Keeper of Dragon Magic' is activated." Yuei Vu said, "Once per turn, I can reveal 1 Fusion Monster in my Extra Deck; Special Summon 1 of the Fusion Materials mentioned on that monster from my GY in face-down Defense Position."

He revealed a Fusion Monster.

"I reveal the Dark Cavalry' and special summon the Dark Magician' in the graveyard as a fusion material in the face-down defense position!"

The complex magic circle flickered briefly, and the black-robed mage flew out, spinning lightly, and landed on the field, turning into a covered card.

Kagemaru's expression remained unchanged: "Is it Dark Magician this time? A mage known as a top magician is indeed a very powerful monster. But in front of the power of the Sacred Beast"

Before he finished speaking, Yuei Vu continued: "Quick-Play Spell Dedication through Light and Darkness! Tribute 1 Dark Magician', Special Summon 1 Dark Magician of Chaos' from my hand, Deck, or Graveyard!

The Dark Magician evolved into the ultimate mage that transcends time and space in the chaos
Dark Magician of Chaos! "

The whirlpool of black magic engulfed the black-robed mage, and the torrent of magic turned into a whirlpool. The mage in black attire seemed to have arrived from the other side of time and space!

[Dark Magician of Chaos, ATK 2800]

"The effect of Dark Magician of Chaos is to add a Spell Card from my graveyard to my hand when summoned." (old version effect)

A card popped up in the Duel Disk's tomb area, and was drawn out by Yuei Vu and returned to his hand.

"I take the Spell Card Spiral Fusion' back into my hand!"

Kagemaru's expression changed slightly.

How could he recover the Spell revoked by Hamon so easily?

"Spell Card Spiral Fusion'!" Yuei Vu took back the card in his hand and inserted it into the Duel Disk again, "I fuse the Curse of Dragonfire' and Swift Gaia the Fierce Knight' in the hand!

Fusion Summon!

Sky Galloping Gaia the Dragon Champion! ! ! "

With the fusion of knight and dragon, an unparalleled powerful existence emerged from the vortex of fusion. A storm of energy erupted, and the Dark Knight rode a golden dragon with distinct skeletons, diving down from high altitude like a bomber!

[Sky Galloping Gaia the Dragon Champion, ATK 2600]

"The name of Sky Galloping Gaia the Dragon Champion' can be treated as Gaia the Dragon Champion'." Yuei Vu said, "So according to the effect of Spiral Fusion', his attack power increases by 2600!"

[Sky Galloping Gaia the Dragon Champion, ATK 2600 ATK 5200]

"Then there is the effect of Sky Galloping Gaia the Dragon Champion'." Yuei Vu shouted, "If this card is Special Summoned, add 1 Spiral Spear Strike' from my Deck or Graveyard to my hand."

Yuei Vu picked out the Spell Card that popped up from the deck with his fingers and quickly shuffled the deck. He displayed the card briefly, then quickly inserted it into the Duel Disk.

"The Continuous Spell Spiral Spear Strike' is activated!"

Yuei Vu waved his hand, and a green Spell Card appeared in front of him.

The magic effect was activated, and the power of the knight poured into the Dark Knight's body. The spear in Gaia's hand swept across, the tip of the spear pointed diagonally at the ground, and the transparent airwaves were like invisible waves.

"When Spiral Spear Strike' exists on the field, if a Gaia The Fierce Knight', Swift Gaia the Fierce Knight', or Gaia the Dragon Champion' on my field attacks a Defense Position monster, inflict piercing battle damage to the opponent!"

To put it simply, it was a support spell dedicated to "Gaia". It could enchant the knight's spear of various forms of "Gaia" to gain the ability to penetrate the defense.

In just one turn, Keeper of Dragon Magic, Dark Magician of Chaos, and Gaia the Dragon Champion with an attack power of 5200 and piercing ability have been summoned on Yuei Vu's field. The lineup was luxurious enough to make most duelists lose their fighting spirit!

Even Kagamaru's expression couldn't help but change slightly.

"Duel King Yuei Vu Sure enough, I still underestimated you a little?"

Chapter 849: The Correct Way To Use Sakuretsu Armor

"Battle!" Yuei Vu ordered directly, "Sky Galloping Gaia the Dragon Champion, attack the Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder'!"

The defense power of 4000 could indeed make Hamon become an iron wall. Unfortunately, in front of the invincible "Gaia", it was not much different from ordinary fish.

Sky Galloping Gaia the Dragon Champion sprinted at full speed, the giant dragon bone wings under his body flashed, as if he was riding a golden storm and rushed out at full speed. The knight's spear seemed to merge into the golden torrent, and it penetrated Hamon through the chest with just one blow!

"The effect of Spiral Spear Strike'," Yuei Vu said, "Gaia gives piercing battle damage when it attacks a Defense Position monster!"

[Kagamaru, LP 4000 LP 2800]

The spiral spear penetrated the body of the Sacred Beast, and the golden bone fragments that reflected the shining luster were broken, and the fragments flew everywhere.

"The second effect of Spiral Spear Strike' is that when a Gaia the Dragon Champion' on my field uses the piercing effect to inflict Battle Damage, I can draw 2 cards, then discard 1 card."

Two new cards were drawn, and Yuei Vu quickly picked one of them and sent it to the graveyard.

"Dark Magician of Chaos!" Yuei Vu said, "Attack directly!"

The dark mage spun and jumped, the staff in his hand whirling like a long stick, and the shattering spell roared in the face like it burned everything!

Dark Magician of Chaos' ATK was 2800, and Kagamaru's remaining LP also happened to be 2800. If this blow passed, Kagamaru wouldn't even have a chance to call out the second Sacred Beast before he was instantly killed on the spot!

But in the moment before the destruction spell hit, the body of the Lord of Striking Thunder that cracked like a landslide did not disintegrate. Countless golden bone fragments were attracted like magnets, forming a transparent golden barrier, firmly blocking the damage from the chaos spell.

Kagamaru hummed: "After Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder' was destroyed while in Defense Position, I take no damage for the rest of this turn."

Then he grinned and taunted: "What a pity. You put out such a powerful offensive lineup with great momentum, but it doesn't seem to be effective."

Yuei Vu was not surprised. It seemed that such a result was expected: "The Battle Phase is over. I then activated the Spell Card 'Pot of Greed' drawn by the effect of 'Spiral Spear Strike', and drew two more cards from the deck.

Then my turn is over. "

"Oh, the terror of the Sacred Beast is just beginning!" Kagamaru shouted, "My turn, draw! I want to summon this guy

Chaos Summoning Beast, in attack position! "

A black demon appeared on Kagamaru's field. It has a long tail filled with sharp spikes and devil's wings. The image is grotesque and uncomfortable.

[Chaos Summoning Beast, ATK 0]

"The effect of Chaos Summoning Beast." Kagamaru said, "Use it as a sacrifice, and I can Special Summon a Sacred Beast in my hand regardless of the summoning conditions!"

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows: "Is it coming so soon?"

"That's right." Kagamaru slowly pulled out a card in his hand and smiled ferociously, "Take a good look at it, Duel King, the great Sacred Beast's power that exceeds the limits of ordinary monsters!

The Sacred Beast of hellfire purifies everything with its burning flames

Uria, Lord of Searing Flames! ! ! "

The world was turbulent, the earth was shaking, broken pieces everywhere began to beat restlessly, and cracks began to spread rapidly along the floor tiles.

The aura of destruction expanded to its peak, and the clouds condensed in the sky forming a swirling hollow. The ultra-high temperature flames burned the clouds in the sky into fiery red, and boundless energy accumulated in the center of the vortex, as if a scorching crater hung upside down in the sky, spewing world-destroying breath toward the world!

The red dragon crashed down with the breath. Hellfire burned everything, metal melted in the flames, and hot molten iron spread to the ground.

Yuei Vu raised his head and looked at the Lord of Searing Flames, whose form was almost the same as the Sky Dragon. He murmured in a low voice: "Did the second Sacred Beast appear so soon?"

"Uria, Lord of Searing Flames gains 1000 ATK and DEF for each Trap Card in my Graveyard." (animation effect)

Kagamaru said and paused: "Of course, there are no trap cards in my graveyard now, so Uria has no attack power."

[Uria, Lord of Searing Flames, ATK 0]

Uria's prototype was the angel Uriel in the Bible. It was mentioned in many works and was generally regarded as one of the four Archangels together with Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael.

Uriel also meant "God's Light" and "God's Flame". Uria was known as the "Lord of Searing Flames", which may have some connection with the legend.

"But now that I have summoned a new Sacred Beast on the field, the effect of the field magic 'Fallen Paradise' can also be used again." Kagamaru shouted, "The effect of 'Fallen Paradise' is activated!

Once per turn, when there is a Sacred Beast on the field, I draw two cards from the deck. "

Two new cards were put into hand, and Kagamaru quickly revealed one of them.

"Activate the Spell Card 'Painful Choice'! Pick five cards from the deck, let the opponent choose one of them, add that card to my hand, and discard the remaining cards to the graveyard."

Kagamaru pulled out five cards from the deck in one breath and showed them all to Yuei Vu.

Yuei Vu took a closer look and saw that five cards were all traps.

In other words, no matter which card he chose, the remaining four cards thrown into the graveyard will become Uria's 4,000 points of attack power. So here he only needed to choose one that was relatively less threatening to him

Hmm, wait a minute, why do you still bring this?

Yuei Vu clicked on one of them almost without thinking.

"I choose 'Sakuretsu Armor'."

As we all know, the "Sakuretsu Armor" in the animation was cursed by the will of the universe. Throughout the past generations of Yu-Gi-Oh animations, this card has had many opportunities to appear. It has been shown in scenes for many years, but the number of times it was successfully activated after being Set was 0

"Oh, you actually took the initiative to hand such a powerful trap into my hands?" Kagamaru didn't seem to realize the curse that came with this card, "Then you will pay the price for your arrogance, Duel King."

He accepted the card "gifted" by Yuei Vu with satisfaction, and said at the same time: "Then I will discard all the remaining four traps to the graveyard. The attack power of the Lord of Searing Flames will increase by 4000 points!"

[Uria, Lord of Searing Flames, ATK 0 ATK 4000]

On Yuei Vu's side, the Keeper of Dragon Magic was in Defense Position, and the invincible "Gaia" had an attack power of 5200. So the target that Kagamaru could choose here was naturally self-evident.

Kagamaru raised his arms: "Go! Lord of Searing Flames Uria, attack the Dark Magician of Chaos!"

The Lord of Searing Flames opened his huge mouth as if all the particles floating in the air gathered together, turning into a vortex of flames and gathering in Uria's mouth!

There was no trap in Yuei Vu's back row that could be used for defense of course, he knew that traps were useless against Sacred Beasts.

This not only meant that the Sacred Beast had the resistance "unaffected by trap cards", but also just like the Hamon was a Sacred Beast who was proficient in spells, Uria ruled over traps. The animated Uria had the ability to destroy all trap cards on the opponent's field once per turn.

Therefore, as long as Uria was around, traps were almost ineffective against Sacred Beasts.

The Dark Magician of Chaos was instantly shattered by the flames of the Lord of Searing Flames. Yuei Vu felt the scorching cyclone swimming unchecked in his body. The shock made his stomach churn, and his bones seemed to be melted by the flames of hell.

[Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2800]

"Set a card, I end my turn," Kagemaru said.

Yuei Vu stood up straight and glanced briefly at the extra set card in the back row of Kagemaru.

A set card is it the "Sakuretsu Armor" that was just added to the hand?

It's a shame you dared to add something like this to the deck. Using a card that was cursed by the will of the universe, are you really thinking that with the support of the Sacred Beasts, you can do whatever you want?

"My turn, draw!"

The words on the electronic display of the Duel Disk changed, and the moment the word "Standby Phase" popped up in the display, Kagemaru shouted loudly: "Just keep your eyes wide open to see how powerful the Sacred Beast is, Duel King!"

Release the power of divine flames here now! Open the set card: Continuous Trap Hyper Blaze!!! "

Yuei Vu's eyes moved slightly.

It isn't Sakuretsu Armor?!

The name of the card was the ultimate move of the Uria, Lord of Searing Flames, and the picture on the card was also Uria breathing flames out of his mouth. You could tell with your butt that this was the exclusive trap corresponding to the Lord of Searing Flames!

"The effect of Hyper Blaze! Once per turn: I can discard 1 card; add to my hand or Special Summon 1 Sacred Beast in the graveyard regardless of the summoning conditions!"

Kagemaru discarded a card from his hand to the graveyard.

"Resurrected on this field, once again punishing the world with the thunderbolt of joylessness Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder is coming again! "

The underworld was penetrated, and the image of the Sacred Beast descended with thunder! The golden skeleton supported the majestic and terrifying body. The moment the Sacred Beast's feet landed on the ground, it seemed as if the whole world was screaming!

[Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder, ATK 4000]

Yuei Vu curled his lips and said, "Are you here again? You Sacred Beasts are really stubborn"

He couldn't help but think of the battle between him and the Millennium AI Bot, in which the three Egyptian Gods also repeatedly jumped out endlessly.

"Also, when activating the effect of Hyper Blaze', the card I discarded was the trap card Sakuretsu Armor'." Kagemaru said, "So the attack power of Uria, Lord of Searing Flames' also increased!

[Uria, Lord of Searing Flames, ATK 4000 ATK 5000]

Yuei Vu: ""

Good guy, you didn't set "Sakuretsu Armor" but just threw it away?

Is this the correct way to use Sakuretsu Armor?

Chapter 850: The Second Sacred Beast

Now Kagemaru had two Sacred Beasts on the field, as well as the exclusive supporting card that came with each of the two Sacred Beasts.

To be honest, this lineup was quite luxurious. Regardless of the actual combat value, most people would not dare to raise their heads when facing Hamon and Uria, two god-level spirits.

Not only were the Sacred Beasts themselves a bit troublesome, but the two cards "Cerulean Skyfire" and "Hyper Blaze" corresponding to the two Sacred Beasts were also a bit problematic.

The primary threat was especially the "Cerulean Skyfire". As long as Hamon was present, this thing could negate one of Yuei Vu's Spells or Traps every turn, which was quite disgusting.

Moreover, for a well-functioning Sacred Beast deck, it was a basic operation for three Sacred Beasts to repeatedly jump from the graveyard, the hand, or the deck. Even if you managed to defeat Hamon, there was still a high probability that it would come back in the next turn.

So the top priority was to find a way to solve this troublesome Continuous Spell.

"Activate the Equip Spell Excalibur'." Yuei Vu showed a card in his hand, "Equip to the Sky Galloping Gaia the Dragon Champion' on the field.

Double the equipped monster's original ATK, but when I draw a card, destroy this card. (animation card)

The sword embedded in the stone was stuck in the ground. The dark knight swooped down on the golden dragon and raised his hand to draw out the golden sword.

Sky Galloping Gaia the Dragon Champion already gained 2600 points of additional attack power under the effect of "Spiral Fusion". The original attack power doubled again, which meant an additional 2600 points were added to this!

[Sky Galloping Gaia the Dragon Champion, ATK 5200 ATK 8800]

"Eight thousand eight hundred attack power?"

Although Gaia's attack power was already higher than the two Sacred Beasts on his field, Kagemaru had always acted fearlessly until he saw that even a Cyber End Dragon which was Fusion Summoned by "Power Bond" could not compare with it. His expression changed slightly when he exaggerated the attack value.

It seemed that after weighing and judging, he felt that this level of attack was still a bit unbearable, so Kagemaru shouted: "The effect of the Continuous Spell Cerulean Skyfire'!

Once per turn, while I control an Attack Position Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder', I can negate any Spell/Trap effect activated by the opponent! "

Kagemaru's arm fell.

"Hamon! Negate the effect of Excalibur!"

The Spell Card in front of the Lord of Striking Thunder lit up with a light blue light, and the beam of light rushed into the sky, turned into tumbling thunder, and hit the divine sword in Gaia's hand. The lightsaber lost all its luster in an instant, golden light spots evaporated in all directions, and the blade lost its luster and was shattered into pieces.

[Sky Galloping Gaia the Dragon Champion, ATK 8800 ATK 5200]

Gaia's attack power increase failed, and Hamon, due to the side effect of "Cerulean Skyfire", also switched back to Defense Position.

[Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder, ATK 4000 defense power 4000]

But in this way, the only chance to use effect cancellation ability this turn of Hamon had been consumed.

A card popped up immediately from Yuei Vu's graveyard: "Activate the effect of Galaxy Cyclone' in the graveyard! Banish this card from my GY, then target 1 face-up Spell/Trap on the field; destroy it.

I destroyed the Continuous Spell Cerulean Skyfire' . "

A whirlwind rolled up outside the sky, and the white storm rolled the cards up into the air, tearing them into pieces under the wind pressure.

The layers of lightning armor wrapped around Hanon also dissipated, and the heavy pressure on the Sacred Beast was also vaguely weakened.

Kagemaru clicked his tongue: "Tsk, the card discarded the last turn what a lucky guy."

The blessing of "Cerulean Skyfire" was eliminated, and Yuei Vu's Spells and Traps were finally able to operate unimpeded. Then he immediately took the next step without saying much.

"Activate Continuous Spell Card of Safe Return!"

Although Kagemaru took a fake-card-like drawing engine like Fallen Paradise, it didnt matter. Yuei Vu said that he also had such a thing!

"As long as this card exists on the field, whenever a monster is Special Summoned from any Graveyard, I can draw 3 cards."

Yuei Vu then showed another card.

"Activate the effect of Magicians' Souls!" Yuei Vu said, "By sending the Dark Eradicator Warlock' from the deck to the graveyard, its effect is activated!

By sending the Magicians' Souls' in my hand to the graveyard, I can special summon the Dark Magician' in the graveyard! "

The Magicians' Souls and Dark Eradicator Warlock were discarded from the hand and the deck into the Duel Disk's tomb area respectively. The magic circle was spread out on the ground, and the magic lines were intertwined. The black-robed magician who transformed into the Chaos Mage in the last round came again. He fearlessly raised his head and faced the tall demon.

[Dark Magician, DEF 2100]

"At this moment, the effect of the Card of Safe Return'." Yuei Vu said, "Because the Dark Magician' is resurrected, I draw three cards from the deck!"

Kagemaru said disdainfully: "It doesn't matter, the power of a mere magician is useless in front of the Sacred Beast."

"Quick-Play Spell De-Fusion'." Yuei Vu waved his hand, "Target 1 Fusion Monster on the field; return that target to the Extra Deck, then, if all the Fusion Materials that were used for its Fusion Summon are in my GY, I can Special Summon all of them.

I undo the fusion of Sky Galloping Gaia the Dragon Champion! "

Kagemaru was surprised: "Are you willing to give up your strongest trump card!?"

You must know that the "Sky Galloping Gaia the Dragon Champion" currently had the highest attack power on the field. Even that of the current Uria was inferior by 200 points.

Under such circumstances, why would he want to give up his advantage and release the fusion of his strongest ace?

What on earth was he thinking?

But Kagemaru was surprised to see that the fusion of "Sky Dragon Knight-Gaia" had also been released, and one on the left and one on the right transformed into an armored dark knight and a golden flying dragon.

[Swift Gaia the Fierce Knight, ATK 2300]

[Curse of Dragonfire, ATK 2000]

"At this moment, the Card of Safe Return' effect is activated again." Yuei Vu said, "Because a monster was specially summoned from the graveyard, I drew three cards!"

Looking at the opponent's hand of rapidly replenishing cards, Kagemaru frowned and fell into confusion.

Is it just to replenish the hand of cards?

Or is there another intention?

But Kagemaru soon knew the answer

in an incredibly impressive way.

At this point in the operation, Yuei Vu stopped briefly.

He raised his head and looked at the majestic and powerful pressure on Kagemaru's field that could cause hallucinations. Then his eyes swept over Kagemaru's face, revealing a playful smile.

Almost every cell in his body made Kagemaru instinctively alert.

Kagemaru, who simultaneously controlled the power of the Sacred Beast and was possessed by the Sacred Beast to a certain extent, also possessed perceptive abilities that ordinary people did not have.

And at this moment, he felt the instinctive fear of some powerful existence, unknown power.

He guessed what he was afraid of, and also guessed that with the large draw of cards just now, "that existence" that he had always been afraid of deep in his heart might have been sleeping in Yuei Vu's hand.

What's even more frightening was that the conditions for the ceremony had already been prepared.

"Keeper of Dragon Magic, Swift Gaia the Fierce Knight, Curse of Dragonfire I offer these three monsters as sacrifices!"

A card was pulled out of his hand, held high, pointing straight to the deep sky.

The sky thunder flashed, and the billowing clouds that had been so solemn over the Sacred Beast seemed to suddenly rebel. Even the thunderbolts controlled by Hamon seemed to switch sides on the battlefield, exploding on the field in front of Yuei Vu.

"Through the underworld and the real world, appear in the chaos of thunder

Osiris the Sky Dragon! ! ! "
