Chapter 851: Battle of Demons and Gods

The red body of the dragon rolled slowly in the dark clouds. It slowly lowered its height, and gradually revealed its body from behind the black clouds. Its eyes were filled with light golden light, and countless electric snakes around its body were leaping along the steel-like red shell.

Osiris the Sky Dragon has descended!

The Egyptian God who rules the underworld arrived and thunder surrounded it like a cage. The sky dragon stood high and fought against the auras of the two Sacred Beasts alone. The realms of gods and demons collided in space as if there were invisible sparks flying all over the sky.

Even the extremely arrogant Kagemaru couldn't help but change his expression when he faced this legendary Egyptian God in person.

"Osiris the God of the Underworld, one of the three Egyptian Gods?"

Kagemaru swallowed, suppressed the trembling feeling in his heart, glanced sideways at Uria and Hamon in front of him, and seemed to feel a lot more relieved.

"Osiris's attack power depends on the number of cards in my hand." Yuei Vu said, "I have five cards in my hand, so now Osiris's attack power is five thousand."

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 5000]

"Is it comparable to Uria?" Kagemaru frowned.

At this time, the Lord of Searing Flames let out a loud roar, and the Sky Dragon was also not to be outdone. The two dragons with extremely similar shapes faced each other tit for tat.

As the saying goes, enemies are extremely jealous when they meet. These two had a bit of a collision of looks, and they both disliked each other. In addition, when the Lord of Searing Flames came out for air for the first time, he was suppressed by the sky dragon summoned by Yuei Vu. This guy held a grudge very tightly.

Last time, the Lord of Searing Flames was left alone and defeated by the Sky Dragon. This time it not only had a master but also a buddy, so it naturally had to take the opportunity to regain its place.

"Spell Card Spell Books from the Pot!" Yuei Vu showed off a card-drawing artifact, "Both players draw three cards from the deck. At this moment, Osiris's attack power increases!"

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 5000 ATK 7000]

Kagemaru hummed: "Is it more than the attack power of Uria"

"Battle!" Yuei Vu shouted, "Osiris the Sky Dragon', attack Uria, Lord of Searing Flames!
Superconducting Wave Thunder Cannon!"

Sky Dragon obviously couldn't wait for this order. Its huge mouth gradually opened, golden thunder surged, and the endless vortex formed a spiral thunder cannon!

"Oh, you really dare to attack." Kagemaru said with confidence on his face, "But I said, the power of the Sacred Beast is much more than that! You will see it now!"

Kagemaru shouted: "Another effect of Hyper Blaze"! Once per battle, when an attack is declared involving my Uria, Lord of Searing Flames', I can send 1 Trap from my hand or Deck to the GY; Uria's ATK/DEF become the number of face-up Traps on the field, and in the GYs x 1000, for the rest of this turn!

As he spoke, Kagemaru had already discarded a trap card from the deck to the graveyard, turning it into the power of the Lord of Searing Flames.

[Uria, Lord of Searing Flames, ATK 5000 ATK 6000]

Now Uria's attack power was 6000. With the effect of Hyper Blaze taking effect and the trap cards on the field being added, its attack power would rise again to 7000 points!

In this way, the Lord of Searing Flames would catch up with Osiris's attack power, and the attack declaration could no longer be stopped, which would lead to a mutual kill.

But even if they both died together, the Lord of Searing Flames could still be resurrected under the effect of the "Hyper Blaze" in the next turn.

However, it didn't happen!

When gods and demons clashed, two red dragons with similar shapes opened their mouths at the same time. The mouth of the Lord of Searing Flames was filled with scorching flames that were as hot as a volcano, while the mouth of Osiris was filled with dancing golden lightning.

At the moment when the conflict broke out, a black shadow suddenly flashed out it was the Dark Magician on the side!

The magician's robes flew up and down under the storm of electricity and flames, and the magic wave was stimulated, tightly binding the Lord of Searing Flames like invisible black chains!

Kagemaru's expression suddenly changed: "Dark Magician!?! How could"

A dark whirlpool opened up at Yuei Vu's feet, and a trap card seemed to be flying around surrounded by a black whirlwind.

Magician Navigation!

"This is the one that was discarded through the effect of Spiral Spear Strike' in the first turn." Yuei Vu said lightly, "When there is a Dark Magician on my field, Magician Navigation' can be activated by banishing it from the graveyard.

Target 1 face-up Spell/Trap the opponent controls; negate its effects until the end of this turn! "

Kagemaru gritted his teeth: "Did you negate the effect of Hyper Blaze"

"That's right." Yuei Vu chuckled, "Using support traps to unleash the hidden potential of monsters is not a move exclusive to your Sacred Beast."

The Hyper Blaze was restrained by the magic array, and the Lord of Searing Flames's supplies were cut off. He was still forced to maintain a weak position in this battle between gods and demons.

The bombardment of the super electric wave penetrated its body with countless sharp thunderous roars. The Lord of Searing Flames let out a sharp cry, and a huge hole was torn open in his body. The edges were burned red-hot, and the hole was scorched black and terrifying.

Kagemaru, LP 2800 LP 1800

In the first round of confrontation between the Egyptian God and the Sacred Beast, it seemed that the Egyptian God had the upper hand.

The dragon in the sky roared loudly, thunder and lightning fell, and the clouds in the sky seemed to tremble under its roar.

"Set a card, I end my turn." Yuei Vu said.

The huge pressure of the Egyptian God made Kagemaru gasp for breath, especially when the sky dragon roared, he felt as if his breathing was blocked back in his chest.

But he soon recovered.

Although the Egyptian God was powerful, he already had the power to rival it at this time, and there was absolutely no reason to be afraid!

Rather, by conquering the Egyptian God and defeating Yuei Vu, he could take a step closer to his ultimate goal of becoming a ruler!

"My turn, draw!" Kagemaru said, "Because I have Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder' on the field, I activate the effect of the Field Spell Fallen Paradise' again. Once per turn, draw two cards from the deck."

Two cards were added to his hand, and then he quickly picked another card from his hand.

"Spell Card Card Destruction"! Both players discard as many cards as possible from their hands, then each player draws the same number of cards they discarded."

The hand cards were changed, but there was no loss for Yuei Vu. The total number of cards in the hand did not change, nor did Sky Dragon's attack power.

"Spell Card De-Spell!" Kagemaru said, "Destroy a Spell Card on the field.

First, I'll deal with that troublesome card disappear, Card of Safe Return! "

"Then the effect of Hyper Blaze' is activated again!" Kagemaru said, "Once per turn: I can discard 1 card to Special Summon 1 Sacred Beast in the graveyard regardless of the summoning conditions!"

He sent a card from his hand to the graveyard.

"Sacred Beasts are immortal! Come on, Uria, Lord of Searing Flames!"

Pillars of lava and fire erupted into the sky, and the Lord of Searing Flames soared into the sky amidst the pillars of lava and fire!

Kagemaru said: "Because I just discarded another trap to go to the graveyard, so now there are seven sleeping trap cards in my graveyard, and the Lord of Searing Flames's attack power has increased again!"

[Uria, Lord of Searing Flames, ATK 7000]

"But at this moment, Osiris' ability is also triggered!" Yuei Vu said, "Osiris can take away 2000 attack points from the summoned monster!"

Summon Thunder Bullets! "

The blue ball of thunder and lightning cut through the space, thrown out like a lightning gun, and exploded on Uria's body!

[Uria, Lord of Searing Flames, ATK 7000 ATK 5000]

"It doesn't matter." Kagamaru snorted without caring, "Uria, Lord of Searing Flames', attack the Osiris the Sky Dragon'!"

Uria screamed sharply, and the entire building began to tremble! The Lord of Searing Flames opened his big mouth, and the flames erupted in the instant of lightning and flint!

"The effect of Hyper Blaze'!" Kagamaru shouted, "Send 1 Trap from my Deck to the GY; Uria's ATK/DEF become the number of face-up Traps on the field and in the GYs x 1000, for the rest of this turn!"

[Uria, Lord of Searing Flames, ATK 5000 ATK 7000]

It was comparable to the power held by the current Sky Dragon!

The waves of flames melted the solid body of the Egyptian God, and the sky dragon screamed violently. Like a closed loop, Sky Dragon's "Superconducting Wave Thunder Cannon" just killed Uria in the last turn, and this turn it was immediately punished by Uria's "Hyper Blaze".

Yuei Vu, LP 2800 LP 1800

"Then comes the Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder! Attack the Dark Magician!"

The electric light on Hamon's golden skeleton was beating loudly, black clouds gathered in the sky, and the thunder was blasted downwards as if it hit the Dark Magician with great force, and the magician was instantly wiped out under the thunder.

"The monster that is destroyed in the Defense Position won't cause Battle Damage, but the power of the Lord of Striking Thunder is also activated at this moment!" Kagamaru shouted, "If this card destroys an opponent's monster by battle and sends it to the GY: Inflict 1000 damage to the opponent!"

Go, Hamon! Hell's Punishment! "

Hamon's eyes flashed red, and another blue lightning came down, falling on Yuei Vu impartially.

The sound of thunder cracking his ears made Yuei Vu feel a little tinnitus, and his body was numb from the shock. For a moment, he felt as if he had lost control of his fingers, and his vision was temporarily lost.

Yuei Vu, LP 1800 LP 800

"Ha ha ha ha!"

Kagamaru began to feel pride again.

"Did you see it? This is the true power of the Sacred Beast. No one can stop it! Even the Egyptian God is no exception!"

Chapter 852: The Eldest Brother Scored A Double Kill!

Kagamaru set two cards, immediately ending his turn, and another round of attacks by the Sacred Beast also came to an end for the time being.

The effect of the Continuous Trap "Hyper Blaze" only lasted for one turn. Now that the effect was over, the attack power of Uria dropped back to 6000.

[Uria, Lord of Searing Flames, ATK 6000]

But there was no doubt that as long as another attack against Uria was launched again, the effect of "Hyper Blaze" would be triggered. Kagamaru could throw another trap from the deck into the graveyard. Coupled with the trap card "Hyper Blaze" itself, Uria's attack power would increase to 8000 in one breath.

With the protection of that Continuous Trap, Uria could be resurrected and come back to the field no matter how many times he is defeated, and he will become stronger and stronger with every battle.

However, this round of Sacred Beast's attack also provided Yuei Vu with a new opportunity.

Yuei Vu stood up straight, took a deep breath, and slowly raised his hand.

He had only 800 LP left.

The time was almost here.

Yuei Vu raised his arms high, and the particles wandering in the air swirled, and the light blue energy visible to the naked eye gathered towards his palm, radiating a blue and sacred luster.

Duel Skill: God's Anger, activate!

Once per Duel, when the LP is below 1000, instead of conducting your normal draw, add 1 "Obelisk the Tormentor" (original) from outside the deck to the hand!

"Draw!"

The blue arc drawn by the power of God and the blue waves spread along the gravel-strewn floor, like a pebble dropped into a calm lake, causing disturbing ripples.

Kagamaru instinctively sensed something was wrong.

"The effect of the Vision HERO Faris' in the hand." Yuei Vu said lightly, "Discard 1 other HERO' monster; Special Summon this card from my hand.

Come on, Vision HERO Faris! "

[Vision HERO Faris, ATK 1600]

"The effect of Faris!" Yuei Vu began to enter the combo of the Vision HERO engraved in the DNA, "If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can place 1 Vision HERO' monster from my Deck, except Vision HERO Faris', in my Spell & Trap Zone as a face-up Continuous Trap.

I placed the Vision HERO Increase! "

The hero's phantom emerged out of thin air, floating in Yuei Vu's backcourt like a ghost.

"The effect of Increase! Use the Vision HERO Faris' on my field as a sacrifice and special summon it from my Spell & Trap Zone."

Kagamaru had already seen through his purpose: "If you want to gather sacrifices for the summoning of the next Egyptian God, that won't happen!"

Open the set card: Trap Card Dust Tornado! Target 1 Spell/Trap the opponent controls; destroy that target! "

After a pause, he sneered: "The Vision HERO Increase' is treated as a Continuous Trap Card when it exists in the Spell & Trap Zone, so it can be destroyed by the Dust Tornado'.

Just disappear, Increase! "

The storm rolled up and fallen leaves were flying all over the sky. Before the Vision HERO could reveal himself, he groaned miserably and was blown away by the strong wind.

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows slightly.

Oh, you actually interrupted the combo?

The combo of Vision HERO was indeed very powerful, and its retrieval and card-earning abilities are impeccable. However, it had a fatal weakness, which was the fear of typhoons.

Just like the Crystal Beast, before the Vision HERO was officially summoned as a monster, the heroes placed in the back row were regarded as trap cards. In other words, if any of them were blown away by a typhoon, it would directly lead to the interruption of the combo.

"And because the Trap Card Dust Tornado' entered the graveyard, the Lord of Searing Flames's attack power has been further increased!" Kagemaru said.

[Uria, Lord of Searing Flames, ATK 6000 ATK 7000]

Uria raised his head proudly and roared arrogantly. The transparent sound waves spread along with the scorching flames as if it was unrivaled by anyone in the world.

Not only that, although the Increase could not be special summoned, "Vision HERO Faris", as the activation condition of the Increase's effect, has been Tributed and sent to the graveyard. In this way, Yuei Vu's field became empty, which could be said to be a loss.

But it didn't matter.

If one move didn't work, try another move.

"Spell Card A Hero Lives!" Yuei Vu said, "If I control no face-up monsters: Pay half my LP; Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower Elemental HERO' monster from my Deck.

I special summon the Elemental HERO Blazeman'! "

[Yuei Vu, LP 800LP 400]

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200]

"The effect of Blazeman If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can add 1 Polymerization' from my Deck to my hand."

Yuei Vu showed the drawn card and quickly inserted it into the Duel Disk.

"Activate Spell Card Polymerization! I fuse Elemental HERO Blazeman' on the field and Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier' in the hand!

The fusion condition is that 1 Elemental HERO' monster + 1 WATER monster! Fusion Summon!

Born from the extremely cold abyss, freezing everything with the absolute power of ice and snow

Elemental HERO Absolute Zero! "

With the combination of water and fire, a violent evaporation reaction broke out in the merging vortex. The energy-combined light beam crashed down from mid-air to the earth, filled with ice and ice crystals flying, and the plain-white hero arrived with a sacred white glory!

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

"Liquid Soldier's effect If this card is used as Fusion Material for a HERO' monster, and sent to the GY or banished: I can draw 2 cards, then discard 1 card."

Kagemaru's eyes moved slightly: "Absolute Zero? This guy's effect is"

"Quick-Play Spell De-Fusion!" Yuei Vu said, "Cancel the fusion of Elemental HERO Absolute Zero! Special summon the Elemental HERO Blazeman' and Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier' as fusion materials from the graveyard!"

Eldest brother Absolute Zero, who had just appeared and had yet to gain a firm foothold, immediately separated again. The elements that turned into fire and water bounced left and right, and landed lightly on the ground.

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200]

[Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, ATK 1400]

"At this moment, the effect of Absolute Zero' is activated!" Yuei Vu said, "When Absolute Zero leaves the field, all monsters on the opponent's field are destroyed!"

The cold wave was sweeping across, like the extreme cold coming from the polar abyss. Everything that could be seen with the naked eye could not escape the ice!

In the anime, Chairman Kagemaru himself said "Traps are ineffective against Sacred Beasts, and only Spells activated this turn would be effective against Sacred Beasts." The resistance in this aspect was similar to that of Egyptian Gods, but unlike Egyptian Gods, they did not have the resistance to monster effects.

So in the anime, Judai relied on the "Elemental HERO Neo Bubbleman" to blow up the powerful Sacred Beasts into dregs.

Therefore, the two powerful Sacred Beasts naturally have no power to resist "absolute zero". Seeing that the invincible Sacred Beasts were about to be defeated in a double kill by the eldest brother Absolute Zero, Kagemaru gritted his teeth and waved his hand: "Quick-Play Spell My Body as a Shield!"

When the opponent activates a Spell/Trap Card or monster effect that would destroy a monster(s) on the field: Pay 1500 LP, negate the activation and destroy that card! "

Kagemaru, LP 1800LP 300

The ice freeze stopped instantly, and the power of absolute zero was blocked. The Sacred Beast was saved from the ice. At the same time, "Absolute Zero", which had returned to the Extra Deck, was directly blasted out due to the effect of "My Body as a Shield", and was sent directly to the graveyard.

Kagemaru hummed: "It seems you have to keep working hard, Duel King."

Yuei Vu's face was expressionless: The one who was discarded to the graveyard by the effect of Vision HERO Faris, Destiny HERO Malicious, activated his effect.

I can banish this card from my GY; Special Summon 1 Destiny HERO Malicious' from my Deck. "
[Destiny HERO Malicious, ATK 800]

Seeing another hero come on stage, Kagamaru's eyes moved slightly.

He suddenly realized a problem. Yuei Vu had been operating so frequently during this turn. A lot of heroes were jumping around repeatedly, yet it seemed that he hadn't even used up the opportunity to Normal Summon this turn.

Could it be that

"Elemental HERO Blazeman', Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier', Destiny HERO Malicious', three monsters as sacrifices."

Yuei Vu slowly drew another card from his hand and raised it above his head.

"The scorching wind blew wildly across the earth, suppressing all things with absolute divine power! Arrival

God of Destruction, Obelisk the Tormentor! "

Chapter 853: Professional Resurrectors

Scorching winds roared past, and the earth burned in a sea of red fire. The blue giant's body broke through the fire curtain, and his footsteps seemed to make the ground collapse. The thick blue light pillar penetrated the entire steel building.

The giant stood tall on the earth, his mountain-like solid body surrounded by light blue light. His figure stood tall against the sky, and his scarlet gaze seemed to shoot down from beyond the dark clouds.

Obelisk the Tormentor has descended! ! !

[Obelisk the Tormentor, DEF 4000]

Kagamaru didn't seem to realize that he took half a step back driven by instinct. The two phantoms, which quickly became arrogant after the Sky Dragon exited the stage, seemed to be alert and stared at the Tormentor.

Kagamaru said solemnly: "But even so, Obelisk's attack power is only 4000. Neither Hamon nor Uria can be defeated by it"

Indeed, Kagamaru's Hamon's attack power is also 4,000, and Uria's current attack power is 7000 if a battle occurred, it could even be further increased by the effect of "Hyper Blaze".

This is why the Obelisk that Yuei Vu finally summoned was in Defense Position for the sake of safety.

But Obelisk was known as the "God of Destruction" not just because of his 4000 ATK.

"Activate the Spell Card Over Destiny.'" Yuei Vu said, "Select a Destiny HERO' from the graveyard, and special summon a Destiny HERO' with a level less than half of the selected monster from the deck!

I choose the level 6 Destiny HERO Malicious in the graveyard, and special summon the level 1 Destiny HERO Disk Commander from the deck!

[Destiny HERO Disk Commander, ATK 300]

"The effect of the Destiny HERO Malicious' in the graveyard is activated again! Banish the Malicious in the graveyard and special summon the third Destiny HERO Malicious' from the deck!"

[Destiny HERO Malicious, ATK 800]

"Under such circumstances, you can actually summon two Destiny HEROes in one breath" Kagemaru looked a little complicated.

He has lost count of the number of operations and monster summons Yuei Vu has performed in just one turn.

He only knew that in this turn, Yuei Vu summoned a powerful hero like "Absolute Zero" to clear the field, and then summoned the God of Destruction by gathering three sacrifices, even though his combo was once interrupted by him. At this moment, there was even some energy left to continue operating

Kagemaru seemed to finally understand why so many people in the information he collected liked to brag about Yuei Vu as "the strongest Duel King in history."

Many duelists who were lucky enough to witness Yuei Vu's serious state said that the duel performed by this Duel King was completely different from others. They commented on Yuei Vu's duel as "a brand new game different from ours" as if his duel was not bound by any common sense known to ordinary people.

Not only NPCs, but even players felt the same way. It's just that their focus was different.

Most local NPCs thought that for normal playing cards, you could only summon one monster from your hand. If you were more awesome, you might be able to make a big monster at the level of "Blue Eyes White Dragon" that was already a very powerful person. A swarmer like Yuei Vu who called out ten monsters in one turn could no longer be called a duelist, that was called a wizard.

None of the card players thought there was anything wrong with this swarming ability after all, they had seen more terrifying swarming decks before.

But what made them feel outrageous was that Yuei Vu-san could stuff several systems that had no relation into one deck, and could even stuff a bunch of additional cards with unknown meanings that were only useful in specific situations.

This meant that even if you had the same card pool as Yuei Vu and an understanding of the same level, you would never be able to win against him

Of course, everyone knew that this was the traditional skill of the Yu-Gi-Oh protagonists. If he did not have this ability, then Yuei Vu was not qualified to be the protagonist of the world.

"The effect of Obelisk the Tormentor is activated!" Yuei Vu shouted, "Use two monsters as sacrifices, destroy all the monsters on the opponent's field, and then inflict 4,000 points of damage to the opponent!"

Kagemaru looked solemn: "Is it really here?"

He knew in advance that the Three Egyptian Gods were in the hands of Yuei Vu, and naturally, he also anticipated the situation where he might need to fight against them. He carefully studied all the duels in which the three Egyptian Gods appeared during the Battle City period and basically understood the effects of all three.

Unfortunately, his invincible three Sacred Beasts did not have the power to resist the "Soul Energy MAX".

The two heroes of destiny both disappeared, and Obelisk's body glowed with blue light! He roared and stepped forward, his blue fist dragging the sacred blue light.

Like the eruption of a wave, Obelisk punched out, and the steel plates covering the surrounding walls were shattered through the air. That punch seemed to carry the absolute will of "destruction", and no living thing could resist it.

The Sacred Beast's domain was smashed into pieces under this blow. Uria screamed in agony and was the first to be blown into pieces. Hamon followed in the footsteps of his companions. His solid bones were shattered into pieces by heavy punches, and his huge body disintegrated and collapsed.

But the disintegrated skeleton did not dissipate. Instead, it stood in front of Kagamaru like a solid wall, blocking all the aftermath of the God of Destruction's power.

"The effect of Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder." Kagamaru said solemnly, "When Hamon was destroyed, I take no damage for the rest of this turn."

Well, it seems that the Sacred Beast was not completely useless in front of God's power at least it could keep its master safe.

"Set a card, I end my turn." Yuei Vu said.

"Oh, it's rare to summon an Egyptian God, but you still couldn't defeat me after all." Kagamaru said contemptuously, "It seems that the so-called gods are nothing more than that."

Yuei Vu rolled his eyes at him.

Ha, you dare to talk big.

If Obelisk hadn't been in a good mood today and could get angry, I would just activate "Hyper God Energy" directly, and you would have been gone by now

You barely survived.

As he said this, Kagamaru's back was actually completely soaked with sweat at this moment.

With just one blow, his two Sacred Beasts were instantly killed, and the demon's domain was torn to pieces, leaving Kagamaru almost defenseless and exposed to the pressure of the Egyptian God.

To be honest, he was still under a lot of pressure, and he was just trying to show off his tough words.

Yuei Vu's turn was finally over, and Kagamaru was relieved in his heart.

Yuei Vu's remaining LP was 400, while that of Kagamaru was only 300. No matter which side, it was like a candle in the wind.

At this point in the duel, neither side could make a single mistake. Any carelessness would cause the duelist to be shattered into pieces in this conflict between gods and demons.

But as long as he still had LP left and could draw new cards, Kagamaru would be confident.

He felt that he had completely mastered the three Sacred Beasts and could defeat even gods!

"My turn, draw!"

Drawing a new card, Kagamaru immediately laughed again, as if even the haze suppressed by the God of Destruction was swept away.

Yuei Vu frowned slightly.

Is this another key card for reversal?

"I said that Sacred Beasts are immortal! Their power is unlimited!" Kagamaru sneered, "Experience the meaning of this sentence for yourself again, Duel King!"

I normal summon the Dark Summoning Beast! "

It was a strange one-eyed demon. It was filled with a thick miasma of darkness when it appeared. The whole body was surrounded by darkness, making it difficult to see its true posture. The image appeared abstract and erratic.

[Dark Summoning Beast, ATK 0]

"The effect of Dark Summoning Beast! I Tribute this card as a sacrifice to select 1 Uria, Lord of Searing Flames', 1 Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder', and 1 Raviel, Lord of Phantasms' in my Graveyard and Special Summon them, ignoring the Summoning conditions!" (animation effect)

Uria and Hamon were both beaten down. As for the "Raviel, Lord of Phantasms" who was known as the strongest Sacred Beast, it was obviously thrown away by Kagamaru through the effect of "Card Destruction".

It seemed that Kagamaru had already anticipated that there would be a moment like this at that time, and had made arrangements in advance.

Yuei Vu: ""

He remembered this thing.

Is this the card used by Sister Yub after snatching away the three Sacred Beasts in the Different Dimension arc of GX animation?

Here you could see a small advantage that the Sacred Beasts had over the Egyptian God. The three Egyptian Gods were extremely troublesome to appear on the scene, and if they were Special Summoned in an unconventional way, they only had one round of activity before they had to leave the field, just like the M78 Civil Servant.

However, the Sacred Beasts were different. Although the effect strength and resistance of Sacred Beasts were worse than those of Egyptian Gods, their ability to jump out from the hand or graveyard was really impressive.

Coupled with those powerful support cards exclusive to Sacred Beasts, the combat effectiveness of these three was indeed considerable.

At this time, the "Dark Summoning Beast" had disappeared from the field, a dark vortex opened on the ground, and red, gold and blue light pillars shot straight into the sky with a compelling evil aura!

"Uria, Lord of Searing Flames', Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder', and Raviel, Lord of Phantasms', come to my side!!!"

Chapter 854: Dark Summoning Beast

The lava pillars were like gushing volcanoes, and thunder from the sky crashed into the earth. The red dragon rolled down, and the demon wrapped in a golden skull came again riding on lightning.

Uria and Hamon, the two Sacred Beasts who had just left the stage, returned immediately.

And this was the first appearance so far of the one who was known as the strongest of the three Sacred Beasts (according to rumors). His image corresponded to Obelisk, the god of destruction among the three Egyptian Gods. His prototype was from Raphael, one of the four Archangels mentioned in the Bible

Raviel, Lord of Phantasms! ! !

[Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder, ATK 4000]

[Uria, Lord of Searing Flames, ATK 9000]

[Raviel, Lord of Phantasms, ATK 4000]

The three Sacred Beasts appeared so easily and in one breath, and their appearance was so simple and crude that one could say "The three Egyptian Gods would be silent after watching it" and "The three Wicked Gods would cry after watching it".

If the Egyptian God, Wicked God, and Sacred Beast were comprehensively ranked in terms of their various abilities, then first of all, the Sacred Beast would undoubtedly be ahead of the other two trios by several major margins in terms of difficulty in appearing.

Compared to those gods that could not be retrieved, consuming the Normal Summon chance, and requiring three sacrifices to appear, Sacred Beasts were simply model employees who were always on call

Yuei Vu thought more than once, wouldn't it be wonderful if he could also imitate the three Sacred Beasts and print a "Light Summoning Beast", which would have the effect of "Tribute this card and Special Summon the three Egyptian Gods, ignoring the Summoning conditions"?

Of course, as long as Holactie still lived, this kind of card would probably never come out

"Because there are three Sacred Beasts on the field now, the effect of Fallen Paradise' is activated again." Kagamaru said, "I draw two cards."

The effect of Fallen Paradise was activated, and the word "Drawing" was switched on the display screen of Kagamaru's Duel Disk. He drew two cards, and at the same time, the three Sacred Beasts on the field were facing each other tit for tat with the Egyptian God on Yuei Vu's side.

Obelisk naturally refused to be outdone in the face of these three. He crossed his arms and glared back fiercely with his small eyes. However, there were three people on the other side, and he was alone here, thus his momentum was invisibly suppressed

"Although the Dark Summoning Beast' has the power to summon all Sacred Beasts in one breath, unfortunately, I cannot enter the Battle Phase during the turn when this effect is activated."

Kagemaru glanced at the two set cards in Yuei Vu's back row.

"Although traps are useless against Sacred Beasts, we can't rule out the possibility that they are traps that can help you save your life Then Uria, Lord of Searing Flames, activate your effect!

Once per turn, Uria can destroy all trap cards on the opponent's field! Trap Destruction! "
(animation effect)

Traps were the Lord of Searing Flames's specialty. The red dragon's mouth opened, and transparent sound waves swept across Yuei Vu's field.

One of the two set cards was opened and was blown to pieces in front of the Lord of Searing Flames's sound wave it was the trap card "Security Orb". When this Set card was destroyed, you could select a monster on the field to destroy it.

However, the three Sacred Beasts and one Egyptian God currently on the field were all masters who did not take trap effects, so this effect could be ignored.

The other set card did not respond.

"Isn't it a trap"

Kagemaru glanced at Yuei Vu and laughed strangely twice, and then his tone suddenly rose.

"Although I cannot enter the Battle Phase this turn but I have this card: Spell Card Turn Jump!
Using the time when this card is activated as the starting point, move forward by 3 turns!"
(animation card)

A huge transparent clock face appeared, and the hands flew around and around as if out of control. Time in the limited area passed quickly, and the fast forwarding of three turns meant that the combat restrictions imposed on the Sacred Beast were lifted.

"Because it's a new turn, the effect of Fallen Paradise' can be activated again." Kagemaru said, "I draw two cards from the deck once again!"

After a pause, he chuckled ferociously: "And in this way, the combat restrictions on the Sacred Beast are lifted. Because it is three turns in the future, it can naturally enter the Battle Phase."

"It's really incredibly convenient." Yuei Vu said to himself.

Indeed, apart from the fact that the animated three Sacred Beasts had no Monster Effect resistance, their other general resistances were similar to those of Egyptian Gods. When three monsters of this level jumped out at once, most people would have been stunned by this situation

No, it should be said that most people would be finished even before they could see the second Sacred Beast.

"Battle" Kagemaru waved his hand, "Let's go! First, the Uria, Lord of Searing Flames' will attack Obelisk the Tormentor!"

After all, the attack power of the other two of the three Sacred Beasts was currently 4000, and they could not defeat Obelisk, which also had a defense power of 4000. Only the Lord of Searing Flames had the ability to penetrate this layer of defense.

"The effect of the Continuous Trap Hyper Blaze' is activated again." Kagemaru said, "Send 1 Trap from my Deck to the GY; Uria's ATK/DEF become the number of face-up Traps on the field and in the GYs x 1000, for the rest of this turn!"

There were now nine traps in Kagemaru's graveyard, and one had just been entered in Yuei Vu's graveyard. Another discarded one made it eleven, plus the "Hyper Blaze" itself

[Uria, Lord of Searing Flames, ATK 9000 ATK 12000]

Attack power 12,000!

But Yuei Vu waved his hand: "Open the set card: Quick-Play Spell Command Silencer!"

Kagemaru raised his eyebrows.

Quick-Play Spell?

"Command Silencer's effect! Cancel the opponent's attack declaration and draw a card from the deck!" (animated card)

90% of cards that could defend against attacks were traps, and there were very few Quick-Play Spells that could defend against attacks. The card in Yuei Vu's hand was the card of President Kaiba from DM's early days.

At that time in Battle City, President Kaiba was also trying his best to find a way to defeat the Egyptian God. Because the three gods were unaffected by traps, it meant that almost all defensive and counterattack traps on the market were ineffective.

That's why President Kaiba printed this card specifically to defend against the Egyptian God.

Not only is it a Quick-Play Spell, but its target was not monsters but players because it did not directly negate the monster's attack, but canceled the player's "attack declaration". Therefore, even monsters like Silent Magician LV8 that were unaffected by Spell Card's effects could be defended with this card.

The attack of the Lord of Searing Flames was canceled, and the attack power of the remaining two Sacred Beasts was only 4,000, which was undoubtedly not enough to penetrate the defense line of Obelisk. In this way, even if there are three powerful Sacred Beasts on the field, Kagemaru's offensive this round could only go so far not so fast!

"Tch, I originally wanted to save this card for later use"

Although it felt a bit wasteful, it was certainly impossible for Kagemaru to miss such an excellent offensive opportunity.

"Raviel, Lord of Phantasms, attack the Obelisk the Tormentor!"

The Lord of Phantasms roared violently, and his whole body seemed to be ignited with blue flames. Not to be outdone, Obelisk faced him with the same thunderous roar.

The two coincident ones, the Sacred Beast and the Egyptian God, punched each other hard with all their strength! The devil's entire arm seemed to be on fire, and the giant god in the defensive state was not to be outdone and struck with huge palms like a mountain.

The attack power and defense power were equal, so logically speaking, it should be a draw.

But at this moment Kagamaru quickly showed a card.

"Discard Raviel, Lord of Phantasms Shimmering Scrapper' from my hand, and its effect is activated!" Kagamaru shouted, "Target 1 Raviel, Lord of Phantasms' I control; for the rest of this turn, its ATK becomes double its current ATK, also it can attack all monsters your opponent controls once each!"

Obviously, the card shown by Kagamaru was equivalent to another form of the Lord of Phantasms and contained the powerful effect of assisting the main body.

This was a pretty powerful hand trap. So far, most of the hand traps held by Yuei Vu have defensive effects represented by "Kuriboh" either negating the attack, or making the Battle Damage become 0.

But this "Raviel, Lord of Phantasms Shimmering Scrapper" was an offensive one. It could double the attack power of the Lord of Phantasms at the moment before the battle was established!

If you were a little careless during the duel and accidentally stepped on this hand trap, you would probably be killed by the Lord of Phantasms with one punch.

In addition to doubling the attack power, this hand trap also had the effect of "attacking all monsters on the field". It was the combination of super high burst, instant clearing, and extreme counter-kill. It belonged to the category of "can decide the outcome with just one card." The "situation" hand trap was simply eight ways better than the salted fish effect of the Raviel himself.

Furthermore, when this "Raviel, Lord of Phantasms Shimmering Scrapper" existed in the graveyard, it could be recycled and reused unlimited times by Tributing a monster on the field and returning itself to the hand from the graveyard.

Because of this, Kagamaru felt that even if he used this card here, he could easily recycle it and activate it again next turn without any loss.

[Raviel, Lord of Phantasms, ATK 4000 ATK 8000]

The contrast between strength and weakness suddenly became huge, and the giant god was completely suppressed. The blue light of the "God Hand Crusher" was torn apart like a torrent, and the "Heaven-Crushing Fist" counterattacked with the destructive power. The blue giant's body cracked from the middle and exploded into pieces in an instant.

Obelisk the Tormentor exited the stage.

"This is the end." Kagamaru smiled grimly.

[Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder, ATK 4000]

Yuei Vu, LP 400

"Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder, attack directly!!!"

Chapter 855: There Sacred Beasts!

"Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder, attack directly!!!"

The golden Sacred Beast was wrapped with lightning, and the lightning rushed into the clouds. It was like a thunderous dragon tumbling and roaring in mid-air, turning the leaden black clouds into chaos.

Lost Paradise Thunderclap!

Obelisk was defeated, and Yuei Vu's field had lost all defensive measures. And the Lord of Striking Thunder's attack power was ten times his LP!

But Yuei Vu quickly showed the card he just drew through "Command Silencer".

"Activate the effect of Gladiator Beast Noxious' in my hand!" Yuei Vu said, "When the opponent declares a direct attack, this card can be Special Summoned from the hand. After that, change the attack target to this card, and proceed to damage calculation! "

Kagemaru: "!"

Gladiator Beast? What the hell is that?

The cheetah-like warrior jumped out of Yuei Vu's hands and onto the field, with blue alloy steel claws crisscrossing in defense, blocking in front of him.

[Gladiator Beast Noxious, DEF 1000]

"At the last moment, you managed to summon a monster to act as a wall, but this method doesn't work in front of the Sacred Beasts!" Kagemaru raised his voice, "When Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder destroys the monster in battle, he will deal 1000 points of damage!

The victor is still me! Go ahead, Hamon, chop that last trash monster into ashes along with the Duel King! "

"Unfortunately not." Yuei Vu said, "When Gladiator Beast Noxious' is Special Summoned by its own effect, it will not be destroyed by that battle!"

Kagemaru: "!"

Is there such a thing?

The lightning severely hit the Gladiator Beast warrior, but the tenacious warrior remained motionless. Although his head was gray and his face was covered in black smoke, he still withstood the thunder bombing in the end.

"You actually blocked it again?" Kagemaru frowned.

"It's not over yet." Yuei Vu said, "When the Battle Phase is over, the effect of Gladiator Beast Noxious is activated! At the end of the Battle Phase, if this card battled: I can shuffle it into the Deck; Special Summon 1 Gladiator Beast' monster from your Deck!

Yuei Vu was now at the legendary level and was not afraid of a dead draw. Theoretically, there was no problem in inserting three or five systems into a deck, but after all, the number of cards in the deck was limited, so some systems could only be filled with a few useful cards.

That was the case of Gladiator Beast. Yuei Vu brought a "Gladiator Beast Noxious" simply because he thought this card was useful as a life-saving hand trap, and in times like this, when combined with this hand trap, he could launch a counterattack.

Noxious turned into a beam of golden light and flew back to the deck, and a new card automatically popped out of the deck.

"Special Summon Gladiator Beast Bestiari' from the deck!"

[Gladiator Beast Bestiari, ATK 1500]

"The effect of Bestiari! If this card is Special Summoned by the effect of a Gladiator Beast' monster: Target 1 Spell/Trap Card on the field; destroy that target." Yuei Vu pointed to Kagemaru's back row, "Destroy the Continuous Trap Hyper Blaze!"

The gunfight rose into the air, the turbine behind him roared, and the light green whirlwind tore the Lord of Searing Flames's exclusive trap into pieces. The special effects of the flames wrapped around Uria's body have dimmed a bit, and his divine power seems to have been weakened to a certain extent.

"I guess you still have some little tricks." Kagemaru said unhappily, "But the effect of Raviel, Lord of Phantasms' is activated! When the opponent Normal Summons or Special Summons a monster, he will special summon a Phantasm Token' to my field!" (Animation effect)

Because Yuei Vu had Special Summoned "Gladiator Beast Noxious" and "Gladiator Beast Bestiari", the effect of Raviel, Lord of Phantasms was activated twice.

[Phantasm Token, DEF 1000] x2

"Use the Phantasm Token' as a sacrifice, and return the Raviel, Lord of Phantasms Shimmering Scraper' in the graveyard to my hand."

A card was withdrawn from the graveyard area and returned to Kagemaru's hand.

"Set two cards, I end my turn."

Yuei Vu now understood a little bit why so many powerful people coveted the power of the Sacred Beast, and he also understood why the Sacred Beast's performance in the animation was mediocre compared to their fame.

After fighting until now, Yuei Vu has truly felt the pressure that he has not felt in many years from these three demon gods and Kagemaru controlled by them.

The kind of thrill that could only be found when facing truly top experts, extraordinary beings that transcended human understanding.

It let him feel the possibility of losing.

This was worthy of his all-out efforts.

When Yuei Vu dusted himself off and stood up straight again, Kagemaru felt an aura from that upright figure that even made him feel like the one standing in front of him was no longer human.

"My turn, draw!"

Activated the Spell Card Card of Demise'! I can draw cards until I have 5 cards in my hand."

A new hand of cards came into play, and Yuei Vu immediately drew one of them.

"I offer the Gladiator Beast Bestiari' as a sacrifice! Tribute Summon

My most trusted partner, the magicians disciple

Dark Magician Girl! "

Bestiari disappeared into a magic circle, and the pink magic circle with a strong girlish style quickly opened. The fair-skinned blond girl flew out, her round-toed boots stepped on the transparent circles one after another and landed lightly in front of Yuei Vu.

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000]

The girl was now feeling excited and nervous.

She was excited because she found that the master's summon chant for her seemed to have changed

Did you hear what the master called me? The most trusted partner!

The girl couldn't help but put her hands on her hips and push out her exaggerated lumps of meat (the kind that was white, big, and trembling).

She was nervous because when she had just appeared this time, in front of her appeared three world-destroying demon gods.

This made the girl couldn't help but shrink her white neck.

She was very touched that her master could trust her, but even with her very limited brain capacity, it was not difficult for her to judge that the situation on the field was a bit beyond her ability

"Spell Card The Eye of Timaeus!" Yuei Vu said, "Target 1 Dark Magician' monster on my field; Fusion Summon 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck that mentions that monster on the field as material, using it as the Fusion Material!"

The disciples of black magic put on the armor of knights and turned into the strongest black magic cavalry

Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight! "

The gorgeous shining sword and the silver-white armor are rippling with sacred light. The armor-clad girl transformed into a knight, sitting astride the back of the one-eyed dragon Timaeus. The strand of blond hair leaking out from under the helmet shone like broken gold.

[Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, ATK 2600]

"Hey, do you want to use the power of the 'Legendary Dragon' to launch an offensive? Indeed, the intelligence says that since Doma's era, the only remaining 'Legendary Dragon' is in the hands of the first duel king, Mr. Yuei Vu."

Kagemaru tried his best to collect all the information about Yuei Vu, and he had a good understanding of some of Yuei Vu's commonly used trump cards.

The powerful "Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight" that could only be summoned by fusing the "Legendary Dragon Timaeus" with the spirit "Dark Magic Girl" was said to be the Duel King's favorite.

The Dark Magician Girl who has gained the power of the Legendary Dragon had the powerful effect of discarding a card in her hand to destroy any face-up card on the field what's even more frightening was that it could also be used during the opponent's turn. It could blow up monsters on the opponent's field to violently clear the field, or blow up key cards during the opponent's turn to interrupt the opponent's actions. It was a powerful ace that combined attack and defense.

Kagemaru's tone suddenly rose.

"But this has already been in my plan! The moment you activate The Eye of Timaeus', the ultimate trap of the Sacred Beast has been activated!"

Yuei Vu's eyelids twitched slightly.

The ultimate trap of the Sacred Beast? Could it be!?

His eyes quickly fell on Kagemaru's back row, and sure enough, a trap card had already been revealed.

The moment the trap flipped, the three Sacred Beasts on the field seemed to respond at the same time! The red, golden, and blue light pillars shot straight into the sky, and the three colors of light mixed and intertwined into an overwhelming net, inevitably covering the entire duel arena no, covering the entire island!

That card was a Continuous Trap

Awakening of the Sacred Beasts!

Chapter 856: Completely Dumbfounded

Continuous Trap Awakening of the Sacred Beasts!

"Cerulean Skyfire" was the exclusive magic of Hamon, and "Hyper Blaze" was a trap to release the power of Uria. "Raviel, Lord of Phantasms Shimmering Scrapper" was even more obvious, it was an extension of the power of Raviel himself.

And this "Awakening of the Sacred Beasts" that appeared on the Kagemaru field at this moment was even better than the cards mentioned above.

From both the name and the card artwork in which three Sacred Beasts shrouded in divine light, it was easy to see that this was a support card for all three Sacred Beasts. Only when the three Sacred Beasts gathered on the field at the same time could their full potential be unleashed. This was the ultimate trap that sealed the true power of the Sacred Beasts!

At the moment the trap flipped, the realm of the three Sacred Beasts seemed to be expanded without limit! The extreme expansion of divine power was like dragging the entire island to a different dimension isolated from the real world. The sea surface was turbulent, and the waves hitting the shore were isolated by invisible barriers, and they hit the transparent barriers of red, yellow, and blue again and again.

The bodies of the three Sacred Beasts were each covered with a layer of sacred golden light. Countless light spots in the sky were flying in the air like golden snowflakes, and the divine power in the domain seemed to crush everything into pieces.

"The Awakening of the Sacred Beasts' is the ultimate card that unleashes the true power of the Sacred Beast."

Kagemaru's smile looked like he was sure of his victory the moment this card was activated.

"This card will obtain corresponding effects based on the number of different Sacred Beasts on your field." He said, "The first effect When there is at least one Sacred Beast on my field, each time the opponent Normal or Special Summons a monster, I gain LP equal to the ATK of that monster! "

It was very consistent with the effect of the Sacred Beasts in the original work. The three Sacred Beasts in the anime began to absorb the life energy of all the duel spirits on the entire earth the moment they were summoned. It was through this ability that Kagamaru achieved rejuvenation.

It seemed that the in-game version of this evil ability was to "convert the opponent's monster's attack power into one's own LP."

Kagamaru pointed to Yuei Vu's field.

"You just summoned Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight', so I restored LP equal to her attack power which is 2600 points!"

Kagamaru, LP 300 LP 2900

The Dark Magician Girl riding on the dragon's back bit her lip, as if she was upset that she begrudgingly helped restore the enemy's life.

"Let me tell you the second ability of the Sacred Beasts in particular." Kagamaru crossed his arms and sneered, "When there are two or more different Sacred Beasts on my field, negate all the activated effects of monsters the opponent controls!"

This ability was quite disgusting.

This effect would remind most players of a Continuous Trap called "Skill Drain". Its effect was to negate the effects of all monsters on both sides of the field.

Skill Drain was also recognized by card players as one of the standing cards in the "Anti-Social" type deck. More than ten years ago, it was regarded as a cancer by all the meta players in the entire environment. Today, after more than ten years of changes in the environment, it was still a nightmare for countless meta decks.

Because its effect was so simple and cruel. Abolishing the monster effect was tantamount to breaking the backbone of many meta decks.

But "Skill Drain" negated the monster effects of both players, while this "Awakening of the Sacred Beasts" invalidates "the effects activated by the opponent's monsters", which was a completely unilateral and beneficial suppression.

This was even just a part of the magic power.

"The third effect of Awakening of the Sacred Beasts!" Kagamaru continued, "When there are all three Sacred Beasts on my field, any monsters sent to your opponent's GY are banished instead!"

Yuei Vu: ""

There was no explanation for this, Masked HERO Dark Law gave a thump up.

You must know that the effect of Mr. Daitokuji's Continuous Trap "Macro Cosmos" was "all cards sent to the graveyard by both parties are excepted without distinction", but this "Awakening of the Sacred Beasts" here was a unilateral interference that only targeted the opponent's player. Needless to say, it's hellish and disgusting.

When three Sacred Beasts were present at the same time, this "Awakening of the Sacred Beasts" combined the ability to block monster effects and banish the graveyard. It was one of the most hated and powerful interference effects in the Yu-Gi-Oh system.

Although the effects of the three Egyptian Gods were strong, most of them are manifested in offensive effects. For example, Obelisk's Soul Energy MAX and Hyper God Energy, which could instantly kill the opponent, as well as Ra's "God Phoenix" one-shot killing ability, all emphasize offense.

Only Osiris' "Summoning Thunder Bullet" was an effect that interfered with the opponent's actions.

In comparison, the three Sacred Beasts at this time were already much stronger than the Egyptian Gods in terms of interference resistance. In a normal duel, most players would basically surrender if they encountered this situation as long as they didn't have any typhoons.

but only in a normal duel.

"Hahahaha! Did you see it? This is the ultimate power of Sacred Beasts!" Kagamaru was laughing arrogantly, "Your Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight' has the effect of destroying any card at any time, right? I already knew it!

But in the realm of Sacred Beasts, monster effects won't work! Even the power of the Legendary Dragon' will be suppressed! You have no chance of winning, Duel King!

All you can do is end this turn helplessly and wait for yourself to be wiped out by the Sacred Beast's attack! "

After a pause, he grinned ferociously.

"But don't worry, after your legend ends, a new era will begin! I will become a pioneer and open the curtain of a new era an era ruled by me!

Those enemies who have bullied me and attacked me will be repaid a hundredfold! "

The Dark Magician Girl turned to look at her master anxiously, but she only saw Yuei Vu giving her a reassuring smile.

"Spell Card Destruction!" Yuei Vu said, "Both players discard as many cards as possible from their hands, then each player draws the same number of cards they discarded."

Kagamaru glanced at the "Raviel, Lord of Phantasms Shimmering Scraper" that was taken back from his hand last round. Although he felt it was a bit of a pity, he still threw it away from the graveyard and drew the card again.

"Spell Card Monster Recovery! Return all monsters on my side of the field and cards in my hand to my Deck. Shuffle the Deck, then draw 5 cards."

"Useless struggle." Kagamaru mocked.

"It seems that I have really been underestimated." Yuei Vu chuckled.

Kagamaru: "?"

"So many years have passed, a new version, a new era You don't think that I have been standing still and did nothing during these years, do you?"

Kagemaru's eyelids twitched.

A strong premonition of danger arose from the bottom of his heart, as if it had turned into a big word "danger" hanging above his head. But Kagemaru was still arrogant: "Oh, are you bluffing? Now that the ultimate power of the Sacred Beasts has been released, and even the power of the legendary dragon has been given up, what else can you do"

"Activate Spell Card Double Summon! In this turn, I can conduct the second Normal Summon."

Kagemaru: "?"

Normal Summon again?

"Then I sacrificed three Sacred Beasts, Uria, Lord of Searing Flames', Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder', and Raviel, Lord of Phantasms"

Kagemaru: "!!??"

Wait a minute, what do you want to offer as a sacrifice?

Referee! Where is the referee? Is there still such an operation?

"Tribute Summon!" A card suddenly fell from Yuei Vu's hand, "The ever-changing fire of heaven and earth, turn into eternal light to illuminate the earth!

The Winged Dragon of Ra arrives! "

The golden pillar of light rose into the sky like an erupting volcano, enveloping all the Sacred Beasts!

The nearly invincible Sacred Beast that had entered the awakened state was instantly melted in the flames of the sun, and its indestructible body was burned into particles that filled the sky, rushing into the vortex in mid-air like iron filings attracted by a magnet.

In just an instant, Kagemaru's invincible lineup collapsed, and the unparalleled three Sacred Beasts turned into dust all over the sky.

Kagemaru was completely dumbfounded.

Chapter 857: Immortal Phoenix

"My Sacred Beasts can be solved that simple impossible, impossible!"

Kagemaru was shocked.

"What have you done!?"

Then he saw light.

The dark clouds were torn into pieces in an instant, and streaks of golden light shot down like thorns. The brilliant golden sphere seemed to ignite the entire sky, and the clouds seemed to be burning in flames.

It was like the sun itself.

Yuei Vu chuckled and showed a card in his hand.

"The Winged Dragon of Ra Sphere Mode'." Yuei Vu explained, "This card can be Normal Summoned on the opponent's field by sacrificing three monsters on the opponent's field."

[The Winged Dragon of Ra Sphere Mode, ATK ?

Maybe its because the card pool version of the GX era system has been updated, or maybe its because the old tsundere sun god has finally given up and taken the initiative to open up more usage rights to Yuei Vu. In short, Yuei Vu just drew this card from the card pool not long ago.

Yuei Vu was quite surprised when he got this thing.

"The Winged Dragon of Ra Sphere Mode" was one of the three forms of Winged Dragon in the anime, but after it became a real-life card, Consortium K specially printed this card.

To be honest, to some extent, this card was even better than the animated Winged Dragon. Because it can swallow any three monsters on the opponent's field almost unlimitedly it neither targeted nor affected the opponent's monster itself, that was to say, whether it was a large monster that could not be selected as a target, unaffected by effects, or could negate all monster effects, they could all be swallowed by the Sun God Egg without distinction.

Yes, whether it was the Three Egyptian Gods themselves or the so-called most resistant monster "Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon" in the hands of President Kaiba, the invincible Sun God Egg can swallow them without fail.

At this time, the other party may get into chaos just like Chairman Kagemaru.

I finally gathered the three Sacred Beasts and unleashed the ultimate power of the Sacred Beasts

But I just blinked, and the invincible three demon gods turned into an egg with 0 ATK and 0 DEF and no effect?

Chairman Kagemaru was dumbfounded.

Ive heard of people giving Level 8 monsters to people, but this is the first time Ive seen people giving an Egyptian God directly to people!

Yuei Vu showed a friendly smile.

Be happy, Chairman Kagemaru. This is an Egyptian God! Have you ever heard of the Sun God?

Of course, this is not free.

"Spell Card Owner's Seal!" Yuei Vu said, "Return control of all monsters on the field to their owners! Come back, Winged Dragon!"

So Kagemaru saw this ghostly golden bird egg swallowing his three Sacred Beasts in one breath. After it was done, it floated back to Youyu's side of the field, leaving Kagemaru alone in the wind

"And at this moment, I activate the Quick-Play Spell Emergency Provisions', sending the activated Owner's Seal' and the Continuous Spell Spiral Spear Strike' to the graveyard, restoring a total of 2000 LP."

[Yuei Vu, LP 400 LP 2400]

"Then the effect of The Winged Dragon of Ra Sphere Mode' is activated!" Yuei Vu shouted, "Use this card as a sacrifice; Special Summon 1 The Winged Dragon of Ra' from my hand or Deck, ignoring its Summoning conditions!

Moreover, the ATK and DEF of The Winged Dragon of Ra' Special Summoned by this effect will become 4000! "

The spherical sun god began to deform, and the smooth spherical body began to disintegrate. The shining golden wings gradually unfolded, and the golden head of the noble bird poked out from them.

The ultra-high temperature makes its image look a little erratic and distorted, and the sacred flame burns on its back. That is the supreme god among the illusory gods, and no darkness can escape under its gaze!

[The Winged Dragon of Ra, ATK 4000]

Kagemaru felt his heart and lungs almost stop.

"In the end, you actually summoned the supreme Egyptian God"

"The effect of The Winged Dragon of Ra is activated! I can pay 1000 LP; send 1 monster on the field to the GY." Yuei Vu said, "I will pay 2000 LP and destroy all two Phantasm Tokens!"

[Yuei Vu, LP 2400 LP 400]

The Winged Dragon flapped its huge wings, the sacred flames turned into a scalding storm, and the two Phantasm Tokens instantly turned into ashes!

There were a total of five monsters in front of Kagemaru three of them were powerful Sacred Beasts, and all of them were wiped out by the power of the supreme Egyptian God in just an instant!

"Battle!" Yuei Vu waved his hand, "The Winged Dragon of Ra, attack directly! God Blaze Cannon!!!"

The divine bird opened its mouth, and the golden light ball like the sun behind it continuously charged into its mouth. The Winged Dragon's eyes were as red as blood, and the spiraling flames penetrated the space!

"It's not that easy." Kagemaru shouted at the top of his lungs, "Open the set card: Continuous Trap Hyper Blaze!!!"

Yuei Vu's eyes moved.

It's actually the second Hyper Blaze?

"Hyper Blaze's effect Once per turn: I can discard 1 card; add to my hand or Special Summon 1 Sacred Beast in the graveyard regardless of the summoning conditions!"

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes.

It was obvious that the one Kagemaru hoped to resurrect must be Uria, Lord of Searing Flames. The attack power of the other two Sacred Beasts was 4,000, but if Uria revived now, his attack power was over 10,000!

"Activate the effect of D.D. Crow' in my hand." Yuei Vu said, "Discard this card, then target 1 card in the opponent's GY; banish that target."

D.D. Crow, one of the hand traps that was once very popular among players. The Great Evil God Zorc had used it before.

"I banish the Uria, Lord of Searing Flames' from your GY!"

Seeing Uria's card being taken away by the abominable black crow, Kagamaru was furious and hummed: "Then summon the strongest Sacred Beast here

Raviel, Lord of Phantasms! "

The earth broke open, and the strongest Sacred Beast (according to rumors) emerged from the ground! Its body seemed to have rushed straight into the sky, and its body was like a blue mountain lying in front of the Winged Dragon!

[Raviel, Lord of Phantasms, ATK 4000]

"It's too late to stop now." Kagamaru sneered.

"It doesn't matter." Yuei Vu said, "The Winged Dragon of Ra, continue the attack!"

Kagamaru: "!"

Do you want to die together?

Kagamaru subconsciously wanted to discard the "Raviel, Lord of Phantasms Shimmering Scraper" in his hand to give the Sacred Beast 4000 extra attack power to counterattack, but when he lowered his head and stretched out his hand to find the card, he suddenly remembered that his "Raviel, Lord of Phantasms Shimmering Scraper" has been thrown into the graveyard by Yuei Vu's previous "Card Destruction".

Kagamaru's eyelids twitched, and he suddenly realized a terrible fact.

Could it be that when he activated the "Card Destruction", the Duel King had already anticipated the current situation?

In any case, there was nothing he could do. Not to be outdone, the strongest Sacred Beast waved his fist at the Sun God.

The devil's sharp claws clenched into fists, and the blue impact hit fiercely with the golden cannon spitting out of the Winged Dragon's mouth.

Two powerful energies squeezed each other, recoiled in completely opposite directions, and impacted each other to cancel each other out, just like water and fire consuming each other.

The impact of the mighty flames engulfed the entire body of the Lord of Phantasms, and the so-called strongest Sacred Beast was burned to death in the scorching heat of the sun.

But at the same time, the noble body of the Sun God was also hit by the Sacred Beast. The chest of the Winged Divine Dragon deformed under the exaggerated impact of external force, its wings shining with golden light flapped feebly, and its huge body fell down dragging a brilliant golden trajectory.

Like the moment of sunset.

The last afterglow of the sun also dissipated, the most brilliant sunshine was extinguished, and darkness once again dominated the place.

Only then did Kagamaru let out a sigh of relief.

To be honest, this kind of development was something he didn't expect at all. He originally thought that the three Sacred Beasts in the awakened state were almost invincible, and they would never be defeated even if they faced the three Egyptian Gods.

He even felt that at one point, when the three Sacred Beasts were gathered together and their powers were fully awakened, the other party could not even summon the gods.

All activation of monster effects was negated, and graveyard resources were blocked. Logically speaking, it should be difficult to make a comeback in this state.

But it turned out that Kagamaru seemed to have underestimated the potential of the Egyptian Gods. He never expected that a Winged Dragon could easily defeat his self-confessed invincibility, and even almost force him into a desperate situation.

Fortunately, he survived.

Thinking of this, Kagamaru couldn't help but wipe his sweat with lingering fear, and at the same time showed a successful sinister smile.

In this way, the dust should really have settled.

Yuei Vu could no longer summon any monsters this turn, and in the end, the ace Winged Dragon died together with the Lord of Phantasms. On the other hand, Kagamaru still had the "Hyper Blaze" effect that could be used in the next turn. No matter which Sacred Beast was resurrected, victory could be directly guaranteed.

He won.

The moment this thought fell, Kagamaru's pupils shrank suddenly, and he could hardly believe the scene reflected on his retina.

He saw light, burning like an eternal flame, hovering in the air, shaping some great and formidable creature the immortal phoenix reborn from the fire of nirvana!

The Winged Dragon of Ra Immortal Phoenix was summoned! ! !

Kagamaru felt his breath hitch.

The entire body of the Winged Divine Dragon was wrapped in eternal flames. The lines of its body and the entire outline were blurred in the flames. Only the eyes were dimly lit up with scarlet light. The moment someone was locked by that line of sight, it seemed as if the blood in the veins stopped flowing.

The thought of "death" dominated the whole body.

Kagamaru struggled to control his lips, which seemed to be burning with thirst due to the heat of the sun, to speak: "Howhow is it possible"

"The sun is everlasting, and the Winged Dragon is immortal."

Yuei Vu smiled softly and shook the card that popped up from the graveyard.

"While The Winged Dragon of Ra Immortal Phoenix' exists in my GY, if The Winged Dragon of Ra' is sent from the field to my GY, Special Summon this card.

The opponent could not activate any effects in response to this summon. In other words, even the almighty Solemn old man could not prevent the arrival of the phoenix.

"By the way." Yuei Vu said calmly, "The Winged Dragon of Ra Immortal Phoenix is unaffected by other cards' effects. Of course, judging from your appearance, it seems that there is no next move."

[The Winged Dragon of Ra Immortal Phoenix, ATK 4000]

Kagemaru's face had begun to change shape.

"No, no, it's impossible I already have the power of the Sacred Beast, the most powerful power in the world. My duel is impeccable, I cannot possibly lose, this won't "

"Immortal Phoenix." Yuei Vu shouted, "Attack directly!"

The phoenix streaked across the sky, as if the entire sky was on fire. The burning divine bird crashed down like a meteor, hitting Kagemaru's body hard, and a flaming beam of light rushed into the sky.

Chapter 858: Broadcasting Live From The Front Row

A storm surged on the lonely island. When the world's most powerful demons and gods all appeared on the scene, a battle that decided the fate of the whole world began in an unknown corner of Earth

Well, to be precise, it couldn't be said that no one knew.

Although it seemed that there were only two people on the island, Yuei Vu and Chairman Kagemaru, there were actually spectators for this card game.

First of all, just in case, when Yuei Vu landed on the island, he turned on the real-time sharing function of the Duel Disk he brought.

This was also one of the functions of the Duel Disk after Kaiba developed the "Duel Link" system. While Yuei Vu was dueling, as long as he turned on sharing, the audience he shared the match with could also log in to the "Duel Link" system at other locations and watch the entire duel by his side online.

However, what the spectators saw were actually virtual projections in the world of "Duel Link". After the sharing function of the Duel Disk was turned on in real-time, all the image data of every card played by both parties and the monsters summoned during the duel would be collected and reproduced in the dedicated room for watching VR duel.

In this way, with the help of ultra-realistic data restoration imaging technology, anyone could watch the duel in real-time through this system just like watching a live broadcast.

Yuei Vu considered that he had to be careful of various special situations such as Kagemaru saw the situation was unfavorable and pulled the screw to run away, or there was even the possibility that he could not win the game due to special reasons. So he shared the duel process with some of his most trusted comrades during the DM period.

In this way, even if he failed to deal with the three Sacred Beasts this time, Yugi, Kaiba, and others could get first-hand information about the enemy and prepare in advance.

Fortunately, in the end, he won the game without any accidents.

Kagemaru, who had taken the blow from "Immortal Phoenix" head-on, rolled many times and hit the corner, looking half-dead as if he had fallen heavily.

Yuei Vu felt that the realm of the three Sacred Beasts had been broken, and the Sacred Beast aura that possessed Kagemaru had also disappeared.

Sure enough, the last time he relied on the "Pokemon Battle" method to defeat the Sacred Beast didn't count. This time he won by playing cards, and then the system gave a "mission completed" prompt. The real card version of the Three Sacred Beasts was automatically distributed to Yuei Vu's card library as a reward.

Yuei Vu was quite happy to get the reward, but he didn't forget about business.

Kagemaru was lying there half-dead, and he was still breathing. However, Yuei Vu didn't care about him. He strode forward, leaned over, and pulled out the entire deck for him.

At that moment, he seemed to be able to feel the three Sacred Beasts roaring in the void. It seemed that they were very unwilling to be enslaved and this was not even the first time.

After all, they had already been caught by Yuei Vu once before they met Kagemaru.

They were majestic demon gods. Which of the three was not a rare and extremely powerful person in the spirit world? But they were restrained by this despicable human being!

Not once, but twice!

What a disgrace.

However, there was nothing they could do. After all, this duelist was not an ordinary human being. He was not like others who can be scared into madness by just playing some mental tricks. Besides, he was still protected by Egyptian Gods, so to be honest, they may not have much chance to cause trouble.

The BOSS was finally defeated, and by the way, the biggest harvest in the past few years was captured. Yuei Vu was in a good mood. He opened the chat interface of Duel Disk and found that there were many messages.

The first one, not surprisingly, was the president.

"It's a good fight, but you take it for granted."

For some reason, when Yuei Vu saw this line of words, he seemed to have an image of President Kaiba with his nostrils turned upward, and even the three-part laugh echoed in his ears.

Immediately afterward, the president sent another message: "When you are done, go back to the company as soon as possible. There is an urgent business."

Urgent business (), play cards ().

Anyway, as long as it involved playing cards, the president had a very sensitive physique, and he could get excited by watching people playing cards through the screen.

Yuei Vu silently ignored the president's message and continued to scroll down.

Jonouchi was more realistic. He first expressed his admiration for Yuei Vu's performance in this battle without hesitation, and then invited Yuei Vu to have dinner, saying that "I'll pay for the hot pot".

To be honest, Yuei Vu was still a little moved when he saw Jonouchi saying that he didn't want any money.

Until Yuei Vu then turned to Yugi's message.

"That's amazing, Yuei Vu. It's been a long time since I last saw you, and you can actually control the Three Egyptian Gods to this extent!"

There was also an emoji of admiration for the big boss behind him.

But the message that followed was: "By the way, Yuei Vu, if you come back next time, let's try it too! It just so happens that I haven't fought against the Egyptian God in many years, and I recently came up with a new way to deal with the Egyptian God. It feels very interesting"

(Three Egyptian Gods: Boss, please spare us)

Seeing this, and thinking of Yugi's harmless and sunny smile, Yuei Vu decisively gave up the idea of "returning to Domino".

Back in Domino, being blocked by the president from playing cards was a trivial matter. As for playing cards with AIBO forget it.

Winning or losing, he was afraid that he would lose interest in playing cards

But there were more than just a few people watching this battle between gods and demons.

In fact, on this trip to find Kagamaru, for the sake of reputation, Yuei Vu once again brought his royal camera gadget, Miss Yuehua.

After all, screwball players were very forgetful creatures, and they liked the new and hated the old.

Sometimes they might have been screaming passionately at the paper girl with long breasts and thighs two days ago, and then two days later they would be licking the loli again.

In short, if he didn't continue to make some big news to attract their attention, he, Yuei Vu, may have exhausted his fame after a while.

So when Yuei Vu and Kagamaru were playing cards, Miss Yuehua acted like a war reporter, hiding behind the secret room door and taking pictures the entire time, broadcasting live from the front row.

As expected by Yuei Vu, the battle with the last BOSS in the first stage of the GX period once again became a hot topic in the forum.

When they saw the young Chairman Kagamaru come forward, a group of players started a heated discussion.

"Wait a minute, didn't someone say that Kagamaru is dead?"

Players who were tutors in the academy had heard about Kagamaru's death, and it was spread on the forum.

"After all, this is the first stage's last BOSS, so it won't be that easy."

"Didn't you say that Kagamaru is an old man? He doesn't look like it."

"It seems to be the ability of the three Sacred Beasts. I heard that the three Sacred Beasts can absorb life energy and rejuvenate people."

"So awesome? Then I have a friend who asked me to ask, can the three Sacred Beasts help people regain their glory on the bed?"

As if to prove the credibility of his statement, the poster even posted a decent screenshot of the chat, with the other party's note clearly marked with the word friend.

This strange angle naturally led to another wave of heated discussions, and incidentally, there was also a wave of ridicule of "Is the friend you are talking about yourself?"

The forum and the broadcast room were full of a happy atmosphere.

The duel began and the arrival of "Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder" marked the official beginning of this war between gods and demons.

When the blue electric light pierced the sky and the thunderbolt of joyless exploded in the world, even the screwballs couldn't help but be shocked. Some people even felt the suffocating and powerful fluctuations through the screen, and were sincerely shocked

What liar has just made an oath!?

Chapter 859: Directly Lay An Egg

The duel between Yuei Vu and Kagamaru began, and more and more players heard the news and came to the front row of the live broadcast room to watch.

Some players also did not forget to turn on the live broadcast screen recording, preparing to record the entire card game. Some of them were anchors who produced videos, and they planned to go back, post-process, and polish the material and put it on a special video website to be used as a program. Others were Duel Academy tutors, preparing to record first-hand materials and use them as teaching materials for students.

The unimaginably powerful performance of the Three Sacred Beasts surprised the players, especially the two anti-social effects of the "Awakening of the Sacred Beasts" which aroused the instinctive reaction of many players.

Especially for many players who have been tricked by cards such as "Macro Cosmos" and "Skill Drain", when they saw these "Awakening of the Sacred Beasts", their DNA moved and their fists clinched

These three Sacred Beasts could be called an anti-social trio. Different from the Egyptian Gods, whose power lay in their invincible suppression and the absolute power to kill instantly, the Sacred Beast's strength lay in its ability to break people's mentality.

After a duel, Kagamaru left a deep impression on everyone. The combat effectiveness of this Sacred Beast system seemed to be very good, and they were completely different from the anime.

It seemed that due to the influence of the power of the Sacred Beast, Kagamaru himself behaved quite inflated, with a posture of "Who else is the best duelist in the world but me?"

To describe it in one sentence, it's like a heifer riding a motorcycle awesome and booming.

"Kagamaru is not bad, his Sacred Beast seems to be a bit fierce." Someone said immediately.

"The point is to absorb life energy! Good news for men, okay?"

"Don't worry, men are all good at talking but they won't last long."

Of course, in the end, the result was still what everyone expected. As expected, Yuei Vu-san, the universally recognized protagonist of the world, won the duel again.

But what everyone never expected was that in the face of the iron-walled three Sacred Beasts lineup, the double blockade of monster effects, and graveyard resources, Yuei Vu actually, actually directly laid a Winged Dragon egg!

"Fucking heartless!"

"6666 Yuei Vu-san is awesome! He actually laid eggs directly"

The Winged Dragon was a useless fighter in the real card environment, but its egg was famous. Even Lava Golem could only eat the two monsters on the opposite side, while the Winged Dragon Egg wanted to eat three of them in one breath.

Moreover, Lava Golem still had considerable combat power equivalent to the Blue-Eyes White Dragon, and he could be considered a beatstick. But if you didn't have "The Winged Dragon of the Ra" in your deck, then this egg that ate three of your monsters was equivalent to a Normie with 0 ATK and 0 DEF.

Moreover, this egg even had the effect of "returning control at the end of the next turn." This meant that not only did it eat three of your monsters, but it would also jump back to the opposite field next turn and transform back into The Winged Dragon of Ra

Looking at it this way, it's no wonder that among the three Egyptian Gods, only the Crispy Chicken was originally the exclusive Egyptian God of Mr. Ma, the nether six-year-old boy from the Tomb Keeper clan. This effect made him the favorite of autistic players at first glance.

But in this way, the Sacred Beast incident has finally come to an end.

Kagamaru's entire deck of cards was confiscated, and the other three Sacred Beast Cards he restored through the Sacred Beast stone slabs were also confiscated by Yuei Vu.

In this way, there were a total of nine Sacred Beast cards in Yuei Vu's hands three were sealed directly in actual combat, three were real-life versions given by the system, and the other three were seized from Kagamaru here.

Kagamaru was also captured alive because Yuei Vu deliberately showed mercy, Kagamaru survived after playing this game.

The reason why he was not killed was because Yuei Vu had not yet finished dealing with the subsequent hidden dangers. He still needed to know where the stone slabs with the power of the Sacred Beasts that were excavated by the archaeological team were, and even more, needed to know where the slab of the three Sacred Beasts was stored.

If these slabs were not recovered, there was always a chance that one day, some duelist may use them to cause big trouble.

But fortunately, this soon became less of an issue. Within two hours of Yuei Vu leaving the island, news came from the Kaiba Corp, saying that the Kaiba Corp's specialist team had found Kagemaru's stronghold and found all the Sacred Beast-related slates after forcibly breaking through.

Department D contacted soon after. Officer Fujino seemed to mean that they were under tremendous pressure from above, hoping that the Kaiba Corp could hand over these Sacred Beast tablets and hand them over to "professional institutions" like them for preservation.

This was the tradition of higher-level departments. Even though the Sacred Beast's slabs were not kept in their hands for a long time and were later snatched away by Chairman Kagemaru without anyone noticing, they still insisted on calling these tables "Government's Property".

If it was an ordinary man here, he might have been forced to hand over the things due to pressure from the superior department. But unfortunately, the person they were trying to put pressure on was no ordinary man.

That was Seto Kaiba.

"Dueling monsters has always been the professional scope of Kaiba Corp. I think we have reached a consensus on this part a long time ago." The president was very tough when talking to the leaders of relevant departments.

"I think the facts have proven that your troops do not have the ability to ensure the safety of these stone slabs, but our Kaiba Corp does!

If you are not convinced, let the duel speak for itself in the way a true duelist would do! "

As he spoke, President Kaiba on the screen lifted the Duel Disk on his arm, with "Come and play cards" written all over his face.

This trick was effective. He lifted the duel disk, and the leaders behind the screen were really a little scared.

The world was so strange. If you stood there with a Gatling gun in your hand, knowledgeable big shots may not necessarily take you seriously.

But if you just take out the Duel Disk without saying anything, they might panic

Sure enough, not long after the president took out the Duel Disk, the leaders were convinced. They acquiesced to letting the Kaiba Corp keep the Sacred Beast stone slabs and were forced to make concessions.

There was no way, who made Kaiba Corp almost rule the world?

As for their concession, Kaiba seemed to be a little unhappy.

Not long ago, he watched the battle between gods and demons between Yuei Vu and Kagemaru. Watching this duel made the president's blood boil with excitement, and he wanted to grab someone to play cards immediately.

He originally expected to take advantage of this opportunity to grab two experts from Department D to relieve his card addiction, but he didn't expect the opponent to be so timid. When they saw him taking out the Duel Disk, they ran away without even giving him a chance to play cards

Mokuba didn't notice his brother's dissatisfaction, and just said happily: "Great, now the power of the Sacred Beast is completely in our hands!"

After a pause, he added: "Brother Yuei Vu will be very happyright?"

Kaiba groaned and rolled his eyes angrily.

It's like saying: whether he was happy or not, did it have anything to do with me?

Chapter 860: I Surrender

Big Lobster and Kagemaru were taken care of one after another, and the threat to Duel Academy came to an end for the time being.

But in the process, these two caused quite a stir, leaving quite a mess for all parties involved in the incident.

After Tragoedia was defeated, the second-generation Duel King Hibiki Koyo, who was unconscious in the hospital for unknown reasons, finally woke up after being in bed for more than half a month.

The news seemed to spread like wildfire, and soon reporters with a keen sense of smell got wind of the news. Overnight, a large number of reporters gathered at the entrance of the hospital, asking about the Duel King's condition.

A few days later, Hibiki Koyo, whose health had basically recovered, took the initiative to accept interviews from reporters.

In the interview, he first expressed concern for the fans who cared about him and revealed his willingness to return to the game after recovering.

After all, it has been some time since he won the title of Duel King, and he has not stepped into the arena for many years. The environment in the duel circle now was very different from when he won the title of king.

The new environment and the new powerful people that have sprung up like mushrooms were all full of challenges for the current Hibiki Koyo.

He was also undoubtedly a man who loved dueling. He enjoyed dueling with strong players, was willing to meet challenges, and was not afraid of failure.

The world of dueling was developing extremely fast, and the top players in the professional circle were replaced at a speed that sometimes you couldn't even imagine. Even Hibiki Koyo himself felt that now that he has returned to the world, he may not be as all-powerful as he was back then, but this made him even more motivated.

"But the two Duel Kings before you the two first-generation kings who are known as the strongest in history, it has been many years since they last participated in a formal large-scale professional competition."

A reporter said in an interview.

Many people in the dueling community feel that their era has passed, and even if they return to the arena now, they may not be able to regain their original dominance.

Mr. Hibiki Koyo, do you think you are confident that you can win if you have the opportunity to face two seniors again? "

Hibiki clasped his palms together and was silent for a while, then faced the camera with a serious expression: "There is no suspense."

"Oh? Are you so confident?" The reporter's eyes lit up as if he smelled a fight between dragons and tigers.

Then he saw Hibiki Koyo stretching out a hand and holding up five fingers.

The reporter felt that he understood what he meant and couldn't help holding his breath: "You are going to launch a challenge within five days?"

As the second-generation Duel King's comeback, challenging a senior with a greater reputation than himself seemed to be a good option, and it could also create gimmicks to quickly increase his popularity again.

But then Hibiki shook his head: "No, I mean I might lose within five turns."

Reporter:""

"I haven't had a chance to get to know Mr. Muto Yugi yet, but I have met Mr. Yuei Vu once. Although I was not in a very good state at the time.

But Mr. Yuei Vu's duel is completely different from anyone else I've seen. If he goes all out, I will definitely be no match now. "

Although he was brainwashed by Big Lobster last time, because Big Lobster retained his consciousness, Hibiki Koyo has not forgotten that duel now.

He was sincerely grateful to Yuei Vu for liberating him from that hopelessly long bondage if he had the chance, he would very much like to express his gratitude in person.

But at the same time, it also made him realize the gap in strength between the two sides.

Considering that it was now known that the real strongest trump card representing Duel King Yugi Yu was actually the three Egyptian Gods, Hibiki Koyo also clearly realized that that duel was not even Yuei Vu's full strength.

That's why he made the judgment that if Yuei Vu fought with all his strength, he might lose within five turns at most.

However, Mr. Hibiki Koyo was also a decent person. He said this directly to the camera, which surprised the reporters.

The professional circle has always respected the strong, and only strong players with outstanding card skills could attract fans and traffic. The players were all bragging with all their strength, wishing that every one of them could punch and kick Yugi Yu anyway, you didn't have to pay taxes when bragging, so let's brag to get some traffic first.

If they really couldn't beat him in the future well, that would all happen in the future.

It turned out that Hibiki Koyo did the opposite, declaring that he couldn't beat him even before he was beaten.

What is this operation? Is the reverse tempting fate?

After the news of Hibiki Koyo's recovery and preparation for a comeback attracted the attention of the dueling community, this interview once again attracted a lot of attention. Even the frequency of Yuei Vu's name appearing in search engines has increased, and it's inexplicably picked up again.

But Yuei Vu, as the person involved, has no time to pay attention to this for the time being.

He was very busy.

As the principal, he must personally deal with the series of impacts caused by Big Lobster and Kagamaru's troubles on the academy, such as the Seven Stars who were captured after losing the battle and giving away their experience

Hmm okay, it mainly referred to Camula.

Yuei Vu didn't know what was wrong with this vampire. That old witch insisted on being his maid.

Camula worked hard to promote herself, showing off her breasts and long legs. He had to admit that she's really big and white

Of course, that's not the point.

Finding that Yuei Vu didn't seem to be interested, Camula immediately changed her tactics, showing that she was not a brainless beauty.

She said that as a vampire aristocrat, she has been a talent since she was a child. She was versatile, could play cards, act and sing, and was proficient in eighteen kinds of postures!

At this point, Yuei Vu had already stood up and was about to leave, with a look like "I don't even care about this", and Camula suddenly became anxious.

Miss Vampire was so anxious that she quickly took out a deck of cards from nowhere and said "Yes, this is my ancestral Vampire deck! Among them are not only super powerful superior vampires but also super powerful forbidden cards that can change the situation of the duel with a single card!"

It turns out that she seems to have found the right way to open it this time. When Yuei Vu, who had already stood up and walked to the door, heard this, he was immediately sucked back into his seat like a magnet sensing a magnetic pole.

Camula was sensible, so she quickly put the deck of cards into Yuei Vu's hands, her face filled with cuteness.

She let out a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, I have collected a lot of information before and know what the Duel King is interested in, otherwise, I might not have a chance this time

For the sake of the deck, Yuei Vu sat back and played with the deck in his hands before finally looking at the vampire.

Camula took the opportunity to try her best to stir up the uproar as if she was participating in some talent show.

"You're a vampire."

The moment Yuei Vu shook his head, Camula's heart thumped and she felt half cold.

"I don't need a subordinate I can't trust."

Camula suddenly became anxious: "But didn't you take Tilla in? She is also a vampire!"

"She lost to me in the Shadow Game, and the contract between victory and defeat prevented her from betraying me."

Camula's eyes lit up.

"That's easy to say! Then let's play a Shadow Game, and I'll surrender immediately! If I lose, I'll be yours, Mr. Yuei Vu!"

The vampire said, blinking wildly.

Yuei Vu: ""
