

I Play Yu-Gi 881

Chapter 881: Hell Difficulty

The world timeline has changed.

In the graduation duel of Ryo Marufuji in the original work, although the opponent was also Yuki Judai, Judai's status was the challenger, while Ryo Marufuji was the king standing in a condescending position.

Although the contrast in status between the two may still be the same in the eyes of most students, Ryo Marufuji knew in his heart that the fact was completely the opposite.

In fact, as "Kaiser", he was the challenger, and this has been the case since they first met at the Cyber Art Dojo many years ago. Only his challenge failed, once again.

But maybe because he was mentally prepared, instead of feeling annoyed or discouraged, he felt that such a result was natural.

He surpassed himself, achieved transformation, and performed better than ever before, but in the end he still lost.

As expected of the Judai I acknowledged!

Ryo Marufuji felt more and more that it was great that Judai was chosen as his opponent in the graduation duel. This was the duel he pursued, and it was the perfect ending to his three years of college life.

If I have to say what I regret, its that I still couldnt win against Judai

But youth always leaves some regrets.

A satisfied chapter of life. JPG.

Principal Samejima took the lead and stood up and began to applaud, showing his approval for the two of them. The remaining students, led by the principal, also stood up and applauded to show respect for this wonderful duel.

Samejima knew that his direct disciple had now completely surpassed him.

Not only that, he has even surpassed the path of a duelist he taught him and entered a whole new realm.

From now on, as a teacher, he may not be able to provide guidance. All he can do was to guard this quiet port and silently watch the students' growth, that's all.

"Judai won."

While Chika was folding clean clothes that had been dried and ironed, she took the time to look sideways at the TV screen.

The screen showed a live broadcast of the graduation duel.

"It seems so."

Yuei Vu was concentrating on studying the new cards that had just been drawn from the card pool yesterday, without even turning his head to look at the screen.

If the current Judai couldn't beat Ryo Marufuji, then he may really have been taught in vain these years.

However, Ryo Marufuji's changes surprised him a bit. It seemed that the pressure Judai had been putting on him accelerated his growth process in the original work.

It seemed that Marufuji's strength has not only increased a lot, but his ability to withstand pressure when he went out to face social beatings should also be much stronger. Maybe he wouldn't degenerate like in the original work.

While they were watching the live broadcast here, two maids were facing each other tit for tat in the next room.

After the Seven Stars Incident ended, Yuei Vu went out to pick up a Camula and came back, which quickly aroused Tilla's alert.

Master Yuei Vu actually has a new maid outside!

Could it be that I can no longer satisfy him?

The master was not here at the moment, and two maids, one in black stockings and one in white stockings, were cleaning the hall. Tilla was cleaning the windows and Camula was mopping the floor.

Tilla observed silently, looking at the two trembling lumps on the chest of the newcomer as he worked hard to mop the floor, and the long snow-white legs wrapped in black stockings

As a senior, Tilla immediately felt a sense of crisis!

In the past, Tilla was quite confident in terms of body size.

After all, most of the time, her only competitor was the hostess Chika Itou. Although she never dared to say it, if they only compared their figure, the hostess was like the Siberian plains facing the Himalayas.

The only thing that made her feel threatened was the silly blond magical girl next to Master Yuei Vu.

Tilla still remembered that she was bruised badly when they first met, she still had a deep impression on that girl.

In most cases, Tilla had absolute confidence in her figure, but compared to that magical girl, she felt inferior. The white, round, and even exaggerated size once made the vampire wonder if it was fake

But fortunately, Dark Magician Girl was a spirit after all, and she was in a daze all day and not very smart, which somewhat reduced her threat level.

Besides, our Lord Yuei Vu is a serious duelist!

Who among serious duelists would have any dirty thoughts about their own spirits?

But now Camula's intrusion finally made her completely alert.

Tilla couldn't help but ask, "What is your purpose?"

"Purpose? There is no purpose." Camula made an innocent face.

"Haven't you heard that this position is already occupied?" Tilla flashed his fangs.

"Don't be nervous, senior." Camula said, "I am here just out of respect for Mr. Yuei Vu!"

"What kind of respect?" Tilla said with a vacant look, "The sticky and thick kind?"

Tilla has seen through it all.

Ha, I think you are just greedy for my masters body!

Beautiful thought!

"Oh haha, senior, what are you talking about? I don't understand." Camula chuckled, "But having said that, senior, you have been with Mr. Yuei Vu for so long and you haven't made any progress at all. It seems that you are lacking some charming Camula acted confidently.

A man, no matter how serious he looks on the surface, must be a pervert deep down inside.

Now I'm holding the Duel King's thick thighs, reviving the fallen vampires It's not a problem.

As for Tilla not succeeding for so many years, Camula was actually a little dissatisfied with her.

What a weak girl! You wont even be able to do something as simple as give away your body for free!

I can definitely do it!

Speak of the devil, the opportunity has come.

Yuei Vu passed by the living room. Tilla quickly concentrated on cleaning the windows, silently working hard. Camula quickly thought about it.

She picked up her collar and shook it, pretending: "Hey, it's so hot today"

The shaking sceneit's really like a magnificent and turbulent wave, with one wave rising after another.

As expected, Yuei Vu paused and glanced sideways at her.

Camula's eyes lit up.

Very good, it works!

Sure enough, that Tilla is really bad, I still have to wait and see for myself

"Camula." Yuei Vu said.

She quickly stood at attention: "What are your orders, Master?"

While standing at attention, he made secret glances.

Yuei Vu pointed to the door.

"If you're feeling energetic, go run fifty laps."

Camula: "???"

Tilla gloated and looked at Camula mockingly as if he had expected this result.

It even felt a little unenjoyable.

Hey, Master is indeed kind to the newcomer who offends for the first time and actually sends her away after fifty rounds.

Tilla still remembered the time when she had the courage to try to do something, and that day she was assigned by Master to solve advanced mathematics for a night.

Damn, that's the real hell difficulty.

Tilla felt that in comparison, running laps was simply considered a benefit

Chapter 882: Is He Really That Powerful?

Yuei Vu's schedule for the next few days was very full.

A few days ago, the appearance of "Gameciel, the Sea Turtle Kaiju" shocked the whole world this was the first time that a large monster materialized and caused trouble in the city after the three Sacred Beasts went on a rampage.

Fortunately, Duel King Yuei Vu happened to be nearby and took action in time to resolve the crisis. But despite this, the infestation of the Kaiju has brought shocking destruction to urban areas, caused countless property losses, and more importantly, spread fear.

People have always had very mixed feelings about the existence of dueling monster spirits.

Due to the popularity of the Duel Monsters game, spirits were trustworthy companions for duelists and many interested people.

An undeniable fact was that most monster spirits had a friendly attitude towards humans. Not to mention that there were also cute creatures like Kuriboh that could capture the hearts of thousands of girls just by being cute, and there were also spirits that "rule over otakus" like the Dark Magician Girl.

But what could not be ignored is that some evil and violent spirits have also caused disasters more than once, and even endangered the survival of the world.

Strong power always breeds suspicion, which is an unchanging law in any world. The powerful power possessed by spirits has naturally caused opposition voices among the human community, and some people have begun to think that the power of spirits may bring destruction to the world.

This view existed in the distant past and would not disappear in the future as far away as the end of time.

The human monarch Dartz from 10,000 years ago once predicted this, and Z-ONE, the last savior of mankind, also witnessed such a future with his own eyes.

The appearance of the Kaiju undoubtedly exacerbated the process, and people were eager to know who should pay for this disaster.

DD was imprisoned by the relevant departments for interrogation, but Yuei Vu was convinced that they would not be able to come up with anything. Because this guy was obviously just a discarded pawn, a clown who couldn't stand on the stage.

He only knew that one day, the power of the Kaiju appeared in his hands. Then, like all low-level villains, he immediately swelled up after gaining a little bit of ability, and in the end, he couldn't escape the end of being dealt with.

A guy like this who had no brain was destined not to go very far. Even if Yuei Vu didn't come forward, someone else would come forward. Anyway, this kind of character usually couldn't make any waves.

But for the same reason, the people behind the scenes were destined not to waste resources on such worthless chess pieces. You couldn't expect to get anything valuable out of the mouth of a discarded pawn.

In other words, DD and the Sea Turtle Kaiju he controlled may just be someone's demonstration, showing off their strength, and paving the way for some of the next actions.

The question now is: Why?

However, through this confrontation, at least Yuei Vu confirmed that the Light of Destruction was involved behind the scenes, but he was not yet sure what role the evil of the universe played in the incident.

But in any case, since this force was involved, the first person he needed to find must be Saio Takuma.

Yuei Vu had arranged for someone to confirm the whereabouts of Saio, and planned to visit him in the next few days to confirm with his own eyes whether the original BOSS was still involved with the Light of Destruction in the changed timeline.

At the same time, President Kaiba also arranged some tasks for him.

Although Yuei Vu may be lax for 300 of the 365 days a year, he was still the nominal manager of the Kaiba Corp, and it was hard to refuse the president's occasional assignment of important work to him

Aside from playing cards with the president.

This time seemed to be the opening ceremony of the new annual KC Cup. As usual, as the Duel King, Yuei Vu had to go to the stage and promote the company's new products.

Originally, Yuei Vu refused this kind of job

Just kidding, I am the Duel King, the most powerful person in the world, you actually want me to do salesmanship?

Until Mokuba whispered on the phone: "Actually, this product promotion has the HERO' theme, and you, Brother Yuei Vu, will get a commission"

Yuei Vu patted his chest: "Don't worry, Mokuba. I will take care of it. The company's interests are my interests, and commissions and other things are just trivial matters"

"That's great." Mokuba's eyes shone, "Then I'll tell my brother directly that you agree!"

Alas, there was no other way. Yuei Vu said that he was a poor person who was short of money and crystal stones.

"By the way, Brother Yuei Vu." Mokuba said, "There will be a game for you in this year's opening ceremony, don't forget it."

Yuei Vu really forgot about it if Mokuba didn't mention it.

He attended the KC opening ceremony every year.

Although Yuei Vu would murmur every year that the president, an evil capitalist, was using his fame in vain if he didn't pay for the appearance, and he would not participate next year even if he died. But in the end, he still went every year.

Maybe this was the so-called wage slavery. After all, there were dozens of the president's cards piled up in Yuei Vu's private warehouse, so it really didn't make sense not to give the president some face.

Except for the first KC Cup, which he personally participated in, he has never participated as a player in any subsequent competitions. But sometimes in order to attract traffic and stimulate the enthusiasm of duelists, the winner of the KC Cup could get the right to have a duel with Yuei Vu.

This year's competition has such an arrangement.

"Okay." Yuei Vu responded while muttering "troublesome" in his heart.

Yuei Vu secretly planned in his heart that when Judai grew up in the future and also won the title of Duel King, all these messy things would be left to his lovely apprentice to handle.

Anyway, Judai has always accepted any work as long as he could play cards.

"KC cup?"

A woman in white with shoulder-length short hair and a proud figure stood in a huge hall filled with dazzling light, with a puzzled face.

Her name was Alice, guided by the power of light, and one of Saio's most trusted subordinates.

Sitting not far in front of her with his back to this side was none other than Saio Takuma.

"That's right." Saio fiddled with his tarot cards as usual and said without looking back, "You not only have to participate in the KC Cup, but you also have to win the championship.

The winner of this game will get the right to challenge the first-generation Duel King Yuei Vu. "

"Is the purpose just to challenge that person?" Alice frowned, "Then I will directly ambush him"

"No!"

Saio stopped her with a roar, and Alice was startled.

Saio's voice softened slightly: "The first Duel King that person is not simple. I can't tell you the reason yet. In short, you must not arouse his suspicion no matter what!

What I need you to do is to test his roots and never let him doubt you! "

"Yes yes," Alice responded, but she was only more suspicious.

Because in her impression, it seemed like this was the first time she saw Lord Saio like this.

Saio-sama was so alert that he even looked a little uneasy.

This made her suspicious.

That Yuei Vu is he really that powerful?

Chapter 883: The Farthest Distance In The World

Attending the KC Cup was a regular event for Yuei Vu every year, and since the first one, Chika had followed him every time.

At this moment, Chika was helping him pack his luggage for this trip, while Yuei Vu was sitting in front of the computer screen and looking through the KC Cup itinerary that Mokuba sent him.

The Dark Magician Girl suddenly materialized and appeared out of thin air. Chika, who was packing her luggage, was startled, and the pile of clothes in her hand scattered on the floor.

"Ah! Sorry, I was rash again."

The Dark Magician Girl quickly leaned over to help her clean up.

"It doesn't matter."

Chika also squatted down, but inadvertently saw two dazzling white headlights in front of her eyes, and suddenly felt dizzy

Speaking of which, Chika saw the Silent Magician in Loli form for the first time she was no bigger than her chest and looked cute like a well-made doll, and Chika fell in love with her at first sight.

After all, girls are irresistible to cute things.

However, the Silent Magician who was touched by her didn't seem very happy, maybe because she didn't like to be treated like a little lolita.

So Chika watched helplessly as this little silver-haired lolita transformed on the spot. Her cute little face turned into a frost-covered glacier in a second. The curves in the front and back developed at an unscientific speed at the same time, enough to make her directly faint.

And then Chika became autistic.

She deeply felt that in this extremely unfriendly world, only the soft Kuriboh could bring her a little comfort.

Later, Chika gradually got used to it.

From her point of view, it seemed that it would be inappropriate for a Duel King to not have some spirits around him.

Besides, the Dark Magician Girl and the Silent Mage are all spirits!

Spirits are for playing cards, not for warming beds!

So Chika gradually accepted this setting.

It's just that she may still faint when she should.

For example, now.

"By the way, Master, are you going to the Kaiba Land to participate in the competition?" The Dark Magician Girl came up behind Yuei Vu and put her little head on his shoulder.

Yuei Vu didn't look back and continued to check the game introduction and schedule.

"Yes, I will go to the KC Cup every year."

"Hey~ shouldn't there be a lot of duelists and a lot of spirits?" The magical girl's emerald green eyes shone, "Master, I also want to go to the convention to get some fresh air."

Yuei Vu temporarily put down what he was doing and turned to look at her strangely.

Oddly enough, in front of him was a cute girl with a delicate face and stunning figure, but when he looked at his spirit, the first image that came to his mind was a husky holding a dog leash in its mouth and wagging its tail .

"Ahem, but you are a spirit, so you will be more eye-catching, right?"

The Dark Magician Girl pouted: "But no one suspected me when I went out to play at the school festival last time."

"Because it happens to be a duel monster cosplay-themed school festival"

In fact, it's not impossible to let her go to Kaiba Land for a while. After all, it was an international competition with the theme of Duel Monsters. There was a high chance that others would only regard her as a cosplayer.

Of course, the premise was not to follow Yuei Vu.

Yuei Vu mentioned in an interview with a magazine that his earliest spirit and first partner was the Dark Magician Girl, and the outside world knew that he had such a spirit.

If Yuei Vu took her with him, people would definitely realize the truth.

With the popularity of Dark Magician Girl around the world, it was conceivable that wherever she went, it would be jammed like an idol concert venue

From this point of view, pervertness may have no world barrier restrictions. Not only were the screwball players so affectionate when they saw her, but her popularity among the duelists in this world seemed to be not low at all.

"Then why not change your clothes and disguise yourself?"

Hearing this, Chika, who was stuffing clothes into the suitcase, couldn't help but raise her head and suggest.

"If you change into casual clothes and put on a hat, sunglasses, etc., it shouldn't be easy to recognize, right?"

Yuei Vu glanced at the Dark Magician Girl beside him and then considered the proposal for a moment.

That's true.

In fact, as long as the two white straight long legs that were worth fighting for were hidden, it probably wouldn't be that easy to recognize.

Some perverts these days may not recognize people based on their faces

Originally, the Dark Magician Girl's "force" allowed her to move around in the human world for a limited time, but as her master Yuei Vu became stronger and stronger, the girl could now move around freely for more than a day.

After all, the "for" in the bodies of spirits and duelists could be continuously exchanged.

"Then do whatever you want." Yuei Vu shrugged.

"Okay!" The Dark Magician Girl cheered.

But this naturally led to the next very serious question

She must have something casual to wear.

On the surface, this didn't seem like a problem. After all, Chika has lived here for a long time, and there was no shortage of women's clothing of any style in her wardrobe.

The problem was

At this moment in Chika's room, the Dark Magician Girl was trying to button up a shirt with all her strength. However, under the influence of some indescribable powerful obstacle, there seemed to be a huge chasm between buttons and buttonholes, and no matter how hard she tried, she couldn't connect them at all

Chika stood aside and watched the girl who was trying her best to "button her shirt", and couldn't help but fall into a long silence.

At this moment, she seemed to realize the truth.

The farthest distance in the world is not between life and death, nor between birds and fish.

But buttons and buttonholes

Or rather, it was the big, white source of evil that impeded the meeting of button and buttonhole without mercy.

The Dark Magician Girl opened her big innocent eyes: "Umthe clothes seem a bit too small, I can't button them"

Chika: ""

The Dark Magician Girl used a Psychic attack! It's super effective! Critical hit! Chika fainted!

"Ah, right!"

The Dark Magician Girl slapped her forehead and suddenly remembered something.

She raised her little hand, and a small, flat ball-shaped wand appeared out of thin air in her hand.

Then the Dark Magician Girl chanted a spell, the magic circle appeared out of thin air, and the magic ripples were surging in the sealed room.

A girlish-looking magic circle emerged, slowly passing through the Dark Magician Girl's body from bottom to top.

In just a few moments, she had transformed into an outfit that was exactly the same as Chika's just a size too big in some places.

"I almost forgot about this trick." The Dark Magician Girl stuck out her tongue in embarrassment.

Who told her to be a little fool?

Chika: ""

She wanted to ask, how could you, being so stupid, remember so many obscure black magic incantations?

There are so many dangerous magics, wouldn't it be dangerous if you remember any spell incorrectly?

Could it be that this is the price of super-level development of her chests?

Chika picked up the shirt that the Dark Magician Girl failed to put on just now, put it in front of her and gestured, then turned to look at the magical girl who was looking at her image in front of the mirror and couldn't help but fall into deep thought.

Damn it, I'm still so envious! ! !

Chapter 884: Who Dare To Challenge The President?

KC Cup, one of the world's largest invitational duel events sponsored by Kaiba Corp, was usually held at the annual carnival celebration of Kaiba Land.

Top players from around the world would gather together to participate in the competition, and only duelists invited by the organizer could participate.

Receiving an invitation letter itself was actually a high degree of recognition of the duelist's strength. Even if they could not get a ranking, many people would carefully save the invitation letter as part of the glory of their duelist career.

You must know that the KC Cup was a competition hosted by Kaiba Seto, and Kaiba Seto's standards for judging duelists were so harsh that it could be said to be ridiculous. After all, it was well known that even the legendary duelist Jonouchi was called "a talentless horse bone" by him, which showed that his standards were high.

Therefore, duelists who could pass President Kaiba's review and participate in the competition would naturally not be weak.

At nine o'clock in the morning, Yuei Vu and others arrived at Kaiba Land.

"Brother Yuei Vu!"

Mokuba, wearing a white suit, stood at the door to greet him.

He also did not miss Chika who was following Yuei Vu: "Sister Chika."

However, Mokuba was stunned when his eyes fell on the person behind him.

She was a girl dressed in an urban girlish style, with a cute white peaked cap on her head, and her long blond hair shone like gold in the sun.

She had big emerald green eyes, flawless white skin, and a delicate and cute face that made people feel inexplicably familiar.

This effervescently beautiful girl followed Yuei Vu, looking left and right like a curious baby, and was still licking a big hard popsicle in her mouth.

Noticing Mokuba looking at her, she waved her little hand warmly, acting like an old friend.

Mokuba waved his hand blankly in response. In his heart, he felt that this girl looked familiar, but he couldn't remember who she was.

As he walked, he couldn't help but secretly asked Yuei Vu: "Brother Yuei Vu, who is this girl? It seems that I have seen her before, but I don't seem to have seen it before."

Yuei Vu was amused and did not answer: "You guess."

Mokuba: ""

"Where is President Kaiba?" Yuei Vu asked casually.

"My brother he is a little busy right now."

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows: "Is he playing with AI Bot again?"

According to Yuei Vu's experience over the years, President Kaiba was usually playing games at this time.

"Not this time." Mokuba smiled helplessly, "There is a challenger who has attracted my brother's interest. He is dueling."

"Oh?" Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows, showing some interest.

Although President Kaiba was addicted to cards and couldn't control the urge, in fact, the president was not a casual person at all. It didn't mean that he could just grab someone who understood the rules to play cards with him and everything would be done.

President Kaiba had very high requirements for his card friends. To most people, he would not even bother to consider playing cards with them.

This was also the reason why he always caught Yuei Vu playing cards repeatedly.

There was actually a challenger who could attract President Kaiba's attention and make him accept the card game. It seemed that this challenger must have a good background.

"They just entered. It shouldn't have started yet." Mokuba led them into the duel arena. "If you are interested, we can go and watch the battle."

Yuei Vu became slightly interested.

Its interesting, what kind of expert is able to get into the eyes of the president?

Huh?

When he walked into the White Dragon Duel Hall and saw the eclectic duelist wearing a Bambi hood directly opposite President Kaiba, Yuei Vu was stunned.

He actually looks like a player?!

Yuei Vu immediately glanced at the string of ID on the guy's head.

Oh, that dude is really a player.

[Professional Commentator, LP 4000]

Kaiba, LP 4000

The duel had just begun when they entered, and it was President Kaiba's turn.

Perhaps remembering that he had been killed by a weirdo wearing a unicorn headdress at the first KC Cup many years ago, the other party's funny headgear did not lower Kaiba's vigilance at all.

"Since you have the guts to challenge the ultimate, then be mentally prepared to be completely destroyed! My turn, draw!"

The moment Kaiba raised his voice and drew cards vigorously, his white trench coat flew up.

"Activate the Spell Card The Melody of Awakening Dragon!" Kaiba waved his hand, "Discard 1 card; add up to 2 Dragon monsters with 3000 or more ATK and 2500 or less DEF from my Deck to my hand!"

President Kaiba still used the new type of Duel Disk that was fully digitally operated, and the cards in the deck were all embodied by data. The blue data flow transformed into two cards, which he drew out smoothly.

"I added Blue-Eyes White Dragon' and Blue-Eyes Alternative White Dragon' to my hand!"

Then he showed another card in his hand, and the card quickly turned into a stream of data dissipated at his fingertips, and then appeared on his Duel Disk out of thin air.

"Summon the Maiden with Eyes of Blue' in attack position!"

[Maiden with Eyes of Blue, ATK 0]

Kisara went into battle in person, wearing a simple robe and gently falling in front of Kaiba, her long silver hair falling gently.

After landing, the girl turned around and winked at the president mischievously, and Kaiba nodded slightly in response with an expressionless expression.

The guy on the opposite side was stuffed with dog food before he even played his cards, and he couldn't help but secretly curse the president for betraying the organization.

What about "real duelists don't target"? What about "women only affect my card-drawing speed"?

Now you couple combine to bully me!

"Spell Card Trade-In! Discard 1 Level 8 monster; draw 2 cards! I discard a Blue-Eyes White Dragon' and draw two cards from the deck!"

Kaiba continued to check the cards, and then with a wave of his hand, the surging data stream pulled out a card from the graveyard.

"The effect of Master with Eyes of Blue' in the graveyard is activated!" Kaiba said, "Shuffle this card from my GY into the Deck, then target 1 Effect Monster I control; send it to the GY, and Special Summon 1 Blue-Eyes' monster from my GY, other than the sent monster!"

Kaiba pointed at the only monster on his field.

"I sent the Maiden with Eyes of Blue' to the graveyard!"

The white dragon of light that turns all darkness into light

Blue-Eyes White Dragon! ! ! "

There were waterfall-like light pillars reaching into the sky, and the effect of the three-dimensional image seemed to penetrate the ceiling. The giant white dragon spread its wings and took off, hovering high in the air several times before slowly landing behind the seahorse.

[Blue-Eyes White Dragon, ATK 3000]

"And at this moment, the effect of Maiden with Eyes of Blue' is also activated!" Kaiba yelled, "When Maiden with Eyes of Blue' is targeted by card effects, I can Special Summon 1 Blue-Eyes White Dragon' from my hand, Deck, or GY!

Be summoned again from the deck to turn all darkness into light, the white dragon of light

Blue-Eyes White Dragon! "

A torrent of data surged out directly from the president's deck. Countless data gathered into the shape of cards on his Duel Disk, and the second proud white dragon spread its wings and arrived!

[Blue-Eyes White Dragon, ATK 3000]

A double summon of Blue-Eyes White Dragon! ! !

Chapter 885: Buster Blader

The duel had just begun, and the onlookers had already begun to commotion.

Hiss~ President Kaiba called the Blue-Eyes White Dragon to his side so casually, and there were two of them!

The legendary duelist is so terrifying!

But this level of operation was obviously far from over. Kaiba then showed the two cards in his hand again: "I reveal a Blue-Eyes White Dragon' in my hand, and the Blue-Eyes Alternative White Dragon' can be Special Summoned directly from my hand!

Appear here, Blue-Eyes Alternative White Dragon! ! ! "

The floor looked like it was broken open under the three-dimensional image effect, and countless blue rays of light shot out. The Alternative White Dragon flew out of the ground and stood side by side with the other two blue eyes.

[Blue-Eyes Alternative White Dragon, ATK 3000]

"Then comes the Spell Card Polymerization'!" Kaiba shouted, "I fuse the Blue-Eyes White Dragon' in the hand with the Blue-Eyes White Dragon' and the Blue-Eyes Alternative White Dragon' on the field!

The fusion condition is three Blue-Eyes White Dragons! Fusion Summon!

The dragon's soul merges into one, showing its ultimate posture and dominating all things

Blue-Eyes Alternative Ultimate Dragon! ! ! "

Three white dragons disappeared in the whirlpool of white light, and the ultimate white dragon emerged from the radiance! That was an alternative vest of the ultimate form of the White Dragon, the strongest ace with both powerful destructive power and resistance!

[Blue-Eyes Alternative Ultimate Dragon, ATK 4500]

The duel arena was in a state of excitement!

Blue-Eyes Alternative Ultimate Dragon, this is an absolute god-level monster!

It could neither be targeted nor be destroyed by effects. It also had the terrifying ability to destroy up to three cards in one turn. In the eyes of most duelists, it was a powerful monster that could be directly linked to victory.

As long as it could be summoned, it basically meant victory in a duel!

President Kaiba could create such a powerful monster in just one turn!

This once again deeply made everyone realize what kind of gap between the legendary duelist Kaiba Seto and ordinary people.

"Set a card, I end my turn." Kaiba curled his lips and sneered, "Okay, since you are so confident in challenging me and my Blue-Eyes, try to defeat her if you can!"

As he spoke, the Blue-Eyes Alternative Ultimate Dragon raised her head and roared, as if she was trying to cheer for the president.

But the screwball called "Professional Commentator" was completely unmoved: "My turn, draw!"

Kaiba crossed his arms and gave a little affirmation in his heart.

Ordinary duelists may have shaky legs and feet and be unable to even play cards normally when faced with the double pressure of the Alternative Ultimate Dragon and the Blue-Eyes White Dragon.

But the weird duelist wearing a Bambi hood in front of him was unafraid in the face of such oppression. The president felt that this was the basic quality that a strong man should have.

This also made the president look forward to this duel even more.

Of course, what the president doesn't know is that screwball may not be able to feel pressure at all.

Professional Commentator was very excited now.

He was an ordinary player. Well, at least until two months ago, but not now.

Because he accidentally triggered a series of hidden plot missions and acquired the deck of cards he's using now.

This was the main reason why he dared to stand here and was so confident that he could beat Kaiba!

"I summon the Skilled White Magician'!"

[Skilled White Magician, ATK 1700]

Kaiba naturally had impressions of the white-robed mage, and it even immediately reminded him of an old friend he missed day and night.

After all, this was once the monster used by Atem, whom he longed for.

Professional Commentator quickly organized an offensive: "The Spell Card Emblem of Dragon Destroyer' is activated! Add 1 Buster Blader' from my Deck or GY to my hand!"

Kaiba frowned slightly: "Buster Blader? Your deck is"

"Destruction Sword?" Yuei Vu crossed his arms and chuckled, "Oh~ this is interesting."

"Eh? What is that?" Mokuba looked at Yuei Vu.

"Destruction Sword' is a series called Nemesis of all dragons'. Its theme is a powerful swordsman with absolute suppression when facing the dragon." Yuei Vu explained briefly.

To put it simply, the entire system of the Destruction Sword series was designed to operate against dragons. Although it may not be effective when facing ordinary opponents, if the opponent used a Dragon deck, the combat power would increase exponentially!

No wonder this screwball was so arrogant and had the courage to challenge the president. After working for a long time, it turned out to be the advantage of deck type.

"Activate the Quick-Play Spell Destruction Swordsman Fusion!" Professional Commentator couldn't wait to play this card, "Fusion Summon 1 Fusion Monster that mentions Buster Blader' as material from my Extra Deck, using monsters from my hand or either field as Fusion Material!"

Mokuba said in surprise: "You can fuse with the monsters on the opponent's field!?"

"The trump card of the Destruction Sword series is the Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman', and its fusion condition is 1 Buster Blader' + 1 Dragon monster." Yuei Vu said, "In other words, this is an effect that exclusively counters dragons.

This card can select a Dragon-type monster on the opponent's field as its fusion material.

And like the ordinary fusion, this effect does not target, so even the Blue-Eyes Alternative Ultimate Dragon' cannot resist it. "

"Eh!?" Mokuba's eyes widened, "Why is this like this?"

"I fuse the Buster Blader' in my hand with the Blue-Eyes Alternative Ultimate Dragon' on your field, President!" Professional Commentator was excited, "Coming, coming, coming!"

The dragon-slaying warrior, the ultimate dragon, the fusion of the two forces spans time and transcends space. Here we call upon the eternal legend and gain ultimate power! The power of destruction will turn into

"Stop talking nonsense." President Kaiba coldly interrupted the chanting, "If you want to fuse, hurry up."

Professional Commentator: ""

In fact, Yuei Vu almost wanted to complain.

Good guy, aren't you here to write poetry? Isn't the summon chant too long?

But at this time, the ultimate dragon has been captured by the magical power of the Destruction Sword, and even a dragon lord of this level seemed unable to resist after all.

The swordsman in blue armor emerged, flying into the air and merging with the forcibly captured ultimate dragon. The dragon-slaying swordsman and the strongest dragon force merged into one. What emerged from the burst of light was a warrior in white armor, holding a brilliant sword. The armor was thick and burly, majestic like a mountain.

"Fusion Summon!" Professional Commentator shouted, "Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman!!!"

[Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman, ATK 2800]

The fusion of the Destruction Swordsman and the Dragon, the killer move of the Destruction Sword series, the deepest nightmare of all dragon monsters in the world!

Chapter 886: Dragon Destroyer Swordsman

Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman was summoned!

Seeing the "Blue-Eyes Alternative Ultimate Dragon", who was revered as a god by everyone, disappear instantly under the power of a card, the whole audience was dumbfounded.

That's the Alternative Ultimate Dragon! Among Duel Monsters, she was recognized as a god-level being!

Everyone looked at this Bambi hooded man differently. Even the people who thought he was just a comedian because of his funny image couldn't help but be in awe.

Hiss~ This kid casually wiped out a god-level monster. It was really terrifying!

On the contrary, Kaiba, the person involved, did not react too much to the fact that his proud ace was killed and only frowned slightly in displeasure.

"The effect of Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman." Professional Commentator said, "First of all, he gains 1000 ATK/DEF for each Dragon monster the opponent controls or is in their GY!"

On your field and GY, there were currently three Blue-Eyes White Dragons, one Blue-Eyes Alternative White Dragon, and one Blue-Eyes Alternative Ultimate Dragon, a total of five Dragon monsters.

So the attack power of Dragon Destroyer Swordsman increases by 5000!"

[Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman, ATK 2800 ATK 7800]

The audience exploded on the spot.

Attack power 7800?

Can this person actually reach such monster-level attack values so easily?

But it's not over yet!

"Also, as long as the Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman' is on the field, all Dragon monsters the opponent controls will be forcibly changed into defense position!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the dragon-slaying swordsman's power had already been activated. The white sword was thrust into the ground, a powerful aura was released like an overwhelming force, and the swordsman's domain dominated the entire scene.

The remaining Blue-Eyes White Dragon on Kaiba's field was unable to resist, and could only bend down reluctantly under the pressure of this force and change into a defensive state.

[Blue-Eyes White Dragon, ATK 3000 DEF 2500]

"Nani? Is he such a shameless monster?"

"Isn't this dragon-slaying swordsman actually Siegfried?"

Even Mokuba was a little panicked: "Brother!"

The professional explanation continued: "The effect of the Skilled White Magician' on the field is that each time a Spell Card is activated, place 1 Spell Counter on this card.

Because I have already activated Emblem of Dragon Destroyer' and Destruction Sword Fusion' this turn, I placed two Spell Counters. "

Sure enough, at this time, two indicator lights on the white mage's staff were on.

"Activate the Quick-Play Spell Hand Destruction! Players on both sides discard two cards in their hands, and then draw two cards!

At this moment, the Spell Counters on the Skilled White Magician' increased to three! "

Then he waved his hand.

By Tributing the Skilled White Magician with three Spell Counters on it, Special Summon 1 Buster Blader' from my hand, Deck, or GY.

The Dragon Slayer is here! "

Buster Blader, another card that triggered the president's memories. Looking at the handsome blue armor and the silver-white dragon-slaying sword, the president suddenly felt like he was back in Battle City, returning to the good old days when he and Atem were confronting each other.

That's right, Buster Blader was one of Atem's trump cards.

In fact, the entire deck of "Breaking Sword" was one of the systems derived from the ace card used by Atem in the past.

[Buster Blader, ATK 2600]

"The effect of Buster Blader! This card gains 500 ATK for each Dragon monster the opponent controls or is in their GY!"

There were a total of five dragons in Kaiba's field and GY, which was an increase of 2500!

[Buster Blader, ATK 2600 ATK 5100]

Mokuba's expression changed: "A monster with an attack power of 7800 and a monster with an attack power of 5100!"

"Not only that!" Professional Commentator geared up, "Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman's effect If this card attacks a Defense Position monster, inflict piercing battle damage!"

The defense power of the Blue-Eyes White Dragon that was forced to switch to Defense Position was 2500, and the attack power of the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman was 7800. One strike of the swordsman would cause 5300 damage, which was enough for an OTK!

At this moment, the onlookers deeply realized what a "Dragon Destroyer Swordsman" was.

This thing is really the slayer of all the dragons!

Even the "Blue-Eyes" who dominate at the top of the Dragon Type are unable to resist this terrifying power, right?

The audience couldn't help but start to get excited.

Will Seto Kaiba be killed by this strike?

Right here, right now, we will witness history!

"Go!" Professional Commentator shouted, "Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman', attack the Blue-Eyes White Dragon!!!"

The swordsman raised his white sword and made a desperate slash! The white dragon screamed feebly, but the suppression caused by the sword energy alone made it unable to move. It was impossible to resist in the face of such desperate power.

"Open the set card: Trap Card Power Wall!" Kaiba said calmly, "During damage calculation, when I would take battle damage from an opponent's attacking monster: Send 1 card from the top of my Deck to the GY for every 500 damage (round up) I would take, instead."

The data flow turned into cards, one after another, like water spitting out of the slot of his Duel Disk.

Kaiba pulled out a handful of cards in one go.

"I send eleven cards to the graveyard, and the battle damage becomes 0!"

Eleven cards flew in mid-air, decomposed into data streams, and converged to form a light blue barrier. The Destruction Sword arbitrarily smashed the white dragon, but the aftermath of the sword energy was completely blocked by this barrier, making it completely unshakable.

At any rate, he withstood the blow.

It's just that such defensive measures caused Kaiba to throw five dragons into the GY again, which once again became the power of the Buster Bladers.

[Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman, ATK 7800 ATK 12800]

[Buster Blader, ATK 5100 ATK 7600]

Seeing such an exploding attack power, everyone was dumbfounded.

Does it turn out that such a terrifying attack power still exists in the world?

With such a terrifying power, even the Egyptian God "Osiris the Sky Dragon" is no match, right?

(Osiris: I'll say it again, I'm a god! Not a dragon!)

Back in DM days, Atem summoned the "Buster Blader" to fight against the "Osiris the Sky Dragon". He used the power of BISS and said that because the sky dragon was a dragon, the Buster Blader's ATK would increase. At that time, Mr. Ma, due to unknown reasons, actually accepted this setting.

However, although his name was Sky Dragon, he belonged to the noble Divine-Beast Type, so this effect should not have anything to do with him.

But in this case, Kaiba's field has become empty.

"Buster Blader," Professional Commentator shouted, "attack directly!"

The screwball player held his breath, and the palms of his clenched fists were sweating.

I won!

There are no monsters, and there are no cards in the back row. The ATK of the Buster Blader is more than 7000. This sword will definitely bring me victory!

As we all know, President Kaiba and Kuriboh are lifelong enemies, and it is obviously impossible for him to take a Kuriboh out of his crotch.

Can you still print a Blue-Eyes Kuriboh?

Chapter 887: Destruction Sword Flash

"Brother!" Mokuba said anxiously.

Not only others, but even Yuei Vu was a little curious about how the president would resolve this fatal blow.

After all, based on his understanding of the president, he generally didn't like things like hand traps and grave traps.

"Activate the Spell Card Rescuer from the Grave' from the graveyard." Kaiba said coldly, "When an opponent's monster declares an attack while this card is in my Graveyard, I can remove from play 5 cards from my Graveyard to negate the attack and end the Battle Phase!" (Animation card)

Yuei Vu: ""

President, why did you steal Rafaels card?

Could it be that, President, you are still obsessed with the fact that Rafael stole Atem's first blood?

In addition to "Rescuer from the Grave", the four cards that were kicked out from the graveyard were the two dragons that had just been sent to the grave, one "Blue-Eyes Alternative Ultimate Dragon" and one "Blue-Eyes Alternative Dragon".

When four dragons disappeared from the graveyard, the attack power of Buster Blader and Dragon Destroyer Swordsman would naturally decrease.

[Buster Blader, ATK 7600 ATK 5600]

[Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman, ATK 12800 ATK 8800]

Disappointment came from Professional Commentator.

Kaiba, you have changed, you are actually buried a grave trap.

Perhaps the grave trap is the last sign of the president's stubbornness.

It is impossible to use Kuriboh. The president will never use Kuriboh in his life.

"Set a card, I end my turn." Professional Commentator was helpless.

"At this moment, the effects of the two The White Stone of Ancients' that were sent to the graveyard are activated!" President Kaiba shouted, "During the End Phase, if this card is in the GY because it was sent there this turn: I can Special Summon 1 Blue-Eyes' monster from my Deck!

There are two The White Stone of Ancients', so I can special summon two Blue-Eyes' monsters!"

But the Duel Disk didn't respond.

"What?" Kaiba frowned.

"Haha!" Professional Commentator had a look of success, "That won't work, President. Another effect of Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman!

As long as he is on the field, Dragon monsters in the opponent's possession cannot activate their effect!

The White Stone of Ancients is also a Dragon monster, so naturally its effects cannot be activated! "

"Cannot even use monster effects?" Mokuba was dumbfounded, "Isn't this too strong to be solved?"

"Huh, that's it."

Kaiba seemed to quickly accept this setting and just continued: "Then for my turn, draw!

Activate the Spell Card Akashic Record! Draw 2 cards and reveal them. If any of those cards have been played during the Duel, remove that card from play! (animation card)

This new card, which he had never seen before, caught Yuei Vu's attention again.

Good guy, the president secretly printed some good stuff behind my back.

Yuei Vu quickly began to plan to get all the cards later, but Mokuba seemed to have seen through it and said: "Brother Yuei Vu, I guess my brother may know that you are interested in this new card, so he deliberately asked people to prepare some copies for you. Just go to the warehouse over there to take it.

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows, not sure whether it was good news or bad news.

The good news, of course, was that there were new cards available, and he didn't need to put in any effort to acquire them.

The bad news was that he felt like he was getting better and better understood by the president, and Kaiba could even predict what he might want.

"Hmph, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman is indeed the most powerful weapon against dragons. You must be a capable duellist too." Kaiba glanced at the other party coldly.

Yuei Vu: No, no, no, president, you just happened to meet him on a rare lucky day when he didn't get any dead draw.

"But! If you think that sealing the dragons will make me helpless, then you are underestimating me, Seto Kaiba!" Kaiba shouted, "The Continuous Spell Different Dimension Hangar' is activated!" (Animation card)

Professional Commentator: "!"

Damn, I almost forgot, although the "Blue-Eyes" series was the favorite of President Kaiba, there are other systems in his deck.

Just like there are seven or eight systems in Muto Yugi's deck, not all Kaiba's deck is filled with dragons.

"Different Dimension Hangar's effect Remove from play 3 Level 4 or lower Union Monsters from my Deck! I remove Y-Dragon Head', Z-Metal Tank', and W-Wing Catapult' from the game!

Then I normal summon X-Head Cannon! "

[X-Head Cannon, ATK 1800]

"Activate the subsequent effect of Different Dimension Hangar! When a monster written in the card text of a Union Monster removed by its effect is Normal or Special Summoned to my side of the field, I can Special Summon that Union Monster.

Therefore, I specially summoned the Y-Dragon Head and Z-Metal Tank that have been removed from the game! "

[Y-Dragon Head, ATK 1500]

[Z-Metal Tank, ATK 1500]

"Then I removed X-Head Cannon, Y-Dragon Head, and Z-Metal Tank from the game!" Kaiba shouted, "Combine! Show up, XYZ-Dragon Cannon!!!"

The classic XYZ triple combination, the three machines were assembled into an invincible heavy armor, which fell heavily to the ground, and all the artillery was aimed at the two swordsmen on the opponent's field!

[XYZ-Dragon Cannon, ATK 2800]

"The effect of XYZ-Dragon Cannon' Discard 1 card, then target 1 card the opponent controls; destroy that target!" Kaiba said, having discarded a card in his hand into the graveyard, "Disappear, Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman!"

The ammunition was filled, the energy was charged, the dragon cannon's engine began to roar, and the golden heavy cannon was ready to blast the dragon-slaying swordsman to pieces at any time.

The Dragon Destroyer Swordsman had absolute suppressive power against dragons, both in terms of attack power and effect. However, he was powerless against mechanical weapons loaded with live ammunition.

"Open the set card!" Professional Commentator waved his arm, "Trap Card Destruction Sword Flash!"

The trap with the same name as the Destroyer Swordsman's sure-kill attack was, as its name suggested, a unique skill that determined victory or defeat with one strike!

"This card can only be activated if I control a Fusion Monster that lists Buster Blader' as Material.

Banish all monsters the opponent controls! "

"Nani!?"

The onlookers were shocked.

Banish all monsters?

Does the Buster Blader actually master such terrifying moves?

The Dragon Destroyer Swordsman's great sword had already been swung, and it was a flash of light that broke the dimension! The sword light split the space barrier, forming a long, deep, and dark crack, as if leaving a deep sword mark in the space!

The destruction sword flashed!

Nothing could stop that power, not even the powerful Dragon Cannon. The machine was quickly hit by the sword energy and disappeared to the other side of the dimension.

Kaiba's offensive was neutralized again!

Professional Commentator is getting more and more excited.

Very soon, very soon he would be the first player in the server to defeat a main character in the plot, and become a legend!

He had already foreseen that he would become famous in this battle and become a top player from then on. Not only could he become a master among players, he may also be recognized by President Kaiba and be able to influence NPCs.

The peak of life!

Emmm, but why does Kaiba seem a little unfazed?

To be honest, the president's reaction was so calm, which actually made him a little panicked.

Chapter 888: Do You Play Destruction Sword?

"Hmph, then activate the Spell Card Magic Planter'." Kaiba said coldly, "Send 1 face-up Continuous Spell I control to the GY; draw 2 cards." (Animation effect)

Although this card was called "Magic Planter", when it was converted to a real-life card, the cost of activation was changed from "Continuous Spell" to "Continuous Trap".

"I send the Continuous Spell Different Dimension Hangar' to the graveyard and draw two cards from the deck!"

The power of the XYZ-Dragon Cannon has also been cracked, but it seemed that President Kaiba still hasn't given up, and didn't seem to be shaken at all.

It was as if none of this could shake his confidence in victory.

He continued to draw cards, and with the new two cards in hand, he seemed to have gained a counterattack again.

"Spell Card Soul Taker'!" Kaiba directly showed a card, "Target 1 face-up monster the opponent controls; destroy that target, then the opponent gains 1000 LP!"

The monster I want to destroy, of course, is

Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman! "

If the monster effect didn't work, just use the removal magic directly. In the environment of this period, a card with excellent removal capabilities such as Soul Taker was still quite powerful. For a mere 1000 LP, you may be able to remove a powerful monster, which seemed to be a pretty good deal.

Rolling black clouds descended from mid-air, and the withered and ferocious devil's palm slowly reached towards the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman, as if the God of Death was about to harvest the swordsman's soul.

But a red card popped up in the graveyard area of Professional Commentator: "I activate the effect of the trap card Destruction Sword Flash' again!"

Mokuba was surprised: "Hasn't this card already been activated and entered the graveyard?"

But it's exactly because this card entered the graveyard that this effect could be activated!

"When a card or effect is activated that targets a Buster Blader' monster I control: I can banish this card from my Graveyard; negate that effect, and destroy that card!"

The Dragon Destroyer Swordsman's great sword swung again, splitting everything on its path. The white sword light cut all the demon's hands in two, turning them into dust and dissipating in the sky.

"So strong" a passerby couldn't help but sigh.

"Isn't this completely impeccable?"

"The monster's ability is severely suppressed. It double-suppresses the dragon monster's effects and attack values, and there are even certain killer moves like Destruction Sword Flash'. Even Seto Kaiba can't do anything about it, right?"

Mokuba couldn't help but become anxious, and pulled up the corner of Yuei Vu's clothes: "Brother Yuei Vu, my brother he can't be"

Yuei Vu smiled and touched his head.

"Don't worry, who do you think your brother is? Just watch."

"Oh oh."

Since Yuei Vu was so sure, Mokuba didn't panic.

No one know Kaiba on the stage couldn't heard Yuei Vu's words or not. He just glanced at the latter from the corner of his eye and snorted again.

"Activate the Spell Card Spell Books from the Pot'. Each player draw 3 cards."

As expected by Yuei Vu, the president, whose offensive methods were once again blocked, still did not terminate the operation: "The Spell Card Silent Doom! Target 1 Normal Monster in my GY; Special Summon it in face-up Defense Position!"

The symbol of rebirth appeared, and the data turned into cards and came into Kaiba's hands.

"Resurrect from the grave, my strongest servant..

Blue-Eyes White Dragon! ! ! "

The white dragon was resurrected from the graveyard and landed on the field with its sacred brilliance. Unfortunately, it was still immediately suppressed by the aura of the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman and could only remain on the defensive.

It's just that the "effect cannot be activated" restriction of the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman did not apply to the noble white dragon, because it had no effect in the first place.

[Blue-Eyes White Dragon, DEF 2500]

Mokuba continued to be puzzled: "In this case, even if he summon the white dragon"

But everyone knew the answer immediately.

Kaiba suddenly raised his voice: "You guys, maybe you think my Blue-Eyes are powerless in front of the blockade of the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman'?"

This level of blockade may be effective for ordinary dragons, but my Blue-Eyes are even better than that! "

The president kept saying "my Blue-Eyes", which made a certain white dragon girl in spiritual state lower her little head lower and lower, her face was so red that she looked like she was about to be steamed.

"Activate the Spell Card Burst Stream of Destruction!!!" President Kaiba waved his hand, "If there is a Blue-Eyes White Dragon' on my field, all monsters on the opponent's field will be destroyed!!!"

There was a commotion again in the venue, and all the spectators showed the same emotional expression

President Kaiba is awesome!

"That's right! Even if the effects of dragon monsters cannot be activated, the Spell Cards are effective!" Mokuba's eyes lit up.

Although "Burst Stream of Destruction" was indeed the effect of Blue-Eyes White Dragon, it exists in the form of a support card effect rather than the actual effect, so it naturally did not meet the effect restrictions of "Dragon Destroyer Swordsman".

This wave was the victory of Normie.

The Blue-Eyes White Dragon roared proudly and held her head high, as if she had just been exaggerated by her master and wanted to do her best to make him look good.

The storm of destruction brewed in White Dragon's mouth, and the light bullets surrounded by the wind swept across the entire place. Both the Buster Blader and the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman on Professional Commentator's field were shattered to pieces under the power of destruction and completely exited the stage.

The audience burst into applause!

"Awesome! As expected of my brother!" Mokuba applauded with all his strength.

He even felt stupid for questioning his brother's victory for a moment.

Mokuba couldn't help but glance at Yuei Vu beside him.

As expected, Brother Yuei Vu understands my brother best. After all, Brother Yuei Vu never thought about the possibility that his brother would lose from the beginning.

Professional Commentator raised his arms in front of his face and was speechless.

It is said in the forum that as long as the plot NPC still has cards in his hand, you can't let down your guard no matter what kind of situation it is. Now it seems to be true.

Under the premise of such a powerful and comprehensive blockade by the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman, he successively called the XYZ-Dragon Cannon in one turn, and although the machine was solved, in the end the field was still cleared by Kaiba.

But it still doesn't matter!

The white dragon's spray ended, and the aftermath of the blast bomb dissipated. A vortex opened up on the player's empty field, and a card spun and flipped, flying into the air.

It's a trap card.

"As expected of President Kaiba, you are really strong." Professional Commentator smiled, "But I seem to be lucky today.

Activate the trap card 'Destruction Sword Memories' from the graveyard! Banish this card from my Graveyard; Fusion Summon 1 'Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman' from my Extra Deck, by banishing Fusion Materials listed on it from my Graveyard! "

Mokuba was so shocked that he almost jumped up.

"A trap launched from the graveyard, used to Fusion Summon in the graveyard!?"

Obviously, it was one of the two cards that was thrown to the graveyard by the Quick-Play Spell "Hand Destruction" in the last turn.

"I banish 'Troop Dragon' and 'Buster Blader' in the graveyard!

The fusion condition is 1 'Buster Blader' + 1 Dragon monster! Fusion Summon!

'Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman, come again! ! ! "

The Army Dragon and the Destroyer Swordsman emerge from the graveyard and disappear outside the dimension respectively. But the two forces they left behind quickly merged, were involved in an endless whirlpool, and turned into a white beam of light that penetrated the earth.

With his thick white armor and huge sword blade, the unparalleled dragon-slaying swordsman left the scene in just a few seconds before returning, and the overwhelming field once again suppressed the entire audience!

[Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman, ATK 2800 ATK 8800]

Passersby were stunned.

"Ah this"

At this stage of the duel, it was already beyond their imagination.

I'm afraid the KC Cup final may not be as valuable as this duel, right?

Mokuba, who was cheering just now, was instantly petrified on the spot.

"You're lying, right? The Dragon Destroyer Swordsman, who my brother managed to defeat with great difficulty, can still come back under such circumstances." Mokuba was completely dumbfounded.

The screwball player showed a proud smile under the Bambi headdress.

Oh, it should be there this time, right?

Can you still print a card and solve it for me again?

I won!

Although there was some luck involved, he still won! Now he is only one step away from victory. When his turn comes, he only needed a simple command. The Dragon Destroyer Swordsman with an attack power of 8800 swings the sword of judgment in his hand

"Hahahahaha!!!"

President Kaiba raised his head and burst out laughing in three parts, startling everyone including his opponent.

The smile of Professional Commentator suddenly stiffened.

Damn it? President, don't tell me that you can still have a reversal move?

"Very good!" Kaiba said, "Although you were a little tricky, you also proved your ability as a duelist!"

It seemed that President Kaiba didn't care about the opponent using the Destruction Sword to trick him. He was very satisfied with the game and was quite happy playing it.

But it's not over yet.

"The Spell Card Advance Draw! Tribute 1 Level 8 monster, draws two cards from the deck! I use the Blue-Eyes White Dragon' as a sacrifice and draws two cards!"

The white dragon turned into dots of light and dispersed. Kaiba drew two cards again, and then immediately showed one of the cards in his hand.

"Then, because the Blue-Eyes White Dragon has disappeared from my field, I activate the Spell Card Card of Adversity!" Kaiba said, "If I control no monsters and the opponent controls a Special Summoned monster: Draw 2 cards! (animated card)

Speeding up the cards again, the president naturally had another reversal move in his hand.

"Spell Card Dragon's Mirror! Fusion Summon 1 Dragon Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, by banishing Fusion Materials listed on it from my field or GY!"

Kaiba drew out the three cards that popped up in the graveyard in one breath.

"Banish three Blue-Eyes White Dragon' cards from the graveyard and perform the ultimate fusion!"

The ultimate dragon that transcends the shackles of time and space, comes to me and brings the fruits of victory into my hands

Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon! ! ! "

With the triple fusion, three white dragons merged into one body around a pillar of light that shot straight into the sky, transforming into the ultimate posture of the strongest dragon clan in the light curtain!

[Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, ATK 4500]

Due to the decrease in the number of dragons, the attack power of the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman will naturally decrease accordingly.

[Buster Blader, the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman, ATK 8800 ATK 6800]

But that didn't change anything.

"Because of the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman's effect, the Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon switches to Defense Position." Professional Commentator said.

[Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, ATK 4500 defense power 3800]

But the moment he saw the Ultimate Dragon, he had actually guessed what the president was going to do next.

Dont be Shining Dragon, dont be Shining Dragon, please

"The Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon' is here as a sacrifice! The ultimate dragon, the form of a god after evolving over endless years

Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon, summon! ! ! "

Kaiba chanted loudly, the shell of the ultimate white dragon shattered, the light dragon shone like a supernova, and the sharp roar drowned out the wails of Professional Commentator.

Kaiba's true ace, the ultimate weapon in the anime Blue-Eyes series, the Blue-Eyes Dragon was said to surpass even the gods!

Of course, the pressure brought by the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman also fell on the light dragon, but the sacred white dragon of light roared, and the radiance released from his body instantly shattered the field of the Destruction Sword into pieces!

"When Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon is affected by Spell, Trap, or monster effects, the controller can choose to accept or not accept it at will!" Kaiba shouted, "I choose not to accept the effect of Dragon Destroyer Swordsman!"

Professional Commentator: ""

However, with the arrival of the light dragon, the attack power of the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman has also increased to a terrifying 7800 points. Even the mighty Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon didn't have enough power to defeat him.

But it didn't matter.

"The final ability of Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon' is activated! Shining Nova!!!" Kaiba shouted, "Use Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon' as a sacrifice and destroy any card on the field!

Disappear completely this time, Dragon Destroyer Swordsman, Destruction Swordsman!" "

Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon's armor operated at full strength, all indicators lit up, the ultra-high concentration of energy radiated from its body, and the surrounding environment seemed to be slightly distorted by the high temperature!

Without any means of defense, this is a force that not even the destructive swordsman known as the "Professional Dragon Slayer" can withstand. The shining new star melted the armor of the Dragon Destroyer Swordsman into molten iron, and the sword broke into several pieces.

The intense white light made it difficult to open one's eyes.

Professional Commentator raised his arms to protect himself.

In this way, both sides of the field became empty, and he had no resources to counterattack, but at least there was a chance to draw cards in the next turn.

Just need to draw that card

Nani!?

The light dissipated, the smoke dissipated, and he was stunned to see the shining light dragon still flying above the seahorse's head, condescendingly looking down on the world like an ancient god.

"Activate the Equip Spell Premature Burial." Kaiba said calmly, "Pay 800 LP to resurrect the Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon' in the GY."

[Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon, ATK 3000]

"Furthermore, Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon' will gain 300 ATK for each Dragon monster in my GY." Kaiba said calmly, "There are now a total of four dragons in my graveyard."

[Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon, ATK 3000 ATK 4200]

Sha Diao, everyone was dumbfounded at this time.

"Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon." Kaiba gave the final order, "Attack directly."

The white impact swallowed everything, and the wave of energy stirred up the entire venue, echoing under the dome for a long time without dissipating.

[Professional Commentator, LP4000 LP0]

Chapter 889: Opening Ceremony

Dragon Destroyer Swordsman was defeated!

All the audience applauded without hesitation, affirming this exciting and high-level duel.

There must be no one in this era who has not heard of Seto Kaiba's name. Everyone knew that he was one of the strongest duelists standing at the top of the pyramid, the legendary boss, but most of them have only heard of this name. There were not many people who are actually lucky enough to see Kaiba's performance with their own eyes.

There was no other way. In order to vigorously develop the company's affairs and promote the construction of the Duel Monsters business, President Kaiba sealed his deck and retired many years ago.

Well at least that's what he told the outside world.

However, Yuei Vu knew that it was best not to mention the words "sealing the deck and retiring" in front of the president. The president could go around and tell people that he has quit being addicted to card, but whenever Yuei Vu mentioned it, the president would suffer from the old problem of selective amnesia, as if he has completely forgotten about it.

At this time, the president would often take out his deck that was said to have been "sealed" at the speed of light: "Yuei Vu ! It's time to end it!"

As we all knew, President Kaiba's deck would only be sealed when it needed to be sealed.

It was rare that Kaiba played such a card game in person, which was a feast for the eyes of the audience. Even before the opening ceremony started, the audience's emotions were already aroused, and everyone was in admiration for President Kaiba.

Seeing everyone in Kaiba leaving the stage with applause and cheers, Keihei turned to Yu Yu and said, "Okay, let's go backstage too."

But Yuei Vu did not move. He stared straight in the direction where the Bambi-headed screwball had just stepped down and disappeared.

"You go first, I suddenly have something to do and I will be there soon."

"Eh? But the opening ceremony is in ten minutes, and my brother has to prepare to give a speech"

"It doesn't matter." Yuei Vu waved his hand, "I listen to that boring segment once a year. It doesn't matter if I skip it once in a while."

Mokuba was stunned: "You mean my brother?"

"Ah? What? Oh no, I didn't mean that the president's speech was boring. Why would I think the president was boring?" Yuei Vu smiled and whispered, "Although maybe everyone thinks so except me."

The president's speech was not the same as the boredom of other leading tycoons.

Usually, the leader's speech just made you sleepy, but that was not the case with the president.

Yuei Vu had suspected more than once that President Kaiba's vision and thinking might not be on the same level as those of ordinary people since he developed the dimensional shuttle system.

Sometimes it's the release of a new Duel Disk, or the opening speech of a game it's clearly a card-themed activity, but he could raise it to the level of country, nation, religion, war, etc., and sometimes it could even involve profound philosophy.

Not to mention other passers-by, even Yuei Vu sometimes looked confused and just wanted to say one thing to the president

Who can understand these things?

Of course, as long as the president was happy, that was enough.

Yuei Vu quickly went to find the player named "Professional Commentator" who had just played cards with the president. The latter was obviously very excited to meet the legendary Yuei Vu-san here and acted very proactively and enthusiastically.

This saved Yuei Vu a lot of trouble. He had a brief but in-depth exchange with this player, reached a consensus without much effort, and got a "Buster Blader" from the other player's hand.

Destruction Sword Series, acquired!

In return, Yuei Vu opened a special channel for him he could be exempted from the assessment and directly invited to Duel Academy as one of the second batch of tutors recruited by the academy from players.

Because the teaching performance of the first batch of tutors so far has been pretty good, Yuei Vu planned to expand the tutor team. In the second batch, he planned to recruit more players into the academy of course, even with the huge base of players, only a very small number of people would be able to enjoy this privilege.

A mentorship meant the opportunity to officially join the GX storyline starting from this school year. This was an attractive offer that no player could refuse.

"Thank Yuei Vu-san!" Professional Commentator swept away the dejection caused by the defeat in the duel just now, "Yuei Vu-san, I assure you, this is definitely an extremely correct decision!

I have discovered since I was a child that I have a special talent for education, and I am especially good at teaching girls. It is best to be someone who has just entered the first year, has a shy personality, is very clingy to the teacher, and can act coquettishly and coyly"

Seeing that Yuei Vu's eyes looked a little weird, he quickly changed his words: "Oh, it's okay to be older, I don't mind if it's a bit older. Arrogant, sinister, or opinionated, I can handle it no matter what type it is!"

Yuei Vu-san, please arrange for me to go to the girls' dormitory of Obelisk Blue. I saw that in the animation, they are all very bigah, they are all very talented! They are all good seedlings worth cultivating! "

"Tutors are assigned according to the academy. Each tutor is only responsible for one student assigned to him."

"Huh?" Professional Commentator was a little confused.

Doesn't that mean that it's possible for me to be assigned to a fat, foot-picking guy who doesn't take a shower for a month and has cockroaches crawling in the dormitory?

No, that doesn't seem to be the worst

"Marufuji Sho?" he asked cautiously.

"He has been assigned." Yuei Vu said.

Professional Commentator breathed a sigh of relief.

It's okay, okay, if it wasn't for that Marufuji Sho, it would be easier to say

"But since you have mentioned his name, I can communicate with his mentor and reassign him to you."

Professional Commentator almost jumped up: "No, no, no, no, no, haha, it's not good to steal other people's students, I should just obey the organization's arrangements"

For some reason, he suddenly felt that a fat, foot-picking guy who hadn't taken a shower for a month was not as unacceptable as before

Alice stood among the duelists participating in the KC Cup, listening to President Kaiba's impassioned speech at the opening ceremony, but her mind was not on him at all.

All she could think about was the Duel King named Yuei Vu.

Alice was originally a duelist in the underground arena, making a living by playing Shadow Games. She was powerful and well-known in the underground world.

Until one day she met that man.

The prophet who knew the past and the future and could discern destiny, Saio Takuma.

She once ignorantly tried to challenge Lord Saio, but the outcome was of course her complete defeat, just as her fate had already been determined.

The moment her LP returned to zero, she felt the light.

The surging, steady stream of light poured into her body like a flood that broke through a floodgate, filling her to the brim.

It's all going to overflow.

From then on she completely transformed into the shape of light.

Saio-samas prediction is absolute!

She had never been so grateful for a defeat in a duel that defeat to Saio made her see the true meaning of the world in an instant. She realized that everyone was a puppet of fate, pulled by crisscrossing complex threads and dancing along a predetermined trajectory.

Like a bee that spent its entire life dancing along the figure eight.

But now Saio told her that there was a person who jumped out of the chessboard of fate and deviated from this trajectory!

This was unacceptable to her as a true believer.

Alice silently clenched her fists and made up her mind.

Lord Saio, I will never let you down.

I will prove with actions that even the so-called Duel King is nothing but a tiny speck of dust in front of our great wheel of destiny!

Chapter 890: Right Behind You

Yuei Vu sat on the sofa in the VIP room with his legs crossed. The huge projection screen in front of him was broadcasting the live broadcast of the KC Cup match.

The first round had just begun, which meant that no player had been eliminated yet. This also meant that the quality of the players varied greatly, and in many games, there were novices pecking each other.

Of course, that's only from Yuei Vu's perspective, but in fact, all the players invited to the KC Cup could already be regarded as first-class experts.

At least the spectators who were invited to the scene were very happy and felt that the game was worth the price of admission. It seemed that they were quite enthusiastic about the traditional rhythm of "I summon one, you summon one".

In fact, many viewers who were not very advanced even felt that compared to Yuei Vu's dazzling operations where monsters on the field jump wildly and a lot of heroes land around in one turn, a duel between ordinary masters was more suitable for them.

Yes, the Duel King's game was very strong. It could make people feel suffocating pressure and is extremely gorgeous. It reflected the power of super beings in a different dimension.

But the problem was passers-by couldn't understand it!

Especially when the high-frequency operation was carried out in actual combat, passers-by only saw the situation on the field changing rapidly. Those masters made a lot of big monsters that they could only imagine in their dreams sometimes there was more than one and then it may snap and disappear in the next second.

It really felt like magic.

Of course, those were just ordinary people watching the show, serious duelists could at least understand what operation was performed. After all, it was different from real-life card playing. Card playing in this world was assisted by three-dimensional images, and the effect processing can be intuitively presented to the audience. Moreover, the duelist had the obligation to explain in detail every effect he activated during the combo.

This made the process a lot longer, but it also helped most people understand what happened on the field.

So from Yuei Vu's perspective, the duel being broadcast live on the screen at this moment really had no highlights.

The process was roughly like this:

Player A summoned Tyhone, which had a decent attack power of 1200. It was Player B's turn to play. Player B actually summoned the rare card Winged Dragon, Guardian of the Fortress #1, which was so powerful! Tyhone was instantly killed with one strike!

But Player A did not relax his countermeasures at all, and immediately summoned Oh my god, he actually summoned Panther Warrior, a Level 4 monster with the attack power of two thousand! However, Panther Warrior could not attack without a sacrifice. Player B temporarily survived.

Oh, player B had tribute summoned Ryu Kokki, whose attack power was as high as 2400, which was very scary. Even if it faced the legendary salty fish ah, no, the legendary Red-Eyes Black Dragon, it wouldn't back down!

So it looks like we could congratulate Player B in advance for winning this game.

Mirror Force! Oh my God, Player A actually activated "Mirror Force", a super-rare trap that could instantly erase all advantages and change the situation! Player B's monster was instantly killed!

It's wonderful, simply wonderful! Thanks to both players for bringing us such a wonderful duel.

Yes, it was so exciting, so exciting that Yuei Vu even started to yawn.

Before setting off last night, he taught Chika how to play cards too late (this time he really taught her how to play cards). He didn't have a good rest and was not in good spirits. After watching for a while, Yuei Vu seemed to hear Sandman's kind whispers starting to ring in his ears.

"Are you bored?" Mokuba handed him a bag of snacks.

"It's not bad." Yuei Vu tore open the snack bag, "When I went to the opera house last month, I started to doze off within a minute. Now I've been able to hold on for five minutes, which means it's not that bad."

Chika, who was sitting next to him and was sipping milk tea, suddenly said in a calm tone: "I lasted longer last night."

Yuei Vu's eyelids twitched: "Don't misunderstand, it's dueling teaching. I usually teach her dueling knowledge, but sometimes it's a bit boring"

Mokuba didn't ask any more questions, he just smiled slyly, as if to say: Hey Brother Yuei Vu, I'm not a child either, I understand everything I should know.

The Dark Magician Girl in casual clothes was cleaning out the basket of snacks, and she tilted her head in confusion.

Master, what are you talking about? Why don't I seem to understand?

"Ahem, apart from dueling with the champion, do I have anything else to do today?"

Yuei Vu coughed twice and changed the subject. He tore open the package of a bag of potato chips, and Chika gestured as if she wanted to eat. He casually grabbed a piece of potato chips and threw it into her open mouth.

"Probably not." Mokuba thought for a while, "Oh, by the way, there may be an interview. I will have someone prepare a manuscript for you then."

"No need." Yuei Vu waved his hand, "I happened to still have the manuscript from last time with me, so I used it."

Mokuba was stunned: "But haven't you already used that manuscript? The interview for that event in June?"

"Yes. But do you remember what I said that time?"

Mokuba thought hard for a moment and finally gave up: "I don't remember."

"What a coincidence, I don't remember either." Yuei Vu smiled, "Isn't that right? No one remembers it."

Mokuba: ""

"So which newspaper is it?" Yuei Vu ate a piece of snacks himself and took the time to throw one to Chika.

"Uh let me take a look." Mokuba took out a terminal and flipped through it a few times, "Domino Daily News."

"Huh? These people?"

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows and unconsciously stopped feeding.

Apparently, he didn't have a good impression of the newspaper.

Mokuba was confused: "What's wrong?"

"Their report last year described Yuei Vu as The Successor of Ghoul' and The Duel Disk Harvester'."

Chika said, her little head came over, opened her mouth, and took away the potato chip in Yuei Vu's hand.

Mokuba was in awe: "How dare they reveal your secret like this?"

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows. Mokuba realized that the wording was wrong and quickly changed his words: "Ah, no, I mean How dare they spread such nonsense rumors? It's so outrageous! It's completely false and irresponsible!"

He laughed out loud as he spoke.

Yuei Vu rolled his eyes: "But not all their reports are nonsense."

Mokuba said to himself: Actually, I think the article just now is not nonsense, it respects the facts

"They also commented on President Kaiba."

"Oh? What did they say about my brother?" Mokuba became interested.

"They say the president is different from ninety-nine percent of the men in the world."

"That's a fact." Mokuba was still proud when talking about his brother. "He has extraordinary courage, creativity, and determination, as well as extraordinary talents in any field. Most people cannot compare to him."

"No. They say, Ninety-nine percent of men think with their lower half, but that does not include Seto Kaiba he thinks with his Duel Disk."

Mokuba: ""

Yuei Vu threw a piece of potato chips into his mouth and said seriously: "I can't say I agree with the first half of this sentence, but I totally agree with the second half."

The resentment against a royal card-playing machine named Seto Kaiba.

Mokuba hesitated to speak: "Brother Yuei Vu."

"What?"

"My brother, he is right behind you."

Yuei Vu: "!!?"
