

I QUIT MR 389

Chapter 389 The Thoughts Of Anana

Shaffer Group. "I cannot approve your payment request," Isabella calmly stated as Ariana sat across from her, expecting the rejection.

"Ms. Years, Nemotors' production line cannot be interrupted. Renting the production line is a necessary requirement," Mandy, sitting next to Isabella, added, her gaze at Ariana slightly changed.

The first time she met Isabella, she seemed gentle and polite, but now that Seth wasn't here, her true colors were revealed.

Ariana sighed, stood up, and poured a glass of water for each of them. "Isabella, it wouldn't be fair if I approved your request. It is too urgent, the amount is too large, and most importantly, you have just taken office, and something has happened. If I approve your request now, how will others perceive you?"

USB drive, and quickly modified a contract.

"Anything under 1.5 million is not considered a large request, so you do not have to worry about taking responsibility.”

Ariana smiled faintly, accepting the contract handed over by Isabella.

“Do you really have a problem with me, Ms. Years?” Isabella interrupted her.

Ariana pursed her lips, “Of course not.”

“Then please sign the papers.”

Isabella casually picked up Ariana’s pen from her desk, gently removing the cap.

The Years went bankrupt over ten years ago. Her father went from being a businessman to a legal consultant for the Shaffer Group, and her cousins, who grew up with her, suddenly became distant because of the difference between their statuses.

How could she not resent this?

She had worked hard over the years, only wanting to turn the tide with her own abilities.

But all her pride was twisted the moment she was forced to return home for an arranged date.
