

I Regained My Memories and Became Rich After Getting Divorced - Chapter 9

Gu Ming could only agree with a livid face, as he was not in the upper hand at the moment.

Moreover, when Gu Ming learned that Gu Dai might be alive, he had immediately arranged for the company's assets to be transferred overseas. Now, the Gu Group was nothing more than an empty shell. If Gu Dai wanted it, then he would give it to her!

He wanted to see how long she could hold on.

Gu Ming stopped talking, and the people following him didn't say anything either, as they didn't receive any instructions.

Gu Dai nodded in satisfaction and then said, "Since everyone has no objections now, I will announce one more thing. I believe everyone is familiar with Lin Sheng. Starting from today, he will resume his position as the chairman's special assistant!"

This was also an announcement. After she said, "dismissed!" Gu Dai left with Lin Sheng.

Gu Dai contacted Lin Sheng on her way to the Gu Group. At the time, Lin Sheng felt incredibly incredulous when he received the call, and he almost dropped his phone to the ground.

Although Lin Sheng did indeed see Gu Dai, he was still somewhat dazed at the moment, looking at the person before him. He was afraid that this was just an illusion created by his longing.

Lin Sheng's voice trembled as he asked, "Miss Gu Dai, is it really you who came back?"

Gu Dai showed no impatience when she heard the question and patiently replied, "Uncle Lin, it's me, I'm back!"

After Lin Sheng received Gu Dai's affirmative answer, he burst into tears, "That's great! It must be Mr. and Mrs. watching over the young lady! How have you been these past three years, Miss?"

Gu Dai hesitated for a moment, and her face revealed a bitter emotion.

She didn't want anyone to know about her experiences during these three years. Her lips were tightly pursed, and her fists turned white from clenching.

Gu Dai took a deep breath, hiding her emotions, and spoke softly, "Not very good, but it's all in the past. In any case, I'm back now, and my purpose in returning is to take back the company. This step has been completed, but some people may not accept me. I might need Uncle Lin's help."

Lin Sheng became emotional with Gu Dai's words. In fact, even without Gu Dai's words, he would have done so!

Lin Sheng said loudly and firmly, "I will definitely use all my knowledge and not let you down!" Indeed, he hadn't misjudged her; she would surely be able to support the entire Gu family in the future!