

Identity 1041

Chapter 1041

The couple, Wu Donghai and Xue Yaqin, stayed close to each other, staring at their phones, watching the thrilling and completely crushing video.

When she saw her brother strangling his sister-in-law, her entire body had panicked to the extreme, and when she saw her brother welded to death in the car, along with the car sinking into the river, her entire body completely collapsed, her legs went limp, and she collapsed to the ground.

Immediately afterwards, she cried out in utter despair, "Nan Shan! My brother! You died horribly! If you die, the Xue family will be finished! How do you want my sister to face our parents and our ancestors in the Xue family!"

Afterwards, she hit the ground with her fist as hard as she could, her mouth roaring hysterically, "My good brother, tell my sister who killed you! I'll chop him into pieces to avenge you! This man is so cruel!"

As soon as Wu Xin saw that his mother's fist had been smashed to a bloody pulp, he hurriedly went forward and grabbed her hand, advising, "Mom, brother-in-law is already gone, so don't be like this ....."

Xue Yaqin went crazy and grabbed her husband's collar with a death grip, shaking her mouth desperately and roaring madly, "Wu Donghai, what kind of people killed your brother-in-law?! You have to find him! Bring him to me so that I may kill him with my own hands and avenge my brother's death!"

Wu Donghai was extremely agitated at this point.

He didn't care if Xue Nanshan was dead or alive.

It could even be said that he had long wished for Xue Nanshan's death.

He had long since had enough of such a useless thing like Xue Nanshan, having a brother-in-law like himself backing him up, and doing that dirty thing of trafficking women and children, which would only bring shame and disgrace to his own face!

But he had never thought that Xue Nanshan would die in such a way.

It didn't matter if he died.

But if he died, he couldn't implicate the entire Wu family ah!

Now it's a good thing that this little bastard blamed everything on the Wu family before he died!

He even publicly named names and said he was backing him up, so isn't that pushing him over the edge?

How does this make the outside world see the Wu family and themselves?

I didn't even have to think about it, I knew that the Wu family's reputation must be in tatters and in shambles by now!

It's all thanks to that son of a bitch Xue Nanshan!

Just at this time, Wu Donghai's assistant quickly ran over and took off, "Chairman, it's not good Chairman, now the whole country is scolding the Wu family, scolding you, the brokerage firm just called me and said that if the situation goes on like this, tomorrow several of our listed group shares will open and immediately fall and stop, and will fall and stop at least 10 times in a row! At that time, the entire Wu family will lose a large portion of their assets!"

The worst fear of a listed company is a collapsing reputation.

Once a public company is exposed to a huge scandal, the first thing to come out of it is the stock price, and the stock will keep falling, and falling, to a point that no one dares to imagine!

1042

There are companies with market caps of over $10 billion that can end up dropping just a few hundred million, with assets shrinking as much as 90+!

There are companies that produce just a little problem with their products and may end up falling into bankruptcy, but what's that compared to the charges of the Wu family?

It was possible that the Wu family would end up taking all the blame for Xue Nanshan's Beggars this time, all the depraved things he had done!

Wu Donghai was extremely nervous at this point, because he knew very well that what the Wu family was facing this time, could be the end of the world!

So he immediately said to his assistant, "Immediately issue a statement in the name of the group, although it is true that Xue Nanshan is my Wu Donghai's brother-in-law, our Wu family has no knowledge of what Xue Nanshan has done, all of Xue Nanshan's actions are his personal responsibility, I, Wu Donghai, and the entire Wu family do not know and are not clear, at the same time, we will also testify to ourselves to the police, as weThere is no direct relationship with all of Xue Nanshan's illegal activities, so please don't be misled or carried away by people who are interested!"

The assistant immediately nodded and took off, "Okay Chairman, I'll go arrange for a statement right now!"

Xue Yaqin was immersed in the great pain of losing her brother, and at the same time the family bloodline was severed, suddenly heard her husband say that he wanted to leave all relations with his brother, and suddenly said in annoyance, "Wu Donghai you people still have no conscience, Nan Shan but your brother-in-law, he is my own brother ah, he is now killed, he was murdered can you understand? Not only did you not avenge him, but you've even left him out of it! You're still not human!"

Wu Donghai was also getting angry, because if this matter was not handled properly, it was likely that the entire Wu family would be implicated.

Seeing that this wife of his is still defending her damned brother to this day, Wu Donghai is resentful and curses harshly, "If it wasn't for your bastard brother, how could my Wu family be so passive? I told you a long time ago to dissuade him from doing such a depraved thing, and you just wouldn't listen!"

"You've protected him and defended him in every way, and you won't even let me say a word, but now it's good that someone has taken the place of God, and it doesn't matter if he dies, he's dragged my Wu family into it!"

Upon hearing this, Xue Yaqin's entire body was almost so angry that she was on the verge of collapsing, she gritted her teeth and raised her hand to grab Wu Donghai's face.

Wu Donghai couldn't dodge, and his face was immediately scratched out by Xue Yaqin, creating several bloody paths!

Xue Yaqin's nails were already long, making the strength so great that it directly scratched his flesh, so much so that the seams of her own fingernails were all covered in bloody flesh!

Wu Donghai was screaming in pain and even more angry, he grabbed Xue Yaqin's collar and raised his hand to her face, slapping her several times.

As he slapped her, he cursed, "Xue Yaqin do you know?Your brother's killing me!I've long been intolerant of this brother of yours, if it wasn't for your face, I would have killed him without anyone else having to do it, do you know what I regret the most now?What I regret most is that I didn't kill the son of a bitch he was!Now he's transformed into a bomb and died himself, blowing me up too!"

Xue Yaqin and Wu Donghai hadn't been beaten up since they were married for so many years.

Now that her brother was dead, she had suddenly been slapped so many times by Wu Donghai that her entire body had completely lost her mind.

"Wu Donghai you're not human!I was blind and I misjudged you!If you don't help my brother avenge his death, I'll go myself, and from today onwards, I have nothing more to do with you!"

After saying that, Xue Yaqin got up and was about to run out.

Wu Xin wanted to chase after her, but Wu Donghai snapped sternly, "Come back here!Why are you chasing her now?Are you trying to get us into trouble by chasing her back?Don't you know what's most important to the Wu family right now?"

Wu Xin came to a sudden realization and took off, "Dad!I'm going to get a group of sailors to help us clear our names right now!Spend any amount of money you want!"

While the internet was abusing the Wu family, the Wu's statement had been published through all the major channels.

But all the netizens could tell that it was a throwaway statement to clear the air.

Everyone knew that for someone as capable as Wu Donghai, it was impossible for him not to know what profession his brother-in-law was engaged in.

Coming out to skim off everything at a time like this simply didn't have any credibility.

Moreover, there were already many people on the internet who had already picked up Xue Nanshan's life history.

The Xue family was originally a very downtrodden family in the south, not only did they not have much money, but their people were not prosperous enough.

It wasn't until the Xue family's daughter, Xue Yaqin, married Wu Donghai that the Xue family was able to make some headway.

However, Xue Yaqin's parents were not so lucky. Soon after their daughter's marriage, they died of cancer.

At the time of their deaths, Xue Nanshan was still an unemployed, idle second son.

At that time, Xue Nanshan relied solely on his sister Xue Yaqin's subsidies, living a life of drunkenness and dreaming of death.

Later on, Xue Nanshan started to slowly make his fortune, and his starting point was the Beggars' Gang.

And many people also exposed the development trajectory of the beggar's gang online.

In fact, in earlier years, the Beggar's Gang was divided into several, Xue Nanshan's Beggar's Gang did not have much competitiveness, and even several times were almost annexed by more powerful forces.

Until one time, after his brother-in-law Wu Donghai stepped in to settle the crisis for him, no one in the entire south knew that Xue Nanshan was Wu Donghai's brother-in-law.

It was precisely because everyone had to see Wu Donghai's face that Xue Nanshan was able to develop step by step to this day.

So, at this time, Wu Donghai coming out and saying that he had nothing to do with Xue Nanshan and that he didn't know what Xue Nanshan was doing was simply not enough to convince anyone.

Not only could he not convince the majority of netizens, he was even despised by the majority of netizens for jumping out and dumping the blame at this time.

So much so that the online voices scolding the Wu family were even louder, and this time everyone was aiming directly at Wu Donghai, 80 all of them.

Wu Donghai never dreamed that he would make a statement, but instead it had the opposite effect.

Rather than being a dumping text, he was more of a war drawer, a statement that drew all the fires of war to himself.

Seeing the countless people on the internet sending out, every second, all sorts of abusive content and posts about himself, Wu Donghai wanted to die.

Wu Xin saw his dad being scolded as a dead dog online, being abused back and forth by hundreds of millions of netizens, his heart was really intolerant, plus the desire to show off was very strong, so he immediately spent a heavy amount of money and hired a water army that specialized in washing people's names for them online.

The head of the navy is quite capable, he specializes in whitewashing evil people, as long as you pay him, even if it's black he can say white, even if it makes him go against the world, he has nothing to fear.

In fact, there are many scum like this on the Internet, this person specializes in making a profit for himself by smearing others or justifying sinners.

For example, in the entertainment industry, it often happens that the wife of a celebrity couple cheats on her husband, but she instead spends money to find such scum to smear her husband in order to keep herself out of the public eye and her own career intact, backstabbing him for cheating outside, or backstabbing him for being obsessed with gambling and disregarding his family.

In this way, her husband is verbally abused and she can safely continue to get away with it.

This navy leader has done a lot of these things in his earlier years.

Then there was a chance that brought him into a relationship with the Wu family.

Earlier, Wu Xin's younger brother, Wu Qi, had also been exposed on the Internet for messing around with psychological hints to little girls and inducing a girl to jump off a building.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest addition to the family, the newest addition to the family, the newest addition to the family, the newest addition to the family.

The parents died after taking drugs, the navy leader also deliberately suppressed the news that the two have died by suicide, but also specially fabricated lies, claiming that the two from the Wu family fraud and extortion away, tens of millions of dollars in compensation, and then emigrated to the United States.

Uninformed netizens still thought it was all true, and abused the other parent when they were already dead.

The head of the navy is not only not ashamed, but also proud of it, often claiming that it is a classic example of his white-washed public relations.

This shows how much of a loser this person really is.

What's even more ridiculous is that this navy leader is so lowly and despicable that he even gave himself a screen name, called Safe and Sound!

This time, the leader of the navy, who was called the An An, after receiving the 20 million remitted by the Wu family, began his performance once again.

He posted on various websites, claiming, "The majority of netizens have been taken advantage of by people with sinister intentions, Wu Donghai is the most famous entrepreneur and the biggest philanthropist in Jiangnan, no one is more concerned about the health and safety of minors than him, how could he condone Xue Nanshan and do these harmful things? This matter is clearly a deliberate attempt by someone to frame the Wu family and make it collapse, so that he can profit from it."

He even swore to the heavens in his post, "If I make half a false statement, the heavens will strike five thunderbolts and the whole family will die."

In order to make people believe him, he specifically listed the Wu Group's competitors in various fields and claimed that all of these companies could be behind it, and it was even very likely that these companies had joined forces to try to deal with the Wu family.

Then, this person also mobilized his entire family to join together to bring the pace with the water army account.

At this moment, Ye Chen was still on the helicopter returning to Jinling.

He was casually brushing up on some internet portals and was quite pleased to see that everyone was targeting the Wu family.

Regardless of whether Wu Donghai was personally involved in these unconscionable things or not, he was the one who helped the culprit.

If he hadn't been backing up Xue Nanshan, Xue Nanshan wouldn't have had the chance to get up, much less torment so many minors.

So, even though Xue Nanshan was dead, the Wu family was bound to pay the price for this matter!

However, as he was browsing through the various comments, he suddenly found the post from the user called Peaceful and Conservative.

After reading it, he was greatly upset with this person's comments.

So, he instructed Richard Chen: "Find the best hacker and touch up this person's information to see if he received money from the Wu family, and if he did, expose all the chains of evidence to make the Wu family worse!"

Richard Chen immediately nodded, "Okay young master, I'll arrange it!"

Ye Chen added, "Right, locate this navy's actual address for me and capture him to Hongwu's dog farm!"

Richard Chen asked, "Young Master, what are you going to do with this navy?"

Ye Chen coldly said, "Rumor mongers, die!"

1045

This navy named Ani, was nothing more than a shamelessly ordinary person.

Although he had some ability to rally the navy, he was simply a transparent person in front of a truly top-notch hacker.

After the hacker hacked into his computer, he immediately investigated his personal information.<sup>78</sup> Chinese Update Fastest Computer End:https://

First of all, this person is from Huizhou Province and his home is in Lu'an City.

Secondly, this person did just receive the 20 million in cash that the Wu family remitted.

Again, this person foolishly used his own bank card to receive the money.

And the hacker also found the chat logs between him and Wu's family.

In the chat logs, Wu Xin asked if there was any way he could help wash the Wu family's money, and he immediately said that there were 10,000 ways he could help wash the money, and that he had done it more than once.

He also brought out the previous cases of helping Wu Qi whitewash and preached about them, in order to make Wu Xin believe in his strength and be willing to give him the list.

After the hacker got this information and chat logs, he immediately reported it to Richard Chen.

Chen Zekai reported back to Ye Chen and asked him, "How are you going to operate on this matter, Young Master?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "We should have eyes and ears in Lu'an, right?"

Richard Chen immediately nodded, "Of course, we have eyes in every city in the country."

"Good!" Ye Chen said with satisfaction, "In that case, stage it immediately and capture this person first. Lu An shouldn't be too far from Jinling, right?"

Chen Zekai said, "The straight line distance is only 200 kilometers out."

Ye Chen said, "Then the helicopter won't take an hour to arrive, so you have someone capture him now and use the helicopter to send him directly to Hong Wu's dog farm."

"In addition, after capturing the person, have the hackers expose all the information on the internet, I want the Wu family to be completely ruined."

"Okay!" Chen Zekai nodded and immediately began to give orders.

Lu'an was a small town in Hui Province, its economic development wasn't that developed, and its prices and consumption weren't that high.

And this navy leader who was called Ani, hadn't finished primary school, basically didn't have any culture, and originally belonged to the lower strata of society, to starve to death would also be the first to starve to death his kind.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest products that are available on the market, such as the newest products, the newest ones.

And today, the accident of the Wu family brought him an income of 20 million, which made him even more ecstatic.

At this time, he couldn't care about food, so he arranged work for those navy at home, and let them help the Wu family wash their hands of various methods, and even let them go to spread rumors about a popular star cheating on his wife, hoping to attract the heat of the Wu family news by spreading rumors about the star cheating on his wife.

Work like this was something he was already lightly familiar with, so he arranged it very smoothly.

However, he didn't know that at this moment, there was already a team of people who had set off from the city to head to his villa area.

Just when he had just finished arranging his work and was enjoying himself with a cigarette roll in his mouth, the villa's door was suddenly broken open with great force, using a door breaker!

Immediately afterwards, a team of heavily armed black-clad men swiftly stormed into the villa.

He and his family were suddenly scared out of their wits.

1046

One of the men in black stepped forward to him, put a gun to his forehead, and asked in a cold voice, "You're the peacekeeper?"

The navy leader was scared out of his wits and said hastily, "I'm not, I'm not!! don't understand what you're talking about, who are you?"

The man in black said coldly, "You'll soon find out who we are, come with us!"

The leader of the navy hurriedly shouted, "Go with you!Why did you break into my house?If you guys don't leave, I'm going to call the police!"

Two black-clothed men went straight forward, and one of them grabbed both of his arms and twisted them backwards, then broke both of his arms straight off.<sup>78</sup> Chinese Update Fastest Computer End:<https://>

The navy leader screams in pain, and the other man isn't going to spare him, so he slants down 45 degrees and kicks him so hard on both knees that he actually breaks both legs backwards from the knees!

The navy leader had almost fainted in pain, and his family was crying out in fear.

The man in black sneered, "Aren't you usually pretty good on the internet?Fingers crossed, just typing random words and daring to spout nonsense?Why did you lose it after two hits today?People like you aren't awesome at all in reality."

The navy leader cried in panic, "A few dads, a few grandfathers, I'm just a stinking hangnail, please let me go as an adult!I can pay you guys, I have plenty of money!"

One of the black-clothed men shouted angrily, "Making a few stinking bucks by selling your conscience, and you're out of your depth?Dogs like you live in vain!"

With that, he pulled out a cigar cutter, grabbed the other man's right hand, and said in a cold voice, "Don't you live on 10 fingers?Well, today I'll show you how your job is being smashed!"

Then the cigar cutter, cut 10 times in a row, left 10 fingers on the floor .....

The head of the navy was desperate with pain, but the man in black was heard to say, "Is this just a prelude to a scare like this already? Don't worry, come with us to Jinling, the fun is still to come!"

The navy leader cried, "Grandpa, have mercy, I'm only 25 years old, my crime doesn't deserve death!"

The man in black said coldly, "Our young master has already said it, rumor mongers, die!"

With that, he waved his hand and said in a cold voice, "Take this man away and send him to the suburbs ten miles east, the helicopter will be here right away!"

A group of black-clothed people then carried the leader of the navy, who had become disabled, right out of the door, stuffed him into a car, and drove off to the outskirts.

At this time, Wu Xin, who was in Suhang, was still waiting for the navy, helping the Wu family to wash their hands of the problem and distracting them at the same time.

But he didn't expect that another hot search would soon appear on the internet!

"The Wu family is throwing away $20 million and hiring a navy to clear their name!"

Underneath this hot search, there are screenshots of all the chats between Wu Xin and that navy leader, proof of payment, and screenshots of bank account numbers!

Now the whole network explodes even more!

The Wu family has exploded the powder keg with internet opinion!

No one had thought that the Wu family would dare to do such a shameless thing at this time, which had greatly inspired the indignation and sense of justice within everyone!

Wu Donghai was already by the 1st hot search, got anxious, when his assistant suddenly told him: "Chairman, bad, something big happened, all the chat records of the young master's communication with the navy were exposed! The online attack on the Wu family's public opinion now has even more firepower!"

Wu Donghai pulled out his phone and took a look, his entire body almost didn't have his back to the gas!

He stepped in front of Wu Xin, raised his hand and slapped him, cursing angrily, "You accomplished thing! Who told you to take matters into your own hands?!"

1047

Wu Xin was grieving in his heart.

He also wanted to help share his father's worries, but he didn't expect this navy leader to be so unreliable!

Not only is it untrustworthy, but it's a sell-out!

He was so angry that he said to Wu Donghai, "Dad! That navy leader took my money and dared to expose me, I'll break him into a million pieces!"

Wu Donghai said in a cold voice, "You really aren't just any fool, how dare he go against our Wu family, a dangling sailor with no sense of humor?It has to be the person behind this thing that's screwing us!"

Wu Xin hurriedly pursued, "Dad, who do you think this thing could be?What kind of person is so bold, not only daring to kill my brother-in-law and the entire core members of the Beggar's Gang, but also daring to openly oppose the Wu family!"

Wu Donghai gritted his teeth, "I'm also thinking about this, but I really can't imagine who has so much power, these families that usually had some conflicts with us have already been convinced by us, they are not capable of planning something so big ....."

Wu Xin couldn't help but ask, "Dad, what you mean is that there are more powerful families targeting us?"

Wu Donghai sighed, "I can't figure it out right now, but I suddenly feel that this matter might have something to do with Jinling's Ye Chen!"

"Ye Chen?!"Wu Xin exclaimed in shock and said, "He shouldn't have so much energy, right?It is possible to be a local snake in Jinling, but how could he have the strength to catch all the core members of the Beggar's Gang in Suhang at the same time?Even the Wu family may not have that kind of strength ah!"

Wu Donghai nodded and said, "You do have a point, but the reason I'm judging this is because I just saw a message on the Internet!"

Wu Xin hurriedly asked, "What information?"

Wu Donghai said with a black face, "This damned little uncle of yours, the batch of children that his people are trying to buy this time are the ones that someone else stole from the Jinling Orphanage."

At this point, Wu Donghai made a slight pause and gritted his teeth, "I investigated this Ye Chen's identity before, he was raised in the Jinling orphanage!"

"So that's it!"Wu Xin exclaimed in shock and said, "In that case, these children who were stolen this time are also considered to be this Ye Chen's siblings!"

"Right!"Wu Donghai said, "That's why I speculated that this matter should be inextricably linked to Ye Chen!"

Wu Xin couldn't help but ask, "Dad, but what can Ye Chen do?Even those backers he had in Jinling weren't that powerful!Even if the Song family were to step in, they wouldn't be able to possess such strength!"

Wu Donghai said with some concern, "So that's what I'm most worried about, if the Song family is his backing, then I'm not afraid at all, but what I'm afraid of is that Chen Zhaichai!"

When they were in Jinling, Wu Donghai and his son were the ones who were beaten all the way out of Shangri-La by Chen Zhai Kai.

At that time, both of their legs were broken, and it was hard for them to wait for a helicopter, but Richard Chen didn't even allow the helicopter to land in the square in front of Shangri-La, so it could be said that he didn't give the Wu father and son any face at all.

However, Richard Chen was a member of the Ye family, everyone knew about this matter, so the Wu family's father and son didn't dare to settle the score with him at all.

Wu Donghai now suspected that the person who had the ability to wipe out the entire Beggars' nest in Suhang, in a short time, was Richard Chen!

When Wu Xin heard this judgment, his entire body couldn't help but get nervous, he looked at Wu Donghai and asked out of his mouth, "Dad, why is Richard Chen helping that Ye Chen so much? He himself is just a spokesman for the Ye family."

"It's reasonable to say that if it was his own decision, he wouldn't be able to mobilize such a powerful force, he must have also used a lot of Ye family connections behind this matter, how would he dare to use the Ye family connections for that Ye Chen?"

"Could it be .....?"

Wu Xin's face had turned extremely ugly when he said this.

He looked at his father and asked in a low voice, "Dad, that Ye Chen is not someone from the Ye family, right? That would explain it, he's a member of the Ye family, that's why Richard Chen is giving him so much face!"

Wu Donghai looked horrified, hesitated for a moment, waved his hand and said, "No, it's still unlikely, the Ye family is such a big family, it's impossible for someone from your own family to go to Jinling and be a door-to-door son-in-law! It's completely degrading to the family! Don't say it's impossible for the Ye family, even if our Wu family, although it's less than a tenth of the Ye family, I would never let you or your brother go to Jinling to be a son-in-law of a dangling family, it's simply not common sense!"<sup>78</sup>
Chinese First <https://https://>

Wu Xin frowned tightly and said, "Then how much of this matter can't be deduced, whether it's Ye Chen or not?"

Wu Donghai said, "I suspect it's related to him, but I can't figure out exactly what kind of connection it is, it just so happens that we've been trying to get revenge on him, and this time we'll simply even do the revenge plus investigation all together!"

Wu Xin hurriedly asked, "Dad, what do you mean, another trip to Jinling?"

"Right!" Wu Donghai clenched his teeth and said coldly, "This time, I will make that Ye Chen live and die!"

Saying that, he looked at Wu Xin and asked, "Have you communicated with Xiao Yiqian?"

"Communicated!" Wu Xin hurriedly said, "His meaning is simple, as long as we move, he must keep up, he has a deep hatred for Ye Chen, because of Ye Chen, he can't do his best, he is said to be in pain."

"Good." Wu Donghai asked again, "What happened to that Qian Hongyan who was sent to the black coal kiln to dig coal?"

Wu Xin said: "The situation on her side is fine, unlike the father and son of Changbai Mountain who have been guarded by experts not easy to snatch, the Black Coal Kiln does not have any experts sitting there, if needed, we can always send people over to snatch that Qian Hongyan back."

Wu Donghai said with a black face, "Changbai Mountain's father and son, last time they didn't snatch anyone over, this time send more people over, no matter what, I must snatch this two people back!"

Said Wu Donghai, "Let the eight Heavenly Kings of our family go over! I still don't believe that I can't snatch back two stinking hangers-on who are digging for ginseng at Changbai Mountain!"

Wu Xin exclaimed in shock, "Dad, let the Eight Heavenly Kings go? It's not that bad, is it? Isn't that like killing a chicken with a sledgehammer?"

After all, the Wu Family was the number one family in Jiangnan, and not only did they have their own royal medical team, they also had their own royal team of experts.

The Wu Family's expert team was divided into three echelons.

Those in the third echelon were some retired soldiers who were stronger than the average person as well, but not enough to watch over the house when they encountered a real expert.

In the second echelon were some retired special forces soldiers with strong strength, these were the personal bodyguards of the core members of the Wu family.

Those in the first echelon were the Eight Heavenly Kings.

The Eight Heavenly Kings were eight martial arts experts from hidden clans, who were dug up by the Wu Family's old man at great expense.

These eight people were very prominent in the Wu Family, and normally, when they encountered something troublesome, they wouldn't dare to seek them out at all.

This was because these eight people were strategic nuclear weapons that would only be used in emergency situations.

Wu Donghai knew that Ye Chen's strength was extraordinary, he had brought so many bodyguards last time, and they all ended up being dried up.

He himself sent people to the Changbai Mountain to rob people, but the people he sent were also dried up.

This made Wu Donghai feel very depressed!

From the beginning until now, he had never been able to get an advantage at Ye Chen's hands.

The successive defeats had made him almost unbearable, plus the blow of today's extermination had made him almost on the verge of collapse.

So at this time, Wu Donghai was in desperate need of a victory, so he must go all out and comfort his wounded soul with a crushing victory first!

So he gritted his teeth and said, "I want a big win this time! A complete and utter victory!"

1049

At this moment, the helicopter that Ye Chen was riding in had already flown into the sky above Jinling City.

Chen Zekai opened his mouth to ask Ye Chen, "Young Master, what do you plan to do with Xue Nanshan's daughter?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Her parents are gone, and she's now an orphan, so just send her directly to the orphanage."

Chen Zekai hurriedly said, "Young Master, don't leave such a thing behind ....."

Ye Chen waved his hand, "A great man does what he needs to do, I can't harm a small child, send her to the orphanage, if the Wu family comes to collect her, don't stop them."

Richard Chen nodded and said, "I don't think it's possible for the Wu family to come over and adopt this child, because the Wu family can't hate Xue Nanshan and his two couples yet, and it's estimated that they will lose at least half of their assets in this crisis of the Wu family, which will be reflected in the stock market tomorrow."

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "That's just right, if the Wu family's strength doesn't work, I'll help the Song family to rise to the top and make the Song family the number one family in Jiangnan."

Richard Chen immediately said, "Young Master, if there's anything you need, just tell me."

"Good."

Chen Zekai then said, "By the way young master, that navy soldier called Peaceful and Conservative has been sent to Hong Wu's dog farm."

Ye Chen waved his hand, "A stinky hangman who feeds on cursing is just a stinky hangman, just chop it up and feed it to the dogs, I don't go to see such people, so as not to dirty my eyes."

Saying that, Ye Chen suddenly thought of Kobayashi Ichiro, this guy had still been staying at Hongwu's dog farm.

So he asked Richard Chen, "How is Kobayashi Ichiro doing lately?"

Chen Zekai laughed, "What else can he do, just every day to raise the dog, feed the dog, walk the dog, pick up the dog feces, all day and night do not dare to leave the dog farm, he now just dare to go out, let his brother know, his brother will definitely spend a heavy amount of money to kill him." 78

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, "Let him stick around at the dog farm for a bit longer, and if the time is right, I'll let him go back to Japan to fight his brother for the family fortune."

Richard Chen said, "If Kobayashi Jiro knew that Kobayashi Ichiro wasn't dead, he'd probably be furious."

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "I don't know if I'll die of anger, but at that time, I guess Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will be mine."

Richard Chen sighed heartily, "Young Master, this way you play the Kobayashi family is so wonderful, it makes me marvel!"

Ye Chen smiled, "It's not so much about how wonderful it is, it's mainly because it just happens to take advantage of the greed of the Xiao Lin family, so this person, ah, can't be greedy at all, if he's too greedy, he'll invite disaster. It's just like that kid who engaged in the navy, if he wasn't too greedy for money, he wouldn't have ended up in a situation where he was chopped up and fed to dogs."

Ten minutes later.

The helicopter that Ye Chen was riding in landed on the top floor of Shangri-La.

Just as Ye Chen's plane landed, another plane had already taken the children to the People's Hospital.

Auntie Li from the orphanage and the others had already seen the information on the internet and knew that the children had been rescued, they were all excited, then they heard that the children were being sent to the People's Hospital, so they rushed over.

Originally wanted to go to the People's Hospital to take a look, but thinking that this matter was now too hot on the Internet, he didn't quite want Auntie Li and the others to think that this matter was behind the scenes, so he asked Richard Chen to send a car to take him home.

After arriving at Thomson, Ye Chen didn't rush in, but made a call to Auntie Li and asked her, "Auntie Li, I heard that the kids have been found?"

Auntie Li choked with excitement, "Yes Ye Chen, the children have been recovered and are now being observed at the People's Hospital."

Ye Chen hurriedly asked, "Then the children are nothing serious, right?"

"No no!" Auntie Li said excitedly, "The doctor has already checked them, that's because of the sleeping pills they took, now three children have woken up, they are all fine, the doctor said to observe them, they can be brought back to the orphanage at night."

Saying that, Auntie Li asked in a low voice, "Ye Chen, did you take that video online? Did you get the kids back?"

Ye Chen laughed and said, "Auntie Li, you're looking down on me too much, how can I be so great."

Auntie Li was silent for a moment, sighed and said, "I saw on the video, Jiang Ming seems to be dead .....I really didn't expect this child to come this far ....."

Ye Chen also sighed, "I also watched the video, Jiang Ming took the wrong path by himself, Auntie Li, don't be too sad."

"I know ....."Auntie Li said forlornly, "I originally thought that I was definitely going to be ahead of every one of you children, I was still thinking that in the future when I'm old and pass away, you can come to my memorial service and give me a flower ....."

At this point, Auntie Li sobbed softly, "I really didn't expect that a child would die before me nowadays, Jiang Ming this child .....Hey .....It's too exasperating, but it's too bad ....."

"Yes!"Ye Chen said, "Auntie Li, you shouldn't think too much about it, I believe this matter of Jiang Ming will wake up many people, his death may make more people change their evil ways, this is also a good thing for the society."

Auntie Li said, "You're right, Ye Chen, Auntie won't talk to you for now, I have to take care of the waking children, some other day, don't forget to come to the orphanage!"

"Okay Aunt Lee!"

Ye Chen hung up the phone, sighed, and stepped into the house.

.....

At this moment, Zhao Zhuo who was extremely fond of taking advantage of the situation.He had just gotten off of his post.

Their factory work requirements were very strict, and it was strictly forbidden to carry a cell phone during office hours, so he was completely ignorant of today's happenings and the many news feeds on the internet.

After he finished his shift, he changed into his clothes in the changing room and pulled out his own phone, looking down to find that there were countless WeChat alerts.

He curiously opened WeChat and found that the original welfare institution's WeChat group had exploded.

So far, there were a full 3000 unread messages!

He curiously flipped to the top and began to read down one by one.

At first, when he saw that the orphanage had lost 10 children, he didn't think it was that big of a deal, what did it matter to him whether the children were lost or not?He couldn't get a penny if he lost it, and he couldn't get a penny if he found it.

But when he looked down, he suddenly saw a video.

He hurriedly clicked on the video and watched it curiously. Halfway through the video, he was struck by lightning.

He didn't expect that the person who stole 10 children from the orphanage would be Jiang Ming!

Seeing Jiang Ming kneeling on the ground in repentance, Zhao Zhuo was completely incomprehensible!

How could someone as awesome as Jiang Ming, who could make double profits in a week operating just any fund, steal children from an orphanage?

Jiang Ming he has a Mercedes Benz and a Phaeton at a young age, which in the eyes of excellence is simply excellent to the sky!He's a god in his own eyes!

Looking further back, Jiang Ming actually stood on the bridge, then was shot in the head and tumbled into the river .....

Zhao Zhuo was so scared that he dropped his phone!

This .....What the hell is going on here .....

Jiang Ming is dead!

If he dies, what about his $620,000?Here's half a million all from loan sharks who borrowed from the app themselves!It's killing me!
