Chapter 1081

Townsend's Series A villa, worth over 100 million dollars, is the most expensive villa in the entire Jinling city.

For an average family, it is out of reach in a lifetime.

For the average wealthy family, working hard in this life, there may be a little possibility.

For a wealthy family, it takes 10 years of effort to get a chance to live in a villa like this.

But for the Wu family, this kind of villa was a drop in the bucket.

Even though the Wu family was experiencing major difficulties right now, to the Wu family, they had hundreds of billions of dollars worth, they wouldn't care about a set, a villa of over 100 million dollars.

In addition, Wu Donghai thought very clearly, this villa was bought by the Wu family to live for the Xiao family, that is to say, not given to the Xiao family, in this way, it is equivalent to the Wu family just add a set of real estate, maybe in two years, this villa appreciation Wu family can still make money, so why not do it yourself?

I'm not sure if I'm going to be able to do that, but I'm not sure if I'm going to be able to do that, so I'm going to be able to do that, so I'm going to be able to do that."

The five members of the Shaw family were suddenly excited!

Especially Xiao Changqian, who was already looking at the old lady with adoration in his eyes.

He himself used to think that his mother might not be useful as she got older, but he didn't think that it was true to the old saying, ginger is still old!first issue

If it were myself, I would have bowed and thanked in excitement just now when I heard that the Wu family was going to invest in the Xiao family and help revive the Xiao family's Xiao group.

But mom was different, the old lady had calmly analyzed Wu Donghai's psychology and secured a villa for the Xiao family right off the bat!

I'm not sure how long I'll be able to stay even though I'm just living in it, but isn't it a waste of time?

However, Old Lady Xiao was also very clear in her heart that since she was close to the Wu family's big ship, she must find a way to get more benefits for herself.

The villa could be temporarily denied to herself, but there should at least be some promise in terms of residency years.

So, she then looked at Wu Donghai and said with a smiling face, "Mr. Wu, you're really too generous, but there's something else I'd like to ask of you, old lady."

Wu Donghai nodded his head and said indifferently, "Tell me, what is it."

Old Mrs. Xiao said, "Mr. Wu, you see I'm also a big old man, I don't think I'll live for a few years, this old body can't afford to be tossed around, if you let me live in Townsend today and tomorrow you make a big move and kill that son of a bitch Ye Chen, then won't I have to move out tomorrow? After all, it's easy for a big man like you to kill a son of a bitch like Ye Chen."

A flattering compliment, which made Wu Donghai feel good in his heart, he looked at the old lady and asked, "Do you want me to give you a promise on how long you can stay in this villa?"

I'm not a greedy old woman, I just can't stand the tossing and turning, and I want to live in peace, so can you sign an agreement with us, the villa of Tomson, at least 10 years for us to live, after 10 years, regardless of the old woman. Whether the son is still alive or not, the Xiao family will all move out as promised."

In Mrs. Xiao's opinion, 10 years was already a long time, after all, the property rights of a house was only 70 years in total, and 10 years was equivalent to consuming one seventh of it.

A villa is worth more than 100 million yuan, and one seventh of that is almost 20 million.

And they are already 80 this year, may not be able to live another 10 years.

1082

Wu Donghai originally didn't care much about a villa, giving it to the Xiao family was definitely unlikely, after all, he wasn't such a wronged person, but letting them live for 10 years was actually not a big deal to him.

So Wu Donghai immediately said indifferently, "10 years is 10 years, but you must focus on working for me, and I will also reward you heavily if you take care of Ye Chen as soon as possible."

Old Mrs. Xiao hurriedly pulled the family together and bowed to Wu Donghai, her excitement overflowing.

The other few people in the Xiao family were also excited, so that the Xiao family had completely turned over a new leaf.

Not only was the Xiao Clan saved, but they were also able to live in a villa in Tomson, which was equivalent to even better than the previous best times.

Moreover, Wu Donghai also promised to support the Xiao Clan, so maybe the Xiao Clan could make a breakthrough with his help.

Wu Donghai spoke up at this time, "I will now arrange for someone to go to Tomson Yi Pin to take a look at the situation of the house, and buy Tomson Yi Pin a04 or a06 as soon as possible, today you will stay in the guest room for the time being, and when I have prepared everything, I will send you back to Jinling, at that time the investment that I have given to the Xiao Group will also be directly credited to your company's account."

The Xiao family was so excited that they were thankful for the promise.

The family was then arranged by their servants to the Wu family's guest room area.

The Wu family's villa covered a huge area, and was divided into three areas, one area for the Wu family to live in themselves, another area for the servants to live in, and another area for the guests to live in.

The Wu family villa was a large piece of land that they had bought and built entirely on their own, the scale was many times that of the Tomson Villa, and there were more than a dozen rooms alone, arranging for their family of five with ease.

The Wu family's servant brought them to the guest room area and gave them 4 rooms.

Old Mrs. Xiao, Xiao Hailong and Xiao Weiwei each had one room, while Xiao Changqian and Qian Hongyan's husband and wife naturally lived together.

As soon as they each returned to their respective rooms, Xiao Changqian eagerly embraced Qian Hongyan in his arms and said anxiously, "Wife, you've been wronged this time wife, I miss you so much wife."

As he spoke, he was going to take off Qian Hongyan's clothes.

Qian Hongyan's heart was also very emotional, having not seen her husband for such a long time, she was suddenly reunited with him and was naturally overjoyed.

The two of them are also in the year of the tiger and the wolf, and at such a time they are both a small parting to each other.

However, deep inside Qian Hongyan's heart, she was somewhat worried.

She naturally believed that during the time apart from her husband, he definitely wouldn't be messing around outside, and he didn't have the energy to do so, not to mention that he had been in the detention center for a long time.

But she was not so faithful.

In the black coal kiln when he succumbed to the lewdness of the overseer, did his long time paramour, almost every day in betrayal of his husband.

The first thing you need to know is how to get rid of the problem, and how to get rid of it.

So she made up her mind in her heart to bring this matter to the coffin and never let anyone know about it!

Before it was even dark, Xiao Chang Qian and Qian Hongyan were already in their guest room, and the sound of the waves was still up.

Xiao Changqian was really suffocating this time, and had been separated from his wife for a long time, so he was extraordinarily anxious.

Naturally, Qian Hongyan loved her husband very much and thought that she would never see him again in her life, but she didn't expect to have the chance to return to his embrace again now, so she was naturally full of joy to cater to her husband.

But this should have been a very harmonious scene, but in Qian Hongyan's heart, a feeling of loss suddenly came over her.

The reason why she felt lost was because she felt as if her husband's ability in that area was much worse than that dirty overseer

This one is really depressing.

One is the person you love, one is the person you loathe, but if you put aside these, and simply say that aspect, the two of your own beloved combined can't compare to the person you loathe.

After all, the other party is a person who came from a rough work background, and although he is not young, that physical quality is really nothing to speak of, with a strong and athletic body.

And then look at Xiao Changqian, itself is somewhat blessed, but also never exercise, after doing a few days in jail now also thin point, otherwise before that big belly, a look is very weak.

So if you were to really compare it to that overseer, Xiao Changqian would at most have two successes of the other.

This made Qian Hongyan feel that there was a big difference in meaning anyway. Updated the fastest.

It should have been a witch mountain cloud rain, but now it feels like an expensive spring rain like oil, rain over the ground just wet.

But she could only sigh in her heart, after all, to death, she was not willing to go back to that dark and sunless place, let alone serve that rancid overseer in that dirty and smelly brick and tile room.

In the evening, the Wu family's servants invited them to the guest room dining room for dinner.

Neither Wu Donghai nor Wu Dongfeng came over.

They treated the Xiao family as their servants right now, so it was impossible for them to come over to eat with their servants.

Halfway through the meal, the Wu family's housekeeper came over and said to Mrs. Xiao, "Our General Manager Wu asked me to let you know that he has had someone buy villa A04 of Thomson One, and count your luck, this villa was renovated by someone who was ready to live by himself, with all the luxurious furnishings and appliances, and our General Manager Wu spent an extra 30 million to buy it. So you can just move there tomorrow!"

The family was thrilled beyond words, and the old lady couldn't control her trembling hands and threw two chopsticks away.

After thanking the housekeeper with a thousand thanks, Old Lady Xiao said to her own family, "We have all seen Tomson's Type A villa, there are many rooms, enough for our family to live in, I, being older, like to live a little more spacious, so I want the largest room on the 3rd floor, the rest of you guys pick."

Xiao Chang Qian immediately said, "Then Hong Yan and I will take the biggest room on the 2nd floor."

Xiao Hailong said, "Then I'll take the second bedroom on the 3rd floor."

Xiao Weiwei said, "Then I'll take the 2nd floor."

"Good!" Old Mrs. Xiao nodded in satisfaction and sneered, "Didn't their family think we were finished? I really can't wait to see what they'll look like when they find out we've moved next door!"

Xiao Chang Qian gritted his teeth and said, "That damned Ma Lan and Ye Chen have joined forces to calculate my wife and cause her to suffer so much, I will definitely settle accounts with them!"

Qian Hongyan hurriedly said, "Are you crazy? This is something you must never tell them openly."

"Why? Xiao Chang Qian couldn't help but frown.

Qian Hongyan immediately said, "In the beginning, it was me and He Lian who set up a trap to trap Ma Lan, and as a result, it didn't work out, but Ye Chen countered with a plan, so if you count it this way, it was me and He Lian who broke the law in the first place, and if we really shake this out, and the police get involved, they will definitely arrest me, not them."

Saying that, Qian Hongyan thought back to last night when He Lian was shot dead with a single shot and said nervously, "Last night He Lian tried to beat me up, but was shot dead by the Wu family, and now her family is still in that black coal kiln, if this thing gets out and the police get He Lian's family out, then they will definitely look for me to take revenge."

This is a great way to remember to read fiction on your mobile phone.

Xiao Changqian frowned, "Are we just going to cheapen the one surnamed Ma and the one surnamed Ye for nothing?"

Qian Hongyan said, "I can find trouble with them in other places, and besides, there's the Wu family preparing to kill them behind the scenes, revenge can definitely be avenged, but that incident in the beginning must never be mentioned again."

In fact, Qian Hongyan still had a worry in her heart, if she mentioned the matter of the black coal kiln and then brought out the past between herself and the overseer, how could she still establish herself in the Xiao family?

Xiao Changqian heard that what she said made sense and gently nodded his head and said, "Okay, then we'll pretend to be confused about this matter."

The next day, the five members of the Xiao family took the Wu family's car to return to Jinling.

On the trip back, the Wu family did not arrange a private jet to send them, not even a Rolls Royce, but a Buick gl8 was sent directly.

Old Mrs. Xiao was very dissatisfied with this Buick gl8.

When she came, the Rolls Royce went to the airport, the private jet to Suhang, and then the Rolls Royce again, to the Wu villa.

That specification and that row is really impressive and enjoyable.

Now it's a good thing that we directly got a $200,000 to $300,000 broken car to get rid of the family of five.

The feeling of sitting in this car was a world away from a Rolls Royce.

But because the driver in the car was the Wu family, she was just too angry to say anything.

It would take about four to five hours to drive from Suhang to Jinling, so when they arrived at Jinling, it was already past noon.

The driver dropped them off at the front gate of Thomson One, gave them several sets of access cards and keys, and said to them, "Mr. Wu means for you to stay in today and invest in your Xiao Group, he will send someone over tomorrow to handle the matter."

"Great!" Old Mrs. Xiao was so excited that she nodded her head and said, "Help us thank Mr. Wu and tell him that we will definitely live up to his expectations!"

The driver nodded and drove off.

The five members of the Xiao family swiped their access cards and stepped into the villa area of Thompson's Yi Pin.

Arriving at Tomson Yi Pin again, each of them was sobbing incomparably inside.

The first few times when they came to Tomson Yi Pin, they were incomparably envious and jealous.

Now after thirty years in the east and thirty years in the west, they also had a set of villa in Tomson Yi Pin.

The one who was the most excited about this was Old Mrs. Xiao, she had been looking forward to living in Townsend Yipin for a long time!

So Old Mrs. Xiao walked right in the middle, with her grandson Xiao Hailong and granddaughter Xiao Weiwei supporting her on the left and right, and Xiao Changqian and Qian Hongyan also holding each other's hands in a loving manner. The mobile phone one second remember to provide you with wonderful \ fiction reading.

Old Mrs. Xiao felt like the Empress Dowager now, like the Empress Dowager back then, walking in this kind of ultra-luxurious villa area, that was really awe-inspiring and ambitious.

Excited, she couldn't help but exclaim, "If only I could have met that bitch Ma Lan!!'m going to give her a good hard time!"

Xiao Weiwei smiled and said, "Grandmother, don't forget that you broke her leg, she's probably crying in her bed at home right now."

The crowd burst out laughing.

Xiao Hailong then suddenly pointed to a woman with one hand on her crutches at the edge of the green belt on the road in front of him and said offhandedly, "Damn, isn't that that bitch Ma Lan?"

1085

At this moment, Ma Lan had eaten lunch and was directing Ye Chen, carrying a tin bucket and a shovel, to dig in the green belt of the villa area. The fastest update.

These two days, Ma Lan has nothing to do, her leg is broken and she can't go out to play, so she was bored at home and brushed her friend circle, and found that a female friend, who she didn't deal with much before, bought a villa in the suburbs.

She planted a lot of fruits and vegetables in the yard of the villa, and shared the pictures of those fruits and vegetables with her friends, and many of them praised her for her cleverness and knowledge of life.

Ma Lan was very jealous, so she also wanted to plant some fruits and vegetables in the villa yard.

However, she has a broken leg, so she can't shovel the soil, so she can only arrange for Ye Chen to do this kind of work.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the product and make sure that you have a good understanding of the product.

But wife Xiao Churan once she heard that her mother wanted to plant some fruits and vegetables, she also felt that this kind of thing is quite cultivating, and can make her stay at home honestly, so she came forward and begged Ye Chen to help.

Only then did Ye Chen agree to it.

From his point of view, it would be good if he could get Ma Lan to stop making mischief all day long and let her plant vegetables.

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past few years.

Ma Lan at this time driving abduction, is saying to Ye Chen: "dug a yellow soil, do not forget that black soil, that black soil can stink."

Ye Chen nodded and without speaking, he lowered his head to dig the soil.

Ma Lan hesitated for a moment, and in a consultative tone, asked him carefully, "Ye Chen, can Mom discuss something with you?"

Ye Chen saw that her attitude was still good, so he said lightly, "Tell me what's the matter, I'll listen to it first."

Ma Lan accompanied with a smile and said, "You, when you have time, drive to the countryside and ask an old farmer in the countryside to buy some vegetables and fruits, and with the roots, the whole plant together."

Ye Chen said, "Isn't this farting with your pants down and being redundant? Can't you just go to the supermarket if you want vegetables and fruits? Directly app people to your door."

Ma Lan was very dissatisfied and uncomfortable with Ye Chen's attitude, but didn't dare to say anything, so she could only smile and plead, "Mom wants you to buy the whole plant, not to eat it, but to buy it and plant it directly in our family villa, so won't you immediately have a beautiful vegetable garden? Otherwise this get finished scattering the seeds and then planting it, waiting for it to grow, that would have to wait until when to go ah, monkey years and months all."

Ye Chen was convinced.

It seems that the mother-in-law misses this matter and wants to quickly take pictures and send them to friends. The mobile phone one second remember to provide you with wonderful \ fiction reading.

Just want to refuse her this unreasonable request, Ma Lan hurriedly said again: "Good son-in-law, I tell you the truth, Churan has been a favorite vegetable and melon planted since childhood, she is small ah, often dragged me and her father to accompany her to go [PEN www.biquwu.biz] picking, into people's rural vegetable garden, that are not willing to come out."

Ye Chen looked at her suspiciously, "When did this happen? Why haven't I heard of it?"

Lan Ma said hastily, "Then suddenly wasn't it grown up? With school and work, how can I find time to run to the garden? I swear to God, Chorán really especially liked these things since she was a child, and when she was in elementary school, she even wanted to plant a little bit in the yard of that villa of the former Xiao family, but that dead old woman was dead reluctant."

Ye Chen thought to himself at this time, if his wife really likes it, then he might as well arrange for it.

So, he took out his cell phone and called Xiao Churan, opening his mouth to ask her, "Wife, tomorrow is the weekend, do you want to go out and pick?"

"Yes!" As soon as Xiao Choran heard this, he immediately took off without hardly thinking, "Great! Where to pick them! How do you know I like picking!"

1086

After hearing that, Ye Chen smiled and said, "Okay, you don't have to worry about where to go, my husband will arrange it."

"Great!" Xiao Chu Ran said happily, "Then I can wait for you to arrange it!"

"All right!"

Hanging up the phone, Lan Ma hurriedly flattered, "You see I'm not lying to you, right?"

Ye Chen hummed and pulled out his phone again, calling Wang Zhenggang.

"Master Ye! Why did you think to call the little one?"

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past two years, and has been working on the development of the new product for the past two years, which has been in the process of developing the new product for the past two years. Can you do that with a pint?"

As soon as Wang Zhenggang heard this, he spoke out of turn, "Master Ye, don't worry, even if you want a vegetable shed, I can get you one!"

Ye Chen then said, "That's fine, start preparing today, come to the Tomlinson transplant cultivation at night, I want my wife to wake up tomorrow!"

Wang Zhenggang smiled heedlessly, "Master Ye, you really know how to love your wife! Don't worry, I'll arrange it!"

Marashi was so excited at this point!

This Ye Chen is really able to deceive people, just a phone call, people are attentive to arrange vegetable gardens for him, the energy is really not small ah!

I used to think this guy was going to explode sooner or later, but how do you think he's getting more and more popular?

At this time, Mashi suddenly heard a familiar voice ringing in her ears, "Yo! If it isn't my wonderful daughter-in-law! What's with the crutches? Don't tell me, you're pretty much in a strong position with that rack pipe!"

Ma Lan's face immediately became incomparably ugly. The first issue

She didn't have to look back to know that the voice was coming from her mother-in-law, that damned old Mrs. Shaw!

But she turned her head and was shocked, what was going on? How did these five people get together?

The old lady, Xiao Changqian and those two kids will be detained for a few more days, won't they? Was it released early?

The point is why is Qian Hongyan here? Wasn't this bitch sent to the black coal kiln by Ye Chen's friends?

When Ye Chen heard movement at this time, he couldn't help but turn his head and frown.

He didn't expect that Qian Hongyan would appear here.

Hong Wu had always been reliable in his work, he shouldn't have made such a big mistake and let this Qian Hongyan run back, what was going on here?

Qian Hongyan was Ye Chen and his mother-in-law Ma Lan's secret, although later on his wife and father-in-law knew about his mother-in-law's gambling and losing money, they didn't know about Qian Hongyan being sent to the black coal kiln by herself.

They both thought that Qian Hongyan should have rolled up and run away, so at this time Qian Hongyan suddenly came back, making Ye Chen feel somewhat worried.

Right at this time, Ma Lan, who was never willing to show weakness, had already scolded, "Who do I take it to be? So it's your family. What's with the idea of our villa? Have you forgotten how you got into the jail last time? Do you believe I'm calling the police to arrest you right now?"

As soon as he heard Ma Lan taunt everyone with the matter of the guards again, Xiao Hailong said in annoyance, "Ma Lan, have a look at your ugly bird, your two front teeth are gone, and your speech is fucking leaky, what are you doing here with us?"

Once Ma Lan heard that Xiao Hailong dared to ridicule her own teeth, she was furious.

She didn't even dare to look at herself in the mirror for the past few days back, just because it was too ugly to lose her front teeth.

But seeing a dentist was a troublesome thing, sometimes to fill a tooth had to come back to the dentist several times, not to mention that she had lost a few teeth and needed to have them completely redone.

Xiao Chorán was going to pay for her porcelain dental implants, but it was because she now had a broken leg and had trouble moving, so she didn't let her toss it for now, but instead said she'd wait for her leg to heal before getting her teeth set.

It was also because her front teeth were gone, so Ma Lan completely lost interest in going out, or else all her image would be lost once she opened her mouth.

But right now, a little brat like Xiao Hailong dared to ridicule herself with her own teeth, where else could she stand it?

So, Ma Lan immediately cursed, "Xiao Hailong, I'm at least your second aunt, aren't you afraid that heaven will strike five thunderbolts if you talk to me like that?"

Xiao Hailong said in a despicable manner, "What the hell are you a second aunt? Look at you. You're so ugly, I've never seen a woman as ugly as you! You're not even going to fix your front teeth if they're gone, are you saving them for a fucking skit?"

Ma Lan is the last thing she would dare to think about is that old lady's look inside Zhao Benshan's Song Dandan sketch, because she is now exactly the same as her, and hearing Xiao Hailong say that, she is even more furious.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the photos of the people you'll be seeing. You guys just don't change your ways, and this time when you go in, the lockup will be even longer!"

Old Mrs. Xiao was now full of disdain and scoffed, "Ma Lan, do you really think you're the only one in the world who can afford to live in Townsend?"

Ma Lan snorted, "Of course. Is it possible for a stinky hangman like you to afford to live in a Tomson? It's not that I despise you, dead old woman if you could afford to live in a Thompson, I'd rip your head off and give you a kick in the balls!"

Old Mrs. Xiao laughed, "Oh my Ma Lan, you really haven't changed at all, don't look at my old lady's bones, I really want to try to see if you're a good kick in the head today!"

Saying that, the old lady pulled out a very beautiful key and arrogantly said, "I tell you Ma Lan, this Thompson A04 is already mine, from today onwards, our family will be neighbors!"

"I yuck!"The first time I was in the room was when I was in the room with my wife.Did you sell Vivian Siu to a rich man again?However, with a posture like Xiao Weiwei's, what rich man would be willing to pay such a high price?"

Upon hearing this, Xiao Weiwei pointed at her and cursed angrily, "Malan, who are you talking about, you bitch?"

"Says you!"Ma Lan dangled and said, "I don't know who accompanied an old man who is older than his own father, but now he dares to come before me and scream, what kind of thing?"

Xiao Weiwei was naturally furious at being uncovered, and was about to come up to Ma Lan to find a theory, when Old Mrs. Xiao pulled her back and said indifferently, "Weiwei, don't get serious with such a disabled person, she's already so miserable, what's the point of getting serious with her?"

Afterwards, greet the other four: "Let's go, let's go, we have to hurry to our villa to clean up, what's there to argue with such rotten people."Updated the fastest.

The others spat at Ma Lan's feet, and then they all walked past her with arrogant faces.

Ma Lan still doesn't believe that they can really afford to buy a Tomson, and scolded behind her, "You guys stop in moderation, it's not good if you keep acting like this, and immediately security will come to drive you out."

Qian Hongyan turned around and stared at Ma Lan with hazy eyes, saying coldly, "Ma Lan, don't forget that we haven't settled the score between the two of us yet."

Marashi scolded, "Just kidding, I would be afraid of you? Do I believe my son-in-law will send you back to the black coal kiln again with a phone call?"

Xiao Changkun and Xiao Churan weren't here anyway, and Ma Lan didn't care to mention the matter of the black coal kiln.

Qian Hongyan stared at Ma Lan with a cannibalistic gaze and was about to speak, when old lady Xiao had opened the door of the A04 villa, looked at the stunned Ma Lan, waved the key in her hand and laughed: "Ma Lan, what did you just say? You're not going to rip my head off and use it as a ball? Come on." Mobile One Second Remember provides you with wonderful \fiction reading.

Once Ma Lan saw that the old lady had actually opened the door of A04, she was so shocked that she couldn't speak.

How was this possible? Isn't the Xiao family already so poor that they don't even have a place to live? How can you afford a villa in Townsend? Could it be that the salted fish has turned over a new leaf?

And this family is going to be neighbors with themselves? This is too bad

Thinking of this, she immediately looked at Ye Chen and questioned out of the blue, "Ye Chen, what's going on here? Didn't your friend send them all to the black coal mine? Didn't you say they're not coming out anymore? Why did Qian Hongyan run out?"

Ye Chen was also a little surprised at this point.

He pulled out his phone, walked to a deserted place, and called Hong Wu directly, "The person I asked you to send to the black coal kiln last time, why did he run back one, what happened over there?"

Hong Wu was surprised and said, "Is there such a thing? Master Ye, wait a moment, I'll make a phone call and ask!"

A moment later, Hong Wu called, "Master Ye, someone bought that friend of mine's small coal kiln, and the price offered was three times the market price."

Ye Chen had a sudden realization.

Asking him, "It's the Wu family, right?"

"Right!" Hongwu said, "It's the Suhang Wu family! Master Ye, is the Wu family targeting you? Do you want us all to help you figure out what to do?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "No need, the Wu family hasn't officially stepped in yet, it's nothing more than some minions now, so don't bother with him."

Master Hong Fifth said guiltily at this time, "Master Ye this matter blames me for not overseeing it properly, please punish me! I'll arrange for someone to arrest that Qian Hongyan today!"

"It's not necessary." Ye Chen said indifferently, "Since she's already back, let her stay here."

After saying that, Ye Chen asked, "What's the situation of the Wei family father and son who were digging for ginseng at Changbai Mountain?"

Fifth Master Hong hurriedly said, "The Wei family has always been in Changbai Mountain, some time ago someone came to rob them, but they were beaten away by my people and Wei Liang's people, in order to strengthen the defense, both Wei Liang and I sent some more people over there, and now there are nearly 20 people over there secretly guarding them."

"Good." Ye Chen mmed and said, "The family surnamed Wu is probably looking everywhere for my deadly enemy, so they must be guarded well, I won't look for you to pursue this matter of Qian Hongyan finding her back, but Wei and his son, they must not be released!"

Hong Wu spoke out, "Master Ye, please rest assured, I will definitely explain to my younger brother and guard them strictly, I will never let anyone snatch them away!"

"Good." When Ye Chen hummed, he said, "Okay, also tell Wei Liang to send extra manpower, so that his father and brother won't come back to find him and rob Wei's Pharmaceuticals."

1089

No one was more afraid of his dad and his brother coming back than Wei Liang.

If the Wu family did snatch his dad and his brother back from Changbai Mountain, the first thing they would do would definitely be to help them take back Wei's pharmaceuticals.

Because the Wu family definitely didn't want to get back just a pair of dangling fathers and sons either, they would prefer their allies to have more power.

Wei's Pharmaceutical was a pharmaceutical company with a market value of billions of dollars no matter what, and if they worked with the Wu family, there might be even more room for growth, so if Wu Donghai got the father and son back and then helped them take back their power, it would be equivalent to having an additional ally worth billions of dollars, and a die-hard ally at that.

Ye Chen believed that Wei Liang would do everything he could to stop the Wu family after learning about this matter.

Taking a step back, even if Wei's father and son did come back, it wouldn't matter to Ye Chen.

There were 10,000 ways he could make the Wei family's father and son instantly cool off.

If he wanted to, he could even just ask Wu Donghai to meet Max.

But that would be meaningless.

People, if there were truly no enemies, what fun would life be?

Since the Wu family wanted to play, then I would have a good time with them.

After all, there were really not many opportunities for a big family with a size of 200 billion to be a sandbag and allow themselves to practice their skills. Fastest Updated.

I might have to return to Yanjing in the future and face the Ye family that I'm not familiar with.

If you don't learn a little bit of experience in the struggle of the gentry in advance, it would be really hard to deal with any danger when the time comes.

Now is a good opportunity to practice the skin test.

When Ye Chen hung up the phone and returned to shoveling the earth, Ma Lan eagerly came over and asked, "Did you ask? What's going on? How the hell did that stinking bitch Qian Hongyan come back?"

Ye Chen said to Ma Lan, "I just asked on the phone, and that friend said that the black coal kiln over there went bankrupt and just got a new boss, so all those workers ran away, and Qian Hongyan probably took the opportunity to run out as well."

Ma Lan said depressingly, "How can you let that shameless woman run out! Just seeing her makes me angry!"

Thinking back to the time when Qian Hongyan set herself up, Ma Lan not only hated Qian Hongyan, she also hated Ye Chen.

The reason is that Ye Chen forced He Lian to donate all her money in one go, which included the money she lost to He Lian.

Originally, she had around 2 million in any case, and all of it was let Ye Chen, the brat, squander it all for himself in one go.

If it was like before, when Ma Lan remembered this, she would have pointed at Ye Chen's nose and scolded him.

But now, Ma Lan didn't dare to pretend with Ye Chen, after all, she was now living in his villa, and her daughter wasn't towards her now, so this kid wasn't afraid of her anymore.

Ye Chen looked at her and said indifferently, "It's no longer meaningful to ask how to let her run out now, now that people can live in the Townsend, it proves that others also have a backing now, you can never provoke them if you're fine, in case we get bullied by them again, we may not be able to beat them."

When Ma Lan heard this, she couldn't help but feel worried.

But if she really wanted to behave in front of their family in the future with her tail between her legs, she really couldn't accept it in her own heart.

On what grounds?

These people are obviously dying, so why are they alive again?

And it's alive and well!

So, she gritted her teeth and said, "Ye Chen, if you want me to say that you might as well find an opportunity someday to beat their family severely, it's best to break all 5 of their legs and make them sit in a wheelchair in this villa every day."

Ye Chen asked rhetorically, "If they are caught in jail I will definitely go to jail, I don't care, but if I go to jail and they block the door of the house to beat you, what will you do?"

When Ma Lan heard this, she wimped out.

She had to admit that what Ye Chen said was very reasonable.

The Xiao family itself had a lot of people, and with Ye Chen there, they probably wouldn't dare to come over and provoke themselves, but if Ye Chen wasn't there, who else could protect them?

Xiao Chang-kun?

That old son of a bitch now wants to divorce himself, he probably wants to be bullied.

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past few years, and the company is now in the process of developing the new product.

So she could only sigh and say: "It seems that this will be the future to be neighbors with the Xiao family, old mother this heart, it is really too hard ah"

At this time, the Xiao family was feeling stunned shock at the villa!

Villa a04 of Thomson One, the household type was the same as a05, and the previous owner had spent a great deal of effort in decorating it, so it could be said to be very luxurious.

After Old Lady Xiao opened the door and entered, her entire body had been stunned.

The decoration style of this home was more flamboyant and used especially, very luxurious looking golden decorations, the whole looked like a palace, and the a05 where Ye Chen lived looked much more splendid.

This was also because Wang Zhenggang knew that Ye Chen was a low-key person, so when he was decorating his villa, he deliberately used a less ostentatious decoration style.

On the other hand, A04 was somewhat like a high-end KTV, with a bit of ostentation in its luxury.

However, the Xiao family itself was ostentatious and extremely vain. More importantly, none of the family members had much culture, so they preferred this kind of earthy decoration.

After arriving at the living room, the whole Xiao family had looked dumbfounded, old Mrs. Xiao was so excited that tears flowed down her face, this touch that look, the whole person felt as if in a dream.

The same goes for everyone else, everyone actually hadn't seen much of the world and wanted to look at Ye Chen's villa, so they were jealous, but they didn't expect that they had the fate to be able to live in the same villa, and more importantly, their own villa looked even more luxurious than Ye Chen's!

This made them even more excited.

Old Lady Xiao rode the elevator all the way up to the best large bedroom on the third floor, and when she took a look at the furnishings and furniture in the bedroom, she felt incomparably satisfied.

The luxurious and soft Simmons bed, one touch felt that it was by no means an ordinary thing.

I heard that a good Simmons mattress costs hundreds of thousands of dollars per bed, and Old Lady Xiao was not willing to spend this amount of money when she was in the past.

I didn't expect that I would have the opportunity to enjoy it this time.

Pushing open the door of the large terrace, the scenery of the villa area was unobstructed from the terrace.

Because the Townsend Villas are all built with an architecture of 3 floors up and 2 floors down, so everyone's houses are not tall, and from the 3rd floor, you can see very clearly and far.

The interesting thing was that standing on the 3rd floor, you could just see the courtyard of Ye Chen's house.

Seeing Ma Lan racking her crutches and directing Ye Chen to dump dirt into the small garden in the yard, Old Mrs. Xiao looked at her own yard again, which was bare of anything, so with a smile on her lips, she said coldly, "It seems that Ma Lan is planting some flowers and plants, okay, when you're done planting, I'll go and steal them for you, just to save me from buying them."
