

Identity 1261

Chapter 1261

At this instant, Xiao Churan was a little jealous inside.

She guessed that Song Wanting should have a crush on her husband, Ye Chen.

Otherwise, it was impossible for her to look at her husband with such eyes.

This made Xiao Churan suddenly realize that she and her husband seemed to be far from being intimate enough, and because of this, there was a certain distance between the two of them.

This distance was particularly easy for a third party to intervene.

If the two people were particularly close and intimate, and their hearts were close to each other, it would naturally be impossible to leave any gap for a third party to take advantage of.

Thinking of this, an unprecedented impulse suddenly surged in her heart.

Right at this moment, Ye Chen saw that she was still dazed and hurriedly said to her, "Wife has to leave quickly, otherwise we'll be late."

Xiao Churan only then came back to her senses and nodded unnaturally, busy saying, "Then let's hurry up and go!"

Song Wanting sent the three of them all the way out of the store, seeing them all get into the car, which was why she reluctantly returned to the store.

Ye Chen started the limited edition Bugatti Veyron and drove towards the Hilton Hotel. One second remembering on the mobile phone provided you with wonderful \fiction reading.

At this moment in the ballroom of the Hilton Hotel, a man wearing a decent suit with a groom's corsage on his chest was looking anxiously at the time.

It's what time it is and she's still not here, showing that she doesn't care about our family!"

Sun Hongwei hurriedly explained, "Mom, it's not like you don't know, Xiaoman and her family live in Five River County, dozens of kilometers away from here! I said I was going to drive over to pick you up, but I wasn't allowed to go, and my phone was confiscated, and Xiao Mann she doesn't have a car at home, so this will be hard to come by, so why don't you give me back my phone and I'll contact her!"

"Contact my ass!" Sun Hongwei's mother said coldly, "She hasn't even crossed our door to do anything, and yet she's so unaware of what she's doing, and doesn't put the others in her eyes at all, if she were to cross our door, would our family's days still be over?"

Saying that, she spat with a despicable face, "I told you long ago not to marry a girl from such a poor family, but you nonetheless refused to listen. If you don't have money, you don't have education, are you marrying such an uneducated person to your home, are you trying to make me angry?"

Sun Hongwei's expression was a bit ugly, but he didn't dare to disobey his mother directly, after all, his mother's autocracy in the family was very powerful, even his father couldn't provoke her.

At this time, I heard Sun Hongwei's mother say again, "I tell you Hongwei, all our relatives are here today, everyone is waiting to see this poor wife you've found, and if this Zhang Xiaoman doesn't come over by 9:20, then I, the mother-in-law, will definitely be laughed at by all the relatives!"

"When the time comes, I don't think you should get married this time, let Zhang Xiaoman go and get rid of the baby, or I'll give her 200,000 and she'll give birth to our Sun family!"

"Mom!" Sun Hongwei's expression was depressed as he said, "It's looking like Little Man is about to pass away, why do you still have to get along with her?"

Sun Hongwei's mother said disdainfully, "I'm telling you, if she dares to cross the door, I'll have to live with her for the rest of my life, and she'll have a long, hard life."

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services, including a full range of products and services, and a wide range of products and services. And a rich rich lady, then our family's strength, in the Sun family's big family, will be even more unbeatable."

At this point, his father sighed with a face full of regret, "You say that this disobedient child of yours, what kind of woman is it bad to find, but to find a woman whose family is so poor, then our family won't let these relatives and friends laugh to death!"

Sun Hongwei was in immense pain inside, he was naturally sincere towards Zhang Xiaoman, the two of them had been together in college back then, and until now for so many years, they had never quarreled and bickered, they had always loved each other, and among so many classmates back then, there was no telling how many people envied their extremely stable relationship.

In his heart, if he and Zhang Xiaoman could get the blessing of his family and live a good life together, he would definitely become the happiest man in the world.

But he couldn't figure out why his parents were trying to block his marriage in many ways.

Although Zhang Xiaoman was not the child of a rich family, she was indeed a rare and good girl.

It was a pity that the snobbish parents couldn't see the good in Zhang Xiaoman.

They just feel that Zhang Xiaoman's family has no money or influence, so they despise her in their hearts and don't want her to get married.

No matter how much they tried to persuade and plead with them, they were still unwilling to change their original intentions.

Even now, Zhang Xiaoman was pregnant with her own flesh and blood, they still treated her with contempt, which caused Sun Hongwei a great deal of pain in his heart.

He even thought that if his parents really didn't like and support his marriage, then he might as well wait until the wedding was over and take Zhang Xiaoman away with him.

At this moment, there were still less than five minutes left before the 9:20 deadline.

Zhang Xiaoman still hadn't appeared.

Sun Hongwei's heart was not worried, he was worried that it could be Zhang Xiaoman's parents who stopped her from marrying over.

At that moment, Sun Hongwei's mother, who was full of pride, whispered to her husband, "In my opinion, Zhang's family can't let Zhang Xiaoman marry here, after all, we didn't give them any money, not even a kiss, it can be said that we didn't give their family any face. So I reckon ah, today is a big show that will kill Hong Wei."

Sun Hongwei's father said with some meat pain, "Then the cost of this big show is too high, Hilton dozens of tables of banquets, plus the wedding celebration and so on, we've spent four hundred and fifty thousand here."

Sun Hongwei's mother raised her eyebrows and said, "What's four hundred and fifty thousand? As long as I can get my son away from that poor woman, I'm willing to spend even a million dollars!"

Saying that, she lowered her voice a few points and said excitedly, "Let me tell you, Sister Lu told me that General Manager Xue's daughter went back to China a while ago, and she broke up with that foreign boyfriend of hers, and General Manager Xue's wife is saying that she's looking for a match for her in Jinling, and if our son can be with General Manager Xue's daughter, how much it will help our family!" Fastest Update

Sun Hongwei's father frowned and said, "I've heard it said that the foreign boyfriend that Xue's daughter had before was a black man ah, isn't it a bit ..... for our son to take on a black man?"

"What's that?" Sun Hongwei's mother blurted out, "The most important thing is, if we can become in-laws with Xue Gaozheng, we'll definitely do better business in the future! It's all about making money!"

Poor Sun Hongwei, at this point doesn't know what Mom and Dad are up to.

He was still waiting for the woman he loved to show up.

But as time passed, he was beginning to feel a little worried.

What she was afraid of was not that Zhang Xiaoman would change her mind, but that Zhang Xiaoman's parents, in the end, would not agree to her marrying over.

Just at this time, the unique engine whirring sound of a supercar suddenly came from the road.

The Sun family at the entrance, as well as their friends and relatives, were all attracted by the beastly sound of the engine.

Immediately afterwards, someone shouted, "Fuck! It's a Bugatti Veyron!"

"It's true!" Sun Hongwei's cousin, Sun Hongbin, looked at the approaching Bugatti Veyron in the distance and said in a dumbfounded voice, "This is a limited edition Hermes, and there's only one in the country. I saw this car at the Jinling International Motor Show some time ago, and it was said that this car, along with another Aston Martin ONE77, was bought by a mysterious rich man at the same time, but since then, I've never seen this car out, and I never expected to see it today!"first issue

Saying that, he immediately pulled out his own phone and kept adjusting the focus to the distance, trying to get a clear shot of this Bugatti Guardian.

Just at this moment, someone else screamed, "Holy crap!It's the Aston Martin one77 that follows behind, what kind of a day is it that two top-class sports cars come at once!Those two cars add up to a hundred million!"

Sun Hongbin, his eyes were about to fall out.

He hurriedly said to Sun Hongwei, "Eh, Hongwei, look!Don't you love the Aston Martin one77?Fuck!What an eye opener for me today!"

Sun Hongwei was also a little surprised.

But he really wasn't in the mood to look at the supercar at the moment, all he could think about was Zhang Xiaoman, thinking about whether Zhang Xiaoman would come today or not.

Ye Chen was now driving the limited edition Hermes Bugatti Veyron, which had driven into the entrance of the Hilton Hotel and was heading straight towards the banquet hall.

The crowd was even more surprised to see both sports cars coming to the banquet hall.

The only one getting married here today was Sun Hongwei himself, because today wasn't a good day to get married .

The reason why they chose today to get married was also Sun Hongwei's parents, who deliberately disgusted Zhao Xiaoman's parents.

They had already thought of several ways to deal with the situation.

First of all, the best way was to directly ask the Zhang family to give up on the marriage .

Secondly, if the Zhang family didn't give up on the marriage, then the two of them wouldn't let the marriage come true.

They had even planned that if Zhang Xiaoman showed up today, they were going to make crazy sarcastic comments in front of everyone and force her to give up marrying their son no matter what.

If this was still not possible, they still had a final killer weapon.

The killer mace was simple, one cry, two noise, three hangings, if their son had to marry Mr. Zhang today, let the two of them just threaten to commit suicide here and make a mess of the whole wedding.

At that time, the marriage is definitely not possible.

Seeing the two sports cars gradually approaching, Sun Hongwei's father said with a surprised face, "Hongbin ah, you just said that these two cars together are worth 100 million?"

Sun Hongbin waved his hand, "Uncle, it wasn't me who said that, it was Hongfei who said that, but these two cars together are really worth a hundred million, and more than a hundred million, and what's even better is that they're both owned by one person."

"Shit!" Sun Hongwei's father did not scold: "People are so angry with each other, I want to buy an entry-level 7 series BMW, but I hesitate for a long time to do it, people two cars together are worth more than 100 million, in the end, who is so rich? Is it the Song family?"

"I'm not sure." Sun Hongbin said, "There's quite a mystery about the identity of the owner of this car, and people are especially low-key, it seems like it's the first time this car has been driven out today after it was bought."

"That's awesome!" Sun Hongwei's dad, exclaims, "Over a hundred million dollars for a car that doesn't turn out to be much of a drive, isn't that just money to burn?"

As we spoke, the two sports cars reached the front and parked at the entrance to the banquet hall.

The crowd was even more surprised.

These two cars really came to the banquet hall?

I'm the only one in the banquet hall for a wedding. Are they here to say goodbye?

However, the Sun family knew very well that the richest of their entire family was Sun Hongwei's father's family, but it was only tens of millions of assets, as for the others, the best ones were just tens of millions, and the ones that were a little worse were just a few million, and at most they were considered Jinling's middle class, not the upper class.

So on their family's social status, how could they know such an awesome friend?

Just when everyone was confused, Ye Chen was the first to open the door of the Bugatti Veyron and stepped out of the car.

A crowd of people were so shocked to see him that they couldn't speak.

Ye Chen was really too young, he looked no more than twenty-five or twenty-six, and the fact that he could afford such an expensive luxury car at such a young age made everyone feel that he was very unusual.

After Ye Chen got off the car, the Aston Martin one<sup>77</sup> driven by his wife, Xiao Churan, had also slowly parked behind his car.

Because the outside of the car was brighter during the day and the car had a reflective film on it, it was impossible to see from the outside who exactly was sitting inside. Mobile One Second Remember provides you with wonderful \fiction reading.

Everyone also focused their attention on the Aston Martin at the back, waiting to see what kind of big person was sitting in this car.

Ye Chen stepped forward to the passenger side of the Aston Martin and reached out to pull open the door.

Then, Zhang Xiaoman, who was wearing Wang Weiwei's custom-made wedding dress and full of nervousness, stepped down from the car!

At first when they saw her, the Sun family hadn't even reacted.

Their first thought was, who the hell is this bride? Why such a big row, two top-notch sports cars for her as wedding car transportation.

Sun Hongwei was also a little startled at first glance, but then he recognized this beautiful bride in a wedding dress!

Isn't this your own fiancée, Mandy Cheung?

He was shocked, but couldn't care less and happily ran to Zhang Xiaoman, saying excitedly, "Xiaoman, you've finally come!"

As soon as this was said, the entire Sun family was struck by lightning. Fastest Updated.

It was only at this time that the crowd finally saw that the bride coming out of the passenger side of the Aston Martin one77 was the poor daughter-in-law who was about to marry into the Sun family, Zhang Xiaoman!

Everyone was completely stunned.

Zhang Xiaoman's family's situation was clear to the entire Sun family.

Her parents were idle at home, and occasionally took a casual job, but they were also a three-day fisherman.

And there was also a lazy brother at home, so it could be said that the days of a family of three were a mess.

In addition their family is not from the city of Jinling, but from the surrounding counties, which means that their family does not even have a set, valuable house.

The house their family lived in was said to be more than twenty or thirty years old, and it wasn't even sold for less than three hundred thousand.

The Sun family was also well aware that the Zhang family was intent on asking for more bride price from the Sun family so that they could make a down payment on a house for that delicious and lazy son.

This kind of family condition, in the eyes of the Sun family, was simply the bottom of the bottom.

Therefore, other than Sun Hongwei, no one in the entire Sun family could look down on Zhang Xiaoman.

But they couldn't figure it out, it was this Zhang Xiaoman that everyone despised that came in a limited edition Aston Martin one77!

Just as the entire Sun family was stunned, Xiao Churan also walked down from the main driver of the Aston Martin.

Looking at Sun Hongwei, she smiled politely, "Hongwei, we haven't seen each other for a few days, congratulations to you and Xiao Man, newlyweds!"

Sun Hongwei was also shocked in his heart when he saw Xiao Churan.

Xiao Churan was Zhang Xiaoman's high school classmate, and also a good friend with good relations, so he had met Xiao Churan a few times under Zhang Xiaoman's introduction, and was considered an acquaintance with each other.

As for Xiao Churan's family situation, he had heard about it before, he had heard that Xiao Churan's family had a company specializing in decoration, it wasn't big, but it wasn't small either, and it had even recruited a son-in-law, and this son-in-law didn't seem to be very capable.

However, in his impression, Xiao's group seemed to be just a company with a market value of tens of millions or a hundred million, and some time ago, there were rumors that it seemed to be on the verge of bankruptcy.

In this situation, how could Xiao Churan afford to drive an Aston Martin one worth tens of millions of dollars?

But although he was very confused, he still didn't show it and politely smiled at Xiao Churan, "Churan, long time no see, I didn't expect you to even drive an Aston Martin now."

Xiao Churan's expression was not too good, and she was about to tell him that her husband had borrowed this car, but at this time, Ye Chen interjected, "Actually, these two cars have been bought for a long time, since the last Jinling International Car Show, but Churan is a person who has always been rather low-key, so the two cars have never been driven out."

When the crowd heard this, they exclaimed out loud.

So this was the mysterious tycoon who had been famous for a long time at the original car show.

The news that both luxury cars had been bought by one person at that time had truly shocked the entire Jinling.

Along with this shocking news, there is another interesting anecdote, which is that Gao Junwei, the grand son of the Jinling International Convention and Exhibition Center, was beaten up and humiliated by the security company's security guards because he failed to touch the two cars.

At that time, people said that this mysterious tycoon must have come from a very unusual source, otherwise, it was impossible for him not to even give the Gao family face.

It was only today that everyone finally met the mysterious tycoon in the flesh, not expecting him to come to Sun Hongwei's wedding!

Sun Hongwei himself was stunned, he couldn't help but exclaim, "I've heard about these two cars for a long time, but since the car show, I haven't seen them driven out again, I didn't expect you to drive them to my wedding, I'm really flattered!! am so grateful!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said with an arrogant face, "You don't have to thank me, and it's not your face I'm giving, I'm giving Zhang Xiaoman's face."

Sun Hongwei's parents, as well as the rest of the Sun family's relatives and various guests, were all too shocked to speak when they heard this.

Wasn't this Zhang Xiaoman just a girl from a poor family? The parents were incapable, not to mention idle, and the important thing was that they thought about getting something for nothing every day.

How could Zhang Xiaoman know such a rich man when she was born in such a family?

If any two cars are worth a hundred million dollars, wouldn't the man be worth billions and billions of dollars?

At that moment, Sun Hongwei's father immediately got up to stammer.

So he stepped towards Ye Chen and said with a flattering smile on his face, "Oh this gentleman, my name is Sun Dewang, I am Sun Hongwei's father, I really didn't expect that you would be honored to attend the wedding of the dog today, it really makes the entire Sun family proud." First post.

"It's just that I don't know what your name is, sir."

Ye Chen gave him a contemptuous glance and said disdainfully, "You can just call me Mr. Ye."

Sun Dewang was a little surprised, what kind of year was this, and there were still people calling themselves gongshi?

Could it be the young master of a big family with a strong background?

That would be like meeting a real god!

So, he stammered in excitement, "Oh my greetings Young Master Ye! I am in the flour business, there is a flour mill in our Jinling, maybe you have eaten our flour, our brand of flour is called Golden Flour Family!"

Ye Chen frowned and asked, "The Gold Dust Family, isn't that the name of someone's TV series?"

Sun Dewang said apologetically, "Aren't we also trying to rub up against the heat, people are gold flour and I'm flour, it's actually not too far off."

Ye Chen coldly snorted and asked him, "Boss Sun, today is the day you marry your daughter-in-law, why didn't you send a fleet to the bride's home to receive the bride?"

Sun Dewang and his wife looked at each other, looking embarrassed, not knowing how to reply.

It was only after a moment of silence that Sun Dewang hurriedly said with a smile, "Oh my gongzi Ye, you don't know, we had already found a very imposing fleet, but something happened to that fleet temporarily, so ....."

"Temporary accident?" Ye Chen frowned and asked, "Even if the wedding convoy is in trouble, does your own family even have a single car?"

Sun Dewang said with an apologetic face, "I'm really sorry Mr. Ye, I'm also in a hurry and didn't care, I'm really sorry for slowing down Xiao Man!"

After saying that, he was busy assuring, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, in the future, when Xiao Man passes through the door, our family will definitely compensate her properly!"

Sun Hongwei, who was on the side, was incomparably happy when he heard this.

Originally, Mom and Dad did not agree with their marriage to Zhang Xiaoman no matter what, and even this morning they were still complaining to themselves about all sorts of things, even threatening themselves that even if Zhang Xiaoman crossed the door, they would not let her have a good time.

Unexpectedly now, Xiao Choran and her husband, driving over in two luxury cars, Dad's attitude immediately changed so much!

Thinking of this, he was overjoyed, and was a little more grateful to Ye Chen and Xiao Churan.

Right at this time, Sun Hongwei's mother, Xu Liqin, pulled Sun Dewang aside and scolded him in a low voice, "What are you talking nonsense? Have you forgotten what we talked about before? Never let that woman in our house!" first issue

Sun Dewang was busy saying, "Don't you see that Zhang Xiaoman has such a powerful friend? If we slack off, what if they blame us?"

"Blame it on nothing!" The company said in a statement that the company's products will be sold to the public, and that the company's products will be sold to the public. Are we willingly letting Zhang Xiaoman be our daughter-in-law just because she knows him?"

Sun Dewang couldn't help but ask, "So what do you mean? Now that everyone is here, will we continue with this wedding?"

"Of course we can't continue!" Xu Liqin angrily scolded, "The family surnamed Zhang doesn't know if they're brain-dead, we humiliated them so much and they let Zhang Xiaoman marry over, what a dirty trick!" Fastest Update

Saying that, she was busy again, "You'll talk less and look at me later, I definitely won't let this Zhang Xiaoman into the Sun family today!"

Xu Liqin was a typical egoist.

The only thing she considers in anything is whether it can bring benefits to herself.

If it can bring benefits to herself, even if it's a garbage collector on the side of the road, she will welcome it with a smile and make a full gesture.

But if she couldn't bring benefits to herself, even if he was the President of the United States, she wouldn't bother to take care of him.

So even though Ye Chen and his wife, driving a luxury car worth over a hundred million dollars, had come to give Zhang Xiaoman a kiss, Xu Liqin still hadn't changed her mind about Zhang Xiaoman.

She knew that face these things were empty, and only the benefits that could come to hand were real.

Even if Zhang Xiaoman knew rich friends, so what? Can I have some of this money? Can she take care of our business? Can she take our home to the next level? Fastest Update

If I can, then I will naturally be pleasant to you, and even have no problem supporting you as an aunt.

But if you can't, you still won't be able to enter my Sun family today.

The reason for this banquet and this battle was that she did not want to directly oppose the wedding and make her son jealous of her, so she first agreed to hold the wedding, then found all kinds of ways to find fault, sarcasm, and forced Zhang Xiaoman to give up on her own initiative, then her son could not blame himself.

Now, she had plenty of reasons to pick on Zhang Xiaoman, the biggest one being, since today was the wedding, why didn't her parents come?

So, she walked up to Zhang Xiaoman and said in a cold voice, "Xiaoman, where are your parents? Why aren't they here?"

Zhang Xiaoman was busy saying, "Auntie, my parents, they ....."

Zhang Xiaoman said, not hesitating.

In fact, she knew very well in her heart that she was getting married today, but her parents didn't even show up, which was indeed a bit unreasonable. And now that her future mother-in-law was asking herself this question, she was completely at a loss as to how to answer.

In the event that you're not able to find the best way to get rid of the problem, you'll be able to get rid of the problem by yourself. You love it when I talk to you, don't you?"

Zhang Xiaoman hurriedly waved her hand and explained respectfully, "Auntie, to be honest, my parents are a bit unhappy, so they might not be attending today, please forgive me!"

"Ouch hey!" Xu Liqin said with an angry face, "Hopefully, your family still doesn't look down on our family, right? Your parents are so funny. They don't even show up to marry their daughter. See if there's anyone in all of Jinling who works like that. If this gets out, how will our Sun family lose face?"

Zhang Xiaoman's eyes were red, so she apologized in a panic, "I'm sorry auntie, my parents' side is really a special situation, they haven't been too happy about the bride price before, and they weren't too happy when I went out this morning, so please forgive me ....."

"Not happy?" Xu Liqin's eyebrows twisted as she heard this and steeply snapped, "How outrageous, what are your family's conditions? What's the condition of our house? She's marrying into our family, so you've climbed up the ladder, and your parents aren't happy about it? What? You don't like our family, do you? If you don't like our family, then simply stop you from marrying over ah!"

This is a great way to remember to read fiction on your mobile phone.

Hearing Xu Liqin say that, Zhang Xiaoman's tears burst out.

Once Sun Hongwei saw his fiancée, who had been so humiliated by his own mother, he was also a bit unable to see past her and hurriedly said, "Mom! My marriage with Manny is for the two of us to live our lives, as long as the two of us can live well, we don't want to care so much. So don't you care so much, it's getting late, just get ready to get the wedding ready, won't you?"

"That won't do!" She knew that face these things were empty, and only the benefits that could come to hand were real. But your father and I were waiting here early in the morning, and so were our relatives and friends, and what happened to their family? Then no one but the bride has come! It's a clear sign that the hind eye is looking down on people and looking down on us!" Mobile One Second Remember provides you with wonderful \fiction reading.

Zhang Xiaoman even waved her hand to explain, "Auntie, you really misunderstood, my parents really didn't mean to look down on you, they were just a little angry, that's why they didn't come."

Xu Liqin coldly snapped, "Less talk to me so much useless, marriage is a major event in life, you are not an orphan without parents, how can you attend the wedding by yourself? I've grown up so much, I've never heard of my parents being alive but not coming to the wedding, not only does this spread out without face, itself it's also unlucky ah."

At this point, Xu Liqin gritted her teeth and said, "Zhang Xiaoman, I'll put it down here today, if your parents don't come, I don't think this marriage will be necessary!"

As soon as this was said, Zhang Xiaoman almost collapsed.

It was with great difficulty that she had relied on the help of Xiao Choran and Ye Chen to avoid her parents' obstruction and come to the wedding.

She thought that being able to marry Sun Hongwei would be worth it even if she turned against her family, but she didn't expect to know that her in-laws still had so many difficulties waiting for her after she came.

Xiao Churan couldn't see past it at this point, and she said angrily, "Auntie, do you know how much Xiao Mann has suffered and paid for her grievances in order to go to this wedding?"

Xu Liqin looked at Xiao Churan with a raised eyebrow and said, "This lady, I've never met you before, so I don't want to offend you, but there are some words, we have to be reasonable, I married my daughter-in-law today, I invited so many relatives and friends to come over to hold the ceremony, but as a result, my daughter-in-law's family, not even a single person, have you ever seen anyone doing things this way?"

Xiao Chu Ran was busy, "Isn't this a special situation? Little Man's parents do have a strong opinion on this matter, and Little Man is also very determined to turn against his family and marry Hong Wei as well."

Xu Liqin left her mouth, "Aigoo, our family can't afford to be, I'm telling you ah, just to get married, you have to follow the old rules, if this bride's parents don't come, this marriage will not be concluded, it's useless for the king of heaven to come over and talk to me."

Xiao Chorán said angrily, "How can you be like this?"

Ye Chen stopped Xiao Chorán at this time, looked at Xu Liqin and asked with a smile, "Okay, I don't think you should bother to find all sorts of reasons here, we are all adults, just tell us straight, in the event that Xiao Man's parents don't come, how exactly can you agree to hold the wedding as usual?"

Xu Liqin said, "It's very simple, our family is looking for a daughter-in-law, the family itself is to match, but Zhang Xiaoman's family is so poor, I put up with it for the sake of my son's happiness, her parents can't look down on people like that, I've put up with them, and now they're throwing their faces at me instead? Then in that case, let's simply do business, our family is a rich family with tens of millions of dollars no matter what, if Zhang Xiaoman wants to marry into our family, she should bring at least 10 million dowry, otherwise, no discussion."

As soon as Zhang Xiaoman heard this, the good temper that she had been holding back was almost worn out by the other party.

She didn't expect that Xu Liqin, who had been causing a stumble between herself and Sun Hongwei, would bite back at this time and put all the blame on her own family.

So, she couldn't hide her anger and said, "Auntie Xu, if you had said that you weren't willing to let me pass, then I wouldn't have begged you to death, but while you said that you promised to let me have a wedding with Hong Wei, you are so obstructive, what exactly do you mean?"

Xu Liqin herself did not agree to her son's marriage to Zhang Xiaoman.

But the reason why she still agreed to do this wedding was nothing more than wanting to pick her own responsibility as cleanly as possible.

So Zhang Xiaoman made her family lose face today and made herself unable to hold her head up in front of her relatives and friends, and with that alone, she could stand on the moral high ground and refuse to let her marry into the Sun family. The mobile phone one second remember to provide you with wonderful \ fiction reading.

This is also a representation of those smart parents who act in a style in everyday life.

When smart parents have some kind of argument with their children, they tend to try not to give themselves lip service.

If they just firmly and unquestionably reject their child's decision, then in the future, if the child can't get over this hurdle, they will definitely keep blaming themselves and even hate themselves.

But the effect would naturally be much better if it was the other way around.

Now that he is on the moral high ground, even if his son Sun Hongwei is dissatisfied, he can't express it.

Because he has now been put on the spot by himself.

If he was still recklessly defending Zhang Xiaoman at this time, then he would be going against the entire Sun family.

If Zhang Xiaoman's parents don't come, all the people surnamed Sun at the scene will feel offended, and Sun Hongwei, the son of that pot, absolutely can't bear it.

Xu Liqin's calculations were not wrong.

At this time, Sun Hongwei's heart was very difficult.

He didn't even know what to do.

If he, himself, obeyed his mother's words, then the marriage would definitely not be possible.

If he himself didn't say anything, how could Zhang Xiaoman bear this kind of pressure from a thousand men by herself?

If you move towards Zhang Xiaoman, wouldn't that be like slapping the face of all the Sun family members yourself?

Xiao Churan saw that Zhang Xiaoman was also suffering from tears at this time, and was very indignant, but in this situation, he did not know what to say.

No matter how much bitterness was behind this matter, Zhang Xiaoman's parents not coming to her wedding, this had indeed been caught by someone else in a great grip.

If this plate couldn't be turned over, then the marriage would probably not really be possible.

The atmosphere at the scene suddenly became incredibly awkward.

Ye Chen, who had already seen everything through, didn't say a word at this time, just watched Xu Liqin's performance with cold eyes, and had already thought of a strategy to punish this woman.

Just at this time, a black BMW x6 drove over.

The car stopped, and a woman of about 50 years old walked out of the driver's compartment.

As soon as Xu Liqin saw this woman, surprise than greeted her and opened her mouth, "Sister Lu, why are you here?"

The one known as Sister Lu is a lady friend of Xu Liqin, whose family is quite well-off and has a good relationship with the Xue family.

The Xue family operated several large supermarkets in the local area, and although they were not as good as Carrefour Walmart, they were still very popular in the surrounding districts and suburbs.

Sun Dewang's Golden Flour Family Flour Factory has always been a local market, Jinling.

He has two relatively large sales channels for his flour, one is a large supermarket like Carrefour Walmart and the other is a chain of medium-sized supermarkets like the Xue family.

Flour mills are an industry with low technology content and fierce competition.

There were already a lot of big grain and oil brands like Golden Dragon Fish and Fulinmen in China, and their brands are more prominent, so their goods sell well. first issue

And in every city, there are at least a few more local flour brands.

So a small brand like him, which can only have a certain amount of local sales, is very dependent on the sales channel.

If the sales channel, give him more display space, more into his goods, he can make more money.

If the sales channel doesn't give him display space or get in his goods, then all his flour won't sell.

Several local grain and oil brands wanted to have a good relationship with the Xue family, so that they could get more resources and share from the Xue family, as well as significantly increase their sales and profits.

Therefore, both Sun Dewang and Xu Liqin had been chipping away at the line, trying to befriend it.

This was why Xu Liqin especially wanted her son, Sun Hongwei, to get together with the Xue family's daughter.

If he married the daughter of the Xue family and became his daughter-in-law, would he still need to worry about selling his family's flour? Maybe it will double in one year, triple in two years.

At this time, this Sister Lu's expression was somewhat unhappy as she looked at Xu Liqin and angrily said, "Liqin, you also don't treat me as a friend, your son is getting married, and you didn't tell me, and you still want me to help your son get on the line with Xue's daughter, aren't you trapping me?"

As soon as Xu Liqin heard this, she hurriedly pulled Sister Lu aside and whispered, "Oh my sister, it's a long story, let me tell you this, it's impossible for my son to get married today."

Sister Lu said in exasperation, "Who are you lying to? You're about to start this banquet and you're still playing sloppy with me?"

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past two years, and is now in the process of developing the new product for the next two years. Give up voluntarily."

Lu asked, "What if the girl doesn't give up?"

Xu Liqin sneered, "I won't let him into our home anyway, if she doesn't give up, let her go, do what she likes, it has nothing to do with our home."

Sister Lu's expression only softened at this point, nodding her head and saying, "I was just about to find you and tell you about what's going on in General Xue's house."

"What's the matter?" As soon as Xu Liqin came down to the mood, she hurriedly asked, "What did Mr. Xue say over there?"

Sister Lu whispered, "Didn't I tell you that Xue's daughter is back from overseas? There was a black boyfriend before that."

"Yes." Xu Liqin nodded, "Didn't you say that you had already broken up with that black guy?"

Sister Lu sighed: "The breakup is a breakup, but it was just found out two days ago that this girl is pregnant ....."

Xu Liqin said in a stunned voice, "Ah? Pregnant? Is that the Negro's seed?"

Lu said helplessly, "Yes! The key is that this girl is still shafted and insists on giving birth to this child, you said that Mr. Xue has this one daughter, if this daughter is pregnant and gives birth to a child unmarried, where will his face be?"

"Indeed ....." Xu Liqin smacked her lips and said, "This matter is indeed a bit difficult to handle."

Sister Lu looked at Xu Liqin with great intentions and whispered, "Liqin, there's a good thing now, don't blame my sister for not taking care of you."

Xu Liqin busily said, "Sister Lu, you say it!"

Sister Lu said carefully, "Mr. Xue's wife told me privately that if your Hongwei is willing to marry her daughter, and at the same time wait for her daughter to be born and give birth to this child as a father, Mr. Xue is willing to give a dowry of 30 million yuan, and after that, half of the shelves of his supermarket chain and flour area will be exclusively given to you."
