Chapter 1401

On the way home, Ye Chen drove and Xiao Churan sat on the passenger side, still excited.

Her circle of friends had completely exploded today, with countless people praising and commenting, envious of her good fortune to be able to have dinner with the most popular actress, Gu Qiuyi.

Xiao Churan kept her head down and fiddled with her phone, her excitement overflowing.

After returning a few of her friend's comments, she looked at Ye Chen with an adoring face and took off, "Hubby, I just found out today that you're really amazing, I didn't think even a big star like Gu Qiu Yi appreciates your ability to read feng shui, do you really have a few brushes other than fooling people?"

Ye Chen smiled and said "I never said that I was fooling people by reading feng shui, it's just that you, dad and mom have always thought that I was fooling people, feng shui is something that is originally the essence of what was left behind by the ancestors, there are traces of it."

Xiao Churan nodded his head and said seriously "I know that feng shui is something left behind by the ancestors, I also believe in feng shui, I just don't quite believe that you can read feng shui."

Ye Chen was not convinced and asked her back "Why don't you believe that I can read feng shui?"

Xiao Churan said, "Because I know you! Like you said yourself, you grew up in an orphanage, the orphanage does not teach people to read feng shui, after you came out of the orphanage, you went to work at a construction site, then my grandfather let me marry you, you've been running the household chores at home for the past few years, when have I never seen you learn feng shui ah."

Ye Chen smiled and said "Feng Shui is something that lies in research, when you used to work, I liked to study the I-Ching and Bagua at home when I had nothing else to do, and I naturally understood it when I studied more."

Actually, Ye Chen really didn't know much about feng shui before he got the Nine Xuantian Scriptures.

He had only learnt some Wing Chun when he was young, after all, the Ye family had an ancestral heritage of martial arts, and Ye Man was a branch lineage of the Ye family.

Quite literally, most of the Ye family's main lineage put most of their energy into making money in business, while the Ye Man branch lineage put their energy into practicing Wing Chun.

The medical arts, alchemy techniques, and secret feng shui techniques that Ye Chen knew now, and even those somewhat subtle mystical techniques, all came from the Nine Mysteries Sutra.

But this was the biggest secret in his life, he had no way to tell his wife, Xiao Churan, and he might not even tell a second person about the Nine Xuantian Scriptures in this lifetime.

Other than the Nine Xuan Heavenly Scriptures, the second biggest secret in his life was the identity of his own young master of the Ye family.

But it was hard for him to hide this matter from the whole world, after all, the Ye family and the Ye family's servants knew about him.

It was just that his wife, as well as the rest of Jinling didn't know yet.

When they returned home, Xiao Churan was still busy replying to his friends, and with a bored head, he advanced into the villa.

Ye Chen parked the car and was just about to get off, when he received a WeChat voice from Gu Qiuyi, saying to him, "Brother Ye Chen, people's stomachs are not feeling well, will you send them some Jiu Xuan Stomach Powder?"

Ye Chen replied to her "Inan, if you need stomach dispersal, I'll ask Wei Liang to send you some over, don't worry, I'll ask him to send you more, is ten boxes enough for you to eat?"

Previously, Ye Chen didn't want, before the Jiu Xuan Stomach Dispersion went on the market, too much of the medicine to be leaked out.

However, to Gu Qiuyi, she naturally wanted to make an exception.

But Gu Qiuyi now said, "Brother Ye Chen, my stomach is not feeling well, shouldn't you personally come to deliver me medicine? I've searched for you for so many years in vain, and you've sent someone else to deal with such a small matter as delivering medicine, you're such a disappointment to me!"

Ye Chen is helpless "Auntie, isn't this moral kidnapping? Anyway, what you need is Jiu Xuan Stomach Dispersion, who wouldn't give it away?"

Gu Qiuyi said, "Who told you that I only need Jiu Xuan Stomach Powder? I still need my fiancé who I just saw after so many years and so long! Anyway, I've got a terrible stomachache, so it's up to you! If you don't feel sorry for me, then I'll tell my father, and if I can't, I'll tell your wife the truth!"

Ye Chen said awkwardly "Aunt, I'm in a stable relationship with your sister-in-law, you can't have a third party interfering!"

"My third party interfering?" The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest version of this article. You've only been married to your wife for a mere three or four years!"

"Also, you've been missing for so many years, but not only have I not forgotten you, I've also lived up to the promise of marriage and abandoned you. All these years I've been brainwashing myself, no matter how nice a man I meet, I tell myself I have a fiancé, I'll find him, and now that I've finally found you, you're calling me a third party meddler?!"

The more Gu Qiuyi spoke at this point, the angrier she became.

She hadn't wanted to be too fussy with Ye Chen, saying that he had let her down and was just subconsciously trying to be petulant with him.

However, she didn't expect that Ye Chen would say that he was interfering by a third party.

This really ignited the resentment in her heart all of a sudden!

Originally, sitting with Xiao Churan eating dinner together, one mouthful of Mrs. Ye's call, already made her depressed, to say that the third party, it was Xiao Churan interfered in her engagement with Ye Chen.

Now, this Ye Chen even put the cart before the horse and said that he was the third party, which made her grievances come out all of a sudden .

Immediately after, she cried, "Yip!When you get to Yanjing, I'll show you dozens of my diaries over the past ten years!From the day you disappeared, read them one by one. If you're not in the diary one day, I'll be blamed for losing!You're a big pig, you've hurt me for so many years and now you're doing this to me, do you have a conscience?"

Ye Chen felt a big head.

People had honored him by calling him a true dragon on earth, but this girl was good, not giving herself any face at all, directly calling herself a pig!

However, he didn't dare to be angry, nor did he have the face to be angry, instead, he felt guilty.

He was a person, although he was ruthless and merciless when facing his enemies, but he was always very grateful and thankful to those who were gracious to him, and he was no exception to Gu Qiu Yi.

Hearing her cry, Ye Chen hurriedly said "inan sorry, I said the wrong thing, I apologize to you.".

Gu Qiu Yi questioned him, "What about the matter of my stomach pain?"

Ye Chen immediately said, "Wait a moment, I'll personally bring you medicine!"

Gu Qiuyi asked "Do you have any ready-made Jiu Xuan Stomach Powder there?"

Ye Chen said, "No, but I can pick it up from the pharmacy and deliver it to the hotel myself, are you satisfied now?"

Gu Qiu Yi said "that's forget it, the pharmacy is quite far away, it's so late, I won't toss you, you'd better arrange for someone else to send it over, although I have a strong opinion of you pig head, but after all, my heart still aches for you."

Ye Chen suddenly thought to himself, this spleen and stomach disorder, although taking Stomach Dispersion had a good effect, the medicine Stomach Dispersion itself was positioned more towards relieving symptoms and discomfort rather than immediately curing the root cause.

This kind of medicine is a bit like throat candy for sore throat, some throat candy is very comfortable to eat, and the sore throat can be immediately relieved, but the root cause of the inflammation and fire of the throat may not be able to be cured.

If Gu Qiuyi's spleen and stomach have really left some hidden illnesses, it is better to treat the root cause to solve the problem once and for all.

Thinking of this, he immediately said "You wait for me at the hotel, I will go over to give you a systematic treatment."

Ye Chen Xiao Chorán.

Ye Chen is not good to talk directly to his wife Xiao Churan about going to see Gu Qiuyi's doctor, so he can only tell her that Wei Liang's side is temporarily a bit busy, so let himself go over to help.

Xiao Churan didn't think much of it and instructed him not to come home too late, so he went back upstairs alone to take a shower.

Ye Chen re-drove the car out and returned to the Shangri-La Hotel.

At this time, Gu Qiuyi was in her top luxury suite, nervously waiting for Ye Chen's arrival.

The room she was staying in was the Shangri-La's Presidential Suite, which had been occupied by Wu Donghai and his son, Wu Xin, in the beginning.

This was the Shangri-La, the highest specification, the largest area, the most expensive, and also the most extremely luxurious room.

Her assistant, Chen Duo Duo, was living next door to her.

When Ye Chen rang the doorbell of his room, Gu Qiu Yi, who was wearing a satin nightgown, opened the door for him in a panic.

Seeing Ye Chen standing outside the door, Gu Qiuyi's heart was very happy, but her mouth purposely hummed a few times and said, "Aigoo, willing to leave that wife of yours behind to care for my childhood sweetheart fiancée?"

Ye Chen accosted with a smile, "Didn't you say that your spleen and stomach were upset? Let me help you with that."

"Huh?" Gu Qiuyi muttered, "Count you still have some conscience, come in!"

Saying that, her body flashed to the side, giving way to the entrance.

Ye Chen stepped through the door and saw that this presidential suite of hers was incredibly large, and asked, "Aren't you afraid to live in such a big room by yourself?"

"Afraid." Gu Qiuyi casually said, "Why don't you don't leave at night and stay here with me."

Ye Chen coughed twice, "Men and women can't be trusted, besides you're a star and a public figure, you have to pay attention to some influence in everything, in case your fans know that there's a man who doesn't come home at night in your room, then they'll definitely be disappointed."

"Disappointed? It doesn't exist."

Gu Qiuyi waved her hand, "The whole country knows that I have a childhood sweetheart fiancé and also knows that I've been looking for him, if the fans find out that you've been sleeping in my room at night, then I'll simply tell them that you're the fiancé I've been looking for for many years."

Ye Chen hurriedly said, "Oh my, how does this make, stars nowadays are only on fire when they're single, as soon as they announce that they have a girlfriend or pick up a boyfriend, or announce that they're married, then the fans will immediately clam up and their entire stardom will be greatly affected."

Gu Qiuyi didn't care: "Do you think I really care about any stardom ah?The Gu family is not as powerful as the Ye family, but I could always buy half the entertainment industry if I wanted to, so who cares about stardom?I myself am the entire star path."

Ye Chen was convinced.

Miss Gu did have the strength to say something like that.

China's entertainment industry as a whole, although it was huge, but that also had to be compared to whoever.

The national box office of the country's movies only added up to 64.2 billion a year, and it was only worth one neighborhood in Yanjing.

This 64.2 billion will feed countless cinemas, countless film companies, famous directors, famous writers and famous actors.

As the saying goes, there are too many monks and too little meat, so the net profit that the entire industry can create each year is not much.

So for a big family of hundreds of billions of dollars like the Gu family, they really had the ability to buy half of the entertainment industry if they wanted to.

So Ye Chen sighed and said, "Okay my aunt, hurry up and sit down on the sofa, I'll take your pulse."

Gu Qiuyi looked at him and asked in amazement, "You really know how to treat people, huh?"

Ye Chen retorted, "Of course I will!You think I'm lying to you?"

Gu Qiu Yi trailed off, "I thought you were trying to come to my room in the middle of the night to take advantage of me under the false pretense of giving me medical treatment."

"I "Ye Chen almost spewed out a mouthful of old blood, "I'm not that casual!"

Gu Qiu Yi gave him a blank look and said, "Let me tell you, you don't think I'm the kind of woman who just goes around, I've grown up and I haven't even held the hand of any other boy besides you!And even if you're not married now, even if you want to fulfill your marriage contract with me, I may not agree, at least there has to be an inspection period for you first, and you can't do that until you've passed my inspection, or else I won't consider marrying you if you turn out to be a big scum after all these years!"

Ye Chen asked rhetorically, "If that's the case, then why do you keep saying it so bluntly?One will be a fiancée, one will be a second marriage, and one will be a stepmother or something."

Gu Qiuyi said in a huff, "Do you know what it means to book in advance?Like if you're a driver and I've already booked you, you have to be good and wait for me and never take another order, but then again, even though I've booked you, I don't necessarily have to ride in your car, so if you don't make me happy, I can always get another ride!"

Ye Chen was helpless: "Okay, okay, I'm not going to talk to you about this, I can't talk to you either, aren't you sick to your stomach? Come I'll give you a look, I'll hurry home after reading, your sister-in-law is still waiting for me to go home and sleep."

"No." Ye Chen said, "I'm not here to check your body!"

Gu Qiuyi touched her stomach and grumbled, "Look how good I am to you! Even this opportunity to find you after so many years was gained at the expense of my health. It's even less likely that I would come to see you in Jinling! It's really all about you all the time!"

"Yes yes yes." Ye Chen nodded his head as he opened his mouth to coax her and said, "It's really been hard for you for so many years, and brother will definitely compensate you properly when he has the chance in the future."

Gu Qiuyi asked, "Then how are you going to compensate?"

Ye Chen said, "I'll cure your stomach once and for all, after I cure you, if there's a little problem with this stomach of yours afterwards, count me as losing."

"Blow it on you."

Although Gu Qiuyi looked disbelieving, she still followed him and sat down on the sofa.

Then, she passed her right hand to Ye Chen's face.

Ye Chen gently placed his finger on top of the pulse on her wrist, it looked like he was trumpeting the pulse, but in reality, he was just taking this opportunity to channel a trace of aura into her body to investigate.

Treating the sick and saving people and using any kind of medicine was far from the spirit qi.

This was because it was the essence of all things in the world.

When this trace of spiritual energy entered her body, Gu Qiuyi immediately felt a different kind of warmth and comfort that went straight to her spleen and stomach.

A moment later, she felt that her stomach, which was aching faintly, had completely improved without her noticing it.

Previously, her spleen and stomach had always felt like a paroxysm, and the bloating, acid reflux, and burning panic had made her entire body unable to lift any appetite.

But now all of those discomforts, as if in an instant, had dissipated!

Feeling that the discomfort in her body had all disappeared, Gu Qiuyi looked at Ye Chen in stunned silence and couldn't help but ask, "In traditional Chinese medicine, taking a pulse is only a diagnosis, not a treatment ah, why do I feel that nothing is wrong when you take my pulse?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "There is an acupuncture point on a person's wrist that is dedicated to treating the spleen and stomach, you think I'm taking your pulse, but I'm actually giving you an acupuncture point massage."

Gu Qiuyi was surprised and asked, "Really fake ah? Is it so [pencil www.bequgex.com] magical?"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "It's the same reason why you rub your temples when you have a headache. It's just that my technique is more magical, so the effect will be even better."

Gu Qiuyi couldn't help but exclaim, "Brother Ye Chen, you're really amazing! I've seen so many doctors and taken so many kinds of medicine, and I haven't been well for more than a month, but I didn't expect you to give me a press on my wrist and I'll be fine."

Ye Chen said with an embarrassed expression, "Just now, you called me a big pig head, and now you're calling me brother Ye Chen, you're inevitably too fickle."

Gu Qiuyi, who was full of shame, snorted coquettishly and said, "If you weren't married, I would definitely call you brother Ye Chen one mouthful at a time before I would be reluctant to scold you."

Ye Chen nodded, "I know, it's all my fault."

"It's good that you know." Gu Qiuyi left her mouth open and said, "My dad just sent me a WeChat video to ask how my work over here is going, I was going to tell him about finding you, but I thought about it. I wanted to give her a surprise. You won't lie to me when you say you're going to Yanjing next week, right?"

Ye Chen said seriously, "I've already told my wife when we finished eating, so how could I lie to you? You'll go home when I'm done with this side of things. I'll be over after I'm busy with the matter at hand."

Gu Qiuyi asked again with an expectant face, "Brother Ye Chen, do you really have a way to cure my father's illness?"

Ye Chen nodded, "I'm very confident."

Gu Qiuyi couldn't hide her excitement and said, "Then I'll be waiting for you in Yanjing! Please, you must heal my father!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said word for word, "Don't worry, I'll do my best."

After saying that, seeing that it was getting late, Ye Chen stood up and said, "It's too late, if there's nothing else, I'll go back first."

Gu Qiuyi hurriedly asked, "Brother Ye Chen, won't you sit down for a while longer?"

"No more sitting, it's already late, so I won't keep you from resting."

Gu Qiuyi wanted to say something, but thought about it and held back.

A moment later, she asked with an expectant face, "Brother Ye Chen, will you still visit me in the next two days then?"

Ye Chen said, "I still have quite a few things to deal with in the next two days, I might not have time, but don't worry, I'll definitely go to Yanjing next week to pay a visit."

Only then did Gu Qiuyi nodded and said, "In the next two days, I'm going to shoot an advertisement for your Jiu Xuan Stomach Dispersion in Jinling, if you have time, come over and visit."

"Good."

1406

While Ye Chen was treating Gu Qiuyi, Ito Naja had just watched her mentor Yamamoto Kazuki fall asleep with her own eyes, which is why she tiredly said to Tanaka Koichi, "Tanaka San, you stay here and take care of my master for me, I still need to make sure I get some rest, otherwise, it's likely that I won't even make it to the next four rounds, not to mention defeating Qin Ao Xue."

For Itachi Nashiko, although her master Yamamoto Kazuki strongly advised her to go and worship Ye Chen as her master, she was not prepared to do so.

She felt that no matter what, her mentor was injured to this extent by Ye Chen's palm, and no matter who was right or wrong in this matter, she couldn't abandon her mentor at this time and go to worship Ye Chen as her master.

Moreover, she also felt deep inside that Ye Chen would most likely not take her as a disciple.

Ye Chen one is not short of money, and the other doesn't like Japanese people very much, what would she use to impress him?

Therefore, she had made up her mind to fight this match to the best of her ability, and then she would return to Japan with her mentor.

Because of this, she couldn't continue to take care of Yamamoto Kazuki here.

She had to return to the hotel, make sure she had relatively enough rest, and she also had to seize this last moment to practice hard.

As soon as Kobayashi Jiro heard that Ito Nana-chan was going back to the hotel, he hurriedly said obsequiously, "Oh my, Miss Nana-chan, it just so happens that I'm going back to the hotel as well, let's both go together."

But he wasn't angry, he already knew that Yamato Nadeshiko, who was as hard to pick as Ito Nadeshiko, was simply not a target that could be overcome in a short period of time.

Therefore, Kobayashi Jiro decided to take the initiative to tell her a very valuable piece of news in order to please Ito Rape.

He said to Ito Cabbage, "Miss Cabbage, let's go together, I just happened to drive the car that our branch bought in Jinling."

Saying that, without waiting for Cabbage Ito's refusal, he added, "Actually, your master, Mr. Yamamoto, is not without a cure, I knew there was someone in the world who could cure him."

"Really?!" Itachi was instantly agitated and asked off the cuff, "Kobayashi-san, you're not kidding me, are you? My master is now unconscious all over his body, is there really anyone in this world who can cure him?"

Kobayashi Jiro said obsequiously, "Miss Cabbage, I'm sure you've heard of Chinese medicine, right?"

"I've heard of it." Itachi nodded and said, "But the Chinese doctors I remember don't seem to be very good at treating major illnesses. It's more about treating some, minor ailments like headaches and fever, as well as treating some physical discomfort."

"For example, TCM acupuncture and fire cupping are loved by athletes all over the world, especially fire cupping, which can relax muscles and relieve pain, even Phelps, a famous American swimmer, had a fire cupping in the Rio Olympics,"

Kobayashi Jiro said, "All of these things that Miss Vegetable said are just some very common applications of Chinese medicine, in fact, as far as I know, Chinese medicine is very miraculous, there was a famous doctor in Jinling who cured a patient who was paraplegic in a car accident, and made him recover as good as new in a short time! However, as far as I know, that patient damaged a spinal nerve in a car accident, and there are still some differences between him and Yamamoto-san."

Ito Nabiki asked off the top of her head, "Is there really such a magical person in the world? Then please tell me, Mr. Kobayashi, who is the divine doctor who has such a miraculous skill!"

Kobayashi Jiro smiled pleasantly, "Geez Cabbage Patch, this is a long story, why don't I drive and we'll talk on the way?"

Ito Nabiki knew that Kobayashi Jiro was willing to tell her this valuable information because he wanted her to take his car back.

So she didn't insist anymore and nodded, "Okay, that's hard work Kobayashi-san!"

1407

Kobayashi Jiro drove out of the hospital in a luxurious Mercedes-Benz sedan, carrying the quiet, virginal Ito Nana-chan along with him.

Driving the car out of the hospital gates, Ito Nana-chan couldn't wait to follow up and ask, "Mr. Kobayashi, who exactly is that miracle doctor you mentioned? Can you tell me now?"

Kobayashi Jiro nodded, "Miss Cabbage Patch, I won't lie to you, this divine doctor's surname is Shi, Shi Tianqi, he is a renowned apricot forest expert throughout China, and some time ago, he was the one who cured paraplegia, a major injury that was judged to be impossible to cure in medical history."

Itachi had always been very healthy, so she had never paid any attention to the medical world and knew nothing about Shi Tianqi.

However, now that she heard Kobayashi Jiro say this, her heart was suddenly filled with great anticipation.

Thus, she hurriedly pursued, "Mr. Kobayashi, may I ask where can I find this divine doctor?"

Kobayashi Jiro lamented, "This divine physician has a local medicine hall, called Jishido, but the old doctor is eccentric as hell and seems to be prejudiced against the Japanese, so it's not going to be easy to ask him to treat Mr. Yamamoto."

Kobayashi Jiro shook his head, "If money had been a solution, my brother wouldn't have died in Jinling."

Ito Nana asked in amazement, "What do you mean by that, Kobayashi-san? Was your brother victimized by this divine physician?"

"No no." Kobayashi Jiro was busy, "My brother's death was related to him, but not by him"

As he said this, Kobayashi Jiro surmised in his heart, "Damn, in the end, brother was murdered by his own purchase, and the person who killed him, even if it wasn't Ye Chen himself, he definitely had nothing to do with it."

"But then again, the reason why there was such a big pile of events behind it in the first place, it all boils down to brother he coveted Shi Tianqi's divine pill, and as a result, he didn't expect it. He thought he could come back to offer his treasures after stealing the divine pill, but he didn't expect to be set upon by Shi Tianqi and Ye Chen, and incidentally poisoned their mutual father, thinking about this incident, I also have mixed feelings, angry, fortunate, and even a bit of titillation"

How could Itachi know that his mind was thinking and thinking so much all at once.

She opened her mouth and asked Kobayashi Jiro, "Do you know where that Healer's medicine hall is?"

"I know." Jirou Kobayashi nodded and said, "Shall I take you over there now?"

"Yes!" Itachi said excitedly, "I'll beg him to do and heal my mentor at any price!"

Every Monday to Friday, he sat in the Jishido clinic, and on weekends, when the shop was closed, he would take Chen Xiaozhao on a tour around Jinling, and sometimes he would also go to the countryside to give free medical treatment and deliver medicine to the orphaned elderly in the countryside, living a good and full life.

Today, sitting in Jishido, had just sent away the last patient, and was about to let the fellow clean up and prepare to close, when Jirou Kobayashi came to the door with Itochi.

At the door, Kobayashi Jiro said to Ito Naboko, "Miss Naboko, let's go in later, and you mustn't tell me my real name!"

Kobayashi Jiro knew that his brother Kobayashi Ichiro had come to steal the medicine from the Jishido and was afraid that Shi Tianqi would be angry with him, so he planned to hide his real name.

With a puzzled look on her face, Itachi asked, "Mr. Kobayashi, do you have a problem with this Shi Shinobi?"

"No no." Kobayashi Jiro hurriedly waved his hand and said seriously, "I've never met this Shi Healer before, but I won't hide it from you, my brother once offended this Healer when he was alive, and I'm afraid he has quite a grudge against our Kobayashi family, so in order not to affect it, you begged him to treat Mr. Yamamoto, so you'd better not reveal my name later, you can call me Tanaka-san."

"Okay." Itachi nodded and took the lead, stepping through the door, knocking and asking, "Excuse me, is Dr. Shi in?"

The fellow was shocked to see it was a gorgeous and soft woman, and said politely, "Hello, our Dr. Shi Divine Doctor has closed the clinic today, if you need anything, please come back tomorrow."

Itoh Cabbage hurriedly said, "Please tell Dr. Shi that there is a patient who would like to ask for his help, and if he is willing to treat and can be cured, I am willing to offer 10 million US dollars as a consultation fee!"

Chen Xiaozhao was just tidying up the counter, and when he heard this, he immediately opened his mouth and said, "Excuse me, my grandfather is not treating people to make money, if you think you can hire his old man by spending more money, then please go back."

Itachi immediately apologized, "Sorry! That's not what I meant! I just want to express my sincerity as much as possible, my master's entire body is severed and he is now a living dead man, I heard that Divine Doctor Shi once cured a patient with paraplegia, that's why I came to his door to beg him to help save his life!"

"All the meridians are broken?"

Chen Xiaozhao looked at Itachi's dumbfounded eyes and asked off the top of his head, "Are you sure it's an exhausted meridian and not some other condition?"

The reason why Chen Xiaozhao was surprised was because the concept of meridians was something that the vast majority of ordinary people simply did not know about.

Their exposure to the concept of meridians was basically from martial arts novels and films and TV shows, first let them say one, two, three, most of them did not even understand the introduction of meridians.

And the martial arts people who mastered the meridians as well as the people of the Apricot Grove are very few, this woman said with certainty that her master's entire body is broken, could it be that she is a martial arts person?

"Exactly!" Itoh Cabbage was busy saying, "The person who injured my master personally said that he severed his entire body's meridians."

Chen Xiaozhao pursued, "How did he break your master's entire body's meridians? Could it be that you applied a strong blow to every meridian of your master?"

Cabbage Ito said, "That person only slapped my master once, and my master's entire body's meridians were completely broken."

Chen Xiaozhao said incredulously, "How strong is this person? To be able to break your master's entire body's meridians in one slap, such unimaginable strength, I've never heard of it, even a martial arts expert who wants to break a person's entire body's meridians would have to destroy them section by section, it's impossible to use just one slap"

Itoh Nabiki said seriously, "It did take only one slap, and I saw it all with my own eyes!"

At this time, Shi Tianqi stepped out from the back room and said in a resounding voice, "I've never heard of anyone with such tactics, little girl, who has your master messed with?"

Itochi said, "I don't know who exactly it is, I only know that his surname is Ye."

Shi Tianqi's expression was astonished, "Surname Ye? Is this man very young, handsome and distinguished? Raising your hands and feet, quite like a real dragon on earth?"

"This," Itoh Cabbage thought and said awkwardly, "I don't feel anything else, but Ying Jun is quite handsome, rather young, looking twenty-five or sixteen years old."

Shi Tianqi's face turned cold, and he snorted, "What a joke! Your master has messed with Master Ye and had his entire body's meridians crippled by Master Ye, and you dare to come to Old Man to treat your master!"

I didn't expect that Ye Chen would be the Master Ye in the eyes of Dr. Shi, or even the "real dragon on earth" in his eyes.

Japan also has a lot of legends about dragons, after all, the Japanese civilization was originally passed over from China, so the two civilizations are one and the same.

In Japanese culture, dragons are also the highest creatures, and their status is almost the same as that of gods.

However, she couldn't imagine why this old man of the Apricot Grove would honor a young man as a true dragon on earth.

Naturally, she couldn't have known that the influence Ye Chen brought to Shi Tianqi had overturned Shi Tianqi's perceptions for decades.

With the medical skills that Ye Chen had displayed, as well as the unbelievable medicine concocting skills, in Shi Tianqi's opinion, it was simply unique in his life and in the world.

Therefore, he had always respected and esteemed Ye Chen incomparably.

Not to mention, he himself had benefited greatly from Ye Chen, a healing divine medicine and a rejuvenation pill had opened a new chapter in his life.

This kind of great kindness was something he would never forget and would never be able to repay.

At this time, Ito Cai Zi saw Shi Tian Qi's attitude become very angry, she hastily humbly begged, "Divine Doctor Shi, my mentor has offended Mr. Ye only on impulse, showing off his tongue, of course he is guilty, but the crime is not that great, so please be merciful and save him!"

Shi Tianqi waved his hand and said with an incomparably resolute expression "Little girl, I can say that my life was saved by Grandmaster Ye, I stayed in Jinling to open a medical school to treat and save people, and it was also entirely to repay Grandmaster Ye's kindness, so anyone who has offended Grandmaster Ye is an enemy in my eyes. I see that you speak and act with courtesy, and I don't want to speak ill of you, nor do I want to drive you out, so I also hope that you will leave on your own!"

Shi Tianqi arched his hands at her "It's not true that a doctor is kind, but with grace like a mountain in front of you, I have a clear conscience, you don't need to bother with more words, feel free to go back."

Saying that, he turned his face to Chen Xiaozhao and commanded, "Xiaozhao, see the guests off!"

Ito Naija wanted to continue pleading and striving for more, but Shi Tianqi had already put his hands behind his back and strode towards the room inside the medical hall.

Before Ito Naija could open her mouth, Chen Xiaozhao, who was on the side, made a gesture of invitation and spoke, "This lady, please return."

Ito Nana-chan slumped with a sigh and said respectfully, "Then excuse me for interrupting."

After saying that, it was a bit disorienting to turn around and leave.

In his eyes, picking up girls was important, but personal safety was even more important, and his own brother was planted in this Jisei Hall, so he said nothing to dare to make a fuss here.

I'm not sure if I'll be able to do that, but I'm sure I'll be able to do it in a way that will make me feel better. It's about the time when Liu Bei went to Zhuge Liang's home and invited him to come out three times, and only after three full times did Zhuge Liang agree to do so, then we might as well have a Three Guides Ji Shi Tang as well."

Ito Naija shook her head and said, "I just saw the look in that Shi Shen doctor's eyes, he should have left no room in his heart when he rejected me. Even if I come three times, or even thirty times, I'm afraid the result will be the same, now it seems that if I want to resolve this matter, I still have to start with that Mr. Ye."

"Ye Chen?!"

Kobayashi Jiro felt a sudden chill on the back of his neck and hurriedly spoke out "Miss Nana-chan, you must stay away from that Ye Chen, this man is extremely dangerous, do not have too much contact with him"

He said, "Also, you should never listen to Mr. Yamamoto's advice and go to worship that Ye Chen, as far as I know, this Ye Chen is very unfriendly to the Japanese, otherwise he wouldn't have brutally crippled his entire body just because Mr. Yamamoto said the words "East Asian sick man"."

Itachi nodded "I didn't think that he would take me as a disciple, I just hoped that he would be able to do something to heal his mentor, or help put in a good word or get this Shi Shen doctor to do something to heal his mentor."

Kobayashi Jiro was busy asking "So are you going to go to this Ye Chen some other time?"

"Not another day, just today."

"Today?!It's already evening, are you going to find Ye Chen now?"

"Yeah, right!Now!"

With a face full of determination, Itachi said to Kobayashi Jiro, "I've asked someone to find out, he seems to be living in the best villa area in Jinling, Yushinichi, please Kobayashi-san, send me there now."

"Ah?You're going to Ye Chen's house to find him?This is absolutely not okay!"

Kobayashi Jiro was busy waving his hand.

He was well aware of Ye Chen's situation and knew that Ye Chen was extremely difficult to deal with and oily, if Ito Nai-chan went to find him, not only would he not be able to get any benefit, he would most likely even anger Ye Chen or even be hurt by him.

So, he immediately spoke up "Miss Cabbage Patch, you don't know Ye Chen's true face, if you go to him like this, you will definitely suffer a loss!"

Ito Nana-chan said "I am not going to compete with him, I also know that my strength is not even as good as ants in front of him, I just want to sincerely beg him to help, even if it costs me a lot, I want to heal my mentor."

Kobayashi Jiro wanted to say something else, but Itoh Nabiki didn't give him a chance and asked seriously "Kobayashi-san, could you drive me to Yushin I?If we can, then we'll leave now; if we can't, then I'll take a taxi there now."

Kobayashi Jiro sighed helplessly and said, "Alright, since Miss Nana-chan insists, I'll take you there."

Shi Tianqi told him that a woman came over to ask for his help in treating an injured person whose meridians had been severed all over his body, and asked if it was Ye Chen.

Ye Chen generously admitted and said, "If I'm not wrong, the one who went to ask for your help should be Ito Nai Nai Nai, a Japanese girl, the one I crippled, called Yamamoto Kazuki, who was her master, that Yamamoto Kazuki, dared to mention the four words East Asian sick man in front of me, I naturally won't spare him."

"So he's Japanese!" Shi Tianqi said furiously, "Last time, the one who tried to steal your magic potion from me was also a Japanese. Repeatedly finding fault and causing trouble, what an unenlightened barbarian!"

Ye Chen lightly smiled "they followed our asses kneeling for thousands of years, these two or three hundred years of development a little faster, on self-righteousness, night arrogance, Shi old this barbarian, really used just right."

The first thing you need to know is that you can't be too sure of what you're doing, and you can't be too sure of what you're doing.

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "Although her master is arrogant and rude, this girl still knows how to be polite, if she goes to ask for your help again, just refuse, there is no need to make things difficult for her, we Chinese are always reasonable, one size fits all, we won't kill everything with one stick."
