Chapter 1551

When Gu Yanyin is like an intentional plan to play a jingle, the office door, was vigorously pushed open.

Immediately after IT, the red-faced, non-angry Gu Yanzhong, stepped in.

Ye Chen, on the other hand, followed closely behind him and also entered the conference room.

In the conference room, everyone, including Gu Yanzheng and Gu Yangang, were stunned in amazement after seeing such an intentional appearance of Gu Yanzhong!

Gu Yanzheng and Gu Yangang looked at each other, although the two brothers did not have any communication, but their hearts are thinking the same question, "Yesterday that sickly big brother, today suddenly glowing? But it's only one night apart, that's a bit too much of a difference, isn't it?"

The other board members, because they hadn't seen Gu Yanzhong for a long time, and because they had seen the news reports, thought that he was really sick and even dying.

They had even prepared themselves mentally, thinking that Gu Yanzhong would probably be wheeled in later in a wheelchair, on oxygen, and pushed in.

So, suddenly seeing him now in such a bouncy state of mind, everyone was incomparably horrified.

Was this still the same chairman who, according to media reports, was already critically ill?

The current chairman looked as if he was in even better shape than before he got sick.

Is this what they call a return to health?

But it's not like that either, he looks, right now, like a completely unhealthy middle-aged man!

Gu Yan Gang secretly stabbed Gu Yan Zheng and asked "Second brother, what's going on here?"

At this time, Gu Yanzhong has come to the conference table right in front of the central seat, and then let Ye Chen sit on his right hand side.

After sitting down, Gu Yanzhong looked around with stern eyes, and said with a bit of authority in his voice, "Everyone, I'd like to apologize to everyone here, I rarely come to the group during this period of time, the group is able to function normally, everything is hard for you all."

Everyone looked at me, I looked at you, they did not know how to respond.

This was mainly because many of the minority shareholders inside had already been bought by Gu Yanzheng and Gu Yangang, and were ready to make preparations to oust Gu Yanzhong at the board meeting today.

However, seeing Gu Yanzhong, who was now in extremely good shape, they all of a sudden didn't know what to do.

Gu Yanzheng was in a bit of a panic as he saw this, but he also knew that if he didn't quickly find a way to push the situation down at this time, then all of today's plans would probably be aborted.

So, he immediately spoke up, "Chairman, you haven't been in charge of the group's affairs for such a long time, everyone here has paid a lot for the group, aren't you a bit too incompetent as a chairman?"

Gu Yanzhong nodded his head and smiled, opening his mouth "You're right, I really wasn't competent enough during this time, so I didn't say anything just now, first thanking all of you, this is my true love for you all, it's been a hard time for you all."

I'm sure you'll find that I'm not the only one who's been in a position to do this, but I'm sure you'll find that I'm not the only one who's been in a position to do this," he said. Shouldn't blame me, right?"

As soon as this was said, the other shareholders around the table subconsciously waved their hands and said in unison, "How could they, Chairman? How could we blame you?"

As Ye Chen listened beside him, he couldn't help but admire Gu Yanzhong immensely.

Gu Yanzhong's speech just now seemed like a sign of weakness, but it was actually a demonstration to them.

He deliberately talked about how he had brought the group forward by leaps and bounds in the past twenty years, and on the surface, it seemed as if he wanted everyone to reminisce about old times, but essentially, he was reminding these people that he had been able to bring this group forward by leaps and bounds in the past twenty years, and in the next twenty years, he would still be able to make this group grow rapidly.

If you want to squeeze him out, then you must combine the actual situation of the group's development over the past twenty years to weigh up who else can do better than him, Gu Yanzhong.

This group of people also instantly came to their senses.

Originally, they wanted to elect their second son, Gu Yanzhong, as chairman of the board together.

However, after Gu Yanzhong's reminder, they couldn't help but review the situation in their hearts.

Gu Yan's performance in the group over the past twenty years, and found that this person hadn't actually made any outstanding achievements, and could only be described as moderate to moderate.

Therefore, his overall strength was a far cry from his brother's.

As such, why would people want to push out the current chairman and put a less capable second in the position?

Previously, when Old Two was fooling everyone, he was saying that the boss was dying.

But now, the boss's condition looked so good that he didn't look like someone who would die in a short period of time.

And everyone believed that in this state, he could live for another twenty to thirty years, to say the least.

So, in this instant, all those small shareholders had a reversal within them.

They decided that they would continue to support Gu Yanzhong as chairman, because only he could bring everyone to earn more money!

When Ye Chen saw this, he couldn't help but marvel at Uncle Gu's hand, it was a four-two punch!

At this point, Gu Yanzheng's heart was sobbing in sorrow.

Big brother really was big brother, and a few words could wipe out all the efforts he had made over the past few months.

The key was, how in the world was he going to get rid of his illness? To go from a man who looked like he was going to die to a healthy, healthy man in just one night, that's a fucking hell of a way to go!

Thinking of this, he suppressed his anger and asked, "Chairman, although I am your brother, but out of responsibility for the entire group, I still have to ask, how is your condition now?"

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past two years, and is now in the process of developing it for the next two years. If you die one day, what about the group? What do we do? What about the stockholders?"

Gu Yanzhong's expression wiped over a hint of a smile and calmly said "Good question, I actually just want to report to you solemnly about this aspect of my body."

Saying that, he cleared his throat and smiled, "I was indeed suffering from pancreatic cancer before, the domestic hospital has the relevant medical records, and the overseas hospital also has my major medical records, which definitely can't be faked."

Then, he sighed and continued, "Originally, I also thought that my days were numbered, but sometimes life is so full of twists and turns, the tumor in my body just miraculously disappeared, so I am now healthy again, and you should be able to see that I am in a much better condition than before, so you don't have to worry about the next, I will definitely lead Gu's Group and move on to the next great thing!"

When Gu Yanzhong said these words with a flourish, it was as if the others had immediately taken a reassurance pill when they heard them, not only were they much more at ease, they even had excited smiles on their faces.

A few of them, had even involuntarily applauded.

As a result, others were also happily applauding along with them.

Everyone's participation in the Gu Group was, in the end, all about making money, and they didn't want to engage in any ganging up and collusion, they just wanted to follow the person who could lead them to make money the most, that's all.

Since miracles have happened to Gu Yanzhong and serious illnesses have been healed, but why not continue to support him, saddle up beside him, and make more money with him under his leadership?whether or not

And the expressions of Gu Yan Zheng and Gu Yan Gang were suddenly ugly as hell.

The plan that had been carefully prepared for so long, was it just going to be finished straight away?

This feeling was just too unbearable.

It was as if I had practiced martial arts for decades in order to challenge the Martial Master and thought that I was already invincible.

As a result, when he arrived in front of Martial Master, Martial Master had already been completely defeated after just one move.

This was a tremendous blow to the two of them.

At this point, Gu Yanzheng was still unwilling to submit to defeat!

He said sternly "Brother!Don't you dare make fun of everyone here, how can advanced pancreatic cancer be cured?Do you think we're all 3 years old?Isn't Apple's Steve Jobs gone too?Who would believe you if you said you're cured now?In case you are playing everyone, when the stockholders know about it, they will even more completely lose confidence in our group's share price, and then the share price will collapse all the way."

Gu Yanzhong wasn't angry, he stood up and spun around, smiling and asked "Old Two, look for yourself, does it look like I'm sick in my current state?"

Gu Yan was playing a rascal, and he said, "What's the use of looking?My eyes aren't CT, and I can't see where all the tumors are on your body, so maybe you're reverting back to the light."

Gu Yanzhong snorted coldly and suddenly raised his hand, and with a swift thunderclap, he threw his hand and slapped Gu Yanzheng, who was sitting on his left side.

A slapping sound rang out in the meeting room, the sound was so loud and brittle that it even created a few echoes in this large conference room.

Gu Yanzheng was slapped by the slap, the huge force caused him to lean backwards uncontrollably, then his chair lost its balance and fell to the floor with a bang.

The third Gu Yan Gang, who sat next to him, rushed forward to assist.

Gu Yan is under his support, covering his head to get up, furiously yelled, "Brother what do you mean?How dare you hit me?You're a hallowed chairman of the board of directors and you're beating people up, aren't you afraid of being laughed at by outsiders if word gets out?"

Gu Yanzhong smiled slightly and said, "Raul, didn't you want to know if I'm healed or not?That was a slap in the face. How do you feel?Like a sick man typed it up?"

"You "Gu Yanzheng didn't expect him to beat himself up and not say anything, but he even went out of his way to ridicule himself, and he was furious!

However, right now he had no way to do anything, and he couldn't beat him with his hands, so he could only bite his teeth and say "Big Brother, there's no point in saying this, if you want to reassure me and the stockholders, you should publish your latest medical report, and it has to be a report issued by an authoritative medical examination body."

Gu Yanzhong sneered "Don't see the coffin and don't shed a tear, right?Yes, after the board I'll call up those reporters waiting outside and hold a press conference, after the conference I'll go to Concord Hospital for a checkup, I'm doing a full body ct scan right now, the results will come out fast, the soonest I can get the results out is this afternoon."

Seeing that he had agreed so readily, Gu Yanzheng was not in a position to continue looking for reasons to make trouble, so he had to bite his teeth and say, "Yes!Then wait for the results of your medical exam!If you haven't recovered yet, then I feel that your health condition is not suitable for you to continue to hold the position of chairman, so you should give up the position of chairman and let someone who is healthy take over!"

Ye Chen, who hadn't said anything, smiled at this time and said, "If the position of chairman has to be filled by someone who is physically healthy, let me believe that neither you nor your brother meet this requirement."

Gu Yanzheng got out of his mouth and yelled "You fucking fart less here!!'m in perfect health!"

"Yes?"Ye Chen sneered, "If I'm not wrong, you should have lost your fertility by now, right?You're not even fertile and you have the audacity to say you're perfectly healthy?Doesn't fertility matter to you at all?"

Gu Yanzheng was already holding a lot of anger because of the matter of losing his fertility, his past personality might have been unable to hold back to settle the score with Ye Chen.

The reason why he had been holding back and hadn't spoken to Ye Chen until now was also because he had always put the matter of taking over as chairman of the board in the first place.

But he didn't expect that he hadn't found Ye Chen to be angry with him yet, but this guy took the initiative to ridicule him with this matter, which made him suddenly unable to suppress his anger and scolded him out of his mouth, "Surnamed Ye, I've fucking investigated your background thoroughly!Don't think I don't know who you are. You're just a fucking son-in-law from Jinling, aren't you?What's the point of pretending in front of me?"

Seeing that Gu Yanzheng had exploded, Gu Yangang also stood up and gnashed his teeth, cursing, "Surnamed Ye, what tactics did you use later?If you don't let us get back to normal today, don't blame me for being rude to you!Even if the boss is covering you, we won't spare you!"

In the end, the company's employees were not allowed to use the money to pay for the work they had done, but they were allowed to use the money to pay for the work they had done.

Gu Weiliang said viciously "Ye Chen isn't it! If you don't give us a satisfactory solution to this matter, I'll let you lie back in the urn and go back to Jinling!"

Gu Weiliang is also not willing to show weakness "lying in the urn you don't fucking want to go back, I'll directly raise your ashes!"

Gu Yanzhong exploded with a black face, "Against you! Do you think I can't be in your family anymore? Did you guys think I had a disease so you could ride on my neck and shit on me?"

Ye Chen smiled slightly at this time and said indifferently "Uncle Gu, you're recovering from a serious illness, don't get angry with these people yet, let me talk to them."

After saying that, he looked at the other shareholders and said in a friendly manner "Gentlemen, the next matter has nothing to do with the board of directors anymore, so please excuse yourselves for a moment."

Everyone looked at Gu Yanzhong.

Gu Yanzhong nodded his head and said, "Okay, you all go, there will be a reception downstairs in the release room, you first move there to wait."

The crowd stood up almost without thinking and left the meeting room in an orderly fashion.

As the doors of the conference room closed again, Gu Yanzhong said to Ye Chen, "Chen'er, it's been treated with special soundproofing, so you can't hear half of it outside even if you fire cannons inside, just feel free to play freely."

Ye Chen smiled "Okay Uncle Gu."

When Gu Yanzheng and the others heard this, they all turned pale with fear.

They knew that Ye Chen was very strong, and the War Gods and Realm Masters were no match for him.

If he were to make a move at the time, the four of them together wouldn't be enough to see it.

So, Gu Yan was forcing his composure and shouted "Listen to me, I am the second master of the Gu family! My identity is something you will never be able to achieve in your lifetime, so you better not offend me to the death, or else you will suffer the consequences!"

When Ye Chen heard this, he wasn't angry, and with a smile, he asked him "Don't make yourself so awesome first, at least before you say it, you need to figure out who I really am!"

Although Gu Yanzheng was a little timid about Ye Chen's strength, he was still full of disdain when he heard this.

He looked at Ye Chen and mocked, "I told you, I've already investigated your background, isn't it just the hanging son-in-law of the Jinling Xiao family? It's just a small city's last family, why are you arrogant with me?"

"Exactly!"

Gu Yan Gang also immediately said in a cold voice, "You have to get it right, if you pull out and add all the big families in your Jinling, one by one, it's not even half as big as our Gu family!"

Gu Yan Gang's words were somewhat arrogant and exaggerated in nature, but fundamentally, there wasn't much wrong with his words.

Moreover, the Song family, the number one family in Jinling, had assets that were no more than 100 billion, which was a far cry from the Gu family.

Therefore, Gu Yan just had the strength to say such arrogant words.

At this time, Ye Chen smiled calmly and asked "Don't you guys ever think about it, if I'm just the door-to-door son-in-law of a small city's last-class family, how could I possibly meet Uncle Gu?"

Gu Yanzhong nodded and looked playfully at his two brothers as well as his two nephews, smiling without saying a word.

Gu Yanzheng snorted, "You think I don't know what you do for a living? Isn't he just a fucking feng shui reading jianghu liar?"

I know, you did fool a few local turtles in Jinling, but you should know that this is fucking Yanjing, not Jinling! This is where the real hidden dragons and tigers are. If you can eat in Jinling, do you think you can eat in Yanjing? There are so many capable people here, like crucian carpets in the river, pulling any old fortune teller from underneath the walls of Forty Nine City, I'm afraid they're all more powerful than you!"

Ye Chen nodded and exclaimed "Oh my, your words really enlightened me what the difference between Jinling and Yanjing, I almost fucking forgot, I'm not even from Jinling, - I'm actually from Yanjing!"

"What?" Gu Yan is frowning tightly "You're from Yanjing?"

"Right." Ye Chen nodded with a smile, patted his chest and said "I was born and raised in Yanjing, I only left Yanjing for Jinling when I was eight years old."

Hearing this, Gu Yanzheng scoffed "Could it be that you had laid some foundation in Yanjing before the age of eight? You left Yanjing at the age of eight, and now you're back after such a long time, and you still dare to pander to me?"

Gu Yanzhong laughed and asked him, "Raul, can't you see that Chen'er is more or less familiar? Don't you think he looks like someone?"

Gu Yan was squinting his eyes to take a closer look at Ye Chen and left his mouth open, "Is there anything special about this kid's appearance? Just plain and ordinary, not as handsome and dashing as when I was young."

Gu Yanzhong laughed out loud "Lao Er, I didn't expect that after so many years of living a life of pampering under my protection, your entire life has instead become more and more regressive, you've really lived forty years in vain!"

Gu Yanzheng was startled and asked subconsciously, "What do you mean? You don't have to sell me short here, just say what you want to say!"

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past few years, and is now in the process of developing the new product. Even when the old man was alive, he was made a guest of honor and respected him, and at that time, you were just a dude who was half a bottle of water swinging, the old man didn't even let you have more contact with that big brother of mine, for fear that you would lose the face of the Gu family in front of him, my big brother, what's his last name?"

Gu Yanzheng had already forgotten about Ye Chen's father for many years, after all, the deceased was already dead, and many relatives might not be able to remember the deceased for more than a decade, not to mention that Gu Yanzheng did not have any friendship with Ye Chen's father.

Back then, Gu Yanzheng only watched his big brother befriending the Ye family's brightest rising star with envy and jealousy, but after Ye Chen's father passed away, he gradually forgot about it.

However, now that he had been named so directly by his big brother, he instantly thought of that handsome, dashing and imposing figure in his head.

1556

Hearing the big brother's last question, he subconsciously said "I remember him, his surname is Ye, the Ye family was the most powerful back then"

Having said that, his entire body was instantly like an electric shock, his eyes staring at Ye Chen to the extreme!

At this instant, the two figures that would be twenty years apart overlapped in his mind.

Only then did he realize that the imposing young man in front of him looked so much like the young man who had been so energetic back then!

Thinking that Ye Chen is also surnamed Ye, and is so close to his big brother, he boarded up as if he had been struck by lightning, shivering and pointing at Ye Chen, his voice trembling, he asked Gu Yanzhong "Big brother, is he the son of the Ye family's second son, Brother Chang Ying?!"

The second son of the Ye family, that's Ye Chen's father, Ye Changya!

The word "coma" is taken from the great poet's classic poem, "Today's coma is in my hand, when will I bind the dragon!"

As for the leaf tassel, it means that the leaf family has a son who can bind the dragon!

He, on the other hand, was the second oldest of the Ye family's sons back then.

Although he was not the eldest son, he was the one with the strongest ability in the Ye family, and at a young age, he was able to devise strategies in the business world and win over thousands of miles!

The Ye family, under his leadership, even fought the centuries-old Rothschilds of Europe and America, back and forth on the mall, and even managed to get the other side to finally take a loss and compromise!

Back then, he was the idol of countless rich kids in Yanjing.

Numerous rich generation look at him strangled, issued when the birth of a son as leaf [penpal www.xbqg5200.info] long coma of emotion!

-- countless wealthy ladies worshipped him and made him the best choice for a husband of their choice!

Marry a man when you marry Ye Changya, this was the most familiar saying in the Yan Capital's circle of debutantes back then!

Back in the day, it was all about good girls, but who has ever seen a good man in a good home?

Back then, the number of business figures who came to the Ye family and wished to marry their daughters to Ye Changya was uncountable!

Gu Yanzheng couldn't help but think back to the time when Ye Changba covered the frontiers of all his peers in the whole of Yanjing with one man's light!

At that time, everyone wondered in their heart of hearts why they had to be born in the same era as Ye Chang-tao. Ye Changba is like the white moon in the night sky, who can compete with it?

Thinking of this, Gu Yanzheng could already conclude that Ye Chen, was Ye Changya's son!

When he thought of Ye Changba's heroic posture back then, he was terrified inside, looked at Ye Chen, and suddenly knelt down on one knee, full of submission, and blurted out, "Mr. Ye, please forgive me for being clumsy, I didn't see that you were the son of Brother Changba!"

Although Gu Yan Gang hadn't spoken for a while, but when he saw his second brother kneel down on one knee, he also immediately followed suit and kneeled down on one knee.

Gu Weiliang and Gu Weiguang were both blinded, they were young and didn't know about Ye Changba's glorious deeds back then, and were stunned when they saw that their fathers were all kneeling to Ye Chen.

Gu Weiguang immediately wanted to protest loudly, but he was pulled and covered by the more wide-eyed Gu Weiliang, who pulled and covered his mouth.

This is, Gu Yanzheng who kneeled on one knee, actually choked up and exclaimed, "I had a grand wish in my heart when I was young, to bow down and worship the coma for the rest of my life! It's a pity that Brother Changga died young, so I never had the chance to learn a thing or two by his side, if I had the chance to learn a little bit of skin by his side back then, I wouldn't be so foolish today."

The mention of Ye Changba's great name still caused many middle-aged people from big Yanjing families to sigh.

The reason is that for these big families, no wealth is as important as a powerful heir who is able to cross the sword.

The business world is like a battlefield jiadajiancai, there are times when a slight deviation could lead to total annihilation and doom, so that's why, many families sink and swim in the game, and many even launch directly into the stage of history.

If a family wanted to flourish, it didn't matter how much money they had in their hands, or how much land they had in their hands, what mattered was whether or not they could continue to produce people in their descendants.

Today's Ye family is so prosperous, and twenty years ago, the solid foundation laid by Ye Chang-ga is inextricably linked.

That's why people remembered Coma Ye and regarded him as the white moon in their hearts.

Ye Chen had not expected that the two brothers, Gu Yanzheng and Gu Yangang, would kneel down on one knee when they heard their father's name, and seeing that the respect in their appearance was not false, the anger in their hearts towards these two had eased a little bit.

At this time, Gu Yan Zheng turned back, looked at his own son, Gu Weiliang, and the third family's son, Gu Weiguang, and spoke out, "You two, seeing the bloodline of Brother Changga, why don't you quickly kneel down and admit your fault!"

Gu Weiliang already understood in his heart.

Although he hadn't heard too many rumors about Ye Changba, he guessed that Ye Chen was a descendant of the Yanjing Ye family.

Don't look at the fact that the Gu family and the Ye family belonged to one of the three great families of Yanjing, but their strength was not a little bit different.

Some people jokingly said that the so-called Three Great Families of Yanjing were actually just "Two Dragons playing pearls".

The two dragons were the Ye family and the Su family, while the Gu family was just a pearl.

The Ye family's strength itself was much stronger than the Gu family.

Even if the three brothers Gu Yanzhong, Gu Yanzheng, and Gu Yangang were tied together, they were completely inadequate in front of the Ye Family.

What's more, the boss of the Gu family, Gu Yanzhong, was standing with Ye Chen at this time.

Quite literally, the two brothers, Gu Yenzheng and Gu Yinguang, were facing not only the Ye family, but also half of the Gu family!

After all, the current eldest brother, Gu Yanzhong, seems to have healed, and if you really want to arm-twist, the second and third oldest together, you can't even arm-twist the eldest, so what's the talk about the Ye family?

So, Gu Weiliang did not dare to delay, three steps behind his father Gu Yanzheng, kneeling on one knee, piously said, "Mr. Ye, please forgive me for my awkwardness, I have eyes but do not know Taishan!".

Ye Chen nodded slightly and said in a cold voice, "On account of the respect you have for my father, I will let go of the matter of your insulting me just now."

As soon as this was said, the four of them let out a sigh of relief at the same time.

But Ye Chen then said, "However, the two of you brothers, working in tandem, trying to seize the assets under my Uncle Gu's name, releasing the news that Uncle Gu is seriously ill, and uniting many directors to try to usurp power in the board of directors, you must give Uncle Gu a clear solution to this matter, otherwise, I won't let you off!"

Gu Yanzheng already knew in his heart that this time the power plan had completely failed.

1558

I'm sorry, I'm just like my second brother, I apologize. If you give me any instructions in the future, I will certainly saddle up and do not dare to disobey!"

Actually, he did not expect that the second and third oldest would give up their resistance so quickly.

Originally, he thought that they would resist in a negative way, but what he didn't expect was that Ye Chen, as well as the identity of his father, Ye Changsha, had completely scared them out of their wits.

So, having achieved complete victory all at once, and with both brothers diving in to admit their mistakes, he didn't think about what he should do with them.

At this time, Ye Chen spoke up "Since you guys want to admit your mistakes, then you should at least show something, even though I am an outsider, I am here to make a little suggestion, let's listen and see if it is feasible."

Gu Yanzhong was busy saying "Chen'er you say it!"

I'm not sure if I'll be able to do that, but I'm sure I'll be able to do that," he said.

The first time I heard this, I was delighted and nodded my head in panic in line with "Yes big brother, we are all blood brothers, for the sake of blood affection and our sincere repentance, let us be spared this time!".

Ye Chen then said, "Don't worry yet, you can spare you, but to spare, there are also conditions."

Of course, Gu Yanzheng knew that Ye Chen couldn't be so nice and take the initiative to intercede on their behalf, there must be other conditions in exchange, so he immediately cupped his fist and said "Young Master Ye, please speak!"

Ye Chen indifferently said "You two, both of you are shareholders of the Gu Group and have shares of the Gu Group in your hands, since you want to follow Uncle Gu wholeheartedly, then you naturally have to be firmly bound to him, so my suggestion is that you two, immediately transfer the voting rights corresponding to all the shares in your hands to Uncle Gu permanently!"

What Ye Chen wanted was the voting rights corresponding to their shares, but not their shares.

In other words, how much they should still hold their shares and how much money they should make, but after the voting rights of their shares were handed over, they would have no voice in this board, and everything would be subject to the decisions of the controlling party.

In this way, the voting rights in Gu Yanzhong's hands meet the absolute control requirement of 51!

From now on, he'll be able to say whatever he wants in the Gu Group!

Even if all the remaining shareholders united, they would only have at most 49 speaking rights, so it was impossible to shake Gu Yanzhong's control.

Gu Yanzhong's heart was clear when he heard this.

Unexpectedly, Ye Chen not only saved his own life, but also thought of helping him regain control of the Gu Group.

This brat acted in a clean and decisive style, he really had quite a bit of his father's shadow from back then!

Thinking about it, Gu Yanzhong was not only grateful, but also sighing, sighing for that big brother of his!

Ye Chen had fallen into Jinling for many years, hadn't received a good education, hadn't experienced good conditions, had completely struggled himself up from the grassroots mud pit, but hadn't expected that he was already quite a general.

If big brother was still alive all these years, and if Ye Chen could have been carefully trained under his father, Ye Changya, then the current Ye Chen would have become a shining global existence!

Unfortunately, this beautiful vision could only be exchanged for a sigh.

However, the more he looked at Ye Chen, the more he felt extremely pleasing to the eye.

If he could become his son-in-law in the future as promised, he would definitely be able to give his daughter a lifetime of happiness, and he and his wife could also feel completely at ease!

At this moment, Gu Yan Zheng's heart ached.

Ye Chen's words made him realize that he was helping his big brother and discharging his own weapon.

In a company, it didn't matter how many employees or departments you had under your hands, what mattered was how much say you had in this company.

The voting rights corresponding to the shares are equivalent to the gun barrel of the company's internal struggle for power.

If you were to let yourself surrender all your voting rights now, it would be tantamount to letting yourself surrender all your weapons and completely abandon the possibility of resistance.

To be honest, he wouldn't want to be so constrained.

But, on the other hand, there was nothing he could do about it.

Disagree?

There's nothing you can do if you don't agree, after all, big brother is now recovering and has the Ye family grandson to assist him from the side, he's not an opponent at all.

Now he's still playing tricks with himself, realistically asking him to surrender his gun and not kill, if he doesn't agree, then they might change their ways and play conspiracy, then it won't be surrendering his gun and not killing, then it might be eternal disaster!

At that, he sighed lightly and said, "Young Master Yeh, I'll agree to your proposal to hand over all voting rights!"

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past few years, and the company is now in the process of developing the new product.

So he also hurriedly said, "Young Master Ye, I'm fine with it!"

Ye Chen nodded his head in satisfaction and said to Gu Yanzhong, "Uncle Gu, in that case, let's have the legal affairs come over and draw up the voting rights transfer agreement, after signing the agreement, we can just go to the release hall and hold a press conference to make this matter public."

Saying that, Ye Chen looked at the time and said - "It's now past ten o'clock, if we move quickly and hold the press conference before 11:30, then before the stock market closes in the morning, the Gu Group's stock price should rise in response."

"Right!" Gu Yanzhong nodded his head with a flourish and immediately said, "Do as you say, Chen'er!"

After saying that, immediately pull out your cell phone and call your assistant "Get the legal department all up here immediately!"

Gu Yan Zheng gave up his resistance and felt a lot of relief, then he thought of himself, his brother, son and nephew, who had all inexplicably lost their fertility, and hurriedly begged "Mr. Ye, yesterday the four of us suddenly lost that aspect of our ability, to be honest, the Gu family bloodline is all in the canine and nephew, so please be generous."

Gu Yanzhong was a little surprised and didn't understand, what did Gu Yanzheng mean when he said that the four people lost that aspect of their abilities.

At this time, Gu Yan Gang, as well as Gu Weiliang and Gu Weiguang, also looked at Ye Chen with pleading eyes, hoping that he would be able to restore that aspect of the ability and wind for everyone.

Ye Chen said indifferently at this time "First of all, I have to make it clear to you, this matter is reversible for me, and if I am in a good mood, I can restore all four of you as before."

As soon as the four of them heard this, they were overjoyed.

What everyone was most afraid of was that it was irreversible.

In case it really was irreversible, then everything was all over.

Even if they compromised, conceded defeat, and gave up their voting rights, they still wouldn't be able to enjoy the joy of human family life.

But Ye Chen's reversible one suddenly raised hope in their hearts.

However, Ye Chen changed his words and said indifferently "Although it is reversible, when it is reversible depends on your performance as well as my personal mood, if you perform well and satisfy me, I will consider it."

The faces of Gu Yan Zheng and the others turned into four bitter gourds.

For the time being, they couldn't recover.

1560

So we'll all have to continue to live as eunuchs?

When will these days come to an end?

However, since Ye Chen had already said so, everyone really didn't dare to disobey him.

Otherwise, if people were to be unhappy and just not restore it, wouldn't that be a total loss for the rest of their lives?

So, Gu Yanzheng could only respectfully say, "Please don't worry, Mr. Ye, we will definitely perform well!"

Ye Chen lightly nodded his head and said indifferently, "All of you get up, the legal affairs will come in later and see this scene and feel it must still be quite strange."

Only when the four of them heard this did they stand up.

Ye Chen then said coldly "My identity, until I have taken the initiative to reveal it to the outside world, the four of you are absolutely not allowed to say half a word to the outside world, otherwise, I will definitely not spare you."

Gu Yanzheng knew that he couldn't possibly provoke Ye Chen, he was not only the young master of the Ye family, but also had his big brother by his side to back him up, more importantly, the "lifeblood" of the four of you was completely under his control, even if he were to kill himself, he would never dare to offend him.

So, he agreed without hesitation and said, "Young Master Ye, don't worry, we will never reveal a single word about you."

The other three people also nodded their heads with a very humble attitude.

When Ye Chen saw their sincere attitudes, it was only then that he nodded slightly and turned to Gu Yanzhong and said "Uncle Gu, for the press conference later, I'll be a spectator down there, so I won't show up in front of the media."

Gu Yanzhong nodded "Okay Chen'er, I'll let the secretary arrange a seat for you later."

Soon, the legal department of Gu's group came up with more than ten people in one breath.

E-e These dozen people were all top lawyers as well as legal workers in China.

They used their professional abilities to protect the legal rights of the entire Gu Group, and they were all top-notch elites.

This agreement for the permanent transfer of voting rights, itself, was simple and clear, with no detours, so everyone quickly drew up a contract with no holes in it.

Once the contract was signed, it represented Gu Yanzheng and Gu Yangang, permanently and gratuitously transferring 100% of the voting rights corresponding to their shares to their big brother, Gu Yanzhong.

Even if they died and the heirs to their portion of the shares, they must continue to acknowledge this agreement.

Even if Gu Yanzhong also dies, his share heirs will naturally inherit all the voting rights corresponding to the shares of Gu Yanzheng and Gu Yangang.

In other words, even if the three brothers of the Gu family died decades later and their shares were inherited by their own children, Gu Qiu Yi would still have full control of the Gu Group and wouldn't be afraid of the second and third oldest child trying to seek power.

These two did not have any temper at this time, and obediently signed their names on the agreement.

Each agreement was in five copies, one of which was kept by Gu Yanzhong, another by Gu Yanzheng or Gu Yangang.

The remaining three copies, one to the legal department for safekeeping, one to the notary public for filing and storage, and one to the bank's safe deposit box.

In this way, the possibility of someone trying to destroy all the contracts was avoided.

When the contracts were signed, the second and third youngest members of the Gu family also officially and permanently gave up their resistance.

From now on, they could only honestly follow Gu Yanzhong to make money and get dividends, and if Gu Yanzhong didn't let them speak, they wouldn't even have the power to speak on the board of directors.

When the contract was signed, Gu Yanzhong stood up and spoke, "Let's go to the release hall, the friends of the media reporters who came to squat early in the morning should have been waiting for a long time, right?"
