Chapter 2051

At this moment, Song Wanting was very bored. Baidu search, more free reading.

She didn't expect that New Japan Iron would be so hard to chew.

Moreover, throughout the negotiation process, she had been very passive and had prepared so many hands of cards, and had failed to finalize the cooperation until the last card was also lifted.

She now had a very strong sense of frustration within her.

And she also had a premonition that she always felt that it would be difficult to fight for the results she wanted in this negotiation. Baidu search, more free reading.

Maybe, this time it was going to be futile.

On the way back to the hotel, she told her family about her suspicions.

Although Song was a little disappointed, but still very encouraging to her and said: "Wan Ting, this time with the new Nippon Steel, you should not be too much pressure, this matter if the negotiation is good, if it does not work out, there is no loss to us, it is just a little less profit, it does not matter."

Song Honor also sent a message, saying, "Yeah Wan Ting, New Japan Railway, this company is famous for being hard to chew, there are so many companies in China that want to cooperate with them in depth, but none of them really talk, so there is nothing to lose on your side even if it really doesn't work out."

Song Honor's words instantly stirred up the potentially winning spirit within Song Wanting's heart.

She felt that the more things that so many people, so many companies had failed to reach, the more she wanted to take them down!

Otherwise, she would have become one of the countless losers.

However, the current situation wasn't too clear, so Song Wanting didn't dare to say anything too confident, so she said in the group, "I'll make one last effort tomorrow, success or no success, forget it."

Song said, "It's fine, don't take success or failure too seriously, grandpa doesn't want you to aggravate yourself for the sake of business, understand?"

Song Wanting felt a little more comfort in her heart and replied, "Okay grandpa, I know."

Song Honor smiled at this time and said, "Wan Ting, brother believes in your ability, brother believes that when he wakes up tomorrow morning, he will be waiting for the good news that you have successfully signed the contract!"

Song Wanting knew that this was her brother comforting her, so she sent a smiling expression and said, "Brother, I'll lend you my good fortune then!"

Back at the hotel, Song Wanting had been a bit bored, so she didn't even eat dinner, just stayed alone in her room, repeatedly combing through the plan she had written, trying to find out from it the reason why she had failed to impress New Nippon Steel.

Due to her excessive immersion, Song Wanting didn't realize that it was already ten o'clock at night.

At that moment, her doorbell rang.

She stood up, walked to the door, looked through the cat's eyes, and found that it was her personal assistant.

Outside the door, the young female assistant spoke up, "Mr. Song, you haven't eaten anything at night, you must be hungry, do you want me to order you some food from the catering department and have them bring it to your room?"

Song Wanting also did feel a bit hungry, so she nodded her head and said, "Okay, you can order some for me at random."

Saying that, Song Wanting then asked, "Have you guys eaten yet?"

The female assistant nodded, "We've all eaten."

Song Wanting smiled slightly and said, "That's good."

Twenty minutes later, the hotel's waiter pushed the food cart and delivered the dinner the assistant had ordered for Song Wanting to her room.

Song Wanting closed her computer and was just about to sit down for a couple of bites when she suddenly received a phone call from Hashimoto Kon first.

Chapter 2052

Song Wanting couldn't help but be a little surprised, wondering, "Why is Hashimoto Konzen calling me so late? Could it be that they've already discussed the outcome?!"

Thinking of this, Song Wanting was inevitably a little nervous, and she hurriedly connected the phone and asked, "Mr. Hashimoto, what can I do for you at this late hour?"

Hashimoto Kon first smiled and said, "Miss Song, I've already given feedback to our chairman about your final intention to cooperate today, and he's so impressed with your sincerity that he asked me to inform you that the contract will be signed quickly tonight!"

Song Wanting didn't expect to be waiting for the most awaited news and asked in surprise, "Mr. Hashimoto, is it true what you said?!"

Hashimoto nearly first smiled: "I can't dare to say anything about this matter, after all, I am only the representative of the group sent to negotiate with you, the real pat on the back is the chairman of our Corporation, since he has said so, there will certainly be no false. Baidu search, more free reading."

Song Wanting said excitedly, "That's really great! Mr. Hashimoto, is the chairman of your group hoping to sign the contract tonight?"

"Right!" Hashimoto Kon first said, "What our chairman means is that since Miss Song is so sincere, we should also show our sincerity and sign the contract as soon as possible."

Song Wanting busily said, "Yes! Please give me an address, Mr. Hashimoto, and I'll be right over!"

Hashimoto Kon first said, "Miss Song is like this, our chairman was supposed to be on vacation at his hilltop villa in West Domo County today, so what he meant was for you to come to West Domo County now to sign the contract."

Song Wanting asked, "West-Tomor County? Where is it? I'm not very familiar with Tokyo, so please forgive me."

Hashimoto Kon first smiled, "West Tama County is west of Tokyo, it's about seventy to eighty kilometers away, you should be able to get there in an hour or so, your Division [PEN www.biqgew.co] plane must know the location, so if it's convenient for you, you can come over now."

Song Wanting said without hesitation, "Okay, no problem, I'll be on my way!"

After hanging up the phone, Song Wanting immediately called her assistant again, unable to hide her excitement and commanded, "Yanzi, hurry up and get ready, we're leaving in five minutes to sign a contract with the chairman of New Nippon Iron!"

"Huh?!" Song Wanting's assistant, Chen Yan, was surprised and asked, "Mr. Song, New Nippon Steel agreed to sign the contract?!"

"Right!" Song Wanting blurted out, "Their chairman wants us to sign now! You and Dee hurry up and get ready, and also have the driver get ready too!"

"Okay Song!"

Five minutes later.

Song Wanting breezed out of the room.

Two female assistants joined her at the door, and Chen Yan spoke up, "Mr. Song, the driver is already waiting at the hotel entrance, let's just go straight down!"

"Yes!" Song Wanting nodded and said somewhat impatiently, "Then let's hurry downstairs!"

Getting into the car, Song Wanting told the Chinese driver she hired in Tokyo the address Hashimoto had given her first.

The driver immediately entered the address into the navigation, and as he started the car to go there, he said to Song Wanting, "Miss Song, the traffic is smooth right now, we can get there in about an hour and 20 minutes."

"Okay." Song Wanting nodded her head.

Chen Yan, who was on the side, spoke up at this time, "Mr. Song, should we tell Mr. Song the good news in advance to make him happy?"

"You're right." Song Wanting just wanted to pull out her cell phone and call her grandfather to tell her family about her significant progress.

However, when she thought of her brother Song Honor's words on the way back in the afternoon, she hesitated and surmised, "This afternoon, my brother, in an effort to cheer me up, joked that he would wake up tomorrow morning to receive the good news that I had successfully signed the contract, in that case, I might as well sign the contract first and wait until tomorrow morning to tell them and give them a real surprise!" Mobile One Second Remember provides you with wonderful \fiction reading.

Thinking of this, Song Wanting put away her phone and said to Chen Yan, "The contract hasn't been signed yet, it's a bit too hasty to say now, let's tell them after the contract is signed and the dust has settled."

Chapter 2053

The vehicle that Song Wanting was riding in sped out of downtown Tokyo and continued on towards the mountains in the western suburbs of Tokyo.

Although Japan was mountainous, the capital city of Tokyo was located in the Kanto Plain, so the whole of Tokyo was flat, there were hardly any mountains in the city, and you had to keep going west for tens of kilometers until you reached West Tama County before you started to enter the mountainous areas.

The mountainous areas are mostly mountain roads, but the roads are in very good condition, and the commercial vehicles gradually gain altitude as they drive along the winding mountain roads. Fastest Update

As it was in a mountainous area and at night, there were hardly any cars driving along the entire several dozen kilometers of the mountainous highway, and from aerial view, only the car in which Song Wanting was riding had its lights on and was circling through the mountain road.

Song Wanting was very happy inside at this time.

Although in the final cooperation proposal with New Nippon Steel, the Song family gave up its controlling stake, the good thing was that the controlling stake did not fall into New Nippon Steel's hands either, which was a relatively compromise solution.

Since succeeding to the Song family's headship, Song Wanting has worked hard, but it is true that she has not immediately made very outstanding achievements.

Therefore, she personally valued this cooperation with Nippon Steel extremely highly.

She also looked forward to using this cooperation to prove to everyone that she was indeed capable of making the Song family better and better.

By this time, the car had already traveled most of the way up the Pan Mountain Road, and occasionally when the car drove to the eastern side of the mountain, it could see the entire night view of Tokyo to the east at the foot of the road.

Chen Yan, who was sitting beside Song Wanting, somewhat excitedly pulled out her cell phone and sighed as she snapped a picture of the scenery outside the window, "The night view of Tokyo from the mountains is really something else."

Saying that she tried to take some pictures, she said with some regret, "Oh my, the phone doesn't take clear pictures at night, it doesn't capture this mood at all!"

Song Wanting smiled slightly and said, "If you take photos at night, you need a longer exposure time because the light is too weak, if you really want to take this kind of night scene, you have to find a place with a wide field of view and use a SLR with a tripod and a long exposure mode to get this kind of feeling."

Chen Yan was surprised and said, "Mr. Song, you still know photography na!"

Song Wanting smiled, "It's popular to join various interest societies in college, and I'm a person with less singing and dancing cells, so I chose photography."

Chen Yan smiled, "Then I'll learn from you sometime!"

Song Wanting nodded and said, "If the contract is signed successfully, we'll rest and relax in Tokyo for a few days, and then I'll buy a SLR and tripod, and we'll come back here to shoot the night scenes."

"Great!" Chen Yan said cheerfully, "This will allow me to walk around and see Tokyo!"

As he was saying, the vehicle drove into a U-shaped bend in the Panshan Highway, and the driver subconsciously slowed down to enter the bend, and after a slow and smooth turn, a low roar suddenly came from the front.

The driver subconsciously turned on the high beam, only then was stunned to discover that a fully loaded heavy truck is in the middle of the road, through the downhill speeding towards their own lane!

The other car was huge, and was going downhill and extremely fast, and on such a mountainous road, the consequences of a collision would be unthinkable.

The driver of the commercial vehicle kept flashing his lights and siren, but the other party did not move in the slightest.

What's worse, the mountain road itself was very narrow, with only two lanes on the left and right, and the other party was driving in the middle of the road, so it didn't leave any space for the commercial vehicle to dodge!

At the sight of this, several questions instantly flashed through Song Wanting's mind, "What's up with that truck! Why isn't it slowing down?!"

Before she could think about it, the car blasted right into the front face of the commercial vehicle!

Since this big truck was coming down from an uphill slope and was loaded with debris, it had an enormous tonnage and high inertia.

The commercial vehicle Song Wanting was riding in front of it was completely as if it was paper mache!

Chapter 2054

It slammed the entire engine bay of the commercial vehicle right into the front seat!

The driver, and the other assistant in the passenger seat, died instantly on the spot!

Song Wanting sat in the middle row of the commercial vehicle and was buckled up, so at the moment of impact, she was securely bound to the seat by the seat belt.

But Rao, Song Wanting still had four ribs broken by the seatbelt due to the huge inertia of the impact!

And Chen Yan next to Song Wanting wasn't so lucky!

She was a little slack when she got into the car, always feeling like she didn't have to buckle her seatbelt to sit in the back, so at the moment of impact, her whole body went flying right out and slammed into the back of the front passenger seat!

This bumped her entire head to the ground, and the person instantly lost consciousness and deep coma.

Due to her broken ribs, Song Wanting felt an incomparable pain throughout her chest, but before she could catch her breath, the commercial vehicle, whose entire front face had been crushed into scrap metal, was toppled backwards by that large truck!

Since both front wheels of the commercial vehicle, along with their hubs, were smashed into a ball of scrap metal, the bottom of the front face of the commercial vehicle was hardened and ground with a cloud of sparks!

Song Wanting was now struggling to look back and took a backward glance and winced!

The back of the car, it's that U-turn!

But the big car was clearly trying to push the commercial vehicle she was in straight off the cliff!

The height here is at least a hundred meters, so I'm afraid that whatever car rolls off such a high cliff would fall into a pile of scrap metal!

And the person sitting in it, I'm afraid, will also die!

At this moment, she immediately realized that it would be no accident or coincidence!

This big car, deliberately not turning on its lights, deliberately driving in the middle of the road, deliberately hitting its own car by going downhill, and not only not slowing down at all after the impact, but even hitting the accelerator, trying to push itself and its car into a cliff!

At this point, she couldn't care less about who was behind the plot to kill her.

Because she knew that she probably only had less than a minute left in her life.

How could she have never predicted before that she would be buried in a foreign land today in her golden years, a strong feeling of grief surfaced in her heart!

At this moment, the first thing that came to her mind was not herself, nor her grandfather and other relatives, but the man she couldn't get out of her heart, Ye Chen!

She choked in her heart, "I originally thought that there was still a long way to go in life, so even if I waited for Master Ye for a few more years or even ten more years, it would be fine, but who would have thought that my life was about to fall off a cliff and die a guest death in a foreign land"

Thinking of this, Song Wanting was already filled with tears.

She endured the excruciating pain in her chest, pulled out her phone, clicked on the topmost image of Ye Chen, and then clicked on the button for the voice message.

By this time, the commercial vehicle had been pushed to the edge of the cliff by the big truck.

Song Wanting cried into her phone and said, "Master Ye, I I really love you very much!If there's still a chance, Wan Ting will be your woman in the next life."

As soon as the words fell, the entire commercial vehicle had been completely pushed off the edge of the cliff and tumbled into the abyss!

Chapter 2055

When the commercial vehicle tumbled down the cliff, Song Wanting's heart was already tense to the extreme.

However, the more she was in this kind of life-and-death emergency, the more clear her brain became instead.

Her brain was spinning so fast at this moment that many, many things came to mind at once in a flash of lightning.

It was because the brain was thinking so fast that it appeared that time had slowed down.

When the commercial vehicle hit the cliffside boulder, Song Wanting felt as if her entire body was completely washed away by the violent impact.

Fortunately, she was still sitting in the luxurious seat of the commercial vehicle, which was very comfortable and safe, and most importantly, the part of the seat that was in contact with her body was very soft.

The soft part of the seat could greatly ease the huge impact on her flesh, it was like putting eggs in a cotton wrapped box, the safety factor was greatly increased.

But spare me, Song Wanting was still torn by the huge inertia of the impact, to the point where her entire body almost fainted, the huge inertia even squeezed her internal organs together, the pain was simply unimaginable!

But it was at this moment that she suddenly thought of something, something that she had been carrying close to her heart!

At that moment, after the vehicle had hit the boulder, it bounced a few meters into the air and continued to roll downwards, Song Wanting tried her best to reach into the pocket of her clothes as she spun rapidly.

Immediately afterwards, she took out a wooden box the size of a ring box, because the car was still rolling, she could only grasp the wooden box with both hands desperately, not daring to slacken, for fear that the wooden box would fall out of her hands!

Because she knew that what was inside this wooden casket was her only lifeline!

Song Wanting quickly opened the wooden box, and when the vehicle was about to have its next collision, she didn't hesitate to shove a handful of the pills saved in the wooden box into her mouth!

Boom!

This time, the vehicle crash was even worse!

The commercial vehicle went straight down and smashed into a boulder!

In an instant, it smashed a huge dent in the door on the right-hand side of Song Wanting's car!

It was so powerful that the dented car door smashed right into Song Wanting's right leg at the knee, even breaking her right leg alive!

The intense pain caused Song Wanting to scream, and then the entire vehicle began to roll violently over the steeply sloped rocks!

As the vehicle rolls over, Chen Yan's entire body repeatedly bumps up and down in the carriage, and her body has been so miserable that she has long since lost her life.

Song Wanting watched as her body rolled back and forth in the carriage, wanting to help but simply unable to help herself, she could only watch as tears burst into dykes!

When the vehicle lifted off again, the vehicle rolled too fast and the window was completely shattered, so it threw Chen Yan's body out of the car window.

Song Wanting broke down and cried, she herself had been injured all over, her brain, internal organs, limbs, almost all of them were severely damaged, she even felt like she was on the verge of dying.

However, the pill that Ye Chen had given her had been held in her mouth without being swallowed.

She knew that the pills could only save herself once, and if she swallowed it early, perhaps she would still be dead by the time the vehicle followed in its tumbling fall!

So, in the back of her mind there was only one conviction: "I must persist and persist and persist! Do my best to hang on until the end, and then leave my fate to God!"

Then another thought came to her mind, "No! It's not about leaving your fate to the heavens, it's about leaving your fate, to Ye Chen!"

Another violent crash.

Song Wanting felt like she was about to lose consciousness.

In that last electric moment, she bit down on the pills and swallowed the pills with a few medicinal scents into her stomach!

In the next second, Song Wanting had completely lost all consciousness and her body continued to tumble downwards with the commercial vehicle.

At this time, a strong medicinal power was dissolving in Song Wanting's abdomen.

The medicinal power was conducting extremely fast, rapidly surging into every part of her body through her meridians.

At this time, Song Wanting's body was almost on the verge of losing all life, but at this moment, the powerful medicinal power made her body instantly start to recover again.

Chapter 2056

It was as if an entire city that had been plunged into darkness because of a power outage had been instantly re-lit the moment the power was suddenly restored!

Just as Song Wanting's body was recovering rapidly, the commercial vehicle she was riding in had finally fallen to the bottom of the valley.

At this time, the commercial vehicle was already riddled with holes.

The front of the car was completely crumpled into the first row of seats, all the windows were shattered, and the metal body had been cut by stones into countless hideous gouges.

And the entire vehicle had also fallen and shifted as it continued to tumble, like a can that had been stepped on!

Song Wanting's consciousness, however, was recovering, with broken ribs, leg bones, and arms, as well as wounds on her body and damaged brain and internal organs, all of which were rapidly regaining life.

In a few moments, she regained her ability to move.

She tried to unbuckle her seatbelt, but the plug had been so badly deformed along with the latch that the seatbelt wouldn't come undone.

And the seat beneath her had been completely deformed by the impact.

But the good news was that the seatbelt was barely able to get around her body, and she would be able to escape from the deformed seat.

The phone under her feet was still lit, and the screen was badly shattered, but the fact that it was still lit meant that it was still working.

So, Song Wanting hurriedly grabbed the phone in her palm and hurriedly fled to the car!

The doors were long gone, but the windows on either side turned into two completely deformed window frames.

She struggled and climbed out of the car.

That's when she heard the sound of water running and also smelled the pungent odor of gasoline.

The gas tank of the family car was almost invariably underneath the car, and most of them were made of engineering plastic.

Although the fuel tank can withstand most collisions and accidents, it's basically hard to protect yourself against such a 360-degree rollover.

Therefore, the fuel tank of the commercial vehicle was pierced with several large openings, through which dozens of liters of gasoline continued to pour out.

The fuel tank of the commercial vehicle Song Wanting was riding in had a capacity of 70 liters, and with a two-liter Coke bottle as the container, it was able to fill up 35 bottles.

The driver had only just filled up with fuel after returning to the hotel, and had consumed less than ten liters on the way over, with at least sixty liters of gasoline in the car.

You know the gasoline burning energy is very big, not to mention sixty liters of gasoline, even a large Coke bottle so much gasoline, is enough to burn a car to scrap iron!

At this point, the car's damaged engine was still humming and spinning, which meant that the engine's spark plugs were currently firing and injectors were also spewing oil to propel the engine's piston movement.

Should there be an oil leak inside the engine compartment, flames would likely escape from the interior of the engine compartment, which would then ignite all the gasoline!

Song Wanting didn't dare to delay, although she was surrounded by thick woods and bushes, she could only dive into the woods in order to escape.

Just when she was not even ten meters away, a strong fire suddenly burst out from behind her.

Gasoline began to burn from the engine compartment's position, igniting the leaking gasoline around it as well.

The gasoline burned extremely fast, and in the blink of an eye, the commercial vehicle was quickly engulfed in flames.

Song Wanting turned around and looked at the burning flames, her eyes filled with tears.

Her other assistant, as well as the nice Chinese driver she had found in Japan, were all in the car at this point.

Although Song Wanting knew that they had been dead since the first moment of impact, the thought that their bodies would be burned beyond recognition by the flames still made Song Wanting feel a twinge in her heart.

And Chen Yan.

That little girl who just a few minutes ago was talking about taking photography lessons from you, but she's already separated from you.

After the robbery, Song Wanting, unable to care about the scorching hot flames, bent her legs slightly, slowly kneeled on the ground, covering her face with her hands, crying out in pain

Chapter 2057

When Song Wanting was robbed in Nishitomo County, Tokyo, Japan, Ye Chen was preparing to soak in the hot spring at the Champs Spa Villa in the mountains on the outskirts of Jinling.

Soaking in the hot spring pool with him was his wife, Xiao Churan.

Just like when they had soaked in the hot spring with Dong Ruolin, Ye Chen was wearing swim trunks while Xiao Churan was wearing a one-piece swimsuit.

The manly body posture was on display in front of Ye Chen, making Xiao Churan more or less still shy.

In fact, the couple wasn't going to take a hot spring together.

Ye Chen wanted Xiao Churan to soak first, and when Xiao Churan came over in her bathrobe, she happened to be seen by Ma Lan, so Ma Lan said that she would let Ye Chen join Xiao Churan with her.

Xiao Churan entered the hot spring water first, while Ye Chen put their cell phones on the stone platform next to the hot spring pool first, which was the only way to get into the water.

As a result, just at this time, the phone suddenly rang.

It was a WeChat.

He opened his phone and found that the WeChat was actually from Song Wanting.

Moreover, it was a voice.

This made him feel more or less embarrassed.

A voice message, if you don't click open and listen to it, you don't know what is sent, but if you click open on the spot, what if it says something in it that makes your wife Xiao Churan misunderstand?

Listening in earpiece mode was certainly safer, but it would inevitably make Xiao Churan think more.

So, Ye Chen had to click on convert text.

Song Wanting's Mandarin was very standard, plus the recognition rate of WeChat's voice to text conversion was also very high, so she was able to completely convert her words in one go.

Ye Chen looked at that text and his entire body was in shock!

"Why is Song Wanting now suddenly sending a voice to say the words I love you to me? Why do you say you'll be your own woman in the afterlife if you get the chance?!"

"Is it possible that she's in some kind of danger?!"

Thinking of this, Ye Chen hurriedly said to Xiao Churan, "Wife, you soak for a while, I'll go get a drink."

Xiao Churan nodded and instructed, "You put on some clothes, don't freeze."

"Good."

Ye Chen said, draping the thickened bathrobe over his body, turning around and entering the villa.

Both Xiao Changkun and Ma Lan went back to their respective rooms to rest, so Ye Chen directly clicked on the voice in the living room.

Immediately afterwards, Song Wanting's sad, desperate voice came out, "Master Ye, I I really love you very much! If there's still a chance, Wan Ting will be your woman in the next life."

In this voice message, in addition to Song Wanting's voice, there was the sound of a violent crash, the screech of metal rubbing against the ground, and the roar of an engine

Ye Chen's heart thudded!

By the sound of this, something must have happened to Song Wanting!

He immediately called Song Wanting and it showed that the other party was temporarily disconnected!

He quickly sent another WeChat voice call invitation to Song Wanting, and it was always unresponsive!

Ye Chen's heart suddenly panicked.

He knew that Song Wanting was in Japan and hadn't returned yet, so he could also deduce that something must have happened to her in Japan.

Now that she couldn't get in touch with her whole person, the first thing that came to Ye Chen's mind was to quickly call Master Song to ask about the situation.

So, he immediately dialed Master Song's phone.

Chapter 2058

At this time, Master Song was ready for bed.

Since taking the Rejuvenation Pill, his body was getting stronger as he aged, but it also made him cherish his hard-won health even more, so he had been adhering to the health philosophy of going to bed early and getting up early, moving more and practicing more, so he rested earlier every day.

Suddenly receiving a call from Ye Chen, he hurriedly put the call through and opened his mouth, "Oh my, Master Ye, what are your orders for calling me at such a late hour?"

Ye Chen spoke up, "Master Song, I'd like to ask what's going on with Wan Ting right now? Why can't you reach her all of a sudden?"

"Wanda?" Song was surprised and said, "We still had contact in the evening, she's in Tokyo, Japan, negotiating a cooperation with Japan's New Japan Railway."

Ye Chen said, "Wan Ting sent me a voice message a few minutes ago, suddenly saying something about the next life or something like that, then when I called her back, I couldn't get through anymore, I suspect Wan Ting might have suffered some kind of change in Tokyo!"

"Experiencing a change of heart?!"

Master Song sat up on the bed in a flash and asked out of the blue, "Master Ye, in the voice that Wan Ting sent you, does she sometimes encounter things?"

"No." Ye Chen intoned, "That's what I'm most worried about, Wan Ting didn't say anything specific in her voice message, but she gave me the feeling as if she was going to bid me farewell on this."

Master Song said nervously, "I'll call the people around her and ask what's going on!"

"Yes! Be sure to let me know the first time you hear anything!"

Master Song hung up the phone and immediately called Song Wanting first.

As Ye Chen had said, Song Wanting's phone was simply unreachable.

Master Song's heart was in awe, and then he quickly called Chen Yan, the assistant at Song Wanting's side, again.

Chen Yan was Song Wanting's close confidant and her right hand man, so if Song Wanting encountered anything, she would definitely know about it.

However, what made Master Song even more nervous was that Chen Yan's couldn't even get through!

Master Song is really panicking now!

He immediately called Song Honor and opened his mouth, "Honor, come to my room immediately! Something happened to Wan Ting!"

A minute later, Song Honor rushed in in a panic, and as soon as he entered, he asked out of nervousness, "Grandpa, what happened to Wan Ting?!"

Master Song said nervously, "Wan Ting is missing! I've called both her and Chen Yan, and both of their cell phones can't be reached!"

Saying that, Master Song asked, "Honor, how many people did your sister bring with her to Japan this time?!"

Song Honor said, "It seems like he brought two assistants with him, and a driver he found locally."

Song hurriedly asked again, "Then do you know who the other one is besides Chen Yan?"

Song Honor thought about it and said, "It seems to be called Xiao Ya."

Master Song hurriedly commanded, "Hurry! Find that Maya's phone number and contact her immediately to see if you can reach her!"

Song Honor nodded in a panic, then pulled out his cell phone and called the Song Group's HR Director, and as soon as he spoke, he said, "Xiao Ya who went to Japan with Wan Ting, do you have her contact information?"

The other replied, "Yes sir, I'm sending it to you now or?"

Song Honor said, "Send it to me, quickly!"

Soon, the pair conveniently sent a string of phone numbers to Song Honor's phone.

Song Honor immediately called, and a moment later, he heard a prompt from the phone: "Sorry, the phone you are calling is temporarily unreachable, please dial again later."

Song Honor's expression was very tense as he looked towards Song and said, "Grandpa Wanting's two assistants beside him can't be contacted, what the hell is going on here"

Master Song was sweating with anxiety, he kept slapping his palms and mumbled heart-wrenchingly, "Bad, bad, bad! Something must have happened to Wan-ting! What can we do about that?"

Song Honor said without hesitation, "Grandpa, why don't I take someone to Japan! Now!"

Chapter 2059

Song Honor took the initiative to go to Japan, and Master Song's heart was more or less comforted.

He even surmised in his heart, "Honor and Wan Ting are not brother and sister, but it is indeed very rare for Honor to be so attentive to Wan Ting."

With that in mind, he sighed softly and spoke, "Honor, you go arrange for a plane, I'll go with you!"

Song Honor hurriedly said, "Grandpa, you don't have to follow along, you're old, you don't know the place well when you go over there, it will be even more troublesome in case something happens again, and my father he's still abroad, Jinling side can't be left without someone to sit on the town, your old man just stay at home, I'll find a way to bring Wan Ting back!"

Song was slightly hesitant, and he knew in his heart that it was really hard to be of any use in the past.

Moreover, if both himself and Song Honor went to Japan, the Song Group would be left without a leader.

After all, it is a big family of hundreds of billions of dollars, even during the holidays, every day to deal with the various affairs is very tedious, if there really is no one in charge to stay here to guard, in case of any situation, it is likely to cause great losses.

Thus, Master Song nodded slightly and said, "That's fine! Then I'll stay at home, you pick some competent people as soon as possible and hurry up and leave as soon as possible!"

Song Honor immediately said, "Grandpa don't worry! I'll arrange it!"

Immediately afterwards, Song Honor made a phone call and summoned several assistants, as well as more than a dozen bodyguards, as well as arranged for an airport flight to take off directly for Japan an hour later.

Master Song also called Ye Chen back and said to Ye Chen, "Master Ye, Wan Ting and the people around her are all unreachable, I'm afraid that something has happened to them, I've arranged for Honor to leave immediately and head to Tokyo!"

Ye Chen asked on the other end of the phone, "No clues at all?"

Master Song sighed, "Yeah, there's no clue whatsoever, I had someone question the hotel, and the hotel only said they left by car more than an hour ago, but where they went, no one knows."

Ye Chen asked again, "Didn't Wan Ting tell you guys what she was going out to do?"

"No" Song said sadly, "Wan Ting returned to the hotel from New Japan Rail in the evening and told me about the progress of the negotiations, and that she might continue to communicate with them tomorrow, but where she went tonight, I have no idea, and she never mentioned a word about it."

It must be said that Song Honor was indeed extremely clever in setting up the game.

As early as the negotiations between Song Wanting and Nippon Steel's Hashimoto Konzen were being thwarted, he had been encouraging Song Wanting and giving her a boost to make her more eager for success.

In the afternoon, he deliberately says "I'll probably get a surprise in the morning", which is a so-called "blessing" that gives Song a psychological hint.

So much so that after receiving a call from Hashimoto to sign the contract, Song Wanting naturally thought of a surprise for her family, so when she left the hotel, she didn't tell anyone other than her companions about her trip.

This was just what Song Honor wanted. Mobile One Second Remember provides you with wonderful \fiction reading.

At this moment, Ye Chen was very worried.

When he heard that Song Honor was going to Japan, he didn't think much about it and certainly didn't have any doubts about Song Honor.

He just felt that since Song Wanting's whereabouts were unknown in Tokyo, the most important thing he should do now was to get help from someone who was in Tokyo and quickly follow the clues from the hotel where Song Wanting was staying to find out where Song Wanting had gone after leaving the hotel.

So, he hung up on Song first and then called Itoh Nana-chan.

Chapter 2060

At this time, Itachi Nashiko had just returned to Tokyo from Kyoto.

A few days ago, she was temporarily accompanying her father to Kyoto for a few days for a small stay and a change of mood to relax and unwind, but because of the numerous family affairs, she stayed for three days and returned to Tokyo.

When she received the call from Ye Chen, Ito Naozi was still a little surprised, after all, the time in Tokyo was an hour earlier than at home, and it was now 11:30 pm at home.

So, Ito Cabbage was excited and surprised and asked, "Ye Chen-kun, why are you calling Cabbage at this time?"

Ye Chen's voice was a bit raspy as he asked, "Veggie, are you in Tokyo right now?"

"In." Ito Naozi said, "Father-sama and I just got back this afternoon, Yatsuo-kun, I hear you sounding a bit anxious, is something wrong?"

Ye Chen said, "A good friend of mine suddenly disappeared in Tokyo, and in the last voice message she sent me, she seemed to have met with an accident, but I can't reach her at all now, so I want to ask you to do me a favor and arrange for someone to investigate exactly where she went tonight."

As soon as she heard this, Itachi Nana-chan hurriedly said, "No problem Yatsuo-kun! You give me the general information and I'll arrange a full search! Our Ito family's influence in Tokyo is still unparalleled, and as long as the person is indeed missing in Tokyo, I will be able to find out where she is!"

"Yes!" Ye Chen hurriedly told Ito Cabbage some of Song Wanting's personal information, as well as the information about the hotel she stayed in and the time she left the hotel, and instructed, "Cabbage, please arrange for someone to assemble the CCTV footage to see which car she got into, as well as the car she took, and where she drove off to!"

"Okay Yatsuo-kun!" Ito Cabbage also took it very seriously and took off, "I'll arrange that!"

Since the Matsumoto family had collectively gone offline and the Takahashi family had suffered a great loss of energy, the Ito family's influence in Tokyo had naturally increased tremendously.

Many of the dependent forces and organizations that had previously followed the Takahashi and Matsumoto families now took the initiative to show their favor to the Ito family, and Ito Naozi had gradually co-opted some of them, allowing the Ito family's outside forces to expand greatly.

This included the major violent clans that were previously controlled by the Takahashi family.

It's just like Hongwu's little brothers in the underground world.

They might not all be able to get on top, but one by one they were all groups that breed in the shadows of the city, so they were like sewer rats with an extremely strong sense of smell, as well as extremely fast mobility.

As soon as they were told to find someone, they all immediately moved.

Since the last place where Song Wanting appeared was a downtown hotel, the surveillance equipment was perfect, so the outside forces of the Ito family immediately locked onto the commercial vehicle Song Wanting was riding in when she left through the hotel's surveillance cameras.

So, everyone began to follow the car's movement little by little through the surveillance system, and since the Ito family offered a reward of hundreds of millions of yen, they all went all out in pursuit of clues, each group hoping to be the first to find Song Wanting's whereabouts. At this moment, in the valley in the western suburb of Tokyo, West Tama County.

Song Wanting was walking carefully through the dense forest at the bottom of the valley by herself.

The valley was hundreds of meters deep, with dense forests and vegetation as well as towering mountains on both sides, so the phone had no signal at all.

At this time, Song Wanting had only one thought: get out of the mountain alive, and as soon as the signal from her cell phone came back, she would ask Ye Chen for help.

As she trudged through the dense forest, she thought in her heart, "What happened today must be someone's intentional murder of me, if they know I'm still alive, then I definitely won't be able to leave Japan alive!"

At the same time, there was another perception in her subconscious: "Right now, no one can save me except Master Ye!"
