Chapter 2071

At this moment, Song Honor was sitting in the Tokyo Police Department's conference room with an anxious face.

Because the Song Group is a powerful and well-known company, the Tokyo Police Department is very polite to Song Honor.

The director, who had come overnight from home, was now personally entertaining Song Honor.

Seeing Song Honor's anxious appearance, the director opened his mouth to comfort him, "Mr. Song, our large team has already begun a comprehensive search for your sister's whereabouts in West Domo County, so you don't need to be too anxious, once there are any results and clues, I will report back to you at once."

Song Honor sighed lightly and covered his face in pain, choking out, "Wan Ting is my only sister and the person I love the most, please do your best to bring her back safe and sound!"

The Police Chief nodded and assured, "Please don't worry Mr. Song, we will do our best to find Miss Song's whereabouts!"

Song Honor said gratefully, "That's very kind of you!"

At that moment, someone came in at the door and said urgently, "Chief, our men found Miss Song's commercial vehicle in the mountains of West Domoshire, the vehicle had crashed to the bottom of a ravine, and they found two charred bodies in it, and another one halfway up a steep hill!"

As soon as Song Honor heard this, his eyes reddened and he immediately shed two lines of hot tears.

He nervously asked after her, "Director, has something bad happened to Wan Ting?"

The hall manager sighed and said, "Mr. Song, I beg your condolences."

Song Honor covered his face and cried out in pain, "Why why why is Wan Ting she is still so young she is still so young ah!Why wasn't I the one who died!Why!"

The director stepped forward and gently patted Song Honor's shoulder, and was about to open his mouth to comfort a couple of sentences, the person who came to report said again, "Director, we found out through surveillance that when Miss Song departed from the hotel, there were four people in the car along with her, so there is still one person whose whereabouts are unknown."

Song Honor lifted his face up and asked in stunned silence, "What did you say?!There's one more person unaccounted for?!"

"Right!"The man hurriedly said, "Four people got on the bus, there are only three bodies, the other one hasn't found any clues yet, and we highly suspect that the one whose whereabouts are unknown is Miss Song!"

"What?!" Song Hornung was so nervous that he asked, "What evidence do you have that the missing person is my sister? Have you identified the body that fell to its death halfway up the hill? Also, was she in those two charred bodies in the car?"

The man explained: "Is so Mr. Song, the corpse halfway up the hill has been confirmed, is Miss Song's assistant Chen Yan, as for the two charred corpses, we are through the high-definition camera carefully compared, when the commercial vehicle left the hotel's seating order, the only male is the driver sitting in the driver's seat, and at that time sitting in the passenger seat, is one of Miss Song's assistant, Zhang Xiaohui., when Miss Song got into the car at that time, she was sitting in the back row with her other assistant, Chen Yan."

At this point, the man continued, "So, it follows that the charred corpse on the passenger side should be Zhang Xiaohui, unless Miss Song swapped places with Zhang Xiaohui halfway through the journey, but we believe that this possibility is minimal."

The director reasoned at this point, "Now that we have confirmed the discovery of Chen Yan's corpse, the other two corpses are most likely the driver and Zhang Xiaohui, so in that case, it is very likely that Miss Song is still alive!"

Song Honor's entire body almost collapsed when he heard this!

He inwardly strained his abdomen, "What's going on?! What the hell is going on here? Why is Song Wanting still alive? Isn't it certain as well as certain that Hashimoto's near-senior people have rolled down the valley with the car and Song Wanting! Why is she flying off the handle?!"

Chapter 2072

So he hurriedly stood up and asked out of the blue, "Have you found my sister's whereabouts? Or have you found anything of value?!"

The person who came to report shook his head and said, "Things are a bit tricky right now, and there are some inconsistencies, we didn't find any traces of Miss Song at the scene, nor did we find any traces of anyone alive, but we also didn't find any clues as to whether Miss Song got off the bus early or not, so everything is still unknown right now."

Song Honor's heart had a few fears at this point "If Song Wanting is dead, then everything is easy to solve, even if the Tokyo Police Department finds out that she died from a homicide, I have nothing to worry about, I didn't do it anyway, it's almost impossible to find out, and then the Tokyo Police Department can continue to After pursuing the clues, I'll bring Song Wanting's body back to put on the funeral, and then I'll do the old thing, and the Song family will be mine and Dad's."

"But, if Song Wanting isn't dead, then I'm afraid all of this will be for naught! Even if Song Wanting doesn't know that I secretly harmed her, as long as she returns to Jinling alive, she will definitely become extremely vigilant in the future, and then it will be hard to kill her!" first issue

Thinking of this, he couldn't sit still a bit and spoke, "A few people, I want to go out for some air."

The director hurriedly nodded, "Mr. Song is light!"

Song Honor immediately walked out the door to an empty stairwell and dialed Hashimoto Konzen's phone.

"Haha, Mr. Song, you should be at the Tokyo Police Department right now, right?"

Song Honor said coldly, "Mr. Hashimoto, someone from the Tokyo Police Department told me that my sister is missing! What the hell is going on here?"

Hashimoto Kon first asked in surprise. "Missing? How did it go missing?"

Song Honor gritted his teeth and roared in a low voice, "That's how they disappeared for no reason! No one knows where she is, and now neither a person nor a body can be found!"

Hashimoto Kensen mumbled, "This isn't right! My people have obviously crashed her and the commercial vehicle she was riding in into the cliff valley, and according to them, the vehicle fell to the bottom of the valley for no more than a minute before it happened naturally, and even Amaterasu Daijin couldn't escape!"

Song Honor said angrily, "Don't fucking talk that shit to me! Your Amaterasu Great Spirit couldn't escape, so my sister escaped!"

"No one from the police department found her body! She wasn't even there!"

Hashimoto Konzen also tensed up and said with a bit of a tremble in his voice, "This isn't fking right! I really have a video here, it was taken by one of my men, and you can see on the video that your sister she was obviously still in the car when it hit!"

Honor Song questioned angrily, "She was in the car at the time of the crash, and she disappeared when she crashed down the valley, so I'm asking you to answer me, where the hell did she go?"

Hashimoto Konen-sen's voice was all a bit desperate as he said, "She she should be dead right ah at that height, there's no way anyone could have survived!"

Song Honor questioned, "If she dies, won't the corpse walk on its own?!"

Hashimoto near-sen fidgeted and said, "I don't know about this this one."

Song honored the low growl, "So this is only one possibility, she must have escaped! I don't care how you do it, just find her and kill her now! Otherwise if this is revealed, we'll both be finished!"

Chapter 1273

Ye Chen and Itoh Cabbage flew in a helicopter for about thirty minutes before they approached West Tama County.

As Ito Naozi's ninjas were still tracking Song Wanting's whereabouts, a large number of police forces from the Tokyo Police Department were also searching near the site of the incident.

So, Ye Chen had the helicopter land in a relatively flat place on the top of a mountain about five kilometers away from the incident site.

A distance of five kilometers would temporarily avoid the police department's search, while not being too far away from Song Wanting.

After all, she wouldn't be able to walk too fast in the deep mountains on her feet, and it was estimated that she would have walked at most five kilometers since the incident.

Therefore, even if the helicopter that Ye Chen was riding in was unlucky and landed completely in the opposite direction, the maximum straight line distance between him and Song Wanting would not exceed ten kilometers.

Still putting more than two thousand meters to the top of the mountain, the weather was bitterly cold, and Ye Chen was standing on top of a boulder at the top of the mountain with anxiety in his heart.

The pills he gave Song Wanting could save her once, but not twice, and if she was met by criminals again, or if she ran into any danger in the mountain, he was afraid that he wouldn't be able to whip her.

At the side, Itoh Naija, seeing Ye Chen's burning expression, immediately pulled out her phone and prepared to call the ninja she had sent out to inquire about the situation.

At that moment, her phone happened to vibrate, and the one who called her was the ninja headed by the Ito family.

Ito Naija hurriedly answered the phone and asked, "How's the situation? Have you found out where Miss Sun is?"

The other party immediately said: "Back to Missy, we have found Miss Song's whereabouts, he is at the site of the incident, about four kilometers northeast of the valley, we just nearest to her, a straight line distance of about 500 meters, but I found Miss Song's condition is still good, so I did not disturb her, because there is no signal at the top of the mountain, so I went up to the first Halfway called you for instructions, and the others are secretly trailing and protecting her."

Itachi was relieved and said off the top of her head, "That's great!"

Ye Chen then hurriedly pursued, "Does Wan Ting have a whereabouts?"

Itachi nodded heavily and said to Ye Chen-kun, "Ye Chen-kun! My men have found Song Xiao, she is now traveling to the northeast, she seems to be in good shape, my men are about five or six hundred meters away from her, they haven't alerted her yet, and have called me specifically for advice, what do you think we should do?"

As soon as Ye Chen heard this, a stone in his heart fell to the ground.

Coming to Japan in the middle of the night, the only thing he was looking forward to was hearing the news that Song Wanting was safe and sound.

So, he immediately said to Itachi, "Cabbage Patch, please have your people give a specific location, we're on our way!"

In the valley.

Song Wanting was still struggling to move forward.

Since her phone had no signal, she couldn't use her location, and she herself couldn't figure out how far she had gone.

However, Song Wanting was smart enough to rely on the Polaris in the sky to orient herself.

The North Star was a star in the northern part of the sky, and due to its unique movement pattern, the star was almost immobile from the northern hemisphere.

It is because Polaris remains motionless in the northern part of the sky that it is able to provide the most basic navigation of location.

When one finds the North Star, one can find the North, and when one is facing the North, behind him is the South, while the right-hand direction is the East and the left-hand direction is the West.

In this way, Song Wanting was able to ensure that he had been heading northeast, rather than aimlessly and sparsely going back and forth in the valley. First post.

When you get lost in the mountains, if you don't have a way to tell where you are going, you will often circle around without realizing it.

Song Wanting wanted to walk as far away from the incident as possible and wait until she had put enough safe distance before climbing up and finding a cell phone signal to call the police for help.

However, she didn't know at this point that she was surrounded by 10 top ninjas.

Fortunately, these ninjas were all sent out by Ito Naija, and they didn't have any malice towards Song Wanting, otherwise, Song Wanting was afraid that even if she had the Rejuvenation Pill in her hand, she would be in mortal danger.

And at this time, she was even more unaware that Ye Chen, whom she was thinking of, had already arrived in Tokyo and was marching fast towards her in the darkness!

Ye Chen's strength was extraordinary, and even if he didn't rely on helicopters, he was able to run fast and flat in this kind of place.

Chapter 2074

However, Itochi and the others were completely unable to keep up with his kind of pace, so they could only wait in place for Ye Chen's announcement.

Ye Chen didn't want to directly take a helicopter to pick up Song Wanting, because that would probably disturb the others who were searching for her whereabouts.

Therefore, it would be more reliable to rely on his own legs.

It was good that Ye Chen was not that far away from Song Wanting, it was almost two or three kilometers from the positioning.

So, after half an hour of speeding, Song Wanting had appeared in Ye Chen's sight.

At this time, Song Wanting was climbing upwards from the bottom of the valley.

She felt that she had largely pulled off a safe distance, so she wanted to climb upwards and look for a cell phone signal, then first report to Ye Chen and her family.

At this time, Song Wanting, in her heart, couldn't help but worry: "If Master Ye is talking about the voice I sent to him when I had the accident, then he must be very worried about my safety, right? I don't know if there's a heartbeat right now, but I need to call Master Ye and let him know I'm still alive!"

Ye Chen's heart was suddenly excited when he saw her.

When he arrived from Jinling, Ye Chen was most afraid that Song Wanting's life would be threatened.

Now seeing her figure with his own eyes made Ye Chen completely dispel all his previous tensions and worries.

When Song Wanting climbed on top of a relatively flat boulder in the middle of the mountain, she pulled out her cell phone, which still showed no signal at this time.

She walked back and forth on the boulder with her mobile phone, and finally caught a cell phone signal.

So, she hurriedly kept still and then opened her messenger at the first opportunity.

Since the network was very poor, her WeChat kept indicating that it was in connection.

After waiting a few minutes, WeChat changed again from being connected, to being receiving.

Although it showed that it was receiving, she didn't even receive a new WeChat.

So, she could only give up on WeChat and call Ye Chen directly.

Fortunately, the internet, although it was only one cell and almost difficult to connect to the internet, was a signal that could already sustain her to make the call out!

After the phone rang twice, she heard Ye Chen's voice, "Wan Ting, how are you doing now?"

Song Wanting heard Ye Chen's voice and felt as if Ye Chen was still in her ears, her heart was so excited that she cried out, "Master Ye I'm still alive."

Ye Chen said softly, "I know." "Yes."

Song Wanting was sobbing now and choked, "Master Ye thank you if it wasn't for you, I would have been dead by now."

Ye Chen looked at Song Wanting's back in distress and said softly, "Wanting, I have to tell you something, you should never be nervous, let alone afraid."

Song Wanting hurriedly said, "Master Ye you say!"

Ye Chen said seriously, "Knowing that something happened to you, I've come to Japan."

"Ah?!" Song Wanting asked excitedly, "Master Ye, you're here in Japan?!"

Ye Chen said, "That's right, I'm in Tokyo."

Song Wanting was now extremely happy and moved, crying, "Master Ye, you have really come to Tokyo to find me?"

Ye Chen sighed lightly and said, "Wanting, I was in the West Domo County where you had your accident."

Song Wanting was now full of incredulity and exclaimed in shock, "Master Ye, how did you know that I was in the West Domo County where I had my accident? Where are you now?"

Ye Chen said seriously, "Wan Ting, I'm right behind you now!"

Chapter 2075

The reason why Ye Chen told Song Wanting in a gradual manner was that he was afraid that he would suddenly call out to her, or suddenly tell her that he was right behind her and scare her.

After all, Song Wanting had been walking alone in this kind of deep forest for so long, if she suddenly appeared without any psychological preparation, it would definitely scare her to a certain extent.

That's why Ye Chen chose to guide her in a gradual manner, first letting her know that she had come to Japan, to Tokyo, to Sidomore County, and then telling her that he was right behind her.

And when Song Wanting heard Ye Chen's words, she immediately turned back subconsciously!

Indeed!

She realized that about ten meters behind her, there was a familiar figure standing about a dozen meters away!

That familiar figure was the same Ye Chen she still thought of in her heart at the critical moment, Master Ye!

Song Wanting's heart was almost thrilled to the point of ecstasy!

She never dared to dream that Ye Chen would actually suddenly appear here!

At this moment, Song Wanting's heart was completely filled with emotion and happiness!

She choked on her heart, "Master Ye actually came to my rescue so late in the day, so far away, and Master Ye appeared before me within hours! It's like that supreme jewel in the movie with the colorful clouds on his feet! It must have been important to think of my place in his heart."

Thinking of this, her entire body had been completely immersed in extreme emotion, and she cried out, "Master Ye!"

After saying that, he ran towards Ye Chen in stride!

Ye Chen was afraid that she would fall down on the mountain road, so he hurriedly took two quick steps as well.

As soon as she reached the front, Song Wanting threw herself into Ye Chen's arms and cried out, "Master Ye I'm not dreaming, am I? Is that really you? You really came to my rescue."

Ye Chen gently patted her back and comforted her, "You're not dreaming, it's really me, I'm here to save you!"

Song Wanting suddenly cried pears and sobbed, "Master Ye, I thought I'd never see you again in my life".

Ye Chen asked her, "Did you take the pill I gave you?"

Song Wanting nodded her head like garlic, hugged Ye Chen tightly and said on his shoulder, "I've been good and obedient to you, carrying that medicine close to my body, after the car I was riding in fell off the cliff, I took that medicine at the first opportunity, thanks to that medicine, otherwise, Master Ye might have been unable to see me"

Ye Chen sighed lightly and said, "When I gave you that medicine, it was so that you could use it in case of emergencies, but I never expected that you would actually use it, but today it turned out to be a prophecy!"

Song Wanting choked with gratitude, "Master Ye, the greatest luck in my life is that I have known you, if it wasn't for you, I would have been long gone, and I would never be able to repay you for your great kindness in my life"

Song Wanting's heart had always been very grateful to Ye Chen.

Thinking back, her room had accidentally formed a feng shui bureau of a trapped dragon formation by mistake, and her entire fortune had been rapidly depleted to the point where her life had been endangered.

If Ye Chen hadn't defused it in time, she might have already died of an accident.

Not to mention, Ye Chen had helped her step by step to sit on the Song family's headship.

Today, she encountered such a great death crisis in Japan, and it was also entirely thanks to the medicine that Ye Chen gave her that she was able to turn the danger into safety.

Now, Ye Chen had even travelled thousands of miles and nights to come to the deep mountains of Japan to save her, this kindness had already made Song Wanting tears of gratitude.

What's more, she loved Ye Chen deeply in her heart, so at this moment, she regarded Ye Chen as a beloved person who was more important than her own life.

Chapter 2076

Song Wanting even had a thought that sprouted within her, she felt, "From today onwards, I, Song Wanting, am willing to do anything for Master Ye, even if Master Ye lets me die immediately, I will willingly die for him and have no complaints whatsoever!"

Ye Chen didn't know Song Wanting's inner activities at this time, he just kept comforting her with a gentle tone: "Wanting, between you and me, there's no need to say thank you, let alone say any great kindness, you're my friend, it's only right and proper for me to save you, not to mention that you're in Japan, even if you're in the middle of a mountain of fire and knives, I, Ye Chen, will never say anything."

Ye Chen was expressing his steadfastness towards his friend and friendship to Song Wanting, but he never expected that to Song Wanting's ears, these words would become the most touching expression of emotion in the world!

At this moment, she even loved Ye Chen to her bones, and was even willing to just hold him tightly and rub her entire body into his bones.

Her heart was filled with love and emotion for Ye Chen, and as her brain heated up, she immediately stood on tiptoe and took the initiative to kiss Ye Chen's lips.

This was the second time Song Wanting had kissed Ye Chen.

It was also the second time in her life that she kissed.

Her lips were cold and still had a faint salty taste from her tears, making Ye Chen's heart ache all of a sudden.

Song Wanting kissed Ye Chen and her hands also hugged him tighter.

At this moment, how much she longed for time to stop here, to be able to let herself and the man she loved stay in this beautiful moment forever.

Even if this life came to an abrupt end, she was already satisfied.

Unfortunately, reality is not a fairy tale.

While she was immersed in the kiss, the sound of a helicopter whistling came from the valley not far away.

Ye Chen hurriedly turned his head to look, and in the sky, three helicopters were coming in formation.

At the nose of the helicopter, three high power searchlights were shining back and forth in the valley.

Ye Chen hurriedly said to her, "We can't stay here for long, the police in all of Tokyo are looking for you now."

Song Wanting hurriedly said, "Master Ye, the police are looking for me just in time for me to call the police!"

Ye Chen's brow creased slightly as he asked her, "Are you going to call the police?"

"Right!" Song Wanting cut to the chase and said, "The truck that hit me was obviously premeditated, and it was meant to kill me!"

"I'm not going to be able to do anything about it," she said.

When it came to this, Song Wanting suddenly couldn't control her emotions again, incomparably sad and choked, "Yanzi and Xiaohui have followed me for so long, have been reserved, accompanying me to Japan on a business trip on New Year's Eve, I also planned to bring them to have a good time in Tokyo, I didn't expect them"

At this time, Song Wanting could no longer speak and cried out in sorrow.

Ye Chen hurriedly comforted her, "Wan Ting, don't worry, they won't all die in vain!"

Song Wanting nodded heavily, wiped away her tears, and said resolutely, "So I'm going to call the police, have the police catch those behind it, bring them to justice, and avenge Swallow and the three of them!"

Ye Chen shook his head and said seriously, "You're not familiar with life in Tokyo, calling the police won't serve any purpose, but instead you might alert the snakes."

Song Wanting hurriedly asked, "Master Ye, then what you mean is that you won't call the police?"

"Right!" Ye Chen nodded and said, "Wan Ting, we still don't know whether it's someone in Japan who wants you dead or someone at home, so calling the police in Japan won't solve anything, if you trust me, let me handle this matter, I'll find out what happened and give you, and the three people who died, an explanation!"

Chapter 2077

When Song Wanting heard Ye Chen's words, without any thought at all, she cut him off and said, "Master Ye, I'll listen to you!"

Ye Chen nodded and said seriously, "It's still more or less relevant in Japan, I'll bring you to my friend's house first later, during this period you should not contact with anyone, including your grandfather and your other family members, until this matter is investigated to the bottom of the matter."

Song Wanting was surprised and asked, "Master Ye, can't I tell my grandfather? He must be very worried about me now, and if I remain unaccounted for, I fear he will worry excessively and affect his health."

Ye Chen smiled slightly and comforted, "Don't worry about that, your grandfather has taken the Rejuvenation Pill, so his body will never have any serious problems, and don't forget, the Rejuvenation Pill that I gave you before on your birthday is also in his old man's hand, with this Rejuvenation Pill in his hand, he will never have any problems."

Saying that, Ye Chen further explained, "The vast majority of secrets are leaked from the person's own mouth, the real secret should be known by as few people as possible, it's best if no one but yourself knows about it, otherwise, once the secret is known by others, it's hard to make sure that it won't be known by more people."Fastest Updated.

Although Song Wanting's expression was struggling, she quickly lifted her head and looked at Ye Chen seriously, "Okay Master Ye, then I won't tell anyone yet."

Ye Chen nodded and asked her, "You didn't contact your grandfather and the rest of your family just now, did you?"

"No" Song Wanting said hurriedly, "My phone just got a signal, I immediately contacted you, Master Ye, I was going to contact you and then contact my grandfather, I haven't cared yet."

Ye Chen hurriedly said, "Then quickly turn off your phone, not only do you not receive any calls, but also do not use WeChat and any other communication software."

Song Wanting said good-naturedly, "Okay Master Ye, I'll turn off the phone."

Saying that, she immediately pressed and long-pressed the power button to turn off her phone that had a shattered screen.

Immediately, she remembered something and looked at Ye Chen with a puzzled face and asked, "Master Ye, how on earth did you find me in this deep forest?"

Ye Chen said truthfully, "The eldest lady of the Ito family in Japan is my friend, after your accident I asked her to help me find your whereabouts, he sent some Japanese ninja experts, the legendary ninjas, to the mountains of West Tama County to look for clues related to you."

"They found the commercial vehicle where you had your accident, and then followed you all the way here, chasing you, and I rushed over after I got your location."

Song Wanting exclaimed, "Huh?! A ninja? Master Ye, are you saying that ninjas really exist in this world?"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "The ninja is actually no big deal, he's like our Chinese martial arts experts, he's all real."

Song Wanting nodded in sudden realization, then remembered something and exclaimed, "They have been secretly tracking me, does that mean that they are also secretly observing us now?"

"Uh this,"

Ye Chen laughed somewhat awkwardly and said, "You're right, they have indeed been secretly following."

Song Wanting was bashful, "Then, then what we did just now, did they they see it all?"

Ye Chen shrugged his shoulders helplessly, "Definitely saw it."

Song Wanting was embarrassed and shyly lowered her head and snapped, "Master Ye you why don't you remind me of this it's too embarrassing"

Ye Chen spread out his hands and said with an innocent face, "I can't be blamed for this Wan Ting, I knew you would suddenly jump on me then I was also a blank mind"

Song Wanting heard him say that, recalling the scene just now when she actively jumped into Ye Chen's bosom and kissed his lips, her face became more and more red, so she had to shyly whisper, "Oh no this Master Ye, where are we going now?"

Chapter 2078

Ye Chen said, "Let's go to Miss Ito's mansion for a while to hide out and wait and see what happens."

At this moment, Itoh Cabbage was still waiting in the same spot.

After all, she was much, much less skilled than Ye Chen, so it was impossible for her to keep up with Ye Chen's running pace, so she simply waited in the same spot.

Since there were people from the Tokyo Police Department searching the surrounding mountains, and there were often police helicopters in the sky patrolling back and forth, she had her helicopter turn off its engine and quietly waited for news of Ye Chen.

At that moment, the head ninja under her command sent her a message, "My lady, Mr. Yeh has found that Miss Song."

Itoh Nao-chan was relieved, and her fingertips kept tapping on the screen, replying, "That's good, ask Ye Tatsu-kun what he plans to do next."

The other party sent an embarrassed expression and said, "Missy Ye-san and Miss Song are hugging and kissing, so we're too embarrassed to come forward and dawdle ah"

When Itachi Nabiki saw this, her entire body was stunned.

Immediately afterwards, her heart also immediately surged with jealousy.

In her sour heart, she secretly thought, "Originally, I also thought that Ye Chenjun is a married man after all, and even if I love him, I can't go and destroy his relationship and family"

"But, I never thought that Ye Chenjun and that Song Wanting would even hug and kiss Is Song Wanting the object of Ye Chenjun's extramarital affair?Or, to put it more bluntly, is Song Wanting the lover of Ye Chenjun?"

"If Song Wanting can be Ye Chenjun's lover, then why can't I"

"I also love Ye Chenjun from the bottom of my heart, why can't I be like Song Wanting and be Ye Chenjun's lover?"

"Although I don't despise being a third party, if Ye Chenjun is willing to give me that chance, I'm willing to hide in the shadows for the rest of my life and be his underground lover."

"After all, I love him more than anything, and fame, fame, fame, are nothing in his presence."

Just as she was imagining things, her phone suddenly vibrated, it was a call from Ye Chen.

She hurriedly answered the phone, her voice somewhat panicked and unnatural, "Uh Ye Chenjun you you met with Miss Song?"

Ye Chen spoke up, "Yes, we saw it."

Itochi was busy asking, "Is Miss Song okay?"

Ye Chen said, "She's quite good, Cabbage Patch, I'm calling you because I want to discuss the next arrangements with you."

Ito Cabbage hurriedly said, "Ye Chen-kun, everything will be at your disposal next, and the entire Ito family's power will be invoked with you!"

Ye Chen earnestly said, "That's really thankful Cabbage Patch, my current plan is to have the helicopter come over first and bring Wan Ting to your mansion so that she can stay at your house for the time being, but you must keep this matter strictly confidential and never leak it out."

Cabbage Ito said without thinking, "No problem, Ye Chen-kun wait for a moment, I'll be over to pick you up!"

Chapter 2079

When Ye Chen and Song Wanting were together, taking the Ito family's helicopter back to downtown Tokyo, Song Honor was in the Tokyo Police Department, already somewhat unable to sit still.

He was incomparably nervous at this time, and surmised, "Song Wanting is still alive and dead, and has not found any whereabouts for several hours, and if we delay any longer, it will be dawn, and if we still can't find her then, then this matter will be really tricky!"

"Song Wanting's corpse should have stayed honestly in that commercial vehicle, but instead, she has mysteriously disappeared and disappeared into the vast mountains, is she now dead or alive?"

Song Honor was very worried because he was afraid that Song Wanting wasn't dead.

Because, as long as Song Wanting didn't die, then the lie that New Nippon Steel's Vice President Hashimoto Konzen had concocted to Song Wanting before would be completely debunked.

After all, this matter is Hashimoto Konzen's own initiative, on the one hand, to seek more profit space for Nippon Steel, but also for his own personal interests.

That's why he had cooperated with Song Honor to deceive Song Wanting, saying that she was told to go to West Domo County to find the chairman of the board to sign the contract, but in fact, the chairman of New Nippon Steel didn't even know about it.

If Song Wanting was still alive, as soon as the police asked her why she had gone to West Domo County, it would be a complete shambles.

At that time, the Japanese police would definitely arrest Hashimoto Konzen at the first opportunity.

The police will then arrest Hashimoto for murder, one of the most serious crimes in Japan, and with three people dead, Hashimoto will not hesitate to betray Song.

At that time, the murder of Song Wanting by her father and son will be revealed to the world.

At this moment, Hashimoto is also pacing nervously in his own home.

The members of the team responsible for assassinating Song Wanting were standing in front of him.

These people are standing side by side in front of the sofa, one by one, with their heads down, not daring to look at Hashimoto Konzen.

Hashimoto had just made a phone call to a friend from the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, asking for an update on the latest developments.

After learning that Song Wanting's fate was still unknown, he was as nervous as Song Honor.

He knew very well that if Song Wanting was still alive, he would be the first to suffer bad luck!

So, he angrily walked up to these people and smacked them one by one directly with his big mouth, cursing furiously, "You bunch of lunchboxes! Rubbish! What's the use of raising you? Such a simple thing can't be done!"

Several people you look at me, I look at you, no one dared to open their mouths to pick up the fight.

Hashimoto Kensen saw them all silent, even more angry gnashing of teeth: "A bunch of trash! You can't even fk a woman! You've caused me so much trouble! If I'm fking exposed, none of you will escape!"

Twenty minutes later.

The helicopter slowly landed in the courtyard of the Ito family's mansion.

Ito Yuuhiko, who had lost both his legs, was pushed by his sister, Ito Emi, who had already been waiting in the courtyard.

As soon as the helicopter landed, Ito Emi immediately pushed Ito Yuuhiko to the outside of the cabin.

Ye Chen just happened to be one step ahead of the helicopter at this time and reached out to assist Song Wanting down as well.

Ito Cai Cai Zi followed Song Wanting down from the plane, seeing Ye Chen reach out to help Song Wanting down, her heart was slightly jealous, but even more envious.

Chapter 2080

At the moment when she was slightly lost in thought, Ye Chen, who was below the helicopter, reached out his hand to her again.

Ito Cai Zi did not expect that Ye Chen would still have to assist her in getting off the plane, and her heart was suddenly as sweet as honey.

Although she was already an expert and had taken the rejuvenation pills, which had increased her strength by a large amount, she was still a small woman at heart, and seeing Ye Chen so gentlemanly and considerate, she immediately, slightly shyly, handed over her hand and gently said, "Thank you, Ye Chen-kun."

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said indifferently, "It's fine, it should be."

At this time, Ito Yuuhiko was pushed over by Ito Emi, and he said in a somewhat excited tone, "Mr. Ye, I didn't expect us to meet so soon!"

Ye Chen smiled bitterly, "Yes, I didn't expect to meet again so soon, how is Mr. Ito doing?"

Ito Yuhiko folded his hands and said respectfully: "Back to Mr. Ye, I'm not too bad lately, but since the injury, the health quality has not been too good, often cold and flu, weak night sweats, it just so happens that these days Tokyo cooled down, so I originally planned to go to the Maldives in the next two days [pen fun Pavilion www.biquger.info] beach to recuperate for a period of time!, I didn't expect that you would suddenly say you came."

Ye Chen nodded and pointed at Song Wanting and said, "Mr. Ito, let me introduce you, this is my good friend, Miss Song Wanting, the chairman of the Song Clan, Miss Song is in a bit of trouble, so I came over for her this time."

Ito Yuhiko looked at Song Wanting and said very politely, "Hello Miss Song, I'm Ito Yuhiko, Mr. Ye is a guest of the Ito family, you are his friend, so naturally you are one of the guests of the Ito family, welcome to the house."

Song Wanting was also very polite and bowed slightly, "Thank you Mr. Ito!"

At this time, Song Wanting was very surprised deep inside.

She knew very well in her heart what the Ito family's status was in Japan.

In Japan, the most powerful family was the Ito Family.

Other than the Ito Family, the rest were the big zaibatsu made up of a few families, but the Ito Family's strength was no less powerful even when compared to those big zaibatsu.

Unexpectedly, Ito Family's Ito Yuuhiko was so respectful and polite to Ye Chen, which made her even more shocked at Ye Chen's strength.

Ito Yuanyan was now slandering in his heart, "This Song Wanting, looks like she is not inferior to my daughter in terms of looks, figure, and temperament, and is definitely among the top beauties, she is so close to Ye Chen, could it be, that there is some unknown deep relationship between her and Ye Chen? If that's the case, then my daughter's chances with Ye Chen are even smaller!"

Just as he was lamenting in his heart, his sister Ito Emi hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye, it's quite cold outside, let's go inside and talk."

Only then did Ito Yuuhiko come back to his senses and hurriedly said, "Yes, yes, yes! Hurry up and go in and talk, go in and have the vegetables prepare a tea ceremony to serve the two of you while I have the chef prepare some breakfast." first issue

Inside the Japanese style parlor.

Ye Chen and Song Wanting sat next to each other on the floor.

Ito Naija, on the other hand, was kneeling at one end of the tea table, making tea for everyone with an elegant and unhurried manner.

Ye Chen then opened his mouth and asked Song Wanting, "Wanting, what happened to you last night? Can you tell me more about it?"

Ito Yuhiko was also in a hurry to speak at this time, "Miss Song, I'm still considered to have some energy in Japan, you might as well tell us what happened, I'm sure I, as well as the entire Ito family, can help you!"

Song Wanting bowed slightly, "Thank you, Master Ye, Mr. Ito, and Miss Ito."

Only after thanking her did Song Wanting continue, "I came to Japan this time to enter into a strategic partnership with New Nippon Steel, I had several rounds of repeated talks with their Vice President, and it wasn't until last night that their Chairman decided to meet me and sign a contract with me"

"Since their chairman was in West Todmore County, I took a car over there all night, but I was suddenly hit by a car on the way over a cliff."

Ito Yuuhiko frowned and spoke, "Things are a bit strange, the chairman of Nippon Steel and I have a deep friendship, and according to his style, he shouldn't be looking for you to sign a contract in the middle of the night, and even if he did, he wouldn't call you to West Tama County, because his mansion is close to me, just a few minutes away, and he even came to visit me at the house after dinner yesterday!"
