Chapter 2091

As soon as she heard Ye Chen say that she wanted a grand motorcade, Ito Naozi immediately smiled and said, "Ye Chen-kun, isn't the motorcade a little bit not grand enough? Why don't I just send a couple of helicopters over there!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "This guy is staying at the Aman Tokyo Hotel, isn't it inappropriate to arrange a helicopter in the city center?"

Ito Naija smiled wanly and said seriously, "Yatsuo-kun, there is nothing inappropriate about this little matter for the Ito family, if you are willing, you can leave this matter to Naija to arrange, and Naija will definitely not let you down!"

Ye Chen gave it some thought before nodding his head and smiling, "Then I'll leave it to Cabbage Patch to help, I only have one goal, to completely shock him."

Ito Nana-chan smiled and said, "Don't worry, Ye Chen-kun, I'll definitely give him a vivid realistic education lesson!"

Aman Hotel.

Song Honor asked his beautiful assistant, to put some band-aids on his hands.

This girl is not only his assistant, but also his lover and his beloved. Mobile One Second Remember provides you with wonderful \ fiction reading.

After she helped Song Honor treat the wound, she said with a heartbreaking feeling, "Mr. Song, you mustn't be so impulsive in the future, you mustn't joke with your body no matter what!"

Song Honor's expression clouded over as he said, "You don't understand, it's not that I'm too impulsive, it's just that that Ye Chen is too tricky, and his staying in Tokyo is a huge problem for me!"

The assistant hurriedly said, "Mr. Song, it's actually not that difficult to deal with such a person, right? Let Hashimoto Kon gather a few more killers first, just find a chance to kill him."

Song Honor waved his hand and sighed, "Oh you don't understand, you don't know what this Ye Chen is capable of, this man is still somewhat capable, ordinary people are not his match."

"Moreover, if we rashly look for him, it's very likely that we'll expose ourselves early, and then we'll lose more than we gain."

The assistant asked again, "Mr. Song, then what should we do now? Is it really as the old man said, that everything is at his disposal?"

Song Honor nodded and said in a cold voice, "Right now there is nothing else to do but to cooperate with him superficially and then hope that he doesn't find out about my problem."

Saying that, he sighed, his heart was a little bottomless, "I just don't know now whether I can remain calm in front of him or not, this person is very shrewd, and if I'm not careful, it's possible that he will see it."

The assistant was busy saying, "Mr. Song, you are the best psychological person I've ever met, I'm sure that you won't reveal any flaw."

Song Honor nodded slightly, "I hope so."

As I was saying that, Song Honor's phone suddenly rang.

On the phone, a woman's voice came out, "Is this Mr. Honor Song?"

Song Honor gave a hmmm and said, "Yes, it's me."

The woman then said, "Hello Mr. Song, I was sent by Mr. Ye to pick you up, may I ask if you are ready to leave?"

Song Honor said, "I'm ready, where shall we meet?"

The woman said, "You're staying at the Aman Hotel, I believe?"

Song Honor said, "That's right, I'm in the Presidential Suite [Vertex Fiction www.booktxt.xyz] room of the Aman Hotel."

Song Honor deliberately said the words presidential suite just to find some superiority in front of the other party.

He knew that Ye Chen was more or less somewhat capable, but he also felt that Ye Chen's ability should only be useful in Jinling, and it would definitely be greatly reduced when he left Jinling and went to Japan.

Therefore, he instinctively didn't take Ye Chen's words about his friend into consideration either.

In his opinion, it was impossible for Ye Chen, who was a half-prodigy like existence, to befriend any high ranking person in Japan.

It was estimated that the other party would be a Tokyo middle class at most.

Chapter 2092

The woman on the other end of the phone said calmly, "Since Mr. Song is staying at the Aman Hotel, please Mr. Song, move to the rooftop now."

"Rooftop?" Song Honor frowned, "What do you want me to go to the rooftop for?"

The woman said, "The helicopter is waiting on the rooftop."

"Helicopter?" Song Honor's expression was somewhat surprised, but also somewhat despised at the same time.

In his heart, he surmised, "This Ye Chen and Ye Chen's friends, also really boring enough, what kind of helicopter to pick up in the city, a bit of money, don't know where to spend it, right? You think you're so cool just because you rent a helicopter? It's a bit too low for this segment, isn't it?"

Thinking of this, he smiled contemptuously, and then, very politely, he said, "In that case, please wait for a moment on the rooftop, I'll be right up."

"Okay, I'll wait for Mr. Song on the rooftop."

After Song Honor hung up the phone, he immediately laughed out despicably, "Hmph, this Ye Chen is also really interesting, I said that I would go to him, but he had to make me wait for his friend to pick him up, and he had to get a helicopter to pick me up, does it make sense? Do you think I've never seen the world? A helicopter and you're trying to bluff me?"

The assistant smiled slightly, "Mr. Song, in my opinion, this Ye Chen is nothing more than the light of a firefly, and he even has the nerve to compete with you, the sun and the moon, he is really a bit ungrateful!"
Fastest Update

Song Honor sneered, "Oh my, to say that this Ye Chen is more or less capable, not to mention anything else, that rejuvenation pill in his hand is a damn good thing! I'd really like to have one by the time I'm old."

Saying that, Song Honor sighed and waved his hand to his assistant, "Okay, let's not talk about that, you come with me to the roof."

"Okay Song!"

Song Honor brought his beloved assistant to the rooftop of the Aman Hotel.

At this time, on a piece of helipad on the rooftop, there was already a heavy helicopter with black body parked.

Song Honor saw this helicopter, slightly surprised, spoke: "ouch I go, Ye Chen and this friend of his, is really willing to put down money ah, this super puma helicopter, the factory price of more than one hundred and fifty million yuan, a little modification, the price exceeded two hundred million, such a helicopter, rent a short flight also hundreds of thousands."

The little assistant laughed and said, "Spending hundreds of thousands of dollars just to pretend to be in front of Mr. Song, this Ye Chen is also really blind!"

"Yeah." Song Honor smirked, "Did you see the four letters on the fuselage of this plane?"

The assistant looked at the white letters on the black fuselage and read them out one by one: "itou, Mr. Song, what does this mean? There doesn't seem to be this word in English."

Song Honor smiled and said, "It's not an English word, it's a Japanese roman sound, and the four letters, itou, pronounced with a roman sound, should be pronounced as Itou."

"Itou?" The little assistant frowned, "What does this mean, Mr. Song, it sounds like something strange."

Song Honor seriously said, "You, the world is really a bit short, these 4 letters correspond to the Japanese word for Ito, which means that this plane belongs to the largest family in Japan right now, the Ito family."

"Huh?!" The little assistant exclaimed, "It's the Ito family's plane?! Gosh, does that Ye Chen still know someone from the Ito family?!"

Song Honor left his mouth, "With him? And knows the Ito family, does he deserve it?"

The junior assistant was surprised and asked, "So what's with the plane?"

Song Honor smiled and said, "You don't know anything about that, the Ito family's industry is spread throughout all walks of life in Japan, and the family themselves have a navigation company, called Ito Navigation!"

"Ito Tongue?"

"Right! It's the Ito Tomo!" Song Honor explained, "This navigation company mainly does short and medium distance navigation, and it has over two hundred aircraft of all kinds, including over one hundred helicopters, so it is very strong!"

"I reckon that Yatsuo and his friend rented this helicopter from Ito Tongkong!"

The little assistant nodded and smiled, "I see! You just said that this plane was from the Ito family, it really scared me, I thought that Ye Chen's friend was from the Ito family."

Song Honor sneered, "I just said that he doesn't deserve to know anyone from the Ito family! The Ito family is now in Japan, which is equivalent to our domestic Su family, and a guy like Ye Chen who got up by reading feng shui and jumping up to the big gods isn't even worthy of giving the Ito family a shoe!"

Chapter 2093

In Song Honor's heart, the status of the Ito Family was indeed very high.

After all, it was the largest family in Japan, and it had just survived the bitter battle of the three big families in Tokyo, and for that reason alone, the future of the Ito family was unlimited.

Therefore, Song Honor simply didn't believe that Ye Chen could have any actual relationship with the Ito family.

It must be that he or his friend had paid to rent a helicopter belonging to the Ito family's aviation company.

So, he took his little assistant with him and stepped forward to the helipad.

A beautiful woman in a blue flight attendant uniform stood by the side of the helicopter, and when she saw the two of them reach the front, she looked at Song Honor and said with great respect, "You must be Mr. Song, right?"

Song Honor nodded and said with a bit of arrogance, "Yes, that's me, are you guys in charge of picking me up?"

The beautiful lady smiled slightly and said, "Yes Mr. Song, Mr. Ye and our Miss Ye are waiting for you at home right now, please board the plane with this lady."

Song Honor grinned, "Master Ye is so polite, in the city, there is no need to take any helicopter, just take a car?"

The beautiful lady said calmly, "Mr. Song, our big sister said that it must be grand when picking you up."

Song Honor shook his head and laughed, thinking to himself in a despicable manner, "Sending a helicopter is grand? Do you think I'm a bumpkin who's never seen the world? Our Song family is also lined with private planes, we have private planes and private helicopters, this thing is nothing big in my eyes."

However, since it was a helicopter sent by Ye Chen, he naturally didn't dare to say such disdainful words to his face, so he said very politely, "In that case, I'll leave it to Master Ye."

Saying that, he brought his assistant with him and got into this heavy helicopter.

This helicopter could originally hold at least twenty people, but now the cabin had been completely transformed into a luxury room, like a top-notch luxury caravan.

Song Honor sat down on the couch of the helicopter and asked the beautiful woman, "I wonder how far away Master Ye is from here?"

The beautiful woman smiled and said, "Almost fifteen kilometers."

"Fifteen kilometers?" Song Honor said helplessly, "Wouldn't it be a few minutes to fly there?" The mobile phone One Second Remember provides you with wonderful \fiction reading.

The beautiful woman smiled, "It takes less than a few minutes to fly, about half an hour."

"What? Half an hour?!" Song Honor was stunned and said, "Fifteen kilometers, even if you pedal a bicycle, pedal faster for half an hour can also get there ah, the speed of this helicopter, it is impossible to slow down to this level, right?"

The beautiful lady smiled and said, "Mr. Song has no idea, our Missy has arranged a sightseeing route to reflect the importance she attaches to you, you'll know later."

Song Honor was a bit confused and asked, "Can I ask who your eldest sister is?"

The beautiful lady shook her head and said apologetically, "I'm sorry Mr. Song, our Missy's identity can't tell you right now, but you'll naturally know when we get to the place."

Song Honor could only nod his head and said, "Alright."

Saying that, he was also muttering in his heart, "I wonder what kind of medicine is in this guy Ye Chen's gourd? What are you doing here with a helicopter?"

At that moment, the beautiful woman spoke up, "Mr. Song, our helicopter is about to take off, so please put on your intercom headset while buckling your seat belt."

"Good."

Song Honor nodded, put on the intercom headset, and then buckled the seat belt.

Since helicopters generated a lot of noise when they were running, normal conversations in the cabin could not be heard by each other at all.

In order to solve the problem of communication in the cabin, all the helicopter crew and passengers, all wearing very good sound effect headphones, wearing headphones can not only isolate the sound of the engine, but also can use the radio to ensure that each other to talk.

Once the helicopter is up, this is the only way to communicate with each other.

Chapter 2094

At this time, the helicopter's engine slowly revved, then accelerated continuously, and soon began to rise slowly.

Song Honor thought to himself, "It's just as well to take this opportunity to see what kind of scenery Tokyo is under the high altitude."

As he was thinking, he heard that beautiful woman's voice in his headset, and she spoke, "Number two and three take off, number four and five start the engines, and number six and seven start preparing!"

Song Honor was still a little puzzled and thought to himself, "What number two, three, four and five? What's this pussy talking about here?"

Wondering, the assistant on the other side pointed to the roofs of the other two buildings on either side of the window and said in surprise, "Mr. Song, the roofs of those two buildings also flew up two helicopters, exactly the same as the one we're sitting on!"

Song Honor turned his head, and sure enough!

There were two identical helicopters taking off at the same time and simultaneously on the left and right.

These two aircraft were not only the same as this model they were riding, both were Super Pumas, but also had the same fuselage livery, both were livery of the Ito Tonkatsu Corporation.

Song Honor was surprised and asked that beautiful woman, "These two planes are also yours?"

The beautiful woman nodded and smiled, "They are doing the entire accompanying flight for you."

Song Honor was stunned, "What do you mean by flying with you the entire time?"

The beautiful woman smiled, "It's just to accompany you throughout your flight, like the fleet's front tail car."

Song Honor's expression was a bit startled as he said, "Uh is that really necessary? Master Ye won't be too broke, will he?"

The beauty said calmly, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye doesn't have to contribute a single penny."

Song Honor nodded and thought to himself, "Needless to say, Ye Chen should have found another wrongdoer in Tokyo."

As I was saying, the two helicopters had risen to the same altitude as them, then the two planes followed the one that Song Honor was riding, and the three planes moved forward at the same speed.

Not even a kilometer after flying out, Song Honor's assistant pointed to the two buildings on either side again and said, "Mr. Song! Two more up here on either side!"

Song Honor fixed his eyes and was amazed!

That's five! Is that necessary?

Just after saying that, the assistant pointed very far away and said off the top of his head, "Mr. Song, there seems to be black helicopters on the roofs of the two buildings in front, too!"

Song Honor followed the direction of her finger, and there were indeed two black things the size of ants at a distance of one kilometer away.

Song Honor carefully identified the two black things parked on the roof, and they did indeed resemble the same type of helicopter he was riding in!

Just to my surprise, the two helicopters that had just taken off had reached the front.

The fleet went from three helicopters to five.

Soon, the two ant-sized black things, in Song Hornung's vision grew larger and larger, it was easy to recognize that they were indeed the two helicopters.

After that, the two helicopters also began to soar into the air.

The fleet, again from five, became seven.

At this time, Song Honor was already a little numb.

He couldn't understand, what was Ye Chen doing? It's just a pick-me-up, do you have to make such a big deal out of it?

As I was thinking, I heard the pretty girl say over the intercom, "Two takeoffs are too inefficient, let's take off four at a time next!"

Chapter 2095

Seeing the helicopters really four by four take off, the fleet soon expanded all the way to nearly twenty, Song Honor the whole man felt like a big head!

When he couldn't figure it out, he wondered, "What the fuck is going on, sending twenty helicopters to and from a dozen kilometers, that's unbelievable, right?"

"And what's the story of that Tokyo friend of Ye Chen's! It's a lot of money to rent twenty helicopters, do you have money to burn so wastefully?"

The citizens of Tokyo were now also startled by the helicopter echelons whizzing through the sky, and one by one they stopped and looked up, thinking that something big had happened or that some great big person had come.

The more Song Honor couldn't guess Ye Chen's motives, the more he felt a bit guilty.

Although he and Ye Chen could not be considered familiar or friends, but at least they were acquaintances, and when acquaintances met, shouldn't it be just a matter of arranging a place and then going there separately? What did Ye Chen mean by this whole sudden move?

All the while, new helicopters were still taking off and joining the top floors of the high-rise buildings on both sides.

Soon, the total number of helicopter echelons exceeded thirty.

Song Honor had never experienced such a battle in his life, and his heart was already a little hairy!

Also, he didn't have the same contempt in his heart that he had at the beginning.

His subconscious implicitly told him that Ye Chen seemed to be much more powerful than he thought, including that Japanese friend of his whom he had never met before.

Maybe, the other party was a local Tokyo bigwig!

The thirty or so helicopters circled around the city of Tokyo and finally hovered over a private estate.

At this time, Song Honor found that the thirty or so helicopters around him had turned into a circular layout, surrounding his own plane right in the middle.

And this aircraft was slowly descending.

Song Honor looked down at the manor that covered a huge area below, and asked that beautiful woman in surprise, "Excuse me, where is this?"

The beautiful lady said, "Back to Mr. Song, this is the place where our eldest sister lives."

Song Honor didn't know exactly where the Ito family's mansion was, so he couldn't recognize who owned this mansion directly below.

However, looking at this location, this area, and this architectural style, one knew that this was definitely not an ordinary home.

As the helicopter slowly descended, Song Honor's heartbeat became faster and faster.

In his heart, he panicked and secretly thought, "Ye Chen's friends in Tokyo have such a powerful family and their energy must not be underestimated, if Ye Chen asks them to help investigate Song Wanting's matter, then he might really have to explode the thunder!"

Before, Song Honor also thought that there was no point in Ye Chen even if he came to Japan, he was unfamiliar with life in Japan, he did everything with a blind eye, and without enough connections and human help, it would be difficult to find Song Wanting's whereabouts or investigate the cause of her death.

This was the case for the vast majority of people.

Each person's ability to do so had very obvious geographical limitations. First Published.

For example, Hong Wu, in Jinling he was an underground emperor that no one dared to mess with, but once he left Jinling, even if he reached Suhang, his influence would be greatly reduced.

If he were to come to Tokyo, with that bit of influence he had in Jinling, any random storm trooper would dare to directly hit him in the face.

This was because the vast majority of Hongwu's abilities could only be exercised when he was in Jinling, and the further he left Jinling, the less he could do.

Song Honor originally still felt that Ye Chen must be the same.

Ye Chen was a bull in Jinling, and that was because there was a large group of respectable local bigwigs who held him up in Jinling.

But once he left Jinling, his influence was bound to drop significantly.

If he really came to Japan to investigate Song Wanting's affairs, he might not even be able to find three or five assistants.

But now, Song Honor finally realized how ignorant he was.

Chapter 2096

Because he discovered that Ye Chen seemed to have extraordinary connections in Japan as well!

The helicopter landed on the lawn of the Ito family's back garden.

As soon as the helicopter landed, there were immediately twenty men in black suits running neatly over.

Then, the twenty men stood on either side of the hatch, very powerfully.

At that moment, the beautiful woman inside the helicopter opened the hatch wide and jumped down first before saying to Song Honor, "Mr. Song, please!"

Song Honor swallowed his saliva with some difficulty, drumming in his heart as he stepped apprehensively out of the helicopter.

The beautiful woman said again, "Mr. Song please follow me, Mr. Ye as well as our family's eldest sister are already waiting in the parlor."

Song Honor hurriedly asked with a face full of humility, "Beautiful lady, can you be bold enough to ask, who is your family's eldest sister?"

The beautiful lady smiled, "Our big sister's identity, when you meet her later, she will definitely tell you herself."

Song Honor pretended to smile indifferently, but in fact, he was already panicking like a dog.

He could tell that such a mansion, in such a nice part of Tokyo, was worth at least billions or even tens of billions of RMB, and a family that could have such a mansion should be much stronger than the Song family!

At this moment, the beautiful woman gestured at him in a please pose and said with a smile, "Mr. Song, this way please."

The apprehensive Song Honor could only nod his head and followed up with a hard scalp.

He followed the beautiful woman through the entire back garden of the Ito family mansion and then through the long corridor to the door of a Japanese and Japanese style room.

The beauty said to him as well as his assistant, "Please wait for a moment, both of you, I'll go in and make an announcement."

Song Honor nodded hurriedly, "Make yourself at home we'll wait at the door first."

The beautiful woman entered the door and said to Ye Chen, who was drinking tea cross-legged in front of the tea table, as well as Ito Naija, "Mr. Ye and Miss, the guests are here."

Ito Naija nodded and said indifferently, "Invite the guests in."

The beautiful woman immediately said, "Okay Miss!"

Saying that, he came to the door and said to Song Honor, "Mr. Song, please come in."

At the side, Song Honor's assistant asked Song Honor in a low voice, "Mr. Song, do I still go in? I'm a little nervous, or I'd rather not go."

Song Honor saw her expression of panic and knew that she was probably scared by the unimaginably oversized formation of the other party, so she didn't dare to go in.

He sighed in his heart, "You're a little nervous? Do you know that I'm also in a panic right now!"

However, he also knew that the assistant could still back off, but he definitely couldn't, so he could only helplessly speak up, "Then you wait for me outside."

The assistant was relieved, as if he had been pardoned, and nodded hurriedly.

Song Honor then summoned up his courage and stepped through the door.

As soon as he entered the door, he saw Ye Chen who was sipping tea by the tea table.

At this time, Ye Chen was still as calm as before, and waved his hand slightly at Song Honor when he saw him come in.

On the opposite side of Ye Chen, there was also a young looking Japanese woman sitting, this woman was wearing a Japanese kimono, looking not only extremely beautiful, but also gentle and elegant. Mobile One Second Remember provides you with a wonderful doxology to read.

Song Honor recognized this woman with a glance!

By this time his heart was churning with shock and he muttered to himself, "Isn't this woman this woman the Ito family's eldest daughter, the one known as Yamato Nadeshiko, Ito Nana-chan! Could it be that the local friend that Ye Chen is talking about is her?!"

Chapter 2097

Song Honor felt like his outlook on life, values, and worldview was completely overturned at this moment.

He had never expected that Ye Chen would be able to climb into a relationship with the Ito family's eldest sister.

And what was even more frightening was that the Ito family's eldest sister was now wearing a kimono, kneeling opposite Ye Chen, and pouring him tea like a waiter, respectfully.

This was simply incredible!

Song Honor howled in despair deep inside, "What the fk is this sh*t? Do the Japanese also believe in Feng Shui metaphysics? Otherwise, how else did Ye Chen fiddle with Itachi's vegetables?"

Just when his head was filled with shock and surprise, Ye Chen saw him come in, as if he saw his friend's son, smiling and waving at him, "Oh honor, come quickly, hurry up and sit down."

Song Honor looked at Ye Chen's calm face, he was even more puzzled and wondered, "Ye Chen is so close to Song Wanting, why has Song Wanting disappeared for so long, why has Ye Chen come to Tokyo and instead of looking for her, he is still so calm and has tea in the Ito family's mansion?"

Although Song Honor was confused in his heart, he still came to Ye Chen's front with a hard scalp and said respectfully, "Greetings, Master Ye!"

After saying that, he looked at Itachi Nachiko again and said politely, "Hello Itachi-san, it's your first time meeting me, please take care of me!"

With a small smile, Cabbage Ito said, "Mr. Song knows me?"

Song Honor nodded, "You are so well known, how could I not know you."

Ito Naija smiled generously and stretched out her hand, "Mr. Song, please sit down, just to try the Japanese tea ceremony and see if it fits your appetite."

Song Honor busily waved his hand and said, "Miss Ito is too polite, I have come to do as Master Ye instructed this time, so it's fine for me to stand."

Ye Chen faintly waved his hand, "Okay Honor, I'm an old acquaintance with your grandfather, you don't need to be so formal in front of me, since Miss Ito has asked you to sit, then you can sit."

The tone in which Ye Chen said this made Song Honor very disgusted.

He could hear the somewhat condescending feeling in Ye Chen's mouth.

It made his heart very unhappy.

However, at this moment, he didn't dare to disobey Ye Chen in the slightest.

After all, Ye Chen was the guest of honor of the Ito family, and this monetary value was really too great.

So he hurriedly said respectfully, "Since Master Ye has said so, then I will respectfully follow the order."

Saying that, he then sat down beside Ye Chen. Updated fastest.

After sitting cross-legged, Song Honor's heart was apprehensive, always confused as to what kind of medicine was in Ye Chen's gourd.

At this time, Ye Chen opened his mouth and asked, "Honor, what do you know about what happened to Wan Ting? Tell me about it."

Song Honor's heart thudded, but on the surface tried to control it relatively naturally and spoke, "Master Ye the thing is like this, some time ago Wan Ting wanted to reach a cooperation with Japan's New Japan Railway, so she brought people to Japan to proceed with negotiations with New Japan Railway, but last night suddenly something happened, the commercial vehicle she was riding in, fell off a cliff in the mountains of West Domo County, the other three people in the vehicle died on the spot, Wan Ting's whereabouts are now unknown"

Ye Chen nodded, looked at him and asked, "What did the Tokyo Police Department say?"

Chapter 2098

Song Honor was looked at by Ye Chen and felt a little guilty, he hurriedly lowered his head and pretended to say respectfully, "Back to Master Ye, the Tokyo Police Department over there has already sent a lot of people to search in West Domo County, but they haven't found Wan Ting's whereabouts yet."

Saying that, Song Honor hastily added, "However, they are increasing their police force to expand the search area, so hopefully they will be able to find valuable clues as soon as possible, and of course, it would be best to find Wan Ting's whereabouts as soon as possible."

Ye Chen waved his hand and said indifferently, "That's not what I'm asking, what I'm asking is whether the Tokyo Police Department has defined this matter, whether this fall off the cliff was an accident, or a coincidence? Was it an accident, or was it a deliberate murder?"

Hearing the 4 words deliberate murder, Song Honor's heart immediately tensed up.

He felt his back had begun to seep out cold sweat, simply because he was wearing a jacket, so it was not so easy to see.

In fact, there was already a clear definition from the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, and they believed that this matter was a premeditated murder, as the accident scene had clearly been manhandled.

However, they couldn't find any valuable clues yet.

Now that Ye Chen had asked such a straightforward question, Song Honor's heart grew more and more panicked.

He originally thought that Ye Chen was alone in Japan and couldn't turn over any waves in Tokyo, but now it was different, Ye Chen had such a good relationship with the Ito family, and as long as he said a word, the Ito family would definitely do everything possible to help him investigate this matter.

The Ito family was very strong in Japan, once they intervened, it was very likely that the sword would be able to find out the truth of the matter faster than the police.

Song Honor was nervous inside, not knowing for a moment how to respond to Ye Chen's question.

And Ye Chen also asked after him at this time, "Honor, why aren't you talking?"

Song Honor came back to his senses and hurriedly said, "Oh, I'm so sorry, Master Ye, I was just thinking of Wan Ting and also worried about her safety, so I was a little distracted."

After saying that, he sat up straighter and said truthfully, "Master Ye, the Tokyo Police Department's definition of this matter is that it is more likely to be a deliberate murder, but since nothing of value has been found. So the specifics will have to wait for the results of further investigation, as for the murder, it's just a speculation."

Ye Chen nodded and said coldly, "The Tokyo Police Department is known for being useless, the Tokyo security was so bad and there were so many major cases some time ago, and the Tokyo Police Department still hasn't solved all those cases, so if we expect them to do something about this Wan Ting matter, I don't know how long we have to wait."

Then, Ye Chen pointed at Ito Cabbage and said to Song Honor, "Honor ah, Miss Cabbage and I have a deep friendship, and I also have some connections with the Ito family, their power in Japan, I believe you have also heard about it, with Miss Cabbage's help, I believe that our progress in finding Wan Ting should be faster than the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department."

Itachi Cabbage immediately said respectfully, "Please feel free to rest assured, Ye Chen-kun, as long as Your Excellency says so, the entire Itachi family is at your disposal!"

Cabbage's words caused Song Honor to be terrified.

He knew very well that with the strength of the entire Ito family, even if they couldn't find the living Song Wanting, they would definitely be able to find out the truth of the matter.

Moreover, the fact that so many helicopters from the Ito family had just picked themselves up with great sound, it was enough to see that the Ito family was very attentive to anything Ye Chen commanded.

It could also be imagined that once Ye Chen opened his mouth, the Ito family would definitely go all out to find Song Wanting's whereabouts and the truth of the whole matter.

By then, it would all be over.

Song Honor's heart was in despair at this point.

A fine layer of sweat had even poured out on his forehead.

Ye Chen had taken in all of his reactions and had become increasingly certain in his heart that there was definitely something very wrong with Song Honor!

Chapter 2099

At the moment when Itoh Cabbage made her statement to Ye Chen, Song Honor had already started making plans to leave Japan as soon as possible.

He knew that as long as the Ito family interfered, it wouldn't be long before he would definitely be defeated.

If he remained in Japan at the moment of the defeat, then he basically wouldn't have to think about returning alive.

Because, he knew that Ye Chen would definitely not let him go!

The only way right now was to quickly leave Japan and go back to finish off the old man before he was revealed and completely take over the entire Song family.

As long as you can take over the entire assets of the Song family, you can break bread with Ye Chen.

After all, the one hundred and twenty billion assets of the Song family was not something that Ye Chen, a so-called Master Ye, could fight against!

Ye Chen looked at Song Honor beside him, his entire body looking a bit restless, and deliberately asked, "Honor, why do I see you looking a bit absent-minded? Is it something physically uncomfortable?"

Song Honor hurriedly waved his hand and said, "No no, Master Ye, I'm just a little worried about Wan Ting, she's been missing for a whole night, I'm afraid that the more we delay, the slimmer the chances of her surviving"

Ye Chen looked at him and said seriously, "Don't worry, as long as I, Ye Chen, am here, Wan Ting will definitely not die."

Song Honor pretended to be pleased and said, "That's really great! Master Ye, it's all up to you to find Wan Ting!"

While saying this, Song Honor's heart was cursing viciously, "Even if Song Wanting is really still alive, I will definitely kill her, even if you Ye Chen are in front of me it's useless! As long as I, Song Honor, am here, Song Wanting, will not be allowed to live, she must die!"

At this time, Ye Chen spoke up, "Alright Honor, you go back to the hotel first, you don't need to interfere in the search for Wan Ting, stay well in the hotel and wait for my good news."

Song Honor was suddenly a little startled, and secretly thought, "What do you mean? Send dozens of helicopters and a huge crowd to pick me up, and that's all it takes to let me go? With so few words, you can just make a phone call or even send a WeChat to solve the problem, so why all the fuss?!"

However, although Song Honor was perplexed in his heart, his mouth didn't dare to disobey in any way, and hastily stood up and said earnestly, "Master Ye, in that case, I'll take my leave first"

Ye Chen nodded and instructed, "Don't go anywhere in Tokyo these days, just stay honestly in the hotel and wait for my news."

Song Honor was busy saying, "Okay Master Ye, I'll be waiting in the hotel for your news in the next few days!"

Ito Nana-chan spoke up at this time, "Since Mr. Song wants to go back to the hotel, I'll also have the helicopter take you back."

Song Honor was flattered and said, "Miss Ito is really too polite, this place is not far from the hotel, I can just go out and get a car, or you don't need to arrange a helicopter."

Ito Cabbage said seriously, "Mr. Song is Ye Chenjun's guest, that's my Ito family's guest, the Ito family has never let a guest leave on his own by taxi, so it's better to ask Mr. Song to return by helicopter."

Song Honor could only nod, slightly embarrassed said: "Miss Ito, it's no problem to take a helicopter back, but you really don't need to send so many helicopters, it's too wasteful, one will be enough."

Cabbage Ito smiled slightly, "Mr. Song doesn't have to be so polite, the reason why we sent so many helicopters together to transport you is also due to the importance our Ito family places on our distinguished guests."

Song Honor had no choice but to say, "Then I will comply with Miss Ito's arrangements."

Nodding her head, Ito-chan greeted her assistant and asked her to escort Song Honor out.

Chapter 2100

As soon as Song Honor left, Itoh Cabbage hurriedly said to Ye Chen, "Ye Chen-kun, your intuition is really accurate, and after we met, I also think there's something wrong with this Song Honor!"

Ye Chen said coldly, "But anyone with a guilty conscience, even if they are psychologically strong, will definitely reveal some flaw, Song Honor obviously became very nervous after seeing you, this must be because he is afraid of the strength of the Ito family and knows that once the Ito family gets involved, this matter will definitely be investigated, so he must be frightened in his heart."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "I think that Song Honor will most likely escape before the East Window, you must have your ninjas keep a close watch on him, and never let him escape!"

Itachi nodded and said, "Don't worry Yatsuo-kun, I've already made all the arrangements, just as Song Honor came over, my ninjas have already rushed to the hotel, they will be monitoring Song Honor in all directions!"

Ye Chen smiled in satisfaction and said, "If he has other accomplices, then the first thing he will do when he returns to the hotel must be to get in touch with his accomplices, and you must then eavesdrop on all his conversations and don't miss any clues!"first issue

On the flight back to the hotel, Song Honor had been a little distracted.

With such a major change, he himself had lost his main focus, and all his hopes were pinned on his father, Song Tian Ming.

He now couldn't wait to get in touch with Song Tian Ming and tell him everything about the change that had happened here.

However, since he was still sitting on the Ito family's helicopter, he could only resist the urge and wait until he got to the hotel.

On the way back, there were still dozens of helicopters whirling around to escort him.

What looked like a very imposing formation to outsiders was putting a great deal of pressure on Song Honor.

The strength of the Ito family was on display during this short flight.

According to Ito's assistant, the Ito family's own Ito Navigation Company had taken over eighty percent of the high rise tarmac in the entire Tokyo.

Usually, without stopping at the airport, their helicopters were parked on the top tarmacs of major high-rise buildings in Tokyo.

This had the advantage of having the closest helicopter to the location of the need to quickly take off in case of any demand.

That was why, on the way here, there were constantly the Ito family's helicopters, taking off and lifting off from the roofs of various buildings.

The more the Ito family showed their muscles in front of him like this, the more fearful Song Honor's heart became.

When he returned to the Aman Hotel, the first thing he did as soon as he entered the room was to immediately pull out his cell phone and call Song Tian Ming.

At this time, Song Tian Ming had just landed in Jinling after a ten-hour flight.

When the call came through, the first words out of Song's mouth were, "Dad!! I'm about to be exposed, Tokyo and Japan can't stay long, I'm planning to return home quietly tonight, and your side should take care of the old thing as soon as possible too!"

Song Tian Ming was shocked and asked off the top of his head, "What's going on?! What's gone wrong?!"

Song Honor said with a cry, "It's Ye Chen! That guy's too damn strong! Dad, you can't even imagine. The Ito family, the biggest in Japan, treats him like their own father! Ye Chen said he wanted to find Song Wanting, and the Ito family immediately stated that all hands were at his disposal!! don't f*cking get it, what is this Ye Chen guy capable of, are all these people sick in the head?!"
