Chapter 2126

Shinwa Watanabe was even more excited.

Being a complete man again was more important to him than anything else.

Moreover, there must be more unimaginable benefits in the future after getting to know someone with great powers like Ye Chen.

Therefore, this deal was even more valuable to him.

Ito Yuhan at the side was equally excited.

After drinking Ye Chen's cup of water, he clearly felt that his body was much more solid all of a sudden.

Before, he had been a little weak, as if he would collapse with a blow, but now his entire body felt very strong and energetic, so good that it couldn't be better.

Other than the fact that the legs that had been amputated couldn't be recovered, the other sensations were similar to those before he hadn't been injured, and even vaguely stronger than then.

This also had great benefits for him, after all, after the body's essence had recovered greatly, he could prepare for rehabilitation training.

Rehabilitation training for people with disabilities and amputees was very physically demanding and couldn't be done at all when the body was weak.

And if Itoh Yuuhiko wanted to wear a prosthetic limb, he would have to do a series of adaptive training in conjunction with the prosthesis, which demanded even more physical strength.

Originally, he would have to recuperate for at least another half year before he could begin rehabilitation training as well as prosthetic adaptation training.

Now, Ye Chen helped him to province this at least half a year.

When Song Wanting and Watanabe Shinwa on this side finished signing the contract, Ito Yuhiko immediately opened the chef to start cutting the fish, and he also personally opened the specially prepared fifty-year whiskey.

The meal was a great success for both hosts and guests.

Ito Yuuhiko was happy, Watanabe Shinwa was also happy, and naturally Song Wanting didn't need to say anything.

Ye Chen was also in a good mood, after all, piggybacking on it would help Song Wanting gain more benefits, which would provide an even greater help to consolidate her control over the Song family in the future.

However, Itoh Cabbage was a little lost in her heart.

After all, Ye Chen would be leaving tonight, and with Ye Chen coming to Tokyo this time, there wasn't much chance for her to get close to him.

Therefore, for a meal, Ito Nachiko had been peeking at Ye Chen, with a strong reluctance in her gentle, watery eyes.

After the meal, according to the rules of hospitality for large Japanese families, it was to remove all the drinks and dishes, and then serve the guests with a tea ceremony.

However, it was clear that Watanabe Shinwa was a bit restless.

His body's reaction had been so strong and raw that he was already a little distracted, and couldn't wait to get home, surprise his wife, and also find the happy feeling of being like a fairy at the same time.

So, after the meal was finished, he stood up impatiently and bowed to everyone, "Brother Ito, Mr. Ye, Miss Song, I have something else to do at home, so I'll take my leave! Thank you Ito for your hospitality! And thank you Mr. Yeh for your help! Can't thank you enough!"

Naturally, Ito Yuuhiko knew what he was so fired up to do, so he nodded and smiled, "Fine, just hurry back!"

Ye Chen also smiled and said, "It's getting late, Mr. Watanabe should go back to rest early."

Watanabe Shinwa hurriedly and respectfully said, "Mr. Ye, I wonder if I have the honor to exchange contact information with you?"

Ye Chen smiled slightly and nodded, "I'll ask Mr. Ito to send you my phone number when the time comes."

Watanabe Shinwa was instantly delighted, as long as Ye Chen was willing to exchange contact information with him, he could still ask for his help if he encountered anything in the future!

Chapter 2127

At this moment, Tokyo airport.

A military transport plane belonging to the Japanese Self-Defense Force landed at the airport.

This c2 military transport plane, developed and produced by Kawasaki Heavy Industries of Japan, had a full load capacity of over thirty tons.

In the cabin of the transport plane, nearly a hundred loaded Japanese Self-Defense Force soldiers were escorting more than fifty top Su family masters, including Su Ruorui.

Their mission is to safely transport these people, including Su Ruorui, to Tokyo and hand them over to the Tokyo Police Department.

The tragic case of the extermination of the Matsumoto family was about to begin in Tokyo recently, and everyone, including Su Ruorui, would be attending the trial as defendants.

The Japanese judiciary is preparing to hold a public trial for Su Ruorui and others, and will simultaneously broadcast it live to the whole country and the world using television and online channels.

The main reason for making such a huge noise is because the previous tragedy of the extermination of the Matsumoto family was really too bad in the whole of Japan and even internationally, so much so that it seriously affected the overall image of the Japanese judiciary.

To the Japanese judiciary decided to save its face by severely punishing these murderers.

After landing, the plane taxied all the way to an open tarmac.

Hundreds of Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department's SWAT team had been waiting here for some time.

One by one, they were all loaded with bullets and were fighting with all their might, afraid that this matter might change in any way.

Therefore, not only did they send out hundreds of elites this time, but they also sent out more than thirty wheeled armored vehicles alone.

These wheeled armored vehicles that were normally used to deal with terrorists, as well as vicious criminals, now all became the gang's mobile prison vehicles. Mobile One Second Remember provides you with wonderful \fiction reading.

Su Ruo Li was very nervous at this point.

She knew that her father, Su Shoudao, had already made arrangements to swap himself out with a double after he arrived in Tokyo.

Once she was successfully changed out, her father's people would immediately arrange for her to leave Japan and return home.

Su Ruo Li had great faith in her father Su Shou Dao's ability and believed that she would be able to return home alive, but deep down, she couldn't help but feel guilty for these companions around her.

In her heart, she thought complexly, "This time, although I can escape, but these brethren don't have such a chance at all."

"In other words, all I have to do now is betray all my comrades, leave their lives and deaths behind me, and escape alone!"

"If they knew, they would hate me very much, wouldn't they?"

Thinking of this, Su Ruoxi could not help but feel ashamed.

At this moment, the tailgate of the cabin had opened, and the gun-toting SDF members began to ask them, the suspects, to disembark the plane in an orderly manner.

Outside of the plane, the police department's SWAT team was ready, and for every suspect who came down, they would immediately send three team members for a 3-on-1 guard.

Not only were handcuffs and ankle cuffs missing, but also black cloth bags were used to cover their heads so that they couldn't see their surroundings.

As the first offender, Su Ruo Li was taken directly to the first wheeled armored vehicle.

The other suspects then took one wheeled armored car each, and the entire convoy left the airport in a vast manner, ready to head to the Tokyo Police Department's most heavily guarded special prison.

At this time, at the side of a crossroads on the road outside the airport.

Several men in black were using binoculars to observe the convoy passing from afar.

Chapter 2128

One of them held a remote control in his hand while keeping an eye on the lead vehicle and calculating the time.

When the convoy was less than 50 meters away from the intersection, that person pressed the remote control, and the original green light started flashing, then quickly turned red.

Since the airport was in operation 24 hours a day, this intersection was relatively busy with traffic, and even the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department's convoy had to follow the traffic rules.

Therefore, the first wheeled armored vehicle was parked directly at the front of the straight lane.

The convoy behind it, in turn, came to a slow stop.

The logic of this red light change was that the four directions took turns letting go for one minute in each direction, so the wait for the next round of green lights was longer, one hundred and eighty seconds.

One by one, the SWAT team members on the armored car were on strict standby, afraid of any mishaps in the escorting process.

But the good news was that the vehicles moving back and forth on both sides were nothing unusual, and no one was approaching their convoy.

But who would have thought that just at this moment, the special fighters in the first wheeled armored vehicle would immediately open the emergency escape port underneath the vehicle.

This kind of wheeled armored car specially prepared for the special combat team has very good safety, in order to ensure that the special combat team members inside the car can still escape when they encounter danger, or after the door has been severely hit or exploded, they have specially installed an emergency escape port at the bottom of the armored car that opens from the inside out.

This emergency escape port is like a tank hatch installed upside down at the bottom of a wheeled armored vehicle.

At this point, when that hatch was open, there was a black sewer manhole cover facing down below.

Because it was settled in advance, the manhole cover was almost perfectly perpendicular to the hatch.

As soon as the hatch was opened by the special combatants inside the vehicle, the sewer manhole cover was simultaneously removed.

Immediately afterwards, someone pushed up a woman who was similar in stature to Su Ruorui, dressed exactly the same, and was also wearing handcuffs and ankle cuffs as well as a black cloth bag.

As soon as the woman was pushed up, a few SWAT team members immediately pulled her into the car and sat her down next to Su Ruorui, then immediately racked Su Ruorui up and sent her down the emergency escape and into the sewer.

After picking up Su Ruorui in the sewer, the sewer crew immediately gestured an OK sign to the SWAT team inside the wheeled armored vehicle and spoke in a low voice, "Thirty seconds left for the red light, close the hatch!"

The SWAT team member above nodded and instructed, "You guys also hurry up and cover the manhole, and then take Miss Su away after our convoy is a kilometer away!"

The man below immediately said, "Don't worry, I got it!"

Just say, and quickly put the sewer manhole cover back on.

The armored car's emergency escape opening was also closed at the same time, and everything worked in perfect harmony, seamlessly.

A few seconds later, the red light turned green, and the first armored car in line drove straight out, while the cars behind it followed in step with it, and no one knew that the important suspect in that car had already completed the swap!

After the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department's motorcade had left for about a kilometer, a black truck came from a distance.

The traffic light turned red again just as the lorry came to the intersection.

After the vehicle came to a halt, someone opened the hidden entrance and exit at the bottom of the truck's box and tapped the manhole cover directly below with a stick.

Then, the manhole cover was removed, and the blindfolded Su Ruo Li was pulled into the truck again.

Afterwards, the manhole cover was tightly closed again, and the van also throttled away, as if nothing had happened.

Inside the van, a Japanese woman untied Su Ruorui's black hood and looked at her: "Miss Su, I was entrusted by Mr. Su to save you from Japan! We're going to Tokyo Harbor now, the ship is waiting for you there!"

Chapter 2129

The Ito residence in downtown Tokyo.

Ye Chen and Song Wanting, they were also ready to leave.

Tonight was a good opportunity to sneak across the border.

Because tonight, the Coast Guard's patrol unit, was going to do equipment overhaul.

Therefore, there would be a few hours of vacuum time at sea.

Plus, the Japanese Coast Guard is all about strict entry and exit, and the vast majority of their efforts are focused on trying to do everything they can to crack down on illegal immigrants smuggling into Japan, or smuggling illegal goods into Japan.

There is very little interest in people and goods that are smuggled out of Japan.

So that makes it easier to leave from Tokyo, too.

Yuuhiko Ito prepared a convoy and planned to personally send Ye Chen and Song Wanting to the docks.

And Ito Nana-chan also had exactly the same idea.

Naturally, she had a thousand things in her heart for Ye Chen, but she knew very well in her heart that there was no way she could leave Ye Chen behind.

Therefore, she was already very satisfied with being able to go to the dock to see Ye Chen off.

So, after everyone was ready, Ye Chen and Song Wanting, accompanied by Ito Yuuhiko as well as the father and daughter of Ito Naozi, took a car to the dock.

In the car, Ito Yuuhiko said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, Hashimoto Konoshin, the new Nippon Steel, has been brought to the dock by the ninja I sent."(first post)

Ye Chen nodded his head in satisfaction, "Hard work Mr. Ito."

Ito Yuuhiko was busy, "Mr. Ye doesn't have to be so polite, it's all what I should do."

The caravan drove for forty minutes before arriving at the huge Tokyo Harbor.

The entire Tokyo Harbor covered a very large area, at least several kilometers along the coastline.

Most of the berths were exclusive to mega-tankers as well as container ships, and these berths were close to the operational area, which not only had many workers working there, but were also a heavy smuggling area, so the customs checked them very closely.

The berth that Ito Yuhiko had prepared for Ye Chen and Song Wanting was actually a relatively humble small dock.

This kind of dock could only dock ships of a few thousand tons or less, and the monitoring was relatively much more lax.

In fact, stowing away did not start with boarding the ship, as Tokyo Harbor was still within the territory of Japan as well as its territorial waters, so it was not illegal to board the ship from here.

Embarkation from here is reasonably legal, as long as you don't leave the country or enter the high seas without permission.

At this time, there were several small and medium-sized yachts docked at the dock, the largest of which was the luxury cruise ship prepared by Ito Yuhiko for Ye Chen.

The fleet of cars drove directly onto the dock, stopping directly at the boarding gate of the yacht, and although Ito Yuuhiko lost his legs, he still had people help him into a wheelchair and get off to see him off.

After Ye Chen and Song Wanting got off the bus, Ito Yuhiko spoke up, "Mr. Ye, the crew and captain are my favorites, you can rest assured!"

Ye Chen nodded slightly, "Thank you, Mr. Ito."

Ito Yuuhiko was busy, "You don't have to be so polite!"

Ye Chen looked at the time and opened his mouth to Ito Yuuhiko's father and daughter and said, "It's late, we'll be on our way, so I won't chat with you two, we'll see you later!"

Ito Yuuhiko cupped his fists and said respectfully, "I'll see you later, Mr. Ye!"

With a face full of reluctance, Itachi said, "I'll see you later, Yatsuo-kun!"

Ye Chen looked at her with a slight smile and said, "Cabbage, please take care of yourself!"

Chapter 2130

Itachi nodded repeatedly with red eyes, then looked at Song Wanting, who was holding the puppy in her arms, and choked, "Sister Wanting, I wish you a safe journey, and if you have the chance, you must come visit me in Tokyo!"

Song Wanting also hurriedly said, "Don't worry, I will! If you have time, you can also come to Jinling to see me and Yoshi!"

With some joy, Itachi said without hesitation, "Don't worry sister, I'll come see you after this busy time!"

At that moment, a middle-aged man came down from the ship and respectfully said to Yuyohiko Ito, "Sir, we are ready to set sail at any time."

Ito Yuuhiko opened his mouth and asked, "Where is that Hashimoto Konzen?"

The other party said, "Hashimoto Kensen is being held in the ship's cabin with all his limbs bound, I've sent a man to keep an eye on him, no mistakes will be made."

Ito Yuhiko nodded in satisfaction and said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, you and Miss Song should board the ship quickly."

Ye Chen mmed, "You guys should also go back, we're leaving!"

Ito Yuuhiko took the initiative to shake hands with Ye Chen, and Ito Cauliflower gently embraced Song Wanting as well.

Song Wanting then came back to Yuuhiko Ito and said from the bottom of her heart, "Mr. Ito, thank you for taking care of me this time in Japan!"

Ito Yuhiko smiled, shook hands lightly with Song Wanting, and said seriously, "Miss Song, don't be polite to the Ito family at any time, you, like Mr. Ye, will always be an honored guest of the Ito family!"

Itoh Cabbage now came to Ye Chen's side, her face flushed with shame.

When she looked at Ye Chen, she gently opened her arms, wanting to see Ye Chen's next reaction.

She really wanted to hug Ye Chen goodbye, but she was worried that Ye Chen wouldn't want to, so she could only use this small action to test it out.

Seeing that Ye Chen smiled slightly and stretched out his hand towards him as well, Ito Naija hurriedly took a step forward and jumped into his arms, hugging him tightly without saying a word.

In fact, there were a lot of things that Ito Cabbage wanted to say to Ye Chen deep inside, but right now, in front of her father and Song Wanting, those words that she wanted to say couldn't come out.

The two of them embraced for a moment, and with a cough from Yuuhiko Ito, Ito Naija hastily pulled away from Ye Chen's embrace and said to Ye Chen with a face full of reluctance, "Ye Chen-kun, take care!"

Ye Chen nodded lightly, and finally said goodbye to his father and daughter, along with Song Wanting, and stepped inside the ship.

This cruise ship was huge, three decks up and three decks down, and on the top deck, there was even a freshwater swimming pool, which was even more extravagant than the cruise ship that Master Song had given to Ye Chen.

After Ye Chen and Song Wanting boarded the ship, they came directly to the top deck, stood in front of the deck's guardrail, waved to Ito Yuhiko as well as Ito Cuisinart on the dock below, and said in a loud voice, "It's too late, the sea breeze is getting colder and colder, you two should hurry back."

Nodding gently, Itoh Nana-chan asked her servant to help her father into the car and got herself into the car, but she was in no hurry to let the driver drive, instead wanting to wait until the ship had left and witnessed Yatsuo leave.

And at that moment, a commercial vehicle with a one-way black film on it came from the entrance of the dock, passed the Ito family's fleet and continued to move forward.

This three rows of seats commercial vehicle, in the middle row sat a stunning woman with a struggling and pained expression, this woman was Su Ruorui.

At this time, Su Ruorui was still ashamed of escaping by herself.

The thought of more than fifty men following their own, about to face the harsh punishment of the Japanese law, Su Ruorui deep inside not only shame, but also hatred.

What she hated was the man who had screwed herself, and so many of her men, at Osaka Airport that day!

That man's face, she still remembered it to this day, if she had the chance, she would kill him with her own hands and avenge her brethren!

Just as she gritted her teeth, the driver spoke up, "Miss Su, our boat is just ahead and ready to set sail!"

Su Ruo Li turned her face sideways to get a glimpse of the ship that was about to take her out of Japan, and the rest of her eyes suddenly caught a glimpse of a man standing on the deck of this cruise ship beside her!

At this moment, Su Ruo Li's pupils narrowed abruptly, and his expression surfaced with cold, extreme harshness!

She clenched her teeth and muttered, "It's him!What a grievance!"
