

Identity 2251

Chapter 2251

"You don't have a cell phone?!"

Ye Chen felt very unbelievable about Xiao Weiwei's words.

These days, even the aunts at the street stalls had smartphones, and it was indeed a bit unbelievable that Xiao Weiwei, a young and fashionable girl, didn't even have a mobile phone.

Xiao Weiwei saw Ye Chen's face full of amazement, the whole person was even more embarrassed, fidgeting, "Brother-in-law I my phone was taken away by Wu Donghai's people, before."

Xiao Weiwei said, lowering her head in shame.

She truly felt like she couldn't hang on to her face at all when she said this.

The entire Xiao family was now truly at the point of exhaustion.

Can't even afford a mobile phone, what kind of poverty must this be!

When Ye Chen heard this, he understood in his heart.

After Wu Donghai returned to himself, he hated the Xiao family with a passion, and he knew that he was not dealing with them, so naturally, he was also screwing their family to death.

In fact, all he needed to do for this kind of thing was to give Wu Donghai a greeting, and Wu Donghai would definitely restore their previous standard of living, and even continue to invest in the Xiao family to bring them back to life.

After all, reviving the Xiao family only needed tens of millions, and although Wu Donghai had lost most of his fortune, but after all, a skinny camel was bigger than a horse, and a little bit leaking out of his fingertips was enough to feed and drink the Xiao family.

However, Ye Chen did not intend to do so.

The Xiao family has come this far, they are absolutely to blame, especially the old lady and Xiao Changqian, two people have been deliberately against Ye Chen and his family.

Therefore, the punishment that should be given to them must not be less.

Thinking of this, Ye Chen made up his mind that at the most, he would give Xiao Weiwei a small favor as a small reward for her returning from a wrong path, sincerely apologizing to himself and calling himself brother-in-law.

Ye Chen has always been a person who is clear about rewards and punishments.

As long as the crime committed was not a capital crime, a certain amount of forgiveness could be granted on the basis of serious repentance.

For example, for Wu Donghai's family, although Wu Qi was a complete scum, but in the end, the crime did not deserve death, and although Wu Donghai and his eldest son, Wu Xin, were domineering, they also did not commit a capital crime.

Therefore, all three of them, father and son, had survived to the present despite their many tribulations.

However, Wu Donghai's brother-in-law, Xue Nanshan, had done all sorts of bad things and lost his conscience, and this kind of person couldn't keep him even if he decided to do good deeds for the rest of his life, because he had already committed unforgivable crimes.

At this time, Ye Chen rummaged through his pockets and found a fifty-dollar denomination note, handed it to Xiao Weiwei and said, "Let's say, you take this fifty-dollar note and take a taxi."

Xiao Weiwei was a little hesitant, not sure if she should take the fifty dollars.

Although it was only fifty dollars, it was a big amount of money that could be very useful to her.

Her current job only had two hundred dollars a day, and this money was not only for food, but also to buy some basic medicine for Xiao Chang Qian and Xiao Hailong.

In fact, after these two were invalidated, each of them needed at least tens of thousands of dollars of treatment to recover quickly, but just because they couldn't pay the money, they could only rely purely on a little bit of physical recuperation, which was already much slower.

Coupled with the fact that nutrition was not guaranteed at all, in their current situation, they might not really be able to get out of bed and walk after a year.

So Xiao Weiwei also wanted to earn as much money as possible, even if it was just a few dozen more, at least she could buy two pounds of ribs for her father and brother, or buy two large bones to cook soup and drink.

So, she bowed to Ye Chen and said heartily, "Thank you brother-in-law I'm really short of money right now, so I won't be polite to you."

Saying that, his hands took the fifty dollars over.

Ye Chen nodded his head and said, "Take a taxi over there, ten yuan will be enough."

Although Xiao Weiwei was a bit reluctant, but since Ye Chen had said so, she didn't dare to disobey, and said, "Okay brother-in-law, thank you brother-in-law."

Ye Chen hummed and asked her, "What time do you work until?"

Xiao Weiwei said in a soft voice, "The customers who are looking at the houses usually start at 10:00 am and go until 7:00 am, so we won't finish until 7:30 pm."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Okay, then hurry up and go, I'm leaving too."

Chapter 2252

Xiao Weiwei hurriedly bowed again and said, "Brother-in-law, you slow down and be safe on the road."

"Mm, let's go."

Ye Chen waved his hand at her, twisted the throttle of the battery car and quickly left.

Xiao Weiwei looked at Ye Chen's back with a lot of emotions.

At this moment, what she wished for the most was not to earn much money or to be favored by some rich man.

What she wished for most was to be able to sit in the backseat of Ye Chen's battery operated car.

Because she felt that that back seat looked like it must be very happy and at ease!

Ye Chen rode his electric bicycle and arrived at Chen Zekai's hotel.

Richard Chen was already personally waiting at the door.

When he saw Ye Chen riding over, he hurriedly came forward and said: "Oh my young master, your identity is really not suitable to ride this kind of electric car anymore, why don't you drive the car that Qin Gang and Wang Zheng Gang gave you earlier? Is it because you don't like supercars?"

Ye Chen nodded, "That kind of car is not practical, and it's really too arrogant, as long as you drive it out, you'll be chased and photographed by everyone, I don't like such a high-profile feeling."

Chen Zekai was busy saying, "Then how about I arrange a more low-key and luxurious car for you? How do you feel about Phaeton?"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "No need, I'm used to riding electric bikes, Jinling isn't much, so little place in the city, riding an electric bike will be completely run over, but I haven't charged it in the past few days, it seems like the battery is almost dead, you'll arrange for someone to charge it for me later."

Saying that, he parked the electric car at the door and urged, "Go, take me to meet Su Ruoli."

Chen Zekai busily said to a valet parking boy beside him, "Hurry up and park this electric car of Mr. Ye's, wipe it clean inside and out, and then charge it up."

"Okay Mr. Chen!"

The little brother responded and hurriedly came over to push the electric car away.

Ye Chen and Richard Chen stepped into the hotel, so Richard Chen took him directly to the top floor of the hotel.

The top floor of the hotel was the executive floor, which was reserved for big bosses and big personalities.

The characteristics of the executive floor was that the areas were relatively independent, and when the hotel was designed, several administrative areas were built on the executive floor, each executive floor only had an entrance and exit, an elevator room and a stairwell, and a thickened reinforced concrete wall was also used to separate it from the other executive floors.

This is not only safer and more private, but also more convenient for security personnel to carry out their work.

Otherwise, if it was an ordinary floor, there were several elevators, several sets of stairs, and air corridors connected to each other, the route was complicated, and it was not good for security for big people to live in.

Su Ruorui and the others were arranged in one of the administrative areas, and Richard Chen also arranged many of his beloved generals to guard here, as a way to ensure that nothing went wrong.

At this time, Su Ruo Li was wearing a corseted sports undergarment sent by the waitress, and was in the living room of the room, running her internal martial arts recipe for internal training.

A martial arts expert like her, relying on talent alone was far from enough, daily gong practice was also essential.

Only after ten to twenty years of relentless and painstaking practice could one achieve a martial arts expert.

However, the current Su Ruorui felt as if she had never been able to sink her heart and focus on her training.

This was because as soon as she tried to sink her heart, she couldn't help but think of Ye Chen in her mind.

Just when she couldn't always find the feeling, the doorbell sounded.

At this moment, she intuited that it could possibly be Ye Chen coming, and her heart was suddenly happy.

Then, she rushed to the door in three or two steps and directly opened the door.

When she saw Ye Chen standing outside the door of the room, she couldn't help but be overjoyed and said out of her mouth, "Mr. Ye, you've finally come!"

After saying that, she suddenly realized that she was only wearing a sports underwear, and her entire neck and chest were full of sweat, and she squealed in shock and blurted out, "Oh my! Mr. Ye, wait a moment!"

As soon as the words were out of my mouth, I quickly closed the door

Chapter 2253

Ye Chen actually hadn't had time to take a good look at Su Ruorui's perfect body as well as her curves before she closed the door.

At this time, Su Ruo Li, the whole person shame hard to endure, she quickly found a bathrobe to put on, this red face back to run and open the door.

Facing Ye Chen, her face had blushed as if floating on two pieces of morning glow, she said shyly, "Sorry Mr. Ye, just now I just opened the door too abruptly."

Although Su Ruo Li was a ruthless martial arts expert, emotionally, she was still an unhumanized virgin who had never been tempted by the opposite sex.

Therefore, when facing Ye Chen, the shyness in her heart made her not half as much of a martial arts expert.

Ye Chen was more or less embarrassed at this time.

Like the Qin family's little pepper, Qin Aoxue, Su Ruo Li and Qin Ao Xue, both of them had a great body because they had been trained professionally for years, so although it was sudden and rushed just now, it did make him feast his eyes.

Only, Qin Aoxue didn't have that natural coldness in Su Ruorui.

To put it bluntly, after getting acquainted with Qin Ao Xue, she was like the little girl next door that all men liked.

But Su Ruorui definitely didn't have that kind of temperament on her.

It wasn't because she was somewhat shorthanded in front of Ye Chen, she actually carried a taste that could be viewed from afar but not played with at all times in her image in front of people, and would even bring a cold and dangerous feeling to most men.

After slightly adjusting his attitude, Ye Chen then asked Su Ruorui, "Is Miss Su still satisfied with her stay here?"

Su Ruo Li was busy: "Very satisfied I heard that this is the best hotel in Jinling, I didn't expect Mr. Ye to be so courteous to trouble you."

Ye Chen waved his hand, "It's not that I can't talk about adding trouble, after all, Old Chen is in full charge of this hotel, so having him arrange a few rooms is just a show of hands."

Only then did Su Ruo Li realize that Ye Chen was still standing at the door, so she hurriedly flashed away and made an inviting gesture, speaking, "Mr. Ye, please come in and sit down."

Ye Chen nodded his head and stepped into the room.

Because it was a luxurious executive suite, Su Ruo Li then directly invited Ye Chen to sit on the sofa in the living room.

As soon as Ye Chen sat down, she hurriedly used the tea leaves sent from the hotel room to make a cup of tea for Ye Chen and handed it to him, respectfully saying, "Mr. Ye, please have some tea."

Ye Chen smiled slightly and thanked her, then he said, "Miss Su doesn't know if she's watching TV?"

"No." Su Ruo Li's expression was a bit unnatural as she ran a hand through her hair at her temples and stammered, "I that last night actually never slept well, I fell asleep in the wee hours of the morning, then I woke up and did a training session and then you came"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "I'll probably tell you about it, yesterday the Japanese National Security Agency released a circular in which it disclosed your grandfather, Su Chengfeng, colluding with the Japanese Self-Defense Force."

Su Ruo Li said with a bit of resentment in her expression, "He's not my grandfather I don't have such a grandfather"

Ye Chen said, "I can understand your feelings."

Chapter 2254

Su Ruo Li was a bit embarrassed and said, "Sorry Mr. Ye, I shouldn't have interrupted you just now, you continue"

Ye Chen then said, "But it wasn't long before the media found out that your father, Su Shoudao, had taken an overnight flight to Australia, and right after that, the media shifted the wind, all saying that it wasn't actually your grandfather Su Chengfeng who betrayed you, but your father Su Shoudao, saying that he betrayed you in order to silence and bury the secret that you were her illegitimate daughter forever. "

Su Ruo Li looked a little pale and said, "This this is not impossible"

Ye Chen asked her, "Then which one do you believe in more?"

Su Ruo Li thought carefully for a few minutes before she said, "Mr. Ye, I'm more convinced that it was Su Chengfeng who betrayed me."

Ye Chen looked at her with great interest and asked, "Oh? Why?"

Su Ruo Li seriously said: "I have been by my father's side for a few years, although he is very ruthless, but his feelings for his flesh and blood are very deep, he cares about Su Zhi Fei and Su Zhi Yu very much, after knowing my true identity, he is also very attentive to me, I think he should not kill me to silence me, if he really wants to silence me, he shouldn't have taken me after knowing that I am his daughter," he said. Stay in the Su family."

Saying that, she analyzed, "Su Chengfeng's person, in the eyes of the outside world, is a very legendary and successful businessman of the older generation, and looks similar to Hong Kong's Li Jia Cheng, kind-hearted, but in reality, he is a very ruthless person."

"Moreover, he is ruthless regardless of the target, no matter who touches his interests, he will not let go! Even if it's his own grandson!"

"So, I think it's more likely that Su Chengfeng will betray me!"

Ye Chen nodded in agreement and said: "I actually share your view, although I don't understand the father and son's personality, but from the sequence of events and the logic behind the inference, the mastermind is more likely to be Su Chengfeng. The moving target that fights back and can't talk back."

Su Ruo Li involuntarily sighed, "Su Chengfeng has always held the power of the Su Family, although my father is the eldest son and prospective heir, he has little real power in the Su Family, because the key people in every aspect of the Su Family are directly responsible to and report to Su Chengfeng."

"My father also doesn't dare to cultivate his own power at all, because Su Chengfeng is extremely sensitive to this matter, and if my father cultivates his own power right under his nose, then he will definitely be furious, and may even directly deprive my father of his power as a prospective heir."

"So, no matter which way you look at this matter, Su Chengfeng is definitely the mastermind behind it."

At this point, Su Ruoxi looked a little darker as she said, "However, whether my father was involved and if so how much he was actually involved, I don't know that, he may not have known the whole time, or he may have known but didn't object"

Ye Chen asked her, "What are your plans next?"

Su Ruo Li was busy saying, "Ruo Li doesn't dare to have any plans, when Mr. Ye saved me, I already said that I would follow everything Mr. Ye commanded"

Ye Chen nodded and asked her, "If one day, I want you to help me deal with the Su family, would you be willing?"

Su Ruo Li said without hesitation, "Dealing with the Su family, I'm willing! From my mother, and then to me, I have been reserved to serve the Su family, even always ready to sacrifice for the Su family, but never in my dreams could I have imagined that the Su family would be so desperate towards us, this revenge, I must avenge!"

Saying that, she looked towards Ye Chen and said with a bit of pleading, "Mr. Ye, can Ruo Li ask you for one thing?"

Ye Chen nodded, "You say."

Su Ruo Li was busy saying, "Mr. Ye, if you want me to deal with the Su family, Su Chengfeng, and the other Su family members, I have no problem with it, and I beg to differ, but I don't want to meet my father, and my two half-brothers and sisters in arms apart from the three of them, any other surnamed Su is an enemy in my eyes!"

Chapter 2255

Su Ruo Li was unwilling to make a move against her biological father, as well as her half-brother and sister, and instead of being unhappy, Ye Chen felt a little bit relieved.

In fact, if a person could really do it to his siblings and even his biological father, Ye Chen must be very wary of such a person.

Because in his opinion, no matter how bad a person was, he couldn't be without humanity, and if a person really had no humanity, then even if he was obedient to himself today, he could still stab the knife directly into his heart tomorrow.

So, in his opinion, although Su Ruorui exterminated the entire Matsumoto family, she was not yet inhumane.

The reason for making the move to exterminate the family was to carry out orders.

Just like a soldier, no matter what kind of orders his superior commander, gave him, he, as a qualified soldier, had to obey.

Otherwise, he would not be a qualified soldier.

So Ye Chen was fine with this and spoke, "Both of us, we have a deep hatred with the Su family, you hate Su Chengfeng, I hate Su Shoudao, you need Su Chengfeng to give you an explanation and I need Su Shoudao to give me an explanation, so the two of us will have to try our best to cooperate in facing the Su family."

Su Ruo Li hesitated for a moment and asked, "Mr. Ye, do you hate my father because of the matter of the Anti-Ye Alliance back then?"

Ye Chen nodded and said coldly, "Back then, Su Shou Dao raised the banner of the Anti-Leaf Alliance and organized a group of people to target my father with all his might, although I still don't know how much my father's death had to do with him and the Anti-Leaf Alliance, but with just the words Anti-Leaf Alliance, he was my enemy!"

Su Ruo Li asked again, "Mr. Ye, then would you kill my father because of the anti-Yeh alliance back then?"

Ye Chen pondered for a few seconds and said squarely, "If Su Shoudao's Anti-Leaf Alliance was not the direct killer of my parents, or not directly involved in the murder of my parents, then I would not be as indiscriminate as Su Shoudao was in killing the Matsumoto family, and I would give him a reasonable punishment based on his actual crime."

At this point, Ye Chen's expression flashed with a hint of coldness as he said sternly, "However, if he has an unshirkable responsibility for the death of my parents, then I will definitely take his dog's life and use his head to pay tribute to my tragically dead parents!"

Su Ruorui nodded gently.

Although, in her heart, she was ten thousand times unwilling for Ye Chen to meet his own father in arms one day.

But it was also clear in her heart that she did not have the ability to control this matter, much less the qualifications to do so.

Ye Chen was not only much stronger than herself, but even his own life was saved by Ye Chen, and she was not qualified to ask and interfere with any decision he made to avenge his parents' death.

Therefore, she could only pray in her heart that her father, Su Shou Dao, would never be the culprit that killed Ye Chen's parents.

Otherwise, with Ye Chen's strength, it would be easy to kill him.

Thinking of this, Su Ruorui looked at Ye Chen and pondered over it, but still asked, "Mr. Ye, when can I contact my mother?"

Ye Chen spoke up, "Not yet, wait a little longer, mainly because your current status is too sensitive, the news about you is boiling all over Asia, and the Japanese government is eager to take you back and convict you, if the news that you are still alive leaks out, I won't be able to keep you."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "I suggest you wait patiently for a while longer, when the time is right, I will let you contact your mother."

Su Ruo Li nodded gently and said respectfully, "Okay Mr. Ye, Ruo Li will do everything as you command."

Ye Chen gave a hmmm and spoke, "These days, you'll rest here."

Su Ruo Li busily said, "Okay Mr. Ye."

Ye Chen remembered something and asked curiously, "Oh right, when I came in just now, I saw that you seemed to be training?"

Su Ruo Li remembered how she was just wearing only a sports bralette as well as gym shorts, and nodded her head, unable to hide her shame, and said, "Back to Mr. Ye, I usually practice basically every day."

Ye Chen asked curiously, "You martial arts experts, what do you usually practice mainly when you practice your kung fu?"

Su Ruo Li answered truthfully, "I practice the Nether Family's ancestral Shape-Yi Fist every morning."

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Form Yi Fist? Is it Nether's unique kung fu?"

"Not really." Su Ruo Li answered truthfully, "Actually, Shape Fist is the internal martial art, and the internal martial art is not original to the Nether Family."

Since the Ye family's ancestors had a heritage of martial arts practice, Ye Chen had studied Wing Chun with his father in the Ye family when he was young.

Chapter 2256

However, Wing Chun is just a relatively common set of boxing techniques and punches, and is not internal martial arts.

In comparison, the internal martial arts segment is a bit more high-end overall than the ordinary martial arts.

Whether it's Chinese Wing Chun or Japanese Karate or Korean Taekwondo, they are all fighting techniques in the end, but the people who create them all have different ways of looking at things, so the fighting techniques they create are different.

Internal martial arts, on the other hand, is different.

Internal martial arts is not about physical skills, but about the cultivation of internal skills.

The so-called qi sinks into the dantian, which is said to be the internal energy practiced by the internal martial arts.

In comparison, internal martial arts, is much more advanced than ordinary boxing, and its overall strength is also a cut above.

It was because of her year-round practice of internal martial arts that Su Ruo Li was able to surpass the majority of her peers and become a leader among them.

However, the entire set of Formidable Fist that she practiced was a hundred thousand miles inferior to Ye Chen's Jiu Xuan Tian Jing.

Ye Chen had the intention to mention her a little, so he spoke up, "Miss Su, I would like to take your pulse, I wonder if it's convenient?"

Su Ruo Li said without thinking, "Of course, Mr. Ye, go ahead!"

Saying that, she passed her right hand in front of Ye Chen.

Ye Chen's finger belly gently rested on Su Ruorui's pulse gate, and a trace of aura passed through the gate and into Su Ruorui's body.

As the aura moved around Su Ruorui's body, Ye Chen immediately discovered that the eight odd meridians in Su Ruorui's body were currently only open to the Ren and Zhu Vessels.

The Ren and Zhu Vessels were actually a combined term for the Ren and Zhu Vessels.

And the Ren and Governor veins were both part of the eight odd meridians.

There are a total of eight Qigong and Eight Vessels, which are the Ren, the Governor, the Chong, the Belt, the Yin Stilts, the Yang Stilts, the Yin Dimensional and the Yang Dimensional Vessels.

The main reason why they are called the Eight Qigong Veins is because, for most people, these eight meridians are naturally incompatible.

The traditional internal martial arts of Huaxia, as well as the Taoist cultivation methods, are all about cultivating qi.

This qi, stored in the body, sinks in the dantian, and when operating, it has to pass through the eight odd meridians.

Therefore, whether and how many of the eight meridians are opened is directly related to the person's strength.

To put it bluntly, if a person is an internal combustion engine, the qi in the dantian is the fuel for the operation of the internal combustion engine.

And the eight channels are the eight pipes that supply fuel to the internal combustion engine, if none of the eight pipes are connected, then the person is a completely ordinary person.

If one or two of the eight were opened, the person's strength would rise a great deal.

If one got through eight, then one would almost be at the pinnacle of internal cultivation.

Su Ruoyi currently only had the Ren and Zhu veins open, leaving six of them open, and if she could open one more, her strength would all be multiplied.

Unfortunately, it was simply impossible to get through the eight odd meridians with the traditional internal martial arts.

In the case of the Nether Family's Shape Intentional Fist, only one ancestor had ever gotten through four of the eight odd meridians over the past few hundred years.

The rest, the best of them would only be able to get through three.

The current Nether Family, the only one who could get through three, was Su Ruorui's grandfather, He Hong Sheng, and in the forty years since he had gotten through three meridians, the Nether Family had not produced another

More, in fact, can only get through one in a lifetime.

Chapter 2257

Su Ruoyi was only in her early twenties this year, and had already opened the Ren and Zhu veins.

This was already a top existence among the young people of the Ren family, as well as the other major martial arts families.

Moreover, right now, Su Ruorui didn't dare to dream that she would be able to open the third meridian.

Her greatest desire right now was to strive to make her Ren and Zhu Vessels, become more fluid.

This was because, the measurement of an internal expert had multiple dimensions.

How many of the eight odd meridians were clear was only one of them.

The second of which was to see whose meridians were smoother.

Just like Su Ruoyi, she opened the Ren and Governor veins at the age of 15 and 20, which was considered to be not long after she had just opened the Ren and Governor veins.

According to the judging standards of martial arts practitioners, the smoothness of the eight odd meridians is divided into ten percent from one to ten.

Su Ruo Li opened the Ren Vessel first, so the smoothness of her Ren Vessel has reached 40%.

However, it hadn't been long since she had just opened her Governor's Vessel, and the current smoothness of her Governor's Vessel had yet to break through 20%.

Finding out more about Su Ruorui's cultivation, Ye Chen couldn't help but feel a bit sad.

If she hadn't obtained the Nine Xuan Heavenly Scriptures, she wouldn't be able to get through even the Ren and Viceroy Veins just by relying on the Wing Chun Fist she had learned when she was young.

In that case, he would simply be as weak as a vegetable chicken in front of Su Ruorui.

But just because he had obtained the Nine Xuan Heavenly Scriptures, mastered the use of aura, and supplemented it with a large number of rejuvenation pills to enhance his strength, his current strength not only crushed the martial artists who had opened the Ren and Zhu veins, even a martial arts expert who had opened all eight of the odd meridians would not be qualified to fight against him.

After all, aura was simply a crushing, dimensional reduction blow compared to inner strength.

It was like the absolute superiority of a hot weapon over a cold weapon.

Ye Chen had the intention to mention Su Ruorui a little bit, so he used that strand of aura to raise Su Ruorui's Ren Vessel from 40% smoothness to 10% directly.

At this time, Su Ruorui had clearly felt the difference.

This feeling was very obvious to her.

Before, it was as if she had originally been in a state of heavy flu, with a mostly non-ventilated nose, and was having great difficulty breathing.

But now, her breathing had instantly become very fluid, and it felt like a day compared to before!

She looked at Ye Chen in shock and asked out of her mouth, "Mr. Ye Ye, what have you done to me? How come my Ren Vessel is instantly all clear?"

Ye Chen smiled indifferently and said, "I saw that you don't have enough fluidity in your Ren Vessel, so I just helped you out in passing."

"Ah?!"

Su Ruorui's entire body was horrified as if struck by lightning!

As someone who had practiced martial arts hard for over a decade, she knew very well the importance of the smoothness of the meridians.

People in the martial dao pay the most attention to the number of meridians opened, already smoothness, the two one horizontal and one vertical, one is indispensable.

The reason is that the Ren Vessel is the first of the eight veins and the foundation of the Martial Dao, and whether the next seven can be opened and opened to what [Haitang Book House www.htsw.info] degree depends almost entirely on how strong the foundation laid by the Ren Vessel is.

So she had always hoped to raise the smoothness of the Ren Vein to another level.

Even if it only increased from 40% to 50%, it would be a remarkable improvement!

But she never would have imagined that Ye Chen had only given himself such a short time to check his pulse, and silently, he had increased the smoothness of his Ren Vessel from forty percent, to ten percent!

To a martial artist, a meridian that could reach ten percent smoothness was equivalent to that meridian being greatly accomplished.

A great accomplishment of a meridian, in the realm of martial arts, is a realm that exists only in legends!

According to the genealogical records, even that ancestor of the Nether Family who had opened four meridians, his Ren Vein had failed to achieve great success and instead had only reached 80% of the realm.

Now, by helping Su Ruorui bring her Ren Vein up to ten percent, Ye Chen was literally helping her strengthen her martial foundation more than double!

Chapter 2258

Not only did this allow her to take a big step forward in her current strength, but it also made her future path in the martial arts much smoother!

With the Great Success Ren Vein as her foundation, her future martial arts journey will be twice as effective with half the effort!

Su Ruo Li was extremely excited and shocked at the same time!

"Mr. Ye just lightly numbered my veins, and he was able to give me such a huge boost in my cultivation, so how strong must he be?!"

"The Great Success of the Ren Vein is equivalent to laying the foundation of martial dao to the utmost, which was originally something I never dared to think of in my life It is also an achievement that is extremely difficult for all martial daoists to achieve in their lifetime"

"However, in the hands of Mr. Ye, it's just as simple as moving one's fingers"

"This This is simply like turning a point stone into gold_....."

"But, in the mouth of Mr. Ye, this great supernatural power is just as simple as a passing finger"

"How powerful is Mr. Ye to reach such an unimaginable level?!"

"It seems that my previous knowledge of Mr. Ye was far from enough"

"Before, I thought that he should just be stronger, but today I realized that he's far more powerful than that! It's even far beyond what I can imagine"

Thinking of this, she was increasingly glad about this acquaintance between herself and Ye Chen.

Although the first half of this acquaintance was not pleasant, but ever since Ye Chen had saved himself until now, this man had been subverting his worldview with practical actions.

If he hadn't known Ye Chen, he wouldn't have been able to achieve this kind of fortune!

Whirling, she poofed to her knees and choked with emotion, "Mr. Ye, your great kindness, Ruo Li will never forget it, please accept Ruo Li's worship"

After saying that, he directly leaned down and kowtowed heavily.

Ye Chen indifferently said, "It's just a show of hands, you don't need to perform this great ceremony."

Su Ruo Li said solemnly and incomparably, "Mr. Ye, the creation you have given to Ruo Li is far beyond the reach of many martial daoists who have cultivated hard all their lives, this kindness, Ruo Li has no teeth to forget!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly, "Grasp the time to improve the smoothness of the Governor Vessel, and then work hard to try to open the Chong Vessel, this is the most important thing for you right now, it just so happens that you can't go out during this period of time, so you can practice well in the hotel."

Su Ruo Li was busy saying, "Okay Mr. Ye, Ruo Li will do his best and try not to disappoint you!"

Ye Chen nodded, stood up and said, "Alright, you continue practicing, I'll go back first."

Su Ruo Li subconsciously asked, "You're leaving now, Mr. Ye?"

Ye Chen hummed and said casually, "Still have to go buy some food to cook at home, if I dawdle for a while longer, I'll delay my wife's lunch."

Su Ruo Li's heart was shocked to the core, but also surged full of loss, and asked out of the blue, "You're married, Mr. Ye?!"

Ye Chen nodded, "Married for four years."

Su Ruo Li said in shock, "The Ye family is also the second largest family in the country, how come I've never heard of the Ye family grandson's big wedding"

Ye Chen laughed to himself, "I, the son of the Ye family, have been living outside by myself for nineteen years, the Ye family only found me a year ago, before that, I had already married, joined a local family in Jinling, and become a son-in-law at home."

"Ah?!"

Su Ruo Li felt that her three views were once again completely overturned by Ye Chen.

"The matter of the disappearance of Ye Changsha's son, I had heard people talking about it in Yanjing."

"However, I would never dare to imagine that a man like Duke Ye would be a son-in-law in Jinling!"

"Let's not mention that he is a scion of the Ye family and the only son of the famous Ye Changsha, but just saying that his outstanding attainments in the martial arts are enough to make all the martial arts people flock to him!"

"Don't look at those martial arts experts, who are usually held in high esteem by all the great families, if a top expert with great prowess like Mr. Ye is willing to open a sect, countless martial arts experts will definitely crowd to worship under him and work for him wholeheartedly"

"So, if he wants to, he can become the object of the admiration of all people at any time"

"Why would such a man who is capable of so much, be willing to be in Jinling and be a door-to-door son-in-law?!"

Chapter 2259

Just when Su Ruorui was so excited about the creation that Ye Chen sent her while being amazed at Ye Chen's status as a door-to-door son-in-law, Ye Chen spoke with a calm face, "If you have any needs, directly mention them to Zekai Chen, he'll help you implement them, I'll be leaving first."

Su Ruo Li said in succession, "Mr. Ye, I'll see you off!"

When Su Ruorui sent Ye Chen to the door of the room, Ye Chen said, "Stay."

Su Ruo Li nodded respectfully, bowed deeply and said gratefully, "Mr. Ye, thank you!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly, "No need to bother."

Saying that, he directly stepped away.

Su Ruo Li saw Ye Chen's back out of his administrative district, and her insides were listless.

Closing the door, she mumbled involuntarily under her breath, "Mr. Ye is truly someone with great powers, my mother and grandfather have brought me through so many years of painstaking cultivation and have never given me such a creation, even grandfather himself was not able to open the Ren Vein to a great success, but all of this was so effortless in front of Mr. Ye, if it wasn't for Mr. Ye's help, I wouldn't have been able to in this life! Reaching such a realm"

Thinking of this, Su Ruo Li's eyes had filled with tears.

The He family were all martial idiots.

A lifetime of martial arts as their greatest pursuit.

Su Ruoruo Li's grandfather's greatest wish was to one day be able to open the four meridians and revive the He family's glory.

Unfortunately, he is now in his eighties and nineties and still can't find a way to make a breakthrough, over the years as he grows older, his strength has more or less declined uncontrollably, and it's hopeless to make a breakthrough.

Originally, Su Ruorui's mother, He Yingxiu, was the most promising junior of the He family, and at a young age, she was already infinitely close to breaking through the third meridian.

At that time, her grandfather concluded that He Yingxiu would definitely achieve a breakthrough within five years, becoming the first person in the He family in the past hundred years to break through the three meridians before the age of thirty.

But unfortunately, she was seriously injured at the most critical stage, and most seriously, she broke an arm for the sake of saving Su Shou Dao.

In martial arts novels, there were often one-armed warriors, such as some kind of one-armed divine nun Princess Changping, as well as the divine warrior Yang.

But after all, that was all martial arts works and couldn't be made real.

The true inner masters do not possess the ability to fly over walls or fight cattle through the air; they rely on external and internal hard work.

No matter how much an internal expert's inner strength is trained, it is the limbs that are really transformed into lethal power against the enemy.

If one of the limbs is missing, the strength is directly lost by a quarter.

This was still regardless of coordination.

In fact, if a person lost one arm, the ability of his other arm would also be greatly diminished due to the lack of coordination.

Therefore, although He Yingxiu was a martial genius, her talent was never able to compensate for her physical deficiencies, so there was no room for her strength to improve over the years.

It could be said that the entire Nether Family's hope of revitalization rested on Su Ruoyi.

Although her surname was Su, the Nether Family had never treated her as an outsider.

She is the He family's flesh and blood, grew up in the He family, and practiced the He family's martial arts, so she is the He family's heir.

When Su Ruoruo Li was conceived by Yingxiu, the first thought that came to He Hong Sheng's mind was that the child would be born with the surname He.

Since she is the illegitimate daughter of Su Shou Dao, the He family is not prepared to let Su Shou Dao know about this, so it's only logical that her surname should be He.

However, He Yingxiu insisted that her surname be Su.

The reason for this was because of the feelings that He Yingxiu had in her heart for Su Shoudao.

She felt that even if she gave birth to Su Shoudao's child in secret, she was not prepared to tell Su Shoudao, but out of respect for Su Shoudao, she still wanted her child to follow his surname Su.

He Yingxiu's father, He Hongsheng, couldn't resist her and had to compromise.

However, He Hong Sheng also made a request, Su Ruo Li can not have the surname He, but if she gives birth to a boy in the future, she must have a surname He.

Chapter 2260

He Yingxiu promised that she felt that in the future, Su Ruorui must be allowed to recruit a son-in-law, after all, the Nether Family was not an idle family, and recruiting a son-in-law into the family was not a difficult task.

From these things, it could be seen that the Nether Family valued Su Ruoyi, and it wasn't hard to explain why Su Ruoyi was equally eager to be able to make the Nether Family rise again in the martial path.

In particular, this time, the Su family's fall from grace had made Su Ruo Li lose all confidence and affection for the Su family.

She had already made plans in her heart, once the storm of this incident was over and she could return to the He family, she would immediately change her surname to He and do her best to help the He family shine!

At the same time, she also planned to persuade her grandfather at that time to make the entire He family pledge allegiance to Ye Chen, not only to repay this great favor, but also for the He family to have a better creation in the future.

At this moment.

When Ye Chen left the hotel administrative area, Richard Chen was waiting at the entrance.

Seeing Ye Chen coming, he hurried forward and said respectfully, "Young Master, how was your talk with Miss Su?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "The talk is not bad, she will stay in the hotel for this period of time, you help me take care of her and the others, but still the point I said before, don't let them contact with the outside world, only allow them to watch TV and receive calls from the service staff."

Richard Chen nodded hurriedly and said, "Don't worry young master, I will arrange it."

Saying that, he hurriedly handed a rectangular packaging box to Ye Chen and spoke, "Young Master, this is the new phone you asked me to buy."

Before Ye Chen entered Su Ruorui's room, he had instructed Richard Chen to arrange for someone to buy a new phone, so Richard Chen had someone buy a newly released top-of-the-line Apple phone.

The reason why Ye Chen Chen Zekai had asked Chen Zekai to arrange for someone to buy the phone was mainly because he wanted to go to the Pearl River Regency where Xiao Weiwei worked when he returned later and give this phone to her.

Then, give her WeChat, or Alipay to transfer some money, so that her life in the future for a period of time, can be less embarrassed.

This is his consistent human principle, people respect me a foot, I respect people a ten foot.

Xiao Weiwei had looked down on him for so many years, so Ye Chen didn't have any softness or softness towards her before.

But now that he had sincerely admitted his mistake and sincerely called him brother-in-law, he naturally had to show something.

If you respect me and obey me, I will let you benefit from it, which is the key quality to become a man.

And those who you respect me and obey me, I am not willing to give you the benefit of the doubt, basically it is very difficult to obtain the true sense of success.

Some bosses, even if they are sitting on thousands of assets, can't escape a key word.

Even if the family and friends as well as subordinate staff to him respectfully, for him to work hard, he is still not willing to give each other deserved benefits.

There are also some bosses, like to do some birds in the air, the bridge over the river to split things.

Such a person, sooner or later, will lose everyone's support, lose the help of the heart, and become a lonely man.

Once he loses his way, he will naturally have even less chance to become a man of the people.

The famous entrepreneurs who have become really big, without exception, all follow the rule of "he who follows me prospers".

Only in this way can they win the support of others and grow their business.

This is the essence of the phrase "whoever follows me will prosper".

At this time, Ye Chen got the phone and said to Chen Zekai, "Okay old Chen, I'm leaving."

Chen Zekai blurted out, "Young Master, I'll send you down."

Ye Chen faintly said, "No, you go busy with your work, don't mind me."

Chen Zekai was busy smiling, "I just happen to be going down there as well, by the way."

Ye Chen nodded and didn't say any more,
