

Identity 2311

Chapter 2311

Being embraced by all the etiquette ladies allowed Xiao Weiwei to successfully take the first step in taking over the Shang Mei etiquette company.

She was busy in the company until very late, and then she barely managed to catch the last bus, dragging her tired body back to the Townsend Villa.

Since Xiao Weiwei went out to work, the Xiao family barely considered that they didn't have to go hungry anymore, the family had more or less prepared a little rice, not daring to say that they could let the old lady Xiao as well as Xiao Changqian and Xiao Hailong, the two invalids, eat vegetables and meat, at least when they were hungry they could steam a pot of white rice to barely fill their hunger.

When Xiao Weiwei returned home, Old Mrs. Xiao had just finished serving Xiao Changqian and Xiao Hailong the white rice, and she used boiling water to make half a bowl of rice, sprinkled some salt into it, and ate it alone.

Seeing Xiao Weiwei back, she couldn't help but grumble a bit, "Weiwei, why are you so late today? I'm home alone to serve your father and your brother, the whole thing is exhausting, and you didn't say you'd come back from work early to help me."

Xiao Weiwei said apologetically, "I'm sorry ah grandmother, there are more things going on in the company, so it took a little longer"

Old Mrs. Xiao said with discontent, "It's just being a ceremonial lady, isn't it? When it's over, you come back with the money, why are you still so late?"

Xiao Hailong, who was lying on the bed, also couldn't help but speak up, "Yes Vivian, I especially wanted to eat a bowl of skinny pork porridge today, and I also said that I'd wait for you to come back from earning money earlier to buy half a pound of pork and two more skinny eggs, but I ended up waiting until now."

Xiao Chang Qian, who was lying next to Xiao Hailong, sighed and said, "Wei Wei ah, Dad has been having cramps for the past two days, it hurts like hell and won't heal for a while, it seems like he's been suffering from malnutrition and calcium deficiency for a while, can you do something about it and buy Dad a box of calcium tablets?"

Xiao Weiwei's heart ached as she saw her dad and brother in this pitiful state, and she wanted to tell them all about her experience today, to let them know that Ye Chen had given her a good opportunity, allowed her to manage a company, and gave her a monthly salary of 10,000 yuan.

However, when she thought that Ye Chen had explained that he did not want to create extra problems and keep himself silent, she resisted the impulse to suppress this matter and opened her mouth: "Dad, brother, you two insist on insisting on insisting, the company has adjusted my position, so that I can be a manager, a month's salary can be 10,000 yuan, I will find the finance tomorrow to advance half a month's salary out first, and then will definitely improve our family's living conditions properly."

Xiao Changqian was surprised and asked after her, "Weiwei, what you said is true?! You're really in management at the company?!"

Xiao Hailong was also busy having to ask, "Weiwei, do you really pay 10,000 yuan a month?!"

Xiao Weiwei nodded her head and said seriously, "It's really 10,000 yuan a month."

Saying that, she pulled out the latest model of iPhone that Ye Chen bought for her and said gratefully, "The boss saw that I don't have a phone or work, and he even gave me one."

"I'll go!" Xiao Hailong perked up and took off, "Sister! You're on the rise! It's so generous of your boss to say he's giving away over 10,000 mobile phones!"

Old Mrs. Xiao on the side was also excited with tears streaming down her face, her mouth choked, "If Weiwei can really get ten thousand yuan a month, that's over three hundred a day, with this much money, our family's life will be much better!"

I'm not sure if I'm going to be able to do that, but I'm not sure if I'm going to be able to do that, and I'm not sure if I'm going to be able to do that. The medicine for recovery, even if it costs another hundred dollars a day, that's still a balance of a hundred!"

Xiao Hailong burst into tears, "Grandma, I can finally eat some meat every day."

"Yes," old Mrs. Xiao sighed, then said: "When you and your father recovered, also all to find a job, do not dare to expect to earn a lot of money, but the two of you, a month to earn five or six thousand is always more than enough, and then our family will have a monthly income of fifteen thousand six, to that day, we This is the day to get over it!"

When Xiao Weiwei heard this, her heart was despondent.

She thought to herself, "The previous Xiao family, I dare not say that they were rich and powerful, but at least they had tens or even hundreds of millions of assets"

"In those days, a family would eat tens of thousands of fast dollars or more a month just to eat."

"But everyone at that time was not satisfied, always felt that life was not good enough, and tried to climb the dragon and the phoenix by all means."

"Now, after all that has happened, the family's approach to life has dropped precipitously."

"Before, no matter how good the food was, it wasn't enough, but now, as long as you can eat a meal of meat and save a little bit of money every day, it's a dream come true in the eyes of your family."

"It's sad to think about, but it's also really ironic."

When she thought of this, Xiao Weiwei's face came to her mind, and thought again, "Still, a person like Ye Chen is the most down-to-earth, even in the poorest days, he can still live a down-to-earth life, and when he becomes the Master Ye that everyone in Jinling's high society respects, he will also be able to never forget his first heart and live a down-to-earth life with Xiao Choran"

At that thought, she pulled out her phone and quietly added Ye Chen's WeChat.

Ye Chen had just eaten at this time, and Qin Gang called him on a voice call, and after connecting, said respectfully, "Master Ye, Ao Xue told me that you asked me to host a banquet at your home for the large crowd, I wonder what time is more convenient for you?"

Ye Chen then said, "It's already Thursday today, so let's tentatively decide on Friday night, what do you think?"

Qin Gang said respectfully, "All of my times are fine, everything is subject to your time, Master Ye."

Ye Chen gave a hmmm and said, "Then let's set it for Friday night, you help me invite everyone."

Qin Gang busily said, "Master Ye, I'll report the number of people with you, you can see if it's right."

"Good."

Qin Gang said, "Firstly, Miss Song and Master Song of the Song family, then Shi Tianqi Shi Divine Doctor, then Chen Zekai Chen, Li Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng, Master Hong Fifth, Wang Zhenggang of the Wang family, and Wei Liang of Jiuxuan Pharmaceutical."

Ye Chen said, "Remember to invite Wang Dongxue, the vice-chairman of the Empire Group."

Qin Gang immediately said, "Okay Master Ye, I'll give Vice Chairman Wang a call later to say so."

Ye Chen said, "Then it's trouble for you to help me arrange it."

Qin Gang immediately said respectfully and incomparably, "Master Ye you and I don't need to be so polite! Anything at all, you are at your disposal!"

Ye Chen hummed and said with a smile, "I'll go over a few hours earlier than to give some guidance to Aoxue, and by the way, I'll give you a small gift."

Upon hearing this, Qin Gang's excited voice trembled a bit, he realized that Ye Chen was possibly going to send himself a rejuvenation pill, and with uncontrollable excitement, his entire body took off, "Master Ye! Thank you so much!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly, "You're welcome, that's what we'll say first, we'll see you tomorrow."

"Okay Master Ye, see you tomorrow!"

Ye Chen hung up Qin Gang's voice call and suddenly saw the WeChat address book, prompting a new friend.

When he clicked on it, he found that the one who sent the friend request was Xiao Weiwei, so he conveniently clicked through to verify.

Immediately after that, Xiao Weiwei sent a message, "Brother-in-law, I've settled down on the company side, there are almost three hundred ceremonial ladies who are willing to cooperate with the company, so I'm reporting to you!"

Ye Chen was also somewhat surprised by the number of people, and secretly thought that Xiao Weiwei should be doing pretty well, so he replied, "Good, keep up the good work."

Xiao Weiwei was busy saying, "Okay brother-in-law, I will do my best!"

This was followed by a message, "Brother-in-law, I have something I would like to apply to you."

Ye Chen then asked, "Go ahead."

Xiao Weiwei said, "Brother-in-law, the family has more money to spend, I would like to advance half a month's salary with you, is that okay?"

Ye Chen knew that she must have some difficulties, so he directly and readily agreed, replying, "No problem, just say hello to the finance."

Xiao Weiwei sent a grateful expression and said, "Thank you brother-in-law!"

Chapter 2313

Ye Chen said, "Remember to invite Wang Dongxue, the vice chairman of the Emperor's Group. Ao Xian"

Qin Gang immediately said, "Okay Master Ye, I'll give Deputy Director Wang a call later to say something."

Ye Chen said, "Then it's troublesome for you to arrange it for me."

Qin Gang immediately said with immense respect, "Master Ye you and I don't need to be so polite! Anything at all, you are at your disposal!"

Ye Chen mmmmed and said with a smile, "I'll go over a few hours earlier then to give some guidance to Ao Xue, and by the way, I'll give you a small gift."

As soon as Qin Gang heard this, his excited voice trembled a bit trembled, and he realized that it was possible that Ye Chen was going to send himself the rejuvenation pills, and his entire body, with uncontrollable excitement, took off, "Master Ye! Thank you so much!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly, "You're welcome, that's what we'll say first, we'll see you tomorrow."

"Okay Master Ye, see you tomorrow!"

Ye Chen hung up Qin Gang's voice call and suddenly saw the WeChat address book, prompting a new friend.

Ye Chen was also somewhat surprised by the number of people, and secretly thought that Xiao Weiwei should be doing pretty well, so he replied, "Good, keep up the good work."

Xiao Weiwei was busy saying, "Okay brother-in-law, I will do my best!"

Immediately after that, another message was sent, "Brother-in-law, I have something I want to apply to you ....."

Ye Chen then asked, "Go ahead."

Xiao Weiwei said, "Brother-in-law, my family has more money to spend, I would like to advance half a month's salary with you, is that okay?"

Ye Chen knew that she must have some difficulties, so he directly and readily agreed, replying, "No problem, just say hello to the finance."

Xiao Weiwei sent a grateful expression and said, "Thank you brother-in-law!"

Chapter 2314

Ye Chen didn't have too many thoughts about Xiao Weiwei.

Originally, he only wanted to help her a little, give her some money, and let her solve her immediate predicament on the basis of her truly repentant attitude.

But after finding out that she was being bullied and that Liu Zonghui and Chen Xiaofei were bullying people too much, Ye Chen more or less had some thoughts of removing harm from the people.

So, he went along with it and handed over Liu Zonghui's Shangmei Etiquette Company to Xiao Weiwei to run.

However, Ye Chen was still somewhat guarded and messianic towards Xiao Weiwei, that's why he gave Xiao Weiwei the stipulation that although she had to manage the entire company, she could only get a monthly salary of 10,000 yuan.

The reason for doing this was to limit her earnings and rights, so that she could do her work in peace, instead of floating away again all of a sudden.

Xiao Weiwei didn't think so much, Ye Chen could help her to this point, she was already very satisfied deep inside, right now all she wanted was to work well and do a good job for the Shangmei Etiquette Company.

In keeping with the idea that more is better than less, Ye Chen didn't tell his wife Xiao Churan about this matter.

Moreover, Xiao Churan was really too busy recently, so after dinner, she went straight to the study to continue working, not daring to delay at all.

Xiao Churan has now started to prepare for the renovation bidding work of the six-star hotel of the Imperial Hero Group, who is in the rising stage of her career, and her work ethic is also surprisingly strong, in her words, she now especially wants to share some of the burden of raising a family for Ye Chen.

Ye Chen saw that his wife had to work overtime after work and was busy working overtime, and his heart was more or less heartbroken.

So, he washed some fruits and brought them upstairs to the study.

In the study, Xiao Churan is burying her head in front of the desk's computer to draw a design.

Ye Chen saw her concentrating and was afraid that her sudden appearance would scare her, so he coughed lightly to attract Xiao Churan's attention.

"Ahem, Chorán."

Xiao Churan heard the voice and looked back at Ye Chen, smiling, "Honey, what are you doing here?"

Ye Chen walked forward, put the fruit on the desk, and said, "I washed some fruit for you, you eat more, working in front of the computer heel for so long every day, more or less there will be some radiation, eat more fruit to supplement vitamins, can reduce the harm of radiation."

Xiao Churan smiled sweetly and said, "Thank you, husband!"

After saying that, he pinched the largest and reddest strawberry from the fruit plate, didn't eat it himself, but shoved it directly into Ye Chen's mouth and said with a smile, "Honey, you can eat this!"

Ye Chen smiled, "I've already eaten it all, you can eat it yourself, don't mind me."

Xiao Churan pretended to be angry and pouted, "If you don't eat it, then I won't eat it either."

After saying that, he muttered in a huff, "You don't even eat when people send it to your mouth, it's too heartbreaking."

Once Ye Chen heard this, he hurriedly opened his mouth and swallowed the strawberry along with two of Xiao Chorán's fingers, not only that, he also deliberately used a little bit of force to bite her fingers.

Chapter 2314

"Oops!" Xiao Chorán shrieked in shock, only then did she realize that Ye Chen had given herself a surprise attack, and she hurriedly said in an act of fear, "Yah! Feeding a puppy with good intentions and getting bitten by it!"

Ye Chen spread his mouth and ate the strawberries while saying vaguely, "Well, what are you when you say your husband is a puppy?"

Xiao Chorán proudly snorted and said, "I'm the one who feeds the puppies, of course I'm the puppy's owner!"

Ye Chen laughed, "If I were a puppy, then you'd be the bone I'm holding in my mouth."

Xiao Chorán laughed, "How can you compare someone to a bone like that?"

Ye Chen said seriously, "Don't you know that puppies are the most protective of their food? With a bone in its mouth, it won't let go even when the sky is falling, and whoever dares to grab it, it will definitely fight to the death!"

Xiao Churan was touched when she saw Ye Chen's serious appearance, and couldn't help but say shyly, "In that case, I'll barely be a bone for you to hold in your mouth."

Ye Chen laughed and said, "Don't just talk, eat some fruit first."

Xiao Churan nodded and picked up two more strawberries, putting one in Ye Chen's mouth first before putting the second one in her mouth herself and taking a bite.

Ye Chen looked at her computer screen and found that on the design software, a very large prototype of the design drawings had been constructed, so he couldn't help but ask her, "Honey, the design drawings for such a big project, do you have to do it all by yourself?"

Xiao Churan said, "Not really, what I'm doing now is a sketch, because the bidding doesn't need to be a very detailed design plan, it's mainly to reflect a general idea."

"When the bidding is done, this design plan needs to be given over, along with a more detailed renovation budget quotation, but my studio is relatively small right now, and for such a big project, we all have to turn in a row, so I'll be mainly responsible for drawing, and the others will focus on integrating various material suppliers, as well as actuarial projects penchant Pavilion [www. biquwu.biz] cost, this project volume is really huge, at least to interface with hundreds of suppliers and solve thousands of individual items."

Ye Chen nodded his head and said sadly, "You shouldn't be too tired, you should pay attention to the combination of work and leisure."

Xiao Churan smiled, "Don't worry, just these few days, after busy these few days, pack up the entire tender document and hand it over, then we'll wait for the internal evaluation of the Emperor Group, if it passes, I'll quickly expand the team, if it doesn't pass, it'll be a practice session."

Saying that, Xiao Churan said seriously, "If this project of mine becomes a success, then you won't have to work so hard and earn money by yourself to support your family in the future."

"Our family's overall expenses are all very large now, the villa property fees are over a hundred thousand a year, not to mention the rest."

"Most of the profits earned by my studio before have been invested in expanding the scale, and I haven't been able to subsidize the family and can't share for you, so this time I have to try to get the project and make some contributions to the family!"

Ye Chen knew Xiao Churan's character well, she never cared about money, and usually had no requirements for food, clothing, housing and transportation, but now the reason why she wanted to work hard to start a business and make money was ultimately for this family.

Thus, he said in a soft voice from the bottom of his heart, "Wife, thank you!"

Xiao Churan said seriously, "It's me who has to thank you, for so long, the family has been supported by you, my parents and I have been holding you back."

Ye Chen busy: "What is this saying, husband earning money to support the family is a matter of course, the first three years of marriage I do not earn a penny, on the home laundry sweeping and cooking, you have never discarded me, I now bear a little more and what is it."

Xiao Choran smiled, heartfelt: "We two can always be so mutual understanding, mutual tolerance is the most important, much more meaningful than making money, just like before, although you do not earn a penny, but the housework is always done in an orderly manner, every aspect of the care of me, this is more important than making money."

Chapter 2316

The thing that Ye Chen appreciates most about Xiao Churan is that she has never disliked her obvious origins after all these years of marriage.

After all, a hangman whose parents died at the age of eight, who grew up in an orphanage, whose state-recognized education is only a high school diploma, and who has nothing and is almost penniless, is definitely not considered a quality marriage partner anywhere.

However, she, the number one beauty in Jinling, still married herself without complaint, and a marriage is four years.

In these four years, countless people had encouraged and forced her to divorce herself, and she hadn't wavered even once.

From this alone, Ye Chen's heart was overwhelmed with gratitude for her.

Recently, Ye Chen also wanted to find a chance to confess his background to Xiao Churan, but he was hesitant when he thought that his parents' great revenge had not been avenged, and even the cause of their death had not been found out.

Now, the only thing he could ascertain was the Anti-Leaf Alliance.

When his parents were still in Yanjing, the Anti-Leaf Alliance did do a lot of things against them, but in his childhood memories, his parents decided to leave the Ye family, not because of the Anti-Leaf Alliance, but because his father, Ye Changshu, and his grandfather, Ye Zhongquan, had once had a big fight over something. Hen.

After that quarrel, the parents decided to leave the Ye family and the three of them came to Jinling to live an ordinary life.

However, not long after they came to Jinling, their parents met with an accident and died.

However, Ye Chen always believed that the death of his parents was not an accident, and there must be some criminals behind it. proud

Only, he was now clueless as to who had killed his parents.

Firstly, he did not know whether the Ye family was friend or foe .

Secondly, that he did not know what role the Soviet family had played in the matter.

Again, he remembered Tang Sihai saying that his father had offended the Rothschild family that was dominating Europe and America at the time, so whether it could have been the Rothschild family that killed his parents, he couldn't be sure now. Jr.

With a wolf in front, a tiger in the back, and a ferocious beast on the other side of the ocean, Ye Chen now had some strength, but still felt like he was walking on thin ice.

The Ye family, openly, secretly, hidden and tucked away, with all kinds of assets adding up to a few trillions.

The Su family, not only had more assets than the Ye family, their overall strength were all a bit stronger than the Ye family, and although they had suffered serious setbacks recently, they were still not to be underestimated.

Trillions of RMB may sound like a fantasy, but actually looking around the world, trillions of RMB in family assets is nothing at all.

The world's richest person in the world is Jeff Bezos, the founder of Amazon, whose personal assets are more than a trillion RMB.

And that's just the obvious, no tycoon would publish all his assets, and what is published is often just the tip of the iceberg.

As for that giant-like Rothschild family, it could already be called rich as hell.

Chapter 2317

For a hundred years, there have been many rumors about the Rothschild family in Europe and North America.

Some say they rule half of Europe, some say more than half of Europe, even half of America is under their control.

They are almost everywhere in Europe and America, the most profitable banks are theirs, the most profitable oil refineries are theirs, the biggest shipping conglomerates are still theirs, and even the biggest military industrial companies are theirs. Net.

Promote Europe and the United States when the industrial revolution of railway transportation, are also under the control of this family, as for gold, diamonds and other precious minerals, but also their traditional strengths.

Roughly estimated, the amount of assets of the entire family is at least several trillion dollars.

In other words, the scale of a Rothschild's assets was more than ten times that of the Ye family.

What's worse, Rothschild, as an old Jewish family, has tremendous influence in European and American politics, and those bigwigs on Wall Street, almost without exception, are all Jews, and the entire lifeblood of the United States is almost entirely in their hands, so such a family is even able to push for a war between nations behind their backs!

In front of these families, Ye Chen's current assets and strength were not worth mentioning at all. Jr.

If his identity were to be leaked externally at this time, there was no telling what kind of storm it would create.

In this situation, Ye Chen really didn't dare to reveal his heart to Xiao Choran.

He felt that he should at least wait until he found out the cause of his parents' death, whether the Ye family was friend or foe, and whether he and the Rothschild family, had a deep hatred or not.

Xiao Churan didn't know that her husband, who was beside her at this time, was thinking about something, and as she ate the fruit, she opened her mouth with a longing face and said, "Honey, if I can win this project, you won't have to be under so much pressure in the future. Say"

Ye Chen seriously said, "I don't have any pressure per se ah, I'm still making money easily, so you don't have to have any pressure, if this project is too tiring, then don't go to the bidding, preparing for the bidding is so tiring, in case you really win the project, I'm afraid it will be even more tiring. Says "

Xiao Choran smiled, "Tired just a little bit, can't refuse to develop because of the fear of being tired, if the company can be bigger and stronger, afterwards I can split a lot of work out and concentrate on management myself, that way it's actually not too tiring, the most tiring thing is the studio model, I'm the boss and the employee, I have to do everything myself."

Ye Chen nodded his head in agreement, "That's true, the most frightening thing is that the two identities are mixed together."

Xiao Churan smiled slightly and said, "Alright, you don't need to feel sorry for me, I still have to continue making diagrams on my side, you should go back to your bedroom and rest first."

Ye Chen then said, "That's fine, wife you are busy first, I won't bother you, remember to call me if you need anything."

Meanwhile, Qin Gang, who was excited, was calling the people Ye Chen wanted to invite one by one.

Most of these people were his old acquaintances and friends, so it was very easy to contact them, and when they called one by one and told everyone about the matter, they were all thrilled beyond words.

Ye Chen's massive drug giveaway had only happened once.

On that occasion, everyone had been blessed by his grace and received a miracle medicine in their eyes.

Chapter 2318

This time, Ye Chen was giving away medicine again, so they were naturally filled with joy.

Li Tailai, who was in Haizhou, as soon as he heard that Ye Chen was going to invite guests, he even immediately let Zhao Hao, his little friend from Ye Chen's orphanage, drive him to Jinling first overnight.

Li Tailai also has a lot of real estate in Jinling, so he planned to come to Jinling to stay overnight first, so that he wouldn't have to delay his trip in case of any unexpected events tomorrow.

The reason why it was so important was mainly because, this opportunity was too rare in his eyes.

The only one who hadn't received Qin Gang's notice was Wang Dongxue of the Imperial Hero Group.

It's not that Qin Gang forgot about her, it's mainly because Qin Gang didn't have Wang Dongxue's contact information.

Before Ye Chen had not taken over the Imperial Hero Group, Wang Dongxue had been the vice chairman of the Imperial Hero Group.

She wasn't the eldest daughter of any big family, nor was she a rich and powerful second generation, she was completely just a very capable career woman who had climbed up step by step by herself.

Therefore, she basically doesn't hang out with these so-called high society in Jinling either.

Those like Richard Chen, Wang Zhenggang, Qin Gang, and Song Wanting, although she knew them all, she hadn't been too familiar with them.

And these people like Richard Chen and Wang Zhenggang had already formed a small circle around Ye Chen and around Ye Chen.

All the people in this small circle, because they were very close to Ye Chen and were well aware of Ye Chen's skills, they worshipped Ye Chen as a guide and treated him with respect. Hen.

So, Qin Gang called Ye Chen and said respectfully, "Master Ye, people I'm almost notified, everyone's time is ok, but only Wang Dongxue, this person has been very low-key, I haven't had her contact information, do you think you can give me her phone number?"

Ye Chen then said, "Forget it, I'll just give her a call. Net."

After hanging up Qin Gang's phone, Ye Chen called Wang Dongxue.

As soon as the call came through, Wang Dongxue asked respectfully on the other end, "Chairman, what do you want?"

Ye Chen can't help but frown slightly, normally, Wang Dongxue privately called herself young master, now it's already off duty time, why does she still call herself chairman? Is she having trouble talking right now?

Thinking of this, Ye Chen also said very politely, "Vice Chairman Wang, I would like to ask if you are free tomorrow night? I have a dinner party and would like to invite you over to attend."

Wang Dongxue hesitated for a moment and said somewhat apologetically, "Chairman, I'm really sorry, I'm not sure of the time yet, can I reply you tomorrow?"

Ye Chen was puzzled and asked, "Vice Dong Wang, you didn't encounter anything, did you?"

Wang Dongxue said somewhat unnaturally, "Nothing chairman, it's just that there are guests to entertain at home, so ....."

Ye Chen smiled slightly, so he said, "Okay, then let's get in touch tomorrow, it doesn't matter if you're inconvenienced, we can make a single appointment some other time."

Chapter 2319

At this moment, the inpatient department of Jinling People's Hospital.

As the best general hospital in Jinling and even in the province, this place is overcrowded at all times.

No matter which department it is, there is no time when the beds are empty.

Not only is it full, but many patients also line up at home for hospital beds. Say

In the intensive care unit of the Department of Nephrology, on the bed lay an unconscious, covered with tubes of a man, about fifty years old or so.

On the side of the bed, there is also a middle-aged woman of similar age sitting, this woman's appearance, and Wang Dongxue have five points similar.

The outside of the intensive care ward is a small living room and family rest area, after all, is the best condition of the intensive care ward, the internal layout and hotel suites are very similar. Say

At this time, there were two young men and a woman standing in the parlor.

The woman was Wang Dongxue, the vice chairman of the Imperial Hero Group, and opposite her was a white blond man with an eagle nose.

Wang Dongxue just hung up the phone of Ye Chen, the hawk-nosed man spoke a mouth not quite standard Mandarin, a smile to Wang Dongxue said: "Dongxue, I see uncle's condition has not been delayed for too long, Huaxia law on the sale of organs is expressly prohibited, and now except for me, no one can find a suitable match for uncle. "

Wang Dongxue looked at him and begged, "Walter, I beg you, for the sake of a classmate, help me to take a line, how much money you need to contact that kidney source in the United States, I'll double, and the extra will be your referral fee, okay?"

The man known as Walter sneered, "You don't think, Winter Snow, that I went to all this trouble just to make a buck off you, do you?"

Saying that, he said incomparably seriously, "Winter Snow, I actually liked you when I was in school, but at that time, I hadn't become financially independent, nor had I taken over the family business, my family didn't allow me to find a foreign woman, and I didn't dare to pursue you under their noses ....."

At that, he laughed and said proudly, "Hahaha, but now that I'm married and have just been sent here to take charge of the business in Warsaw, they can't control me anymore!"

"Moreover, the family is extremely determined to enter the Warsaw market this time, I'll probably stay in Warsaw for at least ten years ....."

Wang Dongxue frowned and asked him, "Walter, what exactly are you trying to say?"

Walter covered his chest, said with a look of heartache: "Winter Snow, in the next ten years, if I can't get you, how lonely and isolated I should be ....."

Wang Dongxue coldly said: "Walter! For the sake of our classmates, I beg you, show a little respect!"

Walter smiled flippantly and said, "I'm sorry, but I'm a man who likes to go it alone!"

Chapter 2320

"Winter Snow, as long as you're willing to leave the Imperial Group, join my company, and be my vice chairman and lover, then I'll immediately have someone use my private jet to send you a kidney source, and if you promise me today, uncle will be able to get a new kidney tomorrow, what do you think?"

"Shame on you!" Wang Dongxue gritted her teeth and said angrily, "Walter, what's the difference between you and robbing a fire while it's still burning! And you're already married and have children, are you doing this to your wife and children?"

Walter left his mouth and said indifferently, "People like me, getting married is only to fulfill the family mission, my family lets me marry whoever they let me marry, as long as I marry the woman they let me marry, they won't interfere with my personal life anymore."

He said, and then laughed with unconcerned shame, "As for the children, it doesn't matter even more, they are still young, and when they grow up, I will make them realize that money is more important than anything else, and then they will be able to understand the current me. Net."

As soon as the words fell out, Walter remembered something and hurriedly said, "Oh right, if you become my lover, you will also have to give me children, after all, I am a person who usually does not like any contraceptive measures, in addition, I have always wanted a child of mixed blood, but unfortunately, the family tradition has always required pure blood, it is really nerve-wracking .....

At this point, Walter laughed and said proudly, "But well, if it's a bastard child and doesn't involve inheriting the family fortune, they'll just turn a blind eye and not pursue it too much. Little"

Wang Dongxue roared with an angry face, "Walter, I never thought that you would be such a shameless clothed beast!"

Walter laughed: "come on winter snow, we are all adults, shame tops shit? Look at all those who are full of benevolence and morality every day, which one of them is not full of men and women thieves?"

"If you follow me, come work in my company, and use the real estate experience you've accumulated and the confidential information you have in the Imperial Group to help me expand the Huaxia market, then I'll give you double the salary package of the Imperial Group, plus an additional five million bonus per year!"

"This way, you're making a full ten or twenty million dollars a year!"

"If you can help me covertly hollow out the Empire Group's properties and allow me to annex the Empire Group for less than fifty billion, then I'll give you one hundred million at once!"

"And even better, we'll only have a wall between our two offices, and then we can quietly open and make a secret door between the two rooms, and a set of cabinets outside the secret door, and we'll be able to get to each other's offices without anyone noticing!"

"How perfect is it that I can sneak into your office and spend time with you anytime during work hours as well? Aren't you impressed?"

Wang Dongxue took a step back, walked around Walter, walked to the door of the room and opened it, scolding angrily, "Walter, I don't want to see you, please get out of here!!!"

Walter sneered, "Dongxue, you told me to roll, I can roll any time, but your father, it seems like he can't last too long, so I urge you to reconsider my terms."

Wang Dongxue gritted her teeth and said, "I won't consider it! Don't you daydream about it! Get out now or I'll call the police right now!"

Walter spread out his hands and said with a skimpy smile, "Ok, ok, don't get so excited yet, even though your dad's condition is serious, you should still have a month to think about it, I've been in Jinling lately, feel free to contact me if you figure it out!"

After saying that, he tidied up the collar of his suit, winked teasingly at Wang Dongxue and smiled, "My dear, I'll be leaving first then."
