

Identity 2321

Chapter 2321

Wang Dongxue's eyes watched his back as he left, and his whole body shivered with anger, and tears instantly came out of his eyes.

Two years ago, Wang Dongxue's father had severe nephritis, because he is rh negative blood, so it has been difficult to find a suitable kidney source. Hen

At that time, Wang Dongxue herself had been matched, but was unable to match.

Later also luck, her family's relatives in Southeast Asia found a successful match, the other side is also willing to donate a donor for a fee.

Subsequently, Wang Dongxue spent one million RMB to solve the problem of kidney source for her father. pavilion

She thought that after finding the source of the kidney, as long as she took good care of it, she could at least extend her father's life cycle for 20 to 30 years.

But she never dreamed that after only two years, her father's transplanted kidney would have a serious rejection reaction and his kidney function would decline sharply.

Before the New Year, he was still well, after the New Year, because of acute renal failure and hospitalized. Say

Doctors can not find the cause of kidney failure, and this kidney failure is completely irreversible, the only way, is to find a new kidney source as soon as possible to do another transplant operation.

Time was short, Wang Dongxue raised the price to five million, but even if the money was paid very high, a suitable kidney source could still not be found in a short period of time. pavilion

When Wang Dongxue studied abroad when the classmate Walter, I do not know where to know about this matter, then very enthusiastic to help her from the United States black market contact kidney source.

Walter came over today, is to tell Wang Dongxue, the kidney source has been found, but also the donor is a very young, strong young man. Little

But before Wang Dongxue was happy about this matter, Walter immediately revealed his true form and put forward a series of extremely excessive demands.

Thinking of this, Wang Dongxue's mood was extremely low.

She also knew that in such a short period of time, it was almost impossible to find a suitable kidney source .....

At this instant, she could not help but recall in her mind the scene when she attended Song Wanting's birthday party.

Ye Chen took out a rejuvenation pill at that time, which was bought by Li Tailai at an astronomical price of 2 billion, and it was said that that pill could not only cure a hundred diseases but also turn decay into magic.

Unfortunately, the price of two billion was by no means something that Wang Dongxue could afford .....

Although her income is not low, but after all, she has always been a senior worker, all her possessions combined, less than 100 million, and how dare she expect to be able to afford a 2 billion pills!

Chapter 2322

At that moment, the door to the inner room was pushed open gently.

The middle-aged woman came out and asked her, "Winter Snow, is that Walter gone?"

This woman, is Wang Dongxue's mother, Sun Yufang.

After saying that, she then hurriedly asked, "Mom, how is Dad?"

Sun Yufang sighed, "Still like that, not awake. Net."

She said, she saw Wang Dongxue had just cried, so she hurried forward, concerned and asked: "Dongxue, why are you crying? What did that Walter say to you? Didn't he say he'd found a kidney for your father? What does it say later?"

Wang Dongxue sighed and whispered, "The kidney source is found, but what he means is that he wants me to work for him and be his lover at the same time ....."

"What?!" Sun Yufang stared at her and spoke out, "This ....., Isn't this person an old classmate of yours? How could he be so shameless?!"

Wang Dongxue said with extreme helplessness, "I didn't expect that a few years after graduation, he would become like this."

Sun Yufang hurriedly said, "Can't we give him more money? If the kidney source is two million, we'll give him four million, or six million, as long as he can help find the kidney source and make sure your dad gets a timely transplant, we'd be willing to do that even if we had to break the bank."

Wang Dongxue shook her head, serious: "This Walter's father, is more famous in the United States of America's real estate tycoon, the family strength is very strong, the assets how to count must have a few tens of billions of dollars, how can he look at us this money ....."

Sun Yufang cried out at once, saying helplessly, "What should we do then? ..... Your father's kind of rh-negative blood is already a panda blood that only comes in one in hundreds of thousands of people, and it's hard to find someone with the same blood type as him, and it's even harder to find someone with the same blood type, whose organs can be successfully typed, and whose opponent is willing to donate ....."

She said, with a long sigh, she cried, "The doctor said ..... The doctor said that your father's current condition will last at most three months, and if he can't find a kidney source, then the Great Luo Jinxian can't save him ah!"

Wang Dongxue nodded with a pained expression and said, "Mom, don't cry yet, give me a little more time to find the kidney source ....."

Sun Yufang could not hide the burning, sobbing: "The doctor said, your father's physical condition, the most you can wait another twenty days, twenty days if you can not solve the kidney source, then even if you find the kidney source, his this physical condition, can not receive surgery ....."

Wang Dongxue nodded his head and said seriously, "Mom don't worry, I will do my best to find a way ....."

Sun Yufang nodded gently, the whole person has sobbed. Said Xuanxuan.

"Good, you go ....."

Wang Dongxue came out of the ward and came directly to the courtyard downstairs of the hospital inpatient department.

It was already night, and the weather was cold, there were few people in the courtyard.

Chapter 2323

She felt a pack of ladies cigarettes in her pocket, took one out and put it in her mouth, and felt a lighter, which she pressed a few times with some anxiety. Pride Fiction www.axxsw.com 傲轩小说网

Under the reflection of the flame, her face was very ugly.

Cigarette was lit, Wang Dongxue lips gently bite the cigarette, smoke a puff, the surrounding is very quiet, and can even be heard when the tobacco was lit by the unique sound.

Wang Dongxue rarely smoke, and do not love to smoke, but because the work has been very hard, often over-fatigue and excessive distress, this time to smoke a cigarette, can bring her some relief.

Smoke from her exquisite nostrils, feel the stimulation of nicotine in the brain, Wang Dongxue can not help but shed two lines of tears.

In that case, his body would be so weak that he wouldn't even be able to support the surgical anesthesia medication, let alone undergo a major organ transplant .....

It sums up in twelve words: very weak and very serious.

Surgery?

Chemotherapy? The body couldn't hold up.

In the end, there is no choice but to resort to palliative care.

To put it bluntly, it means giving up on treatment and turning to pain medication to help alleviate pain in the final stages of life.

Wang Dongxue's father was only fifty years old, for Wang Dongxue, she could not accept that her father was so young to pass away.

However, the chances of saving her father now were so slim that it made people desperate.

Cigarette burned out, she unconsciously lit another, in her head, and recalled Walter's words.

At the same time, a multiple choice question popped up subconsciously in her mind.

This multiple-choice question had two options.

Chapter 2324

Wang Dongxue's heart was incomparably painful because this was the cruelest choice she had ever faced in her twenty years of life.

Walter full name Walter Horowitz, American, the family is also a famous real estate developer in the United States.

He had been classmates with Wang Dongxue earlier and had always been very fond of him.

But since Walter was still under his family's nose at the time, he was not quite brave enough to go after an Asian woman in a dignified manner.

He now had enough resources as well as initiative in the family, and now that he had taken his business to Warsaw and started to enter the real estate sector in Warsaw, so he instantly started to let go of his ego.

The first thing he wanted to do in letting go of his ego was to re-conquer Wang Dongxue, his old classmate.

It wasn't just because, he had always had thoughts about Wang Dongxue.

More importantly, Wang Dongxue had made great achievements in the Dihao Group in the past few years, and her personal ability had been highly recognized by the entire real estate field.

She was not only capable, but also very knowledgeable about the Huaxia real estate industry.

For Walter, an American entrepreneur who just arrived in China, if he could take her as his own, it would not only be an excellent help, but also a way to avoid many, many detours.

In addition, there was another great value in Wang Dongxue, and that was that she knew all the confidential information of the Empire Group like the back of her hand.

The real estate industry seemed to be just building and selling buildings, not developing any high and new technology, nor producing any sophisticated equipment, as if there was not much technical content, nor would there be much confidential information.

But in fact, the real estate industry has more confidential information than most industries!

Because of the close proximity to the relevant departments, large real estate companies, often to a certain extent, have a grasp of the direction of urban planning and development.

For example, a certain piece of land is likely to be planned for development in the future, a certain area is likely to cover rail transit in the future, and all of this is confidential information that is worth a million dollars.

In addition, every piece of land and every project has to be tendered, and the bottom of this tender is the absolute core secret, once leaked, it will bring huge losses to the company.

So, Walter's wishful thinking is to be able to bag Wang Dongxue, and then digest the confidential information she holds about the Empire Group.

Right after that, then targeted, step by step to empty the Emperor Howe Group, and finally seize the entire Jinling market by the way.

At this moment, Walter looked playfully at the photo of Wang Dongxue in his phone, and recited the words, "Wang Dongxue, this time, I must completely and utterly conquer you!"

Chapter 2325

The next day, Ye Chen went out and bought a few rosewood jewelry boxes to hold the pills he was going to give to the crowd in the evening.

After all, it was a life-saving miracle cure in the eyes of the public, and more or less had to be paired with a passable package.

On the way home after buying the jewelry box, Ye Chen received a call from Richard Chen.

As soon as the call came through, Richard Chen was very excited and said, "Young Master! The illegal fundraising case against the owner of the old house was decided this morning!"

"Oh?" Ye Chen hurriedly asked, "How so?"

Richard Chen was busy, "It's like this, the person, is sentenced to a life sentence and confiscation of all assets to repay the defendant's debts, so now all the assets under his name will enter the judicial auction process, including the old mansion you've been following."

"Great!" Ye Chen immediately instructed, "Old Chen, help me put my name on the list, I want to participate!"

Richard Chen said, "Young Master don't worry, I've already submitted my name in the name of one of my drivers, after all, that mansion was once lived in by you and your parents, if your name appears in the list of bidders again, I'm afraid that someone will deduce your identity, so I took the liberty, please don't blame me!"

Ye Chen lamented, "I'm owed consideration for that, so let's enter the bidding in your driver's name and auction off that mansion no matter what. Say Hen."

Chen Zhai Kai smiled, "Young Master, don't worry, that old mansion has long been included in the scope of protected buildings that are prohibited from demolition, it hardly has any circulation value, so the starting price is only eighty-eight million, I don't think there will be anyone to steal it from you, and even if there is, when the price goes to two or three million, it's probably safe to take it."

"Good." Ye Chen put his mind at ease and asked him, "When will the auction start?"

Richard Chen replied, "It's tentatively set for next Monday at 10 am."

Ye Chen asked again, "Then will you go to the court for the auction or online?"

Richard Chen explained, "Now that the judicial auction is basically online and open and transparent, I've already had people sign up and pay the bidding deposit, just wait until next Monday at ten o'clock in the morning and start bidding on the judicial auction website."

"Good!" Ye Chen smiled slightly and praised, "Old Chen, this matter is well done, hard work."

Chen Zekai was busy saying, "Young Master, you are too polite, these small things are all a matter of raising your hand."

Ye Chen lamented, "To you, it's a hand up, but to me, it means too much."

After saying that, Ye Chen's heart also inevitably surged with desolation.

Although his parents had passed away for nearly twenty years, it still made Ye Chen feel more than heartache whenever he thought of them.

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past two years.

She excitedly said to the old housekeeper on the spot, "Uncle Wang, please help me to report my name, I want to participate in this auction!"

The old housekeeper nodded and said, "Okay Second Miss, I'll arrange for someone to help you sign up."

Du Haiqing said, "Then it will be hard for Uncle Wang to help me solve these problems, and I'll go back to my room to make a phone call."

The old housekeeper immediately said, "Yes, Second Miss."

She knew that Su Shou Dao had gone to Australia, but she hadn't contacted Su Shou Dao in the past two days.

Su Shoudao also didn't take the initiative to contact Du Haiqing and his couple of children because he was in an extremely depressed mood and felt disgraced.

Chapter 2326

In the past few days since he came to Australia, his mood has been very low, not only because his wife Du Haiqing wants to divorce him, but also because after the scandal was exposed, his image in everyone's mind has been turned upside down.

Now the outside world's evaluation of him is simply the most scummy man in Huaxia in recent years, none other.

Because, not only did he mess around and have an illegitimate daughter behind his wife's back, he also disguised his illegitimate daughter.

He also disguised his illegitimate daughter as a bodyguard to take her home and receive her under the nose of his wife and children.

That's not all.

The most reviled thing about him is that he teamed up with the Japanese Self-Defense Force to get his own daughter killed in order to avoid a scandal.

What is this?

This is a brute who cheated on his wife, kept the secret from everyone, used his illegitimate daughter as a killing tool, and killed her for his own benefit.

It can even be said that once a person combines so many sins into one, he may not even be as good as an animal.

That would be worse than a beast!

Although Su Shoudao knows that all these are the charges that the old man Su Chengfeng forcefully threw on himself in order to dump the blame.

But he was also very clear that once these charges were put on his head, he would not be able to clear himself of them.

Every time he thought of this, Su Shoudao gnashed his teeth in hatred.

Because he even had a premonition that he might not be able to get rid of these curses for the rest of his life.

It is true that Su Shou Dao is not a reputation-seeking person, but what worries him most is whether he will still have the chance to inherit the Su family once he has these curses.

After all, he could break the jar and not care about the curses, but not the Su family.

In the future, when the old man handed over the power, he might think that his reputation was too bad and refuse to give himself the supreme power to run the Su family.

The thought of this made Su Shoudao's teeth itch with hatred!

"By what?! Why should I have to take the blame for something the old man himself started? Why would the old man put my daughter in the middle of nowhere, in the middle of life and in the middle of death, while he put me in the middle of the night!"

He couldn't help but curse, picked up a half-drunk bottle of vodka next to him, and plunged it into the roiling sea below.

At that moment, the phone suddenly rang.

The name on the phone screen startled him.

"Wife?" Su Shou Dao was confused for a moment, then hurriedly grabbed the phone, pressed answer, and blurted out, "Honey! You're finally willing to call me!"

The first thing that I want to do is to tell you that I'm not going to be able to do anything about the divorce.

Su Shoudao didn't expect that the purpose of Du Haiqing's call was to communicate with him about the divorce, and he felt a sudden surge of anger from his heart.

He couldn't help but say in a cold voice: "Du Haiqing, as long as we haven't divorced, we are still husband and wife, you went to Jinling without my consent during the marriage relationship, I didn't stop you and didn't blame you for this matter, it is also considered to give you face."

"But you're in Jinling, and you even called me to ask for a divorce, isn't that a bit too much? Don't you really care at all about the love we've been married for over twenty years?!"

Chapter 2327

Hearing Su Shoudao's accusation, Du Haiqing did not get angry, but said indifferently, "Su Shoudao, if you have self-awareness, you should know that you are standing in a moral depression right now, if you still have to forcefully seize the moral high ground at this time, then it's really disappointing."

Saying that, Du Haiqing added: "This thing of love is not something that can be earned by mouth, but something that can be maintained by actual actions, I just filed for divorce with you, and you think that I don't look at love, but your child outside, are already over twenty years old, you have hidden it from me for so many years, in the past so many years, have you ever thought about our love as husband and wife? "

Su Shou Dao's entire body slumped when he heard this.

"Yeah ..... To accuse Du Haiqing of being unfeeling now is almost like slapping my own face ..... After all, I'm the one who's really done wrong, and I've been wrong for over twenty years ....."

Just when he didn't know how to answer Du Haiqing, Du Haiqing sighed slightly, "Hey, let's not talk about that, I called you, just to get the divorce done as soon as possible, because I want to settle in Jinling in the future, even if I don't, at least I have to live in Jinling for a period of time, so getting a divorce as soon as possible is also for your consideration, so that people don't gossip about you as a result. "

Du Haiqing didn't make her words too clear, but Su Shoudao had already gotten the hidden meaning of her words.

Du Haiqing meant that she wanted to stay and settle in Jinling, and if those big families in Yanjing knew about this, everyone could guess why she stayed in Jinling, and to put it bluntly, it was for Ye Changya.

If Du Haiqing and Su Shoudao still had a husband and wife relationship, then Du Haiqing's settlement in Jinling for the sake of Ye Changya would indeed, to a certain extent, affect Su Shoudao's face.

But if the marriage was divorced, it would still be able to save some face for Su Shou Dao, to a certain extent.

Su Shou Dao was furious in his heart, but he couldn't say anything to accuse or oppose.

He had clearly realized in his heart that he no longer had any possibility of salvaging Du Haiqing, and this woman was already determined to divorce him .....

When he thought of this, he hated Ye Changya even more in his heart.

"He's been dead for so many years, and he's still profoundly influencing Du Haiqing."

"That's fine, but now he's even hooked Du Haiqing to Jinling!"

"In Du Haiqing's eyes, this guy who's been dead for over twenty years is much more important than me!"

On the other end of the phone, Du Haiqing didn't hear Su Shoudao's response for half a day, so he continued to speak: "After all, husband and wife are one, it's better to leave well enough alone."

Su Shou Dao was silent for a moment, took a deep breath: "Hiss ..... You also said, after all, it's a husband and wife, and it's been so many years, let me think about this matter."

Du Haiqing hmmm, said: "You consider it at any time to give me a call, Yanjing departments have relationships, divorce this kind of thing, it is not necessary for both of us to go, as long as we have coordinated, each sent a lawyer to do this thing."

"Good." Su Shoudao said, "Consider it over, I will contact you first."

"Okay, that's first."

In the afternoon, after having lunch at home, Ye Chen prepared to go out with the pills he had refined.

Because he promised Qin Ao Xue that he would come to her home ahead of time to give her some guidance, so Ye Chen made the afternoon free ahead of time.

To make it easier for him to carry the pills, he said to his father-in-law, Xiao Changkun, "Dad, do you have any plans for the afternoon?"

Xiao Changkun smiled and said, "I'm still going to the Painting and Calligraphy Association in the afternoon, and we have a dinner party with the Sotheby's auction house executives in the evening."

Chapter 2328

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Then you definitely want to drink tonight, right?"

"Right." Xiao Changkun smiled, "More or less, what's wrong with it?"

Ye Chen then said, "Oh yeah, I have something to do this afternoon, if it's convenient for you, Dad, you can give me the car this afternoon."

Without hesitation, Xiao Changkun handed the car key to Ye Chen and spoke, "What's so inconvenient about it, you take it and drive it, it's just that I want to drink at night, and if I drive, I have to find a substitute driver, so it's much more convenient to take a taxi."

Xiao Churan at the side then said, "Dad, then I'll go to the office later, it's just on my way to take you to the Painting and Calligraphy Association."

Xiao Changkun smiled, "Yes, this will also save the money for a taxi ride."

After Xiao Changkun and Xiao Churan's father and daughter left, Ye Chen took the pills from his room, put them into an inconspicuous shoulder bag, and stepped away from the house.

He drove into Xiao Changkun's car and headed straight to Qin Gang's villa in the suburbs.

Meanwhile, at the Jinling People's Hospital, Wang Dongxue had just finished delivering food to her mother and immediately went to the office of the director of the nephrology department to catch up on her father's current condition.

The nephrology department director Chen, who was over sixty years old, pushed up his glasses and said seriously, "Wang Dong, I won't lie to you, your father's current condition is very serious, and that kidney in his body is now completely useless ....."

"We now have to perform peritoneal dialysis on him every day, and hemodialysis every other day, and his complications are getting worse."

"This morning I went over to do a check up and found that his condition today, compared to yesterday, has slipped quite a bit ....."

"Yesterday, I also communicated with your mother that there is about a twenty day window for transplantation, but after another assessment today, the situation is not promising, and I personally feel that the cycle may have to be shortened to about fifteen days."

At this point, Director Chen sighed and said helplessly, "There are still fifteen days left in the transplant window, excluding the time for pre-op preparation, you have at most twelve days to look for a kidney source, and if you can't find one, then there's really nothing you can do."

Wang Dongxue's tears, suddenly uncontrolled, came out of her eyes instantly.

She hurriedly wiped away her tears and asked anxiously, "Director Chen, how could my father's condition decline so much? The kidney he has now has just been transplanted for two years. You were the one who performed the transplant, and you said that his life would not be in danger for at least ten years, but it's only been two years ....."

I also tried to find out if he had ingested any toxic substances, but I couldn't find any clues.

Wang Dongxue asked: "Director Chen, what kind of toxic substance could cause rapid kidney failure?"

Director Chen nodded and said: "Some Chinese herbs have strong nephrotoxicity, such as Aristolochia is one of them, the country has long since moved this drug out of the Chinese medicine dictionary, but there are still some unscrupulous herbalists, in order to allow patients to quickly take effect, will secretly add Aristolochia in the prescription inside, and eventually lead to severe kidney damage ....."

Director Chen sighed and said, "The indiscriminate purchase of health supplements, the indiscriminate use of herbal medications, and the indiscriminate listening to rumors of health maintenance are also a major cause of kidney failure among middle-aged and elderly people in recent years ....."

"Moreover, these middle-aged and elderly people are easily fooled by unscrupulous TV commercials, cell phone ads and so-called health gurus, and lack the ability to discriminate."

"We have a director of thoracic surgery in our hospital, his father has always despised him as a student of Western medicine, and does not know how to distinguish between good and bad Chinese medicine, every day blindly believe in those TV health programs ....."

"Last year, he felt as if he had some frequent urination, according to what the health program said, he gave himself a pair of traditional Chinese medicine, every day to boil himself three bowls, secretly drank, drank three days, acute kidney failure sent to the hospital ....."

"The person didn't even survive forty-eight hours in the hospital, and then he was gone."

Chapter 2329

"Director Chen, before and after my father's illness this time, I really did not see him take any unknown drugs, did not see him take his own cooked Chinese medicine, much less contact with Aristolochia ....."

Said Wang Dongxue, "After his last kidney transplant, his overall physical state is very healthy, with a relatively mild form of diabetes, so he has been taking metformin slow release tablets, but this drug is very safe for the kidneys, it is impossible to cause acute kidney failure ah ....."

Director Chen nodded and said: "I just said Aristolochia, just to give you an example, but, the ingredients that can trigger acute kidney failure, far more than Aristolochia this kind of, there are many many chemicals, organic compounds, all have great nephrotoxicity. Say "

Wang Dongxue pursued, "Director Chen, then is there any way to ascertain what caused my father's acute kidney failure?"

Director Chen said, "I've sent your father's blood and urine to the laboratory for testing, but this series of tests is very troublesome, and I'm afraid it will be difficult to find a clear result for a while. Little"

Saying that, he also instructed, "Wang Dong, the priority now is not to find out the cause of your father's kidney failure, but to solve the problem of the kidney source as soon as possible, that's the most crucial ah!"

Wang Dongxue was extremely helpless with a light sigh, declining, "I have raised the price to 10 million RMB this morning, but my father is rh-negative blood, and this one alone is stuck with more than 99% of the kidney source ....."

Director Chen nodded and said seriously, "Wang Dong, the current situation is really helpless, my side has also mobilized the friends I know to help you find out all over the country, but there is still no news yet. Say"

At this point, Director Chen sighed and whispered, "Wang Dong, I advise you to be psychologically prepared ....."

Wang Dongxue was silent for a moment, nodded slightly and said weakly, "Thank you Director Chen, I know, I'll think of something else ....."

"Good. Xuan" Director Chen consoled, "But don't be too pessimistic, I have been in medicine for so many years, I have seen and heard of many miracles, many of which I still can't understand ....."

"Someone was declared to have only a few months left to live because of advanced cancer, but after he left the hospital, he was able to be extremely optimistic about his future life, and was even able to live each day as if it were his last, such a person instead kept on surviving for three, five, or even ten years, and instead of the cancer cells in his body expanding further, he seemed to feel some kind of power, It started to lose all out ....."

"There is also a very miraculous case that happened at our Jinling People's Hospital, a paraplegic patient who healed in no time at all ....."

Wang Dongxue thought that Director Chen was comforting her, so she nodded gently, but in her heart she didn't think that such a miracle was possible at all. Said

Other than that, there was no other way.

She really did not expect that her father's condition, which had already worsened to such an extent, would accelerate again.

The twenty-day window period had suddenly turned into fifteen days.

This was not yet known, tomorrow, the day after tomorrow, would this window period continue to shorten.

Just a few meters out of the distance, she suddenly received a call from Ye Chen.

At this time, Ye Chen was on his way to Qin Gang's house and remembered that Wang Dongxue had yet to give a definitive answer, so he called her to ask if she was available at night or not.

Chapter 2330

As soon as the call came through, Wang Dongxue said respectfully, "Young Master, what do you want?"

Ye Chen smiled, "Nothing to order, just the same thing we talked about yesterday, are you free tonight? If you have time, come to Qin's house to get together, you all came to see me at home during the New Year, but I have not been able to open up everyone to eat a meal together since the New Year until now, quite unpleasant."

Wang Dongxue reluctantly smiled and said, "Young Master, why are you still so polite with me ....."

Ye Chen smiled and said, "Harm, it's not a matter of being polite or not, it's a matter of courtesy! I have prepared a small gift for everyone, it's not worth much, it's just a small token of appreciation, if you have time then come over and sit down, if you don't have time it doesn't matter, I'll send the gift to you later."

As soon as Wang Dongxue heard this, she hurriedly said, "Young Master! Where can I get you to condescend to deliver something to me ..... How about this, you give me a time and place, I will definitely go over there in the evening ....."

Ye Chen then said, "That's good, I'll send you the time and place WeChat later."

Wang Dongxue busily said, "Okay young master!"

After saying that, he said somewhat less than kindly, "Young Master, I may not be able to stay too long at night, and I may have to leave early then, please forgive me!"

Ye Chen said without a care in the world, "It's fine, just watch your schedule and don't delay yourself."

Wang Dongxue was slightly relieved.

In fact, with the state of her entire body right now, she was not interested in any dinner party.

After all, her father was dying in his hospital bed, at such a time, not to mention going to catch a dinner party, even eating, in Wang Dongxue's opinion, had lost the necessity.

Since last night until now, she had not eaten a drop of rice except for a few sips of water, but she still did not have any hunger.

However, after all, Ye Chen is his own boss, and he is so kindly invited, which made Wang Dongxue feel that it is not quite appropriate not to go, so they decided to go over there in the evening and sit down.

After making a decision, she put the phone back into her pocket, and then walked back.

Back to the door of the ward, you can hear the sound of sobbing inside the ward, Wang Dongxue under the heart of a tight, hurriedly pushed the door, only to see the suite outside the ward in a small living room, Mom is sitting on the sofa, crying, while her college classmate Walter, is a face of laughter in front of Mom standing.

At this moment, Wang Dongxue instantly exploded, and she snapped, "Walter! Who told you to come? What did you say to my mom?!"

Walter turned around and saw Wang Dongxue back, smiled slightly and said: "Dongxue, I came to say with Auntie, the United States over the kidney things, a little change."

He said, not waiting for Wang Dongxue to ask a follow-up question, he exclaimed: "Hey! Dongxue, RH negative blood is too rare, RH negative kidney source is even more rare, this kidney source, is now being fought over by a French patient, the French price is also very high, coupled with my side of the delay to determine with the donor, the donor side has been a bit wobbly ....."

Walter smiled, "I mean simply, Winter Snow! This kidney source can be said to be one in a million, and the owner of this kidney source is willing to sell a kidney for cash, so as long as you agree to my conditions, I can let him undergo kidney removal surgery in the United States today, and then order someone to freeze the kidney, transported to Warsaw, tomorrow can be transplanted to uncle ..... But ....."

At this point, Walter smacked his lips: "Tsk tsk ..... But if you don't agree, then the donor will probably be sold to the French instead, and you know that people only have two kidneys, and if you want to live you have to keep at least one, and if he sells one of the kidneys to the French, he will never be able to take out another kidney to sell to me!"

"So, you must carefully consider my conditions, because there is not much time left for you!"
