

Identity 531

Chapter 531

Ma Lan didn't know that Xiao Chang Qian and Qian Hongyan, had begun to covet her assets, as well as her son-in-law Ye Chen's set of Townsend's villa.

She was at Chen Shu Yi's house, rubbing mahjong with her card players, and didn't come home until dinner time, when the four old ladies ordered some KFC take-out, each holding a family bucket, chewing on chicken legs while rubbing the mahjong to a greasy shine.

Ye Chen had cooked dinner and was eating with his wife and father-in-law, Xiao Churan saw that his mother was not back yet, and inevitably complained, saying, "Dad ah, you occasionally control my mother, don't always let her play like this all day long!"

"Mind her?" Xiao Changkun snorted and laughed, leaving his mouth open, "I don't have the ability to control you, if I could control your mother, why would I be like this today? Do you know why your grandmother prefers your uncle and doesn't care about me?"

Xiao Chu Ran asked in surprise, "It's not because of my mother, is it?"

"It's because of her!" Xiao Changkun sighed and said, "Your grandfather and your grandmother didn't allow the two of us to get married in the first place, if it wasn't for the fact that your mother was unmarried and pregnant with you already, your grandfather wouldn't have finally compromised."

Ye Chen listened in amazement, never thought that his mother-in-law and father-in-law were still running with the ball in the first place ah!

Xiao Changkun then said to Xiao Choran, "Actually, ah, your grandmother has never liked your mother, and she hasn't changed in over twenty years."

"Why ah?" Xiao Choran was puzzled and asked, "What is there to be dissatisfied with, it's time to let go of stereotypes even after more than twenty years, right?"

Xiao Changkun said, "Your grandmother said that your mother is a shrew and that she thinks your mother's family is poorer."

Xiao Choran sighed in embarrassment and said, "To put it bluntly, my grandmother isn't much better than my mother, right ....."

"You're right." Xiao Changkun nodded and said, "I think the reason why your grandmother doesn't like your mother is that she's too much like herself ....."

Xiao Choran rubbed her temples and muttered in a low voice, "I think you have a point ....."

Ye Chen at the side didn't say anything, but in his heart he also agreed with Xiao Changkun's words.

Old Mrs. Xiao was the Great Devil King and Ma Lan was the Little Devil King, and the Great Devil King had a day when he would grow old, so when she saw the Little Devil King, she would be afraid that one day she would grow old and the Little Devil King would become the Great Devil King and then start oppressing her.

So that's why she's always oppressing Ma Lan.

The Chinese relationship between in-laws and daughters-in-law is very delicate, but in the end, it's all about one thing: the mother-in-law wants to hold on to her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law desperately wants to get rid of her mother-in-law's control.

Especially for a woman like Old Mrs. Xiao who is particularly controlling, I'm afraid no one can stand it.

At this time, the TV that has been playing Jinling news, suddenly interrupted a news broadcast.

The host said, "The following inserted an urgent news, a few days ago, the president of Japan's Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Corporation, Masao Kobayashi died unexpectedly in Tokyo, according to Japanese media, Kobayashi Masao's cause of death, was poisoned by his eldest son, Ichiro Kobayashi, autopsy results also showed that Kobayashi Masao took drugs with a strong euphoric effect, resulting in a heart overload and sudden heart attack death."

At this point, the host said: "Interpol received the news that Kobayashi Ichiro is currently hiding in Jinling, and now the Kobayashi family is offering a reward of three billion yen to hunt down Kobayashi Ichiro, so a large number of Japanese assassins and gang members have entered Jinling, and the police are actively hunting down these killers, so please be vigilant and call the police immediately if you find any suspicious people!"

When Xiao Changkun heard this, he smacked his lips and said, "This Kobayashi Ichiro is also a real beast, he even spared his own father in order to inherit the family fortune!"

He was bent on curing his father's paralysis, so he could be considered a great filial son.

Chapter 532

Unfortunately, the grandson had committed the crime at his own hands, so this great filial son had now become an animal that everyone spat on.

After two days of fermentation, the death of Masao Kobayashi, the chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, had sparked huge concern in Japan.

Under the vigorous propaganda of Kobayashi Masao's second son, Kobayashi Jiro, Kobayashi Ichiro had become the culprit for poisoning his biological father and attempting to invade Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

The whole of Japan is cursing Kobayashi Ichiro, that he is Japan's most unfilial animals, people nicknamed the shame of Japan.

At the same time, Kobayashi Jiro has raised the reward for the hunt for Kobayashi Ichiro all the way from one billion yen to three billion.

He now wants to quickly secure his position as chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co. so he must make sure his brother dies quickly and never return to Japan before he dies.

He is also very clear that his brother was never intending to kill his father, otherwise he would never have remotely killed his father while he was in China, so that if his father dies, he can't take over immediately, wouldn't it be a waste of his own money?

Therefore, he could also guess that the big brother was now wronged to death.

After all, the fact that Kobayashi Pharmaceutical had given Ye Chen 10 billion RMB was enough to see that the person behind the whole thing was actually Ye Chen.

However, there was nothing that big brother could do no matter how wronged he was, he wasn't wronged, he was the eldest son succeeding the throne, so how could he have anything to do with himself?

If this second son of his own wanted to go against the grain, he had to crush his eldest son.

It was because of this that he couldn't wait for his eldest brother to die in Jinling.

Because if Kobayashi Ichiro could never open his mouth again, then he would be able to sit in a more secure position.

From his actions of constantly raising the bounty, it was also clear that this man was now very eager to kill Kobayashi Ichiro as soon as possible.

So Ye Chen sent a WeChat to Hong Fifth, asking him to contact Kobayashi Jiro and offer one billion RMB, if he came up with one billion, he would sell Kobayashi Jiro to him, if he couldn't, he would escort Kobayashi Jiro back to Tokyo for a press conference to clarify the reason, and then openly compete with him for the Kobayashi Pharmaceutical heir.

Ye Chen thought very simply, if Kobayashi Jiro wanted to hold on to his position as chairman, he had to cooperate with himself, otherwise, he would let Kobayashi Ichiro go and mess things up for him, and then if the two brothers shared Kobayashi Pharmaceutical equally, Kobayashi Jiro's losses would far exceed one billion RMB.

Without saying a word, Hongwu immediately got in touch with Kobayashi Jiro and told him about Ye Chen's request, in its original form.

One billion RMB?

Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals had given Ye Chen 10 billion RMB for that poison recipe!

This matter of ten billion dollars, or Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals voluntarily to the first, is the father on the other side of the deceit.

This thing is pretty damned annoying to think about, dad spent ten billion, bought a poison, and then also eaten himself to death, life also took into.

If word got out about this deal, it would be the first injustice of all time.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest version of this article. You think you run a bank?

Chapter 533

Kobayashi Jiro did hate mad Ye Chen.

However, he didn't dare to offend Ye Chen ten thousand times.

So, he could only bargain with Mr. Hong Fifth.

With a very pious tone, he said, "Mr. Hong, please convey to Mr. Ye that there is only a total of 200-300 million RMB on Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's account, and many of the sales channels have yet to pay us back, we still owe billions of RMB in bank loans, and we are under a lot of pressure now!"

Master Hong V said, "Mr. Ye has always said one thing, so you shouldn't imagine that you can bargain with Mr. Ye!"

Kobayashi Jiro begged, "Mr. Hong, I'm in a really difficult situation ah, how about this, you let Mr. Ye defer me for two months, after two months, I will definitely give the money over, but during these two months, I must not let my brother show his face and voice, let alone let him go back to Japan!"

"Two months ....." Master Hongwu thought about it and said, "Wait a moment, I'll ask Mr. Ye."

After saying that, he immediately sent a WeChat to Ye Chen, telling him about Kobayashi Jiro's request to pay in two months.

Ye Chen was clearing the table, and when he saw this WeChat, he replied without hesitation, "Tell him that if he bargains with me again, I'll go talk to his brother, and then I'll send his brother back to Japan to rob the family fortune from him, and even if I ask his brother for 5 billion, he'll agree."

Kobayashi Ichiro was still hiding in Master Hongwu's dog farm, and he knew that there were countless people out there who were thinking about wanting his life, so he spent his days in fear.

In his opinion, he might die someday, so if at this time, Ye Chen gave him a chance to go back to Japan and reclaim his family fortune, he wouldn't hesitate even if he gave Ye Chen all 80 of his looted family fortune.

When Hong Fifth received Ye Chen's just, he immediately said to Kobayashi Jiro, "Kobayashi, you are bargaining with Mr. Ye for one billion, but have you ever thought that if Mr. Ye had a good chat with your brother Kobayashi Ichiro and sent him back to Japan to rob the family fortune from you, Kobayashi Ichiro might agree to pay Mr. Ye two billion or three billion! By then, you won't lose a billion dollars! As far as I know, your Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is also a company with a market capitalization of several tens of billions of RMB!"

As soon as Kobayashi Jiro heard this, he immediately gritted his teeth and said without hesitation, "Mr. Hong, please tell Mr. Ye that I agree to this! I'm going to raise the money now!"

In fact, although there was not much money left in the accounts of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, there was still a lot of money deposited in the private account of Kobayashi Jiro's father, Kobayashi Masanao.

This money was supposed to be divided between the two brothers as their father's inheritance, but as long as his own brother, Kobayashi Ichiro, died, then Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, as well as all the deposits, cash, antiques, and real estate left by his father, all belonged to him alone.

So, he didn't dare to delay any longer, and after only ten minutes, he put the money into Ye Chen's account, and at the same time called Hong Fifth and said, "Mr. Hong, the money has been remitted to Mr. Ye's account, please let Mr. Ye check it, and by the way, please also ask Mr. Ye to send my brother on his way as soon as possible after receiving the money, I hope he dies early!"

Master Hong Fifth was full of promise and said, "Mr. Ye has always valued credibility the most, so don't worry, as long as the money is received, I will definitely settle your brother once and for all and let him just vanish from the earth."

After hanging up the phone, Master Hong Fifth immediately sent a WeChat to Ye Chen, asking, "Master Ye, have you received the money from Kobayashi Jiro?"

Ye Chen replied, "Roger that."

Chapter 534

Master Hongwu asked hurriedly, "Then should I kill Kobayashi Ichiro right now? And then make a video for Jiro Kobayashi to see?"

Ye Chen replied, "You hide Kobayashi Ichiro, then find someone who can do special effects and make a fake video of Kobayashi Ichiro's head exploding and send it to Kobayashi Jiro, make sure he believes his brother is dead."

Surprised, Master Hong V asked, "Master Ye, you're leaving Kobayashi Ichiro alive?"

Ye Chen said, "That's right, keep Kobayashi Ichiro, he will still be of great use in the future, maybe one day we can use him to get Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, killing him for a billion is too cheap for that Kobayashi Jiro."

Then, Ye Chen said, "Also, you shouldn't think about any jianghu morality in this matter, after all, we don't have any morality to speak of with the Japanese, on the contrary, the more you can screw them over, the better!"

"I get it!" Master Hong Fifth hurriedly said, "Don't worry, I'll arrange for more manpower to protect Kobayashi Ichiro properly!"

At this moment, the Song family mansion.

The Song family's entire family was discussing the matter of the Xiao Lin Pharmaceutical while eating in the restaurant.

Song Ji Mo, Song's oldest son, spoke up after seeing the news about Xiao Lin Pharmaceutical, "I always have a feeling that this matter of Xiao Lin Pharmaceutical has something to do with Master Ye Chen Ye."

Song Wanting, who had just chucked up a piece of broccoli, suddenly paused and silently put the broccoli in her bowl, not eating or speaking.

At the side, her cousin Song Honor spoke up, "Grandpa, I also have the same feeling, I heard that Kobayashi Masanao, of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, took a special medicine that cured paralysis before suddenly dying violently, and I also heard that Kobayashi Ichiro had asked Dr. Shi for a recipe for curing hemiplegia at the Jinling Chinese Medicine Exposition before, I presume that Dr. Shi cured hemiplegia before. The medicine used should be the one Ye Chen gave you to take."

Master Song immediately said, "Honor, Master Ye's name is not something you can directly address!"

Song Honor hurriedly changed his words, "I'm sorry grandpa, I didn't react at the moment, I think that the medicine used by Doctor Shi should be the same as the one that Master Ye gave you."

Master Song saw that he changed his mind quickly and was sincere, which was why he nodded in approval and exclaimed, "I feel the same way, Shi Tianqi's medical skills are indeed very good, but not to the point of reviving the dead and turning decay into magic, only Master Ye's divine medicine can have this kind of effect."

Saying that, Master Song couldn't help but sigh again and said, "The medicine that Master Ye bestowed last time was indeed very effective, my body was already a dying man before, and I felt much stronger after eating it, but it may be that I was too sick before, and now although it is not life-threatening, my body is still more or less languishing, or old me ....."

Song Honor at the side hurriedly said, "Grandpa, why don't I go find Master Ye again and ask him for a divine pill, or buy you a divine pill! If you can take another divine pill, I'm sure your health will be greatly relieved!"

Master Song hurriedly waved his hand and said, "No, no, Master Ye has already given the Song family face by bestowing the medicine, and we still haven't properly returned this favor to him, taking the risk to ask for the medicine again would make us look greedy and insatiable and without self-awareness!"

Chapter 535

Song Honor couldn't quite understand the kind of respect that grandfather had for Ye Chen.

Song honored Ye Chen as if he was a god for similar reasons as Shi Tianqi, both of them were already old men in their twilight years, the older they got, the more they knew the fate of heaven and the more they feared it, to put it bluntly, they were afraid of death.

However, Song Honor is not even thirty this year, if you tell him that someone can let him live for five more years in the future, he may not even care, but for the old man in his twilight years, if someone can let him live for five more years, that is the true god in his eyes, comparable to a living Bodhisattva.

Song Wanting could more or less understand her grandfather's mental thoughts, after all, unlike Song Honor, she also had a divine medicine gifted by Ye Chen, which had been hidden in the car by herself, unknown to anyone but herself and Ye Chen.

With that medicine, Song Wanting felt an unprecedented sense of peace of mind, because she knew that if anything untoward happened to her, as long as this medicine was in her hand, she would have a chance to turn the tide against the wind and survive as a Jedi.

This kind of chance was not something that anyone would find remarkable just by saying it to others, and that was because they knew that it couldn't possibly have anything to do with them.

Song Honor was the same.

He knew that Ye Chen's divine medicine was precious, if he could get his hands on one, he would definitely use it to flatter the old master, and then try to make the old master look at him more highly, maybe he would be able to inherit more assets from the Song family in the future, he wouldn't be like Song Wanting, who would leave the medicine in his hands.

It wasn't that Song Wanting wasn't filial to the old man, but more often than not she felt that this medicine represented Ye Chen's concern for her.

Ye Chen definitely wanted her to keep this medicine in her hand, so deep inside, she didn't want to disappoint Ye Chen's hopes for her, and she didn't want to use what Ye Chen gave her to gain her grandfather's appreciation.

At this time, Old Master Song suddenly remembered something and said out of the blue, "Right, Honor, Wan Ting, if you two have nothing to do after dinner later, let's go to the Qingshan Mental Hospital together."

"Qingshan Mental Hospital?!" Song Honor was surprised and asked, "Grandpa, why do you want us to go there? What can I do for you?"

Master Song said, "The descendant of the Suhang Wu family has come to Jinling, I heard that something happened to a younger member of the family, that's why I rushed over urgently."

Said Master Song, "The one who came is Wu Donghai, the eldest son of the Wu family, the same generation as your father, but your father isn't in Jinling right now, so it's not appropriate for me, as his elder, to go over there, so you and Wanting will go over and visit, after all, our two families have always had a good relationship."

Song Honor nodded and suddenly realized, "I remember, the kid who lost his mind and snatched shit from everywhere on Shakespeare some time ago, it seems like he's the Wu family's junior, right?"

"Oy brother ....." Song Wanting put down her chopsticks and said helplessly, "Still eating, why do you have to talk about those disgusting things ....."

The first thing you need to do is to tell your family that you're not going to be able to go over to visit them, so that they don't get offended. The old man says hello."

"Good grandfather." Song Honor hurriedly nodded.

The Suhang Wu family, the number one family in Jiangnan, was a head above the Song family in strength, the Song family could be ranked in the top five in Jiangnan, but couldn't get into the top three.

These big families at the top were actually quite close to each other in terms of walking around and contacting each other, and whoever usually arrived at their home turf, the hosts would also do their best to entertain and show their sincerity.

Chapter 536

Song Wanting then asked, "Grandpa, do you want to bring any gifts over?"

Master Song said, "A few years ago, someone else gave me a piece of cold jade that has a calming effect, you bring it over to Wu Donghai, let's say it's for that sick junior in their family, the effect shouldn't be much, but it's better than nothing."

Song Wanting nodded her head and said, "Okay grandpa, I know."

At that moment, Master Song stood up and said to Song Wanting, "Wanting, you come with me."

"Okay grandpa." Unsure of the reason, Song Wanting hurriedly got up and followed her grandfather to his study.

In the study, Master Song sat trembling on the mahogany seat and opened his mouth to ask Song Wanting, "Wan Ting ah, I'm asking you, how has your progress with Master Ye been recently?"

When Song Wanting heard this, her face turned red and said, "Grandpa, I .....I .....That ....."

Master Song laughed, "You child, what else are you embarrassed about? Just say what you have to say!"

Song Wanting said awkwardly, "Grandpa, Master Ye has actually been quite busy lately, and the two of us have hardly had the chance to meet ....."

Master Song's expression was a bit disappointed and said, "Wanting, you can't spend so much time! You are still young, but grandpa is already dying, you can wait, but grandpa can't wait a few years ah ....."

Saying that, Master Song hurriedly added, "Wan Ting, Grandpa is not saying this to give you moral kidnapping, nor to force you to definitely do something with Master Ye, but mainly because Grandpa can also see that you truly like Master Ye in your heart, right?"

For Ye Chen, she was really becoming more and more devoted.

A strong woman like her loved just a man with ability, the more capable he was, the more attractive she felt.

Therefore, there was really no suspense for her to fall in love with Ye Chen, it was simply inevitable.

Master Song sighed lightly and said, "The only pity is that Master Ye got married too early, but in the modern society, everyone looks at these things very lightly, a man, second marriage is nothing at all, third marriage is not even called a thing, so you don't need to care about a man who has been married, you don't need to care about who his first wife is, you just need to know that all you have to do is to put a good man always stays by his side, even if he has been married ten times, as long as he stays by your side, it is more important than anything else."

Song Wanting nodded slightly and said piously, "Grandpa, I know what you're saying in my heart, but I'm just not good at chasing after Master Ye too closely for fear that he might resent me for it, because I've heard that Master Ye is still very good to his wife."

"Mm." Master Song said approvingly, "In this situation, you're right to play it safe and progress gradually and secretly."

Saying that, Master Song suddenly remembered something, busy saying, "Right, in a few days is my eightieth birthday, you should invite Master Ye over for the birthday banquet later, just take this opportunity to meet him and enhance your relationship with him as well."

Song Wanting busily said, "Okay grandpa, I know."

"Mm." Master Song nodded and said, "Alright, it's not too early, you should go with Honor to Qingshan Psychiatric Hospital to see that junior of the Wu family first."

Chapter 537

Soon, Song Honor drove Song Wanting out of the house and headed straight to the suburbs of Qingshan Psychiatric Hospital.

At this moment, the nurse at the Qingshan Psychiatric Hospital has just fed the crazy Wu Qi a full meal.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest addition to the newest product.

A few nurses endured nausea and carried the filth washed out of his stomach from the inside of the intensive care unit to the family rest room outside.

Wu Qi's father, Wu Donghai, and his brother, Wu Xin, were positively expressionless on the couch.

After the nurse came out, she respectfully said to the two of them, "Mr. Wu, young Mr. Wu, the patient has regained consciousness."

Wu Donghai asked with cold eyes, "Is the stomach lavage finished?"

The nurse nodded and whispered, "It's done washing!"

"Hmm." Wu Donghai asked again, "You guys sterilized what you fed this time, right?"

The nurse is busy: "Sterilized, we put in the autoclave high temperature autoclave sterilization, although it is true that the taste can not be eliminated, but you can be sure that there is no longer any bacteria and viruses inside .....".

Now, Wu Qi every hour are to "add food" iron law, to this day is still unchanged.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest version of this article.

So, he talked with his own medical experts, out of a temporary response plan, that is, each time to Wu Qi's "extra meals", in advance of the pressure cooker in the high-temperature sterilization half an hour, so at least not because of the "extra meals" and sick.

This, but also at this stage they can do the only buffer.

Wu Donghai looked at the few nurses, waved his hand dejectedly and said, "Alright, you guys go out, remember to prepare the next meal in advance."

The nurse nodded and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Wu, all eight of tonight's meals have been prepared in advance, each portion will be autoclaved and sterilized in advance, then placed at room temperature for the patient to prepare."

Only after a few nurses went out did Wu Xin whisper to Wu Donghai, "Dad, it's not a good idea to be like this all the time! Eating shit every hour, if this gets out, do we still want our Wu family's face?"

Wu Donghai asked rhetorically, "What then? You can't watch your brother die, can you?"

Wu Xin hurriedly said, "I didn't mean that, I was trying to say, why don't we take Xiao Qi back to Suhang first, staying here isn't a good idea, going back to our own home and using our own doctors and nurses is better than them, and keeping our mouths shut."

Wu Donghai said, "It's okay to let your brother go back, we can't leave yet."

"Why?" Wu Xin was surprised and asked, "What else can we do if we stay here?"

Wu Donghai said, "I suspect that it's no coincidence that your brother suddenly has this problem, there must be some clues behind it that we haven't found out yet, so I'm going to stay in Jinling for a while and investigate it properly, you stay with me."

When Wu Xin heard this, he nodded his head and said, "Okay dad, I'll stay with you."

Wu Donghai gave a hmmm and said, "In that case, tomorrow morning, let our family's doctor accompany your brother back first."

After saying that, he stood up and said, "Go, go in and see your brother."

Father and son got up and pushed open the door of the ward inside, and a disgusting fetid smell came over the door.

Although the window was open and the exhaust was also open, the smell really wouldn't dissipate for a while.

Chapter 538

Wu Qi lay on his bed, his eyes tearful and silent as he looked out the window, smelling the thick stench of his own breath, his whole body already feeling lifeless.

"Little Qi."

Seeing him so decrepit, Wu Donghai shouted out somewhat sadly.

Wu Qi didn't turn back, still staring out the window, choking, "Dad, you let me die, every hour I have to do something so disgusting, I'm really going to collapse ....."

Wu Donghai rushed forward, held his hand and said, "Good son, you have to remember the saying, better to live than to die!"

Wu Qi was in tears, "But who could live a more rotten life than me? If I have to live like this for the rest of my life, then I really want to die now and forget about it ....."

Wu Donghai was heartbroken and said seriously, "Xiao Qi, don't worry, no matter what method you use, Dad will heal you, Dad assures you!"

Wookie turned around, looked at his dad, and subconsciously asked, "Dad, is that true?"

As he spoke, a foul stench hit Wu Donghai's cheeks straight away.

Wu Donghai's eyes reddened by the smell, and he even shed two lines of tears, he could only resist the urge to vomit, nodding his head and saying, "It's true, don't worry!"

Saying that, Wu Donghai added, "I'll arrange for someone to send you back tomorrow, Dad will find the culprit who harmed you in Jinling and then find a cure for you, after you return home, you can rest at ease at home to recuperate and wait for good news from Dad!"

Only then did Wu Qi feel a glimmer of hope and nodded his head in excitement.

Wu Xin at the side couldn't help but sigh and said, "Little Qi, don't worry, if I were to find out who did this to you, I would kill him myself to avenge you!"

Wu Qi nodded his head in a touched voice and said, "Thank you brother!"

At that moment, the nurse knocked on the door, came in and said, "Mr. Wu and Ms. Wu, there is a Mr. Song and a Ms. Song who want to see you both."

"Mr. Song and Miss Song?" Wu Donghai frowned slightly and whirled around, "It should be someone from the Song family, please come in quickly."

After saying that, he hastily added, "Please go into the living room outside, don't bring it into the ward."

The nurse nodded and turned to leave.

Wu Xin was surprised and asked, "Dad, is it the Song family coming?"

"It should be." Wu Donghai said, "We've come to Jinling this time to do business, we haven't yet paid our respects to the Song family, so maybe the Song family has already received the news and has taken the initiative to come over."

The last time he had seen Song Wanting was three or four years ago, and at that time, Song Wanting was already very beautiful.

At that time, he had already had the idea of pursuing Song Wanting, after all, Song Wanting was not only pretty, highly educated, and capable, but more importantly, the Song family was not weak, and could be said to be a perfect match with the Wu family.

Only, he hadn't finished his studies yet, so he hadn't had time to pursue Song Wanting.

Later, when he returned to China, he was too busy accepting family business, not to mention coming to Jinling to pursue Song Wanting, so he kept this matter under wraps.

Now, when he heard that the Song family was here, the good feelings he had for Song Wanting all of a sudden resurfaced!

He couldn't help but hope in his heart that one of the two people who came would be Song Wanting!

Chapter 539

When the nurse brought Song Honor and Song Wanting into the outer hall of the ward, Wu Donghai and Wu Xin's father and son just happened to come out.

Wu Xin saw the pavilion-like, beautiful and incomparable Song Wanting at first glance, and was startled for a few seconds before she recovered.

Wu Donghai was also surprised to see Song Wanting.

He was Song Wanting's elder, so he didn't have much contact with Song Wanting, having not seen her for several years, but he didn't expect that this girl was growing more and more beautiful and touching, no less than those big stars!

Song Honor spoke very respectfully at this time, "Hello Uncle Wu, I am Song Honor of the Song family, this is my cousin Song Wanting, grandfather heard that you are in Jinling, so he asked us to come over to pay our respects."

Saying that, Song Honor said, "My father is temporarily out of Jinling, so I can't come over to pay my respects personally, please forgive me."

Wu Donghai hurriedly said, "Oh my, Uncle Song is really too polite!! I should have been the one to pay my respects to him, but something happened at home, so I never walked away, and it was a bit rude!"

Although there was a disparity in strength between the Wu family and the Song family, both belonged to the sequence of first-tier families in the south of the Yangtze River, so two such families should actually take the initiative to pay a visit no matter who arrived on their turf.

Under normal circumstances, if Wu Donghai came to Jinling, then the first thing he would do would be to pay a visit to the Song family, and the two families would walk around and enhance their relationship.

Therefore, he more or less felt bad about it.

The point was, his own family's situation was also really special, and this problem of his youngest son Wu Qi was really a bit humiliating to say out.

So, he then said very frankly, "Oh my, this time, I came to Jinling, mainly because the dog had some physical and mental problems, so as soon as I came over, I stayed in the hospital and didn't go anywhere, otherwise, I will definitely visit Uncle Song at the first time, and I hope that Uncle Song will forgive me and not blame me."

Song Wanting was busy saying, "Uncle Wu you don't have to be so polite, grandpa knows you have business to attend to, so he doesn't mean to blame you at all."

Saying that, Song Wanting took out a piece of cold jade carved Guanyin and handed it to Wu Donghai, saying seriously, "Uncle Wu, this piece of cold jade is Grandpa's favorite, it is said to have the effect of calming the mind, he asked me to bring it to you, hoping that it will have an effect on the Second Prince's condition."

Wu Donghai hurriedly thanked, "Thank you so much, Uncle Song!"

Saying that, he himself wasn't polite and extended his hand to receive the piece of cold jade.

Wu Xin at the side had been watching Song Wanting without saying anything, and only then did he forcefully said calmly, "Wanting, we haven't seen each other for a long time, have we?"

Song Wanting smiled slightly, nodded and said, "It seems like it's been three or four years, I don't remember too clearly."

Wu Xin smiled, "Time flies so fast! You've changed enough, and it looks like the two of us will have to keep in touch more often, or else in two years' time, if we happen to run into each other outside, we might not even recognize each other!"

Song Wanting also politely said, "Yes, after not seeing each other for so many years, everyone has indeed changed quite a bit."

Wu Donghai was keenly aware of Wu Xin's abnormality, and he could see that Wu Xin seemed to have some interest in Song Wanting.

In this instant, he suddenly felt in his head that if he could really marry Song Wanting to the Wu family and be his daughter-in-law, it would be perfect!

There were quite a few big families in Jiangnan, and there were quite a few who were of marriageable age, but the key problem was that most of the girls from big families were not very good looking.

Some of them were good-looking, but they had been brocaded and pampered since childhood, so their temperaments were very bad, and those who could be as beautiful as Song Wanting were really few and far between.

If the two families, the Wu and Song families, were able to marry, it would definitely be a strong combination and would be a strong boost to each other.

Chapter 540

If the two families could work together after the marriage, then they would even have a chance to lead the entire Jiangnan.

When he thought of this, he deliberately smiled and asked Song Wanting, "Wanting is so beautiful and excellent, I wonder if she's married yet?"

Song Wanting was busy saying, "Uncle Wu you are joking, if I get married, grandpa will definitely inform you to come for the wedding banquet."

Wu Donghai smiled and nodded his head, saying in his heart that this girl was just clever and could talk.

He then asked, "Then Wan Ting doesn't know if she has a boyfriend now? Which young master, if any, are you looking for?"

As soon as Wu Xin heard his father ask this question, he also hurriedly pricked up his ears in concern, expecting Song Wanting's answer.

How good would it be if Ye Chen didn't get married? I should have already confessed to him long ago.

Moreover, she was also considered to be the better of the girls, and I believe that he should not reject her, that way, when someone asks herself such a question again, she can proudly and shyly say, My boyfriend is called Ye Chen .....

Thinking of this, Song Wanting couldn't help but sigh in her heart and said with her mouth, "Uncle Wu, I haven't found a boyfriend yet."

Both Wu Donghai and Wu Xin's hearts were suddenly relieved.

Not looking for a boyfriend, that would be great!

A girl like Song Wanting really can't be found even with a lantern, and since she's still single, her own son has a great chance of chasing her down!

So, he immediately said to Song Wanting, "Right Wanting, I expect you to tell Uncle Song when you go back, I have arranged a plane to send my second son home for treatment tomorrow, Wu Xin and I will stay in Jinling to check out the specific clues, so tomorrow we, father and son, will definitely visit."

Song Wanting didn't think much of it, nodding her head and saying, "Okay Uncle Wu, I'll tell Grandpa when I get back."

Wu Donghai was thinking that since he was going to stay in Jinling for a while this time, he might as well take Wu Xin with him and borrow a few days at the Song family.

The Song family itself, as the host, would be the normal courtesy to arrange a few days of temporary stay for themselves and their son, while this would also create an opportunity for their son to have more contact with Song Wanting.

Wu Donghai even thought that this time, he would find a suitable opportunity to mention the marriage to Master Song, and I'm sure Master Song would not refuse.

After all, there was no bigger family in Jiangnan than the Wu family, and Wu Xin was the eldest son and grandson of the Wu family, the number one heir of the younger generation, and it wasn't half an exaggeration to say that he was the number one diamond king of Jiangnan.

As long as Master Song promised to help convince Song Wanting, he would definitely help convince Song Wanting, so that the marriage might soon be fixed, and the two families would then pick an earlier auspicious day together!

Wu Donghai is not young, and has been looking forward to hugging his grandson and seeing the continuity of the Wu family with his own eyes, but he hasn't met a woman worthy of his son.

Just now, he fell in love with Song Wanting at a glance, thinking that there's no better daughter-in-law in the world than Song Wanting!

However, he had never dreamed that Song Wanting already had her heart set on him.

Moreover, the man who had made Song Wanting fall in love with him immensely was the culprit who had turned his second son into a shit-eating beast, Ye Chen!
