

Identity 541

Chapter 541

Song Honor, who hadn't spoken for half a day and was now looking on with cold eyes, could also see that the Wu family's father and son were thinking about his sister Song Wanting.

At this moment, there was suddenly some hidden excitement in his heart.

If Song Wanting could marry the Wu family, that would be really great for himself!

At that time, Song Wanting would marry into the Wu family as a young grandmother, and naturally, she wouldn't be able to compete with himself for the Song family's fortune, and he would become the worthy heir of the Song family.

He was just afraid that Song Wanting and that Ye Chen would really get together.

He didn't know Ye Chen's true identity, he only knew that Ye Chen was someone who did seem to have some magical skills and did make his grandfather hold him in great esteem.

If Song Wanting really got together with Ye Chen, then there was no doubt that Ye Chen would have to join the Song family, and at that time, he would be in trouble!

Song Wanting herself would always be her greatest rival in the fight for the family fortune, if she wasn't too far away from marrying out!

Moreover, grandpa respected Ye Chen extraordinarily and dreamt of him being able to join the Song family, if Song Wanting really let grandpa have his wish, then grandpa would definitely pay even more attention to her and to Ye Chen.

At that time, Song Wanting and Ye Chen would be together in the Song family, then how could there be a day for her to make a name for herself?

So, the last thing he wanted to see was Song Wanting actually being with Ye Chen!

Now that the Wu family is interested in a marriage, all you have to do is find a way to persuade Grandpa and Song Wanting to accept the Wu family and get rid of Song Wanting early!

Song Wanting did not realize the intentions of the Wu family's father and son, she and Song Honor had a pleasant conversation with the father and son, and seeing that it was late, they took their leave on the grounds of inconvenience.

Wu Donghai and Wu Xin kept sending them downstairs and watched them get on the car, seeing that the car was far away, before Wu Donghai exclaimed, "This girl, Wan Ting, is a one in a million good girl!"

Wu Xin, who was on the side, also nodded repeatedly and said, "I never thought that she would become even more beautiful after a few years."

Wu Donghai said seriously, "Pretty is only second to none, family background, upbringing and temperament are the most important."

Saying that, he added, "However, Wan Ting has no choice in these aspects, if you can marry her, it would really be the best choice for you."

Wu Xin smiled and said, "Dad, you have to help more with this matter, Wan Ting's parents have passed away, you have to make an entry point from her grandfather."

Wu Donghai smiled and said, "Don't worry about this, Dad knows it by heart, I believe that Master Song also wants Wan Ting to marry into a good family, and our Wu family is the best choice."

Saying that, Wu Donghai added, "I think ah, if I tell Master Song about this matter, Master Song will definitely agree to it immediately, and then he will start doing Wan Ting's work, if it goes well, within a month, he should be able to agree on the marriage!"

"Yes!" Wu Xin excitedly said, "It's best to get the wedding done this year!"

At this moment, all that was on Wu Xin's mind was Song Wanting, and as for his poor brother, he had completely thrown it to the back of his mind.

When he returned to the hospital room, Wu Qi started to lose his mind again.

The nurses were already busy, bringing in the "extra meals" that had been sterilized by the high temperature, to feed Wu Qi first, and then to wash out as much of the food as possible.

Wu Donghai went in for a look, and came out with a black face.

Wu Xin, on the other hand, didn't even go in, sitting on the sofa outside by himself, looking through Song Wanting's circle of WeChat friends.

Before coming to Jinling, he hadn't paid much attention to Song Wanting, who he hadn't seen for several years.

Chapter 542

However, the sight of him just now had completely ignited the longing for Song Wanting in his heart.

Therefore, the first thing he did was to browse through all of Song Wanting's friend circle photos.

He carefully observed each and every photo in Song Wanting's circle of friends, and as he looked at them, he sighed in his heart that she really was a one in a million girl, and there was absolutely nothing wrong with her.

Thus, he vowed in his heart that no matter what, he would definitely get Song Wanting!

On the way back together with her brother Song Honor, Song Honor tentatively said to Song Wanting, "Wanting, I see that Wu Xin, it seems like he's a bit interested in you."

Song Wanting said one word flatly, "Oh."

"Oh?" Song Honor asked curiously, "Why are you so cold?"

"Or what?" Song Wanting said, "It's not like it has anything to do with whether he's interested in me or not, do I have to act excited about it?"

Song Honor pursued, "Wu Xin is also considered a jade tree in appearance, aren't you at all smitten with him?"

Song Wanting shook her head and said, "I don't feel anything for him at all, and even he's not even a friend in my eyes, he's half an acquaintance at best."

Song Honor hurriedly advised, "You're silly, aren't you? How strong is the Wu family! The number one family in Jiangnan, if you can get together with Wu Xin, that would be just icing on the cake for our Song family!"

"I don't have feelings for him." Song Wanting said seriously, "I won't be with someone I don't have feelings for, even if he's the richest man in the world."

Song Honor said in surprise, "You're not really in love with that Ye Chen, are you?!"

Song Wanting looked at Song Honor and was a little embarrassed to answer.

Song Honor sighed and said, "My good sister ah, do you think you are stupid? Grandpa is old and confused, I told you to go after that Ye Chen and you really went after him? He's a married man, aren't you? You're the most noble one among the girls in the entire Jinling, how can you be with such a man?"

Song Wanting was a bit dodgy and said, "Brother, don't worry about my affairs, I'll grasp it myself."

"Hey!" Song Honor pretended to be sorry and sighed, saying: "You are brother looked at growing up, brother really hope that you can marry a Baidu Novel [www.tomtxt.com] a good man of the right family, and like you, a good man who has never been married, if in the future you really marry Ye Chen, a second marriage man, brother really feel too much pity for you!"

Saying that, Song Honor said further, "What's more, this Ye Chen is still a backstabbing door-to-door son-in-law, how can he be worthy of you?"

Song Wanting turned her face sideways, looked at Song Honor and said seriously, "Brother, Master Ye is not as bad as you say, you just haven't seen the sparkling points in Master Ye yet."

Song Honor said disdainfully, "What flashpoints can he have? It's just a drug, right? I don't see anything remarkable."

Song Wanting shook her head and said indifferently, "Everyone has many faces, in the eyes of many people, Master Ye is trash and a door-to-door son-in-law, but in my eyes, he's a true master, he's not like anyone else!"

Song Honor trailed off, "You don't also think he's some kind of real dragon on earth, do you? I'm really going to die laughing at that four-letter word! The True Dragon of Man .....I pooh!"

Song Wanting looked at Song Honor and felt that Song Honor was like a retarded person at this point.

But Song Honor felt in his heart that it was time for Song Wanting and Grandpa to shine their eyes and see Ye Chen's true face.

Wasn't Ye Chen known as the true dragon on earth? Then I'll find a way to turn Wu Xin into Nezha, skin him and crush his tendons!

Chapter 543

At the same time, Shi Tianqi was in his Ji Shi Hall, staring at the rejuvenation pill that Ye Chen had rewarded him with.

In his head, he recalled what Ye Chen had told him, that Ye Chen had told him that this medicine could make him ten years younger, while extending his life span by ten years.

Although he knew that Ye Chen had great magical powers, he still felt that such a medicinal effect was like a fantasy.

As the saying goes, flowers have a re-blooming day and humans are no longer young.

Humans can influence everything in the world, but they can't influence time alone.

In this world, where is there any immortal medicine that can rejuvenate a person's youth?

However, once he thought that this medicine was given by Grandmaster Ye Chen Ye, Shi Tianqi became confident in it again.

He felt that Master Ye would never deceive himself, and since he said so, this medicine, must have this magical effect.

Thus, he made up his mind and took the medicine as instructed by Ye Chen.

Shi Tianqi carefully put the Rejuvenation Pill into his mouth, expecting that this pill would be quite laborious to eat, but what he didn't expect was that as soon as it entered his mouth, it immediately turned into a stream of sweetness that flowed directly into his abdomen.

Immediately following that was the magical moment that Shi Tianqi would never forget.

He felt like he was wrapped tightly in a warm current that was like a strange energy that worked on every part of his body.

At first, it felt like his face was slightly tense, then his scalp was a bit itchy and numb, then he felt all his joints were on fire again.

After a few minutes, Shi Tianqi had a feeling of being transformed.

It was as if his entire body had truly returned to the way it was when he was more than a decade ago!

He subconsciously came to the mirror, and, striking his eyes, was shocked at what he saw in it!

No wonder I just felt tense on my face, it's because my skin, which was full of wrinkles before, has tightened up quite a bit, so, all of a sudden, I look a dozen years younger!

What was even more amazing was that he had already had a full head of silver hair, but he hadn't expected it to be half black all of a sudden!

His body, which was already somewhat rickety, was now able to stand straight, and his joints, which had been severely degraded in function, had also been greatly improved.

Shi Tianqi hurriedly took his own pulse, gauging his pulse, and then discovered that his entire breath and pulse had improved tremendously compared to before!

That is to say, not only did he look younger, not only his bones were younger, but his internal organs, his whole body, inside and out, were all younger!

It's like going from 70 to 60 all of a sudden!

Shi Tianqi went crazy!

If one's life was a fully wound up alarm clock, then the saving power in the clock was to fade with the loss of time, until the moment all the saving power was exhausted, this alarm clock would also stop completely.

And now, Shi Tianqi's life alarm clock was tantamount to Ye Chen using his God's hand to forcefully twist Shi Tianqi back two more turns!

That would mean that Shi Tianqi's alarm clock for life could go two more laps!

Isn't that, like, a miracle?

Chapter 544

If such an immortal medicine was sold, not to mention 100 million, even a billion, those old and wealthy people would be eager to buy it .....

What's the use of earning more money when you're old? If money could be exchanged for youth, the billionaires who were worth billions or tens of billions would not hesitate to use half, or even more than half, of their worth to give themselves an extra ten or twenty years of life!

That's why you can't buy time!

Shi Tianqi was in tears of excitement at this moment!

Or even, for crying out loud!

He immediately pulled out his phone and sent a WeChat to Ye Chen, saying, "Master Ye, your immortal medicine, Shi Mou has already taken it, thank you so much for your reward, Shi Mou is willing to put his liver and brain on the line for you!"

Ye Chen replied lightly, "It's good that it's effective, but you must remember not to tell anyone else about this other than you and Xiao Zhao."

It was quite precious to concoct such a rejuvenating pill that required the use of three hundred years' worth of the finest purple ginseng .

The granddaughter Chen Xiaozhao, who is grinding medicine next door, called over, Chen Xiaozhao saw Shi Tianqi, was shocked and said: "Grandfather .....What is wrong with you?I feel so much younger all of a sudden!Exactly as I remember you from my teenage years!"

Shi Tianqi exclaimed in excitement, "This is all thanks to Master Ye's rewarding immortal medicine!Master Ye said he could be ten years younger and live ten more years, but I didn't know it was really that magical!"

Chen Xiaozhao was also stunned and blurted out, "Grandfather, how does this immortal medicine have such miraculous effects?It's unbelievable!"

Shi Tianqi shivered and said, "I've already said that Master Ye is a true dragon on earth, not something we can understand, I've lived for so many years, but I never expected that the greatest chance in life would be to meet Master Ye ....."

Saying that, Shi Tianqi hurriedly pulled out the small wooden box containing the pills from the close pocket in his bosom.

Inside the wooden box, there was also a half-pill pill.

This was the pill that Ye Chen had last time refined and was capable of healing body and nerve damage and strengthening the body.

The half one was the leftover from when he had helped Ye Chen save his father-in-law, Xiao Changkun.

The whole one was specially rewarded to Ye Chen after he knew that he refused to treat Xiao Yiqian.

Shi Tianqi had always thought that when he was old, this one and a half pills would always be with him in case he needed it.

However, today, when he suddenly had such a chance, he was prepared to give one of these pills to his granddaughter, Chen Xiaozhao.

Thus, Shi Tianqi took out one of the pills and said, "Xiao Zhao, this is the moment pill that Master Ye rewarded me with earlier, I originally wanted to keep it for myself ....."

At this, Shi Tianqi looked at Chen Xiaozhao and said sincerely, "Xiaozhao ah, you shouldn't blame Grandfather for being selfish, after all, Grandfather is old, older people are afraid of death and don't want to leave you too early ....."

Chen Xiaozhao hurriedly said, "Grandfather, you don't say such words, Xiaozhao never felt that you were selfish!"

Shi Tianqi smiled slightly and said, "Actually, Grandfather himself knows in his heart that I am being selfish."

Saying that, Shi Tianqi handed the pill to Chen Xiaozhao and said seriously, "Xiaozhao, Grandfather has already received too many favors from Grandmaster Ye, I am an old bone, to have such a chance is already a blessing that has been cultivated in several lifetimes, so Grandmaster Ye can't enjoy these favors alone, this pill, Grandfather will give it to you, you should carry it close to your body in the future, just in case you need it."

Chen Xiaozhao hurriedly waved his hand, "Grandfather, it's better for you to keep this medicine, Xiaozhao doesn't want it!"

Shi Tianqi said seriously, "Xiao Zhao, listen to Grandfather's words, take this medicine, Grandfather is alone and is not blessed to suffer such a great creation, you can be considered as helping Grandfather to share this creation."

After saying that, he exclaimed, "Xiao Zhao, from today onwards, you must serve Master Ye well, even if Grandfather passes away in the future, you must always serve him, this is not only to repay Master Ye's kindness, but also to seek an even greater creation for yourself!"

Chapter 545

Seeing the sincerity of Grandfather's words, Chen Xiaozhao hesitated again and again before finally taking that pill.

Once upon a time, she had dreamed in her heart whether or not she would be able to possess a miracle pill like this, but when she thought of the fact that Grandfather was older and needed it more than she did, she didn't think twice about it.

But, how could she have ever imagined that Grandfather would want to give himself the one medicine that Master Ye had given him!

So, receiving this pill, she was also inordinately excited, and at the same time, the words that her grandfather had instructed her to say also kept reverberating in her mind.

To serve around Master Ye for the rest of her life?

I'm really willing, but I just don't know, will Master Ye dislike me?

Shi Tianqi saw her small thoughts, smiled slightly and said, "Xiao Zhao, Master Ye is a man of great affection and loyalty, as long as you treat him sincerely with all your heart, he will definitely treat you sincerely as well, Grandfather is old, and living again is nothing more than a hundred years old, you are still young, if you can always saddle up and serve around Master Ye, Master Ye will definitely not treat you badly in the future."

Chen Xiaozhao nodded repeatedly and said, "Grandfather, don't worry, Xiaozhao knows!"

The first time I was asked to come here, I hadn't healed my old wounds, so I wanted you to come here alone, but I was prevented from doing so by the fact that I had a friendship with Master Song, and if you couldn't heal him, he might not survive for long, so I followed him here, and I never thought I'd meet the biggest nobleman .....

Shi Tianqi was excited and hadn't slept all night.

Like him who had a sleepless night, there was also the Song Family's Song Old Master.

Only, the Song old man was not as lucky as Shi Tianqi, since he was revived by Ye Chen and took the divine medicine that Ye Chen had given him before, his body was indeed much better than when he was ill, and his legs and feet were also much more flexible, but because of his poor foundation, he actually didn't improve his health much.

It's just that the two days Jinling cooled down, the Song old man felt himself slightly infected with wind chill, coughing all the time, so the night was almost as good as no sleep.

The next morning, Master Song was dizzy and crawled out of bed.

The first thing you need to know is that you're not going to be able to get a good deal more than you need to.

The old man out of the room, Song Wanting and Song Honor have been out early, these two are now each busy with a part of the family business, every day morning and evening.

A Rolls Royce slowly parked at the entrance of the Ji Shi Tang as soon as it opened its doors in the morning, attracting the attention of many passers-by.

Then, the old master Song, assisted by Uncle Yu, walked out of the Rolls Royce.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services, including a full range of products and services, including a full range of products and services.

Master Song took two steps, stopped and coughed twice, then stepped forward again.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest addition to the newest generation of the newest generation.

"Make it impossible." Master Song waved his hand and said, "Shi Tianqi is a proud person, plus he is a famous doctor in the country, no matter how many big people want to invite him, how can I ask him to come to my door for this small illness."

Yu Bo said, "Master, you're about to have a big birthday, you're the birthday boy, how can you personally do everything."

Chapter 546

"It's not a hindrance." Master Song said indifferently, "It's just as well, by the way, hand over an invitation to Doctor Shi and invite him to the birthday banquet."

Saying so, he pointed at the door of the Hall of Relief and spoke, "Go, take me in."

At this time, Chen Xiaozhao was just busy working in the outer hall of the Relief Hall, and suddenly saw Master Song coming, rushing up to him and respectfully asked, "Master Song, what are you doing here? Is it something physically uncomfortable?"

Old Master Song coughed and said with a smile, "People are getting old, this body is also deteriorating day by day, recently the weather is not getting cooler, I slightly contracted a bit of wind chill, I came to find your grandfather on purpose to ask him to grab me some medicine."

Chen Xiaozhao hurriedly said, "Please come inside quickly, I will go to the inner hall to call Grandfather."

With that, Chen Xiaozhao ushered Master Song in, and only after Master Song had sat down did this go to the inner hall to call Shi Tianqi.

Hearing that Old Master Song was here, Shi Tianqi hurriedly put down what he was doing and walked out quickly.

Shi Tianqi had always regarded Ye Chen as a great benefactor, and was a little grateful to Master Song, after all, he was able to meet Ye Chen because Master Song was critically ill, and he had answered Song Honor's invitation to come over and treat Master Song.

If it wasn't for this matter, he wouldn't have had the chance to know Ye Chen.

Therefore, deep inside his heart, he always remembered this favor of Master Song.

At this moment Shi Tianqi had just walked out, the moment Master Song met Shi Tianqi head-on, he was instantly shocked and unable to speak!

He never would have thought that Shi Tianqi would suddenly become so young!

The last time we met, Shi Tianqi was clearly a standard Chinese medicine old man image, beard and hair are white, but now most of the white hair has become black hair, dark and shiny, the old age lines on his face is also much lighter, the dried up body is also filled up, red and ruddy, a spirit of essence is undoubtedly displayed.

And now Shi Tianqi, who was originally in his seventies, because he had been well fed, looked like he was seventy, but now it looked like Shi Tianqi was around sixty!

In Master Song's eyes, this was as good as reverting to old age!

He couldn't figure out how on earth Shi Tianqi had managed to be so much younger all of a sudden?

Looking at him, and then looking at himself, he was eighty years old, and there was only a few years difference in age between him and Shi Tianqi, but he had been seriously ill, so since he had recovered from that illness and stopped throwing up, he looked even older.

Now compared to the ten years younger Shi Tianqi, the two were like a generation apart!

The shocked old man Song couldn't sit still, he trembled and stood up, shocked and asked: "Brother Shi, a few days ago, why have you changed so much? Looking at you today, I feel 20 years younger than me! Did you find some extraordinary way to get well?!"

Shi Tianqi hastily arched his hands and said, "Old Brother Song, the reason for this change in Shi Mou is really because of a recent chance creation."

Old Man Song was incomparably envious at the words, he now dreamed of being able to encounter a chance creation just like Shi Tianqi's.

Even if, he had to dissipate his family fortune, he would be willing to do so!

So, he asked Yu Bo to temporarily retreat, leaving only himself and Shi Tianqi, before carefully asking, "Brother Shi, I wonder if you could reveal where this chance of yours came from?"

Shi Tianqi said apologetically, "Brother Song, please forgive me, I promised someone else, I can't say anything about this matter!"

Master Song's eyes flickered in astonishment at the words, and he asked off the cuff, "The chance that my brother is talking about, is it Master Ye?!"

Chapter 547

Song is not stupid, what kind of creation can make a person more than ten years younger?

To think that such a miraculous thing could only be done by one person in all of Jinling.

That person was Ye Chen, Master Ye!

Although Shi Tianqi hadn't replied yet, Master Song was already certain in his heart that Shi Tianqi, must have received a creation from Master Ye to become so young all of a sudden!

At this time, Shi Tianqi's face was complicated.

Without Master Ye's approval, he definitely didn't dare to tell anyone about the Rejuvenation Pill.

After all, Master Ye had clearly reminded himself yesterday that he must not tell anyone.

However, now that Master Song had guessed it himself, it was a bit difficult to do so.

When he saw that Master Song looked certain, he said awkwardly, "Elder Brother Song, you guessed this matter yourself, don't tell Master Ye that I said it .....Master Ye won't let me tell anyone."

When Older Brother Song heard this, his heart confirmed his guess.

The one who had bestowed Shi Tianqi's creation was indeed none other than his own beloved good granddaughter-in-law, Ye Chen, Master Ye!

Master Song's heart in this matter was extremely envious.

Even, the envy had reached a certain level, and had been faintly jealous.

How could he not want to be like Shi Tianqi, who was over seventy years old and looked only sixty?

Why wouldn't she want her life to last another decade or more?

Once people reach middle age and old age, they become more and more afraid of death and old age, this is human nature, no one is immune to this.

The same goes for Master Song.

He was already recovering from a serious illness, and his body still had many minor problems.

Although Ye Chen's last pill could allow him to live for a few more years, but it would only allow him to live.

There was no way that it would allow him to have a body that was ten years younger all of a sudden like Shi Tianqi's.

Therefore, Master Song couldn't help but let out a long sigh at this point and said, "Never thought that Master Ye would be able to do this!"

Shi Tianqi also said with a solemn face, "Master Ye has already transcended into the sacred in the art of medicine, I'm afraid that in my life, I will only be able to worship ....."

Master Song couldn't help but sigh, "If only Master Ye could also bestow me with such a creation, I would be willing to give away ten billion in cash!"

Although that was the case, Master Song was also clear in his heart that he could not go directly to Ye Chen to make such a request, otherwise, on the one hand, he might betray Shi Tianqi, and on the other hand, he might also have distracted Master Ye.

Therefore, such a creation can only wait for a coincidence or a ripe time, no matter never to force it.

And the best time would be for Ye Chen to become his own granddaughter-in-law!

If Song Wanting could marry him, why would she worry about such a creation?

It was a pity that Song Wanting was now with Ye Chen and there was still no clear progress, which made Song's heart somewhat burnt.

It seemed that he still had to think of a way to set these two young people up!

Even if the Song family was willing to give up their face and let Song Wanting go to be Ye Chen's lover, they would not hesitate!

Because he knew in his heart that once the Song family and Ye Chen had a more advanced relationship, not only would he benefit, but Song Wanting and even the entire Song family would benefit for life!

Chapter 548

Just as Song was making up his mind within himself, Shi Tianqi asked him, "Brother Song, where are you mainly unwell today?"

Old Master Song looked at Shi Tianqi, collected his thoughts and said, "Hey, Old Brother Shi, look at me now, my body is deteriorating day by day, recently in the autumn, I have contracted wind chill when I wasn't paying attention, and I have to ask you to catch me some medicine."

Shi Tianqi hurriedly said, "Then I'll first take my brother's pulse and see what's wrong."

Old Man Song hummed and extended his hand over.

Shi Tianqi placed his fingers on Song's wrist, checked his pulse, and looked at the rest of Song's condition, and was relieved when he was sure that it was only a wind chill infection.

"It's indeed just wind chill, I'll prescribe you some medicine, you can take it back with decocted water and it will be fine in three or two days."

"Then, thank you, Brother Shi." Master Song nodded gently, suddenly remembering something, he said off the cuff, "Right there's one more thing."

Master Song paused and said, "In two days, it will be my 80th birthday, our brothers have known each other for many years, so you must come."

In the middle of the conversation, Master Song handed over a hot gold invitation to Shi Tianqi.

Shi Tianqi took it in his hand and promised to Master Song, "Brother Song, don't worry, I'll be there on time."

After saying that, Shi Tianqi hurriedly asked Master Song to grab the medicine to take with him, and then personally sent him out the door and all the way to the car.

When Master Song returned to the Song family by car, Wu Donghai and Wu Xin, had just dropped Wu Qi off at the airport.

In order to prevent him from getting on the plane and wanting a "snack", the nurse kept him under guard, waiting for him to have his "snack" before sending him on the plane.

Wu Qi woke up once again from the chaos, smelling his own mouth full of stench, he looked at his father with a pained face, choking, "Dad, someone must be behind this, you must find that beast and take revenge for me.

Wu Donghai nodded and said solemnly, "Don't worry Xiao Qi, Dad will find the person who harmed you, if he dares to treat you like this, I will make him live and die!"

Afterwards, Wu Donghai instructed, "When you go home, don't make a fuss or go out, and take care of yourself at home, I'll find the world's most famous doctor to treat you, and I'll definitely cure you of your illness!"

Wu Qi choked and nodded his head repeatedly, which was why he reluctantly got on the plane.

The Wu family's private plane took off at the Jinling Airport, and Wu Donghai and Wu Xin kept watching as the plane soared into the air and disappeared between the skies.

Only then did Wu Donghai withdraw his gaze and said to Wu Xin, who was beside him, "Let's go to the Song family and propose marriage to you!"

Wu Xin said excitedly, "Great dad! This matter must be finalized sooner rather than later!"

After saying that, Wu Xin was a little apprehensive and asked, "Dad, you don't think the Song family will reject this marriage, do you?"

Wu Donghai said with a confident face, "You're the eldest son and grandson of the Wu family, how many big family girls are lining up for you to pick, although Song Wanting is very good looking, but the Song family's strength is quite a bit worse than ours, Master Song must be eager to marry Song Wanting to you!"

"Really?" Wu Xin was pleasantly surprised and said, "According to you, Master Song will definitely say yes?"

Wu Donghai smiled calmly and said with incomparable confidence, "Son, in Jiangnan, there's no case where you can't marry any woman you want! It's the Song family's luck that you've taken a liking to Song Wanting, and in the end, they're the ones who've climbed higher in this matter!"

Saying with an arrogant face, he said, "Do you believe that when we wait until the Song family, I'll mention this matter and Master Song will immediately agree?"

Wu Xin immediately burst out laughing and said off the cuff, "Dad, let's hurry over there now then!"

Wu Donghai smiled slightly and said, "You're at least the eldest son and grandson of the Wu family, why are you so nonchalant when you meet a Song Wanting, you're not even a little bit productive!"

Saying that, Wu Donghai instructed, "When we arrive at the Song family later, you must put up a bit of a high profile, and make the Song family understand that marrying Song Wanting to you is a high climb, understand?"

"Understood!"

Chapter 549

Noon, Song Family.

Wu Donghai and Wu Xin carefully selected some gifts before father and son rushed to the Song family.

Master Song already knew that they had come to Jinling and that the younger generation of the family had encountered something, so he didn't expect them to pay their respects at home so soon.

However, since it was the Wu family's eldest son and eldest grandson who had come, Master Song was naturally very polite and personally came out to entertain the two.

Wu Donghai and Wu Xin sat in the guest seat on one side, Master Song sat opposite, while Yu Bo was busy serving tea and pouring water for everyone.

Wu Donghai presented a large pile of gifts to them, which was why he spoke with an arch smile, "Haven't seen Uncle Song for a long time, I didn't expect Uncle Song's body to be so robust, it's really enviable!"

Master Song smiled slightly and said, "This body of mine can't talk about being robust, at most it's still somewhat able to take care of itself, and it won't die for a while."

Wu Donghai busily said, "Uncle Song you are really modest."

Saying that, he added, "Uncle Song, I heard earlier that you were feeling ill, but this time, seeing that you are radiant, it seems that your health is greatly improved?"

Master Song smiled sourly and said, "At first, I also felt that I'm great good, but today I suddenly realized that I'm far from being great good."

Wu Donghai was a little surprised at what he heard, and asked, "Uncle Song, how can that be called a great good?"

Master Song smiled slightly and exclaimed, "Returning overnight to the physical state of more than a decade ago, that's truly great!"

As he said this, what came to Master Song's mind was the Shi Tianqi who had overturned his knowledge and shocked him to the core.

He had been thinking about this since he returned from the Ji Shi Hall, and it was even nagging at him.

When will he be able to meet such a chance, he will not have lived in vain.

However, how did Wu Donghai know that he had gone through all of this and thought that he was joking when he said this, so he smiled and echoed, "As the saying goes, flowers have their re-blooming day and people are no longer young, Uncle Song, you desire to be a dozen years younger, I also have the same wish, but unfortunately, this is just a wish after all and cannot come true."

Master Song smiled lightly and didn't say much.

Wu Donghai felt that it was impossible to come true, and that was because he was sitting in a well and had never seen a true dragon on earth like Master Ye.

Therefore, there was no need for him to wrestle with him on this issue.

So, Master Song asked him, "By the way Donghai, your second son, how is the situation now?"

Wu Donghai sighed and said, "It's the same old story, all kinds of methods have been used, but still no progress, I've sent him back to Suhang."

At this point, Wu Donghai said, "The reason why Xiaoxin and I haven't left yet is that we want to find out why that second son of mine became like this, I suspect that he was victimized, it's possible that he was given a strong psychological hint, it's even possible that it's related to that kind of surrender witchcraft in Southeast Asia, I wonder if Uncle Song knows if there are any good people in Jinling who are good at this kind of tactics?"

Old Master Song shook his head and spoke, "This kind of things like head lowering witchcraft that you're talking about, I've only heard about it, but I've never seen it, and I'm not even sure if it's true or not."

Wu Donghai said seriously, "Lowering the head, lowering the parasites, raising little devils, all these things are actually true, but they are all sideshows, those who use such tactics are mostly villains, or people who desire to become rich and popular, and big families like ours are generally not interested in engaging in such things."

Chapter 550

Song nodded his head and said, "The big families all believe in feng shui destiny and I Ching gossip, this is the essence of what our Chinese ancestors have handed down, as for the dross from Southeast Asia, to tell you the truth, I really don't look up to it."

Wu Donghai said, "So it seems that there really is no clue at all, and I'm afraid it's not too easy to find that person behind the scenes in this situation."

Saying that, Wu Donghai cupped his fist and said, "Uncle Song, Xiao Xin and I are going to stay in Jinling for a few more days to investigate the relevant clues, I wonder if Uncle Song will arrange for us to borrow a few days at your residence?"

Master Song said with a smile, "The Song and Wu families have been friends for generations, so there's no need to be polite about this small matter. Since you guys are here, I will naturally do my best to be a landlord, and I will have the maids clean up two guest rooms later, so you can stay there as you wish."

The Song family's villa was just a mansion, there were more than a dozen rooms on the first floor, and there were as many as eight guest rooms in the house alone, it was too easy to arrange for the Wu family's father and son to borrow it temporarily.

As soon as Wu Donghai heard this, he was overjoyed and thanked, "Thank you, Uncle Song!"

Only after saying that did Wu Donghai pull Wu Xin, who had been silent, to his side and said with a smile, "Uncle Song, I haven't been formally introduced to you yet, this is my canine son, Wu Xin, who is also the future heir to the next generation of the Wu family."

Wu Xin hurriedly bowed respectfully and said, "Senior Wu Xin, meet Grandpa Song!"

Master Song nodded with a smile and said, "The Wu family's eldest son and grandson is truly a talent!"

Wu Donghai laughed and said, "Uncle Song you're too polite, in fact, your grandchildren are each one of a kind!"

He sighed, "Especially Wan Ting, I haven't seen her for years, and when she visited me in the hospital yesterday, I could barely recognize her! Now it has become more and more beautiful and airy and mature."

Master Song smiled and said, "Wan Ting just looks mature and capable, but in reality, she is still a little girl at heart."

Wu Donghai nodded and deliberately tried to ask, "Uncle Song, Wan Ting should be of marriageable age, I wonder if you have found a good in-law for her?"

Master Song thought of Ye Chen all of a sudden, but unfortunately, Ye Chen is still the door-to-door son-in-law of the Xiao family, that Xiao Chorán's husband, and there is no substantial progress with his granddaughter yet, so he could only say, "I haven't found a mother-in-law for Wan Ting yet, she's not too old, this matter is not urgent."

Wu Donghai was busy saying, "Uncle Song, in fact, this matter should also be urgent, time actually passes very quickly, this year is not urgent, next year is not urgent, the year after next all of a sudden will find that it is already too late, by the time it is time to temporarily find, fall in love, break in, talk about marriage, get married, conceive a child in October, by the time the child is born, it may be almost thirty years old."

Master Song nodded his head in agreement and said, "What you said is reasonable, I'll take note of it, and I'll also speak to her properly later and advise her to plan early."

In fact, what Master Song wanted was to go back and use this set of words to persuade Song Wanting to take the initiative against Ye Chen as soon as possible, and cut out any further consumption.

However, Wu Donghai thought that he had already prepared the groundwork and could get straight to the point.

So he said confidently, "Uncle Song, I see that Wanting and Wu Xin are about the same age, they're both at the stage where they're talking about marriage, and I see that they're also considered to be a good match, Uncle Song, I wonder if you're interested in forming a marriage with our Wu family?"

Saying that, Wu Donghai looked at Old Master Song with a smiling and ambitious face.

He felt that after hearing this, Master Song would definitely promise himself without hesitation.

Wu Xin, who was on the side, also stared at Master Song with a nervous death stare, expecting Master Song to agree to it.

However, no one expected that Master Song would hear this and blurt out two words: "No!"

After saying that, he added four more words, "Absolutely not!"
