Chapter 671

Master Song himself couldn't wait for this Rejuvenation Pill, and when he held it in his hand, he hated to take it immediately.

After all, he had seen Shi Tianqi's appearance after taking the medicine and knew that this Rejuvenation Pill's efficacy was out of this world, so he didn't feel at ease holding it in his hands for fear of a rampage.

The only way to truly get down to earth was to eat it!

Since Ye Chen had also said it, Master Song naturally hurriedly agreed and gratefully said, "Master Ye, then I'll take it now!"

After saying that, Master Song carefully took the Rejuvenation Pill in his hands, excitedly put it into his mouth and swallowed it into his stomach!

As soon as it was ingested, Master Song felt the pill turn into a stream of heat that surged into his limbs and hundreds of veins, and his entire body was warm, as if he had returned to his youth, with every cell filled with vitality.

Like Shi Tianqi, Master Song's entire body was nourished by the medicine everywhere, and his entire body was glowing with a long-lost youth.

He was even surprised to find that the dark wounds and old habits he had left behind years ago were gradually disappearing, and the wrinkles on his face's skin had become much lighter and tighter.

His scalp also felt itchy, as if new hair was being produced!

In the eyes of the crowd, an astonishing and incomparable change had occurred in Master Song at this time!

Originally, Master Song's rickety body had become straighter, and the white hair all over his head was gradually turning black, although not all of it had turned black, a significant portion of it had turned black.

The old age lines on his face were also fading to a degree that was visible to the naked eye, and his aura was completely different from before!

If the previous Master Song looked like an old man in his eighties and on the verge of death, then now it looked like he was in his sixties at most!

Moreover, Master Song's spirits were also suddenly excellent, and the radiance in his eyes had a few shades of a middle-aged man!

Originally, these people who didn't care about the rejuvenation pills were now stunned by Master Song's deterioration!

No one had ever seen such an amazing sight, even Song Wanting was completely shocked by it!

The rickety old man from before was now a middle aged man with graying hair, which made Song Wanting think of the old man who had taken himself into her arms when her father died more than a decade ago and told her not to be afraid, that everything was still his.

At that time, grandpa was only in his sixties, and he looked simply the same as he does now.

In other words, grandpa's life clock had been turned back due to this rejuvenation pill!

I'm afraid that his life expectancy will also be extended by more than ten years

Does this mean that Grandpa will live to be 100 years old in the future?

Song Wanting burst into tears of joy!

The other relatives of the Song family, none of whom really cared about themselves, were grieving the death of their father on the surface, but on the inside they were celebrating, celebrating that there was one less person with whom they were fighting for their inheritance.

So the only family she had left in the world was Master Song!

Of course she wanted Master Song to live a long life!

At first, when Master Song was terminally ill, he once told her that his greatest regret was not being able to see her marry.

The old man said that Wanting had lost her parents when she was a child, and was the one child he felt most at ease with, and of course, the one child who was most truly devoted to him and filial to him.

Therefore, he was especially afraid that he would suddenly die and Song Wanting would not be able to get married and start a family.

In that case, Song Wanting would become a lonely and miserable person.

Master Song wanted to see her married, and to a man who loved her, who she loved, who was reliable and stable, and who was capable of taking care of and protecting her.

Only then could he feel at ease to go.

But now, Song Wanting knew that Grandpa didn't have to worry about not seeing her married anymore.

He had extended his lifespan by at least a dozen years, and could not only see himself married, he could even see himself having children and enjoying the heavenly bliss of four generations!

When she thought of this, she couldn't help but look at Ye Chen again.

672

If she were to marry and have children, she would only marry Ye Chen alone.

But, would Ye Chen fall in love with her?

Would Ye Chen be willing to give up his current marriage, which was in name only, to be with himself?

Thinking of this, Song Wanting was also a little worried.

And at this time, the others at the scene had already blown up!

They saw with their own eyes the sweeping changes that had taken place in Master Song, and one by one they were thrilled as if they had seen God!

"ThisThis can't beHow did Master Song become so much younger all of a sudden?!"

"My God, this is the effect of the Rejuvenation Pill?!"

"A pill that's a dozen years younger, it's a miracle pill!"

"Master Ye is truly a true dragon on earth!"

"II also want a rejuvenating potion"

"Me tooI'm willing to buy it even if it's 10 million!"

"Ten million?What are you talking about?I'll buy all 100 million!"

"Fuck, if Master Ye wants to really sell it, I'll offer two hundred million!"

The scene had been overwhelmed by a sigh of relief!

Who would dare to believe that there is such a thing as rejuvenation if they hadn't seen it with their own eyes?

This is the kind of thing that can only be seen on TV, but it's really happening!

All the people present were successful in their own right, most of them already in their forties, fifties, and even older.

People in this age group had already felt the cruelty and pain of the passage of time.

For men in their fifties and sixties, wrinkles had long since crept up their cheeks, their health was much worse than when they were younger, and back pain and lumbar muscle strain were inevitable.

As for the hair loss, fat, night and that aspect of the ability to rapidly deteriorate, are also middle-aged and older men unspeakable pain.

Which 50 or 60-year-old man, do not miss their own young adult years of happiness?

Unfortunately, most men, when they are young, have physical strength but not financial strength, and when they get older, they become wealthy but not physical strength.

If they want to coexist with financial resources and physical strength and energy, how can anyone but a rich second generation like Wu Donghai have such a chance?

A lot of people are young looking forward to the opposite sex, but no opposite sex look at, older, career success, numerous young opposite sex around the time, and has been unable to.

Such older people, already do not have the luxury of being able to experience the wonderful coexistence of financial and physical strength, only the extravagant hope that the next life cast a good tire.

Therefore, when they saw the miracle that happened in front of them on Master Song, everyone's heart was incomparably expectant and burning with anticipation!

Even Wu Donghai, who had been a wealthy man since he was a child, now yearned incomparably when he saw the changes in Master Song!

He was going through a young age with wealth, physical strength, and energy.

At that time, he was the playboy that countless beauties were competing for, simply a thousand flowers and leaves, he really wanted to be as unrestrained as he could be, not at all inferior to the current national husband, Mr. Wang.

However, that was just the glorious history of Wu Donghai, who had once pissed three feet against the wind, and now was also pissing his shoes with the wind.

The more so, the more he missed the brave and powerful, unrestrained and unbridled youthful days.

So, when he looked at Ye Chen at this time, he no longer had the previous anger and hatred, but instead, there was a strong sense of yearning and expectation

So, he involuntarily walked up to Ye Chen, suddenly cupped his hands, bowed slightly, and respectfully said out of his mouth, "Master Ye, I don't know if you still have any of this rejuvenation pill left, if there is, please bother Master Ye to give me one, I am willing to cash 500 million yuan!"

673

No one present had expected that Wu Donghai, who had just rebuked Ye Chen and even pressured Master Song to give an explanation, would change so quickly.

Even Wu Xin himself was dumbfounded!

His subconscious came out of his mouth, "Dad! Why are you so polite to your son-in-law? Don't you forget that he just called our family trash when he was outside!"

Wu Donghai snapped out of his mouth, "Bastard! Just shut up!"

There were some words that Wu Donghai couldn't say in front of so many people.

However, he was already growling in his heart.

You bastard thing, what do you know?

You're young, in your twenties, and your body is at its peak, and you can sing every night, drink every day, go to bed at three o'clock, get up at nine, and stay up all night, but I'm not your old man anymore!

Your current state is typical of a full man who doesn't know when a hungry man is hungry!

You eat big fish and meat every day and can't even fathom why a person who hasn't eaten for three days would break his back for five buckets of rice.

That's because you've never tasted hunger at all!

You'll never know the feeling of hunger that makes your heart race, your hair swell, your limbs weak and your breath uneven, without knowing the original intent of someone who would kneel down for a bun!

To Wu Donghai, although one hadn't really entered old age yet, his body was definitely much worse compared to his youth, he had money, status, and strength, but it was biased against youth, so when he saw how much Master Song had changed, he was already yearning incomparably deep inside.

Not to mention 500 million to buy one such miracle pill, even if it was 5 billion, he would be willing to bite his teeth and buy it!

Wu Xin's expression became very ugly after being berated by his father.

However, he did not dare to open his mouth again to disobey his father, because he knew Wu Donghai's temper, and if he said another word, he would probably be beaten by him in public!

Just as Wu Xin was hanging his head and trying to retreat, Wu Donghai saw that Ye Chen was completely unresponsive to his offer and hurriedly snapped at Wu Xin, who was about to retreat, "Bastard, why don't you roll over and apologize to Master Ye?!"

Wu Xin's eyes were startled, and he subconsciously said, "Dad, you want me to apologize to him?!"

Wu Donghai snapped in a cold voice, "That's right! Come here and apologize to Master Ye, or I won't spare you!"

Wu Xin was being so demanded and reprimanded by his own father under the gaze of so many people, and deep down inside, he simply wanted to die.

Especially since Song Wanting was also looking at herself, and her eyes, it seemed, carried a bit of mockery and playfulness

This simply made Wu Xin hold his fire!

At this moment, he just couldn't take it any longer and snapped out, "Dad! If you were to kill me, I wouldn't be able to apologize to such a stinking hangman!"

Saying that, he turned around and walked out.

When Wu Donghai saw this, he became furious!

This son of yours, his biggest flaw is that he doesn't know what's going on.

Even if you're a hundred billionaire, there are times when you have to lower yourself; when you have to kneel, you have to kneel.

It's just as well that you've never seen a divine pill like the Rejuvenation Pill, but since you've seen it, you absolutely can't miss it!

It would be a lifelong regret to miss this!

What's a son's dignity in the face of such things?

Just as he was about to call out to Wu Xin, Ye Chen, who had been silent, smiled calmly and said, "Mr. Wu, since Mr. Wu is upset, you shouldn't force him, as the saying goes, a strong twisted melon is not sweet, and a forced apology is meaningless."

After saying that, he no longer paid any attention to Wu Donghai, and turned to Master Song and said, "Master Song, the Rejuvenation Pill can at least prolong your life for more than ten years, and I'm sure you will live to be a hundred years old easily, I hope you won't forget to invite me at your 100th birthday banquet."

As soon as Master Song heard this, his eyes filled with tears in excitement, he poofed to his knees and piously said, "Song Jimo kowtows to Master Ye's rebuilding grace! I will never forget Master Ye's kindness!"

Ye Chen smiled and nodded his head, saying lightly, "Don't just thank me, but also your good granddaughter Wan Ting, if it wasn't for her, I wouldn't have made the acquaintance of your Song family, and I wouldn't have given you this precious and incomparable rejuvenation pill, so you mustn't treat her badly in the future!"

A word that made Song Wanting tremble violently!

In her heart, she knew very well that Ye Chen was giving himself a great gift!

A super gift so big that it could even allow him to inherit the Song family!

She looked at Ye Chen gratefully, her feelings for him rising again!

She even felt that Ye Chen's kindness to her was enough to pay back with her life!

When Song Honor heard this, he resented incomparably.

He resented!

He blamed Ye Chen for minding his own business!

Blame him for renewing Master Song's life!

I blame him even more for shifting the credit to Song Wanting!

However, he didn't dare to show the slightest bit of resentment in his heart and could only kill it in his heart.

At this time, Song nodded heavily and said piously, "Song Jimo will definitely remember Master Ye's instructions!"

Saying that, he bowed down again and kowtowed in thanks!

Master Song kneeled and kowtowed twice, and Ye Chen had the opportunity to stop him, but Ye Chen did not do so.

The reason for this was simple, because Ye Chen felt that he should kneel!

The fact that you have given him such a gift and increased his life span by more than ten years is so great that even if you were to kneel down and kowtow to yourself twice a day for the rest of your life, it wouldn't be too much!

Can an ordinary man, who worships the gods and kowtows to them every day, be granted ten years more life span by the gods?

No!

God can't, but he can!

So, to receive two kowtows from Master Song is completely justified!

When the Song family sons saw this, they all came forward, starting with Song Tian Ming, the eldest son of Master Song, as well as his third and fourth brothers.

The three brothers came forward and immediately knelt behind Old Master Song.

Song Tian Ming raised his arched hands high and said in a loud voice, "Thanking Master Ye for granting my father such an opportunity, Song Tian Ming, eldest son of the Song family, kowtowing to Master Ye!"

Afterwards, he knocked his head on the ground... and took a long knock!

His third and fourth brothers followed suit, kowtowing in thanks!

Song Honor and Song Wanting also immediately came forward and knelt behind the three of them.

Song Honor was incomparably indignant, but still shouted with a pious face, "Thank you Master Ye for granting my grandfather such a chance, Song's grandson Song Honor, kowtow to Master Ye!"

Song Wanting looked deeply at Ye Chen, her eyes were quite complex, there was gratitude, admiration, love, and also awe.

Immediately, she also knelt on the ground and said in a very beautiful voice, "Thank you Master Ye for giving my grandfather such an opportunity, Master Song's granddaughter Song Wanting, kowtowing to Master Ye!"

The rest of the youngest grandchildren followed suit and knelt down to kowtow in thanks.

Today, it was Master Song's eightieth birthday!

Originally, it should have been him sitting on the throne, receiving the kowtowing blessings of his own sons and grandsons.

But now, all the sons and grandsons present, from the eighty year old Song, down to the seven or eight year old young grandsons, as long as they were surnamed Song, all of them knelt down in one piece, facing the indifferent Ye Chen, incomparably piously kowtowing and kowtowing in thanks!

It was a scene that left everyone in the audience stunned!

This is the first family of Jinling!

Now, this entire family was all kneeling and kowtowing to a young Master Ye!

However, not a single person there felt that it was a shame for the whole family to kneel down together.

On the contrary, they were all inwardly envious! Even jealous!

Why?

Why did this great opportunity not fall on your own head!

675

Wu Donghai sprouted an intense jealousy towards Master Song.

Had he known that this pill was so miraculous, he would have had to get his hands on it even if he had robbed it openly!

It's just a pity that I even had the eyes to offend Ye Chen.

Before this, he wanted to get Ye Chen killed so that his son could better pursue Song Wanting.

But after that, he only wanted to get a Rejuvenation Pill from Ye Chen's hand.

As for who his son would marry in the future, this issue was no longer that important in front of the rejuvenation pills.

So he took advantage of the gap between the Song family kneeling on the ground and rushed out of the Song family villa, ready to pull back Wu Xin who looked resentful.

Wu Xin angrily said, "Dad, what do you want me to go back for? Go apologize to that loser?"

"Exactly!" Wu Donghai said in a stern voice, "Apologize first, if the apology doesn't work, kneel down and apologize! If kneeling down and apologizing doesn't work, then kowtow and apologize, in short, make sure to make him go away!"

"By what?!" Wu Xin exploded!

"Let me kowtow and apologize to him? Then you might as well kill me! Can't you see that Song Yuan-ting likes him? If I kowtow to him again and apologize and admit my mistake, then I'll have even less chance to pursue Song Wanting!"

Wu Donghai said coldly, "Right now, the important thing is not whether you can marry Song Wanting, but whether I can get Ye Chen's Rejuvenation Pill!"

Wu Xin took off, "Dad, you're still young, what do you need that for?"

"Young?" Wu Donghai laughed to himself and said off the top of his head, "No matter what, we have to get a rejuvenation pill from Ye Chen first, right now, nothing is more important than this!"

Wu Xin was so anguished, "Dad! Have you forgotten our plan? Kill Hung Ng today, kill Ye Chen tomorrow! Are you going to give up everything just for a rejuvenation pill?"

Wu Donghai glared at him and said in a cold voice, "How come you don't know anything about strategy? If Ye Chen was a mountain standing in our way, then we would definitely have to blow him up and flatten him, but now that treasure has been found in this mountain, are you going to blow him up and flatten him just the same?!"

Wu Xin subconsciously asked, "Dad, what you mean is"

Wu Donghai's face flashed a bit grim as he said in a cold voice, "Emptying the mountain of treasure first, then blowing it up and bulldozing it, that's the choice a smart person would make!"

Hearing this, Wu Xin's face [PEN www.xbqg5200.co] was pleased and asked out of the blue, "Dad, what you mean is, first get the Rejuvenation Pill and then kill Ye Chen?!"

"Right!" Wu Donghai said in a cold voice, "Didn't Ye Chen just say that? This Rejuvenation Pill was coincidentally obtained by chance, and since he was willing to give one to Song Jimo, it proved that he definitely had some left over himself! Otherwise, no one else would have been able to give the only rejuvenation pills to outsiders!"

Speaking of which, Wu Donghai snorted and said with a resolute face, "I guess Ye Chen still has at least a few rejuvenation pills on him, and if we can get them all, it will protect my Wu family's foundation for a hundred years!"

Wu Xin hurriedly asked, "Then after getting the Rejuvenation Pill, do we still have to follow the original plan to get rid of Hong Wu and get rid of Ye Chen?"

"Of course!" Wu Donghai said with a gloomy face, "Not only them, all those who are on Ye Chen's side in Jinling, I want to get rid of them one by one! Even Song Jimo is a bad old man! Damn, no wonder this old thing won't even give me face, it's because it found out that there's so much value in Ye Chen!"

Wu Xin tentatively asked, "Dad, are you going to do something about the Song family?"

Wu Donghai nodded and looked around to make sure no one was around before he said seriously, "First, find a way to get the Rejuvenation Pill, then we'll get rid of Hong Wu and Ye Chen all of them, and then I'll give the Song family a way out so that they'll be good enough to marry Song Wanting to you, and if they still don't know what to do by then, then don't blame me for being rude!"

Saying that, Wu Donghai added, "But until then, you have to do everything I tell you, and you absolutely must not get carried away again!"

676

Wu Xin immediately said excitedly, "Dad, I'll do whatever you say!"

Wu Donghai nodded his head in satisfaction and said, "Go, go in and join me to ask for medicine from Ye Chen!"

"Seek medicine?" Wu Xin was busy asking, "How do you beg?"

"Kneel!" Wu Donghai said with a calm face, "The entire Song family kneels on the ground, we have to kneel too!"

"Kneeling? Kneel to Ye Chen?!" Wu Xin immediately jumped up and said with great excitement, "Let me kneel to him?! Dad, you might as well kill me!"

Wu Donghai frowned and glared at him, "What I just said, did you take it as a fart?"

Wu Xin cried out, "Dad, this is kneeling! When did I ever kneel to anyone but you and Grandpa! Don't you always say that men have gold in their hands?"

Wu Donghai sneered, "When Han Xin was humiliated at the crotch back then, if it was the same as what you think, then he wouldn't have been crowned the God of War by his descendants!"

Saying that, Wu Donghai asked rhetorically, "What if a great man can bend and kneel? The one who kneels first and kills later is a true hero!"

When Wu Xin heard this, he nodded his head squarely and said in an urn, "Okay, I'll listen to Dad's"

Wu Donghai patted him on the shoulder and smiled, "If you can flex, it's already a huge improvement!"

He said, unable to hide his excitement, "Come on, follow me in!"

.....

At this time in the banquet hall, Ye Chen had assisted Master Song to get up.

As Master Song got up, the other Song family members also stood up.

Everyone's birthday gifts had been served as well, so Ye Chen returned to his seat so that Master Song could continue his birthday feast.

When they returned to the table, a crowd of people crowded around Ye Chen, one after the other, speaking all sorts of pleading words with seven mouths and excitement.

Every single one of them was running for the Springback Pill.

There were even people who had started to call for 300 million, 400 million, and even all the way up to 500 million.

Ye Chen said with a calm face, "Gentlemen, the Rejuvenation Pill is something I got by chance, but it's gone now."

Someone recognized Ye Chen and knew that he was the Master Ye who had caused lightning to strike Hong Kong Master Yu Jinghai to death at the original metaphysical conference, so they shouted, "Master Ye, you are the supreme of Southern Canton, this rejuvenation pill must have been made by your own hands, right? Please be merciful and refine a batch for us old men as well, we are willing to pay the highest price!"

Ye Chen thought to himself that if people knew that he could refine the Rejuvenation Pill, he would be afraid that he would not be able to have peace in his life, so he said indifferently, "Even if I am the supreme ruler of Southern Canton, there are things that I still cannot do with my abilities."

Ye Chen said, but he also inevitably revealed a look of regret, saying, "According to my examination, this Rejuvenation Pill is an ancient divine physician and sorcerer, specially made for emperors and prime ministers, this pill is extremely difficult to refine, many of the preparations have even become extinct, even the method of refining has been lost, and it is impossible to refine it again, but rest assured, if in the future I am able to refine the Rejuvenation Pill, it will definitely be shared with all of you at that time!"

When everyone heard this, it was worthwhile to get angry and stop, while hoping that Ye Chen could really replicate the Rejuvenation Pill.

When the father and son of the Wu family who had just entered the door heard this, Wu Xin hurriedly said to Wu Donghai, "Dad, that trash Ye Chen no longer has the rejuvenation pills!"

"Nothing?" Wu Donghai smiled contemptuously and said with conviction, "I don't believe it!"

677

When Wu Xin saw that his father was convinced that Ye Chen must still have a rejuvenation pill, he looked at him and asked out of the blue, "Dad, you're not really going to go to him and kneel down to beg for a rejuvenation pill of some sort, are you?"

"Right." Wu Donghai nodded and said, "You come with me over later, I'll apologize to him for you, you kneel down and plead for forgiveness, and then I'll mention the rejuvenation pills to him."

Wu Xin's expression was somewhat depressed, "Dad, you mean I'll kneel down and admit my mistake for him, and then you'll sing the red face in the middle?"

Wu Donghai gave Wu Xin a sidelong glance and asked back, "You have an opinion?"

Wu Xin was shocked by the look in his father's eyes and hurriedly waved his hand, saying, "NoI'm fine with it!"

Only then did Wu Donghai nod his head in satisfaction and said, "I told you, a great man must be able to bend and kneel, if it's useless for you to kneel, I'll kneel too, as long as I can get the Rejuvenation Pill, so I can call him father, is there anything in this world more important than life?"

"Alright" Wu Xin knew that Dad had been completely seduced by the Rejuvenation Pill, and it was useless for him to say anything at this point.

As father and son were walking back, Ye Chen had just sent the crowd around him away.

The banquet banquet was about to begin, but when he looked around the circle, he found that the table he was sitting at was still empty with two seats.

These two seats were reserved for Shi Tianqi, as well as his granddaughter Chen Xiaozhao.

Ye Chen could not help but be puzzled.

From his understanding of Shi Tianqi, Shi Lao had a strong sense of time and kept his promises, he shouldn't be so late.

Thinking of this, Ye Chen took out his cell phone and called Shi Tianqi.

Soon, the call was answered.

However, the person who answered the phone was Chen Xiaozhao.

"Ye_.....Master Ye"

Chen Xiaozhao's voice carried a bit of tension and aggravation.

Ye Chen hurriedly asked, "Xiaozhao?Where's your grandfather?Why didn't you come to Song's birthday banquet?"

Chen Xiaozhao's voice with anger rang out, "YeMaster Ye, my grandfather's medical clinic has been smashed!He is busy packing, he may not be able to go to the birthday banquet, because he was afraid of affecting everyone's mood, so he didn't tell you and Master Song"

Ye Chen was confused, Shi Tianqi's reputation was out there, so how could someone be blind and run to smash his shop?

So then the question was hurriedly asked, "Who did this?"

Chen Xiaozhao said, "It's the two fathers of the Wu family in Suhang, they wanted my grandfather to go to Suhang to treat that Wu Qi of their family, my grandfather felt that what Wu Qi did was too despicable, so he didn't agree to treat him, and as a result, they just smashed up the medical hall!"

Ye Chen's face was cold!

It's the Wu family and their son?

A few flashes of anger flashed through his heart, and then he asked incessantly, "You and Old Man Shi aren't hurt, are you?"

Chen Xiaozhao hurriedly said, "No, I wasn't in the shop at the time, when I came back, the shop had already been smashed, and the Wu family had also left, but Grandfather he was fine, it was just that the shop was smashed."

Ye Chen heard that the two of them were unharmed before he put his mind at ease and spoke with a cold face, "Xiao Zhao, you tell Shi Lao that I'll handle this matter."

Saying that, Ye Chen hung up the phone, a cold flush on his face.

The Wu family father and son were truly arrogant, coming to Jinling also did not know how to restrain themselves, even daring to smash Shi Tianqi's medicine hall.

678

Why did Shi Tianqi want to open a Franciscan Hall in Jinling?Wasn't it because you wanted to repay your kindness that you stayed here?

As a result, the Wu family's father and son had smashed up his medicine hall, and he couldn't swallow this anger no matter what he said!

Unexpectedly, right at this moment, Wu Donghai brought Wu Xin back with him.

And, instead of bringing Wu Xin back to his table, he brought Wu Xin directly with him, running towards Ye Chen!

When he arrived in front of Ye Chen, Wu Donghai immediately arched his hands and said with great respect, "Master Ye, just now the dog had eyes but no pearls and offended you, now I've brought him here to apologize to you, I hope that you will not remember the faults of your lord and don't treat him with common knowledge!"

The first thing you need to know is that you can't find any other way to get rid of the problem, so you can't just go ahead and do it. To Mr. Wu, isn't it true that a trash slinger like me can curse and beat up whenever he wants?"

As soon as Wu Donghai heard this, he knew that Ye Chen wasn't going to let it go like this.

So, he immediately snapped at Wu Xin with a heavy face, "Bastard! Kneel to Master Ye yet!"

As soon as this was said, many people shifted their gaze.

In their hearts, they questioned, would the Wu Family Grand Duke really kneel to Master Ye!

Wu Xin's scalp was numb with anger at this point, and his body was burning with shame!

He is also the young master of the Wu family, the second richest generation in Jiangnan, if he kneels down to a Jinling's trash son-in-law, how can he face people in the future if word gets out?

Hesitantly seeing, the afterglow suddenly glanced at his father beside him, Wu Xin was frightened, he was afraid that Wu Donghai would be angry, so he could only harden his scalp, his legs bent and resentful knees on the ground.

"Ooh! The Wu family's young master is really kneeling!"

The place was in an uproar!

Wu Xin's face was so hot that he wanted to die.

When Wu Donghai saw that he didn't speak even after kneeling down, he immediately shouted, "What are you waiting for? Don't apologize to Master Ye yet!"

Wu Xin could only say in an urn, "Master Ye, I'm sorry, I was wrong, please forgive me!"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Without a sincere apology, it's actually better not to say anything, it will also save everyone's time and don't waste everyone's feelings."

When Wu Donghai heard this, he understood in his heart that just making his son kneel down was not enough to move Ye Chen.

So, he then shouted angrily and said, "Don't hurry up and kowtow and plead for forgiveness to Master Ye!"

Wu Xin clenched his teeth and leaned over to kowtow, "Master Ye, please forgive me for my impulse, I'm so sorry!"

Ye Chen smiled playfully and said, "Since you're so sincere in your apology, let's forget this ever happened."

Wu Donghai was finally relieved and couldn't wait to get out of his mouth, "Master Ye, I have one more thing to ask! I wonder if Master Ye can cut a rejuvenation pill and sell it to me, I'm willing to cash a billion dollars!"

People in the audience were screaming out!

A moment ago, it was $500 million, and now it's a billion in the blink of an eye? The Wu family really is rich ah, a billion or eight hundred million may not even be a thing in the eyes of the Wu family.

Ye Chen smiled slightly at this time and said, "You're thinking too much, Mr. Wu, not to mention that I don't have the Rejuvenation Pill right now, and even if I did, I would never sell it to you even if I sold it for one billion!"

At this point, Ye Chen coldly snorted and said, "I'm a person who holds a grudge, I remember very clearly that just now you have been screaming at me to take responsibility for beating up Liu Guang and to make me pay for it, but now you come to ask me for medicine, do you think I'm a goldfish and only have seven seconds of memory?"

Hearing Ye Chen's words, Wu Donghai's heart tightened.

Knowing that Ye Chen wouldn't let up so easily, but he had offered a billion dollar sky price, I thought that he wouldn't take care of that conflict just now on the face of the money.

But what he didn't expect was that this guy didn't even take the one billion heavenly price into consideration at all, and as soon as he came up, he was going to go over that old score with himself just now.

If it were normal, no matter how big the business was, Wu Donghai would have brushed off his sleeves when he encountered such a negotiating opponent.

But now, he really didn't dare to shake his hand and walk away.

Because, deep inside, he was completely unable to resist the seduction of the Rejuvenation Pill, as if he had been struck by its enchantment, so much so that all he could think about was it and the effects of fantasizing about himself after taking it.

So, he almost without hesitation immediately knelt down, cupped his hands and said to Ye Chen with great devotion, "Master Ye, just now it was Wu who had eyes but did not know Taishan, all of his colleagues in Jinling respect you as the true dragon on earth, and please do not get along with me, a mortal!"

Wu Donghai was very well spoken.

In order to not let the other party continue to step on him, he purposely held them up high, and at such times, the average person couldn't be bothered with him much.

However, Ye Chen was now treating Wu's father and son, not just that previous feud, but more importantly, they had smashed Shi Tianqi's Ji Shi Hall.

This anger, Ye Chen had to take out, and not quickly.

So, Ye Chen looked at Wu Donghai, smiled calmly and said, "One billion is indeed quite sincere, but Mr. Wu, this courtesy of yours seems to be worse than your son ah."

Wu Donghai was stunned and instantly realized that Ye Chen was complaining that he hadn't kowtowed.

He didn't think it was a shame to kowtow, after all, it was for the Rejuvenation Pill!

Thinking of this, he worshipped without thinking, naing his head.

After kowtowing, Wu Donghai raised his head and piously said, "Master Ye, please give Wu a chance, if you are willing to sell a rejuvenation pill to Wu, Wu will immediately deposit one billion yuan in cash into your account!"

Ye Chen looked at him, smiled playfully and said, "Rejuvenation Pill is simple, actually you guessed right, I do still have a Rejuvenation Pill, but that's something I kept for myself, but since the price is right for you, then I can also consider selling it to you"

Saying that, Ye Chen reached into his pocket and slowly pulled out a small wooden box that was exactly the same as the one given to Master Song, after opening it, there was indeed a Rejuvenation Pill inside.

After taking out the Rejuvenation Pill, Ye Chen stood up and said to everyone present, "Everyone, the Rejuvenation Pill is of great importance, I just hid it from you all, I hope you will forgive me. I've made it clear to everyone here, this Rejuvenation Pill, there is indeed one more, but this one is for myself, and I truly have no intention of selling it, but Mr. Wu's attitude is sincere, and he has quoted a high price, so I really have to think about it."

Although the crowd was gluttonous for this Rejuvenation Pill, there was nothing they could do about it.

After all, the people who could come up with a billion in cash were too few and far between.

It was estimated that there were no more than five people present.

Moreover, who would dare to rob the Wu family at this time?

Wu Donghai had kneeled down and kowtowed to Ye Chen for this medicine, if he was still barking at him at this time, wouldn't he be hated to death?

Wu Donghai looked at the Rejuvenation Pill, smelled the fresh medicinal fragrance emanating from it, and said with great excitement, "Master Ye, as long as you are willing to sell it, one billion yuan in cash will arrive immediately!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly, "Don't worry, there's one more thing we haven't talked about before we talk about the Springback Pill."

"There's more?" Wu Donghai frowned and asked, "What is it?"

Ye Chen's expression gradually darkened as he coldly questioned, "I'm also considered a forgetful friend of Shi Tianqi, you father and son smashed Shi Tianqi's Ji Shi Hall, how do you account for this?"

As soon as this was said, Old Master Song couldn't help but have his brows furrowed, he looked gloomy and spoke out, "Wu Donghai, Dr. Shi is a high ranking scholar of the Apricot Forest, who has saved the lives of countless people by hanging out of the pot, and he is also a good friend of the old man, so why did you smash his medical school?!"

Wu Donghai's head was as big as a bucket when he heard this.

Unexpectedly, Shi Tianqi and Ye Chen were still forgetful friends!

680

That's a bit tricky!

I didn't know about this relationship before! I thought it was just a famous old Chinese doctor, and since I couldn't beat him up, I would just smash his shop and put a little pressure on him to force him to agree to see his youngest son.

But I didn't expect to get into trouble here.

However, he had to rejuvenate his heart, and at this point, his eyes could only point at Wu Xin beside him and say with a face of indignation, "Hey! It's my son's fault. He's impulsive and inconsiderate! It's my fault for teaching my son!"

Wu Xin's facial expression twitched.

He really didn't expect that he would instantly become the backstabber of his own old man.

Although he was extremely indignant, he didn't dare to show the slightest bit of dissatisfaction.

Since his old man had asked him to take the blame, he could only bite his teeth and take the blame!

So, he lowered his head and spoke, "I'm sorry, I was impulsive and smashed Divine Doctor Shi's shop, please forgive me, Master Ye!"

Wu Donghai also hurriedly said on the side, "Master Ye rest assured, I will definitely compensate all the losses incurred by Divine Doctor Shi tenfold!"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "There are some things that can't be solved by paying money."

Wu Donghai hurriedly asked, "How does Master Ye want to solve it?"

"Me?" Ye Chen looked at him and said with a smile, "My solution is very simple"

Saying that, Ye Chen deliberately slowed down his pace a bit and looked at Wu Xin.

With his four eyes, Wu Xin was frightened by the fierce aura in Ye Chen's eyes and panicked a bit.

Just when he was still speculating what kind of solution Ye Chen would propose, Ye Chen suddenly made a move and grabbed his right wrist, followed by a gentle twist

Hearing only a click, Wu Xin's right wrist was actually directly broken by Ye Chen!

"Ah!!!"

Wu Xin screamed in pain, his face reddened immensely and then turned white again

"AhBroken!My arm is broken!Ye Chen, you're looking for death!"

Ye Chen directly shook his broken hand away and said coldly, "Since you smashed Shi Tianqi's shop, I'll cripple your hand, that's what I call courtesy!"

Wu Xin screamed in pain, shouting, "Dad, this punk broke my arm, I'm going to kill him! I want him dead!!!"

Wu Donghai was also confused, not expecting at all that Ye Chen would actually attack his son directly and be so ruthless, coming up and crippling one of his own son's hands.

However, at this moment, he was still looking forward to that rejuvenation pill in his heart.

For the current him, if Ye Chen was willing to sell him the Rejuvenation Pill, he would still be able to endure the matter of his son's broken hand until he took the Rejuvenation Pill and then find Ye Chen to settle the score with him in the autumn!

So, with a dark face, he spoke, "Master Ye, my son has already paid the price for smashing Divine Doctor Shi's medicine hall, so now you can sell me the Rejuvenation Pill, right?"

"Rejuvenation Pill ah"Ye Chen took the rejuvenation pill out of the small wooden box and placed it in front of himself a few times.

At this time, Wu Donghai's eyes were on the verge of glowing as he looked at this Rejuvenation Pill!

Only, he didn't expect that Ye Chen suddenly smiled faintly at this time and said teasingly, "Compared to your one billion, I still feel better eating it myself!"

After saying that, with a stretch, he put the Rejuvenation Pill into his mouth, chewed it twice, and then just swallowed it!

681

Wu Donghai watched in stunned anger as Ye Chen swallowed that rejuvenation pill!

Only then did he realize that Ye Chen had been playing a trick on him from start to finish!

He had no intention of selling the Rejuvenation Pill to himself, just to make a fool of himself and his father and son in public!

And yet, he, himself, was so naive as to think that the offer of a billion dollars had moved him, and that he would agree to sell that rejuvenation pill to him just by giving him an apology!

At the thought of being teased by him so much and having his son's hand crippled by him, Wu Donghai was almost furious!

He instantly stood up from the ground and shouted, "Ye Chen, I, Wu Donghai, swear not to kill you!"

Saying that, he immediately took out his cell phone and called his bodyguard.

His bodyguards, all of them were experts among experts, and all of them were retired war gods from the army!

These people, who normally seemed like they were no different from ordinary people, but any one of them would be a top dead man!

You could say that they are all top killers who crawled out of the pile of dead!

Ye Chen, on the other hand, was calm at this time, not moving in the slightest.

A rejuvenation pill went down, his body felt a heat wave rolling, this pill he had already eaten five or six, although it did not work as a youthful effect, but it could improve the quality of the body by a lot, so at this time, he was in a state where he was full of energy, but had nowhere to use it, if the Wu family's bodyguards dared to come and pretend with himself, just one breath to clean them all up!

However, he didn't expect Master Song to snort coldly and suddenly stand out, shouting angrily, "Wu Donghai! Your Wu family may be big, but my Song family is not mud, so I'd like to see how mighty your Wu family is, daring to hurt my Song family's noble guests in my Song family!"

Saying that, Master Song shouted, "Someone, surround the hall! Whoever dares to lay a finger on Master Ye today, give me a death blow!"

Wu Donghai stared at Master Song and gritted his teeth in anger, "Uncle Song, he played my father and son as monkeys and crippled one of my son's hands, and you're still trying to shield him! Is your Song family, going to openly oppose my Wu family?!"

Old Master Song said coldly, "Master Ye is Song's benefactor and is as kind to Song, if you have to go against Master Ye, then you are going against my Song family!"

"Yes! Yes! Yes!"

Wu Donghai gritted his teeth and said, "Your Song family is awesome! You don't give a damn about my family! Do you think that this is your territory and you can ride on my Wu family's head and shit on it?!"

Song arrogantly said, "Song Mou has acted honestly all his life, and would never do anything to ride on someone else's head and shit on them, but if someone has to be on Song Mou's territory and target Song Mou's benefactor, then I'm sorry! No matter who he is, Song Mou will never spoil him!"

A furious cry from Master Song deafened everyone present!

The old man himself had experienced countless waves in his life, and had seen all kinds of battles, and had long since developed a non-angry majesty, plus having just eaten the Rejuvenation Pill, he was full of neutral energy, and this cry of anger was truly horrifying!

Wu Donghai was suddenly a bit wary too!

He had come to Jinling with only a few bodyguards with him.

Even though these bodyguards were the best of the best, there was definitely no chance of winning against so many people from the Song family.

After all, this was the Song family's home base, and the Song family had dozens of bodyguards in the open, so who knew how many more were hidden in the dark?

If it comes to a fight, Wu Donghai's side won't get anywhere!

A few top bodyguards might be able to kill like Zhao Zilong, but he and his son don't have much fighting power, and he might get hurt or even be left here by the Song family.

The Wu family is powerful, but they are all set up in Suhang, and now they can't put out a fire from afar!

Thinking of this, Wu Donghai could only decide to avoid it for now!

So, he said with a sneer, "Uncle Song means that you are going to tear your face off with our Wu family? Yes! In that case, on behalf of the Wu family, I will make a clean break with the Song family, and from then on, the two Song and Wu families will never be at odds!"

682

When Song Honor on the side saw this, he hurriedly stepped forward and spoke out of turn, "Grandpa, our Song family has been friends with the Wu family for many years, please think twice!"

Song Honor did not want to see, to his death, the two Song Wu families completely break up.

He was still counting on marrying Song Wanting to the Wu family, and if the two families broke up completely, then that would never be possible!

Master Song glanced at Song Honor and said indifferently, "There's nothing to think twice about, the Wu family is the number one family in Jiangnan and our Song family can't afford to climb up! The Song family and the Wu family, from now on, are severed!"

The words landed on the floor, and the crowd present were all jaw-dropped.

The crowd could never have imagined that a birthday banquet would lead to a complete break between the Wu family, the number one family in Jiangnan, and the Song family, the number one family in Jinling

It seems that Jinling is going to change from now on!

Wu Donghai's cold gaze crossed over Master Song and Ye Chen and said in a furious voice, "Good Song family, good Master Ye, I, Wu Donghai, remember you! We'll see about that! Wu Xin, let's go!"

Saying that, Wu Donghai assisted Wu Xin and whisked his sleeves to leave.

Ye Chen faintly spoke, "And this is how you think it's over?"

Wu Donghai turned back and asked with a murderous air, "Surnamed Ye, what else do you want?"

Ye Chen said, "I only taught your son a lesson by ruining one of his hands, but you must make reparations for smashing Shi's shop!"

Saying that, Ye Chen said without question, "I restrict you to deliver ten times the compensation to Shi Lao within three days, and kowtow to Shi Lao to apologize and pray for forgiveness, otherwise, I'll cripple Wu Xin's other hand next time!"

When Wu Donghai heard this, his eyes were cold and murderous!

He bellowed in a cornered voice, "Ye Chen! You're so awesome! Do you know the status of my family in Jiangnan? If you mess with my Wu family, I'll let you die without a funeral!"

Ye Chen sneered, "Don't talk nonsense to me here, your Wu family is not even a hair in my eyes! I advise you to get the hell out of Jinling after compensating Shi Lao, or else your father and son will probably have to leave their lives behind!"

"You"

Wu Donghai really didn't expect Ye Chen to be so crazy!

He had the intention to kill Ye Chen now, but thinking of the attitude of the old and immortal Master Song, he could only reluctantly endure for the time being.

However, in his heart, Ye Chen was already a mortal man!

It's just that right now, the time to kill him is not ripe.

You can plan well after you go back, if you really can't, you'll pull a group of experts from the Wu family over and wipe out Ye Chen and the Song family!

Thinking of this, Wu Donghai waved his hand viciously and took off, "Wu Xin, let's go!"

Saying that, he left the Song family villa in a mess, taking Wu Xin, who had broken his arm, with him.

Song Honor looked at Wu Donghai's departing figure, and then at Song Wanting, and the old man who was more than ten years younger, and secretly bit his teeth, his eyes filled with resignation.

What a loss for himself today!

This old thing grandpa suddenly has an extra ten years of life expectancy, the heavenly credit is again counted by Ye Chen on Song Wanting's head, and grandpa has completely turned against the Wu family for the sake of Ye Chen

If this continues, maybe one day Grandpa will suddenly announce that Song Wanting will be the next generation's heir!

That would be a waste of money, wouldn't it?

683

Wu Donghai and Wu Xin, father and son, exasperatedly left the Song villa.

Wu Xin covered his broken hand and said with tears in his eyes, "Dad! I've told you not to beg that Yeh's cunt, but you didn't listen! Now I've broken my arm, and you yourself have been humiliated by him in public, all humiliated!"

Wu Donghai said with a black face, "Since the one surnamed Ye is looking for his own death, then don't blame me for being rude! Don't worry, daddy will avenge you!"

Wu Xin blurted out, "Then we'll kill Ye Chen tonight!"

"No!" Wu Donghai said coldly, "Let's stick to the original plan and kill Hong Wu first! Pulling out Hongwu, the point of fire, whether it's killing Ye Chen or the Song family, it's easy as pie!"

Wu Xin hurriedly asked, "Dad, what exactly do you plan to do?"

Wu Donghai said, "Let's heal your hand first, and we'll discuss the rest in the long run!"

The two of them said that they had already walked out from the Song family courtyard.

Liu Guang, who had previously been kicked out and had been waiting here, hastily covered his red and swollen face and quickly welcomed them.

"Mr. Wu, Young Master" Liu Guang had just run up to the front and was about to ask what they had done to that waste Ye Chen. Did you avenge yourself?

However, he suddenly saw Wu Xin's pale face and left hand grabbing the shrugged right wrist, his heart thumped, and he couldn't help but feel that something was wrong.

So, Liu Guang hurriedly asked, "Wu Shao, what happened to your hand?"

Wu Xin's cold sweat of pain dripped out, and with a muffled grunt, he cursed, "It's all because of that trash Ye Chen, he actually dared to ruin my hand in public, I'll make sure he dies without a funeral!"

Originally, after discovering that Ye Chen was the man Song Wanting liked, Wu Xin wanted to use this birthday banquet to trample Ye Chen, a trash, under his feet so that Song Wanting would recognize reality, then come back to her senses and choose to be with her.

Who would have expected that instead of being able to step on Ye Chen herself, she was instead, along with her father, played a terrible trick on Ye Chen!

Just now, myself and dad had taken turns kowtowing and apologizing to Ye Chen, this was simply the second greatest shame for the Wu family after brother Wu Qi had turned into a shit swallowing beast!

And this son of a bitch isn't just disgracing himself in full view of the public! He even broke his own wrist!

After today, I'm afraid the entire Jinling would remember that he, the young master of the number one family in Jiangnan, was severely beaten in the face in public by Ye Chen, a nameless pawn, and became the laughing stock of everyone!

When Liu Guang heard Wu Xin's words, he was horrified!

He didn't think that Ye Chen, a trash, would even dare to beat up Wu Shao!

He then couldn't help but provoke Wu Xin and said, "Wu Shao, that trash Ye Chen dares to do this to you, you mustn't let him off!"

Wu Donghai at the side said coldly, "Don't worry, this Ye Chen won't live long!"

Saying that, Wu Donghai instructed Liu Guang, "Liu Guang, you are a local, you are more familiar with the local area, I will give you a task."

Liu Guang hurriedly said, "You may command, Mr. Wu!"

Wu Donghai said, "You first take Young Master to the best orthopedic hospital for injuries and heal Young Master's hand, so nothing can go wrong!"

Only then did Liu Guang suddenly realize that Wu Xin's hand had actually been broken by Ye Chen, and hurriedly said, "Don't worry, Mr. Wu! I'm taking Young Master to the best orthopedic hospital!"

684

When Wu Xin heard this, he couldn't help but ask, "Dad, aren't you coming to the hospital with me?"

The company's president and chief executive officer, Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak, said the company's strategy is to "make the best use of the resources available to the public in order to achieve its goals. Plan!"

"To pay a visit to Richard Chan?" Wu Xin said with some grumbling, "Dad, why did you pay him a visit, isn't he just a dog of the Yanjing Ye family? More important than my broken hand?"

Wu Donghai frowned, "What do you know? Although the Wu family is dominant in Jiangnan, it's nothing more than an earthly fortune compared to the Yanjing Ye family, which is the true top family!"

"That Chen Zekai, don't look like just a dog of the Ye family, but he is the face of the Ye family in Jinling, representing the Ye family's face in Jinling, I definitely have to go and pay my respects personally, if I can open a breakthrough from him, I might even be able to take the opportunity to make a connection with the Ye family."

For the Wu family, although they were obviously holding the name of the number one family in Jiangnan and making a name for themselves in the entire Jiangnan, but when compared to the Ye family, a true top-tier hidden family, it could be said that there was a difference between the clouds and the mud.

If one could take this opportunity to get on board with the Ye family, the entire Wu family would soar to the sky as a result.

Once Wu Xin heard this, he stopped complaining in his heart and nodded and said, "I know dad, then you go to Shangri-La first, after I finish seeing the doctor and putting on the plaster cast

Wu Donghai then said to Wu Xin, "Alright, you guys go to the hospital first, I'll let you know when I've made the arrangements."

Wu Xin hmmmmed and also showed his expectation, so he followed Liu Guang to the car and went to the hospital to treat his broken hand.

.....

After Wu Xin and Liu Guang left, Wu Donghai, accompanied by his bodyguards and assistants, also headed to Shangri-La.

Along the way, he was thinking angrily about how to kill Ye Chen in order to relieve himself of his hatred, as well as this ill-informed Master Song.

You think you're powerful because you've taken a rejuvenation pill, are a dozen years younger, and can live a dozen more years?

If you dare to talk to me like that, then I'll just wipe out your entire Song family!

Soon, the motorcade stopped outside the Shangri-La Hotel.

Wu Donghai asked the bodyguards accompanying him to take out his most precious Wuyi Mountain mother tree great red robe tea from the car, preparing to give it to Chen Zekai as a gift.

His great red robe, plucked from the only six remaining mother trees in Mount Wuyi, was so valuable that its annual production was only a dozen pounds, and the price of a pound could even shoot up to tens of millions.

And it's not something that can be bought with money.

Because, most of this tea's limited annual output was supplied directly to Yanjing, and the rest, what could flow into the market, was not even two pounds.

And Wu Donghai's jar of Da Hong Robe, which had a weight of one catty, was something that he had spent a lot of money, thought and favors to get.

Because Wu Donghai treats this tea like a treasure, he carries it with him wherever he goes, and only occasionally, when he wants to drink it, does he quietly brew a gram or two for himself.

When he decided to come to Shangri-La Hotel, he decided not to go to Chen Zekai empty-handed, so he gave him this jar of Da Hong Robe as a gift to get a good impression of him.

As soon as he entered the Shangri-La, Wu Donghai stepped forward to the front desk and said to the front desk lady, "Hello, please inform your General Manager Chen, and tell him that Wu Donghai of the Suhang Wu Family has come to pay his respects!"

The front desk of Shangri-La was by no means an ordinary front desk lady, she already knew the entire Jiangnan Province's dignitaries like the back of her hand, and when she heard that it was the Suhang Wu Family, she immediately paid attention, picked up the phone and directly dialed Chen Zekai's office.

"Mr. Chen, Mr. Wu Donghai of the Suhang Wu Family wants to see you!"

685

Chen Zekai didn't know that Wu Donghai and Ye Chen even had a conflict.

Hearing that Wu Donghai came to pay a visit, he did not slacken off, although he was the spokesman of the Ye family in Jinling, the other party was after all the eldest son of the first family in Jiangnan, and he had to give enough respect by taking the initiative to visit him.

Thus, he hurriedly said to the front desk, "Directly invite Mr. Wu to my office."

The receptionist didn't dare to slacken off and said to Wu Donghai in succession, "Hello Mr. Wu, our General Manager Chen invites you to his office, please follow me."

Wu Donghai nodded and followed this receptionist girl, taking the president's exclusive elevator to reach Chen Zekai's office.

To Wu Donghai, he was the son of the noble Wu family, so it was natural for him to stay at the best hotel in Jinling.

It just so happened that the best hotel in Jinling was Shangri-La, so it was a win-win situation for him to pay a visit to Richard Chen and deepen his relationship with him.

When Richard Chen saw Wu Donghai come in, he smiled and stood up, took the initiative to reach out his hand to shake with Wu Donghai and said pleasantly, "I heard that Mr. Wu has been active in the area around Suzhou and Hangzhou for years, why did he suddenly come to Jinling this time?"

Wu Donghai sighed and said, "Hey, it's a long story, my youngest son Wu Qi also doesn't know who has been offended, something has changed, I came here this time, just to find a solution."

Chen Zekai nodded, of course he had heard of Wu Qi's matter, he had even seen the video on Shakespeare at first, so this suddenly remembered, all of a sudden some nausea, and involuntarily dry heaves.

With this dry heaving of Chen Zekai, Wu Donghai's expression also became embarrassed.

Where he was not clear about what was the reason for this dry heaving of Chen Zekai, to be honest, thinking of certain clips of his youngest son, he himself was also nauseated.

So, Wu Donghai could only change the subject, "Forget it, today, I came over mainly to pay a visit to Mr. Chen, let's not talk about these spoilers, I've brought some gifts for Mr. Chen, I hope you'll like it."

Saying that, he immediately handed the jar of Mother Tree Da Hong Robe tea to Chen Zekai.

"Mr. Chen, this is mother tree great red robe tea leaves from the mother tree of Mount Wuyi, it's my personal treasure, it's not normally visible, if you like tea, you'll definitely like it."

Naturally, Chen Zekai also knew how precious the mother tree great red robe was, he even waved his hand, "How can I make this, Wuyishan mother tree tea leaves are becoming less and less available on the market, and even more treasured by General Manager Wu, how can I take it away from others."

Wu Donghai immediately said, "Chen don't be polite, you are the spokesman of the Ye family in Jinling and the whole Jiangnan, our Wu family has been looking forward to cooperating with the Ye family, we will have to count on Chen to help our Wu family in the future."

Chen Zekai waved his hand at the words, "I'm just a servant of the Ye family, and what I do is all part of my job, Mr. Wu's words are too important."

Wu Donghai said heartily, "General Manager Chen is too modest."

When Chen Zekai saw Wu Donghai's sincere attitude, he said, "Since Mr. Wu is so sincere, I won't be polite to you, I have a few bottles of collectible Louis XIII here, I'll have someone bring you a few bottles to taste later."

Wu Donghai was flattered and hurriedly said, "Oh my, that's really a big thank you to Mr. Chen!"

Chen Zhai Kai smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Wu is coming over today, so I'm sure it's not just a matter of sending tea to Chen, right?"

Wu Donghai nodded and said, "Truth be told, my eldest son and I, as well as a few bodyguards and assistants, may have to stay in Jinling for a while, so we thought that we would dawdle at your Shangri-La."

Chen Zhaji smiled and said, "Welcome! Since Wu is here, he's naturally a distinguished guest, I'll have someone arrange a presidential suite for you and Ling Lang, you can stay as long as you like."

Wu Donghai hurriedly thanked, "Oh my, thank you so much Mr. Chen!"

Chen Zaijie smiled calmly, "There's no need to be so polite, Mr. Wu."

After saying that, she curiously asked, "By the way, where is your grand duke, Mr. Wu? How come it's not with you?"

686

Wu Donghai was too embarrassed to say that his son had had his wrist broken, so he said, "He happens to be a bit busy, he probably won't come over until later, and when he does, I'll bring him to visit you!"

Chen Zekai nodded and said, "How about this, I'll first arrange for someone to take you back to your room to rest, and when your son returns in the evening, we'll have dinner together, just as if I'm the host to fetch you both."

Wu Donghai was delighted in his heart and arched his hand, "That would be a great help to Chen."

He felt that he and Richard Chen had only been nodding acquaintances before, getting to know each other, and now after he had paid a visit, and Richard Chen had accepted his gift, the relationship was tantamount to a step closer.

And this was what Wu Donghai was most eager for.

As the spokesman of the Yanjing Ye family in Jinling, Richard Chen was a knocking brick, and as long as he could maintain a good relationship with him, he would definitely be able to take this opportunity in the future to embrace the Ye family as a true gnarled tree.

Moreover, Wu Donghai also had his own small mind.

He felt that if the Wu family was unable to find someone who could save Wu Qi, after hugging the Ye family's thigh, he could also request the Ye family to take action.

With the Ye Family's strength, there would be countless capable people saddling up for them with a single order.

And Chen Zekai didn't think too much about it, after all, it was the number one family in Jiangnan, the face that should be given was still to be given.

So, after exchanging pleasantries with Wu Donghai for a while, he let someone take him to the presidential suite to rest first.

Wu Donghai brought a few bodyguards with him, and after entering the luxurious presidential suite, he called Wu Xin and asked him to come over to round with him.

At this time, Wu Xin had already finished his plaster cast at the hospital, and after receiving the call from Wu Donghai, he took Liu Guang with him and headed to Shangri-La together.

Sitting in the car, Wu Xin's expression was still very gloomy and full of depression.

When Liu Guang saw this, he quickly said, "Wu Shao, the doctor has ordered that you have just put on a plaster cast, so don't get angry, otherwise it will affect the healing of the bones and cause sequelae."

Wu Xin angrily said, "I will definitely not let that damned Ye Chen go, I will chop off both of his hands!"

Liu Guang's heart was ecstatic, Wu Xin was the one who was the most excited about being beaten and having his hand broken, because then the Wu family would definitely not let Ye Chen off the hook, and he would be able to take revenge for the carving on his son's forehead!

However, he was incomparably concerned and said, "Wu Shao, you must take care of your health, it's not too late to talk about revenge later."

Wu Xin sneered more than a little and said fiercely, "Just wait and see, that Ye Chen won't be able to bounce around for long."

Arriving at Shangri-La, Wu Xin took Liu Guang and headed straight to the presidential suite where Wu Donghai was staying.

After knocking on the door, the bouncer opened the door from inside.

Wu Xin stepped into the huge living room and said to Wu Donghai, who was sitting on the sofa, "Dad, I'm back."

Wu Donghai gave a hmmm and asked with concern, "How is your hand? What did the doctor say?"

Wu Xin said with a black face, "It's broken, the doctor gave it a plaster cast, I'm afraid I need to recuperate for a few months before I can see better."

Wu Donghai nodded and instructed, "You need to pay more attention recently, don't leave any after-effects."

Wu Xin took off, "Dad, it doesn't matter what happened to the hand, so tell us exactly how we are going to deal with Ye Chen!"

Wu Donghai sneered and said, "If you want to kill Ye Chen, kill Hong Wu first tonight!"

687

As soon as Liu Guang heard Wu Donghai say that he was going to kill Hong Wu first tonight, he got excited inside!

He'd been hoping for Hongwu's death for a long time, but now he'd finally get his wish!

Besides, by killing Hung Ng, not only will he get his revenge, but the Wu family will also promote him to the top!

Wouldn't that make him the next underground emperor of Jinling!

Thinking of this, he trembled with excitement.

Wu Xin asked at the side, "Dad, Hong Wu has many little brothers in Jinling, I'm afraid it's not that easy to kill him, right?"

Wu Donghai said indifferently, "You have to understand one thing, to kill Hong Wu, you don't have to kill all of his little brothers first!"

"Dad, what do you mean?"

Wu Donghai said coldly, "Hongwu's younger brothers are in the thousands, but they may not all be around him at all times, we just need to know where he'll be at certain times, then go there to find him and kill him directly!"

Liu Guang said hurriedly, "I know! Hong Wu's whereabouts are erratic during the day, but at night he's usually at the Heavenly Fragrance Mansion, because his Heavenly Fragrance Mansion is famous in Jinling, and many of his fox and dog friends will go there for dinner at night."

Wu Donghai asked him, "How many security guards are there at the Tianxiang Mansion?"

Liu Guang thought about it and said, "For security, ten or so, the rest are waiters."

Wu Donghai snorted, "A mere ten security guards is not enough, these bodyguards of mine are all the best in the army back then, which one can't take one for ten?"

Saying that, he looked towards a burly middle-aged man who was the leader of his five bodyguards and asked, "Zhang Zizhou, you've been with me the longest, you're the strongest and the sharpest, I'm asking you to take the others with you and go to the Heavenly Fragrance House tonight to kill Hong Wu, whoever gets in your way, can you do it?"

Zhang Zizhou immediately cupped his fist and said, "Don't worry Master Wu, a dozen security guards are nothing more than ants in front of the few of us, and as for that Hong Wu, I'll even kill him like a dog!"

Wu Donghai nodded his head in satisfaction and looked at Liu Guang, saying, "Liu Guang, don't you have a blood feud with Hong Wu? I'm giving you a chance to get your revenge. Take my men to the Heavenly Fragrance House tonight and kill Hong Wu. Kill him, and my Wu family will come out to protect you and handpick you as the new underground emperor of Jinling!"

When Liu Guang heard this, bone-deep hatred sprang up in his eyes, while his heart was already boiling with blood!

What's the point of being a dog for the Wu family?

Isn't it just to avenge the death of Hongwu and Ye Chen?

Now, Wu Donghai had also given himself a chance, a chance to become the underground emperor of Jinling!

How could I refuse such a good thing!

Moreover, he had already heard that the Wu family's bodyguards were all retired soldiers from the army, and it was absolutely no problem to take one for ten.

With five such people, going to the Heavenly Fragrance House to kill a Hong Wu was more than enough!

Once Hongwu died, his little brothers would immediately be left without a leader!

And at this time, there was the Wu family backing him up again.

It would be easy for myself to become the new underground emperor of Jinling!

From now on, with this relationship with the Wu family, it was very likely that he would be on top of his life from now on!

At this moment, at the birthday banquet at Master Song, Ye Chen waited for the official opening of the banquet, then toasted a glass of wine to Master Song, and then he hurried to Shi Tianqi's Ji Shi Hall to see what was going on.

At the table, Wang Zhenggang, Qin Aoxue, Hong Wu, Wei Liang and even Wang Dongxue looked at him with a little more respect than before.

The miraculous effect of the Spring Return Pill was really impressive.

However, everyone was also quite self-conscious and no one had actively mentioned the Rejuvenation Pill to him.

Although Ye Chen still had twenty rejuvenation pills left, he wasn't prepared to give them away again at this time.

Although Wang Zhenggang, Qin Gang, and Hong Wu were not young, they were far from entering old age.

Therefore, there was no need for them to take the rejuvenation pills now.

If they remained reserved and solid around themselves in the future, they would definitely give them one each at the right time.

At the dinner table, Ye Chen looked at Wei Liang, whom he hadn't seen in a few days, and asked him curiously, "How is Wei's pharmaceutical lately?"

Wei Liang hurriedly said respectfully, "Back to Master Ye, Wei's pharmaceutical development is all normal, I am also now organizing some old Chinese doctors, as well as Chinese patent medicine pharmacists, to discover and study our ancient Chinese prescriptions, and prepare to launch some ancient Chinese medicines."

Saying that, Wei Liang said with some regret, "Our ancestors left so many good prescriptions that are now either lost or plagiarized by pharmaceutical companies from other countries, it's really a pity, so I want to discover as much as possible."

Ye Chen nodded his head and said approvingly, "That's a good idea, the good things left behind by our ancestors have been taken away by these companies in Japan and Korea, if we don't pay attention to them, then in the future, I'm afraid that the Chinese prescriptions left behind by our ancestors will become the bragging capital of these small countries around us."

Saying that, Ye Chen suddenly thought of Japan's Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

Kobayashi Pharmaceutical had been screwed by himself for over 10 billion, and it was now a time of vitality, and he had also left a hidden problem for Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

The Kobayashi family's second son, Kobayashi Jiro, thought his brother was dead, but he never dreamed that Kobayashi Ichiro, his little buddy, was still feeding dogs and shoveling dog shit at Hongwu's dog farm.

If Kobayashi Pharmaceutical was devastated by this, that was fine, but if Kobayashi Pharmaceutical raised its head a little, he could take Kobayashi Ichiro back to picking peaches with him.

Thinking of this, he asked Wei Liang, "How is Kobayashi Pharmaceutical in Japan, how is it going these days?"

Wei Liang said, "Xiao Lin Pharmaceutical had some problems some time ago, it seems like they lost a large amount of cash, and now they are slightly having trouble with liquidity, but they are now a skinny camel bigger than a horse, not to mention that Xiao Lin Pharmaceutical still has quite a few best-selling drugs, so it shouldn't take long for them to regain their strength."

Ye Chen mmed, already having a plan in mind.

When Kobayashi Pharmaceutical had slowed down, he would send Kobayashi Ichiro back to Japan and say that he would help him squeeze Kobayashi Jiro out of the way.

That way, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical would basically be equal to his own.

So he said to Wei Liang, "If there's any movement on Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's side, report back to me in time."

"Okay Master Ye." Wei Liang nodded piously and respectfully said, "I'll keep a close eye on it."

Ye Chen asked again, "By the way, how are your father and that brother of yours doing in Changbai Mountain?"

Wei Liang smiled slightly and said, "The people I sent and the Fifth Master's people are taking turns keeping an eye on them there, I heard that the Changbai Mountain has recently cooled down and snowed off, the two of them are a bit short of food, and there aren't enough ginseng pickings to count, so they might have to live without clothes and food this winter."

Ye Chen nodded his head and said, "It doesn't matter if they lack clothing or food, as long as they don't die."

Wei Liang immediately said, "Master Ye don't worry, although I hate them in my heart, but after all, there is blood in them, no matter what, I will keep them alive and let them repent by digging ginseng properly in Changbai Mountain!"

At this time, the energetic Master Song, with a group of Song family sons and daughters, came to toast Ye Chen.

A crowd of people followed Master Song to the front and called out to Master Ye in unison.

Ye Chen slightly got up, lifted the wine cup, and said to Master Song, "Master Song no need to be so polite, I'll toast you with this cup and wish you longevity."

After saying that, Ye Chen tilted his head to finish the wine and said, "I'm going to go to Old Man Shi's Ji Shi Hall to take a look, I'll take my leave later."

Master Song sighed and said, "Oh my, Doctor Shi's medicine hall was smashed, I should also go over and take a look, but there were still so many guests there, it's really too much to spare"

Ye Chen nodded his head and smiled, "Old Song's birthday today, naturally, it's important to rejoice with everyone, I've already called Xiao Zhao to make sure that she and Shi are both unharmed, it's just that the shop was smashed, but it doesn't matter."

Master Song hurriedly said, "Master Ye, then let Wan Ting go with you, after all, it was Wan Ting who picked you up, it's not convenient for you to go by yourself from here."

Ye Chen didn't refuse and nodded his head to agree, then said to the few people present, "Everyone, you eat and drink well, I'll go first."

Everyone got up to see each other off, but when they saw Ye Chen instructing them with hand gestures, they sat back down.

Ye Chen said to Hong Wu before leaving, "My father-in-law seems to be treating guests to dinner at the Heavenly Fragrance House tonight, if you go to the Heavenly Fragrance House, take care of it for me, if not, greet the person in charge there for me."

Hong Wu hurriedly said, "Don't worry, Master Ye, I'm usually at the Heavenly Fragrance Mansion at night, and I'll do my best to arrange it when your father-in-law arrives."

"Mm." Ye Chen nodded and said, "Then it will be hard for you to take the extra trouble."

Hong Wu busily said, "Master Ye you are polite, this is all I should do!"

In Ye Chen's eyes, the old father-in-law, Xiao Changkun, was quite nice, plus after knowing those things in his past, Ye Chen did feel that he was actually pitiful, so he instinctively wanted to take care of him a little bit more.

After bidding farewell to everyone, Ye Chen, accompanied by Song Wanting, stepped out of the Song family villa.

Song Wanting took Ye Chen all the way to her car and personally opened the passenger door for Ye Chen, and only after Ye Chen got into the car did she sit in.

As soon as she got into the car, Song Wanting looked at Ye Chen with gratitude and said from the bottom of her heart, "Master Ye, thank you so much today"

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "You don't need to thank me, this rejuvenation chance was given to your grandfather, it's enough for him to thank me."

Song Wanting was busy saying, "Master Ye, I am not only thanking you because of this, but also because of what you said to your grandfather"

Song Wanting was very grateful to Ye Chen in her heart, mainly because of what Ye Chen had said to Master Song.

She had lost her parents since she was a child, and although she had good material conditions in the Song family, she rarely felt affection and didn't have that feeling of being taken care of and protected at all times.

However, just now, Ye Chen would even speak for her and would even give her the credit for sending the rejuvenation pills, this was helping her to establish her position in the Song family, to Song Wanting, it was as if Ye Chen was always protecting her, making her body overflow with a warm current that she had not experienced before.

It wasn't easy for her to live in the Song family by herself.

Ye Chen looked at her, smiled slightly and said, "I think that in the third generation of the Song family, you are the most suitable candidate to inherit the Song family, as for that cousin of yours, to be honest, it feels like he's just an outwardly strong man, if the Song family is handed over to him, it will definitely go downhill."

690

Song Wanting hurriedly waved her hand, "Actually, my brother is also quite powerful, I'm not going to inherit the Song family in the future, I just hope that when my grandfather dies, I don't want to be swept out of the house by them"

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said seriously, "With me here, I won't let this happen."

Song Wanting was incomparably grateful, rolled her eyes and said, "Master Ye, I will now send you to the Relief Hall"

Saying that, she started the car and drove out of the villa.

At this time in the Ji Shi Hall, Shi Tianqi was taking Chen Xiaozhao with him to clean up the medicine cabinet that had been smashed by the Wu family's bodyguards.

Seeing Ye Chen and Song Wanting stepping in, Shi Tianqi hurriedly greeted and said in surprise, "Master Ye, what are you doing here? And Miss Song, isn't it your grandfather's birthday?"

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "I heard Xiao Zhao say that the Wu family had come over to look for trouble, so I came to see how things were going on your side, did you lose much?"

Shi Tianqi waved his hand and smiled indifferently, "It's nothing more than the loss of some medicine cabinets and herbs, it's nothing."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "I broke that Wu Xin's right hand as a little punishment, and I also told them that they must come to apologize within three days."

As soon as Shi Tianqi heard this, he hurriedly said nervously, "Master Ye, you don't need to break up with the Wu family over this small matter of old age! The Wu family is the number one family in Jiangnan, I'm afraid that they will harbor a grudge against you and intend to take revenge"

Ye Chen said calmly, "Don't worry, if the Wu family wants revenge, let them come, I will use the results to tell them that Jinling is not Suhan, there is a price to pay for messing around."

Chen Xiaozhao said with an adoring face, "Master Ye, thank you for helping me and my grandfather take out this bad breath, the father and son surnamed Wu is really too much, just have to teach them a lesson and make them a little fearful!"

Shi Tianqi looked at Chen Xiaozhao and reprimanded: "What are you talking about blindly? How many times have I told you not to cause trouble for Master Ye, why can't you understand this girl?"

Chen Xiaozhao could only nod his head in aggravation, not daring to say more.

Ye Chen then spoke up and said, "Old Shi, to tell you the truth, the reason why the Wu family's father and son came to trouble you, to some extent, is also necessarily related to me."

Shi Tianqi, Chen Xiaozhao, and Song Wanting were all a bit surprised, not understanding what Ye Chen meant by this.

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "None of you are outsiders, so I'll tell the truth, that second son of the Wu family, Wu Qi, turned out the way he did in the Shakespeare upload because I added a mental note to him."

"Ah?!"The three present were dumbfounded!

No one would have thought that Wu Qi, who had become famous for turning into a shit swallowing beast some time ago, the culprit behind it was Ye Chen!

Chen Xiaozhao subconsciously asked, "Master Ye, do you have any conflicts with that Wu Qi?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "I don't have a problem with him, I just simply can't see it."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "This brat doesn't study well in a good university, always tramples on female students, and even tries to induce Qin Gang's daughter's best friend to commit suicide, I couldn't see past him, so I gave him a little lesson, so that he can't trample on girls for the rest of his life."

Chen Xiaozhao immediately looked at him with incomparable admiration and spoke out, "Master Ye, you are truly my idol!!I've long heard that that Wu Qi is no good, and I wonder how many people are clapping their hands at what he's become!So it's you, Master Ye, who is acting on behalf of Heaven!"

Song Wanting on the side couldn't help but exclaim in awe, "Master Ye, the reason why Wu Donghai is still staying in Jinling is to find the person who did this to Wu Qi, but I didn't expect it to be you
