Chapter 941

Two BMWs, one in front of the other, returned to Townsend's grand villa.

Xiao Changkun was counted out all the way by Ma Lan, and his discontent grew stronger.

When he first received Ma Lan's call, he was singing a love song with his first love, so he was guilty of being a thief and went to the hospital in a hurry when he heard her get angry.

But after calming down, he feels more and more that Ma Lan is a person who is really hopeless.

So, Xiao Changkun's thoughts of divorcing her also grew stronger and stronger.

After getting out of the car, Xiao Changkun directly from the back row, handed the abduction bought from the hospital to Ma Lan.

Ma Lan was still waiting for him to help herself in, or even carry herself in, but she didn't expect him to hand over an abduction directly.

Ma Lan leaned on the crutches in place and cursed, "Xiao Changkun you old son of a bitch, I have a broken leg and you throw me a handful of crutches?"

Xiao Changkun said, "You'll have to get used to crutches sooner or later anyway, or what if you have to go to the bathroom yourself?"

"What?" Ma Lan angrily questioned, "What do you mean, I won't be able to count on you in the future?"
One second to remember to read the book

Xiao Changkun said with a black face, "Don't you forget that we're already separated!"

Ma Lan wanted to yell at her, when Ye Chen just happened to also park the car in front of her.

As soon as she got out of the car, Ma Lan immediately complained to her, Xiao Chorán, in the spirit of turning a big issue into a small one, hurriedly assisted her and opened his mouth to comfort her: "Oh mom, don't be angry with dad, your body is already not good, and then you'll get angry and break your body."

Ma Lan still wanted to open a curse, but suddenly felt a dizziness in her brain, and immediately realized that she had been hungry for too long, and was about to pass out from hypoglycemia.

So she said weakly, "Oh my, I'm dying, I'm starving, where's Ye Chen? Hurry up and cook for me! I'll have braised pork and beef stew."

Ye Chen said with a blank expression, "I haven't had time to buy food today, there's only hanging noodles at home, why don't I give you a bowl of noodles?"

Lan Ma got out, "I've been hungry for two days and two nights! What's the top of a bowl of noodles?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Then I'm going to buy food now."

As soon as Ma Lan heard this, she immediately said urgently, "I'll pass out from hunger when you buy it back!"

Ye Chen asked, "How about I order you a takeaway?"

Lan Ma said off the cuff, "The takeaway will take half an hour or even forty minutes less, so I'd better cook my noodles and knock two more eggs!"

Ye Chen casually said, "There's no more eggs, I haven't gone to buy them yet."

Ma Lan said, "Then give me a taste, okay? Put aside some more vegetables for me, I haven't eaten any vegetables for two days, my mouth is rotting from this fire."

Ye Chen shrugged, "There's nothing at home but hanging noodles, if you want to eat, I'll put down a bowl of noodles in clear soup for you."

Ma Lan stomped her foot in anger, pointed at Ye Chen and asked Xiao Churan, "Churan, is this trash deliberately against me? Why is there nothing in the house?"

Xiao Churan looked embarrassed.

Ye Chen then spoke up and said, "These two days, I've been patronizing you, and I didn't cook at home at all, so I didn't go shopping for food."

Ma Lan was furious but didn't have the strength to be angry with him now, so she said to Ye Chen, "Then you quickly give me a bowl of noodles first!"

Ye Chen answered the call and stepped forward to the kitchen.

There was actually a carton of eggs in the fridge, but he didn't want to give any of them to Ma Lan, so he cracked them all and poured them down the drain in one go, although it was a bit wasteful to pour them down the drain, but it would be even more wasteful if they went into Ma Lan's stomach.

He then used the pot to boil some hot water, grabbed a handful of noodles at random and threw them in.

While he was perfunctorily doing so, his phone suddenly received a WeChat.

This group of 20 to 30 people were all orphans that Auntie Li had taken in and raised, but now that they had all entered society for many years, and many of them were scattered all over the country, their contact with each other wasn't too close.

Ye Chen clicked on the group and found that it wasn't someone @ himself, but someone had sent a message @ everyone.

The message was sent by a girl named Li Xiaofen from the orphanage, and it read, "Secretly I have good news for everyone, Auntie Li has recovered from her illness and returned to Jinling!"

Li Xiaofen was a little girl that Ye Chen met at the orphanage in the beginning.

This little girl, who was abandoned by her parents shortly after she was born, was raised by Aunt Li, who was two or three years younger than Ye Chen, and was a little sister in Ye Chen's eyes. The first website m.kanshu8.net

Auntie Li didn't know her last name, so she named her Li Xiaofen after herself.

When Li Xiaofen became an adult, she worked with Auntie Li in the orphanage, and was the only one among the many young friends who remained in the orphanage.

Seeing her say that Auntie Li had returned from her illness, Ye Chen hurriedly asked in the group, "Why didn't Auntie Li tell us when she came back, so we could go and fetch her."

Li Xiaofen said, "Brother Ye Chen, Auntie Li said she didn't want to cause you any trouble, so no one told anyone, and I only found out after she suddenly came back this afternoon."

Ye Chen asked again, "How is Auntie Li's health? Does it look okay? She's just been discharged from the hospital, so she's not going straight back to work at the institution, is she?"

"Yeah." Li Xiaofen said, "What kind of person is Auntie Li, brother Yechen, you must know very well, how can she be idle ah, she hasn't come to the orphanage for such a long time, her heart is concerned about the children, she is going crazy."

Said Li Xiaofen, "But I look at Auntie Li's body, it still feels quite good, it doesn't look like a serious illness at all, she should have recovered as good as new!"

Ye Chen was relieved, after all, Tang Sihai had sent Auntie Li to the best Concord Hospital in Yanjing in the first place, and he had also paid two million medical fees to Auntie Li, which included a very high-end post-operative recovery.

At this time, others in the group also sent out messages.

"Ah, Auntie Li is out of the hospital? It's wonderful!"

"Haha, I knew it, Auntie Li is a good person and will definitely recover one day!"

At this moment, a person named Jiang Ming suddenly @ everyone and said in the group, "Everyone, since Auntie Li has recovered and been discharged from the hospital, I propose that our buddies in Jinling go visit Auntie Li at the orphanage right now, and find a hotel to pick her up on the way, what do you think?"

"Yes, yes, yes, Jiang Ming you have a good idea! I'm almost off duty, you can come over any time!"

"Yes, Auntie Li's recovery is a great joy, we must go visit her!"

In response, Li Xiaofen sent a happy expression and said, "This is what I mean by sending you all a message, since we haven't seen Auntie Li for a long time and we haven't seen each other for a long time, why don't we take this opportunity to all get together and treat Auntie Li to a meal, so I'm sure Auntie Li will be very happy too!"

"Gee, can't you guys in Jinling wait a day or two? Wait for us out-of-towners to rush back, or I'll go buy tickets now and go back tomorrow!"

That Jiang Ming said, "Such things as receiving the wind and washing the dust, of course it's the day of return that has the most ceremony!"

943

"Right!" A little friend in the group named Zhao Hao spoke up and said, "Auntie Li had such a serious illness, it's hard to cure her and come back, if we, the children she raised, don't go over to see her at the first time, she might be lost in her heart."

Jiang Ming said, "Let's do this, let's find a five-star hotel and make sure to give Auntie Li a good reception."

Li Xiaofen said, "Jiang Ming, let's not be so ostentatious, Auntie Li has been frugal all her life, if we go to such a nice place to eat, she will be very distressed, why don't we just go to the home cooked food that has been open for many years in front of the orphanage?"

Ye Chen couldn't help but feel a sigh of sadness when he thought of that home-cooked restaurant that had been open for over ten years.

When he was celebrating his 18th birthday, Auntie Li was the one who took the money she saved and brought herself and a few little friends and ate a meal in that restaurant.

She also bought herself a cake, after celebrating her birthday, she was no longer in line with the adoption regulations of the welfare institution, so she stepped into the society alone.

Now that he thinks about it, the meal he had there was the warmest meal he had ever had in his life.

So he immediately said, "I can't believe that restaurant is still open to this day! This place that Xiaofen chose is awesome! Then let's meet there!"

Jiang Ming replied, "I say Ye Chen, we've all been working for so many years, more or less we have a bit of savings, there's no need to be so stingy in the face of Auntie Li, right?"

Ye Chen said, "I'm not being stingy, I'm respecting Auntie Li's habit, we invite Auntie Li to a five-star hotel, Auntie Li may not really be happy, instead she may feel that it's too wasteful and will be distressed for a long time." Remember the website .kanshu8.net

Jiang Ming said, "Che, don't I know you yet? Aren't you just trying to save two bucks?"

Saying that, Jiang Ming sent another voice: "Ye Chen, I know you're not doing too well, when it comes to being a door-to-door son-in-law, it's normal to have no money in your pocket. But after all, Auntie Li raised you, so what can you do with such a great kindness, even if you bleed a little and raise a share to treat her to a nice meal?"

Ye Chen couldn't help but frown.

This Jiang Ming, back then in the orphanage, was not dealing with himself, at that time, Jiang Ming relied on the fact that he was stronger and stronger than his peers, and formed gangs in the orphanage, and didn't hesitate to join forces to bully other children.

Ye Chen had also been targeted by the other side, but since he had practiced some martial arts when he was in the Ye family in Yanjing, ordinary people were no match for him, so when Jiang Ming brought people to trouble him, a group of people were directly beaten by him, crying for their parents and finding their teeth all over the ground.

From then on, the small-minded Jiang Ming harbored a grudge against Ye Chen, singing against him in everything and targeting him in every way.

Moreover, this guy has always been a bad person, always causing trouble to the welfare institution when he was young.

He was caught stealing several times outside, and it was Auntie Li who finally bailed him out by compensating and apologizing.

After not seeing him for so many years, Ye Chen reckoned that this man was no better now.

But Ye Chen didn't bother to have a general knowledge of him and said indifferently: "Whatever you say, I still think it's best to go to the restaurant that Xiaofen said."

Li Xiaofen also hurriedly said, "I think brother Ye Chen has a point, Auntie Li has been frugal all her life, inviting her to eat at a five-star hotel, she definitely won't fit in."

Zhao Hao, her childhood friend, also echoed, "I support it too!"

The others all agreed, so Li Xiaofen said, "Okay, there are a total of ten of us who can come over tonight, and nine of us support going to the old restaurant, so let's make the minority obey the majority!!'m going to that restaurant right now to get a private room!You guys should hurry over too!"

"Okay, okay!"The crowd agrees, happily.

Ye Chen couldn't help but get a little excited at the thought of meeting Auntie Li right away.

Ever since he was scolded for borrowing money at the birthday banquet when Old Lady Xiao was celebrating her birthday, he hadn't seen Auntie Li again since she had been sent directly to Yanjing by Tang Sihai.

Ye Chen had a deep relationship with Aunt Li, almost as if he was his mother.

When Aunt Li first fell ill, Ye Chen tried his best to get money from everywhere, and even quietly found blood heads to sell their blood, and also took a lot of money from Xiao Churan's private house, just to be able to keep Aunt Li alive.

If it wasn't for him trying his best to raise money for Auntie Li, Auntie Li might not have been able to wait for Tang Sihai's appearance in the first place, and would probably have passed away.

But Ye Chen felt that these were all things he should have done, and even so, it was only one ten-thousandth of the kindness Auntie Li had shown him.

Dad had taught himself countless times before his death that a man must repay his kindness in the world, the ancient saying that a drop of grace should be repaid in a gush of water, so Ye Chen had always asked himself that.

So, he couldn't care, there was still noodles cooked in the pot for Ma Lan, he directly took off his apron, stepped out of the kitchen, and said to Xiao Churan who was accompanying Ma Lan, "Wife, I'm a bit anxious, I need to go to the orphanage."

Lan Ma immediately questioned, "Have you cooked my noodles for me yet? I haven't had a bite of food so far and you want to go out?"

Ye Chen looked at her with disgust and said impatiently, "The noodles are cooking in the pot, you can serve them out later yourself! Auntie Lee is back from her illness, and I'm going to pick up the dust for her." One second to remember to read the book

As soon as Ma Lan heard this, she cursed, "Surnamed Ye, what kind of attitude is this, you son of a bitch? How dare you talk to me like that for a mother in an orphanage! Do you still have the sense of a son-in-law? And don't you see who you eat, who you drink, who you wear, who you live with?"

Saying that, Mashi mocked again, "What does that old mother have to do with you even if she dies?"

Ye Chen had endured Ma Lan for a long time, and thought that this mother-in-law would be able to change a little by going in for two days to suffer, but she hadn't even changed at all.

What's more, she didn't expect that she would dare to insult her benefactor, Auntie Li!

So he stared at Mashi and said angrily, "I now eat my own, drink my own, dress my own, and live my own! Don't forget, this house was given to me by someone else, and the furniture in it was bought with the money I earned from reading feng shui for someone else, so that's my attitude, if you're not satisfied you can move out and go back to your old house!"

Ma Lan was so angry at this that she couldn't speak!

She wanted to scold Ye Chen bitterly, but on second thought, she realized that what he said wasn't wrong at all.

It's not like before, it used to be that he lived in a small house in his own home, and was a parasite, not to mention that he couldn't make any money, so he could scold him as much as he wanted.

Now that he's a success, someone has given him such an expensive villa and decorated it for him, and he can make millions of dollars just by giving a feng shui reading.

On the other hand, he's already penniless, so if Ye Chen really turns against him and doesn't allow him to live here, what will he do?

Thinking of this, Ma Lan felt weak in her heart and was also a little nervous and scared as she looked at Ye Chen's angry face.

However, she still tried to salvage the situation, so she immediately looked at Xiao Churan in aggravation and choked, "Churan, this husband of yours is too much, is there any son-in-law in the whole world who talks to his mother-in-law like this? You don't even care about him, so won't he turn over a new leaf if this continues?"

Unexpectedly, Xiao Chorán said incomparably seriously, "Mom, I think Ye Chen is right, now we are living in a villa that someone gave him, if it wasn't for him, we wouldn't have the chance to live in such a nice place, so you can't treat him like you did before, it's not fair!"

945

Ma Lan was in a state of grief at this!

In the past two days since you went in, everyone in the house seems to have changed their attitude towards you.

My husband was so in love with himself that he even took the initiative to get angry with himself, and my son-in-law wasn't the same son-in-law who was at the mercy of others anymore, and he even got angry with himself and told him to move back to his old house.

Even the only good girl that she had relied on herself was now not towards herself.

She never dreamed that her own daughter would speak towards Ye Chen at this time.

Being a drama queen in her own right, she saw that she seemed to have started losing ground in this house, blinked her eyes red and started acting.

She pitifully choked, "Now I'm superfluous in this house, your father doesn't care about me, your husband is threatening to kick me out, even you don't face me anymore ....."

Saying that, Ma Lan's mouth fell open and tears flowed down.

Xiao Chorán sighed helplessly and said, "Mom, it was really your fault just now, I can't always be towards you."

Although she pitied her mother in her heart for suffering so much, this was not a reason for her to call out to Ye Chen, nor was it a reason to insult Auntie Li. First URL m.kanshu8.net

Moreover, Xiao Chorán knew very well in her heart that this husband of hers had been poorly born since he was a child, and he didn't really have many family members in this world.

Besides himself, it was probably Auntie Li who was the only one.

This was also why, a while ago, Ye Chen was desperately trying to get money to treat Auntie Li.

She knew that in Ye Chen's heart, she treated Auntie Li like a mother.

She had also always appreciated Ye Chen's style of acting in a grateful manner, otherwise she wouldn't have given him all her private money to take to Auntie Li's medical treatment.

Therefore, she also felt in her heart that her mother was really a bit too much, and naturally she could not speak to her mother at such a time.

And at this time, Ma Lan was already crying with a snotty nose and tears, lamenting, "My life is really pitiful, is there still a place for me in this family?"

Ye Chen was no longer willing to watch her act at this point, and was no longer even willing to be a bit more patient with her, so he just skipped over her and said to Xiao Churan, "Honey, I'm going to the orphanage first, I won't eat at home tonight."

Xiao Churan hurriedly stood up and said, "I'll go with you, I haven't seen Auntie Li for a long time, the last time I went to the hospital to see Auntie Li was a few months ago, and I quite miss her."

To say that Xiao Churan really did her duty and responsibility as a good wife, she not only supported me Ye Chen very much in treating Auntie Li, but also often went to the hospital with her to visit and take care of Auntie Li, just like Ye Chen, and treated Auntie Li with great respect.

Auntie Li also likes him very much, almost as if he is her daughter-in-law.

Seeing that Xiao Churan was going to go with her to visit Auntie Li together, Ye Chen nodded his head in relief and said, "Let's go together then, Auntie Li even asked about you when she called me last time, she should also miss you quite a bit."

Xiao Churan stood up and said, "Then let's go now."

Once Ma Lan heard that Xiao Churan was going with Ye Chen, she said pitifully, "Good daughter, are you mad at your mother? Are even you going to leave your mother alone?"

Xiao Churan looked at Ma Lan and said seriously, "Mom, I really hope that you can reflect on this encounter and change your character, otherwise, you will definitely still suffer in the future."

When Ma Lan heard her say that, she sat on the ground and spilled out, "Say what's the point of me living, my only family member, my good daughter, is not facing me now. The police shouldn't have let me out, let me die in the detention center forget it ....."

If it was put in the past, Xiao Churan would have been softened and compromised when she saw her mother being so pushy, but this time she sort of understood that if her mother would always be this character, it would still be too early for her to suffer in the future. She definitely couldn't indulge her temperamental personality anymore.

So, she said to Ma Lan, "Mom, you can think about it alone, I'm leaving with Ye Chen first, by the way, Ye Chen also cooked noodles for you, don't forget to serve them up."

After saying that, he said to Ye Chen, "Let's go."

Ye Chen nodded and took Xiao Churan out of the house and drove her to the orphanage.

On the way, Ye Chen bought a bunch of flowers and a fruit basket, and also hand-wrote a greeting card to give to Auntie Li.

Arriving in front of the Jinling Welfare Institution, Ye Chen parked his car in a parking space on the side of the road and looked at the slightly old gate, his heart was in a trance, and he couldn't help but feel a sense of time going back and space being dislocated.

As he stood here, it was as if in an instant, he was reunited with certain scenes from his own memories, and the scenes that kept flashing by were the softest, happiest, and most precious bits and pieces of memories in his heart.

He still remembered the scene of his first visit to the orphanage.

The year he was eight years old, he had lost both of his parents in pain and was displaced on the streets, it was Auntie Li, who was like an angel on earth, who brought him here and then held him with one hand, pointing to this gate with the other and said very lovingly, "Child, don't be afraid, this will be your home from now on."

Ye Chen still had a vivid memory of this incomparably warm scene, even after many years.

Thinking of this, a rare look of happiness also appeared on Ye Chen's face, and even the corners of his mouth couldn't help but rise. Remember the URL . kanshu8. net

Xiao Churan saw his smiling face and couldn't help but say, "You look like you're happy today."

Ye Chen nodded slightly and said, "Yeah, you know, ever since Auntie Li got sick, I've been especially worried, before I tried everywhere to get money, I couldn't even raise enough money for Auntie Li's medical expenses for a kidney transplant, if it wasn't for the coincidence of fate, I guess Auntie Li would have left me."

Xiao Churan recalled the scene when Ye Chen had whispered and pleaded with his grandmother to borrow money from her grandmother in order to raise the medical expenses for Auntie Li.

At that time, she really felt sorry for this, the ill-fated and displaced man from childhood.

It was a pity that I didn't have the ability to help him with so much money at that time.

Fortunately, Auntie Li, someone helped her with her medical expenses and sent her to the best Union Hospital in China for treatment.

Thinking of this, Xiao Churan couldn't help but ask, "Right, when you said that someone paid all the medical bills for Auntie Li, who was that person?How can you be so generous?Auntie Li went to Concord Hospital for treatment, the trip would cost at least two or three million, right?"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "I heard that it was a total of 3 million, I'm not too sure as to who paid for it, but I heard that it was also someone that Auntie Li had saved before."

Of course Ye Chen couldn't say that the money for Auntie Li's treatment was paid by himself, because at that time he was still a standard poor hangman and couldn't possibly come up with a huge sum of 3 million, so he couldn't explain it at all.

So he could only exclaim, "Had I known that reading feng shui to others was so lucrative, I should have tried it when your aunt was sick."

As the two of them were talking, a surprised voice suddenly sounded in their ears, "Brother Ye Chen!"

When he turned back to look, he saw a remarkably thin and tall silhouette coming out of the orphanage.

It was Li Xiaofen.

After several years of not seeing her, Li Xiaofen had turned into a big girl!

Already in her early twenties, she was over one and a half meters tall, and her figure was no less than those models.

Although the dress was simple and plain, and also plain, but it was able to give people a crystal clear and ice-clear feeling.

Ye Chen couldn't help but marvel, what a woman, this was still the little girl who had been a follower of his own in the welfare institution back then, wasn't it!

Seeing Ye Chen, Li Xiaofen's face was filled with happiness and surprise.

She quickly ran towards Ye Chen, still grabbing Ye Chen's arm with both hands like before, and asked tenderly, "Brother Ye Chen, why didn't you go back to the orphanage for such a long time?"

Ye Chen was grabbed by her arm, but he didn't feel uncomfortable at all, instead, like his brother, he said with favor, "I haven't been doing well since I went out, how can I go back to the orphanage to see you guys."

As soon as Li Xiaofen heard this, her big eyes immediately turned red, choking: "Auntie Li has told us that you have been working at the construction site since you went out, and the money you earned from your special hard work has been sent to Auntie Li, so that Auntie Li can buy us books, clothes and food, but you have never come back to see me, and it's been so many years, and I haven't seen you again ....."

Saying that, Li Xiaofen popped her tears and said, "When Auntie Li was sick, I heard Auntie Li say that you often went to see him, but every time you went only after we left, you deliberately hid from us, you don't know how hard it was for us siblings ....."

When Ye Chen heard this, he couldn't help but sigh and sigh.

Ever since he came out of the orphanage, he really hadn't had a good life, before that he had been working in the construction site, 365 days a year all year round, and all the money he earned, apart from filling his own stomach, was sent to Auntie Li.

The reason why he didn't want to go back to the institution was because he was too badly mixed up at that time, and he didn't want his brothers and sisters who hadn't yet entered the society to see his downfall, which would set a bad example for them later.

Then he married into the Xiao family and became a famous son-in-law in Jinling, so he was even more embarrassed to go back to the institution.

Knowing that Auntie Li is sick, he is more worried, more distracted, and more attentive than anyone else. One second to remember to read the book

He still didn't feel good about it, facing these little friends from the orphanage.

Later on, although he was rich and got the 10 billion given by the Ye family and also got the Imperial Group, Auntie hadn't been in the orphanage during this time, so she didn't come back.

After Ye Chen had money, he had actually always had the idea of donating a large sum of money to the orphanage, just waiting for Auntie Li to come back, and then he would find a suitable reason and excuse to donate a large sum of money to the orphanage.

The reason why he agreed to come with everyone today to pick up the dust for Auntie Li, apart from wanting to see Auntie Li, he actually wanted to see what kind of way he could donate a sum of money to the orphanage without being suspected.

Xiao Churan was also following Ye Chen back to the orphanage for the first time, so it was also the first time she saw Li Xiaofen.

She was surprised at Li Xiaofen's youthful beauty while feeling as if Li Xiaofen was a little too intimate with her husband.

However, she soon had a comforting feeling that this little girl was the little sister who had grown up with Ye Chen and treated him as her brother, so there was nothing abnormal about being a little intimate.

Ye Chen saw that Li Xiaofen kept crying, so he spoke up, "Xiaofen, brother has been mixed up badly in the past few years, I don't want you to see my brother's downfall, but it's different now, brother is having a good time now, and he finally has the face, to come back to see you."

Saying that, he pulled Xiao Churan's hand and said with a smile, "Come, let me introduce you, this is your sister-in-law, how is she, pretty?"

Xiao Churan was suddenly a bit nervous as she was suddenly held by Ye Chen, although he had been married to Ye Chen for more than three years, they honestly didn't have too much intimacy.

But she didn't pull her hand back either, and just let him hold it.

When Li Xiaofen looked at Xiao Churan, a few looks of envy suddenly appeared in her eyes that were originally somewhat sorrowful.

She looked at Xiao Churan and was also a little ashamed of herself.

Although I am not bad looking, but compared to Xiao Churan, my self-esteem seems to be a cut below.

Moreover, she was also just an orphan with no parents and no one to rely on, and her current job at the orphanage was half work and half public service, so she couldn't make much money.

Even the limited bit of savings she had, like Ye Chen, she donated it all to the orphanage, so she was a poor little girl.

In this way, she felt that she was naturally much inferior compared to a working woman like Xiao Churan.

With a heart of envy, she was a little nervous and said to Xiao Churan, "Hello sister-in-law, first time meeting, my name is Li Xiaofen."

Xiao Churan nodded and said with a smile, "Hello, Xiaofen, my name is Xiao Churan."

Li Xiaofen looked at Xiao Churan and exclaimed, "Sister-in-law, I really envy you!"

Saying that, he looked at Ye Chen again and said, "I envy you for finding a man as good as my brother Ye Chen!"

Ye Chen was embarrassed all of a sudden.

He thought that Li Xiaofen would say that she envied Xiao Churan for being pretty or for having a good figure and good temperament, but she envied Xiao Churan for finding herself ..... The first website
m.kanshu8.net

Worthy of being a sister who grew up behind her own butt, even though she knew she was poor, she still felt good about herself.

When Xiao Churan heard this, she also had some tears and laughter.

However, Li Xiaofen said very seriously, "Sister-in-law, brother Ye Chen is the best man I've ever seen in this world, you have to treat him well! Since he was a child, he has been very responsible and took care of us younger siblings. After he left the institution at the age of 18, he has been working hard at the construction site and all the money he earned was given to us younger siblings to improve our lives and pay for our education. Sister-in-law, do you think that my brother Ye Chen is the best man in the world?"

Xiao Churan was surprised to hear that.

She only knew that Ye Chen lived a hard life before marrying herself, which her grandfather found at a construction site, but she didn't know that Ye Chen was working at a construction site at the age of eighteen, and she didn't even know that Ye Chen donated all his money to the welfare institution.

No wonder when he got married to him, he was penniless, even the money for a haircut before the wedding, he asked his grandfather for it.

Combined with what he had done to frantically raise money for Auntie Li's treatment, Xiao Churan suddenly felt that this husband of his had a great side!

She couldn't help but ask Ye Chen, "How come you've never told me this before?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Hey, what's there to talk about with people when you're poor and destitute."

After saying that, Ye Chen didn't want to talk much on this topic and hurriedly changed the subject, asking Li Xiaofen: "Right Xiaofen, where is Auntie Li?"

Li Xiaofen said, "Auntie Li is talking to the dean about something at work, she said to let me go over to entertain you guys first, she'll be over later."

Saying that, Li Xiaofen asked with an expectant face, "Brother Ye Chen, do you want to go into the orphanage to take a look? You haven't been back in a long time!"

Ye Chen had lived in this orphanage for the past ten years from the age of eight to eighteen, and was very attached to it.

It's just that the previous had been living in some poverty, and didn't have the face to come back.

Now that he was high and low, he had a bit of money, so he might as well go in and see what other needs the orphanage had, and he could help solve them then.

So, he nodded his head and agreed, saying, "Then let's go in for a spin."

Li Xiaofen was overjoyed and hurriedly grabbed Ye Chen's arm, so she dragged him inside in front of her.

Ye Chen could only allow her to drag himself, while at the same time holding his wife Xiao Churan's hand and not letting go.

Xiao Churan's heartbeat accelerated a bit, but she still allowed him to lead her into the orphanage.

The Jinling orphanage was built in the last century and had been around for decades, and the buildings here were all relatively short brick buildings, each building almost decades old.

When Ye Chen saw that there was basically no difference between this place and the way it was when he lived many years ago, he couldn't help but ask Li Xiaofen, "Has the orphanage not been expanded or renovated over the years either?"

Li Xiaofen said, "I'd like to expand, but the funding has been tight, there are many more children here than before, the dean and Auntie Li think it's better to spend the money on the children, as for the hardware conditions, save as much as you can." Remember the website . kanshu8. net

Ye Chen looked at the courtyard, but the rusted slides, grotesque boards, and swivel chairs felt both familiar and somewhat unpleasant.

These toys were all the ones he had played with when he was young, which meant that they had been around for at least twenty years.

The siblings who came after him had been playing with these limited, old toys up to now.

Ye Chen couldn't help but feel a little self-conscious, before Tang Sihai found himself, he had been worried about Auntie Li's body, trying to do everything possible to cure her, and after Tang Sihai found himself, he had been trying to do everything possible to get back the dignity that belonged to him during this period of time.

But all this time he hadn't even thought of donating a sum of money to the orphanage to help the younger siblings and improve their living environment, it was unforgivable!

Thinking of this, Ye Chen was going to donate tens of millions of dollars to the orphanage, have the entire orphanage refurbished, and then purchase the best toys, the best study space, and the best study equipment for his younger siblings.

What computers, ipads, all of them should be purchased for them!

Xiao Churan did not know Ye Chen. At the moment, her mood was very complicated and self-recriminating, she was very curious to observe the environment of the orphanage, although it was the first time she came in, she still felt that this place was very intimate.

Intimate, probably because her own husband, who had grown up here.

In fact, Xiao Churan's heart, she never thought of Ye Chen as her contracted husband, in her heart, Ye Chen that was her real, legitimate husband.

Li Xiaofen brought Ye Chen to the dormitory area of the orphanage, and Ye Chen immediately found the dormitory room where he lived back then.

Looking in through the window, he only saw a dozen or so one or two year old children, playing under the leadership of the orphanage's aunt.

He couldn't help but exclaim in shock, "Little Fen, why are there so many such young children in the orphanage now?"

Li Xiaofen said, "There are many irresponsible parents who give birth to their children and then send them directly to the door of the orphanage, some of these children were abandoned by them because they were born with a disability or congenital disease, and others, like me, were probably abandoned because they were simply girls."

At this point, Li Xiaofen couldn't help but sigh.

Then, she said with some anger, "There are still some children here who were once abducted by human traffickers and then rescued by the police, because the children are too young to find their parents, so for the time being, they will have to be placed in an orphanage, and then after their parents are found, they will be sent back to their families."

When Ye Chen saw that there were a few of these children who had some physical disabilities, he couldn't help but ask, "Xiaofen, what's the deal with children who have disabilities? A congenital disability?"

"No." Li Xiaofen said indignantly, "These were all rescued from human traffickers, and they were all healthy children, but after they were stolen by the traffickers, they didn't take these children and sell them, but after making them disabled, they took them along the streets and begged. Such children have been ruined all their lives, but they have become their money-spinner."

When Xiao Churan heard this, he said in exasperation, "These people are too much of an asshole, how can they make good children disabled!"

Li Xiaofen said: "There are some such villains, specializing in doing this unconscionable things, they are normal people with hands and feet, but pretend to be disabled people begging everywhere, and then found that begging is too fast, so in order to make more money, deliberately looking for some disabled people to increase credibility, and then can not find disabled people, they buy children, buy, after the kids make it disabled so it's easier to beg." After hearing this, Xiao Chorán shivered with anger and took off, "Bastards like this, one by one should be shot!"

Ye Chen sighed at this time, said: "In fact, I used to work at the construction site, I had heard of the existence of beggar gangs, they are all fellow villagers or relatives, organized to beg in big cities, some of these people means extremely cruel, specialized in torturing minors."

Saying that, Ye Chen said to her again: "You forget that two years ago we watched an Indian movie, the name is called "millionaire in the slums", that there is not a beggar gang leader, blinded the eyes of a child who sang well, so that he became blind to sing and beg along the streets, it seems like this kind of thing is far away from us, but in fact often happens around us."

Xiao Chu Ran said angrily, "I never thought we'd have such demons around us. I should have known that I would have gone to the police academy to become a policeman, and still be able to bring these bad guys to justice."

Li Xiaofen sighed, "Sister-in-law, the point is that the profit margin is too large, so many people have to earn this money even if they risk being shot."

Saying that, she felt that this topic was a bit heavy, so she said, "Oh my, it's getting late, let's go to the hotel first, the other youngsters should have already arrived."

Ye Chen nodded his head and said, "Let's go, let's go to the hotel first."

The three of them left the orphanage together, Ye Chen asked Li Xiaofen sideways, "By the way Xiaofen, has the orphanage had any difficulties recently?"

Li Xiaofen smiled and said: "There are always difficulties, but it's not bad, we can still bear it, the children's living conditions are much better than when we were young, but the only bad thing is, our classrooms, dormitories and canteens, the buildings are too old, the dean has been applying for funds to renovate them, but the higher-ups keep saying that the finances are tight, for the time being. Still can't allocate the funds."

Ye Chen nodded lightly, writing down her words in his heart.
