Chapter 16 "You're not a monster"

I Frankenstein creature, discovered a purpose far more than I knew. something I'd least expected. And nothing matters anymore, unless I first stop them before they stop you.

The Lord eternal, Karma-Kalm, before his disappearance, communicated with me, and his words is triggering and awakening something so powerful within me, I've never been so monstrous than that "I AM," his words was that powerful so much that I could see beyond imaginations and physical realms of co-existence.

His words were sinking deep into my marrows and diaphragm. So powerfully, and I knew that I'd been blind for centuries, and even though I'd been blind, "Now I can see!....."

I can see things now, far more than my very own eyes' Visions, realities and comprehension can view. I could see deeper into other realms and kingdoms, whether aquatic sub-marine, siren world, underworld and atmospheric realm, the paranoia world opened like a portal within my visions...

Right there and lo! And behold! I started seeing demon's ghost shadows and they were over a thousand of them, and they were after me. Maybe it's because the Lord eternal, Karma-Kalm has surname me and something very huge was going to come banging.

I stood up from my knees, as I saw the demon's ghost shadows approaching and their voices echoing in the air, Kill him! Kill Frankenstein, kill him! Destroy him! That's all they wanted to do as they keep on approaching and they were over a thousand of them.

Star Queen, Edniel Yoshida, who was on her way to where I was called on my name,
"Frankenstein"
and I said to her, Fairest one, give me a weapon.
What for?

How could she even say a thing like that,
is she blind not to have seen any of these demon's ghost
shadows,
let loose from hell? and they've drawn their line closer now and I don't think there's need for a weapon any longer.
As they were approaching very fast, than one could imagine, and I didn't even know, when I push the fairest one out of the way, and she fell to the ground.

As the demon's ghost shadows began attacking.

The first one try to punch me in the face, but I blocked it and gave him an uppercut, and sending him rolling on the floor.

The second one, immediately rush on me and I gave him a round-house kick and he landed 10 meters away from my notice. The third one also rush on me and I gave him a Spinning-hook kick and I lost traces of him.

The fourth one came attacking too but I overpowered him, and grabbed on him before lifting him up and throwing him away like a log of wood.

The battle became intense and very severe, with one super punch I was able to send over a hundred demon's ghost shadows rolling and bouncing on the floor.

The battle gravely continued and I didn't even know how it all happened, until I've slain a thousand demon's ghost shadows...

I Frankenstein creature, was truly a hero, and they were the villain...

I wasn't done yet after slaying a thousand of them, I was demanding for more demon's ghost shadows to just show up so that I teach them a lesson, a lesson they'll never know.

I was so eager and desperate to slay more when I suddenly heard the voice of the Lord eternal, Karma-Kalm, reprogramming in my memory, "you're not a monster"

"you're not a monster" the whole space changed and seems to return to normal, and it also looks like I was in a dream state..

Edniel Yoshida was endlessly screaming on my name, Frankenstein it is not real, what is happening to you, is not real. What isn't real? I saw them and they attacked me.
