Chapter 17 You must be trained

Something isn't right about the universe, I can sense what's incoming.

A devastation will storm the orbit and trillions will die.

This is some horrific horror that will eliminate more than half of mankind and the rest of the world.

The Lord eternal, Karma-Kalm said, the "End of days" wants to destroy all worlds and lay waste to lives. We have to stop him (End of days) before his mission accomplishes and we've got a limited time. Why standing there and doing nothing?

The "End of days" is preparing his legions of demon soldiers for Armageddon, some apocalypse and end of the world catastrophe.

You must be trained and considered fit and equal to face the masters of death and destruction, the "End of days."

Trained? What do you mean, trained? And who was going to train me? It is you?

You saw what I did to those demon's ghost shadows, didn't you? Does it mean anything to you? Isn't it an enough proof for termination?

Not until you've slayed a dragon, Yoshida decrees. You will be trained by a dragon, Frankenstein, before the war with the "End of days" and his legion of demon soldiers.

"Show me your dragon and watch me drain the life out of it, I screamed."
