

ILY Monster 116

Later that night, Davi was waiting for Sei as she laid quietly on the bed. She was yawning and sleepiness was being reflected in her eyes. She felt tired, certainly because of the overwhelming series of tests she took the whole day, back in city lab. But before she falls asleep, she wanted to tell him about her plan of taking him out to meet her best friend tomorrow. However, seconds later, Davi gave in and she finally closed her eyes as the world of dream started swallowing her.

That same moment, the door was quietly opened and a man slowly walked towards the sleeping girl. He sat at the edge of the bed as he stared at her deeply for a long time. Until he just gradually found himself staring at her lips again. And the next second, an urge of wanting to kiss her suddenly surged within him causing him to instantly stiffened.

That moment, he knew he's feeling unfamiliar emotions again. Every time her lips was being connected to his, no matter how brief it is, Sei just felt being electrocuted and he was liking it to the point that he was secretly waiting for it every time he leaves. However, this time, Sei felt something different and completely unfamiliar. As he stared at her, he felt as though, it's not only the usual brief kiss he wanted, he felt as though, he just wanted more than that.

But in the end, Sei spent almost an hour just staring at her, until he kissed her gently in her forehead before he finally laid beside her.

The next morning, Davi woke up without Sei by her side. And when she saw the rays of sunshine streaming through the window, she immediately rose because she realized she failed to tell him about today's plan.

Due to that, she rushed out the room to find him while praying that he didn't leave. It was because, she knew that Hinari will not entertain her at all if she couldn't bring him with her.

So as soon as she set foot to the living room, her gaze immediately directed into the sofa where he always sat. But to her surprise, the man wasn't there.

"Good morning miss." A voice of someone who appeared to be Kaide, rang behind her. Causing her to immediately turn and asked him.

"Good morning, have you seen Sei?" she asked and when the man nodded, she sighed with relief.

"Where is he?"

"Ah, they're in the courtyard..." he replied and the girl immediately walked away towards the courtyard.

"W-wait miss, they're currently in an intense... miss..." Kaide called for her but Davi just ignored him so he could only follow her.

And by the time he caught up to her, Davi was already halted as her gaze was glued unto the two men fighting intensely in front of her. She looked as though she couldn't believe what she's seeing at all. And Kaide understood her well, it was because, even him was still being amazed by the inhuman skills of his boss and especially his personal bodyguard, Zaki.

"T-they're just training right?" Davi finally asked without averting her gaze away from them.

"Ah, yes miss. Those two are always doing this if they have time. This is normal for them, quite intense right?"

"N-normal? But... why do they look like their trying to kill each other?"
