

ILY Monster 125

Davi lowered her face as she stood beside the disguised Zaki. She remained silent and Zaki could only see her clenching her shirt quietly.

Looking at her, Zaki remembered the first time he met her in the middle of the road. She looks devastated that time but now, she's always been smiling every time she's beside Sei. She's always been the buoyant type so this is the first time he saw her being this downhearted ever since he brought her in this house. And oddly, looking at her like this made him feel a strange displeasure. He doesn't want to see this girl in this state and yet he couldn't grant her wish.

Due to that, he whacked his head to think about something he could tell her.

"Miss, don't worry, it's actually just a small wound in his forehead. He bumped his head on the car's window when the crash happened." He said and upon hearing him Davi raised her head and she looked at him with wide eyes.

"I-it's a car accident? Then why did you bring him here? Why not in the hospital?" she said with a tone of panic.

"It's fine, it's just a minor accident and..." the disguised Zaki paused because of the arrival of another car. And in the next second, a beautiful blonde woman in white coat stepped out of a car. In a single glance, anyone could tell how gorgeous and sexy she was.

Davi's gaze immediately glued unto her as she walked hastily towards them. The woman's gaze fell on the disguised Zaki while he just immediately opened the door for her before she hastily entered without even glancing at her. And as soon as she entered, Mr. Chen immediately closed the door again.

That moment, Davi didn't know why but her heart just felt like it was suddenly twisted the moment she saw that woman entered the room. She just felt as though something was caught in her throat. She bit her lip hard as she clenched her shirt as hard as she could. That moment, Davi felt a certain unpleasant feeling she never felt before. It was unfamiliar and she couldn't explain it. To her, it's a kind of pain she never knew exist in this world.

"Don't worry, this underground is actually a secret hospital exclusively for Sei... and that lady is one of his personal doctor. She is one of the best doctor around so you don't have to worry, okay?" the man said gently, however, no word came out from her mouth again.

Until a second later, Kaide stepped out from the door and the moment Davi saw him, she just went and hugged him tight as she buried her face in his back.

Kaide was immediately shook, as well as the disguised Zaki. The two men looked at each other for a while with knitted brows, but a second later, Zaki realized that Davi hugged him because she might need comfort and that she hugged Kaide thinking he was gay. Due to that Zaki sighed a breath of relief since he was so troubled on how to comfort her, however, Kaide wasn't looking fine at all.

He looked at Zaki with an eyes asking for help but Zaki just gestured him to comfort her for the meantime as he threw him a warning gaze before he finally entered the door. Leaving Kaide in a state of doom, as his thoughts started turning into spirals.

Moments later, Kaide manage to calm himself and he began to coax her.

"The boss, I mean Sei is really fine, he just hurt his forehead. He was just undergoing something to ensure he wasn't hurt anywhere. Let's just wait for a moment okay? You can get in after some minutes." Kaide tried his best to be as gentle as possible.
