

ILY Monster 128

"You can't do anything about it Sei, I'm afraid the only thing you can do is reveal yourself to her."

As soon as those words came out of Zaki's mouth, as expected, Sei's aura turned unbelievably dark in an instant. That moment, he just looked as though the horrifying monster within him broke through its cage to destroy the world.

Sei's reaction that moment made Zaki to confirm one thing - that Davi wasn't just an important existence to him anymore. Causing Zaki to only release a deep sigh while Sei just remained in that state for a while before he finally replied.

"That won't happen. She's the only one I will never drag to hell with me." He said as he turned his back. Leaving Zaki speechless as he watched his back before he quietly sat on the couch.

Zaki just leaned on the door's frame upon hearing him. Then, he sighed deeply again while looking at him as he whispered to himself.

"I knew you'll say that, Sei. You may not realize this yet but she's already the one you care about the most, even more than yourself. Ahh... I just wonder how long can you endure seeing her getting hurt from now on..."

After almost an hour of deafening silence and coldness, Zaki finally saw the approaching car they've been waiting for.

"They're here," he said and Sei immediately strode passed him.

Meanwhile, the situation inside the approaching car was actually chaos. Kaide who was beside Davi at the back seat was having such a huge trouble. It was because minutes ago, Davi just began to attempt opening the car's door out of nowhere, saying she wanted to go and see her husband. Thankfully, Kaide manage to stop her before she could open the door. However, while Kaide was busy holding both of her hands the drunk girl started fighting back, telling him to let go of her. Causing Kaide to only helplessly told the driver to drive faster. Until they finally arrived.

"Sir, we're here." The driver finally said. However, Kaide was pinned hardly on the car's door by Davi. Davi was holding his collar violently challenging him to fight her, while the man just doesn't even know what to do anymore.

"Miss, we're here. You can go out now." Kaide said but the girl just smirked, suddenly looking like a mischievous olden day young lady general, bullying a weak soldier.

"What's this Kaide... you're actually afraid of me?" she said and Kaide could do nothing but ask for help from the driver.

"Please go out and open the door for me," Kaide plead and the driver hastily stepped out. The driver walked in haste that he didn't noticed the two approaching men.

And the moment the driver hastily opened the door wide, Kaide who was leaning on it fell and because Davi was holding unto his collar she was dragged with him. Kaide immediately hugged Davi just before the fall to protect her. So the moment they fell on the ground, Davi fell on top of Kaide. Causing the eyes of the two men who just arrived instantly widened.

Sei and Zaki witnessed the whole thing happened. And as usual, Zaki immediately turned towards Sei but as expected, his reaction turned dark and sour as his gaze was glued unto his wife being hugged by another man, even though he thought Kaide was gay.

Err... so gender actually doesn't matter to this guy's jealousy huh...

That moment, Kaide immediately felt a cold freezing gaze being thrown on him causing him to remove his hand on her right away.

Davi on the other hand, just quickly rose as though nothing happened. Completely ignoring the man who served as her air bag for a moment.
