

ILY Monster 206

By the time Davi woke up, her brows kitted a bit the moment she realized that she was hugging the fluffy bear. Well, it was because she was actually dreaming that she's cuddling with the soft and fluffy Sei's chibi version, so finding out that Sei wasn't even beside her anymore as soon as she opened her eyes somehow surprised her.

The next moment, she then yawned and stretched her arms. She sat there a little bit dazed for a while until everything that happened last night slowly dawned onto her. She remembered her confession, his answer and the things she learned about him.

Thinking about all those caused her heart to feel like it's dancing with warmth and happiness all over. That moment, she thought that last night was now the most unforgettable night in her life. It was a night that she will always remember for the rest of her life.

However, the next second, her smile faded as soon as she remembered that Sei fell sick last night. She then jumped out of the bed without delay and run towards the door to look for him.

Thankfully, Kaide was already waiting for her in the living room.

"Morning Miss." He greeted and Davi immediately walked towards him.

"Where is Sei?" she asked as she looked around.

"Uhm... they left hours ago. He said he have something he needed to do. But don't worry Miss, he said he'll comeback right away." Kaide answered and Davi's eyes widened.

"Is he not sick anymore?" Davi asked and Kaide just looked at her with a bit confused face.

"Eh? Sick? He's very energetic when they left though." He replied and Davi finally remembered what Mr. Chen told her about his condition. Thinking about it, Ravi finally relaxed as she heaved a sigh of relief.

"Uhm... anyway Miss, are you not going to school today...?" Kaide asked just to make sure when all of a sudden, as though she finally remembered something important that she had forgotten, Davi gasped.

"Ahh! We have an important test today, right?" she asked with her still widened eyes and when Kaide just nonchalantly nodded, Davi pulled his collar and she shook him multiple times.

"Why didn't you wake me up earlier?" she continued.

"But I thought, you're not going to school because your husband is finally here." He reasoned and Davi just smack her forehead with her own palm. Well, she really can't blame him because she herself totally forgot about it. Her mind was so full of Sei that she couldn't think about anything else anymore. However, she knew that the test is important, and besides, Sei still seemed busy. She badly wanted to spend time with him now that he's finally back but she thought that there might be something really important he must do to leave so early. Thus, thinking about it, she decided that she better go to school first and come back immediately.

"We're going to school. We still have time. And the test will last in just a couple of hours right?" She asked and when Kaide nodded, she hastily ran back towards the stairs.

After a while, Davi was already dressed so nicely as usual, exuding her simple yet elegant style. Her look of course never ceased to amaze Kaide who's been with her all the time for about a month. He was amazed just how easily she turn every clothes she wears no matter how simple it is into something fashionably beautiful. And her unparalleled beauty that was always gracing every place she goes was just stunning as usual, enough to daze everyone, including him, every now and then.

That moment, Davi who hastily walked closer to Kaide noticed him spacing out again. Thus, she suddenly flicked the man's forehead hardly, causing him to snap.

"Ouch! That hurts Miss." He cried while acting girlish again. However, Davi didn't turned soft towards him this time. Please visit freewebnovel.com

"Stop spacing out, are you hungry or something? Let's go, hurry." She just said as she dragged him out of the mansion, treating him like he was a little unruly teenage girl as she threw him inside the car.
