

ILY Monster 208

XiZe University...

Inside a black car parked across the university's gate, Sei's gaze was focused intently towards the school's building as though his eyes were laser that dissecting the structures just to locate his beloved wife. His chilling aura didn't subside and impatience seemed to be consuming him little by little.

Zaki on the other hand was grinning hard as he waits for Sei's next move. However, time went by and the man just sat there like a glued statue despite the increasing intensity in his eyes. He just looked as though he was a puppy extremely eager to see his master but could only stay put obediently because he feared that he may cause unnecessary disturbance for his beloved owner. Looking at him like that, Zaki bumped his head on the car's window.

"Hey, what did we came here for?" he asked for he couldn't contain his impatience anymore. But then, Sei didn't even said a word back.

"Sigh... if you're that jealous, at least voice it out or do something for you to feel better. I'm afraid your blood might just stop flowing due to your extreme jealousy. Too much jealousy could kill too you know?" Zaki continued and just as he thought, Sei glanced at him before he finally talked.

"There's no reason for me to get jealous. Those are nothing but rumor." He replied and Zaki laughed.

"Really, haha. Your words and your aura were completely contradicting each other though." he said as he continued chuckling before he patted Sei's shoulder.

"You don't have to deny the obvious Sei. Even though you trust your wife and even if you know its just a rumor, your jealous type self is still jealous. Haha." He continued as he laughed even harder as though he was amused to the core.

Sei on the other hand just glared at the laughing man before he retorted.

"Anyway, Zaki. You still didn't introduce me your fiancée. I heard you fell in Love with her at first sight, but due to your lack of experience, she didn't like you." Sei said with a straight look and Zaki almost choked.

"Who the he'll told you that?" he exclaimed and Sei nonchalantly returned his gaze towards the school's building as he spoke.

"The old man. He asked me to lend you a hand." Sei said and Zaki was about to talk back when the man continued.

"So just tell me if you need help." he said and Zaki fell speechless.

What the hell. Why do I feel like he's now teasing me back? This man really is teasing me back, right?!

That moment, Zaki didn't expect the words Sei spouted and how he just naturally made him speechless. Causing his mischievous self wanted to immediately retaliate.

Zaki then lifted his phone and searched for the power couple's photos that spread through out the internet.

"Whoah, I didn't know Kaide and the Miss are this popular as a couple in the internet." Zaki exclaimed and Sei immediately snatched his cellphone.

And as soon as Sei saw the countless stolen photos of the two together with the lovey dovey captions in the photos, Sei was like a sleeping volcano that suddenly erupted. And he was about to throw the cellphone out of the window when Zaki manage to catch it as though he expected what he was about to do with it.

The next moment, Sei stepped out of the car and closed the door with a bang. He stood there leaning like a cool perfect being with a deadly aura. Looking as though, he wanted to just blast the entire school if only his dear wife wasn't there.

Looking at him like that, invisible sweat drops could only fell from Zaki's forehead.

Er... looks like I went too overboard, I better cure the wound or else... the world would end.

Meanwhile, Davi just finished her test when her cell phone vibrated. She then stepped out of the classroom after she passed her papers and the moment she opened the message from Mr. Chen, she halted in surprise.

A photo of Sei-er intently glaring at their school appeared with a caption of, 'S.O.S someone is about to explode due to impatience'. Davi's eyes immediately widened and she started to run. Kaide who immediately passed his papers as well saw her suddenly ran away and he was surprised. Worried that something might have happened, he chased the girl like flash until he catches up with her.

"Uhm Miss, why are you running?" he asked as they continued running.

"He's here." she replied and question marks appeared above Kaide's head.

Who? Is there someone chasing her? An enemy?

Kaide who was running with her looked behind them but no one was chasing them so he asked again.

"Who is here?" he asked again. And when the girl answered, Kaide almost stumbled on his own feet.

"My husband." She then said as she ran even faster.
