

ILY Monster 209

Sei who was leaning on the car continued glaring at the school as though the place itself was now his newly elected enemy. His face was sour and he felt an unpleasant feeling within him.

However, what appeared before his eyes the next moment made him froze.

His wife showed up outside the gate and by the time their eyes met, the girl smiled as she ran towards him.

That moment, Sei's cold and dark atmosphere slowly brighten as his sun keeps getting closer. His eyes were fixated towards her until the girl was finally standing in front of him.

Davi was about to talk when the mischievous voice of the man leaning his hand on top of the car reached her.

"Sorry miss. This guy here saw your photos with Kaide and you know due to his extreme jealousy, he now wanted to call his minions to take down your school..." Zaki immediately clamp his mouth without finishing his statement. It was because, Sei's deadly glare was already pointed at him.

Davi on the other hand was stunned. He saw his cold glares a moment ago so she thought that something might have happen. However, she didn't expect that he looked this gloomy because of her. She didn't mind those photos because they were just photos without meaning and besides Sei knew Kaide was gay, so she thought it's fine. But now that she saw Sei's gloomy face, she began to feel guilty for making him feel the unpleasant feeling of jealousy.

"I'm sorry." She then said with a saddened face and Sei's eyes slowly widened.

Sei never expect her to say those words nor want her to to feel sorry at all. Her saddened face made his heart tremble and the next second, he stepped closer to her and he landed his forehead on her shoulder.

"No, I'm the one who's sorry. I'm sorry because even though I know that there's no reason for me to get jealous, I don't know why I still felt like this." He softly said with a really apologetic and sincere voice.

That moment, hearing his words made her turned red. And his heartfelt and honest words just made her heart fluttered so warmly.

Davi then raised her hand and gently landed her palms on his cheeks. She made him look at her and the moment their eyes met, she just smiled. Well, one of the reason why she just smiled was her husband was looking so adorable again. His apologetic expression made her think about a little cute puppy and it was more than enough to melt her heart that she can't help but want to just cuddle him.

"No its alright. I understand okay? I think if I'm in your shoes, I might also feel like that." She said as she caressed his hair gently while smiling brightly, making the troubled guy brightened.

Meanwhile, Zaki signalled the approaching Kaide to immediately walk closer to him. And the moment the man reached him, Zaki suddenly pulled him down and they both squatted on the ground.

"Listen, young man, you better not let our boss see your face as of now, you're lucky that his attention was focused towards his wife and he didn't notice you yet." Zaki whispered as both of them were hiding like little kids.

"Huh? Why should I? Did I do something wrong?" asked by the clueless Kaide and Zaki just patted his shoulder.

"Sigh... this might be hard but just accept your fate young man. You needed to be a sacrificial lamb as of now for the sake of human race." Zaki answered and series of question marks just appeared above Kaide's head.

"Oi third boss, will you stop acting like an old man? You're just two years older than me so don't treat me like a kid. And can't you just use words I can understand? I'm not fond deciphering your symbolically whatsoever words." Kaide complained and Zaki just stood.

"Well, what I'm saying is, Sei is extremely jealous. Someone showed him your photos with his wife." Zaki said and Kaide couldn't help but felt shivers down his spine.

"Wh-what should I do? So that's why he came here? Should I run now?" he asked and Zaki just nodded.

"As of now, don't show your face to him until he calms down." He said and like a rabbit afraid to death with an approaching lion, Kaide immediate ran away without turning back. Leaving the mischievous Zaki grinning as he returned his attention towards the lovey dovey couple across him.

Noticing that Sei's freezing aura disappeared without a trace, Zaki could already tell that the problem was finally solved. And he was about to tell them to get in the car before someone could snap a photo of Sei's fake face, when Davi talked.

"Mr. Chen, is it safe if I bring Sei somewhere for a while?" the sweet girl asked and Zaki immediately replied.

"May I know where Miss?"

"In Blue Park, I just wanted to buy him something." she answered and the three of them then headed to the said nearby park.

Davi then went out of the car and pulled Sei's hand. She brought him under a tree just few steps away from their car and told him to wait for her.

Moments went by and the girl returned. Zaki who was watching them from the car almost choked the moment he saw what're in Davi's hand.
