

ILY Monster 210

Moments ago, Davi actually told him that his cuteness was melting her heart like an ice cream. Causing Sei to just repeated the words 'ice cream' with a nostalgic look in his face. He then mentioned that the last time he tasted an ice cream was when he was still six. So because of his words, their conversation lead into the current situation.

Davi who was fond of ice creams wanted him to taste her favorite home made ice cream that was being sold in Blue Park. But part of the reason why she brought him to the park instead of just ordering it to be delivered was because she just wanted Sei to experience the things that fate withheld from him. If she could, she just wanted to bring him out and freely spend time with him, without worrying about his safety just like normal couple. However, she knew that Sei's situation can't let that happen. Thinking about it, Davi wanted to grab any opportunity that arises even for a short period of time, that's why this moment, while she can, she wanted to at least do something for him.

Meanwhile, Sei who was leaning on the tree trunk as he waits for his wife was looking at the couples and families that were spending their times leisurely with each other without any worries. And the longer he looked at them, he started thinking about the fact that he and his wife can't even spend time together outside without security. That moment, he started to see just how different their situation was from them.

For years, Sei never mind that he was literally confined. He spent most of his life hiding that the thought that the outside world will always be a battlefield was engraved within him to the point that he was always anticipating dangers whenever he set foot outside. As a result, Sei ended up being used staying behind the shadows. He didn't seek freedom, he thought that there's no point doing it.

However, that moment, a scorching feeling started swirling like storm within him. For the first time, he felt that he wanted to be like them. He felt that he wanted to spend his time freely with his wife without thinking about danger. He finally able to feel that he wanted freedom.

After his deep thinking, Sei then straightened the moment he saw his wife approaching. She was smiling while holding ice cream in her hand.

"Here, take this, i'll just hand this one to Mr. Chen." She said and as soon as Sei took the pink colored ice cream, Davi hastily walked towards Zaki who was leaning on the car.

"Mr. Chen, here, this is yours." She said and a warm smile immediately carved on the man's face.

"Thank you for not forgetting about me Miss." He replied mischievously and the girl just laughed before she immediately returned to his husband.

Davi then sat on the grass before she gestured Sei to sit beside her. The obedient Sei then followed his wife without saying anything.

Afterwards, Davi began licking her strawberry ice cream when she stopped. She looked at Sei who was just watching her.

"Taste it, it's good." She said and Sei stared at the ice cream while Davi was waiting for him to lick it.

However, what he did the next moment almost made Davi's nose bleed due to his extreme cuteness. It was because Sei tasted the ice cream in a way that he was just like a cat licking a water to drink.

"Good." He then said after that just one super fast lick and Davi chuckled.

Ahh, my husband really is so adorable I can't take it...

While Davi was chuckling with amusement, Sei just watched her again, until Davi continued licking her ice cream.

However, Davi noticed him not eating his ice cream so she was about to speak when she remembered something. This morning, while she's heading towards the school, Davi read an article about Sei's sensitivity to cold and she found that even cold foods can be lethal to him.

Thinking about it, Davi could only slap her own forehead.

Sei on the other hand was instantly stunned on what she did to herself that he thought she's feeling disappointed because he's not eating the ice cream she gave him. Thus, the next second, not wanting to make her unhappy, Sei lifted his hand and he was about to lick the ice cream when Davi stopped him.

"You can't eat cold foods right? I'm sorry, I forgot. You don't have to eat it." She said with a really worried look in her face. Causing Sei to somehow feel disappointed to himself.

"But you bought this for me. I refuse to throw it away." He said with his apologetic expression again.

"Don't worry about that, I'll eat it for you, okay?" She replied with reassurance, causing Sei to somehow feel better.

Davi then continued eating her ice cream, but the moment she noticed the melted ice cream about to flow into Sei's hand, Davi grabbed his hand and she licked his ice cream. Of course what she did stunned the man again.

"I guess I have no choice but to eat them both at the same time." She then said and she was about to take the ice cream in his hand when Sei suddenly talked.

"It's fine, I'll hold it for you." He said and Davi blushed.

In the end, Davi didn't reject his idea, so she continued licking both ice creams alternately while her husband seemed to be having extra fun watching her.

However, the longer Sei watches her, his line of sight slowly went fixated into her lips. Her lips were red and wet, causing Sei unable to avert his gaze away.

Until such time when a little portion of an ice cream was stuck on her upper lip. Davi was about to lick it when out of nowhere, Sei's lips landed onto hers and he licked the ice cream before immediately backing off.

Davi froze because of what he did. While Sei raised his hand and shyly landed it at the back of his neck.

"The ice cream is warm when it's on your lips." He said and Davi's face burned red.
