

ILY Monster 211

"The ice cream is warm when it's on your lips."

Sei wasn't aware that the words coming out of his mouth were lethal. He didn't even realize that it was somehow considered shameless. He was just saying whatever he had in mind. Not knowing that he was attacking his wife's poor heart effortlessly.

Davi on the other hand was trying her hardest to snap back to reality. Sei's sudden unexpected move caught her off guard. Furthermore, she didn't expect Sei of all people to do such a bold move all of a sudden.

That moment, Davi felt that her innocent Sei was slowly being upgraded into a new version.

"W-w-where did you learn that? Who taught you to do that?" Davi spouted without thinking, and as soon as she realized what she just said, her face turned even redder.

'Ahh... what am I saying?'

Davi bit her lower lip to prevent herself from spouting more senseless words. However, she couldn't help but somehow feel alarmed. She didn't know why but the moment she imagined Sei turning shameless, she felt a bit downhearted because of the thought that his innocence and excessive cuteness will fade.

"Who taught me?" he then repeated as he stared at her before he spoke one word.

"You." He said and Davi choked. She coughed before she could talk back to him.

"W-when did I?" She asked with her face still burning red.

"I... I'm watching you and before I knew it, I... did that." He replied as he started averting his gaze like a shy little kid.

"Do you dislike what I did?" he continued as he glanced at her before he averted his gaze again.

Looking at him that moment, made Davi realize that no matter what Sei does, he will always be adorable in her eyes. Thus, the next moment, Davi raised her hand and patted the man's head.

"I don't dislike it. I think, whether it's innocent Sei or shameless Sei, both are adorable." She said naturally, without minding her own words as she smiled brightly.

Obviously, Sei's face brightened the moment he heard she doesn't dislike it. However, he didn't fully grasp the meaning of the rest of her words so he was about to talk when Davi's sudden loud voice stopped him.

"Ahh! The ice creams are melting." She shouted and she immediately began licking both the ice creams in their hands a little faster. Of course, Sei's gaze fell into her lips again.

Noticing his focused gaze, Davi thought that Sei might also want to eat the ice cream so bad if only his condition permits him. Thus, feeling sorry for him, Davi spoke to coax him.

"I'm sorry. Even though I bought this for you, I'm the only one devouring it. But don't worry, I will make you a warm delicious food at home." She said gently and before Sei could give her his answer, she talked again.

"Hmm... should I experiment and create a warm ice cream for you?" she continued while looking like she's already thinking about how to do it.

Looking at her thinking so deep, Sei spoke.

"It's alright, you don't have to trouble yourself." He said and Davi just smiled.

"Nope, I will try it when I have time." She replied before she continued eating the ice creams again.

"It's not fun eating ice cream alone like this. I want to eat it with you. Although I think it's not possible to make a warm ice cream, haha." She continued as she forced a disappointed laugh.

That moment, Davi finished Sei's ice cream first. And as she was licking hers to finish it fast, Sei's hand suddenly landed on her nape. And the next second he kissed her.

Davi's eyes turned wide and when Sei's warm tongue entered her mouth, the ice cream in her hand almost fell.

Sei kissed her passionately as usual, but this time, Davi felt like he's doing something different. She felt as though Sei was savoring the taste of her mouth and it's driving her crazy.

Her mind began to swirl like slow motioned tornado when Sei finally pulled back. Both of them just stared at each other for a while as though were both stunned. However, surprisingly, Sei was the first to recover.

"If it's not possible, then it's fine. I can always taste a warm ice cream this way, right?" he sincerely said without any trace of embarrassment on his face, causing Davi to just burn.

"W-w-what are you... W-w-hat are you saying?!" she replied with staggering voice as she was blushing with embarrassment while Sei just looked at her with confused face.

"But you said you don't dislike it." He answered like a puppy who suddenly went nervous and afraid that his owner was displeased.

That moment, Davi put down her ice cream on the ground and she covered her face with her palms.

"Sei, you've become shameless!" She said as she kept covering her face, and Sei froze in place.
