

ILY Monster 214

Davi who was in the women's comfort room was about to step out of the cubicle when she halted. It was because she heard voices of female students gossiping about Kaide and her.

"Seriously, someone said that our Adonis is gay?!"

"According to them, a freakishly handsome guy said it. Can you believe that? And the rumor was now spreading like wildfire in the entire campus."

"Whoah! Seriously? That guy might be lying right? There's no way such a pretty Kaide is gay. I can't accept that! That guy who said that absurd rumor might just have a deep grudge to Kaide."

"Well, that's possible, but actually, the rumor somehow makes sense if you think about it."

"Huh? What are you trying to say?"

"Well, every time I see him with miss Davi, his face suddenly looks delicate and gentle as though he's a girl disguising as a man. And didn't you find it suspicious that he doesn't have any male friends at all? He's literally just like a glue sticking to Davi. Did you guys notice that?"

"Ahh, now that you mention that. He does act suspicious sometimes. He acts not so manly when he's with her. And one more thing, that pretty face of his is just too unbelievable, right? Maybe he's actually a girl? That happens a lot in novels, right?"

"Hey, stop it. How could he be a girl? You're not making any sense at all!"

"But, it's not actually impossible right? And besides, did they ever admit that they're in relationship? Never, right? Maybe they're hiding something."

"No! My Kaide is not gay and he's absolutely not a girl."

"Sigh! Well, why don't we just go dig some information to prove that he's really not gay?"

"Yeah, right. We better do that, let's go. Why don't we go ask miss Davi?"

Hearing the girl's conversations, Davi was stunned. She can't believe that they didn't only exploit Kaide's secret, they're even thinking that he's a girl now.

Oh no... how did they even... wait who the hell was this freakishly handsome guy who revealed our secret?! Did Kaide already hear about this?"

Thinking about Kaide, Davi immediately stepped out of the comfort room. However, to her surprise, the man whom she thought was waiting for her was nowhere to be seen, causing her to turn quite worried.

Meanwhile, Kaide, who was surrounded with a bunch of male students was standing in the corner with a calm look.

"So, you're actually a gay?" one of the student said as he sneered at him while the others just laughed in disbelief.

"Well, being gay actually suits him though. He's too pretty to be a man." Another one said before he raised his hand. He was about to touch Kaide's face when like a lightning that surprised every single one of them, Kaide already caught the man's hand before they even realize it. He just locked his hand mercilessly when he saw his boss approaching.

Kaide immediately soften and he let go of the man as though nothing just happened before he smiled delicately, causing the male student's jaws to drop with confusion.

Even though Kaide was reaching his very limit, he will never compromise his mission to the mere opinions of people who doesn't even matter to him. He'd rather appear gay to everyone's eyes if that's the only way he could stay close to her for him to protect her. And besides, he'd rather endure this nonsense than endure his boss's deadly glares, right?

"Kaide?! What are you doing?" Davi's voice rang loudly, causing everyone, including Kaide to look at her. The students immediately flinched and softened the moment they saw her. Well, the university's number one dream girl was now approaching like a fierce queen coming to rescue her beloved pretty knight.

They voluntarily made a way for her until she reached Kaide.

Kaide on the other hand didn't change her girlish expression. He was focused trying to show her that everything is fine and that he didn't mind the current situation.

However, the next thing his boss said surprised him to the core.

"Kaide, did you hear about the rumors?" she asked and Kaide just laughed.

"Ahaha. Yep, I heard about it. Please don't mind them." he replied but Davi's brows creased in displeasure.

"How about we clear the rumor in front of everyone?" she asked and Kaide's eyes turned wide. He looked at her with confused and puzzled face when Davi sidled towards him.

"You might not know this but you really look cool when you're fighting seriously. I think if everyone saw you like that, everyone will not believe that you're gay." She continued and Kaide choked. He coughed before he could talk back to her.

"But miss. How could I do that? These men here smells even weaker than you. I'll end up as a gay bully in their eyes if I do that. Don't worry about me, this is no big deal." Kaide reasoned out but Davi seemed to determined in clearing up his name.

"No, this is our secret. I can't let you being exploited like this when you don't like it. Don't worry, i'll be your opponent. We failed to train this morning so how about we do the serious training now?" She said and Kaide just coughed again.

"Uhm miss. You don't need to do this, I'm seriously fine--"

"If you don't agree, I will not let you get close to me again." She whispered and Kaide's shoulders dropped. Well, if that happens, it'd be harder for him to protect her. Thus, in the end, he could only raise his white flag and agree.

With a confident smile in her face, Davi then turned and faced the male students.

"Me and this man here were always doing a training session every morning. So were going to train here now. You better watch us okay?" She said with a wide smile and the male students just fell silent for a while before they nodded like rattle.
