

ILY Monster 216

Within just a matter of second, an intense blow hit the cab and that same moment, Davi felt her body slammed forward against Kaide. And before she even realized, her face was already burried in his chest while the man's arm was wrapped around her head.

The collision happened in a blink of an eye and it shocked Davi to the core that she couldn't react for a long while. Thankfully, her senses awakened quite fast and she lifted her head while Kaide slowly let go of her.

"Are you alright?" Kaide immediately asked. However, Davi didn't answer him. Her eyes just widened the moment she saw blood flowing on his neck.

"Blood! You're bleeding!" She yelled but before Kaide could talk back, the driver screamed for help. Kaide didn't mind his own wounds, the first thing he did was inspect whether Davi was wounded.

Gladly, apart from small cuts in her hand, she wasn't wounded heavily. Kaide was thankful enough that the impact wasn't that lethal and he managed to protect her in time, or else, he couldn't even imagine what will happen if she was hurt.

That moment, Davi was about to ask for help too, when the police immediately arrived. The paramedics immediately catered the wounded driver as well as Kaide before they both sent the two including the driver of the car which hit them into the nearest hospital.

Davi was about to follow Kaide, but the police stopped her. The police said she needed to go with them to the police station to question her about the accident.

The rain was falling heavily, and Davi didn't know why she felt somewhat uneasy as soon as the police told her that she needed to go with them.

Gray Mansion.

"Zaki! Remove this. Now!" A chilling voice cold as ancient glaciers echoed inside Sei's study room. Sei's face was covered with intense darkness and extreme worry. His gaze towards Zaki was as sharp as the universe's sharpest sword. And his aura was turning intensely murderous.

Moments ago, as soon as Sei received the immediate report about the accident, Zaki already handcuffed him before he could even make a move. It was because Zaki knew that Sei will rush towards the scene recklessly so he could only handcuff him to detain him inside the house.

"You know why I'm doing this Sei. She was brought to the police station, and there's a strong possibility that this involves you. You don't have to worry, she's not hurt. Kaide did his job so calm down." Zaki said but Sei's expression didn't change. His face went even colder that the entire room just feel as though it was about to reach pass the freezing point.

"Zaki, don't make me repeat myself." Sei's horrifying voice echoed once again. However, Zaki didn't flinch at all. He just stared back at Sei with his eyes reflecting his absolutely constant decision.

"If you go and something happens, you know who i'll save between you two, right? So stop being stubborn Sei, I know you know what I'm trying to say. And besides, they're obviously just trying to lure you out or just trying to prove something. If you come out now you're just going to confirm that she really has connection with you. Stay here and wait, i'll make sure they won't harm even a single strand of her hair." Zaki said with his firm and ever so steadfast voice. And without waiting for any reply from Sei, he began to move out of the room as he looked at Ryou and three more guards in front of the door.

"Whatever happens, never listen to him." Zaki said towards the men and they almost flinched with the intensely terrifying warning in Zaki's eyes.

"Even if we listen to him, it's not like we can do a thing. The key is in your hand you know." Ryou replied, talking about the key of Sei's handcuff. Well, the handcuff was never ordinary, it's a next-generation device that was impossible to unlock without using its key. Zaki personally chose it to restrain Sei at time like this, although he just used it to him twice.

"Kir will be here soon." Zaki then said and Ryou cringed the moment he heard what he said. His eyes seemed saying the words; "why does that man needed to be here?"

Zaki then glanced at the frozen Sei before he finally left the room.

He hastily walked out of the house when a man with a mysterious aura of a deadly military commando approached him. And the moment Zaki saw him, his expression somehow relaxed.

"I handcuffed him inside. I will leave the rest to you." Zaki then said before he tossed the the key to him and the man just nodded like a respectful soldier before Zaki finally entered the car.
