

ILY Monster 249

Before entering the living room, Sei suddenly halted and looked at his wife. And as expected, her drenched oversized t-shirt shrunk and it's hugging her every curve. Sei stared at her chest and before Davi could follow his line of sight, he hastily wrapped her with his pajama top.

Davi just watched Sei quietly wrapping her and she smiled when her stomach growl again.

Worried that she might pass out due to hunger, Sei suddenly carried her like a princess and before Davi could react, he hastily dashed towards the dining room, acting as though there's an emergency.

Upon reaching the dining room, Sei put Davi down. He pulled the chair for her, and the girl sat with a smile. The food was already served and Davi was so eager to eat. However, before she could pick the chopstick, Sei took it.

"Which do you like?" he asked and the moment Davi noticed what kind of recipe was served in front of them this time, her mouth watered. The famous and luxurious kaiseki cuisine was actually served on the table and Davi's sparkled as she answered him.

"All of them." She answered and Sei was surprised. However, he thought that it maybe because of her hunger that she exaggerated.

Sei then picked the food she chose using his chopstick and started putting it near her mouth.

"Say ahh." He said and Davi blinked.

"I'm fine okay? I can do it myself, it's not like I'm sick or injured." She replied as she smiled but Sei didn't move.

"I... I'm the one who exhaust you... so please let me." He said and Davi could only give in. She then opened her mouth as she blushed because of his words.

Time passed and Davi was still eating without any sign of stopping. She was hungry and at the same time, his dearest husband is feeding her, so of course, her appetite was at its very peak. Google search freewebovel.com

However, the one feeding her was actually getting worried that his wife will overeat. The amount of food he gave her was already beyond his personal best and yet the wife was still enjoying the meal. And she even looked as though she still wants more.

"Y-you still want more?" Sei then asked hesitantly, trying to make sure when Davi nodded like a rattle.

"Mm. I want more darling." She replied, as her eyes sparkled and Sei froze. The word 'darling' was like another powerful attack trying to shut his system down.

Thankfully, he managed to recover fast and he continued feeding her until she finally said she's full. Looking at the amount of food she devoured, Sei almost couldn't believe it. He couldn't help but felt worried that he secretly asked the butler to prepare the medicine in case her stomach aches.

"Ahh. I'm so full." She said and Sei worriedly look at her.

"Are you okay?" he asked and the moment Davi noticed the worried look in his eyes, she chuckled.

"Don't worry, I have such a monster stomach." She replied as she stood energetically as though her exhaustion finally disappeared. Looking at her, Sei was finally convinced that there's no need for him to worry.

...

Meanwhile, inside Sei's study room, the two men, Zaki and Kir was looking at the computer screen with a serious gaze in their eyes when Kir talked.

"It's about time. You should tell the boss that we need to leave as soon as possible. We still have five hours." He said and Zaki stood. He walked towards the window and stared at the garden for a while.

Zaki was thinking hard. The fact that their relationship was finally consummated drastically changed the current situation. He thought that it'd be cruel for Davi if Sei will leave immediately. That was why he wanted to at least give them a little more time.