

ILY Monster 250

"Let's give them one more night." Zaki said and Kir immediately turned towards him.

"How are we going to do that?" he asked curiously and Zaki smiled like a devil.

"I have a plan." He said and Kir's forehead creased. It was because he knew that every time Zaki smiles like that, he was thinking about something extremely dangerous.

"What plan?" he asked with serious gaze and Zaki went silent. He leaned on the window frame and looked intently at Kir.

"I'm going to lure them away." He said and Kir immediately stood noisily. Even though he was expecting something dangerous, he still couldn't believe what Zaki just said that it made his eyes widened.

"What are you saying? That's too dangerous!" Kir exclaimed and Zaki just smiled again.

"Easy Kir, did you forget who am I?" he said and Kir could only slowly sit again. He knew that Zaki was literally a human weapon, someone peerless in the field of fighting and battles. He was the man who beat him fair and square after all.

"You know how Sei hated it when you do things like this Zaki. And you know he will never let you do that." Kir replied and Zaki's smile faded. Please visit freewebnovel.com

"I know, that's why we're going to hide it from him. If he ask, just tell him I went somewhere." He nonchalantly said and Kir could only pinch the muscle between his brows.

"Hey, don't make it sounds so easy. Sei will always notice it if you sneak out. And besides, if something happens to you... sigh... I don't want to even think about it." Kir was problematic as he spoke and yet Zaki just laughed like nothing is serious at all.

"I told you. Don't forget who I am. I'm well aware of that. And did you really think someone could injure me?" He said as he shook his head. "Listen Kir, I have a perfect plan."

Zaki then explained his plan to Kir before stepping out of the room when he saw Sei who was about to enter the master's bedroom.

"Sei, I have a news for you." He said as he approach him. "You still have time till tomorrow."

Hearing his words, Sei looked at him intently and scrutinized the mischievous grin carved on his face. Well, Sei was aware about the situation. He knew that there's no way for them to stop the agents' plan raiding this house tonight. If they do something to stop them, it only means that they're confirming that they were here. That was why Sei is already preparing himself to speak with her.

"You... what are you planning to do?" Sei asked and Zaki's shoulders dropped.

"Er... don't tell me you already knew what I'm thinking?" Zaki uttered when Sei leaned on the wall.

"I won't deny that I badly wanted to stay with her a bit longer." He said as his eyes glittered with sadness. "I will do anything for that if I could but using you to lure them away---"

Not letting him finish his words, Zaki interjected.

"Who said you're using me? I'm just going for a detour. I will fly to country C, sleep there for the night before flying to our rendezvous. Its practically the same, I'll just delay time. And besides, I'm itching for some action for a while now. The war is about to begin so I need a warm up." He said as he grinned with intense excitement.

Sei on the other hand blazed with extremely dangerous aura. His eyes turned wilder than a dragon's eyes. He was filled with fighting spirit and the horrifying monster within him was starting to force its cage wide open.

"That's right... this war... I'm going to end this war no matter what. Even if the world go against me, I'll bring them all to their knees. No one can stop me." Sei said with a ferocious voice and terrifying spirit. Looking as though he was a king preparing to seize the world and make everything submit to his will.
