

ILY Monster 303

Country C.

A luxurious Maybach Exelero car was heading towards an amusement park halted in front of a store and a cute little boy stepped out of it. He was accompanied by a man that appeared to be a body guard until they both entered a store.

Inside the store, the little boy was holding something in his hands as if he was having a hard time choosing which one was better.

"Uncle Kir, which do you think is cuter? Is this one or the other one?" he asked and the big man beside him cleared his throat.

"Young master, I think you should have asked your mother to accompany you rather than me. I am bad with these kind of things. I don't think I can be of any help to you when it comes to choosing things like these." The man replied and the boy didn't even glance at him.

"This is supposed to be a surprise to them so I can't bring mom or dad to accompany me." Little Shin replied before he showed him the one he chose.

"Do you think this pink one suits daddy?" He asked again and the man almost choked. Well, Kir couldn't even begin to imagine his cold boss, Sei, wearing such thing and in that color.

"Er... young master, I don't think your father will even wear that even if you bought that for him. He will never agree to wear such things. H-how about this black one? I personally think this one suits him best." The man suggested but to his surprise, little Shin just shook his head.

"No, I think this one is the cutest. I'll buy this one." The little guy said decisively as he looked at him.

Looking at how serious the boy was, Kir could only swallow air as he took the things little Shin selected and paid them.

After some moments, Little Shin and Kir stepped out of the store and returned to the car.

"Have you bought the things you need?" Davi asked and little Shin nodded.

"Yes mommy." He replied as he sat beside his mother.

"What did you buy?" Sei asked as the car started accelerating and little Shin started putting his little hand inside the paper bag. His mother and father's eyes were locked onto him, obviously curious about what their son had bought.

Little Shin paused in place as he raised his face towards his dad as though he was purposely trying to tease him by taking such a long pause. Causing Sei to only avert his gaze away as though he was telling little Sei that he was not interested.

However, as soon as Sei looked away, Little Shin called his attention.

"Dad, can you put this on mom's head?" He asked and Sei turned to him in a flash. He looked at the thing in his hand and he was surprised. He never thought that the reason his son refused to be accompanied by his mother a while ago because he actually went and bought a certain furry white cat ear headband. Sei was speechless for a while before he took the headband in his hand. He was puzzled about his son's real purpose but he still went along with him.

Sei then looked at Davi and the girl slightly moved her head close to him. Causing Sei to slowly raise his hands and carefully put the cat ear head band on her head.

"Is this fine?" He asked and Davi nodded.

"Mm." She uttered as she raised her face and the moment Sei saw her wearing a big and cute furry white cat ears, he couldn't help but feel like his heart was suddenly being stabbed by countless of lovely cupid's arrows. She was so cute he could hardly restrain himself from kissing her and squeezing her in his arms.

However, Davi immediately turned towards Little Shin.

"Does it look good on me?" She asked and Little Shin's eyes sparkled.

"Mommy is super cute." He praised her and Davi hugged him as she uttered a sweet "thank you".

"Mom, can you put this on me?" Little Shin asked and Davi's eyes widened as she looked at a small yellow cat ear headband in his hand. With extreme excitement, Davi immediately put the headband on him and as expected, his 100% cuteness now turned 200% that Davi couldn't help but squeeze him in her arms.

"My baby is soooooo cute. This yellow cat ears were just as cute as you." She said as she continued staring at him and then squeezing him again.

"Mom, can you put this on dad too?" Little Shin asked once again and both Davi and Sei immediately looked at each other. Davi suddenly felt excitement bursting within that she could finally see Sei wearing cat ears while Sei himself somehow felt like his son was playing a prank on him.

The next moment, Little Shin brought out Sei's cat ear headband and both Davi and Sei choked.

They both coughed as soon as they saw the pink colored furry cat ears head band but they obviously had different expressions on their faces.

Davi choked due to surprise and excitement while Sei choked due to shock. He couldn't believe that the one Little Shin chose for him was the most girlish.

"L-little Shin, isn't this pink one supposed to be for your mom?" Sei immediately spoke but his son firmly shook his head.

"No, this one is yours dad. I think this suits you best, right mom?" Little Shin replied and Davi nodded like a rattle before she took the headband and moved closer towards Sei as though she couldn't wait to put it on him anymore.

That moment, for some reason, Sei's heartbeat accelerated. He somehow felt like wearing a pink cat ears headband was some kind of a great challenge to him that he anxiously moved back a bit. Well, he, who was the most feared and renowned god of the business world and was acknowledged by the world leaders, was about to wear a pink cat ears headband and it was just...

"Dad, don't be shy and let mom put it on you." Little Shin's voice made Sei snap but the moment Davi spoke, Sei's defense crumbled into pieces and disappeared into existence.

"Mm. Don't be shy okay? Don't worry, this will definitely look good on you." Davi coaxed as she gently put the headband on his head. That moment, Sei felt his face burning hot as he raised his hand and rubbed the back of his neck.

Davi on the other hand suddenly pinched her own nose the moment she looked at Sei wearing a furry pink cat ears as his face went a little red.

God... he's soooo cute... I can't handle this...

Davi fell in a daze as she stared at him. Sei was just so darn cute that Davi felt like blood was about to burst out of her nose. She couldn't believe that she was seeing a blushing Sei again and it's such a lethal blow in her heart. She can't even stop herself turning him into a blushing and shy Chibi Sei in pink cat ears in her mind and she felt like her heart and brain were about to explode.
