

ILY Monster 404

Hearing the jealous man's words, Zaki then slowly walked towards the two girls and he held Hinari's wrist.

"Hinari, come help me put Little Shin to bed." Zaki said and Hinari finally pulled away from Davi's embrace. The moment she turned, she jolted a bit because her eyes fell straight on the ice king and he was glaring at her. Seeing this, Hinari leaped away from Davi and instantly held onto Zaki.

Davi was surprised with her action but when she saw Little Shin in Zaki's arms, she immediately moved closer to him and raised her hands to take the boy from him.

"It's okay, give him to me." Davi said and it seemed like little Shin was awakened by Davi's voice.

"Mommy." He muttered and Zaki could only give him to her.

When the little guy was in Davi's arms, Sei announced that they would be preparing for the wedding now. Although, no one was shocked anymore, they still found it hard to believe.

Sei and Davi along with little Shin then boarded a chopper that just arrived.

The men who were left then shifted their gazes towards Zaki and Hinari.

"So? How about you two? Why don't you join them and have a double wedding?" Kaide was the one who spoke and the three younger men looked at the couple with eyes filled with anticipation.

Hinari also looked at Zaki when suddenly Zaki held Hinari's wrist and led her away towards the car as he spoke.

"Let's go, we still have lots to do." He said and Hinari could only puff her cheeks as she followed him while Kaide could only let go of a deep sigh as he watched their backs leaving.

The party in the Mizuhara's mansion was about to reach its end. It lasted for a few more hours since the elders were gathered to speak about elder business while the other members enjoyed the lavish banquet to their hearts content.

Of course, because Davi left so early, everyone started murmuring opinions against her since she left. She became the hot topic at the banquet for hours.

They criticized her guts to arrive just to leave after introducing herself. The ladies kept talking about her even though she already left almost three hours ago.

"Who does she think she is?"

"She's so damn cheeky."

"She thinks she's so special, right? I can't wait to send someone to spy on her. I bet she's living oh so poorly that she decided to comeback to claim the family's name to gain prestige."

"I bet that too. With that face of hers, she might even have lots of sugar daddies."

"Haha, truth. I also wanted to know what kind of life her mother has lived. I bet she looks so old now since she threw away the life of a princess."

"Right. I'm very sure she's regretting everything now down to her bones."

"After this, I will ask someone to investigate. Haha, I can't wait to find out."

"That will surely be a huge scoop, right? The princess turned pauper... or the prodigal daughter daughter's return?"

"Wow, how funny. It should be a documentary of the princess to a pauper life. Haha."

As the women continued their blabbering, old man Mizuhara finally went to stage for the closure of the party. It was about midnight now and it was time for the gathering to end.

However, just as everyone's gaze were focused on the stage, looking up at the majestic clan leader, the old man speaking in front suddenly halted.

His gaze fell to the huge doors at the back. He looked so surprised that everyone couldn't help but turn around to see what could have shocked the old man.

As soon as they turned around, the entire hall fell silent as they looked at the three beautiful and perfect figures who suddenly arrived at the very last moment. Their mouths hung open and they looked like they just saw something so out of this world.
