

ILY Monster 413

The groom's reaction was no different from the guests who saw her. Actually, no, his reaction was the most priceless among everyone else. He thought that he had already prepared himself for the sight of her in a wedding dress from seeing her in that white dress last night. He thought that Davi, last night, was the most beautiful sight that he had ever seen but he was completely wrong. Last night didn't even hold a candle on how he felt at that moment as he watched his bride slowly walking like a floating goddess towards him.

Sei could hear his heart palpitating and he felt that Davi was slowly taking his breath away. The way she looked at that moment couldn't be explained with words. Sei's eyes just focused on her that he almost forgot to blink. He looked like he was engraving this vision, this moment in his heart and soul. This would be the best morning of his life.

Slowly, Davi was led by her mother and grandfather towards the altar. Little Shin was the most adorable ring bearer that took everyone's heart away.

"Ladies and gentlemen. We are gathered here today to celebrate this wonderful occasion of joining Sei and Davi in holy matrimony..." the celebrant recited.

As the ceremony went on, the guests couldn't help but smile and a few even shed some tears at the magical ceremony that was taking place.

Soon, it was finally time for them to take their vows.

"Davi, do you take Sei to be your lawful wedded husband, to have and to hold, for better or for worse, for as long as you both shall live?"

"I do," Davi replied without hesitation.

"Sei, do you take Davi to be your lawful wedded wife, to have and to hold, for better or for worse, for as long as you both shall live?"

"I do." Sei said quickly, as if he was afraid Davi might change her mind.

"With the power vested in me, I now pronounce you, husband and wife. Sei, you may now kiss your bride."

Sei gazed lovingly at Davi before he slowly closed in and the moment his lips touched hers, a ray of orange peeked from behind them as the sun started rising on the horizon, slowly spreading its light and warmth magnificently as though a god had perfectly timed it.

A new dawn came right as they sealed their love with a kiss, signifying a new beginning. It seemed as if even the sun itself was giving them its blessing.

As Davi and Sei kissed, everyone almost teared up at this magnificent and breath-taking moment. The rising sun and the couple kissing in the altar were like the most magnificent and magical painting. This was just the most perfect sun rise wedding everyone has ever seen in their lives.

The couple's overflowing love and happiness were like potion that was warming everyone's hearts, as if they were infecting them with their overflowing emotions. They can just feel without a doubt that these two were perfectly made for each other and everyone couldn't help but feel very happy for them.

When their lips parted, Sei held Davi's face and he landed his forehead to hers. Sei gazed was filled with nothing but extreme happiness. At last... they were married. Indeed, no matter how many struggles, sadness and pain the world threw at you, as long as you had someone you loved from the bottom of your heart and soul, as long as no one gave up, love would always win in the end. "My wife... my wife... I love you so much." He uttered softly and when Davi noticed his welling eyes, she wrapped her arms around his neck and kissed him again.

"My darling husband, I love you too forever and ever."

~~~~THE END~~~~

Dear Readers,

I am so overwhelmed. I am so happy that we finally reach the end of this journey. I am so happy that I was able to complete this story with all of you with me until now. I know, some left midway but I am most thankful to everyone who stayed with me until now. I am so glad that I could meet all of you, spend this journey with you.

You guys loved this story as much as I do so it's somehow sad to part with the characters we fell in love with.

However, please don't be sad and don't removed this book in your libraries yet because aside from the next Zaki X Hinari story, which is one whole volume, I will still release another few chapters about Sei and Davi after Hinazaki volume.

I just want to show you guys the side that we couldn't see before. What will be Sei's reaction during Davi's pregnancy and giving birth for their second child? Wait and find out.

Also, I want to ask you to drop something that you would want to see or know. I might choose among your comment and include it in the last special chapter. ^^

Thank you so much and I love you all,

~Kazzen

PS. Please check my new story "I HATE YOU, DEVIL!". I hope you will also support this book and love it just like how you loved ILYM. It may sound dark but i'll assure you it will be another lovely story filled with love, love, and love....
