

ILY Monster 53

By the time Saturday morning rolled out, Davi and Yijin left the Gray mansion. She told the old butler, she'll going to spend the night in her little brother's place.

Thus, as soon as Davi left, the old-butler-in-disguise left the house as well. On their way back to Blue Shark Port, Mr. Youjirou change back into his normal appearance.

"Anyway Yuki, how was it? Did you manage to pierce through Sei's barrier and got any information about her?" the old man sound serious and firm. The complete opposite of the warm and cheerful old-butler-in-disguise.

"Don't scare me please sire. You know how tough your own grandson is. This is your fault you know? He doesn't even trust us anymore. And everything about the young miss was already secured by him, I can't even find even a speck of dust about her anymore." Yuki, his most trusted underling who was five years older than Sei was looking troubled.

"That little... Why does he need to hide her information?"

"Now that's the question sire. Though I'm not sure who's responsible for this, if it's actually young master himself who took down the young miss's information or... it's that guy, Zaki."

Yuki's tone turned a bit sour as he mentioned Zaki's name, while the old man just sighed in disappointment as he heard his report. The old man was aware that if it's Sei who took it down, then looking for anything about her is now just chasing after the wind.

"That little punk as well. He's as tough as Sei. Even I can't get anything out of his mouth." The old man didn't stopped sighing making Yuki to smile mischievously. "Haha, that's why I think let's just give up for this one," he said looking as though, he finally escaped an overbearing task.

However, the next thing he heard from his boss instantly made his jaw dropped. "No, you continue investigating her, if computers and intelligence are useless then go back to the dark age and find something using the old style, even gossips may do."

Yuki let go a deep sigh and could only say 'ah, how stubborn' deep within him. He could only agree with what his master wishes. He noticed that the old man changed a little since his stay in the Gray mansion and it made him felt really relieved. Yukie was sure that it was all because of the young master's wife.

Yukie has been guarding Mr. Youjirou for almost a decade. He stayed in the palace since he was young so he had watched the master when he was still king. He could say that after more than a decade since he stepped down being a monarch, the only thing left in him as royalty was his majestic aura. His manners and protocols he practiced as a royalty was long gone. He was now just a normal billionaire who is longing for a great grandchild.

It was a long tiring day for Davi. Ms. Lee called her and the two went to the national library, then they spent the rest of the day shopping tirelessly.

After the teacher left, Davi and Yijin went straight to Sky Town.

Upon entering the house, as usual, Davi squeezed his little brother with hugs. Surprising the young man behind them a little.

"Sis, who's he?" Haru asked curiously as he stared at the boy her sister brought.

"Haru, this is Yijin, he's my husband's little brother. And Yijin, this is Haru, my younger brother." Davi normally introduced Yijin as Sei's little brother but Yijin was obviously taken aback by her introduction. Well, Yijin will never dare calling his master Sei of all people, his older brother.

That night, the three of them had a good time. Especially Haru who was excited meeting a new friend. The two boys spent their time playing video games until they passed out.
