

ILY Monster 56

It's already past midnight when a black car quietly entered the Gray mansion. Then a man with terrifying aura stepped out of it.

As soon as Yijin saw him, cold sweats ran down his cute pale cheeks.

Truth was that, when Davi didn't open the door for about an hour, he sent an emergency message to Sei even though he knows it's forbidden to contact him while he's still in that place. That was also the reason why he didn't give her his number.

He sent a short message 'Miss is in trouble', that's why when the miss who was supposed to be in trouble opened the door two hours later, Yijin realized his doom is coming. He knows that his boss is already on his way, and it's too late to tell him it was a false alarm.

"Where is she?" Sei's terrifying voice was enough to make Yijin felt weakened he's about to fall on his knees. The man was back to his usual self before he met the miss, stone cold and horrifying.

He was enveloped with pitch-dark aura that almost felt like everything he touches might get suffocated to death. He definitely felt unrecognizable if one compares him to his self when he's beside the miss.

"She's already asleep, boss." The young man finally answered.

"What happened?"

"Er, she... she... she... she was..." Yijin is in a huge trouble he could hardly speak. He knows, it's never a wise idea to anger him when he's like this. However, he couldn't think about anything else to tell him since lying was never an option.

"Just say it." Yijin once again shuddered in fear. Sei's cold voice never ceased to scare him but this time, his intensity seemed sky rocketed. Thus making him, prepared himself for the worst and just speak.

"Uhm... she... she... she said, she wanted to beat you."

As soon as those words came out of his mouth, a quiet breeze seemed to passed by as if the world went into a halt while an invisible three dots appeared above the head of the terrifying man.

The vampire looking man at the back also froze and the same three dots appeared above his head. A deafening silence lasted for a while and Sei was completely stunned. His pitch-dark aura started to froze as well.

On the other hand, the young troubled man could only cry quietly without tears. I'm sorry miss. Forgive me. I know this man will never lay a finger on you so... I have no other choice.

"Why?" That single word from Sei immediately made the young man breathed in relief as if he just escaped death. The coldness in his voice and aura drastically dropped.

Seeing this, Yijin decided to just talk, thinking he'll just kneel before the young miss and accept his punishment for betraying her when this great tribulation is over. "She... she said because you're so mean."

"Mean?" Sei went silent for a while and then he repeated what Yijin said as if he couldn't believe it at all.
"Why?"

"She was asking for your cellphone number and when I didn't give it to her, she stormed into the house and locked herself for five hours not letting anyone of us to enter."

Upon hearing Yijin's statement, Sei was speechless. His dark aura was subsiding, as his confusion and curiosity started to rise.

"The... the miss said she's so upset." Yijin continued and Sei suddenly looked like an ice statue with a crack. Sei didn't know why he felt like a huge meteor just fell on him just by hearing the news that his wife was upset.

"Hahaha. This is indeed trouble, a terrifyingly huge trouble. Hear me, Sei. She said you're mean and she wanted to beat you, meaning... you're the reason why she's upset." Zaki's loud voice suddenly echoed in the silent dark night. His face looks serious, however, he's actually laughing evilly deep within. His inexplicably dark expression when he arrived a moment ago already vanished into thin air.

On the other hand, the moment Sei heard Zaki's words, he remained motionless like stone. He looks too surprised that he couldn't seem to comprehend what was he hearing anymore. At the same time, he was shocked by his own reaction.

"What will you do now?" Zaki asked as he kept grinning deep within. Enjoying the amusing troubled look of this man who now looks completely different from his monstrous self, moments ago.

Instead of answering, Sei looked at Zaki and throw him his question back. "What should I do?"

That moment, Zaki laughed out loud in his mind as he put his arm into Sei's shoulder. "Easy... just let her beat you and it's over."

Ha ha ha. I would love to watch that. Wait, I should record it. Pfft. Hahaha.
