

ILY Monster 57

"Easy... just let her beat you and it's over."

Hearing Zaki's advice, Sei shrugged Zaki's hand off his shoulder.

"I can't wake her up now. We still need to go back right away," he said and Zaki could only tug his hair, showing his extreme disappointment.

Damn it! What a bad timing.

"Then just let her beat you when we're officially back, okay?" Zaki obviously sounds like he just wanted to see him being beaten by his wife so he just replied him a cold "Shut up" as he walked towards the entrance.

Some moments later, the door of the bedroom was pushed open gently and silently.

Footsteps then drew closer and Sei sat at the side of the bed as the yellow light from the bedside lamp lit the room softly.

Sei stared at the sleeping girl with a book in her hand for a while before he slowly took the book away and put it on the table.

For some unknown reason, looking at her peaceful angel-like feature, Sei suddenly felt strangely comforted. As if she was an alluring oasis in the middle of a vast dry land.

He watched her quietly like that for a long time until he reflexively started caressing her soft cheek gently as ever.

Shortly after, Sei was stunned finding himself touching her face. And he was about to pull back when Davi suddenly reached out her hand causing Sei to froze as if he was a thief caught red-handed. Davi immediately caught his hand with her eyes closed then she hugged it as if his hand was some teddy bear. At that very moment, he remained thunder stricken while the girl just continued sleeping soundly without letting go of his hand.

Sei didn't move an inch after that. He can't wake her up and he needed to leave as soon as possible. However, he didn't know how to remove his hand without her waking up.

Meanwhile, Zaki sent Sei a message. They're running out of time and they needed to leave now. However, what Sei replied to him made him looked at it twice with widened eyes. "Bring me teddy bear."

"Huh?! Teddy bear?! Why?" Zaki's loud voice echoed in the quiet large sofa. But he soon somehow understood what was going on.

"Yijin, find a teddy bear, fast. Go to the maids' house, they might have one there." Yijin instantly disappeared and after some moments, a small teddy bear was now on his hand.

Zaki took it and he immediately ran upstairs. Upon opening the door of their room gently, his eyes bulge out when he saw Sei in an awkward position as the girl was hugging his hand. He walked quietly beside Sei, trying his very best to not make any noise. Zaki was aware that the moment they awakened her, they might not leave the house in time anymore.

Thus, as if they were elite partners who're in a process of defusing a bomb, Sei started pulling his hand from her grasp while Zaki was replacing it with a bear. However, midway along the process, Davi's brows knitted, causing the two guys to immediately halted and held their breaths. They stood still motionless, as if they instantly turned into perfect figures made of stone for a long while until the girl went back to her deep sleep again.

The moment the girl fell deeply asleep again, Zaki signaled Sei to continue removing his hand and after a short while, they finally succeeded. However, just right after Sei stood, Davi unexpectedly moved and out of nowhere, Zaki suddenly pulled Sei down, signaling him to immediately hide. With confused face, Sei didn't have a choice but to follow the guy who's pulling him, thus the two ended up lying down on the floor, as though they were soldiers hiding from their enemies. Zaki was covering his mouth, looking like a child who was desperately trying to suppress his laughter, while Sei was like a confused stone, looking as though he was wondering what the hell are they doing and what the hell is going on.

A second after that, they heard her moaned. Then the two went completely frozen when the light was turned off.

Damn! She's awake!

Thankfully, she seemed to be half-awake when she turned the light off and she returned to sleep right away. The moment they realize she's asleep, the two carefully walked out of the room like ninjas.

And as soon as they reached the sofa, the two breathed so deep as if they just came from a place with no oxygen.

The experience was one hell of a kind that the two of them doesn't know how to react. They've never been in a situation like this before.

Holy sh*t! That was extreme.

Zaki soon burst out as soon as they were out of the house that he even teared up and rolled on the ground. Sei on the other hand just looked back at the house. He stood there quietly for a moment before walking back to the car.
