

ILY Monster 63

W-what's going on? Is this another surprise attack?

Davi wanted to think he's just kidding but knowing this man, he will never say words he didn't mean. She knew he couldn't even handle a joke, making it impossible for him to even joke around.

Then what is he trying to make me do? Did he really think I'm going to beat him? Seriously?

Thinking about it, Davi was lost for words. And while she was struggling to think properly, the man just sat beside her quietly as if he was a cute little kid waiting for his punishment.

His quiet stone cold demeanor and his almost unreal visual made him a semblance of a perfect life sized figurine.

Who on earth would beat a man like this?

Looking at him that moment almost couldn't stop Davi's urge to just squeeze him tenderly. She didn't know why but every time he acts like that, he seemed to completely switched from a cold lifeless stone into an adorable soft beast in her eyes.

Thankfully, Davi managed to suppress herself since her dearest brain finally started working at its fullest. Even turning her instantly into mission mode again.

Truth was that, Davi was puzzled and she still couldn't believe it at all. She still couldn't help but ask herself why.

However, the fact that he actually asked her to go ahead and beat him made her find a certain perfect opportunity to execute another step whether he was serious about it or not.

At that very moment, the first step that crossed her mind was...

'Step #15; be bold'

As stated by Hinari the great, in the science of seduction, although not at all times, boldness is greatly needed. She said that there are times that she has to take risk and bet for herself and see what will happen.

Thus, at that moment, Davi decided to do something in a higher level and more challenging. And so without wasting time, she immediately began.

Davi breathed deep as she looked intently at the man beside her.

"Okay then, consider this your punishment for upsetting me." She said, looking like a lady general preparing to reprimand her delinquent soldier, while the man just calmly uttered a single sound, as if what she's about to do to him was just some playful pinching. "Mm."

Looking at his usual collected and serene self, Davi then stood vigorously as if she seriously want to beat him for real while Sei just remained sitting on the couch, motionless.

"Close your eyes." She said as she stretches her arms.

And like an obedient kid, Sei then quietly closed his eyes as he remained unmoved like stone. A sight which almost made Davi burst out and just hug him tight. At the same time, looking at him that moment made her think that she can't possibly hit this man of all people. However, because of her mission, she has to punish him.

Thus, after she stared at him for quite a while, she finally made the most awaited move.

She raised her fist and she started counting.

"One... two... two and a half... three!"

The moment the last number came out of her mouth, Davi's hand immediately landed on his shoulder, softly and...

A kiss landed on his lips.
