

ILY Monster 77

By the time Davi finally awakened from the brief shock, she started feeling the warmth of the man hugging her. His strong arms that was wrapped around her made her felt an indescribable feeling of security.

Davi haven't even raised her face yet but she could already tell who it was. She knew that no one other than him would come flying towards her like this to rescue her. And most of all, she knew that, no one other than him could warm her entire soul and make her heart flutters wildly.

That moment, Davi just hugged him back as tight as she could as she buried herself into his warm embrace.

She couldn't believe that she was saved by him again.

On the other hand, Sei who was currently looking at Wu Rei with deadly sharp glares and indescribable rage instantly froze as though the deep darkness in his eyes disappeared the moment she felt her hugged him back tightly as ever.

The man who looks exactly like a dark beast from hell just now, turned into a soft unknown creature in no time. Causing Wu Rei who was immediately weakened as if he was a rabbit in front of a terrifying lion to finally breath again.

Wu Rei's frozen brain also started working. He was mystified and completely horrified. He never felt this kind of atrocious feeling to anyone else before. The country's general, his father, whom he thought the scariest person on earth didn't even reached halfway to the level of this man in front of him. He exactly felt like the definition of devil itself.

However, looking at him hugging the wild-girl-turned-submissive-cat in his embrace, doubt flashed across his eyes. Wu Rei, being the only heir of Yang family which was one of the country's richest family was familiar with all the big names, even the secret ones. And yet he was sure he never seen this man at all, even though in one glance, he was certain that he was no ordinary. He could tell just by looking at him that he might even be greater than what he could imagine. His curiosity about the mysterious man was even greater than his jealousy that he even thought about snapping a photo of him and ask his father to investigate him.

Unfortunately, before he could even lift his cellphone, the disguised Zaki appeared in front of him. His gaze was almost as scary as the mysterious man behind. His glare was deadly as if telling him that he'll die the moment he does it.

That moment, Wu Rei reflexively stepped back. And like a kid who just saw a ghost, he hastily ran back on his car and sped away like idiot, leaving his unconscious comrade just like that.

Meanwhile, the couple who was immersed in their own world didn't even notice that Wu Rei was long gone until Zaki dragged them back to reality.

"Hey, both of you! You can't just flirt like that in broad daylight. Look, kids right there were all looking," he said and upon hearing him, Davi finally snapped and immediately let go of him.

However, the moment she raised her head and looked at his face, the world seemed to stand still and her mouth slowly hung open.
